Proverbs 22:4 The reward for humility and fear of the LORD is riches and honor and life.

Proverbs 22:5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse; he who guards himself will keep far from them.

Proverbs 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.

Proverbs 22:7 The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is the slave of the lender.

Proverbs 22:8 He who sows injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of his fury will fail.

Proverbs 22:9 He who has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.

Proverbs 22:10 Drive out a scoffer, and strife will go out, and quarreling and abuse will cease.

Proverbs 22:11 He who loves purity of heart, and whose speech is gracious, will have the king as his friend.

Proverbs 22:12 The eyes of the LORD keep watch over knowledge, but he overthrows the words of the faithless.

Proverbs 22:13 The sluggard says, “There is a lion outside! I shall be slain in the streets!”

Proverbs 22:14 The mouth of a loose woman is a deep pit; he with whom the LORD is angry will fall into it.

Proverbs 22:15 Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline drives it far from him.

Proverbs 22:16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his own wealth, or gives to the rich, will only come to want.

Proverbs 22:17 Incline your ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply your mind to my knowledge;

Proverbs 22:18 for it will be pleasant if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips.

Proverbs 22:19 That your trust may be in the LORD, I have made them known to you today, even to you.

Proverbs 22:20 Have I not written for you thirty sayings of admonition and knowledge,

Proverbs 22:21 to show you what is right and true, that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?

Proverbs 22:22 Do not rob the poor, because he is poor, or crush the afflicted at the gate;

Proverbs 22:23 for the LORD will plead their cause and despoil of life those who despoil them.

Proverbs 22:24 Make no friendship with a man given to anger, nor go with a wrathful man,

Proverbs 22:25 lest you learn his ways and entangle yourself in a snare.

Proverbs 22:26 Be not one of those who give pledges, who become surety for debts.

Proverbs 22:27 If you have nothing with which to pay, why should your bed be taken from under you?

Proverbs 22:28 Remove not the ancient landmark which your fathers have set.

Proverbs 22:29 Do you see a man skilful in his work? he will stand before kings; he will not stand before obscure men.

Proverbs 23:1 When you sit down to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you;

Proverbs 23:2 and put a knife to your throat if you are a man given to appetite.

Proverbs 23:3 Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.

Proverbs 23:4 Do not toil to acquire wealth; be wise enough to desist.

Proverbs 23:5 When your eyes light upon it, it is gone; for suddenly it takes to itself wings, flying like an eagle toward heaven.

Proverbs 23:6 Do not eat the bread of a man who is stingy; do not desire his delicacies;

Proverbs 23:7 for he is like one who is inwardly reckoning. “Eat and drink!” he says to you; but his heart is not with you.

Proverbs 23:8 You will vomit up the morsels which you have eaten, and waste your pleasant words.

Proverbs 23:9 Do not speak in the hearing of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

Proverbs 23:10 Do not remove an ancient landmark or enter the fields of the fatherless;

Proverbs 23:11 for their Redeemer is strong; he will plead their cause against you.

Proverbs 23:12 Apply your mind to instruction and your ear to words of knowledge.

Proverbs 23:13 Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you beat him with a rod, he will not die.

Proverbs 23:14 If you beat him with the rod you will save his life from Sheol.

Proverbs 23:15 My son, if your heart is wise, my heart too will be glad.

Proverbs 23:16 My soul will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

Proverbs 23:17 Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day.

Proverbs 23:18 Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off.

Proverbs 23:19 Hear, my son, and be wise, and direct your mind in the way.

Proverbs 23:20 Be not among winebibbers, or among gluttonous eaters of meat;

Proverbs 23:21 for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe a man with rags.

Proverbs 23:22 Hearken to your father who begot you, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

Proverbs 23:23 Buy truth, and do not sell it; buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding.

Proverbs 23:24 The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; he who begets a wise son will be glad in him.

Proverbs 23:25 Let your father and mother be glad, let her who bore you rejoice.

Proverbs 23:26 My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways.

Proverbs 23:27 For a harlot is a deep pit; an adventuress is a narrow well.

Proverbs 23:28 She lies in wait like a robber and increases the faithless among men.

Proverbs 23:29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaining? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?

Proverbs 23:30 Those who tarry long over wine, those who go to try mixed wine.

Proverbs 23:31 Do not look at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup and goes down smoothly.

Proverbs 23:32 At the last it bites like a serpent, and stings like an adder.

Proverbs 23:33 Your eyes will see strange things, and your mind utter perverse things.

Proverbs 23:34 You will be like one who lies down in the midst of the sea, like one who lies on the top of a mast.

Proverbs 23:35 “They struck me,” you will say, “but I was not hurt; they beat me, but I did not feel it. When shall I awake? I will seek another drink.”

Proverbs 24:1 Be not envious of evil men, nor desire to be with them;

Proverbs 24:2 for their minds devise violence, and their lips talk of mischief.

Proverbs 24:3 By wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established;

Proverbs 24:4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

Proverbs 24:5 A wise man is mightier than a strong man, and a man of knowledge than he who has strength;

Proverbs 24:6 for by wise guidance you can wage your war, and in abundance of counselors there is victory.

Proverbs 24:7 Wisdom is too high for a fool; in the gate he does not open his mouth.

Proverbs 24:8 He who plans to do evil will be called a mischief-maker.

Proverbs 24:9 The devising of folly is sin, and the scoffer is an abomination to men.

Proverbs 24:10 If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

Proverbs 24:11 Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter.

Proverbs 24:12 If you say, “Behold, we did not know this,” does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not requite man according to his work?

Proverbs 24:13 My son, eat honey, for it is good, and the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.

Proverbs 24:14 Know that wisdom is such to your soul; if you find it, there will be a future, and your hope will not be cut off.

Proverbs 24:15 Lie not in wait as a wicked man against the dwelling of the righteous; do not violence to his home;

Proverbs 24:16 for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises again; but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.

Proverbs 24:17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles;

Proverbs 24:18 lest the LORD see it, and be displeased, and turn away his anger from him.

Proverbs 24:19 Fret not yourself because of evildoers, and be not envious of the wicked;

Proverbs 24:20 for the evil man has no future; the lamp of the wicked will be put out.

Proverbs 24:21 My son, fear the LORD and the king, and do not disobey either of them;

Proverbs 24:22 for disaster from them will rise suddenly, and who knows the ruin that will come from them both?

Proverbs 24:23 These also are sayings of the wise. Partiality in judging is not good.

Proverbs 24:24 He who says to the wicked, “You are innocent,” will be cursed by peoples, abhorred by nations;

Proverbs 24:25 but those who rebuke the wicked will have delight, and a good blessing will be upon them.

Proverbs 24:26 He who gives a right answer kisses the lips.

Proverbs 24:27 Prepare your work outside, get everything ready for you in the field; and after that build your house.

Proverbs 24:28 Be not a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.

Proverbs 24:29 Do not say, “I will do to him as he has done to me; I will pay the man back for what he has done.”

Proverbs 24:30 I passed by the field of a sluggard, by the vineyard of a man without sense;

Proverbs 24:31 and lo, it was all overgrown with thorns; the ground was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down.

Proverbs 24:32 Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction.

Proverbs 24:33 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest,

Proverbs 24:34 and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and want like an armed man.

Proverbs 25:1 These also are proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied.

Proverbs 25:2 It is the glory of God to conceal things, but the glory of kings is to search things out.

Proverbs 25:3 As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the mind of kings is unsearchable.

Proverbs 25:4 Take away the dross from the silver, and the smith has material for a vessel;

Proverbs 25:5 take away the wicked from the presence of the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

Proverbs 25:6 Do not put yourself forward in the king’s presence or stand in the place of the great;

Proverbs 25:7 for it is better to be told, “Come up here,” than to be put lower in the presence of the prince. What your eyes have seen

Proverbs 25:8 do not hastily bring into court; for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame?

Proverbs 25:9 Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not disclose another’s secret;

Proverbs 25:10 lest he who hears you bring shame upon you, and your ill repute have no end.

Proverbs 25:11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in a setting of silver.

Proverbs 25:12 Like a gold ring or an ornament of gold is a wise reprover to a listening ear.

Proverbs 25:13 Like the cold of snow in the time of harvest is a faithful messenger to those who send him, he refreshes the spirit of his masters.

Proverbs 25:14 Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of a gift he does not give.

Proverbs 25:15 With patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue will break a bone.

Proverbs 25:16 If you have found honey, eat only enough for you, lest you be sated with it and vomit it.

Proverbs 25:17 Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, lest he become weary of you and hate you.

Proverbs 25:18 A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a war club, or a sword, or a sharp arrow.

Proverbs 25:19 Trust in a faithless man in time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips.

Proverbs 25:20 He who sings songs to a heavy heart is like one who takes off a garment on a cold day, and like vinegar on a wound.

Proverbs 25:21 If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

Proverbs 25:22 for you will heap coals of fire on his head, and the LORD will reward you.

Proverbs 25:23 The north wind brings forth rain; and a backbiting tongue, angry looks.

Proverbs 25:24 It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

Proverbs 25:25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

Proverbs 25:26 Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.

Proverbs 25:27 It is not good to eat much honey, so be sparing of complimentary words.

Proverbs 25:28 A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.

Proverbs 26:1 Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.

Proverbs 26:2 Like a sparrow in its flitting, like a swallow in its flying, a curse that is causeless does not alight.

Proverbs 26:3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the back of fools.

Proverbs 26:4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest you be like him yourself.

Proverbs 26:5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.

Proverbs 26:6 He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.

Proverbs 26:7 Like a lame man’s legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

Proverbs 26:8 Like one who binds the stone in the sling is he who gives honor to a fool.

Proverbs 26:9 Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

Proverbs 26:10 Like an archer who wounds everybody is he who hires a passing fool or drunkard.

Proverbs 26:11 Like a dog that returns to his vomit is a fool that repeats his folly.

Proverbs 26:12 Do you see a man who is wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Proverbs 26:13 The sluggard says, “There is a lion in the road! There is a lion in the streets!”

Proverbs 26:14 As a door turns on its hinges, so does a sluggard on his bed.

Proverbs 26:15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; it wears him out to bring it back to his mouth.

Proverbs 26:16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can answer discreetly.

Proverbs 26:17 He who meddles in a quarrel not his own is like one who takes a passing dog by the ears.

Proverbs 26:18 Like a madman who throws firebrands, arrows, and death,

Proverbs 26:19 is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, “I am only joking!”

Proverbs 26:20 For lack of wood the fire goes out; and where there is no whisperer, quarreling ceases.

Proverbs 26:21 As charcoal to hot embers and wood to fire, so is a quarrelsome man for kindling strife.

Proverbs 26:22 The words of a whisperer are like delicious morsels; they go down into the inner parts of the body.

Proverbs 26:23 Like the glaze covering an earthen vessel are smooth lips with an evil heart.

Proverbs 26:24 He who hates, dissembles with his lips and harbors deceit in his heart;

Proverbs 26:25 when he speaks graciously, believe him not, for there are seven abominations in his heart;

Proverbs 26:26 though his hatred be covered with guile, his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

Proverbs 26:27 He who digs a pit will fall into it, and a stone will come back upon him who starts it rolling.

Proverbs 26:28 A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Proverbs 27:1 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth.

Proverbs 27:2 Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips.

Proverbs 27:3 A stone is heavy, and sand is weighty, but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.

Proverbs 27:4 Wrath is cruel, anger is overwhelming; but who can stand before jealousy?

Proverbs 27:5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.

Proverbs 27:6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy.

Proverbs 27:7 He who is sated loathes honey, but to one who is hungry everything bitter is sweet.

Proverbs 27:8 Like a bird that strays from its nest, is a man who strays from his home.

Proverbs 27:9 Oil and perfume make the heart glad, but the soul is torn by trouble.

Proverbs 27:10 Your friend, and your father's friend, do not forsake; and do not go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity. Better is a neighbor who is near than a brother who is far away.

Proverbs 27:11 Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me.

Proverbs 27:12 A prudent man sees danger and hides himself; but the simple go on, and suffer for it.

Proverbs 27:13 Take a man's garment when he has given surety for a stranger, and hold him in pledge when he gives surety for foreigners.

Proverbs 27:14 He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, will be counted as cursing.

Proverbs 27:15 A continual dripping on a rainy day and a contentious woman are alike;

Proverbs 27:16 to restrain her is to restrain the wind or to grasp oil in his right hand.

Proverbs 27:17 Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.

Proverbs 27:18 He who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who guards his master will be honored.

Proverbs 27:19 As in water face answers to face, so the mind of man reflects the man.

Proverbs 27:20 Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and never satisfied are the eyes of man.

Proverbs 27:21 The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and a man is judged by his praise.

Proverbs 27:22 Crush a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain, yet his folly will not depart from him.

Proverbs 27:23 Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds;

Proverbs 27:24 for riches do not last for ever; and does a crown endure to all generations?

Proverbs 27:25 When the grass is gone, and the new growth appears, and the herbage of the mountains is gathered,

Proverbs 27:26 the lambs will provide your clothing, and the goats the price of a field;

Proverbs 27:27 there will be enough goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household and maintenance for your maidens.

Proverbs 28:1 The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion.

Proverbs 28:2 When a land transgresses it has many rulers; but with men of understanding and knowledge its stability will long continue.

Proverbs 28:3 A poor man who oppresses the poor is a beating rain that leaves no food.

Proverbs 28:4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law strive against them.

Proverbs 28:5 Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it completely.

Proverbs 28:6 Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than a rich man who is perverse in his ways.

Proverbs 28:7 He who keeps the law is a wise son, but a companion of gluttons shames his father.

Proverbs 28:8 He who augments his wealth by interest and increase gathers it for him who is kind to the poor.

Proverbs 28:9 If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.

Proverbs 28:10 He who misleads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit; but the blameless will have a goodly inheritance.

Proverbs 28:11 A rich man is wise in his own eyes, but a poor man who has understanding will find him out.

Proverbs 28:12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.

Proverbs 28:13 He who conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy.

Proverbs 28:14 Blessed is the man who fears the LORD always; but he who hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

Proverbs 28:15 Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people.

Proverbs 28:16 A ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor; but he who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.

Proverbs 28:17 If a man is burdened with the blood of another, let him be a fugitive until death; let no one help him.

Proverbs 28:18 He who walks in integrity will be delivered, but he who is perverse in his ways will fall into a pit.

Proverbs 28:19 He who tills his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

Proverbs 28:20 A faithful man will abound with blessings, but he who hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

Proverbs 28:21 To show partiality is not good; but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.

Proverbs 28:22 A miserly man hastens after wealth, and does not know that want will come upon him.

Proverbs 28:23 He who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than he who flatters with his tongue.

Proverbs 28:24 He who robs his father or his mother and says, “That is no transgression,” is the companion of a man who destroys.

Proverbs 28:25 A greedy man stirs up strife, but he who trusts in the LORD will be enriched.

Proverbs 28:26 He who trusts in his own mind is a fool; but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered.

Proverbs 28:27 He who gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.

Proverbs 28:28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves, but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Proverbs 29:1 He who is often reproved, yet stiffens his neck will suddenly be broken beyond healing.

Proverbs 29:2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

Proverbs 29:3 He who loves wisdom makes his father glad, but one who keeps company with harlots squanders his substance.

Proverbs 29:4 By justice a king gives stability to the land, but one who exacts gifts ruins it.

Proverbs 29:5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

Proverbs 29:6 An evil man is ensnared in his transgression, but a righteous man sings and rejoices.

Proverbs 29:7 A righteous man knows the rights of the poor; a wicked man does not understand such knowledge.

Proverbs 29:8 Scoffers set a city aflame, but wise men turn away wrath.

Proverbs 29:9 If a wise man has an argument with a fool, the fool only rages and laughs, and there is no quiet.

Proverbs 29:10 Bloodthirsty men hate one who is blameless, and the wicked seek his life.

Proverbs 29:11 A fool gives full vent to his anger, but a wise man quietly holds it back.

Proverbs 29:12 If a ruler listens to falsehood, all his officials will be wicked.

Proverbs 29:13 The poor man and the oppressor meet together; the LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

Proverbs 29:14 If a king judges the poor with equity his throne will be established for ever.

Proverbs 29:15 The rod and reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

Proverbs 29:16 When the wicked are in authority, transgression increases; but the righteous will look upon their downfall.

Proverbs 29:17 Discipline your son, and he will give you rest; he will give delight to your heart.

Proverbs 29:18 Where there is no prophecy the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law.

Proverbs 29:19 By mere words a servant is not disciplined, for though he understands, he will not give heed.

Proverbs 29:20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Proverbs 29:21 He who pampers his servant from childhood, will in the end find him his heir.

Proverbs 29:22 A man of wrath stirs up strife, and a man given to anger causes much transgression.

Proverbs 29:23 A man’s pride will bring him low, but he who is lowly in spirit will obtain honor.

Proverbs 29:24 The partner of a thief hates his own life; he hears the curse, but discloses nothing.

Proverbs 29:25 The fear of man lays a snare, but he who trusts in the LORD is safe.

Proverbs 29:26 Many seek the favor of a ruler, but from the LORD a man gets justice.

Proverbs 29:27 An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, but he whose way is straight is an abomination to the wicked.

Proverbs 30:1 The words of Agur son of Jakeh of Massa. The man says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:

Proverbs 30:2 Surely I am too stupid to be a man. I have not the understanding of a man.

Proverbs 30:3 I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.

Proverbs 30:4 Who has ascended to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name? Surely you know!

Proverbs 30:5 Every word of God proves true; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

Proverbs 30:6 Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you, and you be found a liar.

Proverbs 30:7 Two things I ask of thee; deny them not to me before I die:

Proverbs 30:8 Remove far from me falsehood and lying; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me,

Proverbs 30:9 lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, "Who is the LORD?" or lest I be poor, and steal, and profane the name of my God.

Proverbs 30:10 Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.

Proverbs 30:11 There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.

Proverbs 30:12 There are those who are pure in their own eyes but are not cleansed of their filth.

Proverbs 30:13 There are those—how lofty are their eyes, how high their eyelids lift!

Proverbs 30:14 There are those whose teeth are swords, whose teeth are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among men.

Proverbs 30:15 The leech has two daughters; "Give, give," they cry. Three things are never satisfied; four never say, "Enough":

Proverbs 30:16 Sheol, the barren womb, the earth ever thirsty for water, and the fire which never says, “Enough.”

Proverbs 30:17 The eye that mocks a father and scorns to obey a mother will be picked out by the ravens of the valley and eaten by the vultures.

Proverbs 30:18 Three things are too wonderful for me; four I do not understand:

Proverbs 30:19 the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a serpent on a rock, the way of a ship on the high seas, and the way of a man with a maiden.

Proverbs 30:20 This is the way of an adulteress: she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, “I have done no wrong.”

Proverbs 30:21 Under three things the earth trembles; under four it cannot bear up:

Proverbs 30:22 a slave when he becomes king, and a fool when he is filled with food;

Proverbs 30:23 an unloved woman when she gets a husband, and a maid when she succeeds her mistress.

Proverbs 30:24 Four things on earth are small, but they are exceedingly wise:

Proverbs 30:25 the ants are a people not strong, yet they provide their food in the summer;

Proverbs 30:26 the badgers are a people not mighty, yet they make their homes in the rocks;

Proverbs 30:27 the locusts have no king, yet all of them march in rank;

Proverbs 30:28 the lizard you can take in your hands, yet it is in kings’ palaces.

Proverbs 30:29 Three things are stately in their tread; four are stately in their stride:

Proverbs 30:30 the lion, which is mightiest among beasts and does not turn back before any;

Proverbs 30:31 the strutting cock, the he-goat, and a king striding before his people.

Proverbs 30:32 If you have been foolish, exalting yourself, or if you have been devising evil, put your hand on your mouth.

Proverbs 30:33 For pressing milk produces curds, pressing the nose produces blood, and pressing anger produces strife.

Proverbs 31:1 The words of Lemuel, king of Massa, which his mother taught him:

Proverbs 31:2 What, my son? What, son of my womb? What, son of my vows?

Proverbs 31:3 Give not your strength to women, your ways to those who destroy kings.

Proverbs 31:4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, or for rulers to desire strong drink;

Proverbs 31:5 lest they drink and forget what has been decreed, and pervert the rights of all the afflicted.

Proverbs 31:6 Give strong drink to him who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress;

Proverbs 31:7 let them drink and forget their poverty, and remember their misery no more.

Proverbs 31:8 Open your mouth for the dumb, for the rights of all who are left desolate.

Proverbs 31:9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, maintain the rights of the poor and needy.

Proverbs 31:10 A good wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels.

Proverbs 31:11 The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain.

Proverbs 31:12 She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life.

Proverbs 31:13 She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands.

Proverbs 31:14 She is like the ships of the merchant, she brings her food from afar.

Proverbs 31:15 She rises while it is yet night and provides food for her household and tasks for her maidens.

Proverbs 31:16 She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

Proverbs 31:17 She girds her loins with strength and makes her arms strong.

Proverbs 31:18 She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night.

Proverbs 31:19 She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.

Proverbs 31:20 She opens her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy.

Proverbs 31:21 She is not afraid of snow for her household, for all her household are clothed in scarlet.

Proverbs 31:22 She makes herself coverings; her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Proverbs 31:23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land.

Proverbs 31:24 She makes linen garments and sells them; she delivers girdles to the merchant.

Proverbs 31:25 Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come.

Proverbs 31:26 She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

Proverbs 31:27 She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Proverbs 31:28 Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her:

Proverbs 31:29 “Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all.”

Proverbs 31:30 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Proverbs 31:31 Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.

Ecclesiastes

1:1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 1:2 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 1:3 What does man gain by all the toil at which he toils under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 1:4 A generation goes, and a generation comes, but the earth remains for ever.

Ecclesiastes 1:5 The sun rises and the sun goes down, and hastens to the place where it rises.

Ecclesiastes 1:6 The wind blows to the south, and goes round to the north; round and round goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns.

Ecclesiastes 1:7 All streams run to the sea, but the sea is not full; to the place where the streams flow, there they flow again.

Ecclesiastes 1:8 All things are full of weariness; a man cannot utter it; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

Ecclesiastes 1:9 What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; and there is nothing new under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 1:10 Is there a thing of which it is said, “See, this is new”? It has been already, in the ages before us.

Ecclesiastes 1:11 There is no remembrance of former things, nor will there be any remembrance of later things yet to happen among those who come after.

Ecclesiastes 1:12 I the Preacher have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 1:13 And I applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to the sons of men to be busy with.

Ecclesiastes 1:14 I have seen everything that is done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:15 What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be numbered.

Ecclesiastes 1:16 I said to myself, “I have acquired great wisdom, surpassing all who were over Jerusalem before me; and my mind has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.”

Ecclesiastes 1:17 And I applied my mind to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is but a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:18 For in much wisdom is much vexation, and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

Ecclesiastes 2:1 I said to myself, “Come now, I will make a test of pleasure; enjoy yourself.” But behold, this also was vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:2 I said of laughter, “It is mad,” and of pleasure, “What use is it?”

Ecclesiastes 2:3 I searched with my mind how to cheer my body with wine—my mind still guiding me with wisdom—and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven during the few days of their life.

Ecclesiastes 2:4 I made great works; I built houses and planted vineyards for myself;

Ecclesiastes 2:5 I made myself gardens and parks, and planted in them all kinds of fruit trees.

Ecclesiastes 2:6 I made myself pools from which to water the forest of growing trees.

Ecclesiastes 2:7 I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves who were born in my house; I had also great possessions of herds and flocks, more than any who had been before me in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 2:8 I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and provinces; I got singers, both men and women, and many concubines, man’s delight.

Ecclesiastes 2:9 So I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem; also my wisdom remained with me.

Ecclesiastes 2:10 And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them; I kept my heart from no pleasure, for my heart found pleasure in all my toil, and this was my reward for all my toil.

Ecclesiastes 2:11 Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had spent in doing it, and behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:12 So I turned to consider wisdom and madness and folly; for what can the man do who comes after the king? Only what he has already done.

Ecclesiastes 2:13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly as light excels darkness.

Ecclesiastes 2:14 The wise man has his eyes in his head, but the fool walks in darkness; and yet I perceived that one fate comes to all of them.

Ecclesiastes 2:15 Then I said to myself, “What befalls the fool will befall me also; why then have I been so very wise?” And I said to myself that this also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:16 For of the wise man as of the fool there is no enduring remembrance, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. How the wise man dies just like the fool!

Ecclesiastes 2:17 So I hated life, because what is done under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 2:18 I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me;

Ecclesiastes 2:19 and who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:20 So I turned about and gave my heart up to despair over all the toil of my labors under the sun,

Ecclesiastes 2:21 because sometimes a man who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by a man who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

Ecclesiastes 2:22 What has a man from all the toil and strain with which he toils beneath the sun?

Ecclesiastes 2:23 For all his days are full of pain, and his work is a vexation; even in the night his mind does not rest. This also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 2:24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and find enjoyment in his toil. This also, I saw, is from the hand of God;

Ecclesiastes 2:25 for apart from him who can eat or who can have enjoyment?

Ecclesiastes 2:26 For to the man who pleases him God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy; but to the sinner he gives the work of gathering and heaping, only to give to one who pleases God. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

Ecclesiastes 3:2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

Ecclesiastes 3:3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

Ecclesiastes 3:4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

Ecclesiastes 3:5 a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

Ecclesiastes 3:6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

Ecclesiastes 3:7 a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

Ecclesiastes 3:8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:9 What gain has the worker from his toil?

Ecclesiastes 3:10 I have seen the business that God has given to the sons of men to be busy with.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 He has made everything beautiful in its time; also he has put eternity into man’s mind, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end.

Ecclesiastes 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for them than to be happy and enjoy themselves as long as they live;

Ecclesiastes 3:13 also that it is God’s gift to man that every one should eat and drink and take pleasure in all his toil.

Ecclesiastes 3:14 I know that whatever God does endures for ever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; God has made it so, in order that men should fear before him.

Ecclesiastes 3:15 That which is, already has been; that which is to be, already has been; and God seeks what has been driven away.

Ecclesiastes 3:16 Moreover I saw under the sun that in the place of justice, even there was wickedness, and in the place of righteousness, even there was wickedness.

Ecclesiastes 3:17 I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for he has appointed a time for every matter, and for every work.

Ecclesiastes 3:18 I said in my heart with regard to the sons of men that God is testing them to show them that they are but beasts.

Ecclesiastes 3:19 For the fate of the sons of men and the fate of beasts is the same; as one dies, so dies the other. They all have the same breath, and man has no advantage over the beasts; for all is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 3:20 All go to one place; all are from the dust, and all turn to dust again.

Ecclesiastes 3:21 Who knows whether the spirit of man goes upward and the spirit of the beast goes down to the earth?

Ecclesiastes 3:22 So I saw that there is nothing better than that a man should enjoy his work, for that is his lot; who can bring him to see what will be after him?

Ecclesiastes 4:1 Again I saw all the oppressions that are practiced under the sun. And behold, the tears of the oppressed, and they had no one to comfort them! On the side of their oppressors there was power, and there was no one to comfort them.

Ecclesiastes 4:2 And I thought the dead who are already dead more fortunate than the living who are still alive;

Ecclesiastes 4:3 but better than both is he who has not yet been, and has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 4:4 Then I saw that all toil and all skill in work come from a man’s envy of his neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:5 The fool folds his hands, and eats his own flesh.

Ecclesiastes 4:6 Better is a handful of quietness than two hands full of toil and a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:7 Again, I saw vanity under the sun:

Ecclesiastes 4:8 a person who has no one, either son or brother, yet there is no end to all his toil, and his eyes are never satisfied with riches, so that he never asks, “For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?” This also is vanity and an unhappy business.

Ecclesiastes 4:9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil.

Ecclesiastes 4:10 For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up.

Ecclesiastes 4:11 Again, if two lie together, they are warm; but how can one be warm alone?

Ecclesiastes 4:12 And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him. A threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:13 Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who will no longer take advice, Ecclesiastes 4:14 even though he had gone from prison to the throne or in his own kingdom had been born poor.

Ecclesiastes 4:15 I saw all the living who move about under the sun, as well as that youth, who was to stand in his place;

Ecclesiastes 4:16 there was no end of all the people; he was over all of them. Yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 5:1 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God; to draw near to listen is better than to offer the sacrifice of fools; for they do not know that they are doing evil.

Ecclesiastes 5:2 Be not rash with your mouth, nor let your heart be hasty to utter a word before God, for God is in heaven, and you upon earth; therefore let your words be few.

Ecclesiastes 5:3 For a dream comes with much business, and a fool's voice with many words.

Ecclesiastes 5:4 When you vow a vow to God, do not delay paying it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you vow.

Ecclesiastes 5:5 It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay.

Ecclesiastes 5:6 Let not your mouth lead you into sin, and do not say before the messenger that it was a mistake; why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands?

Ecclesiastes 5:7 For when dreams increase, empty words grow many: but do you fear God.

Ecclesiastes 5:8 If you see in a province the poor oppressed and justice and right violently taken away, do not be amazed at the matter; for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them.

Ecclesiastes 5:9 But in all, a king is an advantage to a land with cultivated fields.

Ecclesiastes 5:10 He who loves money will not be satisfied with money; nor he who loves wealth, with gain: this also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 5:11 When goods increase, they increase who eat them; and what gain has their owner but to see them with his eyes?

Ecclesiastes 5:12 Sweet is the sleep of a laborer, whether he eats little or much; but the surfeit of the rich will not let him sleep.

Ecclesiastes 5:13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owner to his hurt,

Ecclesiastes 5:14 and those riches were lost in a bad venture; and he is father of a son, but he has nothing in his hand.

Ecclesiastes 5:15 As he came from his mother’s womb he shall go again, naked as he came, and shall take nothing for his toil, which he may carry away in his hand.

Ecclesiastes 5:16 This also is a grievous evil: just as he came, so shall he go; and what gain has he that he toiled for the wind,

Ecclesiastes 5:17 and spent all his days in darkness and grief, in much vexation and sickness and resentment?

Ecclesiastes 5:18 Behold, what I have seen to be good and to be fitting is to eat and drink and find enjoyment in all the toil with which one toils under the sun the few days of his life which God has given him, for this is his lot.

Ecclesiastes 5:19 Every man also to whom God has given wealth and possessions and power to enjoy them, and to accept his lot and find enjoyment in his toil—this is the gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 5:20 For he will not much remember the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with joy in his heart.

Ecclesiastes 6:1 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it lies heavy upon men:

Ecclesiastes 6:2 a man to whom God gives wealth, possessions, and honor, so that he lacks nothing of all that he desires, yet God does not give him power to enjoy them, but a stranger enjoys them; this is vanity; it is a sore affliction.

Ecclesiastes 6:3 If a man begets a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but he does not enjoy life’s good things, and also has no burial, I say that an untimely birth is better off than he.

Ecclesiastes 6:4 For it comes into vanity and goes into darkness, and in darkness its name is covered;

Ecclesiastes 6:5 moreover it has not seen the sun or known anything; yet it finds rest rather than he.

Ecclesiastes 6:6 Even though he should live a thousand years twice told, yet enjoy no good—do not all go to the one place?

Ecclesiastes 6:7 All the toil of man is for his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied.

Ecclesiastes 6:8 For what advantage has the wise man over the fool? And what does the poor man have who knows how to conduct himself before the living?

Ecclesiastes 6:9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of desire; this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 6:10 Whatever has come to be has already been named, and it is known what man is, and that he is not able to dispute with one stronger than he.

Ecclesiastes 6:11 The more words, the more vanity, and what is man the better?

Ecclesiastes 6:12 For who knows what is good for man while he lives the few days of his vain life, which he passes like a shadow? For who can tell man what will be after him under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 7:1 A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death, than the day of birth.

Ecclesiastes 7:2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for this is the end of all men, and the living will lay it to heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter, for by sadness of countenance the heart is made glad.

Ecclesiastes 7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

Ecclesiastes 7:5 It is better for a man to hear the rebuke of the wise than to hear the song of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fools; this also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 7:7 Surely oppression makes the wise man foolish, and a bribe corrupts the mind.

Ecclesiastes 7:8 Better is the end of a thing than its beginning; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

Ecclesiastes 7:9 Be not quick to anger, for anger lodges in the bosom of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:10 Say not, “Why were the former days better than these?” For it is not from wisdom that you ask this.

Ecclesiastes 7:11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance, an advantage to those who see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 7:12 For the protection of wisdom is like the protection of money; and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

Ecclesiastes 7:13 Consider the work of God; who can make straight what he has made crooked?

Ecclesiastes 7:14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; God has made the one as well as the other, so that man may not find out anything that will be after him.

Ecclesiastes 7:15 In my vain life I have seen everything; there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his evil-doing.

Ecclesiastes 7:16 Be not righteous overmuch, and do not make yourself overwise; why should you destroy yourself?

Ecclesiastes 7:17 Be not wicked overmuch, neither be a fool; why should you die before your time?

Ecclesiastes 7:18 It is good that you should take hold of this, and from that withhold not your hand; for he who fears God shall come forth from them all.

Ecclesiastes 7:19 Wisdom gives strength to the wise man more than ten rulers that are in a city.

Ecclesiastes 7:20 Surely there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.

Ecclesiastes 7:21 Do not give heed to all the things that men say, lest you hear your servant cursing you;

Ecclesiastes 7:22 your heart knows that many times you have yourself cursed others.

Ecclesiastes 7:23 All this I have tested by wisdom; I said, “I will be wise”; but it was far from me.

Ecclesiastes 7:24 That which is, is far off, and deep, very deep; who can find it out?

Ecclesiastes 7:25 I turned my mind to know and to search out and to seek wisdom and the sum of things, and to know the wickedness of folly and the foolishness which is madness.

Ecclesiastes 7:26 And I found more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and whose hands are fetters; he who pleases God escapes her, but the sinner is taken by her.

Ecclesiastes 7:27 Behold, this is what I found, says the Preacher, adding one thing to another to find the sum, Ecclesiastes 7:28 which my mind has sought repeatedly, but I have not found. One man among a thousand I found, but a woman among all these I have not found.

Ecclesiastes 7:29 Behold, this alone I found, that God made man upright, but they have sought out many devices.

Ecclesiastes 8:1 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man’s wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his countenance is changed.

Ecclesiastes 8:2 Keep the king’s command, and because of your sacred oath be not dismayed;

Ecclesiastes 8:3 go from his presence, do not delay when the matter is unpleasant, for he does whatever he pleases.

Ecclesiastes 8:4 For the word of the king is supreme, and who may say to him, “What are you doing?”

Ecclesiastes 8:5 He who obeys a command will meet no harm, and the mind of a wise man will know the time and way.

Ecclesiastes 8:6 For every matter has its time and way, although man’s trouble lies heavy upon him.

Ecclesiastes 8:7 For he does not know what is to be, for who can tell him how it will be?

Ecclesiastes 8:8 No man has power to retain the spirit, or authority over the day of death; there is no discharge from war, nor will wickedness deliver those who are given to it.

Ecclesiastes 8:9 All this I observed while applying my mind to all that is done under the sun, while man lords it over man to his hurt.

Ecclesiastes 8:10 Then I saw the wicked buried; they used to go in and out of the holy place, and were praised in the city where they had done such things. This also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 8:11 Because sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, the heart of the sons of men is fully set to do evil.

Ecclesiastes 8:12 Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and prolongs his life, yet I know that it will be well with those who fear God, because they fear before him;

Ecclesiastes 8:13 but it will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong his days like a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

Ecclesiastes 8:14 There is a vanity which takes place on earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked, and there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 8:15 And I commend enjoyment, for man has no good thing under the sun but to eat and drink, and enjoy himself, for this will go with him in his toil through the days of life which God gives him under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 8:16 When I applied my mind to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on earth, how neither day nor night one’s eyes see sleep;

Ecclesiastes 8:17 then I saw all the work of God, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. However much man may toil in seeking, he will not find it out; even though a wise man claims to know, he cannot find it out.

Ecclesiastes 9:1 But all this I laid to heart, examining it all, how the righteous and the wise and their deeds are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hate man does not know. Everything before them is vanity,

Ecclesiastes 9:2 since one fate comes to all, to the righteous and the wicked, to the good and the evil, to the clean and the unclean, to him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice. As is the good man, so is the sinner; and he who swears is as he who shuns an oath.

Ecclesiastes 9:3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that one fate comes to all; also the hearts of men are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

Ecclesiastes 9:4 But he who is joined with all the living has hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

Ecclesiastes 9:5 For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing, and they have no more reward; but the memory of them is lost.

Ecclesiastes 9:6 Their love and their hate and their envy have already perished, and they have no more for ever any share in all that is done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:7 Go, eat your bread with enjoyment, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already approved what you do.

Ecclesiastes 9:8 Let your garments be always white; let not oil be lacking on your head.

Ecclesiastes 9:9 Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your vain life which he has given you under the sun, because that is your portion in life and in your toil at which you toil under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or thought or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, to which you are going.

Ecclesiastes 9:11 Again I saw that under the sun the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to the intelligent, nor favor to the men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all.

Ecclesiastes 9:12 For man does not know his time. Like fish which are taken in an evil net, and like birds which are caught in a snare, so the sons of men are snared at an evil time, when it suddenly falls upon them.

Ecclesiastes 9:13 I have also seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me.

Ecclesiastes 9:14 There was a little city with few men in it; and a great king came against it and besieged it, building great siegeworks against it.

Ecclesiastes 9:15 But there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that poor man.

Ecclesiastes 9:16 But I say that wisdom is better than might, though the poor man’s wisdom is despised, and his words are not heeded.

Ecclesiastes 9:17 The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the shouting of a ruler among fools.

Ecclesiastes 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

Ecclesiastes 10:1 Dead flies make the perfumer’s ointment give off an evil odor; so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

Ecclesiastes 10:2 A wise man’s heart inclines him toward the right, but a fool’s heart toward the left.

Ecclesiastes 10:3 Even when the fool walks on the road, he lacks sense, and he says to every one that he is a fool.

Ecclesiastes 10:4 If the anger of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your place, for deference will make amends for great offenses.

Ecclesiastes 10:5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as it were an error proceeding from the ruler:

Ecclesiastes 10:6 folly is set in many high places, and the rich sit in a low place.

Ecclesiastes 10:7 I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking on foot like slaves.

Ecclesiastes 10:8 He who digs a pit will fall into it; and a serpent will bite him who breaks through a wall.

Ecclesiastes 10:9 He who quarries stones is hurt by them; and he who splits logs is endangered by them.

Ecclesiastes 10:10 If the iron is blunt, and one does not whet the edge, he must put forth more strength; but wisdom helps one to succeed.

Ecclesiastes 10:11 If the serpent bites before it is charmed, there is no advantage in a charmer.

Ecclesiastes 10:12 The words of a wise man’s mouth win him favor, but the lips of a fool consume him.

Ecclesiastes 10:13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness, and the end of his talk is wicked madness.

Ecclesiastes 10:14 A fool multiplies words, though no man knows what is to be, and who can tell him what will be after him?

Ecclesiastes 10:15 The toil of a fool wearies him, so that he does not know the way to the city.

Ecclesiastes 10:16 Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes feast in the morning!

Ecclesiastes 10:17 Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of free men, and your princes feast at the proper time, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

Ecclesiastes 10:18 Through sloth the roof sinks in, and through indolence the house leaks.

Ecclesiastes 10:19 Bread is made for laughter, and wine gladdens life, and money answers everything.

Ecclesiastes 10:20 Even in your thought, do not curse the king, nor in your bedchamber curse the rich; for a bird of the air will carry your voice, or some winged creature tell the matter.

Ecclesiastes 11:1 Cast your bread upon the waters, for you will find it after many days.

Ecclesiastes 11:2 Give a portion to seven, or even to eight, for you know not what evil may happen on earth.

Ecclesiastes 11:3 If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls to the south or to the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.

Ecclesiastes 11:4 He who observes the wind will not sow; and he who regards the clouds will not reap.

Ecclesiastes 11:5 As you do not know how the spirit comes to the bones in the womb of a woman with child, so you do not know the work of God who makes everything.

Ecclesiastes 11:6 In the morning sow your seed, and at evening withhold not your hand; for you do not know which will prosper, this or that, or whether both alike will be good.

Ecclesiastes 11:7 Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to behold the sun.

Ecclesiastes 11:8 For if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember that the days of darkness will be many. All that comes is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 11:9 Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth; walk in the ways of your heart and the sight of your eyes. But know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

Ecclesiastes 11:10 Remove vexation from your mind, and put away pain from your body; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

Ecclesiastes 12:1 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when you will say, “I have no pleasure in them”;

Ecclesiastes 12:2 before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars are darkened and the clouds return after the rain;

Ecclesiastes 12:3 in the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men are bent, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look through the windows are dimmed,

Ecclesiastes 12:4 and the doors on the street are shut; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one rises up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of song are brought low;

Ecclesiastes 12:5 they are afraid also of what is high, and terrors are in the way; the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags itself along and desire fails; because man goes to his eternal home, and the mourners go about the streets;

Ecclesiastes 12:6 before the silver cord is snapped, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern,

Ecclesiastes 12:7 and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

Ecclesiastes 12:8 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher; all is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 12:9 Besides being wise, the Preacher also taught the people knowledge, weighing and studying and arranging proverbs with great care.

Ecclesiastes 12:10 The Preacher sought to find pleasing words, and uprightly he wrote words of truth.

Ecclesiastes 12:11 The sayings of the wise are like goads, and like nails firmly fixed are the collected sayings which are given by one Shepherd.

Ecclesiastes 12:12 My son, beware of anything beyond these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

Ecclesiastes 12:13 The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.

Ecclesiastes 12:14 For God will bring every deed into judgment, with every secret thing, whether good or evil.

Song of Solomon

1:1 The Song of Songs, which is Solomon’s.

Song of Solomon 1:2 O that you would kiss me with the kisses of your mouth! For your love is better than wine,

Song of Solomon 1:3 your anointing oils are fragrant, your name is oil poured out; therefore the maidens love you.

Song of Solomon 1:4 Draw me after you, let us make haste. The king has brought me into his chambers. We will exult and rejoice in you; we will extol your love more than wine; rightly do they love you.

Song of Solomon 1:5 I am very dark, but comely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon.

Song of Solomon 1:6 Do not gaze at me because I am swarthy, because the sun has scorched me. My mother’s sons were angry with me, they made me keeper of the vineyards; but, my own vineyard I have not kept!

Song of Solomon 1:7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you pasture your flock, where you make it lie down at noon; for why should I be like one who wanders beside the flocks of your companions?

Song of Solomon 1:8 If you do not know, O fairest among women, follow in the tracks of the flock, and pasture your kids beside the shepherds’ tents.

Song of Solomon 1:9 I compare you, my love, to a mare of Pharaoh’s chariots.

Song of Solomon 1:10 Your cheeks are comely with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.

Song of Solomon 1:11 We will make you ornaments of gold, studded with silver.

Song of Solomon 1:12 While the king was on his couch, my nard gave forth its fragrance.

Song of Solomon 1:13 My beloved is to me a bag of myrrh, that lies between my breasts.

Song of Solomon 1:14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of Engedi.

Song of Solomon 1:15 Behold, you are beautiful, my love; behold, you are beautiful; your eyes are doves.

Song of Solomon 1:16 Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, truly lovely. Our couch is green;

Song of Solomon 1:17 the beams of our house are cedar, our rafters are pine.

Song of Solomon 2:1 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Song of Solomon 2:2 As a lily among brambles, so is my love among maidens.

Song of Solomon 2:3 As an apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among young men. With great delight I sat in his shadow, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

Song of Solomon 2:4 He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.

Song of Solomon 2:5 Sustain me with raisins, refresh me with apples; for I am sick with love.

Song of Solomon 2:6 O that his left hand were under my head, and that his right hand embraced me!

Song of Solomon 2:7 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the hinds of the field, that you stir not up nor awaken love until it please.

Song of Solomon 2:8 The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes, leaping upon the mountains, bounding over the hills.

Song of Solomon 2:9 My beloved is like a gazelle, or a young stag. Behold, there he stands behind our wall, gazing in at the windows, looking through the lattice.

Song of Solomon 2:10 My beloved speaks and says to me: “Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away;

Song of Solomon 2:11 for lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.

Song of Solomon 2:12 The flowers appear on the earth, the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

Song of Solomon 2:13 The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines are in blossom; they give forth fragrance. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Song of Solomon 2:14 O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the covert of the cliff, let me see your face, let me hear your voice, for your voice is sweet, and your face is comely.

Song of Solomon 2:15 Catch us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vineyards, for our vineyards are in blossom.”

Song of Solomon 2:16 My beloved is mine and I am his, he pastures his flock among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 2:17 Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, turn, my beloved, be like a gazelle, or a young stag upon rugged mountains.

Song of Solomon 3:1 Upon my bed by night I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer.

Song of Solomon 3:2 “I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves.” I sought him, but found him not.

Song of Solomon 3:3 The watchmen found me, as they went about in the city. “Have you seen him whom my soul loves?”

Song of Solomon 3:4 Scarcely had I passed them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother’s house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

Song of Solomon 3:5 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the hinds of the field, that you stir not up nor awaken love until it please.

Song of Solomon 3:6 What is that coming up from the wilderness, like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the fragrant powders of the merchant?

Song of Solomon 3:7 Behold, it is the litter of Solomon! About it are sixty mighty men of the mighty men of Israel,

Song of Solomon 3:8 all girt with swords and expert in war, each with his sword at his thigh, against alarms by night.

Song of Solomon 3:9 King Solomon made himself a palanquin from the wood of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 3:10 He made its posts of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple; it was lovingly wrought within by the daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon 3:11 Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and behold King Solomon, with the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, on the day of the gladness of his heart.

Song of Solomon 4:1 Behold, you are beautiful, my love, behold, you are beautiful! Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats, moving down the slopes of Gilead.

Song of Solomon 4:2 Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes that have come up from the washing, all of which bear twins, and not one among them is bereaved.

Song of Solomon 4:3 Your lips are like a scarlet thread, and your mouth is lovely. Your cheeks are like halves of a pomegranate behind your veil.

Song of Solomon 4:4 Your neck is like the tower of David, built for an arsenal, whereon hang a thousand bucklers, all of them shields of warriors.

Song of Solomon 4:5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, that feed among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 4:6 Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, I will hie me to the mountain of myrrh and the hill of frankincense.

Song of Solomon 4:7 You are all fair, my love; there is no flaw in you.

Song of Solomon 4:8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride; come with me from Lebanon. Depart from the peak of Amana, from the peak of Senir and Hermon, from the dens of lions, from the mountains of leopards.

Song of Solomon 4:9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride, you have ravished my heart with a glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.

Song of Solomon 4:10 How sweet is your love, my sister, my bride! how much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils than any spice!

Song of Solomon 4:11 Your lips distil nectar, my bride; honey and milk are under your tongue; the scent of your garments is like the scent of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:12 A garden locked is my sister, my bride, a garden locked, a fountain sealed.

Song of Solomon 4:13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates with all choicest fruits, henna with nard, Song of Solomon 4:14 nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes, with all chief spices —

Song of Solomon 4:15 a garden fountain, a well of living water, and flowing streams from Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:16 Awake, O north wind, and come, O south wind! Blow upon my garden, let its fragrance be wafted abroad. Let my beloved come to his garden, and eat its choicest fruits.

Song of Solomon 5:1 I come to my garden, my sister, my bride, I gather my myrrh with my spice, I eat my honeycomb with my honey, I drink my wine with my milk. Eat, O friends, and drink: drink deeply, O lovers!

Song of Solomon 5:2 I slept, but my heart was awake. Hark! my beloved is knocking. “Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one; for my head is wet with dew, my locks with the drops of the night.”

Song of Solomon 5:3 I had put off my garment, how could I put it on? I had bathed my feet, how could I soil them?

Song of Solomon 5:4 My beloved put his hand to the latch, and my heart was thrilled within me.

Song of Solomon 5:5 I arose to open to my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, upon the handles of the bolt.

Song of Solomon 5:6 I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had turned and gone. My soul failed me when he spoke. I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer.

Song of Solomon 5:7 The watchmen found me, as they went about in the city; they beat me, they wounded me, they took away my mantle, those watchmen of the walls.

Song of Solomon 5:8 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him I am sick with love.

Song of Solomon 5:9 What is your beloved more than another beloved, O fairest among women? What is your beloved more than another beloved, that you thus adjure us?

Song of Solomon 5:10 My beloved is all radiant and ruddy, distinguished among ten thousand.

Song of Solomon 5:11 His head is the finest gold; his locks are wavy, black as a raven.

Song of Solomon 5:12 His eyes are like doves beside springs of water, bathed in milk, fitly set.

Song of Solomon 5:13 His cheeks are like beds of spices, yielding fragrance. His lips are lilies, distilling liquid myrrh.

Song of Solomon 5:14 His arms are rounded gold, set with jewels. His body is ivory work, encrusted with sapphires.

Song of Solomon 5:15 His legs are alabaster columns, set upon bases of gold. His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

Song of Solomon 5:16 His speech is most sweet, and he is altogether desirable. This is my beloved and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon 6:1 Whither has your beloved gone, O fairest among women? Whither has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Song of Solomon 6:2 My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:3 I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine; he pastures his flock among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:4 You are beautiful as Tirzah, my love, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

Song of Solomon 6:5 Turn away your eyes from me, for they disturb me—Your hair is like a flock of goats, moving down the slopes of Gilead.

Song of Solomon 6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, that have come up from the washing, all of them bear twins, not one among them is bereaved.

Song of Solomon 6:7 Your cheeks are like halves of a pomegranate behind your veil.

Song of Solomon 6:8 There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, and maidens without number.

Song of Solomon 6:9 My dove, my perfect one, is only one, the darling of her mother, flawless to her that bore her. The maidens saw her and called her happy; the queens and concubines also, and they praised her.

Song of Solomon 6:10 "Who is this that looks forth like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army with banners?"

Song of Solomon 6:11 I went down to the nut orchard, to look at the blossoms of the valley, to see whether the vines had budded, whether the pomegranates were in bloom.

Song of Solomon 6:12 Before I was aware, my fancy set me in a chariot beside my prince.

Song of Solomon 6:13 Return, return, O Shulammite, return, return, that we may look upon you. Why should you look upon the Shulammite, as upon a dance before two armies?

Song of Solomon 7:1 How graceful are your feet in sandals, O queenly maiden! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of a master hand.

Song of Solomon 7:2 Your navel is a rounded bowl that never lacks mixed wine. Your belly is a heap of wheat, encircled with lilies.

Song of Solomon 7:3 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Song of Solomon 7:4 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bathrabbim. Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon, overlooking Damascus.

Song of Solomon 7:5 Your head crowns you like Carmel, and your flowing locks are like purple; a king is held captive in the tresses.

Song of Solomon 7:6 How fair and pleasant you are, O loved one, delectable maiden!

Song of Solomon 7:7 You are stately as a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters.

Song of Solomon 7:8 I say I will climb the palm tree and lay hold of its branches. Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the scent of your breath like apples,

Song of Solomon 7:9 and your kisses like the best wine that goes down smoothly, gliding over lips and teeth.

Song of Solomon 7:10 I am my beloved's, and his desire is for me.

Song of Solomon 7:11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the fields, and lodge in the villages;

Song of Solomon 7:12 let us go out early to the vineyards, and see whether the vines have budded, whether the grape blossoms have opened and the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

Song of Solomon 7:13 The mandrakes give forth fragrance, and over our doors are all choice fruits, new as well as old, which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

Song of Solomon 8:1 O that you were like a brother to me, that nursed at my mother's breast! If I met you outside, I would kiss you, and none would despise me.

Song of Solomon 8:2 I would lead you and bring you into the house of my mother, and into the chamber of her that conceived me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, the juice of my pomegranates.

Song of Solomon 8:3 O that his left hand were under my head, and that his right hand embraced me!

Song of Solomon 8:4 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you stir not up nor awaken love until it please.

Song of Solomon 8:5 Who is that coming up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? Under the apple tree I awakened you. There your mother was in travail with you, there she who bore you was in travail.

Song of Solomon 8:6 Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is strong as death, jealousy is cruel as the grave. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a most vehement flame.

Song of Solomon 8:7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it. If a man offered for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly scorned.

Song of Solomon 8:8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister, on the day when she is spoken for?

Song of Solomon 8:9 If she is a wall, we will build upon her a battlement of silver; but if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Song of Solomon 8:10 I was a wall, and my breasts were like towers; then I was in his eyes as one who brings peace.

Song of Solomon 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard to keepers; each one was to bring for its fruit a thousand pieces of silver.

Song of Solomon 8:12 My vineyard, my very own, is for myself; you, O Solomon, may have the thousand, and the keepers of the fruit two hundred.

Song of Solomon 8:13 O you who dwell in the gardens, my companions are listening for your voice; let me hear it.

Song of Solomon 8:14 Make haste, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag upon the mountains of spices.

Isaiah

1:1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Isaiah 1:2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the LORD has spoken: “Sons have I reared and brought up, but they have rebelled against me.

Isaiah 1:3 The ox knows its owner, and the ass its master’s crib; but Israel does not know, my people does not understand.”

Isaiah 1:4 Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, offspring of evildoers, sons who deal corruptly! They have forsaken the LORD, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are utterly estranged.

Isaiah 1:5 Why will you still be smitten, that you continue to rebel? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Isaiah 1:6 From the sole of the foot even to the head, there is no soundness in it, but bruises and sores and bleeding wounds; they are not pressed out, or bound up, or softened with oil.

Isaiah 1:7 Your country lies desolate, your cities are burned with fire; in your very presence aliens devour your land; it is desolate, as overthrown by aliens.

Isaiah 1:8 And the daughter of Zion is left like a booth in a vineyard, like a lodge in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

Isaiah 1:9 If the LORD of hosts had not left us a few survivors, we should have been like Sodom, and become like Gomorrah.

Isaiah 1:10 Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom! Give ear to the teaching of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

Isaiah 1:11 “What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the LORD; I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of he-goats.

Isaiah 1:12 “When you come to appear before me, who requires of you this trampling of my courts?

Isaiah 1:13 Bring no more vain offerings; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and sabbath and the calling of assemblies—I cannot endure iniquity and solemn assembly.

Isaiah 1:14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates; they have become a burden to me, I am weary of bearing them.

Isaiah 1:15 When you spread forth your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood.

Isaiah 1:16 Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil,

Isaiah 1:17 learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow.

Isaiah 1:18 “Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.

Isaiah 1:19 If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land;

Isaiah 1:20 But if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 1:21 How the faithful city has become a harlot, she that was full of justice! Righteousness lodged in her, but now murderers.

Isaiah 1:22 Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water.

Isaiah 1:23 Your princes are rebels and companions of thieves. Every one loves a bribe and runs after gifts. They do not defend the fatherless, and the widow’s cause does not come to them.

Isaiah 1:24 Therefore the Lord says, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel: “Ah, I will vent my wrath on my enemies, and avenge myself on my foes.

Isaiah 1:25 I will turn my hand against you and will smelt away your dross as with lye and remove all your alloy.

Isaiah 1:26 And I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city.”

Isaiah 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed by justice, and those in her who repent, by righteousness.

Isaiah 1:28 But rebels and sinners shall be destroyed together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

Isaiah 1:29 For you shall be ashamed of the oaks in which you delighted; and you shall blush for the gardens which you have chosen.

Isaiah 1:30 For you shall be like an oak whose leaf withers, and like a garden without water.

Isaiah 1:31 And the strong shall become tow, and his work a spark, and both of them shall burn together, with none to quench them.

Isaiah 2:1 The word which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:2 It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; and all the nations shall flow to it,

Isaiah 2:3 and many peoples shall come, and say: “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths.” For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:4 He shall judge between the nations, and shall decide for many peoples; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Isaiah 2:5 O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD.

Isaiah 2:6 For thou hast rejected thy people, the house of Jacob, because they are full of diviners from the east and of soothsayers like the Philistines, and they strike hands with foreigners.

Isaiah 2:7 Their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures; their land is filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots.

Isaiah 2:8 Their land is filled with idols; they bow down to the work of their hands, to what their own fingers have made.

Isaiah 2:9 So man is humbled, and men are brought low—forgive them not!

Isaiah 2:10 Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty.

Isaiah 2:11 The haughty looks of man shall be brought low, and the pride of men shall be humbled; and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

Isaiah 2:12 For the LORD of hosts has a day against all that is proud and lofty, against all that is lifted up and high;

Isaiah 2:13 against all the cedars of Lebanon, lofty and lifted up; and against all the oaks of Bashan;

Isaiah 2:14 against all the high mountains, and against all the lofty hills;

Isaiah 2:15 against every high tower, and against every fortified wall;

Isaiah 2:16 against all the ships of Tarshish, and against all the beautiful craft.

Isaiah 2:17 And the haughtiness of man shall be humbled, and the pride of men shall be brought low; and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

Isaiah 2:18 And the idols shall utterly pass away.

Isaiah 2:19 And men shall enter the caves of the rocks and the holes of the ground, from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

Isaiah 2:20 In that day men will cast forth their idols of silver and their idols of gold, which they made for themselves to worship, to the moles and to the bats,

Isaiah 2:21 to enter the caverns of the rocks and the clefts of the cliffs, from before the terror of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

Isaiah 2:22 Turn away from man in whose nostrils is breath, for of what account is he?

Isaiah 3:1 For, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, is taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah stay and staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water;

Isaiah 3:2 the mighty man and the soldier, the judge and the prophet, the diviner and the elder,

Isaiah 3:3 the captain of fifty and the man of rank, the counselor and the skilful magician and the expert in charms.

Isaiah 3:4 And I will make boys their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

Isaiah 3:5 And the people will oppress one another, every man his fellow and every man his neighbor; the youth will be insolent to the elder, and the base fellow to the honorable.

Isaiah 3:6 When a man takes hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying: “You have a mantle; you shall be our leader, and this heap of ruins shall be under your rule”;

Isaiah 3:7 in that day he will speak out, saying: “I will not be a healer; in my house there is neither bread nor mantle; you shall not make me leader of the people.”

Isaiah 3:8 For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen; because their speech and their deeds are against the LORD, defying his glorious presence.

Isaiah 3:9 Their partiality witnesses against them; they proclaim their sin like Sodom, they do not hide it. Woe to them! For they have brought evil upon themselves.

Isaiah 3:10 Tell the righteous that it shall be well with them, for they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.

Isaiah 3:11 Woe to the wicked! It shall be ill with him, for what his hands have done shall be done to him.

Isaiah 3:12 My people—children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, your leaders mislead you, and confuse the course of your paths.

Isaiah 3:13 The LORD has taken his place to contend, he stands to judge his people.

Isaiah 3:14 The LORD enters into judgment with the elders and princes of his people: “It is you who have devoured the vineyard, the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

Isaiah 3:15 What do you mean by crushing my people, by grinding the face of the poor?” says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isaiah 3:16 The LORD said: Because the daughters of Zion are haughty and walk with outstretched necks, glancing wantonly with their eyes, mincing along as they go, tinkling with their feet;

Isaiah 3:17 the Lord will smite with a scab the heads of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will lay bare their secret parts.

Isaiah 3:18 In that day the Lord will take away the finery of the anklets, the headbands, and the crescents;

Isaiah 3:19 the pendants, the bracelets, and the scarfs;

Isaiah 3:20 the headdresses, the armlets, the sashes, the perfume boxes, and the amulets;

Isaiah 3:21 the signet rings and nose rings;

Isaiah 3:22 the festal robes, the mantles, the cloaks, and the handbags;

Isaiah 3:23 the garments of gauze, the linen garments, the turbans, and the veils.

Isaiah 3:24 Instead of perfume there will be rottenness; and instead of a girdle, a rope; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a rich robe, a girding of sackcloth; instead of beauty, shame.

Isaiah 3:25 Your men shall fall by the sword and your mighty men in battle.

Isaiah 3:26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; ravaged, she shall sit upon the ground.

Isaiah 4:1 And seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, "We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes, only let us be called by your name; take away our reproach."

Isaiah 4:2 In that day the branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be the pride and glory of the survivors of Israel.

Isaiah 4:3 And he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, every one who has been recorded for life in Jerusalem,

Isaiah 4:4 when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst by a spirit of judgment and by a spirit of burning.

Isaiah 4:5 Then the LORD will create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her assemblies a cloud by day, and smoke and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory there will be a canopy and a pavilion.

Isaiah 4:6 It will be for a shade by day from the heat, and for a refuge and a shelter from the storm and rain.

Isaiah 5:1 Let me sing for my beloved a love song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

Isaiah 5:2 He digged it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; and he looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

Isaiah 5:3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, between me and my vineyard.

Isaiah 5:4 What more was there to do for my vineyard, that I have not done in it? When I looked for it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?

Isaiah 5:5 And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.

Isaiah 5:6 I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and briers and thorns shall grow up; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

Isaiah 5:7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are his pleasant planting; and he looked for justice, but behold, bloodshed; for righteousness, but behold, a cry!

Isaiah 5:8 Woe to those who join house to house, who add field to field, until there is no more room, and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land.

Isaiah 5:9 The LORD of hosts has sworn in my hearing: "Surely many houses shall be desolate, large and beautiful houses, without inhabitant.

Isaiah 5:10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield but one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield but an ephah."

Isaiah 5:11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning, that they may run after strong drink, who tarry late into the evening till wine inflames them!

Isaiah 5:12 They have lyre and harp, timbrel and flute and wine at their feasts; but they do not regard the deeds of the LORD, or see the work of his hands.

Isaiah 5:13 Therefore my people go into exile for want of knowledge; their honored men are dying of hunger, and their multitude is parched with thirst.

Isaiah 5:14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth beyond measure, and the nobility of Jerusalem and her multitude go down, her throng and he who exults in her.

Isaiah 5:15 Man is bowed down, and men are brought low, and the eyes of the haughty are humbled.

Isaiah 5:16 But the LORD of hosts is exalted in justice, and the Holy God shows himself holy in righteousness.

Isaiah 5:17 Then shall the lambs graze as in their pasture, fatlings and kids shall feed among the ruins.

Isaiah 5:18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, who draw sin as with cart ropes,

Isaiah 5:19 who say: "Let him make haste, let him speed his work that we may see it; let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near, and let it come, that we may know it!"

Isaiah 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

Isaiah 5:21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and shrewd in their own sight!

Isaiah 5:22 Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, and valiant men in mixing strong drink,

Isaiah 5:23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, and deprive the innocent of his right!

Isaiah 5:24 Therefore, as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root will be as rottenness, and their blossom go up like dust; for they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts, and have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 5:25 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he stretched out his hand against them and smote them, and the mountains quaked; and their corpses were as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away and his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 5:26 He will raise a signal for a nation afar off, and whistle for it from the ends of the earth; and lo, swiftly, speedily it comes!

Isaiah 5:27 None is weary, none stumbles, none slumbers or sleeps, not a waistcloth is loose, not a sandal-thong broken;

Isaiah 5:28 their arrows are sharp, all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs seem like flint, and their wheels like the whirlwind.

Isaiah 5:29 Their roaring is like a lion, like young lions they roar; they growl and seize their prey, they carry it off, and none can rescue.

Isaiah 5:30 They will growl over it on that day, like the roaring of the sea. And if one look to the land, behold, darkness and distress; and the light is darkened by its clouds.

Isaiah 6:1 In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple.

Isaiah 6:2 Above him stood the seraphim; each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew.

Isaiah 6:3 And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory."

Isaiah 6:4 And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke.

Isaiah 6:5 And I said: "Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

Isaiah 6:6 Then flew one of the seraphim to me, having in his hand a burning coal which he had taken with tongs from the altar.

Isaiah 6:7 And he touched my mouth, and said: "Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin forgiven."

Isaiah 6:8 And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me."

Isaiah 6:9 And he said, “Go, and say to this people: `Hear and hear, but do not understand; see and see, but do not perceive.’

Isaiah 6:10 Make the heart of this people fat, and their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed.”

Isaiah 6:11 Then I said, “How long, O Lord?” And he said: “Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without men, and the land is utterly desolate, Isaiah 6:12 and the LORD removes men far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.

Isaiah 6:13 And though a tenth remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak, whose stump remains standing when it is felled.” The holy seed is its stump.

Isaiah 7:1 In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah the king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to wage war against it, but they could not conquer it.

Isaiah 7:2 When the house of David was told, “Syria is in league with Ephraim,” his heart and the heart of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake before the wind.

Isaiah 7:3 And the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go forth to meet Ahaz, you and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool on the highway to the Fuller’s Field,

Isaiah 7:4 and say to him, `Take heed, be quiet, do not fear, and do not let your heart be faint because of these two smoldering stumps of firebrands, at the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria and the son of Remaliah.

Isaiah 7:5 Because Syria, with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has devised evil against you, saying,

Isaiah 7:6 “Let us go up against Judah and terrify it, and let us conquer it for ourselves, and set up the son of Tabeel as king in the midst of it,”

Isaiah 7:7 thus says the Lord GOD: It shall not stand, and it shall not come to pass.

Isaiah 7:8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. (Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be broken to pieces so that it will no longer be a people.)

Isaiah 7:9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established.’”

Isaiah 7:10 Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, Isaiah 7:11 “Ask a sign of the LORD your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven.”

Isaiah 7:12 But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, and I will not put the LORD to the test.”

Isaiah 7:13 And he said, “Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary men, that you weary my God also?

Isaiah 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, a young woman shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Isaiah 7:15 He shall eat curds and honey when he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good.

Isaiah 7:16 For before the child knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land before whose two kings you are in dread will be deserted.

Isaiah 7:17 The LORD will bring upon you and upon your people and upon your father’s house such days as have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah—the king of Assyria.”

Isaiah 7:18 In that day the LORD will whistle for the fly which is at the sources of the streams of Egypt, and for the bee which is in the land of Assyria.

Isaiah 7:19 And they will all come and settle in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all the thornbushes, and on all the pastures.

Isaiah 7:20 In that day the Lord will shave with a razor which is hired beyond the River—with the king of Assyria—the head and the hair of the feet, and it will sweep away the beard also.

Isaiah 7:21 In that day a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep;

Isaiah 7:22 and because of the abundance of milk which they give, he will eat curds; for every one that is left in the land will eat curds and honey.

Isaiah 7:23 In that day every place where there used to be a thousand vines, worth a thousand shekels of silver, will become briers and thorns.

Isaiah 7:24 With bow and arrows men will come there, for all the land will be briers and thorns;

Isaiah 7:25 and as for all the hills which used to be hoed with a hoe, you will not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but they will become a place where cattle are let loose and where sheep tread.

Isaiah 8:1 Then the LORD said to me, “Take a large tablet and write upon it in common characters, `Belonging to Mahershalalhashbaz.’”

Isaiah 8:2 And I got reliable witnesses, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah, to attest for me.

Isaiah 8:3 And I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, “Call his name Mahershalalhashbaz;

Isaiah 8:4 for before the child knows how to cry `My father’ or `My mother,’ the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away before the king of Assyria.”

Isaiah 8:5 The LORD spoke to me again:

Isaiah 8:6 “Because this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, and melt in fear before Rezin and the son of Remaliah;

Isaiah 8:7 therefore, behold, the Lord is bringing up against them the waters of the River, mighty and many, the king of Assyria and all his glory; and it will rise over all its channels and go over all its banks;

Isaiah 8:8 and it will sweep on into Judah, it will overflow and pass on, reaching even to the neck; and its outspread wings will fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.”

Isaiah 8:9 Be broken, you peoples, and be dismayed; give ear, all you far countries; gird yourselves and be dismayed; gird yourselves and be dismayed.

Isaiah 8:10 Take counsel together, but it will come to nought; speak a word, but it will not stand, for God is with us.

Isaiah 8:11 For the LORD spoke thus to me with his strong hand upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people, saying:

Isaiah 8:12 “Do not call conspiracy all that this people call conspiracy, and do not fear what they fear, nor be in dread.

Isaiah 8:13 But the LORD of hosts, him you shall regard as holy; let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

Isaiah 8:14 And he will become a sanctuary, and a stone of offense, and a rock of stumbling to both houses of Israel, a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 8:15 And many shall stumble thereon; they shall fall and be broken; they shall be snared and taken.”

Isaiah 8:16 Bind up the testimony, seal the teaching among my disciples.

Isaiah 8:17 I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob, and I will hope in him.

Isaiah 8:18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are signs and portents in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Isaiah 8:19 And when they say to you, “Consult the mediums and the wizards who chirp and mutter,” should not a people consult their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living?

Isaiah 8:20 To the teaching and to the testimony! Surely for this word which they speak there is no dawn.

Isaiah 8:21 They will pass through the land, greatly distressed and hungry; and when they are hungry, they will be enraged and will curse their king and their God, and turn their faces upward;

Isaiah 8:22 and they will look to the earth, but behold, distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and they will be thrust into thick darkness.

Isaiah 9:1 But there will be no gloom for her that was in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

Isaiah 9:2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shined.

Isaiah 9:3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, thou hast increased its joy; they rejoice before thee as with joy at the harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

Isaiah 9:4 For the yoke of his burden, and the staff for his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, thou hast broken as on the day of Midian.

Isaiah 9:5 For every boot of the tramping warrior in battle tumult and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel for the fire.

Isaiah 9:6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government will be upon his shoulder, and his name will be called “Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.”

Isaiah 9:7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and for evermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Isaiah 9:8 The Lord has sent a word against Jacob, and it will light upon Israel;

Isaiah 9:9 and all the people will know, Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart:

Isaiah 9:10 “The bricks have fallen, but we will build with dressed stones; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place.”

Isaiah 9:11 So the LORD raises adversaries against them, and stirs up their enemies.

Isaiah 9:12 The Syrians on the east and the Philistines on the west devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away and his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 9:13 The people did not turn to him who smote them, nor seek the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 9:14 So the LORD cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed in one day —

Isaiah 9:15 the elder and honored man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail;

Isaiah 9:16 for those who lead this people lead them astray, and those who are led by them are swallowed up.

Isaiah 9:17 Therefore the Lord does not rejoice over their young men, and has no compassion on their fatherless and widows; for every one is godless and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this his anger is not turned away and his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 9:18 For wickedness burns like a fire, it consumes briers and thorns; it kindles the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.

Isaiah 9:19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land is burned, and the people are like fuel for the fire; no man spares his brother.

Isaiah 9:20 They snatch on the right, but are still hungry, and they devour on the left, but are not satisfied; each devours his neighbor’s flesh,

Isaiah 9:21 Manasseh Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh, and together they are against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away and his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 10:1 Woe to those who decree iniquitous decrees, and the writers who keep writing oppression,

Isaiah 10:2 to turn aside the needy from justice and to rob the poor of my people of their right, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey!

Isaiah 10:3 What will you do on the day of punishment, in the storm which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth?

Isaiah 10:4 Nothing remains but to crouch among the prisoners or fall among the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away and his hand is stretched out still.

Isaiah 10:5 Ah, Assyria, the rod of my anger, the staff of my fury!

Isaiah 10:6 Against a godless nation I send him, and against the people of my wrath I command him, to take spoil and seize plunder, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Isaiah 10:7 But he does not so intend, and his mind does not so think; but it is in his mind to destroy, and to cut off nations not a few;

Isaiah 10:8 for he says: “Are not my commanders all kings?

Isaiah 10:9 Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad? Is not Samaria like Damascus?

Isaiah 10:10 As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols whose graven images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

Isaiah 10:11 shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols as I have done to Samaria and her images?”

Isaiah 10:12 When the Lord has finished all his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem he will punish the arrogant boasting of the king of Assyria and his haughty pride.

Isaiah 10:13 For he says: “By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I have understanding; I have removed the boundaries of peoples, and have plundered their treasures; like a bull I have brought down those who sat on thrones.

Isaiah 10:14 My hand has found like a nest the wealth of the peoples; and as men gather eggs that have been forsaken so I have gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved a wing, or opened the mouth, or chirped.”

Isaiah 10:15 Shall the axe vaunt itself over him who hews with it, or the saw magnify itself against him who wields it? As if a rod should wield him who lifts it, or as if a staff should lift him who is not wood!

Isaiah 10:16 Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will send wasting sickness among his stout warriors, and under his glory a burning will be kindled, like the burning of fire.

Isaiah 10:17 The light of Israel will become a fire, and his Holy One a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and briers in one day.

Isaiah 10:18 The glory of his forest and of his fruitful land the LORD will destroy, both soul and body, and it will be as when a sick man wastes away.

Isaiah 10:19 The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so few that a child can write them down.

Isaiah 10:20 In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean upon him that smote them, but will lean upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

Isaiah 10:21 A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

Isaiah 10:22 For though your people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness.

Isaiah 10:23 For the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will make a full end, as decreed, in the midst of all the earth.

Isaiah 10:24 Therefore thus says the Lord, the LORD of hosts: “O my people, who dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrians when they smite with the rod and lift up their staff against you as the Egyptians did.

Isaiah 10:25 For in a very little while my indignation will come to an end, and my anger will be directed to their destruction.

Isaiah 10:26 And the LORD of hosts will wield against them a scourge, as when he smote Midian at the rock of Oreb; and his rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it as he did in Egypt.

Isaiah 10:27 And in that day his burden will depart from your shoulder, and his yoke will be destroyed from your neck.” He has gone up from Rimmon,

Isaiah 10:28 he has come to Aiath; he has passed through Migron, at Michmash he stores his baggage;

Isaiah 10:29 they have crossed over the pass, at Geba they lodge for the night; Ramah trembles, Gibeah of Saul has fled.

Isaiah 10:30 Cry aloud, O daughter of Gallim! Hearken, O Laishah! Answer her, O Anathoth!

Isaiah 10:31 Madmenah is in flight, the inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety.

Isaiah 10:32 This very day he will halt at Nob, he will shake his fist at the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 10:33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts will lop the boughs with terrifying power; the great in height will be hewn down, and the lofty will be brought low.

Isaiah 10:34 He will cut down the thickets of the forest with an axe, and Lebanon with its majestic trees will fall.

Isaiah 11:1 There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots.

Isaiah 11:2 And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

Isaiah 11:3 And his delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear;

Isaiah 11:4 but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall slay the wicked.

Isaiah 11:5 Righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist, and faithfulness the girdle of his loins.

Isaiah 11:6 The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them.

Isaiah 11:7 The cow and the bear shall feed; their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

Isaiah 11:8 The sucking child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder’s den.

Isaiah 11:9 They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

Isaiah 11:10 In that day the root of Jesse shall stand as an ensign to the peoples; him shall the nations seek, and his dwellings shall be glorious.

Isaiah 11:11 In that day the Lord will extend his hand yet a second time to recover the remnant which is left of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Ethiopia, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.

Isaiah 11:12 He will raise an ensign for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

Isaiah 11:13 The jealousy of Ephraim shall depart, and those who harass Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah, and Judah shall not harass Ephraim.

Isaiah 11:14 But they shall swoop down upon the shoulder of the Philistines in the west, and together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall put forth their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them.

Isaiah 11:15 And the LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the sea of Egypt; and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching wind, and smite it into seven channels that men may cross dryshod.

Isaiah 11:16 And there will be a highway from Assyria for the remnant which is left of his people, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

Isaiah 12:1 You will say in that day: “I will give thanks to thee, O LORD, for though thou wast angry with me, thy anger turned away, and thou didst comfort me.

Isaiah 12:2 “Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.”

Isaiah 12:3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Isaiah 12:4 And you will say in that day: “Give thanks to the LORD, call upon his name; make known his deeds among the nations, proclaim that his name is exalted.

Isaiah 12:5 “Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously; let this be known in all the earth.

Isaiah 12:6 Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.”

Isaiah 13:1 The oracle concerning Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

Isaiah 13:2 On a bare hill raise a signal, cry aloud to them; wave the hand for them to enter the gates of the nobles.

Isaiah 13:3 I myself have commanded my consecrated ones, have summoned my mighty men to execute my anger, my proudly exulting ones.

Isaiah 13:4 Hark, a tumult on the mountains as of a great multitude! Hark, an uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathering together! The LORD of hosts is mustering a host for battle.

Isaiah 13:5 They come from a distant land, from the end of the heavens, the LORD and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole earth.

Isaiah 13:6 Wail, for the day of the LORD is near; as destruction from the Almighty it will come!

Isaiah 13:7 Therefore all hands will be feeble, and every man’s heart will melt,

Isaiah 13:8 and they will be dismayed. Pangs and agony will seize them; they will be in anguish like a woman in travail. They will look aghast at one another; their faces will be aflame.

Isaiah 13:9 Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger, to make the earth a desolation and to destroy its sinners from it.

Isaiah 13:10 For the stars of the heavens and their constellations will not give their light; the sun will be dark at its rising and the moon will not shed its light.

Isaiah 13:11 I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will put an end to the pride of the arrogant, and lay low the haughtiness of the ruthless.

Isaiah 13:12 I will make men more rare than fine gold, and mankind than the gold of Ophir.

Isaiah 13:13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, at the wrath of the LORD of hosts in the day of his fierce anger.

Isaiah 13:14 And like a hunted gazelle, or like sheep with none to gather them, every man will turn to his own people, and every man will flee to his own land.

Isaiah 13:15 Whoever is found will be thrust through, and whoever is caught will fall by the sword.

Isaiah 13:16 Their infants will be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses will be plundered and their wives ravished.

Isaiah 13:17 Behold, I am stirring up the Medes against them, who have no regard for silver and do not delight in gold.

Isaiah 13:18 Their bows will slaughter the young men; they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb; their eyes will not pity children.

Isaiah 13:19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the splendor and pride of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew them.

Isaiah 13:20 It will never be inhabited or dwelt in for all generations; no Arab will pitch his tent there, no shepherds will make their flocks lie down there.

Isaiah 13:21 But wild beasts will lie down there, and its houses will be full of howling creatures; there ostriches will dwell, and there satyrs will dance.

Isaiah 13:22 Hyenas will cry in its towers, and jackals in the pleasant palaces; its time is close at hand and its days will not be prolonged.

Isaiah 14:1 The LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will again choose Israel, and will set them in their own land, and aliens will join them and will cleave to the house of Jacob.

Isaiah 14:2 And the peoples will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them in the LORD’s land as male and female slaves; they will take captive those who were their captors, and rule over those who oppressed them.

Isaiah 14:3 When the LORD has given you rest from your pain and turmoil and the hard service with which you were made to serve,

Isaiah 14:4 you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon: “How the oppressor has ceased, the insolent fury ceased!

Isaiah 14:5 The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of rulers,

Isaiah 14:6 that smote the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows, that ruled the nations in anger with unrelenting persecution.

Isaiah 14:7 The whole earth is at rest and quiet; they break forth into singing.

Isaiah 14:8 The cypresses rejoice at you, the cedars of Lebanon, saying, `Since you were laid low, no hewer comes up against us.’

Isaiah 14:9 Sheol beneath is stirred up to meet you when you come, it rouses the shades to greet you, all who were leaders of the earth; it raises from their thrones all who were kings of the nations.

Isaiah 14:10 All of them will speak and say to you: `You too have become as weak as we! You have become like us!’

Isaiah 14:11 Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, the sound of your harps; maggots are the bed beneath you, and worms are your covering.

Isaiah 14:12 “How you are fallen from heaven, O Day Star, son of Dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, you who laid the nations low!

Isaiah 14:13 You said in your heart, `I will ascend to heaven; above the stars of God I will set my throne on high; I will sit on the mount of assembly in the far north;

Isaiah 14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will make myself like the Most High.’

Isaiah 14:15 But you are brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the Pit.

Isaiah 14:16 Those who see you will stare at you, and ponder over you: `Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms,

Isaiah 14:17 who made the world like a desert and overthrew its cities, who did not let his prisoners go home?’

Isaiah 14:18 All the kings of the nations lie in glory, each in his own tomb;

Isaiah 14:19 but you are cast out, away from your sepulchre, like a loathed untimely birth, clothed with the slain, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the Pit, like a dead body trodden under foot.

Isaiah 14:20 You will not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land, you have slain your people. “May the descendants of evildoers nevermore be named!

Isaiah 14:21 Prepare slaughter for his sons because of the guilt of their fathers, lest they rise and possess the earth, and fill the face of the world with cities.”

Isaiah 14:22 “I will rise up against them,” says the LORD of hosts, “and will cut off from Babylon name and remnant, offspring and posterity, says the LORD.

Isaiah 14:23 And I will make it a possession of the hedgehog, and pools of water, and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction, says the LORD of hosts.”

Isaiah 14:24 The LORD of hosts has sworn: “As I have planned, so shall it be, and as I have purposed, so shall it stand, Isaiah 14:25 that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains trample him under foot; and his yoke shall depart from them, and his burden from their shoulder.”

Isaiah 14:26 This is the purpose that is purposed concerning the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.

Isaiah 14:27 For the LORD of hosts has purposed, and who will annul it? His hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

Isaiah 14:28 In the year that King Ahaz died came this oracle:

Isaiah 14:29 "Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of you, that the rod which smote you is broken, for from the serpent's root will come forth an adder, and its fruit will be a flying serpent.

Isaiah 14:30 And the first-born of the poor will feed, and the needy lie down in safety; but I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant I will slay.

Isaiah 14:31 Wail, O gate; cry, O city; melt in fear, O Philistia, all of you! For smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks."

Isaiah 14:32 What will one answer the messengers of the nation? "The LORD has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people find refuge."

Isaiah 15:1 An oracle concerning Moab. Because Ar is laid waste in a night Moab is undone; because Kir is laid waste in a night Moab is undone.

Isaiah 15:2 The daughter of Dibon has gone up to the high places to weep; over Nebo and over Medeba Moab wails. On every head is baldness, every beard is shorn;

Isaiah 15:3 in the streets they gird on sackcloth; on the housetops and in the squares every one wails and melts in tears.

Isaiah 15:4 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voice is heard as far as Jahaz; therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembles.

Isaiah 15:5 My heart cries out for Moab; his fugitives flee to Zoar, to Eglathshelishiyah. For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping; on the road to Horonaim they raise a cry of destruction;

Isaiah 15:6 the waters of Nimrim are a desolation; the grass is withered, the new growth fails, the verdure is no more.

Isaiah 15:7 Therefore the abundance they have gained and what they have laid up they carry away over the Brook of the Willows.

Isaiah 15:8 For a cry has gone round the land of Moab; the wailing reaches to Eglaim, the wailing reaches to Beerelim.

Isaiah 15:9 For the waters of Dibon are full of blood; yet I will bring upon Dibon even more, a lion for those of Moab who escape, for the remnant of the land.

Isaiah 16:1 They have sent lambs to the ruler of the land, from Sela, by way of the desert, to the mount of the daughter of Zion.

Isaiah 16:2 Like fluttering birds, like scattered nestlings, so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.

Isaiah 16:3 “Give counsel, grant justice; make your shade like night at the height of noon; hide the outcasts, betray not the fugitive;

Isaiah 16:4 let the outcasts of Moab sojourn among you; be a refuge to them from the destroyer. When the oppressor is no more, and destruction has ceased, and he who tramples under foot has vanished from the land,

Isaiah 16:5 then a throne will be established in steadfast love and on it will sit in faithfulness in the tent of David one who judges and seeks justice and is swift to do righteousness.”

Isaiah 16:6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, how proud he was; of his arrogance, his pride, and his insolence—his boasts are false.

Isaiah 16:7 Therefore let Moab wail, let every one wail for Moab. Mourn, utterly stricken, for the raisin-cakes of Kirhareseth.

Isaiah 16:8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah; the lords of the nations have struck down its branches, which reached to Jazer and strayed to the desert; its shoots spread abroad and passed over the sea.

Isaiah 16:9 Therefore I weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah; I drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; for upon your fruit and your harvest the battle shout has fallen.

Isaiah 16:10 And joy and gladness are taken away from the fruitful field; and in the vineyards no songs are sung, no shouts are raised; no treader treads out wine in the presses; the vintage shout is hushed.

Isaiah 16:11 Therefore my soul moans like a lyre for Moab, and my heart for Kirheres.

Isaiah 16:12 And when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself upon the high place, when he comes to his sanctuary to pray, he will not prevail.

Isaiah 16:13 This is the word which the LORD spoke concerning Moab in the past.

Isaiah 16:14 But now the LORD says, “In three years, like the years of a hireling, the glory of Moab will be brought into contempt, in spite of all his great multitude, and those who survive will be very few and feeble.”

Isaiah 17:1 An oracle concerning Damascus. Behold, Damascus will cease to be a city, and will become a heap of ruins.

Isaiah 17:2 Her cities will be deserted for ever; they will be for flocks, which will lie down, and none will make them afraid.

Isaiah 17:3 The fortress will disappear from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus; and the remnant of Syria will be like the glory of the children of Israel, says the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 17:4 And in that day the glory of Jacob will be brought low, and the fat of his flesh will grow lean.

Isaiah 17:5 And it shall be as when the reaper gathers standing grain and his arm harvests the ears, and as when one gleans the ears of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

Isaiah 17:6 Gleanings will be left in it, as when an olive tree is beaten—two or three berries in the top of the highest bough, four or five on the branches of a fruit tree, says the LORD God of Israel.

Isaiah 17:7 In that day men will regard their Maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel;

Isaiah 17:8 they will not have regard for the altars, the work of their hands, and they will not look to what their own fingers have made, either the Asherim or the altars of incense.

Isaiah 17:9 In that day their strong cities will be like the deserted places of the Hivites and the Amorites, which they deserted because of the children of Israel, and there will be desolation.

Isaiah 17:10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the Rock of your refuge; therefore, though you plant pleasant plants and set out slips of an alien god,

Isaiah 17:11 though you make them grow on the day that you plant them, and make them blossom in the morning that you sow; yet the harvest will flee away in a day of grief and incurable pain.

Isaiah 17:12 Ah, the thunder of many peoples, they thunder like the thundering of the sea! Ah, the roar of nations, they roar like the roaring of mighty waters!

Isaiah 17:13 The nations roar like the roaring of many waters, but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far away, chased like chaff on the mountains before the wind and whirling dust before the storm.

Isaiah 17:14 At evening time, behold, terror! Before morning, they are no more! This is the portion of those who despoil us, and the lot of those who plunder us.

Isaiah 18:1 Ah, land of whirring wings which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia;

Isaiah 18:2 which sends ambassadors by the Nile, in vessels of papyrus upon the waters! Go, you swift messengers, to a nation, tall and smooth, to a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide.

Isaiah 18:3 All you inhabitants of the world, you who dwell on the earth, when a signal is raised on the mountains, look! When a trumpet is blown, hear!

Isaiah 18:4 For thus the LORD said to me: “I will quietly look from my dwelling like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

Isaiah 18:5 For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the shoots with pruning hooks, and the spreading branches he will hew away.

Isaiah 18:6 They shall all of them be left to the birds of prey of the mountains and to the beasts of the earth. And the birds of prey will summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth will winter upon them.

Isaiah 18:7 At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide, to Mount Zion, the place of the name of the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 19:1 An oracle concerning Egypt. Behold, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud and comes to Egypt; and the idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence, and the heart of the Egyptians will melt within them.

Isaiah 19:2 And I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians, and they will fight, every man against his brother and every man against his neighbor, city against city, kingdom against kingdom;

Isaiah 19:3 and the spirit of the Egyptians within them will be emptied out, and I will confound their plans; and they will consult the idols and the sorcerers, and the mediums and the wizards;

Isaiah 19:4 and I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a hard master; and a fierce king will rule over them, says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 19:5 And the waters of the Nile will be dried up, and the river will be parched and dry;

Isaiah 19:6 and its canals will become foul, and the branches of Egypt’s Nile will diminish and dry up, reeds and rushes will rot away.

Isaiah 19:7 There will be bare places by the Nile, on the brink of the Nile, and all that is sown by the Nile will dry up, be driven away, and be no more.

Isaiah 19:8 The fishermen will mourn and lament, all who cast hook in the Nile; and they will languish who spread nets upon the water.

Isaiah 19:9 The workers in combed flax will be in despair, and the weavers of white cotton.

Isaiah 19:10 Those who are the pillars of the land will be crushed, and all who work for hire will be grieved.

Isaiah 19:11 The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish; the wise counselors of Pharaoh give stupid counsel. How can you say to Pharaoh, “I am a son of the wise, a son of ancient kings”?

Isaiah 19:12 Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you and make known what the LORD of hosts has purposed against Egypt.

Isaiah 19:13 The princes of Zoan have become fools, and the princes of Memphis are deluded; those who are the cornerstones of her tribes have led Egypt astray.

Isaiah 19:14 The LORD has mingled within her a spirit of confusion; and they have made Egypt stagger in all her doings as a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

Isaiah 19:15 And there will be nothing for Egypt which head or tail, palm branch or reed, may do.

Isaiah 19:16 In that day the Egyptians will be like women, and tremble with fear before the hand which the LORD of hosts shakes over them.

Isaiah 19:17 And the land of Judah will become a terror to the Egyptians; every one to whom it is mentioned will fear because of the purpose which the LORD of hosts has purposed against them.

Isaiah 19:18 In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt which speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One of these will be called the City of the Sun.

Isaiah 19:19 In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border.

Isaiah 19:20 It will be a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; when they cry to the LORD because of oppressors he will send them a savior, and will defend and deliver them.

Isaiah 19:21 And the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians; and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day and worship with sacrifice and burnt offering, and they will make vows to the LORD and perform them.

Isaiah 19:22 And the LORD will smite Egypt, smiting and healing, and they will return to the LORD, and he will heed their supplications and heal them.

Isaiah 19:23 In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

Isaiah 19:24 In that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth,

Isaiah 19:25 whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, “Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my heritage.”

Isaiah 20:1 In the year that the commander in chief, who was sent by Sargon the king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and fought against it and took it, —

Isaiah 20:2 at that time the LORD had spoken by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, “Go, and loose the sackcloth from your loins and take off your shoes from your feet,” and he had done so, walking naked and barefoot —

Isaiah 20:3 the LORD said, “As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a portent against Egypt and Ethiopia,

Isaiah 20:4 so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians captives and the Ethiopians exiles, both the young and the old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

Isaiah 20:5 Then they shall be dismayed and confounded because of Ethiopia their hope and of Egypt their boast.

Isaiah 20:6 And the inhabitants of this coastland will say in that day, `Behold, this is what has happened to those in whom we hoped and to whom we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria! And we, how shall we escape?'”

Isaiah 21:1 The oracle concerning the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the Negeb sweep on, it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.

Isaiah 21:2 A stern vision is told to me; the plunderer plunders, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, O Elam, lay siege, O Media; all the sighing she has caused I bring to an end.

Isaiah 21:3 Therefore my loins are filled with anguish; pangs have seized me, like the pangs of a woman in travail; I am bowed down so that I cannot hear, I am dismayed so that I cannot see.

Isaiah 21:4 My mind reels, horror has appalled me; the twilight I longed for has been turned for me into trembling.

Isaiah 21:5 They prepare the table, they spread the rugs, they eat, they drink. Arise, O princes, oil the shield!

Isaiah 21:6 For thus the Lord said to me: “Go, set a watchman, let him announce what he sees.

Isaiah 21:7 When he sees riders, horsemen in pairs, riders on asses, riders on camels, let him listen diligently, very diligently.”

Isaiah 21:8 Then he who saw cried: “Upon a watchtower I stand, O Lord, continually by day, and at my post I am stationed whole nights.

Isaiah 21:9 And, behold, here come riders, horsemen in pairs!” And he answered, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the images of her gods he has shattered to the ground.”

Isaiah 21:10 O my threshed and winnowed one, what I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I announce to you.

Isaiah 21:11 The oracle concerning Dumah. One is calling to me from Seir, “Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?”

Isaiah 21:12 The watchman says: “Morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire; come back again.”

Isaiah 21:13 The oracle concerning Arabia. In the thickets in Arabia you will lodge, O caravans of Dedanites.

Isaiah 21:14 To the thirsty bring water, meet the fugitive with bread, O inhabitants of the land of Tema.

Isaiah 21:15 For they have fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the press of battle.

Isaiah 21:16 For thus the Lord said to me, “Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kedar will come to an end;

Isaiah 21:17 and the remainder of the archers of the mighty men of the sons of Kedar will be few; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.”

Isaiah 22:1 The oracle concerning the valley of vision. What do you mean that you have gone up, all of you, to the housetops,

Isaiah 22:2 you who are full of shoutings, tumultuous city, exultant town? Your slain are not slain with the sword or dead in battle.

Isaiah 22:3 All your rulers have fled together, without the bow they were captured. All of you who were found were captured, though they had fled far away.

Isaiah 22:4 Therefore I said: “Look away from me, let me weep bitter tears; do not labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people.”

Isaiah 22:5 For the Lord GOD of hosts has a day of tumult and trampling and confusion in the valley of vision, a battering down of walls and a shouting to the mountains.

Isaiah 22:6 And Elam bore the quiver with chariots and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

Isaiah 22:7 Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen took their stand at the gates.

Isaiah 22:8 He has taken away the covering of Judah. In that day you looked to the weapons of the House of the Forest,

Isaiah 22:9 and you saw that the breaches of the city of David were many, and you collected the waters of the lower pool,

Isaiah 22:10 and you counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall.

Isaiah 22:11 You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you did not look to him who did it, or have regard for him who planned it long ago.

Isaiah 22:12 In that day the Lord GOD of hosts called to weeping and mourning, to baldness and girding with sackcloth;

Isaiah 22:13 and behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine. “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

Isaiah 22:14 The LORD of hosts has revealed himself in my ears: “Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you till you die,” says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Isaiah 22:15 Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts, “Come, go to this steward, to Shebna, who is over the household, and say to him:

Isaiah 22:16 What have you to do here and whom have you here, that you have hewn here a tomb for yourself, you who hew a tomb on the height, and carve a habitation for yourself in the rock?

Isaiah 22:17 Behold, the LORD will hurl you away violently, O you strong man. He will seize firm hold on you,

Isaiah 22:18 and whirl you round and round, and throw you like a ball into a wide land; there you shall die, and there shall be your splendid chariots, you shame of your master’s house.

Isaiah 22:19 I will thrust you from your office, and you will be cast down from your station.

Isaiah 22:20 In that day I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah,

Isaiah 22:21 and I will clothe him with your robe, and will bind your girdle on him, and will commit your authority to his hand; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

Isaiah 22:22 And I will place on his shoulder the key of the house of David; he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

Isaiah 22:23 And I will fasten him like a peg in a sure place, and he will become a throne of honor to his father’s house.

Isaiah 22:24 And they will hang on him the whole weight of his father’s house, the offspring and issue, every small vessel, from the cups to all the flagons.

Isaiah 22:25 In that day, says the LORD of hosts, the peg that was fastened in a sure place will give way; and it will be cut down and fall, and the burden that was upon it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 23:1 The oracle concerning Tyre. Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for Tyre is laid waste, without house or haven! From the land of Cyprus it is revealed to them.

Isaiah 23:2 Be still, O inhabitants of the coast, O merchants of Sidon; your messengers passed over the sea

Isaiah 23:3 and were on many waters; your revenue was the grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile; you were the merchant of the nations.

Isaiah 23:4 Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying: “I have neither travailed nor given birth, I have neither reared young men nor brought up virgins.”

Isaiah 23:5 When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish over the report about Tyre.

Isaiah 23:6 Pass over to Tarshish, wail, O inhabitants of the coast!

Isaiah 23:7 Is this your exultant city whose origin is from days of old, whose feet carried her to settle afar?

Isaiah 23:8 Who has purposed this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants were princes, whose traders were the honored of the earth?

Isaiah 23:9 The LORD of hosts has purposed it, to defile the pride of all glory, to dishonor all the honored of the earth.

Isaiah 23:10 Overflow your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no restraint any more.

Isaiah 23:11 He has stretched out his hand over the sea, he has shaken the kingdoms; the LORD has given command concerning Canaan to destroy its strongholds.

Isaiah 23:12 And he said: “You will no more exult, O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon; arise, pass over to Cyprus, even there you will have no rest.”

Isaiah 23:13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans! This is the people; it was not Assyria. They destined Tyre for wild beasts. They erected their siegetowers, they razed her palaces, they made her a ruin.

Isaiah 23:14 Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste.

Isaiah 23:15 In that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot:

Isaiah 23:16 “Take a harp, go about the city, O forgotten harlot! Make sweet melody, sing many songs, that you may be remembered.”

Isaiah 23:17 At the end of seventy years, the LORD will visit Tyre, and she will return to her hire, and will play the harlot with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

Isaiah 23:18 Her merchandise and her hire will be dedicated to the LORD; it will not be stored or hoarded, but her merchandise will supply abundant food and fine clothing for those who dwell before the LORD.

Isaiah 24:1 Behold, the LORD will lay waste the earth and make it desolate, and he will twist its surface and scatter its inhabitants.

Isaiah 24:2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the slave, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor.

Isaiah 24:3 The earth shall be utterly laid waste and utterly despoiled; for the LORD has spoken this word.

Isaiah 24:4 The earth mourns and withers, the world languishes and withers; the heavens languish together with the earth.

Isaiah 24:5 The earth lies polluted under its inhabitants; for they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant.

Isaiah 24:6 Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt; therefore the inhabitants of the earth are scorched, and few men are left.

Isaiah 24:7 The wine mourns, the vine languishes, all the merry-hearted sigh.

Isaiah 24:8 The mirth of the timbrels is stilled, the noise of the jubilant has ceased, the mirth of the lyre is stilled.

Isaiah 24:9 No more do they drink wine with singing; strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.

Isaiah 24:10 The city of chaos is broken down, every house is shut up so that none can enter.

Isaiah 24:11 There is an outcry in the streets for lack of wine; all joy has reached its eventide; the gladness of the earth is banished.

Isaiah 24:12 Desolation is left in the city, the gates are battered into ruins.

Isaiah 24:13 For thus it shall be in the midst of the earth among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, as at the gleaning when the vintage is done.

Isaiah 24:14 They lift up their voices, they sing for joy; over the majesty of the LORD they shout from the west.

Isaiah 24:15 Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; in the coastlands of the sea, to the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

Isaiah 24:16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise, of glory to the Righteous One. But I say, “I pine away, I pine away. Woe is me! For the treacherous deal treacherously, the treacherous deal very treacherously.”

Isaiah 24:17 Terror, and the pit, and the snare are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth!

Isaiah 24:18 He who flees at the sound of the terror shall fall into the pit; and he who climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare. For the windows of heaven are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.

Isaiah 24:19 The earth is utterly broken, the earth is rent asunder, the earth is violently shaken.

Isaiah 24:20 The earth staggers like a drunken man, it sways like a hut; its transgression lies heavy upon it, and it falls, and will not rise again.

Isaiah 24:21 On that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven, in heaven, and the kings of the earth, on the earth.

Isaiah 24:22 They will be gathered together as prisoners in a pit; they will be shut up in a prison, and after many days they will be punished.

Isaiah 24:23 Then the moon will be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem and before his elders he will manifest his glory.

Isaiah 25:1 O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

Isaiah 25:2 For thou hast made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of aliens is a city no more, it will never be rebuilt.

Isaiah 25:3 Therefore strong peoples will glorify thee; cities of ruthless nations will fear thee.

Isaiah 25:4 For thou hast been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat; for the blast of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall,

Isaiah 25:5 like heat in a dry place. Thou dost subdue the noise of the aliens; as heat by the shade of a cloud, so the song of the ruthless is stilled.

Isaiah 25:6 On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of wine on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wine on the lees well refined.

Isaiah 25:7 And he will destroy on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations.

Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death for ever, and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth; for the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 25:9 It will be said on that day, “Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.”

Isaiah 25:10 For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain, and Moab shall be trodden down in his place, as straw is trodden down in a dung-pit.

Isaiah 25:11 And he will spread out his hands in the midst of it as a swimmer spreads his hands out to swim; but the LORD will lay low his pride together with the skill of his hands.

Isaiah 25:12 And the high fortifications of his walls he will bring down, lay low, and cast to the ground, even to the dust.

Isaiah 26:1 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: “We have a strong city; he sets up salvation as walls and bulwarks.

Isaiah 26:2 Open the gates, that the righteous nation which keeps faith may enter in.

Isaiah 26:3 Thou dost keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee, because he trusts in thee.

Isaiah 26:4 Trust in the LORD for ever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock.

Isaiah 26:5 For he has brought low the inhabitants of the height, the lofty city. He lays it low, lays it low to the ground, casts it to the dust.

Isaiah 26:6 The foot tramples it, the feet of the poor, the steps of the needy.”

Isaiah 26:7 The way of the righteous is level; thou dost make smooth the path of the righteous.

Isaiah 26:8 In the path of thy judgments, O LORD, we wait for thee; thy memorial name is the desire of our soul.

Isaiah 26:9 My soul yearns for thee in the night, my spirit within me earnestly seeks thee. For when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

Isaiah 26:10 If favor is shown to the wicked, he does not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness he deals perversely and does not see the majesty of the LORD.

Isaiah 26:11 O LORD, thy hand is lifted up, but they see it not. Let them see thy zeal for thy people, and be ashamed. Let the fire for thy adversaries consume them.

Isaiah 26:12 O LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us, thou hast wrought for us all our works.

Isaiah 26:13 O LORD our God, other lords besides thee have ruled over us, but thy name alone we acknowledge.

Isaiah 26:14 They are dead, they will not live; they are shades, they will not arise; to that end thou hast visited them with destruction and wiped out all remembrance of them.

Isaiah 26:15 But thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation; thou art glorified; thou hast enlarged all the borders of the land.

Isaiah 26:16 O LORD, in distress they sought thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

Isaiah 26:17 Like a woman with child, who writhes and cries out in her pangs, when she is near her time, so were we because of thee, O LORD;

Isaiah 26:18 we were with child, we writhed, we have as it were brought forth wind. We have wrought no deliverance in the earth, and the inhabitants of the world have not fallen.

Isaiah 26:19 Thy dead shall live, their bodies shall rise. O dwellers in the dust, awake and sing for joy! For thy dew is a dew of light, and on the land of the shades thou wilt let it fall.

Isaiah 26:20 Come, my people, enter your chambers, and shut your doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until the wrath is past.

Isaiah 26:21 For behold, the LORD is coming forth out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity, and the earth will disclose the blood shed upon her, and will no more cover her slain.

Isaiah 27:1 In that day the LORD with his hard and great and strong sword will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent, Leviathan the twisting serpent, and he will slay the dragon that is in the sea.

Isaiah 27:2 In that day: “A pleasant vineyard, sing of it!

Isaiah 27:3 I, the LORD, am its keeper; every moment I water it. Lest any one harm it, I guard it night and day;

Isaiah 27:4 I have no wrath. Would that I had thorns and briers to battle! I would set out against them, I would burn them up together.

Isaiah 27:5 Or let them lay hold of my protection, let them make peace with me, let them make peace with me.”

Isaiah 27:6 In days to come Jacob shall take root, Israel shall blossom and put forth shoots, and fill the whole world with fruit.

Isaiah 27:7 Has he smitten them as he smote those who smote them? Or have they been slain as their slayers were slain?

Isaiah 27:8 Measure by measure, by exile thou didst contend with them; he removed them with his fierce blast in the day of the east wind.

Isaiah 27:9 Therefore by this the guilt of Jacob will be expiated, and this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin: when he makes all the stones of the altars like chalkstones crushed to pieces, no Asherim or incense altars will remain standing.

Isaiah 27:10 For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness; there the calf grazes, there he lies down, and strips its branches.

Isaiah 27:11 When its boughs are dry, they are broken; women come and make a fire of them. For this is a people without discernment; therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, he that formed them will show them no favor.

Isaiah 27:12 In that day from the river Euphrates to the Brook of Egypt the LORD will thresh out the grain, and you will be gathered one by one, O people of Israel.

Isaiah 27:13 And in that day a great trumpet will be blown, and those who were lost in the land of Assyria and those who were driven out to the land of Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28:1 Woe to the proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of the rich valley of those overcome with wine!

Isaiah 28:2 Behold, the Lord has one who is mighty and strong; like a storm of hail, a destroying tempest, like a storm of mighty, overflowing waters, he will cast down to the earth with violence.

Isaiah 28:3 The proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot;

Isaiah 28:4 and the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of the rich valley, will be like a first-ripe fig before the summer: when a man sees it, he eats it up as soon as it is in his hand.

Isaiah 28:5 In that day the LORD of hosts will be a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the remnant of his people;

Isaiah 28:6 and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

Isaiah 28:7 These also reel with wine and stagger with strong drink; the priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, they are confused with wine, they stagger with strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in giving judgment.

Isaiah 28:8 For all tables are full of vomit, no place is without filthiness.

Isaiah 28:9 “Whom will he teach knowledge, and to whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, those taken from the breast?

Isaiah 28:10 For it is precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little.”

Isaiah 28:11 Nay, but by men of strange lips and with an alien tongue the LORD will speak to this people,

Isaiah 28:12 to whom he has said, “This is rest; give rest to the weary; and this is repose”; yet they would not hear.

Isaiah 28:13 Therefore the word of the LORD will be to them precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little; that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

Isaiah 28:14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers, who rule this people in Jerusalem!

Isaiah 28:15 Because you have said, “We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol we have an agreement; when the overwhelming scourge passes through it will not come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and in falsehood we have taken shelter”;

Isaiah 28:16 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am laying in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone, of a sure foundation: `He who believes will not be in haste.’

Isaiah 28:17 And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plummet; and hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters will overwhelm the shelter.”

Isaiah 28:18 Then your covenant with death will be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand; when the overwhelming scourge passes through you will be beaten down by it.

Isaiah 28:19 As often as it passes through it will take you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be sheer terror to understand the message.

Isaiah 28:20 For the bed is too short to stretch oneself on it, and the covering too narrow to wrap oneself in it.

Isaiah 28:21 For the LORD will rise up as on Mount Perazim, he will be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon; to do his deed—strange is his deed! and to work his work—alien is his work!

Isaiah 28:22 Now therefore do not scoff, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord GOD of hosts upon the whole land.

Isaiah 28:23 Give ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

Isaiah 28:24 Does he who plows for sowing plow continually? does he continually open and harrow his ground?

Isaiah 28:25 When he has leveled its surface, does he not scatter dill, sow cummin, and put in wheat in rows and barley in its proper place, and spelt as the border?

Isaiah 28:26 For he is instructed aright; his God teaches him.

Isaiah 28:27 Dill is not threshed with a threshing sledge, nor is a cart wheel rolled over cummin; but dill is beaten out with a stick, and cummin with a rod.

Isaiah 28:28 Does one crush bread grain? No, he does not thresh it for ever; when he drives his cart wheel over it with his horses, he does not crush it.

Isaiah 28:29 This also comes from the LORD of hosts; he is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

Isaiah 29:1 Ho Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts run their round.

Isaiah 29:2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be moaning and lamentation, and she shall be to me like an Ariel.

Isaiah 29:3 And I will encamp against you round about, and will besiege you with towers and I will raise siegeworks against you.

Isaiah 29:4 Then deep from the earth you shall speak, from low in the dust your words shall come; your voice shall come from the ground like the voice of a ghost, and your speech shall whisper out of the dust.

Isaiah 29:5 But the multitude of your foes shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the ruthless like passing chaff. And in an instant, suddenly,

Isaiah 29:6 you will be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder and with earthquake and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire.

Isaiah 29:7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, all that fight against her and her stronghold and distress her, shall be like a dream, a vision of the night.

Isaiah 29:8 As when a hungry man dreams he is eating and awakes with his hunger not satisfied, or as when a thirsty man dreams he is drinking and awakes faint, with his thirst not quenched, so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against Mount Zion.

Isaiah 29:9 Stupefy yourselves and be in a stupor, blind yourselves and be blind! Be drunk, but not with wine; stagger, but not with strong drink!

Isaiah 29:10 For the LORD has poured out upon you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets, and covered your heads, the seers.

Isaiah 29:11 And the vision of all this has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed. When men give it to one who can read, saying, “Read this,” he says, “I cannot, for it is sealed.”

Isaiah 29:12 And when they give the book to one who cannot read, saying, “Read this,” he says, “I cannot read.”

Isaiah 29:13 And the Lord said: “Because this people draw near with their mouth and honor me with their lips, while their hearts are far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men learned by rote;

Isaiah 29:14 therefore, behold, I will again do marvelous things with this people, wonderful and marvelous; and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the discernment of their discerning men shall be hid.”

Isaiah 29:15 Woe to those who hide deep from the LORD their counsel, whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, “Who sees us? Who knows us?”

Isaiah 29:16 You turn things upside down! Shall the potter be regarded as the clay; that the thing made should say of its maker, “He did not make me”; or the thing formed say of him who formed it, “He has no understanding”?

Isaiah 29:17 Is it not yet a very little while until Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be regarded as a forest?

Isaiah 29:18 In that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see.

Isaiah 29:19 The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall exult in the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 29:20 For the ruthless shall come to nought and the scoffer cease, and all who watch to do evil shall be cut off,

Isaiah 29:21 who by a word make a man out to be an offender, and lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate, and with an empty plea turn aside him who is in the right.

Isaiah 29:22 Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: “Jacob shall no more be ashamed, no more shall his face grow pale.

Isaiah 29:23 For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

Isaiah 29:24 And those who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who murmur will accept instruction.”

Isaiah 30:1 “Woe to the rebellious children,” says the LORD, “who carry out a plan, but not mine; and who make a league, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin;

Isaiah 30:2 who set out to go down to Egypt, without asking for my counsel, to take refuge in the protection of Pharaoh, and to seek shelter in the shadow of Egypt!

Isaiah 30:3 Therefore shall the protection of Pharaoh turn to your shame, and the shelter in the shadow of Egypt to your humiliation.

Isaiah 30:4 For though his officials are at Zoan and his envoys reach Hanes,

Isaiah 30:5 every one comes to shame through a people that cannot profit them, that brings neither help nor profit, but shame and disgrace.”

Isaiah 30:6 An oracle on the beasts of the Negeb. Through a land of trouble and anguish, from where come the lioness and the lion, the viper and the flying serpent, they carry their riches on the backs of asses, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people that cannot profit them.

Isaiah 30:7 For Egypt’s help is worthless and empty, therefore I have called her “Rahab who sits still.”

Isaiah 30:8 And now, go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come as a witness for ever.

Isaiah 30:9 For they are a rebellious people, lying sons, sons who will not hear the instruction of the LORD;

Isaiah 30:10 who say to the seers, “See not”; and to the prophets, “Prophesy not to us what is right; speak to us smooth things, prophesy illusions, Isaiah 30:11 leave the way, turn aside from the path, let us hear no more of the Holy One of Israel.”

Isaiah 30:12 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, “Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on them;

Isaiah 30:13 therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a break in a high wall, bulging out, and about to collapse, whose crash comes suddenly, in an instant;

Isaiah 30:14 and its breaking is like that of a potter’s vessel which is smashed so ruthlessly that among its fragments not a sherd is found with which to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern.”

Isaiah 30:15 For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, “In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength.” And you would not,

Isaiah 30:16 but you said, “No! We will speed upon horses,” therefore you shall speed away; and, “We will ride upon swift steeds,” therefore your pursuers shall be swift.

Isaiah 30:17 A thousand shall flee at the threat of one, at the threat of five you shall flee, till you are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, like a signal on a hill.

Isaiah 30:18 Therefore the LORD waits to be gracious to you; therefore he exalts himself to show mercy to you. For the LORD is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him.

Isaiah 30:19 Yea, O people in Zion who dwell at Jerusalem; you shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry; when he hears it, he will answer you.

Isaiah 30:20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself any more, but your eyes shall see your Teacher.

Isaiah 30:21 And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, “This is the way, walk in it,” when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

Isaiah 30:22 Then you will defile your silver-covered graven images and your gold-plated molten images. You will scatter them as unclean things; you will say to them, “Begone!”

Isaiah 30:23 And he will give rain for the seed with which you sow the ground, and grain, the produce of the ground, which will be rich and plenteous. In that day your cattle will graze in large pastures;

Isaiah 30:24 and the oxen and the asses that till the ground will eat salted provender, which has been winnowed with shovel and fork.

Isaiah 30:25 And upon every lofty mountain and every high hill there will be brooks running with water, in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

Isaiah 30:26 Moreover the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day when the LORD binds up the hurt of his people, and heals the wounds inflicted by his blow.

Isaiah 30:27 Behold, the name of the LORD comes from far, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke; his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is like a devouring fire;

Isaiah 30:28 his breath is like an overflowing stream that reaches up to the neck; to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and to place on the jaws of the peoples a bridle that leads astray.

Isaiah 30:29 You shall have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one sets out to the sound of the flute to go to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

Isaiah 30:30 And the LORD will cause his majestic voice to be heard and the descending blow of his arm to be seen, in furious anger and a flame of devouring fire, with a cloudburst and tempest and hailstones.

Isaiah 30:31 The Assyrians will be terror-stricken at the voice of the LORD, when he smites with his rod.

Isaiah 30:32 And every stroke of the staff of punishment which the LORD lays upon them will be to the sound of timbrels and lyres; battling with brandished arm he will fight with them.

Isaiah 30:33 For a burning place has long been prepared; yea, for the king it is made ready, its pyre made deep and wide, with fire and wood in abundance; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, kindles it.

Isaiah 31:1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help and rely on horses, who trust in chariots because they are many and in horsemen because they are very strong, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel or consult the LORD!

Isaiah 31:2 And yet he is wise and brings disaster, he does not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the helpers of those who work iniquity.

Isaiah 31:3 The Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses are flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD stretches out his hand, the helper will stumble, and he who is helped will fall, and they will all perish together.

Isaiah 31:4 For thus the LORD said to me, As a lion or a young lion growls over his prey, and when a band of shepherds is called forth against him is not terrified by their shouting or daunted at their noise, so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight upon Mount Zion and upon its hill.

Isaiah 31:5 Like birds hovering, so the LORD of hosts will protect Jerusalem; he will protect and deliver it, he will spare and rescue it.

Isaiah 31:6 Turn to him from whom you have deeply revolted, O people of Israel.

Isaiah 31:7 For in that day every one shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold, which your hands have sinfully made for you.

Isaiah 31:8 “And the Assyrian shall fall by a sword, not of man; and a sword, not of man, shall devour him; and he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be put to forced labor.

Isaiah 31:9 His rock shall pass away in terror, and his officers desert the standard in panic,” says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32:1 Behold, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.

Isaiah 32:2 Each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a covert from the tempest, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.

Isaiah 32:3 Then the eyes of those who see will not be closed, and the ears of those who hear will hearken.

Isaiah 32:4 The mind of the rash will have good judgment, and the tongue of the stammerers will speak readily and distinctly.

Isaiah 32:5 The fool will no more be called noble, nor the knave said to be honorable.

Isaiah 32:6 For the fool speaks folly, and his mind plots iniquity: to practice ungodliness, to utter error concerning the LORD, to leave the craving of the hungry unsatisfied, and to deprive the thirsty of drink.

Isaiah 32:7 The knaveries of the knave are evil; he devises wicked devices to ruin the poor with lying words, even when the plea of the needy is right.

Isaiah 32:8 But he who is noble devises noble things, and by noble things he stands.

Isaiah 32:9 Rise up, you women who are at ease, hear my voice; you complacent daughters, give ear to my speech.

Isaiah 32:10 In little more than a year you will shudder, you complacent women; for the vintage will fail, the fruit harvest will not come.

Isaiah 32:11 Tremble, you women who are at ease, shudder, you complacent ones; strip, and make yourselves bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

Isaiah 32:12 Beat upon your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine,

Isaiah 32:13 for the soil of my people growing up in thorns and briers; yea, for all the joyous houses in the joyful city.

Isaiah 32:14 For the palace will be forsaken, the populous city deserted; the hill and the watchtower will become dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

Isaiah 32:15 until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is deemed a forest.

Isaiah 32:16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness abide in the fruitful field.

Isaiah 32:17 And the effect of righteousness will be peace, and the result of righteousness, quietness and trust for ever.

Isaiah 32:18 My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.

Isaiah 32:19 And the forest will utterly go down, and the city will be utterly laid low.

Isaiah 32:20 Happy are you who sow beside all waters, who let the feet of the ox and the ass range free.

Isaiah 33:1 Woe to you, destroyer, who yourself have not been destroyed; you treacherous one, with whom none has dealt treacherously! When you have ceased to destroy, you will be destroyed; and when you have made an end of dealing treacherously, you will be dealt with treacherously.

Isaiah 33:2 O LORD, be gracious to us; we wait for thee. Be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.

Isaiah 33:3 At the thunderous noise peoples flee, at the lifting up of thyself nations are scattered;

Isaiah 33:4 and spoil is gathered as the caterpillar gathers; as locusts leap, men leap upon it.

Isaiah 33:5 The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high; he will fill Zion with justice and righteousness;

Isaiah 33:6 and he will be the stability of your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

Isaiah 33:7 Behold, the valiant ones cry without; the envoys of peace weep bitterly.

Isaiah 33:8 The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceases. Covenants are broken, witnesses are despised, there is no regard for man.

Isaiah 33:9 The land mourns and languishes; Lebanon is confounded and withers away; Sharon is like a desert; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.

Isaiah 33:10 "Now I will arise," says the LORD, "now I will lift myself up; now I will be exalted.

Isaiah 33:11 You conceive chaff, you bring forth stubble; your breath is a fire that will consume you.

Isaiah 33:12 And the peoples will be as if burned to lime, like thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire."

Isaiah 33:13 Hear, you who are far off, what I have done; and you who are near, acknowledge my might.

Isaiah 33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless: "Who among us can dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings?"

Isaiah 33:15 He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly, who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands, lest they hold a bribe, who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed and shuts his eyes from looking upon evil,

Isaiah 33:16 he will dwell on the heights; his place of defense will be the fortresses of rocks; his bread will be given him, his water will be sure.

Isaiah 33:17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty; they will behold a land that stretches afar.

Isaiah 33:18 Your mind will muse on the terror: "Where is he who counted, where is he who weighed the tribute? Where is he who counted the towers?"

Isaiah 33:19 You will see no more the insolent people, the people of an obscure speech which you cannot comprehend, stammering in a tongue which you cannot understand.

Isaiah 33:20 Look upon Zion, the city of our appointed feasts! Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, an immovable tent, whose stakes will never be plucked up, nor will any of its cords be broken.

Isaiah 33:21 But there the LORD in majesty will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars can go, nor stately ship can pass.

Isaiah 33:22 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our ruler, the LORD is our king; he will save us.

Isaiah 33:23 Your tackle hangs loose; it cannot hold the mast firm in its place, or keep the sail spread out. Then prey and spoil in abundance will be divided; even the lame will take the prey.

Isaiah 33:24 And no inhabitant will say, “I am sick”; the people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

Isaiah 34:1 Draw near, O nations, to hear, and hearken, O peoples! Let the earth listen, and all that fills it; the world, and all that comes from it.

Isaiah 34:2 For the LORD is enraged against all the nations, and furious against all their host, he has doomed them, has given them over for slaughter.

Isaiah 34:3 Their slain shall be cast out, and the stench of their corpses shall rise; the mountains shall flow with their blood.

Isaiah 34:4 All the host of heaven shall rot away, and the skies roll up like a scroll. All their host shall fall, as leaves fall from the vine, like leaves falling from the fig tree.

Isaiah 34:5 For my sword has drunk its fill in the heavens; behold, it descends for judgment upon Edom, upon the people I have doomed.

Isaiah 34:6 The LORD has a sword; it is sated with blood, it is gorged with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

Isaiah 34:7 Wild oxen shall fall with them, and young steers with the mighty bulls. Their land shall be soaked with blood, and their soil made rich with fat.

Isaiah 34:8 For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.

Isaiah 34:9 And the streams of Edom shall be turned into pitch, and her soil into brimstone; her land shall become burning pitch.

Isaiah 34:10 Night and day it shall not be quenched; its smoke shall go up for ever. From generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever.

Isaiah 34:11 But the hawk and the porcupine shall possess it, the owl and the raven shall dwell in it. He shall stretch the line of confusion over it, and the plummet of chaos over its nobles.

Isaiah 34:12 They shall name it No Kingdom There, and all its princes shall be nothing.

Isaiah 34:13 Thorns shall grow over its strongholds, nettles and thistles in its fortresses. It shall be the haunt of jackals, an abode for ostriches.

Isaiah 34:14 And wild beasts shall meet with hyenas, the satyr shall cry to his fellow; yea, there shall the night hag alight, and find for herself a resting place.

Isaiah 34:15 There shall the owl nest and lay and hatch and gather her young in her shadow; yea, there shall the kites be gathered, each one with her mate.

Isaiah 34:16 Seek and read from the book of the LORD: Not one of these shall be missing; none shall be without her mate. For the mouth of the LORD has commanded, and his Spirit has gathered them.

Isaiah 34:17 He has cast the lot for them, his hand has portioned it out to them with the line; they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation they shall dwell in it.

Isaiah 35:1 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus

Isaiah 35:2 it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.

Isaiah 35:3 Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.

Isaiah 35:4 Say to those who are of a fearful heart, “Be strong, fear not! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. He will come and save you.”

Isaiah 35:5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped;

Isaiah 35:6 then shall the lame man leap like a hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert;

Isaiah 35:7 the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes.

Isaiah 35:8 And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not pass over it, and fools shall not err therein.

Isaiah 35:9 No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there.

Isaiah 35:10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Isaiah 36:1 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

Isaiah 36:2 And the king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem, with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool on the highway to the Fuller’s Field.

Isaiah 36:3 And there came out to him Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder.

Isaiah 36:4 And the Rabshakeh said to them, “Say to Hezekiah, `Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you rest this confidence of yours?

Isaiah 36:5 Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me?

Isaiah 36:6 Behold, you are relying on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

Isaiah 36:7 But if you say to me, “We rely on the LORD our God,” is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, “You shall worship before this altar”?

Isaiah 36:8 Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders upon them.

Isaiah 36:9 How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master’s servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

Isaiah 36:10 Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.’”

Isaiah 36:11 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, “Pray, speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall.”

Isaiah 36:12 But the Rabshakeh said, “Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?”

Isaiah 36:13 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah: “Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!

Isaiah 36:14 Thus says the king: `Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you.

Isaiah 36:15 Do not let Hezekiah make you rely on the LORD by saying, “The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”

Isaiah 36:16 Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: Make your peace with me and come out to me; then every one of you will eat of his own vine, and every one of his own fig tree, and every one of you will drink the water of his own cistern;

Isaiah 36:17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

Isaiah 36:18 Beware lest Hezekiah mislead you by saying, “The LORD will deliver us.” Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

Isaiah 36:19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

Isaiah 36:20 Who among all the gods of these countries have delivered their countries out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?’”

Isaiah 36:21 But they were silent and answered him not a word, for the king’s command was, “Do not answer him.”

Isaiah 36:22 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah 37:1 When King Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

Isaiah 37:2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, clothed with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz.

Isaiah 37:3 They said to him, “Thus says Hezekiah, `This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace; children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.

Isaiah 37:4 It may be that the LORD your God heard the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.’”

Isaiah 37:5 When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah,

Isaiah 37:6 Isaiah said to them, “Say to your master, `Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled me.

Isaiah 37:7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor, and return to his own land; and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.’”

Isaiah 37:8 The Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah; for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

Isaiah 37:9 Now the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, “He has set out to fight against you.” And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

Isaiah 37:10 “Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah: `Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

Isaiah 37:11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. And shall you be delivered?

Isaiah 37:12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations which my fathers destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

Isaiah 37:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?’”

Isaiah 37:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

Isaiah 37:15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD:

Isaiah 37:16 “O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who art enthroned above the cherubim, thou art the God, thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

Isaiah 37:17 Incline thy ear, O LORD, and hear; open thy eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God.

Isaiah 37:18 Of a truth, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands,

Isaiah 37:19 and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone; therefore they were destroyed.

Isaiah 37:20 So now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou alone art the LORD.”

Isaiah 37:21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, Isaiah 37:22 this is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: `She despises you, she scorns you—the virgin daughter of Zion; she wags her head behind you—the daughter of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 37:23 `Whom have you mocked and reviled? Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

Isaiah 37:24 By your servants you have mocked the Lord, and you have said, With my many chariots I have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon; I felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses; I came to its remotest height, its densest forest.

Isaiah 37:25 I dug wells and drank waters, and I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.

Isaiah 37:26 `Have you not heard that I determined it long ago? I planned from days of old what now I bring to pass, that you should make fortified cities crash into heaps of ruins,

Isaiah 37:27 while their inhabitants, shorn of strength, are dismayed and confounded, and have become like plants of the field and like tender grass, like grass on the housetops, blighted before it is grown.

Isaiah 37:28 `I know your sitting down and your going out and coming in, and your raging against me.

Isaiah 37:29 Because you have raged against me and your arrogance has come to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back on the way by which you came.'

Isaiah 37:30 "And this shall be the sign for you: this year eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs of the same; then in the third year sow and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 37:31 And the surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward;

Isaiah 37:32 for out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

Isaiah 37:33 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city, or shoot an arrow there, or come before it with a shield, or cast up a siege mound against it.

Isaiah 37:34 By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come into this city, says the LORD.

Isaiah 37:35 For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David."

Isaiah 37:36 And the angel of the LORD went forth, and slew a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; and when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies.

Isaiah 37:37 Then Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went home and dwelt at Nineveh.

Isaiah 37:38 And as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer, his sons, slew him with the sword, and escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

Isaiah 38:1 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order; for you shall die, you shall not recover.”

Isaiah 38:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD,

Isaiah 38:3 and said, “Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in thy sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

Isaiah 38:4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah:

Isaiah 38:5 “Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will add fifteen years to your life.

Isaiah 38:6 I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and defend this city.

Isaiah 38:7 “This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has promised:

Isaiah 38:8 Behold, I will make the shadow cast by the declining sun on the dial of Ahaz turn back ten steps.” So the sun turned back on the dial the ten steps by which it had declined.

Isaiah 38:9 A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, after he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

Isaiah 38:10 I said, In the noontide of my days I must depart; I am consigned to the gates of Sheol for the rest of my years.

Isaiah 38:11 I said, I shall not see the LORD in the land of the living; I shall look upon man no more among the inhabitants of the world.

Isaiah 38:12 My dwelling is plucked up and removed from me like a shepherd’s tent; like a weaver I have rolled up my life; he cuts me off from the loom; from day to night thou dost bring me to an end;

Isaiah 38:13 I cry for help until morning; like a lion he breaks all my bones; from day to night thou dost bring me to an end.

Isaiah 38:14 Like a swallow or a crane I clamor, I moan like a dove. My eyes are weary with looking upward. O Lord, I am oppressed; be thou my security!

Isaiah 38:15 But what can I say? For he has spoken to me, and he himself has done it. All my sleep has fled because of the bitterness of my soul.

Isaiah 38:16 O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these is the life of my spirit. Oh, restore me to health and make me live!

Isaiah 38:17 Lo, it was for my welfare that I had great bitterness; but thou hast held back my life from the pit of destruction, for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

Isaiah 38:18 For Sheol cannot thank thee, death cannot praise thee; those who go down to the pit cannot hope for thy faithfulness.

Isaiah 38:19 The living, the living, he thanks thee, as I do this day; the father makes known to the children thy faithfulness.

Isaiah 38:20 The LORD will save me, and we will sing to stringed instruments all the days of our life, at the house of the LORD.

Isaiah 38:21 Now Isaiah had said, “Let them take a cake of figs, and apply it to the boil, that he may recover.”

Isaiah 38:22 Hezekiah also had said, “What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?”

Isaiah 39:1 At that time Merodachbaladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

Isaiah 39:2 And Hezekiah welcomed them; and he showed them his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his whole armory, all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

Isaiah 39:3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, “What did these men say? And whence did they come to you?” Hezekiah said, “They have come to me from a far country, from Babylon.”

Isaiah 39:4 He said, “What have they seen in your house?” Hezekiah answered, “They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them.”

Isaiah 39:5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

Isaiah 39:6 Behold, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up till this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says the LORD.

Isaiah 39:7 And some of your own sons, who are born to you, shall be taken away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

Isaiah 39:8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “There will be peace and security in my days.”

Isaiah 40:1 Comfort, comfort my people, says your God.

Isaiah 40:2 Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that her warfare is ended, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received from the LORD’s hand double for all her sins.

Isaiah 40:3 A voice cries: “In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Isaiah 40:4 Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.

Isaiah 40:5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

Isaiah 40:6 A voice says, "Cry!" And I said, "What shall I cry?" All flesh is grass, and all its beauty is like the flower of the field.

Isaiah 40:7 The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the LORD blows upon it; surely the people is grass.

Isaiah 40:8 The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand for ever.

Isaiah 40:9 Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, fear not; say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!"

Isaiah 40:10 Behold, the Lord GOD comes with might, and his arm rules for him; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

Isaiah 40:11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arms, he will carry them in his bosom, and gently lead those that are with young.

Isaiah 40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?

Isaiah 40:13 Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or as his counselor has instructed him?

Isaiah 40:14 Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding?

Isaiah 40:15 Behold, the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as the dust on the scales; behold, he takes up the isles like fine dust.

Isaiah 40:16 Lebanon would not suffice for fuel, nor are its beasts enough for a burnt offering.

Isaiah 40:17 All the nations are as nothing before him, they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.

Isaiah 40:18 To whom then will you liken God, or what likeness compare with him?

Isaiah 40:19 The idol! a workman casts it, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts for it silver chains.

Isaiah 40:20 He who is impoverished chooses for an offering wood that will not rot; he seeks out a skilful craftsman to set up an image that will not move.

Isaiah 40:21 Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

Isaiah 40:22 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to dwell in;

Isaiah 40:23 who brings princes to nought, and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing.

Isaiah 40:24 Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble.

Isaiah 40:25 To whom then will you compare me, that I should be like him? says the Holy One.

Isaiah 40:26 Lift up your eyes on high and see: who created these? He who brings out their host by number, calling them all by name; by the greatness of his might, and because he is strong in power not one is missing.

Isaiah 40:27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, “My way is hid from the LORD, and my right is disregarded by my God”?

Isaiah 40:28 Have you not known? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary, his understanding is unsearchable.

Isaiah 40:29 He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength.

Isaiah 40:30 Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men shall fall exhausted;

Isaiah 40:31 but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 41:1 Listen to me in silence, O coastlands; let the peoples renew their strength; let them approach, then let them speak; let us together draw near for judgment.

Isaiah 41:2 Who stirred up one from the east whom victory meets at every step? He gives up nations before him, so that he tramples kings under foot; he makes them like dust with his sword, like driven stubble with his bow.

Isaiah 41:3 He pursues them and passes on safely, by paths his feet have not trod.

Isaiah 41:4 Who has performed and done this, calling the generations from the beginning? I, the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am He.

Isaiah 41:5 The coastlands have seen and are afraid, the ends of the earth tremble; they have drawn near and come.

Isaiah 41:6 Every one helps his neighbor, and says to his brother, “Take courage!”

Isaiah 41:7 The craftsman encourages the goldsmith, and he who smooths with the hammer him who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, “It is good”; and they fasten it with nails so that it cannot be moved.

Isaiah 41:8 But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham, my friend;

Isaiah 41:9 you whom I took from the ends of the earth, and called from its farthest corners, saying to you, “You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you off”;

Isaiah 41:10 fear not, for I am with you, be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand.

Isaiah 41:11 Behold, all who are incensed against you shall be put to shame and confounded; those who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.

Isaiah 41:12 You shall seek those who contend with you, but you shall not find them; those who war against you shall be as nothing at all.

Isaiah 41:13 For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, “Fear not, I will help you.”

Isaiah 41:14 Fear not, you worm Jacob, you men of Israel! I will help you, says the LORD; your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 41:15 Behold, I will make of you a threshing sledge, new, sharp, and having teeth; you shall thresh the mountains and crush them, and you shall make the hills like chaff;

Isaiah 41:16 You shall winnow them and the wind shall carry them away, and the tempest shall scatter them. And you shall rejoice in the LORD; in the Holy One of Israel you shall glory.

Isaiah 41:17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue is parched with thirst, I the LORD will answer them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

Isaiah 41:18 I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

Isaiah 41:19 I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive; I will set in the desert the cypress, the plane and the pine together;

Isaiah 41:20 that men may see and know, may consider and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this, the Holy One of Israel has created it.

Isaiah 41:21 Set forth your case, says the LORD; bring your proofs, says the King of Jacob.

Isaiah 41:22 Let them bring them, and tell us what is to happen. Tell us the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, that we may know their outcome; or declare to us the things to come.

Isaiah 41:23 Tell us what is to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods; do good, or do harm, that we may be dismayed and terrified.

Isaiah 41:24 Behold, you are nothing, and your work is nought; an abomination is he who chooses you.

Isaiah 41:25 I stirred up one from the north, and he has come, from the rising of the sun, and he shall call on my name; he shall trample on rulers as on mortar, as the potter treads clay.

Isaiah 41:26 Who declared it from the beginning, that we might know, and beforetime, that we might say, “He is right”? There was none who declared it, none who proclaimed, none who heard your words.

Isaiah 41:27 I first have declared it to Zion, and I give to Jerusalem a herald of good tidings.

Isaiah 41:28 But when I look there is no one; among these there is no counselor who, when I ask, gives an answer.

Isaiah 41:29 Behold, they are all a delusion; their works are nothing; their molten images are empty wind.

Isaiah 42:1 Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him, he will bring forth justice to the nations.

Isaiah 42:2 He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street;

Isaiah 42:3 a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice.

Isaiah 42:4 He will not fail or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law.

Isaiah 42:5 Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread forth the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it:

Isaiah 42:6 “I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations,

Isaiah 42:7 to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

Isaiah 42:8 I am the LORD, that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to graven images.

Isaiah 42:9 Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them.”

Isaiah 42:10 Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the end of the earth! Let the sea roar and all that fills it, the coastlands and their inhabitants.

Isaiah 42:11 Let the desert and its cities lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar inhabits; let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

Isaiah 42:12 Let them give glory to the LORD, and declare his praise in the coastlands.

Isaiah 42:13 The LORD goes forth like a mighty man, like a man of war he stirs up his fury; he cries out, he shouts aloud, he shows himself mighty against his foes.

Isaiah 42:14 For a long time I have held my peace, I have kept still and restrained myself; now I will cry out like a woman in travail, I will gasp and pant.

Isaiah 42:15 I will lay waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbage; I will turn the rivers into islands, and dry up the pools.

Isaiah 42:16 And I will lead the blind in a way that they know not, in paths that they have not known I will guide them. I will turn the darkness before them into light, the rough places into level ground. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them.

Isaiah 42:17 They shall be turned back and utterly put to shame, who trust in graven images, who say to molten images, “You are our gods.”

Isaiah 42:18 Hear, you deaf; and look, you blind, that you may see!

Isaiah 42:19 Who is blind but my servant, or deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is blind as my dedicated one, or blind as the servant of the LORD?

Isaiah 42:20 He sees many things, but does not observe them; his ears are open, but he does not hear.

Isaiah 42:21 The LORD was pleased, for his righteousness’ sake, to magnify his law and make it glorious.

Isaiah 42:22 But this is a people robbed and plundered, they are all of them trapped in holes and hidden in prisons; they have become a prey with none to rescue, a spoil with none to say, “Restore!”

Isaiah 42:23 Who among you will give ear to this, will attend and listen for the time to come?

Isaiah 42:24 Who gave up Jacob to the spoiler, and Israel to the robbers? Was it not the LORD, against whom we have sinned, in whose ways they would not walk, and whose law they would not obey?

Isaiah 42:25 So he poured upon him the heat of his anger and the might of battle; it set him on fire round about, but he did not understand; it burned him, but he did not take it to heart.

Isaiah 43:1 But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: “Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.

Isaiah 43:2 When you pass through the waters I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you.

Isaiah 43:3 For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you.

Isaiah 43:4 Because you are precious in my eyes, and honored, and I love you, I give men in return for you, peoples in exchange for your life.

Isaiah 43:5 Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you;

Isaiah 43:6 I will say to the north, Give up, and to the south, Do not withhold; bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the end of the earth,

Isaiah 43:7 every one who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.”

Isaiah 43:8 Bring forth the people who are blind, yet have eyes, who are deaf, yet have ears!

Isaiah 43:9 Let all the nations gather together, and let the peoples assemble. Who among them can declare this, and show us the former things? Let them bring their witnesses to justify them, and let them hear and say, It is true.

Isaiah 43:10 “You are my witnesses,” says the LORD, “and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe me and understand that I am He. Before me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after me.

Isaiah 43:11 I, I am the LORD, and besides me there is no savior.

Isaiah 43:12 I declared and saved and proclaimed, when there was no strange god among you; and you are my witnesses,” says the LORD.

Isaiah 43:13 “I am God, and also henceforth I am He; there is none who can deliver from my hand; I work and who can hinder it?”

Isaiah 43:14 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “For your sake I will send to Babylon and break down all the bars, and the shouting of the Chaldeans will be turned to lamentations.

Isaiah 43:15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.”

Isaiah 43:16 Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters,

Isaiah 43:17 who brings forth chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:

Isaiah 43:18 “Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old.

Isaiah 43:19 Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

Isaiah 43:20 The wild beasts will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people,

Isaiah 43:21 the people whom I formed for myself that they might declare my praise.

Isaiah 43:22 “Yet you did not call upon me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of me, O Israel!

Isaiah 43:23 You have not brought me your sheep for burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, or wearied you with frankincense.

Isaiah 43:24 You have not bought me sweet cane with money, or satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices. But you have burdened me with your sins, you have wearied me with your iniquities.

Isaiah 43:25 “I, I am He who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins.

Isaiah 43:26 Put me in remembrance, let us argue together; set forth your case, that you may be proved right.

Isaiah 43:27 Your first father sinned, and your mediators transgressed against me.

Isaiah 43:28 Therefore I profaned the princes of the sanctuary, I delivered Jacob to utter destruction and Israel to reviling.

Isaiah 44:1 “But now hear, O Jacob my servant, Israel whom I have chosen!

Isaiah 44:2 Thus says the LORD who made you, who formed you from the womb and will help you: Fear not, O Jacob my servant, Jeshurun whom I have chosen.

Isaiah 44:3 For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon your descendants, and my blessing on your offspring.

Isaiah 44:4 They shall spring up like grass amid waters, like willows by flowing streams.

Isaiah 44:5 This one will say, `I am the LORD's,' another will call himself by the name of Jacob, and another will write on his hand, `The LORD's,' and surname himself by the name of Israel."

Isaiah 44:6 Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: "I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god.

Isaiah 44:7 Who is like me? Let him proclaim it, let him declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be.

Isaiah 44:8 Fear not, nor be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? And you are my witnesses! Is there a God besides me? There is no Rock; I know not any."

Isaiah 44:9 All who make idols are nothing, and the things they delight in do not profit; their witnesses neither see nor know, that they may be put to shame.

Isaiah 44:10 Who fashions a god or casts an image, that is profitable for nothing?

Isaiah 44:11 Behold, all his fellows shall be put to shame, and the craftsmen are but men; let them all assemble, let them stand forth, they shall be terrified, they shall be put to shame together.

Isaiah 44:12 The ironsmith fashions it and works it over the coals; he shapes it with hammers, and forges it with his strong arm; he becomes hungry and his strength fails, he drinks no water and is faint.

Isaiah 44:13 The carpenter stretches a line, he marks it out with a pencil; he fashions it with planes, and marks it with a compass; he shapes it into the figure of a man, with the beauty of a man, to dwell in a house.

Isaiah 44:14 He cuts down cedars; or he chooses a holm tree or an oak and lets it grow strong among the trees of the forest; he plants a cedar and the rain nourishes it.

Isaiah 44:15 Then it becomes fuel for a man; he takes a part of it and warms himself, he kindles a fire and bakes bread; also he makes a god and worships it, he makes it a graven image and falls down before it.

Isaiah 44:16 Half of it he burns in the fire; over the half he eats flesh, he roasts meat and is satisfied; also he warms himself and says, "Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire!"

Isaiah 44:17 And the rest of it he makes into a god, his idol; and falls down to it and worships it; he prays to it and says, “Deliver me, for thou art my god!”

Isaiah 44:18 They know not, nor do they discern; for he has shut their eyes, so that they cannot see, and their minds, so that they cannot understand.

Isaiah 44:19 No one considers, nor is there knowledge or discernment to say, “Half of it I burned in the fire, I also baked bread on its coals, I roasted flesh and have eaten; and shall I make the residue of it an abomination? Shall I fall down before a block of wood?”

Isaiah 44:20 He feeds on ashes; a deluded mind has led him astray, and he cannot deliver himself or say, “Is there not a lie in my right hand?”

Isaiah 44:21 Remember these things, O Jacob, and Israel, for you are my servant; I formed you, you are my servant; O Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

Isaiah 44:22 I have swept away your transgressions like a cloud, and your sins like mist; return to me, for I have redeemed you.

Isaiah 44:23 Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it; shout, O depths of the earth; break forth into singing, O mountains, O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and will be glorified in Israel.

Isaiah 44:24 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, who formed you from the womb: “I am the LORD, who made all things, who stretched out the heavens alone, who spread out the earth—Who was with me? —

Isaiah 44:25 who frustrates the omens of liars, and makes fools of diviners; who turns wise men back, and makes their knowledge foolish;

Isaiah 44:26 who confirms the word of his servant, and performs the counsel of his messengers; who says of Jerusalem, `She shall be inhabited,’ and of the cities of Judah, `They shall be built, and I will raise up their ruins’;

Isaiah 44:27 who says to the deep, `Be dry, I will dry up your rivers’;

Isaiah 44:28 who says of Cyrus, `He is my shepherd, and he shall fulfil all my purpose’; saying of Jerusalem, `She shall be built,’ and of the temple, `Your foundation shall be laid.’”

Isaiah 45:1 Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped, to subdue nations before him and ungird the loins of kings, to open doors before him that gates may not be closed:

Isaiah 45:2 “I will go before you and level the mountains, I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut asunder the bars of iron,

Isaiah 45:3 I will give you the treasures of darkness and the hoards in secret places, that you may know that it is I, the LORD, the God of Israel, who call you by your name.

Isaiah 45:4 For the sake of my servant Jacob, and Israel my chosen, I call you by your name, I surname you, though you do not know me.

Isaiah 45:5 I am the LORD, and there is no other, besides me there is no God; I gird you, though you do not know me,

Isaiah 45:6 that men may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is none besides me; I am the LORD, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:7 I form light and create darkness, I make weal and create woe, I am the LORD, who do all these things.

Isaiah 45:8 “Shower, O heavens, from above, and let the skies rain down righteousness; let the earth open, that salvation may sprout forth, and let it cause righteousness to spring up also; I the LORD have created it.

Isaiah 45:9 “Woe to him who strives with his Maker, an earthen vessel with the potter! Does the clay say to him who fashions it, `What are you making’? or `Your work has no handles’?

Isaiah 45:10 Woe to him who says to a father, `What are you begetting?’ or to a woman, `With what are you in travail?’”

Isaiah 45:11 Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: “Will you question me about my children, or command me concerning the work of my hands?

Isaiah 45:12 I made the earth, and created man upon it; it was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all their host.

Isaiah 45:13 I have aroused him in righteousness, and I will make straight all his ways; he shall build my city and set my exiles free, not for price or reward,” says the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah 45:14 Thus says the LORD: “The wealth of Egypt and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over to you and be yours, they shall follow you; they shall come over in chains and bow down to you. They will make supplication to you, saying: `God is with you only, and there is no other, no god besides him.’”

Isaiah 45:15 Truly, thou art a God who hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Savior.

Isaiah 45:16 All of them are put to shame and confounded, the makers of idols go in confusion together.

Isaiah 45:17 But Israel is saved by the LORD with everlasting salvation; you shall not be put to shame or confounded to all eternity.

Isaiah 45:18 For thus says the LORD, who created the heavens (he is God!), who formed the earth and made it (he established it; he did not create it a chaos, he formed it to be inhabited!): “I am the LORD, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:19 I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, `Seek me in chaos.' I the LORD speak the truth, I declare what is right.

Isaiah 45:20 "Assemble yourselves and come, draw near together, you survivors of the nations! They have no knowledge who carry about their wooden idols, and keep on praying to a god that cannot save.

Isaiah 45:21 Declare and present your case; let them take counsel together! Who told this long ago? Who declared it of old? Was it not I, the LORD? And there is no other god besides me, a righteous God and a Savior; there is none besides me.

Isaiah 45:22 "Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:23 By myself I have sworn, from my mouth has gone forth in righteousness a word that shall not return: `To me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.'

Isaiah 45:24 "Only in the LORD, it shall be said of me, are righteousness and strength; to him shall come and be ashamed, all who were incensed against him.

Isaiah 45:25 In the LORD all the offspring of Israel shall triumph and glory."

Isaiah 46:1 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops, their idols are on beasts and cattle; these things you carry are loaded as burdens on weary beasts.

Isaiah 46:2 They stoop, they bow down together, they cannot save the burden, but themselves go into captivity.

Isaiah 46:3 "Hearken to me, O house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been borne by me from your birth, carried from the womb;

Isaiah 46:4 even to your old age I am He, and to gray hairs I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.

Isaiah 46:5 "To whom will you liken me and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be alike?

Isaiah 46:6 Those who lavish gold from the purse, and weigh out silver in the scales, hire a goldsmith, and he makes it into a god; then they fall down and worship!

Isaiah 46:7 They lift it upon their shoulders, they carry it, they set it in its place, and it stands there; it cannot move from its place. If one cries to it, it does not answer or save him from his trouble.

Isaiah 46:8 "Remember this and consider, recall it to mind, you transgressors,

Isaiah 46:9 remember the former things of old; for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me, Isaiah 46:10 declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times things not yet done, saying, `My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all my purpose,’

Isaiah 46:11 calling a bird of prey from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country. I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass; I have purposed, and I will do it.

Isaiah 46:12 “Hearken to me, you stubborn of heart, you who are far from deliverance:

Isaiah 46:13 I bring near my deliverance, it is not far off, and my salvation will not tarry; I will put salvation in Zion, for Israel my glory.”

Isaiah 47:1 Come down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans! For you shall no more be called tender and delicate.

Isaiah 47:2 Take the millstones and grind meal, put off your veil, strip off your robe, uncover your legs, pass through the rivers.

Isaiah 47:3 Your nakedness shall be uncovered, and your shame shall be seen. I will take vengeance, and I will spare no man.

Isaiah 47:4 Our Redeemer—the LORD of hosts is his name—is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 47:5 Sit in silence, and go into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms.

Isaiah 47:6 I was angry with my people, I profaned my heritage; I gave them into your hand, you showed them no mercy; on the aged you made your yoke exceedingly heavy.

Isaiah 47:7 You said, “I shall be mistress for ever,” so that you did not lay these things to heart or remember their end.

Isaiah 47:8 Now therefore hear this, you lover of pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, “I am, and there is no one besides me; I shall not sit as a widow or know the loss of children”:

Isaiah 47:9 These two things shall come to you in a moment, in one day; the loss of children and widowhood shall come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and the great power of your enchantments.

Isaiah 47:10 You felt secure in your wickedness, you said, “No one sees me”; your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray, and you said in your heart, “I am, and there is no one besides me.”

Isaiah 47:11 But evil shall come upon you, for which you cannot atone; disaster shall fall upon you, which you will not be able to expiate; and ruin shall come on you suddenly, of which you know nothing.

Isaiah 47:12 Stand fast in your enchantments and your many sorceries, with which you have labored from your youth; perhaps you may be able to succeed, perhaps you may inspire terror.

Isaiah 47:13 You are wearied with your many counsels; let them stand forth and save you, those who divide the heavens, who gaze at the stars, who at the new moons predict what shall befall you.

Isaiah 47:14 Behold, they are like stubble, the fire consumes them; they cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame. No coal for warming oneself is this, no fire to sit before!

Isaiah 47:15 Such to you are those with whom you have labored, who have trafficked with you from your youth; they wander about each in his own direction; there is no one to save you.

Isaiah 48:1 Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and who came forth from the loins of Judah; who swear by the name of the LORD, and confess the God of Israel, but not in truth or right.

Isaiah 48:2 For they call themselves after the holy city, and stay themselves on the God of Israel; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Isaiah 48:3 "The former things I declared of old, they went forth from my mouth and I made them known; then suddenly I did them and they came to pass.

Isaiah 48:4 Because I know that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew and your forehead brass,

Isaiah 48:5 I declared them to you from of old, before they came to pass I announced them to you, lest you should say, `My idol did them, my graven image and my molten image commanded them.'

Isaiah 48:6 "You have heard; now see all this; and will you not declare it? From this time forth I make you hear new things, hidden things which you have not known.

Isaiah 48:7 They are created now, not long ago; before today you have never heard of them, lest you should say, `Behold, I knew them.'

Isaiah 48:8 You have never heard, you have never known, from of old your ear has not been opened. For I knew that you would deal very treacherously, and that from birth you were called a rebel.

Isaiah 48:9 "For my name's sake I defer my anger, for the sake of my praise I restrain it for you, that I may not cut you off.

Isaiah 48:10 Behold, I have refined you, but not like silver; I have tried you in the furnace of affliction.

Isaiah 48:11 For my own sake, for my own sake, I do it, for how should my name be profaned? My glory I will not give to another.

Isaiah 48:12 "Hearken to me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I called! I am He, I am the first, and I am the last.

Isaiah 48:13 My hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens; when I call to them, they stand forth together.

Isaiah 48:14 “Assemble, all of you, and hear! Who among them has declared these things? The LORD loves him; he shall perform his purpose on Babylon, and his arm shall be against the Chaldeans.

Isaiah 48:15 I, even I, have spoken and called him, I have brought him, and he will prosper in his way.

Isaiah 48:16 Draw near to me, hear this: from the beginning I have not spoken in secret, from the time it came to be I have been there.” And now the Lord GOD has sent me and his Spirit.

Isaiah 48:17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go.

Isaiah 48:18 O that you had hearkened to my commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea;

Isaiah 48:19 your offspring would have been like the sand, and your descendants like its grains; their name would never be cut off or destroyed from before me.”

Isaiah 48:20 Go forth from Babylon, flee from Chaldea, declare this with a shout of joy, proclaim it, send it forth to the end of the earth; say, “The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob!”

Isaiah 48:21 They thirsted not when he led them through the deserts; he made water flow for them from the rock; he cleft the rock and the water gushed out.

Isaiah 48:22 “There is no peace,” says the LORD, “for the wicked.”

Isaiah 49:1 Listen to me, O coastlands, and hearken, you peoples from afar. The LORD called me from the womb, from the body of my mother he named my name.

Isaiah 49:2 He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away.

Isaiah 49:3 And he said to me, “You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.”

Isaiah 49:4 But I said, “I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my right is with the LORD, and my recompense with my God.”

Isaiah 49:5 And now the LORD says, who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honored in the eyes of the LORD, and my God has become my strength —

Isaiah 49:6 he says: “It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the preserved of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

Isaiah 49:7 Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the servant of rulers: “Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall prostrate themselves; because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

Isaiah 49:8 Thus says the LORD: “In a time of favor I have answered you, in a day of salvation I have helped you; I have kept you and given you as a covenant to the people, to establish the land, to apportion the desolate heritages;

Isaiah 49:9 saying to the prisoners, `Come forth,’ to those who are in darkness, `Appear.’ They shall feed along the ways, on all bare heights shall be their pasture;

Isaiah 49:10 they shall not hunger or thirst, neither scorching wind nor sun shall smite them, for he who has pity on them will lead them, and by springs of water will guide them.

Isaiah 49:11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be raised up.

Isaiah 49:12 Lo, these shall come from afar, and lo, these from the north and from the west, and these from the land of Syene.”

Isaiah 49:13 Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth; break forth, O mountains, into singing! For the LORD has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his afflicted.

Isaiah 49:14 But Zion said, “The LORD has forsaken me, my Lord has forgotten me.”

Isaiah 49:15 “Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you.

Isaiah 49:16 Behold, I have graven you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me.

Isaiah 49:17 Your builders outstrip your destroyers, and those who laid you waste go forth from you.

Isaiah 49:18 Lift up your eyes round about and see; they all gather, they come to you. As I live, says the LORD, you shall put them all on as an ornament, you shall bind them on as a bride does.

Isaiah 49:19 “Surely your waste and your desolate places and your devastated land—surely now you will be too narrow for your inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away.

Isaiah 49:20 The children born in the time of your bereavement will yet say in your ears: `The place is too narrow for me; make room for me to dwell in.’

Isaiah 49:21 Then you will say in your heart: `Who has borne me these? I was bereaved and barren, exiled and put away, but who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; whence then have these come?'”

Isaiah 49:22 Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and raise my signal to the peoples; and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.

Isaiah 49:23 Kings shall be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. With their faces to the ground they shall bow down to you, and lick the dust of your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD; those who wait for me shall not be put to shame.”

Isaiah 49:24 Can the prey be taken from the mighty, or the captives of a tyrant be rescued?

Isaiah 49:25 Surely, thus says the LORD: “Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken, and the prey of the tyrant be rescued, for I will contend with those who contend with you, and I will save your children.

Isaiah 49:26 I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they shall be drunk with their own blood as with wine. Then all flesh shall know that I am the LORD your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Isaiah 50:1 Thus says the LORD: “Where is your mother’s bill of divorce, with which I put her away? Or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities you were sold, and for your transgressions your mother was put away.

Isaiah 50:2 Why, when I came, was there no man? When I called, was there no one to answer? Is my hand shortened, that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? Behold, by my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a desert; their fish stink for lack of water, and die of thirst.

Isaiah 50:3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and make sackcloth their covering.”

Isaiah 50:4 The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of those who are taught, that I may know how to sustain with a word him that is weary. Morning by morning he wakens, he wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught.

Isaiah 50:5 The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I turned not backward.

Isaiah 50:6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

Isaiah 50:7 For the Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been confounded; therefore I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame;

Isaiah 50:8 he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who is my adversary? Let him come near to me.

Isaiah 50:9 Behold, the Lord GOD helps me; who will declare me guilty? Behold, all of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

Isaiah 50:10 Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of his servant, who walks in darkness and has no light, yet trusts in the name of the LORD and relies upon his God?

Isaiah 50:11 Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who set brands alight! Walk by the light of your fire, and by the brands which you have kindled! This shall you have from my hand: you shall lie down in torment.

Isaiah 51:1 “Hearken to me, you who pursue deliverance, you who seek the LORD; look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were digged.

Isaiah 51:2 Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for when he was but one I called him, and I blessed him and made him many.

Isaiah 51:3 For the LORD will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Isaiah 51:4 “Listen to me, my people, and give ear to me, my nation; for a law will go forth from me, and my justice for a light to the peoples.

Isaiah 51:5 My deliverance draws near speedily, my salvation has gone forth, and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope.

Isaiah 51:6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and they who dwell in it will die like gnats; but my salvation will be for ever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

Isaiah 51:7 “Hearken to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear not the reproach of men, and be not dismayed at their revilings.

Isaiah 51:8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my deliverance will be for ever, and my salvation to all generations.”

Isaiah 51:9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in days of old, the generations of long ago. Was it not thou that didst cut Rahab in pieces, that didst pierce the dragon?

Isaiah 51:10 Was it not thou that didst dry up the sea, the waters of the great deep; that didst make the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over?

Isaiah 51:11 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Isaiah 51:12 “I, I am he that comforts you; who are you that you are afraid of man who dies, of the son of man who is made like grass,

Isaiah 51:13 and have forgotten the LORD, your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, and fear continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he sets himself to destroy? And where is the fury of the oppressor?

Isaiah 51:14 He who is bowed down shall speedily be released; he shall not die and go down to the Pit, neither shall his bread fail.

Isaiah 51:15 For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—the LORD of hosts is his name.

Isaiah 51:16 And I have put my words in your mouth, and hid you in the shadow of my hand, stretching out the heavens and laying the foundations of the earth, and saying to Zion, `You are my people.’”

Isaiah 51:17 Rouse yourself, rouse yourself, stand up, O Jerusalem, you who have drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his wrath, who have drunk to the dregs the bowl of staggering.

Isaiah 51:18 There is none to guide her among all the sons she has borne; there is none to take her by the hand among all the sons she has brought up.

Isaiah 51:19 These two things have befallen you—who will condole with you?—devastation and destruction, famine and sword; who will comfort you?

Isaiah 51:20 Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of every street like an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of your God.

Isaiah 51:21 Therefore hear this, you who are afflicted, who are drunk, but not with wine:

Isaiah 51:22 Thus says your Lord, the LORD, your God who pleads the cause of his people: “Behold, I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering; the bowl of my wrath you shall drink no more;

Isaiah 51:23 and I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, who have said to you, `Bow down, that we may pass over’; and you have made your back like the ground and like the street for them to pass over.”

Isaiah 52:1 Awake, awake, put on your strength, O Zion; put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city; for there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean.

Isaiah 52:2 Shake yourself from the dust, arise, O captive Jerusalem; loose the bonds from your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

Isaiah 52:3 For thus says the LORD: “You were sold for nothing, and you shall be redeemed without money.

Isaiah 52:4 For thus says the Lord GOD: My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there, and the Assyrian oppressed them for nothing.

Isaiah 52:5 Now therefore what have I here, says the LORD, seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Their rulers wail, says the LORD, and continually all the day my name is despised.

Isaiah 52:6 Therefore my people shall know my name; therefore in that day they shall know that it is I who speak; here am I.”

Isaiah 52:7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings, who publishes peace, who brings good tidings of good, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns.”

Isaiah 52:8 Hark, your watchmen lift up their voice, together they sing for joy; for eye to eye they see the return of the LORD to Zion.

Isaiah 52:9 Break forth together into singing, you waste places of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem.

Isaiah 52:10 The LORD has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Isaiah 52:11 Depart, depart, go out thence, touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of her, purify yourselves, you who bear the vessels of the LORD.

Isaiah 52:12 For you shall not go out in haste, and you shall not go in flight, for the LORD will go before you, and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

Isaiah 52:13 Behold, my servant shall prosper, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.

Isaiah 52:14 As many were astonished at him—his appearance was so marred, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of the sons of men —

Isaiah 52:15 so shall he startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which has not been told them they shall see, and that which they have not heard they shall understand.

Isaiah 53:1 Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

Isaiah 53:2 For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or comeliness that we should look at him, and no beauty that we should desire him.

Isaiah 53:3 He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Isaiah 53:4 Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.

Isaiah 53:5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that made us whole, and with his stripes we are healed.

Isaiah 53:6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Isaiah 53:7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth.

Isaiah 53:8 By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people?

Isaiah 53:9 And they made his grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

Isaiah 53:10 Yet it was the will of the LORD to bruise him; he has put him to grief; when he makes himself an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, he shall prolong his days; the will of the LORD shall prosper in his hand;

Isaiah 53:11 he shall see the fruit of the travail of his soul and be satisfied; by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous; and he shall bear their iniquities.

Isaiah 53:12 Therefore I will divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Isaiah 54:1 “Sing, O barren one, who did not bear; break forth into singing and cry aloud, you who have not been in travail! For the children of the desolate one will be more than the children of her that is married, says the LORD.

Isaiah 54:2 Enlarge the place of your tent, and let the curtains of your habitations be stretched out; hold not back, lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes.

Isaiah 54:3 For you will spread abroad to the right and to the left, and your descendants will possess the nations and will people the desolate cities.

Isaiah 54:4 “Fear not, for you will not be ashamed; be not confounded, for you will not be put to shame; for you will forget the shame of your youth, and the reproach of your widowhood you will remember no more.

Isaiah 54:5 For your Maker is your husband, the LORD of hosts is his name; and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer, the God of the whole earth he is called.

Isaiah 54:6 For the LORD has called you like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, like a wife of youth when she is cast off, says your God.

Isaiah 54:7 For a brief moment I forsook you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

Isaiah 54:8 In overflowing wrath for a moment I hid my face from you, but with everlasting love I will have compassion on you, says the LORD, your Redeemer.

Isaiah 54:9 "For this is like the days of Noah to me: as I swore that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you and will not rebuke you.

Isaiah 54:10 For the mountains may depart and the hills be removed, but my steadfast love shall not depart from you, and my covenant of peace shall not be removed, says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

Isaiah 54:11 "O afflicted one, storm-tossed, and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in antimony, and lay your foundations with sapphires.

Isaiah 54:12 I will make your pinnacles of agate, your gates of carbuncles, and all your wall of precious stones.

Isaiah 54:13 All your sons shall be taught by the LORD, and great shall be the prosperity of your sons.

Isaiah 54:14 In righteousness you shall be established; you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near you.

Isaiah 54:15 If any one stirs up strife, it is not from me; whoever stirs up strife with you shall fall because of you.

Isaiah 54:16 Behold, I have created the smith who blows the fire of coals, and produces a weapon for its purpose. I have also created the ravager to destroy;

Isaiah 54:17 no weapon that is fashioned against you shall prosper, and you shall confute every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD and their vindication from me, says the LORD."

Isaiah 55:1 "Ho, every one who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Isaiah 55:2 Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Hearken diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in fatness.

Isaiah 55:3 Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live; and I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David.

Isaiah 55:4 Behold, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples.

Isaiah 55:5 Behold, you shall call nations that you know not, and nations that knew you not shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, and of the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Isaiah 55:6 “Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near;

Isaiah 55:7 let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Isaiah 55:8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, says the LORD.

Isaiah 55:9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Isaiah 55:10 “For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and return not thither but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,

Isaiah 55:11 so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

Isaiah 55:12 “For you shall go out in joy, and be led forth in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Isaiah 55:13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial, for an everlasting sign which shall not be cut off.”

Isaiah 56:1 Thus says the LORD: “Keep justice, and do righteousness, for soon my salvation will come, and my deliverance be revealed.

Isaiah 56:2 Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast, who keeps the sabbath, not profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

Isaiah 56:3 Let not the foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD say, “The LORD will surely separate me from his people”; and let not the eunuch say, “Behold, I am a dry tree.”

Isaiah 56:4 For thus says the LORD: “To the eunuchs who keep my sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant,

Isaiah 56:5 I will give in my house and within my walls a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name which shall not be cut off.

Isaiah 56:6 “And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, every one who keeps the sabbath, and does not profane it, and holds fast my covenant —

Isaiah 56:7 these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Isaiah 56:8 Thus says the Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, I will gather yet others to him besides those already gathered.”

Isaiah 56:9 All you beasts of the field, come to devour—all you beasts in the forest.

Isaiah 56:10 His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

Isaiah 56:11 The dogs have a mighty appetite; they never have enough. The shepherds also have no understanding; they have all turned to their own way, each to his own gain, one and all.

Isaiah 56:12 “Come,” they say, “let us get wine, let us fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow will be like this day, great beyond measure.”

Isaiah 57:1 The righteous man perishes, and no one lays it to heart; devout men are taken away, while no one understands. For the righteous man is taken away from calamity,

Isaiah 57:2 he enters into peace; they rest in their beds who walk in their uprightness.

Isaiah 57:3 But you, draw near hither, sons of the sorceress, offspring of the adulterer and the harlot.

Isaiah 57:4 Of whom are you making sport? Against whom do you open your mouth wide and put out your tongue? Are you not children of transgression, the offspring of deceit,

Isaiah 57:5 you who burn with lust among the oaks, under every green tree; who slay your children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?

Isaiah 57:6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion; they, they, are your lot; to them you have poured out a drink offering, you have brought a cereal offering. Shall I be appeased for these things?

Isaiah 57:7 Upon a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed, and thither you went up to offer sacrifice.

Isaiah 57:8 Behind the door and the doorpost you have set up your symbol; for, deserting me, you have uncovered your bed, you have gone up to it, you have made it wide; and you have made a bargain for yourself with them, you have loved their bed, you have looked on nakedness.

Isaiah 57:9 You journeyed to Molech with oil and multiplied your perfumes; you sent your envoys far off, and sent down even to Sheol.

Isaiah 57:10 You were wearied with the length of your way, but you did not say, "It is hopeless"; you found new life for your strength, and so you were not faint.

Isaiah 57:11 Whom did you dread and fear, so that you lied, and did not remember me, did not give me a thought? Have I not held my peace, even for a long time, and so you do not fear me?

Isaiah 57:12 I will tell of your righteousness and your doings, but they will not help you.

Isaiah 57:13 When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you! The wind will carry them off, a breath will take them away. But he who takes refuge in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain.

Isaiah 57:14 And it shall be said, "Build up, build up, prepare the way, remove every obstruction from my people's way."

Isaiah 57:15 For thus says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: "I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with him who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

Isaiah 57:16 For I will not contend for ever, nor will I always be angry; for from me proceeds the spirit, and I have made the breath of life.

Isaiah 57:17 Because of the iniquity of his covetousness I was angry, I smote him, I hid my face and was angry; but he went on backsliding in the way of his own heart.

Isaiah 57:18 I have seen his ways, but I will heal him; I will lead him and requite him with comfort, creating for his mourners the fruit of the lips.

Isaiah 57:19 Peace, peace, to the far and to the near, says the LORD; and I will heal him.

Isaiah 57:20 But the wicked are like the tossing sea; for it cannot rest, and its waters toss up mire and dirt.

Isaiah 57:21 There is no peace, says my God, for the wicked."

Isaiah 58:1 "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up your voice like a trumpet; declare to my people their transgression, to the house of Jacob their sins.

Isaiah 58:2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that did righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God.

Isaiah 58:3 `Why have we fasted, and thou seest it not? Why have we humbled ourselves, and thou takest no knowledge of it?' Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure, and oppress all your workers.

Isaiah 58:4 Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to hit with wicked fist. Fasting like yours this day will not make your voice to be heard on high.

Isaiah 58:5 Is such the fast that I choose, a day for a man to humble himself? Is it to bow down his head like a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and a day acceptable to the LORD?

Isaiah 58:6 "Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke?

Isaiah 58:7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?

Isaiah 58:8 Then shall your light break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up speedily; your righteousness shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

Isaiah 58:9 Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, Here I am. "If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness,

Isaiah 58:10 if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday.

Isaiah 58:11 And the LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your desire with good things, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

Isaiah 58:12 And your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to dwell in.

Isaiah 58:13 "If you turn back your foot from the sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day, and call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, or seeking your own pleasure, or talking idly;

Isaiah 58:14 then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

Isaiah 59:1 Behold, the LORD’s hand is not shortened, that it cannot save, or his ear dull, that it cannot hear;

Isaiah 59:2 but your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you so that he does not hear.

Isaiah 59:3 For your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness.

Isaiah 59:4 No one enters suit justly, no one goes to law honestly; they rely on empty pleas, they speak lies, they conceive mischief and bring forth iniquity.

Isaiah 59:5 They hatch adders’ eggs, they weave the spider’s web; he who eats their eggs dies, and from one which is crushed a viper is hatched.

Isaiah 59:6 Their webs will not serve as clothing; men will not cover themselves with what they make. Their works are works of iniquity, and deeds of violence are in their hands.

Isaiah 59:7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity, desolation and destruction are in their highways.

Isaiah 59:8 The way of peace they know not, and there is no justice in their paths; they have made their roads crooked, no one who goes in them knows peace.

Isaiah 59:9 Therefore justice is far from us, and righteousness does not overtake us; we look for light, and behold, darkness, and for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

Isaiah 59:10 We grope for the wall like the blind, we grope like those who have no eyes; we stumble at noon as in the twilight, among those in full vigor we are like dead men.

Isaiah 59:11 We all growl like bears, we moan and moan like doves; we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us.

Isaiah 59:12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and we know our iniquities:

Isaiah 59:13 transgressing, and denying the LORD, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart lying words.

Isaiah 59:14 Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands afar off; for truth has fallen in the public squares, and uprightness cannot enter.

Isaiah 59:15 Truth is lacking, and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey. The LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice.

Isaiah 59:16 He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no one to intervene; then his own arm brought him victory, and his righteousness upheld him.

Isaiah 59:17 He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head; he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and wrapped himself in fury as a mantle.

Isaiah 59:18 According to their deeds, so will he repay, wrath to his adversaries, requital to his enemies; to the coastlands he will render requital.

Isaiah 59:19 So they shall fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come like a rushing stream, which the wind of the LORD drives.

Isaiah 59:20 "And he will come to Zion as Redeemer, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, says the LORD.

Isaiah 59:21 "And as for me, this is my covenant with them, says the LORD: my spirit which is upon you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, or out of the mouth of your children, or out of the mouth of your children's children, says the LORD, from this time forth and for evermore."

Isaiah 60:1 Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

Isaiah 60:2 For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen upon you.

Isaiah 60:3 And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

Isaiah 60:4 Lift up your eyes round about, and see; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be carried in the arms.

Isaiah 60:5 Then you shall see and be radiant, your heart shall thrill and rejoice; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

Isaiah 60:6 A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Isaiah 60:7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on my altar, and I will glorify my glorious house.

Isaiah 60:8 Who are these that fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows?

Isaiah 60:9 For the coastlands shall wait for me, the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.

Isaiah 60:10 Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in my wrath I smote you, but in my favor I have had mercy on you.

Isaiah 60:11 Your gates shall be open continually; day and night they shall not be shut; that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, with their kings led in procession.

Isaiah 60:12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; those nations shall be utterly laid waste.

Isaiah 60:13 The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress, the plane, and the pine, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

Isaiah 60:14 The sons of those who oppressed you shall come bending low to you; and all who despised you shall bow down at your feet; they shall call you the City of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 60:15 Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through, I will make you majestic for ever, a joy from age to age.

Isaiah 60:16 You shall suck the milk of nations, you shall suck the breast of kings; and you shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isaiah 60:17 Instead of bronze I will bring gold, and instead of iron I will bring silver; instead of wood, bronze, instead of stones, iron. I will make your overseers peace and your taskmasters righteousness.

Isaiah 60:18 Violence shall no more be heard in your land, devastation or destruction within your borders; you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

Isaiah 60:19 The sun shall be no more your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you by night; but the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

Isaiah 60:20 Your sun shall no more go down, nor your moon withdraw itself; for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.

Isaiah 60:21 Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land for ever, the shoot of my planting, the work of my hands, that I might be glorified.

Isaiah 60:22 The least one shall become a clan, and the smallest one a mighty nation; I am the LORD; in its time I will hasten it.

Isaiah 61:1 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good tidings to the afflicted; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;

Isaiah 61:2 to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn;

Isaiah 61:3 to grant to those who mourn in Zion—to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.

Isaiah 61:4 They shall build up the ancient ruins, they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.

Isaiah 61:5 Aliens shall stand and feed your flocks, foreigners shall be your plowmen and vinedressers;

Isaiah 61:6 but you shall be called the priests of the LORD, men shall speak of you as the ministers of our God; you shall eat the wealth of the nations, and in their riches you shall glory.

Isaiah 61:7 Instead of your shame you shall have a double portion, instead of dishonor you shall rejoice in your lot; therefore in your land you shall possess a double portion; yours shall be everlasting joy.

Isaiah 61:8 For I the LORD love justice, I hate robbery and wrong; I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

Isaiah 61:9 Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring in the midst of the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are a people whom the LORD has blessed.

Isaiah 61:10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Isaiah 61:11 For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Isaiah 62:1 For Zion’s sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until her vindication goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch.

Isaiah 62:2 The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name which the mouth of the LORD will give.

Isaiah 62:3 You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

Isaiah 62:4 You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My delight is in her, and your land Married; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married.

Isaiah 62:5 For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Isaiah 62:6 Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have set watchmen; all the day and all the night they shall never be silent. You who put the LORD in remembrance, take no rest, Isaiah 62:7 and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it a praise in the earth.

Isaiah 62:8 The LORD has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: “I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink your wine for which you have labored;

Isaiah 62:9 but those who garner it shall eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.”

Isaiah 62:10 Go through, go through the gates, prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway, clear it of stones, lift up an ensign over the peoples.

Isaiah 62:11 Behold, the LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to the daughter of Zion, “Behold, your salvation comes; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.”

Isaiah 62:12 And they shall be called The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD; and you shall be called Sought out, a city not forsaken.

Isaiah 63:1 Who is this that comes from Edom, in crimsoned garments from Bozrah, he that is glorious in his apparel, marching in the greatness of his strength? “It is I, announcing vindication, mighty to save.”

Isaiah 63:2 Why is thy apparel red, and thy garments like his that treads in the wine press?

Isaiah 63:3 “I have trodden the wine press alone, and from the peoples no one was with me; I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath; their lifeblood is sprinkled upon my garments, and I have stained all my raiment.

Isaiah 63:4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and my year of redemption has come.

Isaiah 63:5 I looked, but there was no one to help; I was appalled, but there was no one to uphold; so my own arm brought me victory, and my wrath upheld me.

Isaiah 63:6 I trod down the peoples in my anger, I made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth.”

Isaiah 63:7 I will recount the steadfast love of the LORD, the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has granted us, and the great goodness to the house of Israel which he has granted them according to his mercy, according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

Isaiah 63:8 For he said, Surely they are my people, sons who will not deal falsely; and he became their Savior.

Isaiah 63:9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

Isaiah 63:10 But they rebelled and grieved his holy Spirit; therefore he turned to be their enemy, and himself fought against them.

Isaiah 63:11 Then he remembered the days of old, of Moses his servant. Where is he who brought up out of the sea the shepherds of his flock? Where is he who put in the midst of them his holy Spirit,

Isaiah 63:12 who caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses, who divided the waters before them to make for himself an everlasting name,

Isaiah 63:13 who led them through the depths? Like a horse in the desert, they did not stumble.

Isaiah 63:14 Like cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest. So thou didst lead thy people, to make for thyself a glorious name.

Isaiah 63:15 Look down from heaven and see, from thy holy and glorious habitation. Where are thy zeal and thy might? The yearning of thy heart and thy compassion are withheld from me.

Isaiah 63:16 For thou art our Father, though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not acknowledge us; thou, O LORD, art our Father, our Redeemer from of old is thy name.

Isaiah 63:17 O LORD, why dost thou make us err from thy ways and harden our heart, so that we fear thee not? Return for the sake of thy servants, the tribes of thy heritage.

Isaiah 63:18 Thy holy people possessed thy sanctuary a little while; our adversaries have trodden it down.

Isaiah 63:19 We have become like those over whom thou hast never ruled, like those who are not called by thy name.

Isaiah 64:1 O that thou wouldst rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains might quake at thy presence —

Isaiah 64:2 as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil—to make thy name known to thy adversaries, and that the nations might tremble at thy presence!

Isaiah 64:3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains quaked at thy presence.

Isaiah 64:4 From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides thee, who works for those who wait for him.

Isaiah 64:5 Thou meetest him that joyfully works righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways. Behold, thou wast angry, and we sinned; in our sins we have been a long time, and shall we be saved?

Isaiah 64:6 We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

Isaiah 64:7 There is no one that calls upon thy name, that bestirs himself to take hold of thee; for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast delivered us into the hand of our iniquities.

Isaiah 64:8 Yet, O LORD, thou art our Father; we are the clay, and thou art our potter; we are all the work of thy hand.

Isaiah 64:9 Be not exceedingly angry, O LORD, and remember not iniquity for ever. Behold, consider, we are all thy people.

Isaiah 64:10 Thy holy cities have become a wilderness, Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

Isaiah 64:11 Our holy and beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, has been burned by fire, and all our pleasant places have become ruins.

Isaiah 64:12 Wilt thou restrain thyself at these things, O LORD? Wilt thou keep silent, and afflict us sorely?

Isaiah 65:1 I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me; I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, “Here am I, here am I,” to a nation that did not call on my name.

Isaiah 65:2 I spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices;

Isaiah 65:3 a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and burning incense upon bricks;

Isaiah 65:4 who sit in tombs, and spend the night in secret places; who eat swine’s flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

Isaiah 65:5 who say, “Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am set apart from you.” These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all the day.

Isaiah 65:6 Behold, it is written before me: “I will not keep silent, but I will repay, yea, I will repay into their bosom

Isaiah 65:7 their iniquities and their fathers’ iniquities together, says the LORD; because they burned incense upon the mountains and reviled me upon the hills, I will measure into their bosom payment for their former doings.”

Isaiah 65:8 Thus says the LORD: “As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say, `Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,’ so I will do for my servants’ sake, and not destroy them all.

Isaiah 65:9 I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah inheritors of my mountains; my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

Isaiah 65:10 Sharon shall become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down, for my people who have sought me.

Isaiah 65:11 But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny;

Isaiah 65:12 I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter; because, when I called, you did not answer, when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in my eyes, and chose what I did not delight in.”

Isaiah 65:13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; behold, my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be put to shame;

Isaiah 65:14 behold, my servants shall sing for gladness of heart, but you shall cry out for pain of heart, and shall wail for anguish of spirit.

Isaiah 65:15 You shall leave your name to my chosen for a curse, and the Lord GOD will slay you; but his servants he will call by a different name.

Isaiah 65:16 So that he who blesses himself in the land shall bless himself by the God of truth, and he who takes an oath in the land shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten and are hid from my eyes.

Isaiah 65:17 “For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind.

Isaiah 65:18 But be glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

Isaiah 65:19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and be glad in my people; no more shall be heard in it the sound of weeping and the cry of distress.

Isaiah 65:20 No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old man who does not fill out his days, for the child shall die a hundred years old, and the sinner a hundred years old shall be accursed.

Isaiah 65:21 They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 65:22 They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

Isaiah 65:23 They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be the offspring of the blessed of the LORD, and their children with them.

Isaiah 65:24 Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear.

Isaiah 65:25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent's food. They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain, says the LORD."

Isaiah 66:1 Thus says the LORD: "Heaven is my throne and the earth is my footstool; what is the house which you would build for me, and what is the place of my rest?

Isaiah 66:2 All these things my hand has made, and so all these things are mine, says the LORD. But this is the man to whom I will look, he that is humble and contrite in spirit, and trembles at my word.

Isaiah 66:3 "He who slaughters an ox is like him who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, like him who breaks a dog's neck; he who presents a cereal offering, like him who offers swine's blood; he who makes a memorial offering of frankincense, like him who blesses an idol. These have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations;

Isaiah 66:4 I also will choose affliction for them, and bring their fears upon them; because, when I called, no one answered, when I spoke they did not listen; but they did what was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight."

Isaiah 66:5 Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word: "Your brethren who hate you and cast you out for my name's sake have said, `Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy'; but it is they who shall be put to shame.

Isaiah 66:6 "Hark, an uproar from the city! A voice from the temple! The voice of the LORD, rendering recompense to his enemies!

Isaiah 66:7 "Before she was in labor she gave birth; before her pain came upon her she was delivered of a son.

Isaiah 66:8 Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? Shall a nation be brought forth in one moment? For as soon as Zion was in labor she brought forth her sons.

Isaiah 66:9 Shall I bring to the birth and not cause to bring forth? says the LORD; shall I, who cause to bring forth, shut the womb? says your God.

Isaiah 66:10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her;

Isaiah 66:11 that you may suck and be satisfied with her consoling breasts; that you may drink deeply with delight from the abundance of her glory."

Isaiah 66:12 For thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall suck, you shall be carried upon her hip, and dandled upon her knees.

Isaiah 66:13 As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 66:14 You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bones shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the LORD is with his servants, and his indignation is against his enemies.

Isaiah 66:15 "For behold, the LORD will come in fire, and his chariots like the stormwind, to render his anger in fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

Isaiah 66:16 For by fire will the LORD execute judgment, and by his sword, upon all flesh; and those slain by the LORD shall be many.

Isaiah 66:17 "Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following one in the midst, eating swine's flesh and the abomination and mice, shall come to an end together, says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:18 "For I know their works and their thoughts, and I am coming to gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and shall see my glory,

Isaiah 66:19 and I will set a sign among them. And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Put, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands afar off, that have not heard my fame or seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations.

Isaiah 66:20 And they shall bring all your brethren from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring their cereal offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.

Isaiah 66:21 And some of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:22 "For as the new heavens and the new earth which I will make shall remain before me, says the LORD; so shall your descendants and your name remain.

Isaiah 66:23 From new moon to new moon, and from sabbath to sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before me, says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:24 "And they shall go forth and look on the dead bodies of the men that have rebelled against me; for their worm shall not die, their fire shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh."

Jeremiah

1:1 The words of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin,

Jeremiah 1:2 to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

Jeremiah 1:3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, and until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the captivity of Jerusalem in the fifth month.

Jeremiah 1:4 Now the word of the LORD came to me saying,

Jeremiah 1:5 “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.”

Jeremiah 1:6 Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth.”

Jeremiah 1:7 But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, `I am only a youth’; for to all to whom I send you you shall go, and whatever I command you you shall speak.

Jeremiah 1:8 Be not afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 1:9 Then the LORD put forth his hand and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me, “Behold, I have put my words in your mouth.

Jeremiah 1:10 See, I have set you this day over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.”

Jeremiah 1:11 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Jeremiah, what do you see?” And I said, “I see a rod of almond.”

Jeremiah 1:12 Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to perform it.”

Jeremiah 1:13 The word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a boiling pot, facing away from the north.”

Jeremiah 1:14 Then the LORD said to me, “Out of the north evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

Jeremiah 1:15 For, lo, I am calling all the tribes of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD; and they shall come and every one shall set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all its walls round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

Jeremiah 1:16 And I will utter my judgments against them, for all their wickedness in forsaking me; they have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

Jeremiah 1:17 But you, gird up your loins; arise, and say to them everything that I command you. Do not be dismayed by them, lest I dismay you before them.

Jeremiah 1:18 And I, behold, I make you this day a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, its princes, its priests, and the people of the land.

Jeremiah 1:19 They will fight against you; but they shall not prevail against you, for I am with you, says the LORD, to deliver you."

Jeremiah 2:1 The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

Jeremiah 2:2 "Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem, Thus says the LORD, I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness, in a land not sown.

Jeremiah 2:3 Israel was holy to the LORD, the first fruits of his harvest. All who ate of it became guilty; evil came upon them, says the LORD."

Jeremiah 2:4 Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

Jeremiah 2:5 Thus says the LORD: "What wrong did your fathers find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthlessness, and became worthless?

Jeremiah 2:6 They did not say, `Where is the LORD who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that none passes through, where no man dwells?'

Jeremiah 2:7 And I brought you into a plentiful land to enjoy its fruits and its good things. But when you came in you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination.

Jeremiah 2:8 The priests did not say, `Where is the LORD?' Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things that do not profit.

Jeremiah 2:9 "Therefore I still contend with you, says the LORD, and with your children's children I will contend.

Jeremiah 2:10 For cross to the coasts of Cyprus and see, or send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has been such a thing.

Jeremiah 2:11 Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.

Jeremiah 2:12 Be appalled, O heavens, at this, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the LORD, Jeremiah 2:13 for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

Jeremiah 2:14 “Is Israel a slave? Is he a homeborn servant? Why then has he become a prey?

Jeremiah 2:15 The lions have roared against him, they have roared loudly. They have made his land a waste; his cities are in ruins, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 2:16 Moreover, the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.

Jeremiah 2:17 Have you not brought this upon yourself by forsaking the LORD your God, when he led you in the way?

Jeremiah 2:18 And now what do you gain by going to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Nile? Or what do you gain by going to Assyria, to drink the waters of the Euphrates?

Jeremiah 2:19 Your wickedness will chasten you, and your apostasy will reprove you. Know and see that it is evil and bitter for you to forsake the LORD your God; the fear of me is not in you, says the Lord GOD of hosts.

Jeremiah 2:20 “For long ago you broke your yoke and burst your bonds; and you said, `I will not serve.’ Yea, upon every high hill and under every green tree you bowed down as a harlot.

Jeremiah 2:21 Yet I planted you a choice vine, wholly of pure seed. How then have you turned degenerate and become a wild vine?

Jeremiah 2:22 Though you wash yourself with lye and use much soap, the stain of your guilt is still before me, says the Lord GOD.

Jeremiah 2:23 How can you say, `I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baals’? Look at your way in the valley; know what you have done—a restive young camel interlacing her tracks,

Jeremiah 2:24 a wild ass used to the wilderness, in her heat sniffing the wind! Who can restrain her lust? None who seek her need weary themselves; in her month they will find her.

Jeremiah 2:25 Keep your feet from going unshod and your throat from thirst. But you said, `It is hopeless, for I have loved strangers, and after them I will go.’

Jeremiah 2:26 “As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel shall be shamed: they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets,

Jeremiah 2:27 who say to a tree, `You are my father,’ and to a stone, `You gave me birth.’ For they have turned their back to me, and not their face. But in the time of their trouble they say, `Arise and save us!’

Jeremiah 2:28 But where are your gods that you made for yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you, in your time of trouble; for as many as your cities are your gods, O Judah.

Jeremiah 2:29 “Why do you complain against me? You have all rebelled against me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 2:30 In vain have I smitten your children, they took no correction; your own sword devoured your prophets like a ravening lion.

Jeremiah 2:31 And you, O generation, heed the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness to Israel, or a land of thick darkness? Why then do my people say, `We are free, we will come no more to thee’?

Jeremiah 2:32 Can a maiden forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

Jeremiah 2:33 “How well you direct your course to seek lovers! So that even to wicked women you have taught your ways.

Jeremiah 2:34 Also on your skirts is found the lifeblood of guiltless poor; you did not find them breaking in. Yet in spite of all these things

Jeremiah 2:35 you say, `I am innocent; surely his anger has turned from me.’ Behold, I will bring you to judgment for saying, `I have not sinned.’

Jeremiah 2:36 How lightly you gad about, changing your way! You shall be put to shame by Egypt as you were put to shame by Assyria.

Jeremiah 2:37 From it too you will come away with your hands upon your head, for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper by them.

Jeremiah 3:1 “If a man divorces his wife and she goes from him and becomes another man’s wife, will he return to her? Would not that land be greatly polluted? You have played the harlot with many lovers; and would you return to me? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:2 Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with? By the waysides you have sat awaiting lovers like an Arab in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your vile harlotry.

Jeremiah 3:3 Therefore the showers have been withheld, and the spring rain has not come; yet you have a harlot’s brow, you refuse to be ashamed.

Jeremiah 3:4 Have you not just now called to me, `My father, thou art the friend of my youth —

Jeremiah 3:5 will he be angry for ever, will he be indignant to the end?’ Behold, you have spoken, but you have done all the evil that you could.”

Jeremiah 3:6 The LORD said to me in the days of King Josiah: “Have you seen what she did, that faithless one, Israel, how she went up on every high hill and under every green tree, and there played the harlot?

Jeremiah 3:7 And I thought, `After she has done all this she will return to me’; but she did not return, and her false sister Judah saw it.

Jeremiah 3:8 She saw that for all the adulteries of that faithless one, Israel, I had sent her away with a decree of divorce; yet her false sister Judah did not fear, but she too went and played the harlot.

Jeremiah 3:9 Because harlotry was so light to her, she polluted the land, committing adultery with stone and tree.

Jeremiah 3:10 Yet for all this her false sister Judah did not return to me with her whole heart, but in pretense, says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 3:11 And the LORD said to me, “Faithless Israel has shown herself less guilty than false Judah.

Jeremiah 3:12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, `Return, faithless Israel, says the LORD. I will not look on you in anger, for I am merciful, says the LORD; I will not be angry for ever.

Jeremiah 3:13 Only acknowledge your guilt, that you rebelled against the LORD your God and scattered your favors among strangers under every green tree, and that you have not obeyed my voice, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:14 Return, O faithless children, says the LORD; for I am your master; I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

Jeremiah 3:15 “`And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

Jeremiah 3:16 And when you have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says the LORD, they shall no more say, “The ark of the covenant of the LORD.” It shall not come to mind, or be remembered, or missed; it shall not be made again.

Jeremiah 3:17 At that time Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the LORD, and all nations shall gather to it, to the presence of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they shall no more stubbornly follow their own evil heart.

Jeremiah 3:18 In those days the house of Judah shall join the house of Israel, and together they shall come from the land of the north to the land that I gave your fathers for a heritage.

Jeremiah 3:19 “`I thought how I would set you among my sons, and give you a pleasant land, a heritage most beauteous of all nations. And I thought you would call me, My Father, and would not turn from following me.

Jeremiah 3:20 Surely, as a faithless wife leaves her husband, so have you been faithless to me, O house of Israel, says the LORD.’”

Jeremiah 3:21 A voice on the bare heights is heard, the weeping and pleading of Israel’s sons, because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten the LORD their God.

Jeremiah 3:22 “Return, O faithless sons, I will heal your faithlessness.” “Behold, we come to thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

Jeremiah 3:23 Truly the hills are a delusion, the orgies on the mountains. Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

Jeremiah 3:24 “But from our youth the shameful thing has devoured all for which our fathers labored, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

Jeremiah 3:25 Let us lie down in our shame, and let our dishonor cover us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day; and we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.”

Jeremiah 4:1 “If you return, O Israel, says the LORD, to me you should return. If you remove your abominations from my presence, and do not waver, Jeremiah 4:2 and if you swear, `As the LORD lives,’ in truth, in justice, and in uprightness, then nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.”

Jeremiah 4:3 For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: “Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

Jeremiah 4:4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, remove the foreskin of your hearts, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of the evil of your doings.”

Jeremiah 4:5 Declare in Judah, and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say, “Blow the trumpet through the land; cry aloud and say, `Assemble, and let us go into the fortified cities!’

Jeremiah 4:6 Raise a standard toward Zion, flee for safety, stay not, for I bring evil from the north, and great destruction.

Jeremiah 4:7 A lion has gone up from his thicket, a destroyer of nations has set out; he has gone forth from his place to make your land a waste; your cities will be ruins without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 4:8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned back from us.”

Jeremiah 4:9 “In that day, says the LORD, courage shall fail both king and princes; the priests shall be appalled and the prophets astounded.”

Jeremiah 4:10 Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD, surely thou hast utterly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, `It shall be well with you’; whereas the sword has reached their very life.”

Jeremiah 4:11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, “A hot wind from the bare heights in the desert toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow or cleanse, Jeremiah 4:12 a wind too full for this comes for me. Now it is I who speak in judgment upon them.”

Jeremiah 4:13 Behold, he comes up like clouds, his chariots like the whirlwind; his horses are swifter than eagles—woe to us, for we are ruined!

Jeremiah 4:14 O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you?

Jeremiah 4:15 For a voice declares from Dan and proclaims evil from Mount Ephraim.

Jeremiah 4:16 Warn the nations that he is coming; announce to Jerusalem, “Besiegers come from a distant land; they shout against the cities of Judah.

Jeremiah 4:17 Like keepers of a field are they against her round about, because she has rebelled against me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 4:18 Your ways and your doings have brought this upon you. This is your doom, and it is bitter; it has reached your very heart.”

Jeremiah 4:19 My anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain! Oh, the walls of my heart! My heart is beating wildly; I cannot keep silent; for I hear the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

Jeremiah 4:20 Disaster follows hard on disaster, the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, my curtains in a moment.

Jeremiah 4:21 How long must I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

Jeremiah 4:22 “For my people are foolish, they know me not; they are stupid children, they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil, but how to do good they know not.”

Jeremiah 4:23 I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light.

Jeremiah 4:24 I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro.

Jeremiah 4:25 I looked, and lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the air had fled.

Jeremiah 4:26 I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the LORD, before his fierce anger.

Jeremiah 4:27 For thus says the LORD, “The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.

Jeremiah 4:28 For this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above be black; for I have spoken, I have purposed; I have not relented nor will I turn back.”

Jeremiah 4:29 At the noise of horseman and archer every city takes to flight; they enter thickets; they climb among rocks; all the cities are forsaken, and no man dwells in them.

Jeremiah 4:30 And you, O desolate one, what do you mean that you dress in scarlet, that you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, that you enlarge your eyes with paint? In vain you beautify yourself. Your lovers despise you; they seek your life.

Jeremiah 4:31 For I heard a cry as of a woman in travail, anguish as of one bringing forth her first child, the cry of the daughter of Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands, “Woe is me! I am fainting before murderers.”

Jeremiah 5:1 Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, look and take note! Search her squares to see if you can find a man, one who does justice and seeks truth; that I may pardon her.

Jeremiah 5:2 Though they say, “As the LORD lives,” yet they swear falsely.

Jeremiah 5:3 O LORD, do not thy eyes look for truth? Thou hast smitten them, but they felt no anguish; thou hast consumed them, but they refused to take correction. They have made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to repent.

Jeremiah 5:4 Then I said, “These are only the poor, they have no sense; for they do not know the way of the LORD, the law of their God.

Jeremiah 5:5 I will go to the great, and will speak to them; for they know the way of the LORD, the law of their God.” But they all alike had broken the yoke, they had burst the bonds.

Jeremiah 5:6 Therefore a lion from the forest shall slay them, a wolf from the desert shall destroy them. A leopard is watching against their cities, every one who goes out of them shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, their apostasies are great.

Jeremiah 5:7 “How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and have sworn by those who are no gods. When I fed them to the full, they committed adultery and trooped to the houses of harlots.

Jeremiah 5:8 They were well-fed lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbor’s wife.

Jeremiah 5:9 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD; and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this?

Jeremiah 5:10 “Go up through her vine-rows and destroy, but make not a full end; strip away her branches, for they are not the LORD’s.

Jeremiah 5:11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly faithless to me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 5:12 They have spoken falsely of the LORD, and have said, `He will do nothing; no evil will come upon us, nor shall we see sword or famine.

Jeremiah 5:13 The prophets will become wind; the word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them!'"

Jeremiah 5:14 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts: "Because they have spoken this word, behold, I am making my words in your mouth a fire, and this people wood, and the fire shall devour them.

Jeremiah 5:15 Behold, I am bringing upon you a nation from afar, O house of Israel, says the LORD. It is an enduring nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor can you understand what they say.

Jeremiah 5:16 Their quiver is like an open tomb, they are all mighty men.

Jeremiah 5:17 They shall eat up your harvest and your food; they shall eat up your sons and your daughters; they shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees; your fortified cities in which you trust they shall destroy with the sword."

Jeremiah 5:18 "But even in those days, says the LORD, I will not make a full end of you.

Jeremiah 5:19 And when your people say, `Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?' you shall say to them, `As you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'"

Jeremiah 5:20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, proclaim it in Judah:

Jeremiah 5:21 "Hear this, O foolish and senseless people, who have eyes, but see not, who have ears, but hear not.

Jeremiah 5:22 Do you not fear me? says the LORD; Do you not tremble before me? I placed the sand as the bound for the sea, a perpetual barrier which it cannot pass; though the waves toss, they cannot prevail, though they roar, they cannot pass over it.

Jeremiah 5:23 But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart; they have turned aside and gone away.

Jeremiah 5:24 They do not say in their hearts, `Let us fear the LORD our God, who gives the rain in its season, the autumn rain and the spring rain, and keeps for us the weeks appointed for the harvest.'

Jeremiah 5:25 Your iniquities have turned these away, and your sins have kept good from you.

Jeremiah 5:26 For wicked men are found among my people; they lurk like fowlers lying in wait. They set a trap; they catch men.

Jeremiah 5:27 Like a basket full of birds, their houses are full of treachery; therefore they have become great and rich,

Jeremiah 5:28 they have grown fat and sleek. They know no bounds in deeds of wickedness; they judge not with justice the cause of the fatherless, to make it prosper, and they do not defend the rights of the needy.

Jeremiah 5:29 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD, and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this?”

Jeremiah 5:30 An appalling and horrible thing has happened in the land:

Jeremiah 5:31 the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule at their direction; my people love to have it so, but what will you do when the end comes?

Jeremiah 6:1 Flee for safety, O people of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem! Blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise a signal on Bethhaccherem; for evil looms out of the north, and great destruction.

Jeremiah 6:2 The comely and delicately bred I will destroy, the daughter of Zion.

Jeremiah 6:3 Shepherds with their flocks shall come against her; they shall pitch their tents around her, they shall pasture, each in his place.

Jeremiah 6:4 “Prepare war against her; up, and let us attack at noon!” “Woe to us, for the day declines, for the shadows of evening lengthen!”

Jeremiah 6:5 “Up, and let us attack by night, and destroy her palaces!”

Jeremiah 6:6 For thus says the LORD of hosts: “Hew down her trees; cast up a siege mound against Jerusalem. This is the city which must be punished; there is nothing but oppression within her.

Jeremiah 6:7 As a well keeps its water fresh, so she keeps fresh her wickedness; violence and destruction are heard within her; sickness and wounds are ever before me.

Jeremiah 6:8 Be warned, O Jerusalem, lest I be alienated from you; lest I make you a desolation, an uninhabited land.”

Jeremiah 6:9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Glean thoroughly as a vine the remnant of Israel; like a grape-gatherer pass your hand again over its branches.”

Jeremiah 6:10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ears are closed, they cannot listen; behold, the word of the LORD is to them an object of scorn, they take no pleasure in it.

Jeremiah 6:11 Therefore I am full of the wrath of the LORD; I am weary of holding it in. “Pour it out upon the children in the street, and upon the gatherings of young men, also; both husband and wife shall be taken, the old folk and the very aged.

Jeremiah 6:12 Their houses shall be turned over to others, their fields and wives together; for I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD.

Jeremiah 6:13 "For from the least to the greatest of them, every one is greedy for unjust gain; and from prophet to priest, every one deals falsely.

Jeremiah 6:14 They have healed the wound of my people lightly, saying, `Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

Jeremiah 6:15 Were they ashamed when they committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed; they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I punish them, they shall be overthrown," says the LORD.

Jeremiah 6:16 Thus says the LORD: "Stand by the roads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way is; and walk in it, and find rest for your souls. But they said, `We will not walk in it.'

Jeremiah 6:17 I set watchmen over you, saying, `Give heed to the sound of the trumpet!' But they said, `We will not give heed.'

Jeremiah 6:18 Therefore hear, O nations, and know, O congregation, what will happen to them.

Jeremiah 6:19 Hear, O earth; behold, I am bringing evil upon this people, the fruit of their devices, because they have not given heed to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it.

Jeremiah 6:20 To what purpose does frankincense come to me from Sheba, or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me.

Jeremiah 6:21 Therefore thus says the LORD: `Behold, I will lay before this people stumbling blocks against which they shall stumble; fathers and sons together, neighbor and friend shall perish.'"

Jeremiah 6:22 Thus says the LORD: "Behold, a people is coming from the north country, a great nation is stirring from the farthest parts of the earth.

Jeremiah 6:23 They lay hold on bow and spear, they are cruel and have no mercy, the sound of them is like the roaring sea; they ride upon horses, set in array as a man for battle, against you, O daughter of Zion!"

Jeremiah 6:24 We have heard the report of it, our hands fall helpless; anguish has taken hold of us, pain as of a woman in travail.

Jeremiah 6:25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk on the road; for the enemy has a sword, terror is on every side.

Jeremiah 6:26 O daughter of my people, gird on sackcloth, and roll in ashes; make mourning as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.

Jeremiah 6:27 “I have made you an assayer and tester among my people, that you may know and assay their ways.

Jeremiah 6:28 They are all stubbornly rebellious, going about with slanders; they are bronze and iron, all of them act corruptly.

Jeremiah 6:29 The bellows blow fiercely, the lead is consumed by the fire; in vain the refining goes on, for the wicked are not removed.

Jeremiah 6:30 Refuse silver they are called, for the LORD has rejected them.”

Jeremiah 7:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 7:2 “Stand in the gate of the LORD’s house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all you men of Judah who enter these gates to worship the LORD.

Jeremiah 7:3 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will let you dwell in this place.

Jeremiah 7:4 Do not trust in these deceptive words: `This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD.’

Jeremiah 7:5 “For if you truly amend your ways and your doings, if you truly execute justice one with another,

Jeremiah 7:6 if you do not oppress the alien, the fatherless or the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not go after other gods to your own hurt,

Jeremiah 7:7 then I will let you dwell in this place, in the land that I gave of old to your fathers for ever.

Jeremiah 7:8 “Behold, you trust in deceptive words to no avail.

Jeremiah 7:9 Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and go after other gods that you have not known,

Jeremiah 7:10 and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, `We are delivered!’—only to go on doing all these abominations?

Jeremiah 7:11 Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I myself have seen it, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 7:12 Go now to my place that was in Shiloh, where I made my name dwell at first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

Jeremiah 7:13 And now, because you have done all these things, says the LORD, and when I spoke to you persistently you did not listen, and when I called you, you did not answer,

Jeremiah 7:14 therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, and in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh.

Jeremiah 7:15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I cast out all your kinsmen, all the offspring of Ephraim.

Jeremiah 7:16 “As for you, do not pray for this people, or lift up cry or prayer for them, and do not intercede with me, for I do not hear you.

Jeremiah 7:17 Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 7:18 The children gather wood, the fathers kindle fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger.

Jeremiah 7:19 Is it I whom they provoke? says the LORD. Is it not themselves, to their own confusion?

Jeremiah 7:20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, my anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, upon man and beast, upon the trees of the field and the fruit of the ground; it will burn and not be quenched.”

Jeremiah 7:21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat the flesh.

Jeremiah 7:22 For in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak to your fathers or command them concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices.

Jeremiah 7:23 But this command I gave them, `Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.’

Jeremiah 7:24 But they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked in their own counsels and the stubbornness of their evil hearts, and went backward and not forward.

Jeremiah 7:25 From the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have persistently sent all my servants the prophets to them, day after day;

Jeremiah 7:26 yet they did not listen to me, or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck. They did worse than their fathers.

Jeremiah 7:27 “So you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. You shall call to them, but they will not answer you.

Jeremiah 7:28 And you shall say to them, `This is the nation that did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, and did not accept discipline; truth has perished; it is cut off from their lips.

Jeremiah 7:29 Cut off your hair and cast it away; raise a lamentation on the bare heights, for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.’

Jeremiah 7:30 “For the sons of Judah have done evil in my sight, says the LORD; they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.

Jeremiah 7:31 And they have built the high place of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command, nor did it come into my mind.

Jeremiah 7:32 Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when it will no more be called Topheth, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter: for they will bury in Topheth, because there is no room elsewhere.

Jeremiah 7:33 And the dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the air, and for the beasts of the earth; and none will frighten them away.

Jeremiah 7:34 And I will make to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste.

Jeremiah 8:1 “At that time, says the LORD, the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its princes, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be brought out of their tombs;

Jeremiah 8:2 and they shall be spread before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and served, which they have gone after, and which they have sought and worshiped; and they shall not be gathered or buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground.

Jeremiah 8:3 Death shall be preferred to life by all the remnant that remains of this evil family in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 8:4 “You shall say to them, Thus says the LORD: When men fall, do they not rise again? If one turns away, does he not return?

Jeremiah 8:5 Why then has this people turned away in perpetual backsliding? They hold fast to deceit, they refuse to return.

Jeremiah 8:6 I have given heed and listened, but they have not spoken aright; no man repents of his wickedness, saying, `What have I done?’ Every one turns to his own course, like a horse plunging headlong into battle.

Jeremiah 8:7 Even the stork in the heavens knows her times; and the turtledove, swallow, and crane keep the time of their coming; but my people know not the ordinance of the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:8 “How can you say, `We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us’? But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has made it into a lie.

Jeremiah 8:9 The wise men shall be put to shame, they shall be dismayed and taken; lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD, and what wisdom is in them?

Jeremiah 8:10 Therefore I will give their wives to others and their fields to conquerors, because from the least to the greatest every one is greedy for unjust gain; from prophet to priest every one deals falsely.

Jeremiah 8:11 They have healed the wound of my people lightly, saying, `Peace, peace,’ when there is no peace.

Jeremiah 8:12 Were they ashamed when they committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed; they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among the fallen; when I punish them, they shall be overthrown, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:13 When I would gather them, says the LORD, there are no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree; even the leaves are withered, and what I gave them has passed away from them.”

Jeremiah 8:14 Why do we sit still? Gather together, let us go into the fortified cities and perish there; for the LORD our God has doomed us to perish, and has given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:15 We looked for peace, but no good came, for a time of healing, but behold, terror.

Jeremiah 8:16 “The snorting of their horses is heard from Dan; at the sound of the neighing of their stallions the whole land quakes. They come and devour the land and all that fills it, the city and those who dwell in it.

Jeremiah 8:17 For behold, I am sending among you serpents, adders which cannot be charmed, and they shall bite you,” says the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:18 My grief is beyond healing, my heart is sick within me.

Jeremiah 8:19 Hark, the cry of the daughter of my people from the length and breadth of the land: “Is the LORD not in Zion? Is her King not in her?” “Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with their foreign idols?”

Jeremiah 8:20 “The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.”

Jeremiah 8:21 For the wound of the daughter of my people is my heart wounded, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold on me.

Jeremiah 8:22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of the daughter of my people not been restored?

Jeremiah 9:1 O that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

Jeremiah 9:2 O that I had in the desert a wayfarers' lodging place, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, a company of treacherous men.

Jeremiah 9:3 They bend their tongue like a bow; falsehood and not truth has grown strong in the land; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:4 Let every one beware of his neighbor, and put no trust in any brother; for every brother is a supplanter, and every neighbor goes about as a slanderer.

Jeremiah 9:5 Every one deceives his neighbor, and no one speaks the truth; they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they commit iniquity and are too weary to repent.

Jeremiah 9:6 Heaping oppression upon oppression, and deceit upon deceit, they refuse to know me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:7 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: "Behold, I will refine them and test them, for what else can I do, because of my people?

Jeremiah 9:8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceitfully; with his mouth each speaks peaceably to his neighbor, but in his heart he plans an ambush for him.

Jeremiah 9:9 Shall I not punish them for these things? says the LORD; and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this?

Jeremiah 9:10 "Take up weeping and wailing for the mountains, and a lamentation for the pastures of the wilderness, because they are laid waste so that no one passes through, and the lowing of cattle is not heard; both the birds of the air and the beasts have fled and are gone.

Jeremiah 9:11 I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a lair of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

Jeremiah 9:12 Who is the man so wise that he can understand this? To whom has the mouth of the LORD spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land ruined and laid waste like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?

Jeremiah 9:13 And the LORD says: "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, or walked in accord with it,

Jeremiah 9:14 but have stubbornly followed their own hearts and have gone after the Baals, as their fathers taught them.

Jeremiah 9:15 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will feed this people with wormwood, and give them poisonous water to drink.

Jeremiah 9:16 I will scatter them among the nations whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them."

Jeremiah 9:17 Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Consider, and call for the mourning women to come; send for the skilful women to come;

Jeremiah 9:18 let them make haste and raise a wailing over us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush with water.

Jeremiah 9:19 For a sound of wailing is heard from Zion: `How we are ruined! We are utterly shamed, because we have left the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.'"

Jeremiah 9:20 Hear, O women, the word of the LORD, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; teach to your daughters a lament, and each to her neighbor a dirge.

Jeremiah 9:21 For death has come up into our windows, it has entered our palaces, cutting off the children from the streets and the young men from the squares.

Jeremiah 9:22 Speak, "Thus says the LORD: `The dead bodies of men shall fall like dung upon the open field, like sheaves after the reaper, and none shall gather them.'"

Jeremiah 9:23 Thus says the LORD: "Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, let not the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches;

Jeremiah 9:24 but let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who practice steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth; for in these things I delight, says the LORD."

Jeremiah 9:25 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will punish all those who are circumcised but yet uncircumcised —

Jeremiah 9:26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and all who dwell in the desert that cut the corners of their hair; for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart."

Jeremiah 10:1 Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.

Jeremiah 10:2 Thus says the LORD: "Learn not the way of the nations, nor be dismayed at the signs of the heavens because the nations are dismayed at them,

Jeremiah 10:3 for the customs of the peoples are false. A tree from the forest is cut down, and worked with an axe by the hands of a craftsman.

Jeremiah 10:4 Men deck it with silver and gold; they fasten it with hammer and nails so that it cannot move.

Jeremiah 10:5 Their idols are like scarecrows in a cucumber field, and they cannot speak; they have to be carried, for they cannot walk. Be not afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, neither is it in them to do good.”

Jeremiah 10:6 There is none like thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

Jeremiah 10:7 Who would not fear thee, O King of the nations? For this is thy due; for among all the wise ones of the nations and in all their kingdoms there is none like thee.

Jeremiah 10:8 They are both stupid and foolish; the instruction of idols is but wood!

Jeremiah 10:9 Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz. They are the work of the craftsman and of the hands of the goldsmith; their clothing is violet and purple; they are all the work of skilled men.

Jeremiah 10:10 But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God and the everlasting King. At his wrath the earth quakes, and the nations cannot endure his indignation.

Jeremiah 10:11 Thus shall you say to them: “The gods who did not make the heavens and the earth shall perish from the earth and from under the heavens.”

Jeremiah 10:12 It is he who made the earth by his power, who established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.

Jeremiah 10:13 When he utters his voice there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings for the rain, and he brings forth the wind from his storehouses.

Jeremiah 10:14 Every man is stupid and without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols; for his images are false, and there is no breath in them.

Jeremiah 10:15 They are worthless, a work of delusion; at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

Jeremiah 10:16 Not like these is he who is the portion of Jacob, for he is the one who formed all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Jeremiah 10:17 Gather up your bundle from the ground, O you who dwell under siege!

Jeremiah 10:18 For thus says the LORD: “Behold, I am slinging out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and I will bring distress on them, that they may feel it.”

Jeremiah 10:19 Woe is me because of my hurt! My wound is grievous. But I said, “Truly this is an affliction, and I must bear it.”

Jeremiah 10:20 My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken; my children have gone from me, and they are not; there is no one to spread my tent again, and to set up my curtains.

Jeremiah 10:21 For the shepherds are stupid, and do not inquire of the LORD; therefore they have not prospered, and all their flock is scattered.

Jeremiah 10:22 Hark, a rumor! Behold, it comes!—a great commotion out of the north country to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a lair of jackals.

Jeremiah 10:23 I know, O LORD, that the way of man is not in himself, that it is not in man who walks to direct his steps.

Jeremiah 10:24 Correct me, O LORD, but in just measure; not in thy anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

Jeremiah 10:25 Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that know thee not, and upon the peoples that call not on thy name; for they have devoured Jacob; they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

Jeremiah 11:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 11:2 “Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 11:3 You shall say to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Cursed be the man who does not heed the words of this covenant

Jeremiah 11:4 which I commanded your fathers when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Listen to my voice, and do all that I command you. So shall you be my people, and I will be your God,

Jeremiah 11:5 that I may perform the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day.” Then I answered, “So be it, LORD.”

Jeremiah 11:6 And the LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: Hear the words of this covenant and do them.

Jeremiah 11:7 For I solemnly warned your fathers when I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, warning them persistently, even to this day, saying, Obey my voice.

Jeremiah 11:8 Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but every one walked in the stubbornness of his evil heart. Therefore I brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did not.”

Jeremiah 11:9 Again the LORD said to me, “There is revolt among the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 11:10 They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

Jeremiah 11:11 Therefore, thus says the LORD, Behold, I am bringing evil upon them which they cannot escape; though they cry to me, I will not listen to them.

Jeremiah 11:12 Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods to whom they burn incense, but they cannot save them in the time of their trouble.

Jeremiah 11:13 For your gods have become as many as your cities, O Judah; and as many as the streets of Jerusalem are the altars you have set up to shame, altars to burn incense to Baal.

Jeremiah 11:14 “Therefore do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer on their behalf, for I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their trouble.

Jeremiah 11:15 What right has my beloved in my house, when she has done vile deeds? Can vows and sacrificial flesh avert your doom? Can you then exult?

Jeremiah 11:16 The LORD once called you, `A green olive tree, fair with goodly fruit’; but with the roar of a great tempest he will set fire to it, and its branches will be consumed.

Jeremiah 11:17 The LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil which the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done, provoking me to anger by burning incense to Baal.”

Jeremiah 11:18 The LORD made it known to me and I knew; then thou didst show me their evil deeds.

Jeremiah 11:19 But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter. I did not know it was against me they devised schemes, saying, “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name be remembered no more.”

Jeremiah 11:20 But, O LORD of hosts, who judgest righteously, who triest the heart and the mind, let me see thy vengeance upon them, for to thee have I committed my cause.

Jeremiah 11:21 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, and say, “Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, or you will die by our hand” —

Jeremiah 11:22 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: “Behold, I will punish them; the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

Jeremiah 11:23 and none of them shall be left. For I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, the year of their punishment.”

Jeremiah 12:1 Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I complain to thee; yet I would plead my case before thee. Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why do all who are treacherous thrive?

Jeremiah 12:2 Thou plantest them, and they take root; they grow and bring forth fruit; thou art near in their mouth and far from their heart.

Jeremiah 12:3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me; thou seest me, and triest my mind toward thee. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and set them apart for the day of slaughter.

Jeremiah 12:4 How long will the land mourn, and the grass of every field wither? For the wickedness of those who dwell in it the beasts and the birds are swept away, because men said, “He will not see our latter end.”

Jeremiah 12:5 “If you have raced with men on foot, and they have wearied you, how will you compete with horses? And if in a safe land you fall down, how will you do in the jungle of the Jordan?

Jeremiah 12:6 For even your brothers and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; they are in full cry after you; believe them not, though they speak fair words to you.”

Jeremiah 12:7 “I have forsaken my house, I have abandoned my heritage; I have given the beloved of my soul into the hands of her enemies.

Jeremiah 12:8 My heritage has become to me like a lion in the forest, she has lifted up her voice against me; therefore I hate her.

Jeremiah 12:9 Is my heritage to me like a speckled bird of prey? Are the birds of prey against her round about? Go, assemble all the wild beasts; bring them to devour.

Jeremiah 12:10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trampled down my portion, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

Jeremiah 12:11 They have made it a desolation; desolate, it mourns to me. The whole land is made desolate, but no man lays it to heart.

Jeremiah 12:12 Upon all the bare heights in the desert destroyers have come; for the sword of the LORD devours from one end of the land to the other; no flesh has peace.

Jeremiah 12:13 They have sown wheat and have reaped thorns, they have tired themselves out but profit nothing. They shall be ashamed of their harvests because of the fierce anger of the LORD.”

Jeremiah 12:14 Thus says the LORD concerning all my evil neighbors who touch the heritage which I have given my people Israel to inherit: “Behold, I will pluck them up from their land, and I will pluck up the house of Judah from among them.

Jeremiah 12:15 And after I have plucked them up, I will again have compassion on them, and I will bring them again each to his heritage and each to his land.

Jeremiah 12:16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, `As the LORD lives,' even as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they shall be built up in the midst of my people.

Jeremiah 12:17 But if any nation will not listen, then I will utterly pluck it up and destroy it, says the LORD."

Jeremiah 13:1 Thus said the LORD to me, "Go and buy a linen waistcloth, and put it on your loins, and do not dip it in water."

Jeremiah 13:2 So I bought a waistcloth according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

Jeremiah 13:3 And the word of the LORD came to me a second time,

Jeremiah 13:4 "Take the waistcloth which you have bought, which is upon your loins, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock."

Jeremiah 13:5 So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

Jeremiah 13:6 And after many days the LORD said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take from there the waistcloth which I commanded you to hide there."

Jeremiah 13:7 Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and I took the waistcloth from the place where I had hidden it. And behold, the waistcloth was spoiled; it was good for nothing.

Jeremiah 13:8 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 13:9 "Thus says the LORD: Even so will I spoil the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 13:10 This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who stubbornly follow their own heart and have gone after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be like this waistcloth, which is good for nothing.

Jeremiah 13:11 For as the waistcloth clings to the loins of a man, so I made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to me, says the LORD, that they might be for me a people, a name, a praise, and a glory, but they would not listen.

Jeremiah 13:12 "You shall speak to them this word: `Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "Every jar shall be filled with wine."' And they will say to you, `Do we not indeed know that every jar will be filled with wine?'

Jeremiah 13:13 Then you shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD: Behold, I will fill with drunkenness all the inhabitants of this land: the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 13:14 And I will dash them one against another, fathers and sons together, says the LORD. I will not pity or spare or have compassion, that I should not destroy them.’”

Jeremiah 13:15 Hear and give ear; be not proud, for the LORD has spoken.

Jeremiah 13:16 Give glory to the LORD your God before he brings darkness, before your feet stumble on the twilight mountains, and while you look for light he turns it into gloom and makes it deep darkness.

Jeremiah 13:17 But if you will not listen, my soul will weep in secret for your pride; my eyes will weep bitterly and run down with tears, because the LORD’s flock has been taken captive.

Jeremiah 13:18 Say to the king and the queen mother: “Take a lowly seat, for your beautiful crown has come down from your head.”

Jeremiah 13:19 The cities of the Negeb are shut up, with none to open them; all Judah is taken into exile, wholly taken into exile.

Jeremiah 13:20 “Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock?

Jeremiah 13:21 What will you say when they set as head over you those whom you yourself have taught to be friends to you? Will not pangs take hold of you, like those of a woman in travail?

Jeremiah 13:22 And if you say in your heart, `Why have these things come upon me?’ it is for the greatness of your iniquity that your skirts are lifted up, and you suffer violence.

Jeremiah 13:23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard his spots? Then also you can do good who are accustomed to do evil.

Jeremiah 13:24 I will scatter you like chaff driven by the wind from the desert.

Jeremiah 13:25 This is your lot, the portion I have measured out to you, says the LORD, because you have forgotten me and trusted in lies.

Jeremiah 13:26 I myself will lift up your skirts over your face, and your shame will be seen.

Jeremiah 13:27 I have seen your abominations, your adulteries and neighings, your lewd harlotries, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! How long will it be before you are made clean?”

Jeremiah 14:1 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

Jeremiah 14:2 “Judah mourns and her gates languish; her people lament on the ground, and the cry of Jerusalem goes up.

Jeremiah 14:3 Her nobles send their servants for water; they come to the cisterns, they find no water, they return with their vessels empty; they are ashamed and confounded and cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:4 Because of the ground which is dismayed, since there is no rain on the land, the farmers are ashamed, they cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:5 Even the hind in the field forsakes her newborn calf because there is no grass.

Jeremiah 14:6 The wild asses stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail because there is no herbage.

Jeremiah 14:7 "Though our iniquities testify against us, act, O LORD, for thy name's sake; for our backslidings are many, we have sinned against thee.

Jeremiah 14:8 O thou hope of Israel, its savior in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be like a stranger in the land, like a wayfarer who turns aside to tarry for a night?

Jeremiah 14:9 Why shouldst thou be like a man confused, like a mighty man who cannot save? Yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not."

Jeremiah 14:10 Thus says the LORD concerning this people: "They have loved to wander thus, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins."

Jeremiah 14:11 The LORD said to me: "Do not pray for the welfare of this people.

Jeremiah 14:12 Though they fast, I will not hear their cry, and though they offer burnt offering and cereal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence."

Jeremiah 14:13 Then I said: "Ah, Lord GOD, behold, the prophets say to them, `You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.'"

Jeremiah 14:14 And the LORD said to me: "The prophets are prophesying lies in my name; I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a lying vision, worthless divination, and the deceit of their own minds.

Jeremiah 14:15 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name although I did not send them, and who say, `Sword and famine shall not come on this land': By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed.

Jeremiah 14:16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and sword, with none to bury them—them, their wives, their sons, and their daughters. For I will pour out their wickedness upon them.

Jeremiah 14:17 “You shall say to them this word: `Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease, for the virgin daughter of my people is smitten with a great wound, with a very grievous blow.

Jeremiah 14:18 If I go out into the field, behold, those slain by the sword! And if I enter the city, behold, the diseases of famine! For both prophet and priest ply their trade through the land, and have no knowledge.’”

Jeremiah 14:19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? Does thy soul loathe Zion? Why hast thou smitten us so that there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; for a time of healing, but behold, terror.

Jeremiah 14:20 We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD, and the iniquity of our fathers, for we have sinned against thee.

Jeremiah 14:21 Do not spurn us, for thy name’s sake; do not dishonor thy glorious throne; remember and do not break thy covenant with us.

Jeremiah 14:22 Are there any among the false gods of the nations that can bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Art thou not he, O LORD our God? We set our hope on thee, for thou doest all these things.

Jeremiah 15:1 Then the LORD said to me, “Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my heart would not turn toward this people. Send them out of my sight, and let them go!

Jeremiah 15:2 And when they ask you, `Where shall we go?’ you shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD: “Those who are for pestilence, to pestilence, and those who are for the sword, to the sword; those who are for famine, to famine, and those who are for captivity, to captivity.”‘

Jeremiah 15:3 “I will appoint over them four kinds of destroyers, says the LORD: the sword to slay, the dogs to tear, and the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

Jeremiah 15:4 And I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 15:5 “Who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem, or who will bemoan you? Who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?

Jeremiah 15:6 You have rejected me, says the LORD, you keep going backward; so I have stretched out my hand against you and destroyed you;—I am weary of relenting.

Jeremiah 15:7 I have winnowed them with a winnowing fork in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them, I have destroyed my people; they did not turn from their ways.

Jeremiah 15:8 I have made their widows more in number than the sand of the seas; I have brought against the mothers of young men a destroyer at noonday; I have made anguish and terror fall upon them suddenly.

Jeremiah 15:9 She who bore seven has languished; she has swooned away; her sun went down while it was yet day; she has been shamed and disgraced. And the rest of them I will give to the sword before their enemies, says the LORD."

Jeremiah 15:10 Woe is me, my mother, that you bore me, a man of strife and contention to the whole land! I have not lent, nor have I borrowed, yet all of them curse me.

Jeremiah 15:11 So let it be, O LORD, if I have not entreated thee for their good, if I have not pleaded with thee on behalf of the enemy in the time of trouble and in the time of distress!

Jeremiah 15:12 Can one break iron, iron from the north, and bronze?

Jeremiah 15:13 "Your wealth and your treasures I will give as spoil, without price, for all your sins, throughout all your territory.

Jeremiah 15:14 I will make you serve your enemies in a land which you do not know, for in my anger a fire is kindled which shall burn for ever."

Jeremiah 15:15 O LORD, thou knowest; remember me and visit me, and take vengeance for me on my persecutors. In thy forbearance take me not away; know that for thy sake I bear reproach.

Jeremiah 15:16 Thy words were found, and I ate them, and thy words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart; for I am called by thy name, O LORD, God of hosts.

Jeremiah 15:17 I did not sit in the company of merrymakers, nor did I rejoice; I sat alone, because thy hand was upon me, for thou hadst filled me with indignation.

Jeremiah 15:18 Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Wilt thou be to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail?

Jeremiah 15:19 Therefore thus says the LORD: "If you return, I will restore you, and you shall stand before me. If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless, you shall be as my mouth. They shall turn to you, but you shall not turn to them.

Jeremiah 15:20 And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you, for I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 15:21 I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless."

Jeremiah 16:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 16:2 “You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place.

Jeremiah 16:3 For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning the mothers who bore them and the fathers who begot them in this land:

Jeremiah 16:4 They shall die of deadly diseases. They shall not be lamented, nor shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground. They shall perish by the sword and by famine, and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the air and for the beasts of the earth.

Jeremiah 16:5 “For thus says the LORD: Do not enter the house of mourning, or go to lament, or bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says the LORD, my steadfast love and mercy.

Jeremiah 16:6 Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, and no one shall lament for them or cut himself or make himself bald for them.

Jeremiah 16:7 No one shall break bread for the mourner, to comfort him for the dead; nor shall any one give him the cup of consolation to drink for his father or his mother.

Jeremiah 16:8 You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink.

Jeremiah 16:9 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will make to cease from this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

Jeremiah 16:10 “And when you tell this people all these words, and they say to you, `Why has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? What is our iniquity? What is the sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?’

Jeremiah 16:11 then you shall say to them: `Because your fathers have forsaken me, says the LORD, and have gone after other gods and have served and worshiped them, and have forsaken me and have not kept my law,

Jeremiah 16:12 and because you have done worse than your fathers, for behold, every one of you follows his stubborn evil will, refusing to listen to me;

Jeremiah 16:13 therefore I will hurl you out of this land into a land which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor.’

Jeremiah 16:14 “Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when it shall no longer be said, `As the LORD lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt,’ Jeremiah 16:15 but `As the LORD lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the north country and out of all the countries where he had driven them.' For I will bring them back to their own land which I gave to their fathers.

Jeremiah 16:16 "Behold, I am sending for many fishers, says the LORD, and they shall catch them; and afterwards I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks.

Jeremiah 16:17 For my eyes are upon all their ways; they are not hid from me, nor is their iniquity concealed from my eyes.

Jeremiah 16:18 And I will doubly recompense their iniquity and their sin, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable idols, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations."

Jeremiah 16:19 O LORD, my strength and my stronghold, my refuge in the day of trouble, to thee shall the nations come from the ends of the earth and say: "Our fathers have inherited nought but lies, worthless things in which there is no profit.

Jeremiah 16:20 Can man make for himself gods? Such are no gods!"

Jeremiah 16:21 "Therefore, behold, I will make them know, this once I will make them know my power and my might, and they shall know that my name is the LORD."

Jeremiah 17:1 "The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron; with a point of diamond it is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of their altars,

Jeremiah 17:2 while their children remember their altars and their Asherim, beside every green tree, and on the high hills,

Jeremiah 17:3 on the mountains in the open country. Your wealth and all your treasures I will give for spoil as the price of your sin throughout all your territory.

Jeremiah 17:4 You shall loosen your hand from your heritage which I gave to you, and I will make you serve your enemies in a land which you do not know, for in my anger a fire is kindled which shall burn for ever."

Jeremiah 17:5 Thus says the LORD: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his arm, whose heart turns away from the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:6 He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land.

Jeremiah 17:7 "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:8 He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit.”

Jeremiah 17:9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately corrupt; who can understand it?

Jeremiah 17:10 “I the LORD search the mind and try the heart, to give to every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.”

Jeremiah 17:11 Like the partridge that gathers a brood which she did not hatch, so is he who gets riches but not by right; in the midst of his days they will leave him, and at his end he will be a fool.

Jeremiah 17:12 A glorious throne set on high from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

Jeremiah 17:13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, all who forsake thee shall be put to shame; those who turn away from thee shall be written in the earth, for they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living water.

Jeremiah 17:14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved; for thou art my praise.

Jeremiah 17:15 Behold, they say to me, “Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come!”

Jeremiah 17:16 I have not pressed thee to send evil, nor have I desired the day of disaster, thou knowest; that which came out of my lips was before thy face.

Jeremiah 17:17 Be not a terror to me; thou art my refuge in the day of evil.

Jeremiah 17:18 Let those be put to shame who persecute me, but let me not be put to shame; let them be dismayed, but let me not be dismayed; bring upon them the day of evil; destroy them with double destruction!

Jeremiah 17:19 Thus said the LORD to me: “Go and stand in the Benjamin Gate, by which the kings of Judah enter and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem,

Jeremiah 17:20 and say: `Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates.

Jeremiah 17:21 Thus says the LORD: Take heed for the sake of your lives, and do not bear a burden on the sabbath day or bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 17:22 And do not carry a burden out of your houses on the sabbath or do any work, but keep the sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers.

Jeremiah 17:23 Yet they did not listen or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck, that they might not hear and receive instruction.

Jeremiah 17:24 “`But if you listen to me, says the LORD, and bring in no burden by the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but keep the sabbath day holy and do no work on it,

Jeremiah 17:25 then there shall enter by the gates of this city kings who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall be inhabited for ever.

Jeremiah 17:26 And people shall come from the cities of Judah and the places round about Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the Shephelah, from the hill country, and from the Negeb, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, cereal offerings and frankincense, and bringing thank offerings to the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:27 But if you do not listen to me, to keep the sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter by the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem and shall not be quenched.’”

Jeremiah 18:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 18:2 “Arise, and go down to the potter’s house, and there I will let you hear my words.”

Jeremiah 18:3 So I went down to the potter’s house, and there he was working at his wheel.

Jeremiah 18:4 And the vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter’s hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to do.

Jeremiah 18:5 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 18:6 “O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter has done? says the LORD. Behold, like the clay in the potter’s hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.

Jeremiah 18:7 If at any time I declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it,

Jeremiah 18:8 and if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will repent of the evil that I intended to do to it.

Jeremiah 18:9 And if at any time I declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it,

Jeremiah 18:10 and if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will repent of the good which I had intended to do to it.

Jeremiah 18:11 Now, therefore, say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: `Thus says the LORD, Behold, I am shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Return, every one from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.’

Jeremiah 18:12 “But they say, `That is in vain! We will follow our own plans, and will every one act according to the stubbornness of his evil heart.’

Jeremiah 18:13 “Therefore thus says the LORD: Ask among the nations, who has heard the like of this? The virgin Israel has done a very horrible thing.

Jeremiah 18:14 Does the snow of Lebanon leave the crags of Sirion? Do the mountain waters run dry, the cold flowing streams?

Jeremiah 18:15 But my people have forgotten me, they burn incense to false gods; they have stumbled in their ways, in the ancient roads, and have gone into bypaths, not the highway,

Jeremiah 18:16 making their land a horror, a thing to be hissed at for ever. Every one who passes by it is horrified and shakes his head.

Jeremiah 18:17 Like the east wind I will scatter them before the enemy. I will show them my back, not my face, in the day of their calamity.”

Jeremiah 18:18 Then they said, “Come, let us make plots against Jeremiah, for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not heed any of his words.”

Jeremiah 18:19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to my plea.

Jeremiah 18:20 Is evil a recompense for good? Yet they have dug a pit for my life. Remember how I stood before thee to speak good for them, to turn away thy wrath from them.

Jeremiah 18:21 Therefore deliver up their children to famine; give them over to the power of the sword, let their wives become childless and widowed. May their men meet death by pestilence, their youths be slain by the sword in battle.

Jeremiah 18:22 May a cry be heard from their houses, when thou bringest the marauder suddenly upon them! For they have dug a pit to take me, and laid snares for my feet.

Jeremiah 18:23 Yet, thou, O LORD, knowest all their plotting to slay me. Forgive not their iniquity, nor blot out their sin from thy sight. Let them be overthrown before thee; deal with them in the time of thine anger.

Jeremiah 19:1 Thus said the LORD, “Go, buy a potter’s earthen flask, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the senior priests,

Jeremiah 19:2 and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom at the entry of the Potsherd Gate, and proclaim there the words that I tell you.

Jeremiah 19:3 You shall say, `Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon this place that the ears of every one who hears of it will tingle.

Jeremiah 19:4 Because the people have forsaken me, and have profaned this place by burning incense in it to other gods whom neither they nor their fathers nor the kings of Judah have known; and because they have filled this place with the blood of innocents,

Jeremiah 19:5 and have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command or decree, nor did it come into my mind;

Jeremiah 19:6 therefore, behold, days are coming, says the LORD, when this place shall no more be called Topheth, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of Slaughter.

Jeremiah 19:7 And in this place I will make void the plans of Judah and Jerusalem, and will cause their people to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life. I will give their dead bodies for food to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the earth.

Jeremiah 19:8 And I will make this city a horror, a thing to be hissed at; every one who passes by it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its disasters.

Jeremiah 19:9 And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and their daughters, and every one shall eat the flesh of his neighbor in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies and those who seek their life afflict them.’

Jeremiah 19:10 “Then you shall break the flask in the sight of the men who go with you,

Jeremiah 19:11 and shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD of hosts: So will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter’s vessel, so that it can never be mended. Men shall bury in Topheth because there will be no place else to bury.

Jeremiah 19:12 Thus will I do to this place, says the LORD, and to its inhabitants, making this city like Topheth.

Jeremiah 19:13 The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah—all the houses upon whose roofs incense has been burned to all the host of heaven, and drink offerings have been poured out to other gods—shall be defiled like the place of Topheth.’”

Jeremiah 19:14 Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the court of the LORD’s house, and said to all the people:

Jeremiah 19:15 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing upon this city and upon all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have stiffened their neck, refusing to hear my words.”

Jeremiah 20:1 Now Pashhur the priest, the son of Immer, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.

Jeremiah 20:2 Then Pashhur beat Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper Benjamin Gate of the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 20:3 On the morrow, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD does not call your name Pashhur, but Terror on every side.

Jeremiah 20:4 For thus says the LORD: Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. They shall fall by the sword of their enemies while you look on. And I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon; he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

Jeremiah 20:5 Moreover, I will give all the wealth of the city, all its gains, all its prized belongings, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hand of their enemies, who shall plunder them, and seize them, and carry them to Babylon.

Jeremiah 20:6 And you, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity; to Babylon you shall go; and there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely."

Jeremiah 20:7 O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived; thou art stronger than I, and thou hast prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all the day; every one mocks me.

Jeremiah 20:8 For whenever I speak, I cry out, I shout, "Violence and destruction!" For the word of the LORD has become for me a reproach and derision all day long.

Jeremiah 20:9 If I say, "I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name," there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot.

Jeremiah 20:10 For I hear many whispering. Terror is on every side! "Denounce him! Let us denounce him!" say all my familiar friends, watching for my fall. "Perhaps he will be deceived, then we can overcome him, and take our revenge on him."

Jeremiah 20:11 But the LORD is with me as a dread warrior; therefore my persecutors will stumble, they will not overcome me. They will be greatly shamed, for they will not succeed. Their eternal dishonor will never be forgotten.

Jeremiah 20:12 O LORD of hosts, who triest the righteous, who seest the heart and the mind, let me see thy vengeance upon them, for to thee have I committed my cause.

Jeremiah 20:13 Sing to the LORD; praise the LORD! For he has delivered the life of the needy from the hand of evildoers.

Jeremiah 20:14 Cursed be the day on which I was born! The day when my mother bore me, let it not be blessed!

Jeremiah 20:15 Cursed be the man who brought the news to my father, “A son is born to you,” making him very glad.

Jeremiah 20:16 Let that man be like the cities which the LORD overthrew without pity; let him hear a cry in the morning and an alarm at noon,

Jeremiah 20:17 because he did not kill me in the womb; so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb for ever great.

Jeremiah 20:18 Why did I come forth from the womb to see toil and sorrow, and spend my days in shame?

Jeremiah 21:1 This is the word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchiah and Zephaniah the priest, the son of Maaseiah, saying,

Jeremiah 21:2 “Inquire of the LORD for us, for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon is making war against us; perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all his wonderful deeds, and will make him withdraw from us.”

Jeremiah 21:3 Then Jeremiah said to them:

Jeremiah 21:4 “Thus you shall say to Zedekiah, `Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war which are in your hands and with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and against the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the walls; and I will bring them together into the midst of this city.

Jeremiah 21:5 I myself will fight against you with outstretched hand and strong arm, in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

Jeremiah 21:6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they shall die of a great pestilence.

Jeremiah 21:7 Afterward, says the LORD, I will give Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people in this city who survive the pestilence, sword, and famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of their enemies, into the hand of those who seek their lives. He shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not pity them, or spare them, or have compassion.’

Jeremiah 21:8 “And to this people you shall say: `Thus says the LORD: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.

Jeremiah 21:9 He who stays in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you shall live and shall have his life as a prize of war.

Jeremiah 21:10 For I have set my face against this city for evil and not for good, says the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.'

Jeremiah 21:11 "And to the house of the king of Judah say, `Hear the word of the LORD,

Jeremiah 21:12 O house of David! Thus says the LORD: "`Execute justice in the morning, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor him who has been robbed, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of your evil doings.'"

Jeremiah 21:13 "Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, O rock of the plain, says the LORD; you who say, `Who shall come down against us, or who shall enter our habitations?'

Jeremiah 21:14 I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says the LORD; I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is round about her."

Jeremiah 22:1 Thus says the LORD: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

Jeremiah 22:2 and say, `Hear the word of the LORD, O King of Judah, who sit on the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people who enter these gates.

Jeremiah 22:3 Thus says the LORD: Do justice and righteousness, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor him who has been robbed. And do no wrong or violence to the alien, the fatherless, and the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place.

Jeremiah 22:4 For if you will indeed obey this word, then there shall enter the gates of this house kings who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their servants, and their people.

Jeremiah 22:5 But if you will not heed these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

Jeremiah 22:6 For thus says the LORD concerning the house of the king of Judah: "`You are as Gilead to me, as the summit of Lebanon, yet surely I will make you a desert, an uninhabited city.

Jeremiah 22:7 I will prepare destroyers against you, each with his weapons; and they shall cut down your choicest cedars, and cast them into the fire.

Jeremiah 22:8 "`And many nations will pass by this city, and every man will say to his neighbor, "Why has the LORD dealt thus with this great city?"

Jeremiah 22:9 And they will answer, "Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods and served them.""

Jeremiah 22:10 Weep not for him who is dead, nor bemoan him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away, for he shall return no more to see his native land.

Jeremiah 22:11 For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went away from this place: “He shall return here no more,

Jeremiah 22:12 but in the place where they have carried him captive, there shall he die, and he shall never see this land again.”

Jeremiah 22:13 “Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his upper rooms by injustice; who makes his neighbor serve him for nothing, and does not give him his wages;

Jeremiah 22:14 who says, `I will build myself a great house with spacious upper rooms,’ and cuts out windows for it, paneling it with cedar, and painting it with vermilion.

Jeremiah 22:15 Do you think you are a king because you compete in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him.

Jeremiah 22:16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Is not this to know me? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 22:17 But you have eyes and heart only for your dishonest gain, for shedding innocent blood, and for practicing oppression and violence.”

Jeremiah 22:18 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: “They shall not lament for him, saying, `Ah my brother!’ or `Ah sister!’ They shall not lament for him, saying, `Ah lord!’ or `Ah his majesty!’

Jeremiah 22:19 With the burial of an ass he shall be buried, dragged and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.”

Jeremiah 22:20 “Go up to Lebanon, and cry out, and lift up your voice in Bashan; cry from Abarim, for all your lovers are destroyed.

Jeremiah 22:21 I spoke to you in your prosperity, but you said, `I will not listen.’ This has been your way from your youth, that you have not obeyed my voice.

Jeremiah 22:22 The wind shall shepherd all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity; then you will be ashamed and confounded because of all your wickedness.

Jeremiah 22:23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, nested among the cedars, how you will groan when pangs come upon you, pain as of a woman in travail!”

Jeremiah 22:24 “As I live, says the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet ring on my right hand, yet I would tear you off

Jeremiah 22:25 and give you into the hand of those who seek your life, into the hand of those of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 22:26 I will hurl you and the mother who bore you into another country, where you were not born, and there you shall die.

Jeremiah 22:27 But to the land to which they will long to return, there they shall not return."

Jeremiah 22:28 Is this man Coniah a despised, broken pot, a vessel no one cares for? Why are he and his children hurled and cast into a land which they do not know?

Jeremiah 22:29 O land, land, land, hear the word of the LORD!

Jeremiah 22:30 Thus says the LORD: "Write this man down as childless, a man who shall not succeed in his days; for none of his offspring shall succeed in sitting on the throne of David, and ruling again in Judah."

Jeremiah 23:1 "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!" says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:2 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who care for my people: "You have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. Behold, I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:3 Then I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply.

Jeremiah 23:4 I will set shepherds over them who will care for them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be missing, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:5 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

Jeremiah 23:6 In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: `The LORD is our righteousness.'

Jeremiah 23:7 "Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when men shall no longer say, `As the LORD lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt,' Jeremiah 23:8 but `As the LORD lives who brought up and led the descendants of the house of Israel out of the north country and out of all the countries where he had driven them.' Then they shall dwell in their own land."

Jeremiah 23:9 Concerning the prophets: My heart is broken within me, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, like a man overcome by wine, because of the LORD and because of his holy words.

Jeremiah 23:10 For the land is full of adulterers; because of the curse the land mourns, and the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. Their course is evil, and their might is not right.

Jeremiah 23:11 “Both prophet and priest are ungodly; even in my house I have found their wickedness, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:12 Therefore their way shall be to them like slippery paths in the darkness, into which they shall be driven and fall; for I will bring evil upon them in the year of their punishment, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:13 In the prophets of Samaria I saw an unsavory thing: they prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray.

Jeremiah 23:14 But in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery and walk in lies; they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns from his wickedness; all of them have become like Sodom to me, and its inhabitants like Gomorrah.”

Jeremiah 23:15 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: “Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and give them poisoned water to drink; for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has gone forth into all the land.”

Jeremiah 23:16 Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you, filling you with vain hopes; they speak visions of their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:17 They say continually to those who despise the word of the LORD, `It shall be well with you’; and to every one who stubbornly follows his own heart, they say, `No evil shall come upon you.’”

Jeremiah 23:18 For who among them has stood in the council of the LORD to perceive and to hear his word, or who has given heed to his word and listened?

Jeremiah 23:19 Behold, the storm of the LORD! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

Jeremiah 23:20 The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his mind. In the latter days you will understand it clearly.

Jeremiah 23:21 “I did not send the prophets, yet they ran; I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.

Jeremiah 23:22 But if they had stood in my council, then they would have proclaimed my words to my people, and they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

Jeremiah 23:23 “Am I a God at hand, says the LORD, and not a God afar off?

Jeremiah 23:24 Can a man hide himself in secret places so that I cannot see him? says the LORD. Do I not fill heaven and earth? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:25 I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in my name, saying, `I have dreamed, I have dreamed!'

Jeremiah 23:26 How long shall there be lies in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, and who prophesy the deceit of their own heart,

Jeremiah 23:27 who think to make my people forget my name by their dreams which they tell one another, even as their fathers forgot my name for Baal?

Jeremiah 23:28 Let the prophet who has a dream tell the dream, but let him who has my word speak my word faithfully. What has straw in common with wheat? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:29 Is not my word like fire, says the LORD, and like a hammer which breaks the rock in pieces?

Jeremiah 23:30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who steal my words from one another.

Jeremiah 23:31 Behold, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who use their tongues and say, `Says the LORD.'

Jeremiah 23:32 Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, says the LORD, and who tell them and lead my people astray by their lies and their recklessness, when I did not send them or charge them; so they do not profit this people at all, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:33 "When one of this people, or a prophet, or a priest asks you, `What is the burden of the LORD?' you shall say to them, `You are the burden, and I will cast you off, says the LORD.'

Jeremiah 23:34 And as for the prophet, priest, or one of the people who says, `The burden of the LORD,' I will punish that man and his household.

Jeremiah 23:35 Thus shall you say, every one to his neighbor and every one to his brother, `What has the LORD answered?' or `What has the LORD spoken?'

Jeremiah 23:36 But `the burden of the LORD' you shall mention no more, for the burden is every man's own word, and you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God.

Jeremiah 23:37 Thus you shall say to the prophet, `What has the LORD answered you?' or `What has the LORD spoken?'

Jeremiah 23:38 But if you say, `The burden of the LORD,' thus says the LORD, `Because you have said these words, "The burden of the LORD," when I sent to you, saying, "You shall not say, `The burden of the LORD,'"

Jeremiah 23:39 therefore, behold, I will surely lift you up and cast you away from my presence, you and the city which I gave to you and your fathers.

Jeremiah 23:40 And I will bring upon you everlasting reproach and perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.'"

Jeremiah 24:1 After Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had taken into exile from Jerusalem Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, together with the princes of Judah, the craftsmen, and the smiths, and had brought them to Babylon, the LORD showed me this vision: Behold, two baskets of figs placed before the temple of the LORD.

Jeremiah 24:2 One basket had very good figs, like first-ripe figs, but the other basket had very bad figs, so bad that they could not be eaten.

Jeremiah 24:3 And the LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I said, “Figs, the good figs very good, and the bad figs very bad, so bad that they cannot be eaten.”

Jeremiah 24:4 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 24:5 “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 24:6 I will set my eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down; I will plant them, and not uproot them.

Jeremiah 24:7 I will give them a heart to know that I am the LORD; and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

Jeremiah 24:8 “But thus says the LORD: Like the bad figs which are so bad they cannot be eaten, so will I treat Zedekiah the king of Judah, his princes, the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt.

Jeremiah 24:9 I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a reproach, a byword, a taunt, and a curse in all the places where I shall drive them.

Jeremiah 24:10 And I will send sword, famine, and pestilence upon them, until they shall be utterly destroyed from the land which I gave to them and their fathers.”

Jeremiah 25:1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon),

Jeremiah 25:2 which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem:

Jeremiah 25:3 “For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, to this day, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken persistently to you, but you have not listened.

Jeremiah 25:4 You have neither listened nor inclined your ears to hear, although the LORD persistently sent to you all his servants the prophets,

Jeremiah 25:5 saying, `Turn now, every one of you, from his evil way and wrong doings, and dwell upon the land which the LORD has given to you and your fathers from of old and for ever;

Jeremiah 25:6 do not go after other gods to serve and worship them, or provoke me to anger with the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.'

Jeremiah 25:7 Yet you have not listened to me, says the LORD, that you might provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

Jeremiah 25:8 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Because you have not obeyed my words,

Jeremiah 25:9 behold, I will send for all the tribes of the north, says the LORD, and for Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all these nations round about; I will utterly destroy them, and make them a horror, a hissing, and an everlasting reproach.

Jeremiah 25:10 Moreover, I will banish from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the grinding of the millstones and the light of the lamp.

Jeremiah 25:11 This whole land shall become a ruin and a waste, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

Jeremiah 25:12 Then after seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity, says the LORD, making the land an everlasting waste.

Jeremiah 25:13 I will bring upon that land all the words which I have uttered against it, everything written in this book, which Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations.

Jeremiah 25:14 For many nations and great kings shall make slaves even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds and the work of their hands."

Jeremiah 25:15 Thus the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from my hand this cup of the wine of wrath, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it.

Jeremiah 25:16 They shall drink and stagger and be crazed because of the sword which I am sending among them."

Jeremiah 25:17 So I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to whom the Lord sent me drink it:

Jeremiah 25:18 Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and princes, to make them a desolation and a waste, a hissing and a curse, as at this day;

Jeremiah 25:19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his princes, all his people,

Jeremiah 25:20 and all the foreign folk among them; all the kings of the land of Uz and all the kings of the land of the Philistines (Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod);

Jeremiah 25:21 Edom, Moab, and the sons of Ammon;

Jeremiah 25:22 all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastland across the sea;

Jeremiah 25:23 Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who cut the corners of their hair;

Jeremiah 25:24 all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the mixed tribes that dwell in the desert;

Jeremiah 25:25 all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media;

Jeremiah 25:26 all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another, and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth. And after them the king of Babylon shall drink.

Jeremiah 25:27 “Then you shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink, be drunk and vomit, fall and rise no more, because of the sword which I am sending among you.’

Jeremiah 25:28 “And if they refuse to accept the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD of hosts: You must drink!

Jeremiah 25:29 For behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name, and shall you go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD of hosts.’

Jeremiah 25:30 “You, therefore, shall prophesy against them all these words, and say to them: `The LORD will roar from on high, and from his holy habitation utter his voice; he will roar mightily against his fold, and shout, like those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

Jeremiah 25:31 The clamor will resound to the ends of the earth, for the LORD has an indictment against the nations; he is entering into judgment with all flesh, and the wicked he will put to the sword, says the LORD.’

Jeremiah 25:32 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, evil is going forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest is stirring from the farthest parts of the earth!

Jeremiah 25:33 “And those slain by the LORD on that day shall extend from one end of the earth to the other. They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground.

Jeremiah 25:34 “Wail, you shepherds, and cry, and roll in ashes, you lords of the flock, for the days of your slaughter and dispersion have come, and you shall fall like choice rams.

Jeremiah 25:35 No refuge will remain for the shepherds, nor escape for the lords of the flock.

Jeremiah 25:36 Hark, the cry of the shepherds, and the wail of the lords of the flock! For the LORD is despoiling their pasture,

Jeremiah 25:37 and the peaceful folds are devastated, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

Jeremiah 25:38 Like a lion he has left his covert, for their land has become a waste because of the sword of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.”

Jeremiah 26:1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD,

Jeremiah 26:2 “Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD’s house, and speak to all the cities of Judah which come to worship in the house of the LORD all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not hold back a word.

Jeremiah 26:3 It may be they will listen, and every one turn from his evil way, that I may repent of the evil which I intend to do to them because of their evil doings.

Jeremiah 26:4 You shall say to them, `Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law which I have set before you,

Jeremiah 26:5 and to heed the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you urgently, though you have not heeded,

Jeremiah 26:6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city a curse for all the nations of the earth.’”

Jeremiah 26:7 The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 26:8 And when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying, “You shall die!

Jeremiah 26:9 Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, `This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant’?” And all the people gathered about Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 26:10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to the house of the LORD and took their seat in the entry of the New Gate of the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 26:11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the princes and to all the people, “This man deserves the sentence of death, because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears."

Jeremiah 26:12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard.

Jeremiah 26:13 Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God, and the LORD will repent of the evil which he has pronounced against you.

Jeremiah 26:14 But as for me, behold, I am in your hands. Do with me as seems good and right to you.

Jeremiah 26:15 Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and its inhabitants, for in truth the LORD sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

Jeremiah 26:16 Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man does not deserve the sentence of death, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

Jeremiah 26:17 And certain of the elders of the land arose and spoke to all the assembled people, saying,

Jeremiah 26:18 "Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and said to all the people of Judah: `Thus says the LORD of hosts, Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.'

Jeremiah 26:19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and entreat the favor of the LORD, and did not the LORD repent of the evil which he had pronounced against them? But we are about to bring great evil upon ourselves."

Jeremiah 26:20 There was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah from Kiriathjearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land in words like those of Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 26:21 And when King Jehoiakim, with all his warriors and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard of it, he was afraid and fled and escaped to Egypt.

Jeremiah 26:22 Then King Jehoiakim sent to Egypt certain men, Elnathan the son of Achbor and others with him,

Jeremiah 26:23 and they fetched Uriah from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim, who slew him with the sword and cast his dead body into the burial place of the common people.

Jeremiah 26:24 But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah so that he was not given over to the people to be put to death.

Jeremiah 27:1 In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD.

Jeremiah 27:2 Thus the LORD said to me: “Make yourself thongs and yoke-bars, and put them on your neck.

Jeremiah 27:3 Send word to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the sons of Ammon, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon by the hand of the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah.

Jeremiah 27:4 Give them this charge for their masters: `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: This is what you shall say to your masters:

Jeremiah 27:5 “It is I who by my great power and my outstretched arm have made the earth, with the men and animals that are on the earth, and I give it to whomever it seems right to me.

Jeremiah 27:6 Now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, my servant, and I have given him also the beasts of the field to serve him.

Jeremiah 27:7 All the nations shall serve him and his son and his grandson, until the time of his own land comes; then many nations and great kings shall make him their slave.

Jeremiah 27:8 “`”But if any nation or kingdom will not serve this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, I will punish that nation with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence, says the LORD, until I have consumed it by his hand.

Jeremiah 27:9 So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your soothsayers, or your sorcerers, who are saying to you, `You shall not serve the king of Babylon.’

Jeremiah 27:10 For it is a lie which they are prophesying to you, with the result that you will be removed far from your land, and I will drive you out, and you will perish.

Jeremiah 27:11 But any nation which will bring its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will leave on its own land, to till it and dwell there, says the LORD.”“

Jeremiah 27:12 To Zedekiah king of Judah I spoke in like manner: “Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

Jeremiah 27:13 Why will you and your people die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, as the LORD has spoken concerning any nation which will not serve the king of Babylon?

Jeremiah 27:14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are saying to you, `You shall not serve the king of Babylon,’ for it is a lie which they are prophesying to you.

Jeremiah 27:15 I have not sent them, says the LORD, but they are prophesying falsely in my name, with the result that I will drive you out and you will perish, you and the prophets who are prophesying to you."

Jeremiah 27:16 Then I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who are prophesying to you, saying, `Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon,' for it is a lie which they are prophesying to you.

Jeremiah 27:17 Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a desolation?

Jeremiah 27:18 If they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, then let them intercede with the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem may not go to Babylon.

Jeremiah 27:19 For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, the sea, the stands, and the rest of the vessels which are left in this city,

Jeremiah 27:20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take away, when he took into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem —

Jeremiah 27:21 thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem:

Jeremiah 27:22 They shall be carried to Babylon and remain there until the day when I give attention to them, says the LORD. Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place."

Jeremiah 28:1 In that same year, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying,

Jeremiah 28:2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:3 Within two years I will bring back to this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:4 I will also bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the exiles from Judah who went to Babylon, says the LORD, for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

Jeremiah 28:5 Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Hananiah the prophet in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD;

Jeremiah 28:6 and the prophet Jeremiah said, “Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD make the words which you have prophesied come true, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles.

Jeremiah 28:7 Yet hear now this word which I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people.

Jeremiah 28:8 The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms.

Jeremiah 28:9 As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes to pass, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet.”

Jeremiah 28:10 Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke-bars from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, and broke them.

Jeremiah 28:11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, “Thus says the LORD: Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all the nations within two years.” But Jeremiah the prophet went his way.

Jeremiah 28:12 Sometime after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke-bars from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 28:13 “Go, tell Hananiah, `Thus says the LORD: You have broken wooden bars, but I will make in their place bars of iron.

Jeremiah 28:14 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put upon the neck of all these nations an iron yoke of servitude to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they shall serve him, for I have given to him even the beasts of the field.'”

Jeremiah 28:15 And Jeremiah the prophet said to the prophet Hananiah, “Listen, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, and you have made this people trust in a lie.

Jeremiah 28:16 Therefore thus says the LORD: `Behold, I will remove you from the face of the earth. This very year you shall die, because you have uttered rebellion against the LORD.'”

Jeremiah 28:17 In that same year, in the seventh month, the prophet Hananiah died.

Jeremiah 29:1 These are the words of the letter which Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the elders of the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Jeremiah 29:2 This was after King Jeconiah, and the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 29:3 The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. It said:

Jeremiah 29:4 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon:

Jeremiah 29:5 Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat their produce.

Jeremiah 29:6 Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease.

Jeremiah 29:7 But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Jeremiah 29:8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams which they dream,

Jeremiah 29:9 for it is a lie which they are prophesying to you in my name; I did not send them, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 29:10 “For thus says the LORD: When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will visit you, and I will fulfil to you my promise and bring you back to this place.

Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the plans I have for you, says the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.

Jeremiah 29:12 Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you.

Jeremiah 29:13 You will seek me and find me; when you seek me with all your heart,

Jeremiah 29:14 I will be found by you, says the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.

Jeremiah 29:15 “Because you have said, `The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,’ —

Jeremiah 29:16 Thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your kinsmen who did not go out with you into exile:

Jeremiah 29:17 `Thus says the LORD of hosts, Behold, I am sending on them sword, famine, and pestilence, and I will make them like vile figs which are so bad they cannot be eaten.

Jeremiah 29:18 I will pursue them with sword, famine, and pestilence, and will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, a terror, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them,

Jeremiah 29:19 because they did not heed my words, says the LORD, which I persistently sent to you by my servants the prophets, but you would not listen, says the LORD.' —

Jeremiah 29:20 Hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon:

Jeremiah 29:21 `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying a lie to you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes.

Jeremiah 29:22 Because of them this curse shall be used by all the exiles from Judah in Babylon: "The LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire,"

Jeremiah 29:23 because they have committed folly in Israel, they have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and they have spoken in my name lying words which I did not command them. I am the one who knows, and I am witness, says the LORD.'"

Jeremiah 29:24 To Shemaiah of Nehelam you shall say:

Jeremiah 29:25 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You have sent letters in your name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

Jeremiah 29:26 `The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, to have charge in the house of the LORD over every madman who prophesies, to put him in the stocks and collar.

Jeremiah 29:27 Now why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who is prophesying to you?

Jeremiah 29:28 For he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, "Your exile will be long; build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their produce."'"

Jeremiah 29:29 Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet.

Jeremiah 29:30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 29:31 "Send to all the exiles, saying, `Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah of Nehelam: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you when I did not send him, and has made you trust in a lie,

Jeremiah 29:32 therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will punish Shemaiah of Nehelam and his descendants; he shall not have any one living among this people to see the good that I will do to my people, says the LORD, for he has talked rebellion against the LORD.'"

Jeremiah 30:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 30:2 “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Write in a book all the words that I have spoken to you.

Jeremiah 30:3 For behold, days are coming, says the LORD, when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah, says the LORD, and I will bring them back to the land which I gave to their fathers, and they shall take possession of it.”

Jeremiah 30:4 These are the words which the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah:

Jeremiah 30:5 “Thus says the LORD: We have heard a cry of panic, of terror, and no peace.

Jeremiah 30:6 Ask now, and see, can a man bear a child? Why then do I see every man with his hands on his loins like a woman in labor? Why has every face turned pale?

Jeremiah 30:7 Alas! that day is so great there is none like it; it is a time of distress for Jacob; yet he shall be saved out of it.

Jeremiah 30:8 “And it shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD of hosts, that I will break the yoke from off their neck, and I will burst their bonds, and strangers shall no more make servants of them.

Jeremiah 30:9 But they shall serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

Jeremiah 30:10 “Then fear not, O Jacob my servant, says the LORD, nor be dismayed, O Israel; for lo, I will save you from afar, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease, and none shall make him afraid.

Jeremiah 30:11 For I am with you to save you, says the LORD; I will make a full end of all the nations among whom I scattered you, but of you I will not make a full end. I will chasten you in just measure, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

Jeremiah 30:12 “For thus says the LORD: Your hurt is incurable, and your wound is grievous.

Jeremiah 30:13 There is none to uphold your cause, no medicine for your wound, no healing for you.

Jeremiah 30:14 All your lovers have forgotten you; they care nothing for you; for I have dealt you the blow of an enemy, the punishment of a merciless foe, because your guilt is great, because your sins are flagrant.

Jeremiah 30:15 Why do you cry out over your hurt? Your pain is incurable. Because your guilt is great, because your sins are flagrant, I have done these things to you.

Jeremiah 30:16 Therefore all who devour you shall be devoured, and all your foes, every one of them, shall go into captivity; those who despoil you shall become a spoil, and all who prey on you I will make a prey.

Jeremiah 30:17 For I will restore health to you, and your wounds I will heal, says the LORD, because they have called you an outcast: `It is Zion, for whom no one cares!'

Jeremiah 30:18 "Thus says the LORD: Behold, I will restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob, and have compassion on his dwellings; the city shall be rebuilt upon its mound, and the palace shall stand where it used to be.

Jeremiah 30:19 Out of them shall come songs of thanksgiving, and the voices of those who make merry. I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will make them honored, and they shall not be small.

Jeremiah 30:20 Their children shall be as they were of old, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them.

Jeremiah 30:21 Their prince shall be one of themselves, their ruler shall come forth from their midst; I will make him draw near, and he shall approach me, for who would dare of himself to approach me? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 30:22 And you shall be my people, and I will be your God."

Jeremiah 30:23 Behold the storm of the LORD! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

Jeremiah 30:24 The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his mind. In the latter days you will understand this.

Jeremiah 31:1 "At that time, says the LORD, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people."

Jeremiah 31:2 Thus says the LORD: "The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness; when Israel sought for rest,

Jeremiah 31:3 the LORD appeared to him from afar. I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you.

Jeremiah 31:4 Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin Israel! Again you shall adorn yourself with timbrels, and shall go forth in the dance of the merrymakers.

Jeremiah 31:5 Again you shall plant vineyards upon the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit.

Jeremiah 31:6 For there shall be a day when watchmen will call in the hill country of Ephraim: `Arise, and let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.'"

Jeremiah 31:7 For thus says the LORD: "Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob, and raise shouts for the chief of the nations; proclaim, give praise, and say, `The LORD has saved his people, the remnant of Israel.'

Jeremiah 31:8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who is in travail, together; a great company, they shall return here.

Jeremiah 31:9 With weeping they shall come, and with consolations I will lead them back, I will make them walk by brooks of water, in a straight path in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

Jeremiah 31:10 "Hear the word of the LORD, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands afar off; say, `He who scattered Israel will gather him, and will keep him as a shepherd keeps his flock.'

Jeremiah 31:11 For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

Jeremiah 31:12 They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, over the grain, the wine, and the oil, and over the young of the flock and the herd; their life shall be like a watered garden, and they shall languish no more.

Jeremiah 31:13 Then shall the maidens rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old shall be merry. I will turn their mourning into joy, I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

Jeremiah 31:14 I will feast the soul of the priests with abundance, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, says the LORD."

Jeremiah 31:15 Thus says the LORD: "A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are not."

Jeremiah 31:16 Thus says the LORD: "Keep your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD, and they shall come back from the land of the enemy.

Jeremiah 31:17 There is hope for your future, says the LORD, and your children shall come back to their own country.

Jeremiah 31:18 I have heard Ephraim bemoaning, `Thou hast chastened me, and I was chastened, like an untrained calf; bring me back that I may be restored, for thou art the LORD my God.

Jeremiah 31:19 For after I had turned away I repented; and after I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh; I was ashamed, and I was confounded, because I bore the disgrace of my youth.'

Jeremiah 31:20 Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he my darling child? For as often as I speak against him, I do remember him still. Therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:21 "Set up waymarks for yourself, make yourself guideposts; consider well the highway, the road by which you went. Return, O virgin Israel, return to these your cities.

Jeremiah 31:22 How long will you waver, O faithless daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing on the earth: a woman protects a man."

Jeremiah 31:23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Once more they shall use these words in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I restore their fortunes: `The LORD bless you, O habitation of righteousness, O holy hill!'

Jeremiah 31:24 And Judah and all its cities shall dwell there together, and the farmers and those who wander with their flocks.

Jeremiah 31:25 For I will satisfy the weary soul, and every languishing soul I will replenish."

Jeremiah 31:26 Thereupon I awoke and looked, and my sleep was pleasant to me.

Jeremiah 31:27 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast.

Jeremiah 31:28 And it shall come to pass that as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:29 In those days they shall no longer say: `The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.'

Jeremiah 31:30 But every one shall die for his own sin; each man who eats sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.

Jeremiah 31:31 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah,

Jeremiah 31:32 not like the covenant which I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant which they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:33 But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it upon their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Jeremiah 31:34 And no longer shall each man teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, `Know the LORD,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more."

Jeremiah 31:35 Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for light by day and the fixed order of the moon and the stars for light by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—the LORD of hosts is his name:

Jeremiah 31:36 “If this fixed order departs from before me, says the LORD, then shall the descendants of Israel cease from being a nation before me for ever.”

Jeremiah 31:37 Thus says the LORD: “If the heavens above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth below can be explored, then I will cast off all the descendants of Israel for all that they have done, says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 31:38 “Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when the city shall be rebuilt for the LORD from the tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

Jeremiah 31:39 And the measuring line shall go out farther, straight to the hill Gareb, and shall then turn to Goah.

Jeremiah 31:40 The whole valley of the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the fields as far as the brook Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be sacred to the LORD. It shall not be uprooted or overthrown any more for ever.”

Jeremiah 32:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

Jeremiah 32:2 At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard which was in the palace of the king of Judah.

Jeremiah 32:3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying, “Why do you prophesy and say, `Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

Jeremiah 32:4 Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye;

Jeremiah 32:5 and he shall take Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall remain until I visit him, says the LORD; though you fight against the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed’?”

Jeremiah 32:6 Jeremiah said, “The word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 32:7 Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you and say, `Buy my field which is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours.’

Jeremiah 32:8 Then Hanamel my cousin came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, `Buy my field which is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.’ Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

Jeremiah 32:9 “And I bought the field at Anathoth from Hanamel my cousin, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver.

Jeremiah 32:10 I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales.

Jeremiah 32:11 Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy;

Jeremiah 32:12 and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my cousin, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Jews who were sitting in the court of the guard.

Jeremiah 32:13 I charged Baruch in their presence, saying,

Jeremiah 32:14 `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware vessel, that they may last for a long time.

Jeremiah 32:15 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.’

Jeremiah 32:16 “After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying:

Jeremiah 32:17 `Ah Lord GOD! It is thou who hast made the heavens and the earth by thy great power and by thy outstretched arm! Nothing is too hard for thee,

Jeremiah 32:18 who showest steadfast love to thousands, but dost requite the guilt of fathers to their children after them, O great and mighty God whose name is the LORD of hosts,

Jeremiah 32:19 great in counsel and mighty in deed; whose eyes are open to all the ways of men, rewarding every man according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings;

Jeremiah 32:20 who hast shown signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and to this day in Israel and among all mankind, and hast made thee a name, as at this day.

Jeremiah 32:21 Thou didst bring thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and outstretched arm, and with great terror;

Jeremiah 32:22 and thou gavest them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;

Jeremiah 32:23 and they entered and took possession of it. But they did not obey thy voice or walk in thy law; they did nothing of all thou didst command them to do. Therefore thou hast made all this evil come upon them.

Jeremiah 32:24 Behold, the siege mounds have come up to the city to take it, and because of sword and famine and pestilence the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. What thou didst speak has come to pass, and behold, thou seest it.

Jeremiah 32:25 Yet thou, O Lord GOD, hast said to me, “Buy the field for money and get witnesses”—though the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.’”

Jeremiah 32:26 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 32:27 “Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh; is anything too hard for me?

Jeremiah 32:28 Therefore, thus says the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hands of the Chaldeans and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

Jeremiah 32:29 The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses on whose roofs incense has been offered to Baal and drink offerings have been poured out to other gods, to provoke me to anger.

Jeremiah 32:30 For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have done nothing but evil in my sight from their youth; the sons of Israel have done nothing but provoke me to anger by the work of their hands, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 32:31 This city has aroused my anger and wrath, from the day it was built to this day, so that I will remove it from my sight

Jeremiah 32:32 because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah which they did to provoke me to anger—their kings and their princes, their priests and their prophets, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 32:33 They have turned to me their back and not their face; and though I have taught them persistently they have not listened to receive instruction.

Jeremiah 32:34 They set up their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.

Jeremiah 32:35 They built the high places of Baal in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to offer up their sons and daughters to Molech, though I did not command them, nor did it enter into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

Jeremiah 32:36 “Now therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, `It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, by famine, and by pestilence’:

Jeremiah 32:37 Behold, I will gather them from all the countries to which I drove them in my anger and my wrath and in great indignation; I will bring them back to this place, and I will make them dwell in safety.

Jeremiah 32:38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Jeremiah 32:39 I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for their own good and the good of their children after them.

Jeremiah 32:40 I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them; and I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me.

Jeremiah 32:41 I will rejoice in doing them good, and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my heart and all my soul.

Jeremiah 32:42 “For thus says the LORD: Just as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I promise them.

Jeremiah 32:43 Fields shall be bought in this land of which you are saying, It is a desolation, without man or beast; it is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 32:44 Fields shall be bought for money, and deeds shall be signed and sealed and witnessed, in the land of Benjamin, in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the Shephelah, and in the cities of the Negeb; for I will restore their fortunes, says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 33:1 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the guard:

Jeremiah 33:2 “Thus says the LORD who made the earth, the LORD who formed it to establish it—the LORD is his name:

Jeremiah 33:3 Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things which you have not known.

Jeremiah 33:4 For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah which were torn down to make a defense against the siege mounds and before the sword:

Jeremiah 33:5 The Chaldeans are coming in to fight and to fill them with the dead bodies of men whom I shall smite in my anger and my wrath, for I have hidden my face from this city because of all their wickedness.

Jeremiah 33:6 Behold, I will bring to it health and healing, and I will heal them and reveal to them abundance of prosperity and security.

Jeremiah 33:7 I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and rebuild them as they were at first.

Jeremiah 33:8 I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me.

Jeremiah 33:9 And this city shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them; they shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

Jeremiah 33:10 “Thus says the LORD: In this place of which you say, `It is a waste without man or beast,’ in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man or inhabitant or beast, there shall be heard again

Jeremiah 33:11 the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD: `Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures for ever!’ For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 33:12 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: In this place which is waste, without man or beast, and in all of its cities, there shall again be habitations of shepherds resting their flocks.

Jeremiah 33:13 In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the Shephelah, and in the cities of the Negeb, in the land of Benjamin, the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, flocks shall again pass under the hands of the one who counts them, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 33:14 “Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

Jeremiah 33:15 In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring forth for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

Jeremiah 33:16 In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will dwell securely. And this is the name by which it will be called: `The LORD is our righteousness.’

Jeremiah 33:17 “For thus says the LORD: David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel,

Jeremiah 33:18 and the Levitical priests shall never lack a man in my presence to offer burnt offerings, to burn cereal offerings, and to make sacrifices for ever.”

Jeremiah 33:19 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 33:20 “Thus says the LORD: If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night will not come at their appointed time,

Jeremiah 33:21 then also my covenant with David my servant may be broken, so that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne, and my covenant with the Levitical priests my ministers.

Jeremiah 33:22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered and the sands of the sea cannot be measured, so I will multiply the descendants of David my servant, and the Levitical priests who minister to me.”

Jeremiah 33:23 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 33:24 “Have you not observed what these people are saying, `The LORD has rejected the two families which he chose’? Thus they have despised my people so that they are no longer a nation in their sight.

Jeremiah 33:25 Thus says the LORD: If I have not established my covenant with day and night and the ordinances of heaven and earth,

Jeremiah 33:26 then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant and will not choose one of his descendants to rule over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes, and will have mercy upon them.”

Jeremiah 34:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion and all the peoples were fighting against Jerusalem and all of its cities:

Jeremiah 34:2 “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and say to him, `Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

Jeremiah 34:3 You shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be captured and delivered into his hand; you shall see the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak with him face to face; and you shall go to Babylon.’

Jeremiah 34:4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: `You shall not die by the sword.

Jeremiah 34:5 You shall die in peace. And as spices were burned for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so men shall burn spices for you and lament for you, saying, “Alas, lord!”‘ For I have spoken the word, says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 34:6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem,

Jeremiah 34:7 when the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left, Lachish and Azekah; for these were the only fortified cities of Judah that remained.

Jeremiah 34:8 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to make a proclamation of liberty to them,

Jeremiah 34:9 that every one should set free his Hebrew slaves, male and female, so that no one should enslave a Jew, his brother.

Jeremiah 34:10 And they obeyed, all the princes and all the people who had entered into the covenant that every one would set free his slave, male or female, so that they would not be enslaved again; they obeyed and set them free.

Jeremiah 34:11 But afterward they turned around and took back the male and female slaves they had set free, and brought them into subjection as slaves.

Jeremiah 34:12 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 34:13 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,

Jeremiah 34:14 `At the end of six years each of you must set free the fellow Hebrew who has been sold to you and has served you six years; you must set him free from your service.' But your fathers did not listen to me or incline their ears to me.

Jeremiah 34:15 You recently repented and did what was right in my eyes by proclaiming liberty, each to his neighbor, and you made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name;

Jeremiah 34:16 but then you turned around and profaned my name when each of you took back his male and female slaves, whom you had set free according to their desire, and you brought them into subjection to be your slaves.

Jeremiah 34:17 Therefore, thus says the LORD: You have not obeyed me by proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother and to his neighbor; behold, I proclaim to you liberty to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine, says the LORD. I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Jeremiah 34:18 And the men who transgressed my covenant and did not keep the terms of the covenant which they made before me, I will make like the calf which they cut in two and passed between its parts —

Jeremiah 34:19 the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf;

Jeremiah 34:20 and I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their lives. Their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.

Jeremiah 34:21 And Zedekiah king of Judah, and his princes I will give into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their lives, into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon which has withdrawn from you.

Jeremiah 34:22 Behold, I will command, says the LORD, and will bring them back to this city; and they will fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire. I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant."

Jeremiah 35:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

Jeremiah 35:2 “Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak with them, and bring them to the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers; then offer them wine to drink.”

Jeremiah 35:3 So I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites.

Jeremiah 35:4 I brought them to the house of the LORD into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was near the chamber of the princes, above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, keeper of the threshold.

Jeremiah 35:5 Then I set before the Rechabites pitchers full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, “Drink wine.”

Jeremiah 35:6 But they answered, “We will drink no wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, `You shall not drink wine, neither you nor your sons for ever;

Jeremiah 35:7 you shall not build a house; you shall not sow seed; you shall not plant or have a vineyard; but you shall live in tents all your days, that you may live many days in the land where you sojourn.’

Jeremiah 35:8 We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, ourselves, our wives, our sons, or our daughters,

Jeremiah 35:9 and not to build houses to dwell in. We have no vineyard or field or seed;

Jeremiah 35:10 but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed and done all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

Jeremiah 35:11 But when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up against the land, we said, `Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and the army of the Syrians.’ So we are living in Jerusalem.”

Jeremiah 35:12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 35:13 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction and listen to my words? says the LORD.

Jeremiah 35:14 The command which Jonadab the son of Rechab gave to his sons, to drink no wine, has been kept; and they drink none to this day, for they have obeyed their father’s command. I have spoken to you persistently, but you have not listened to me.

Jeremiah 35:15 I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, sending them persistently, saying, `Turn now every one of you from his evil way, and amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and then you shall dwell in the land which I gave to you and your fathers.' But you did not incline your ear or listen to me.

Jeremiah 35:16 The sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have kept the command which their father gave them, but this people has not obeyed me.

Jeremiah 35:17 Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing on Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them and they have not listened, I have called to them and they have not answered."

Jeremiah 35:18 But to the house of the Rechabites Jeremiah said, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the command of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done all that he commanded you,

Jeremiah 35:19 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall never lack a man to stand before me."

Jeremiah 36:1 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 36:2 "Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and Judah and all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah until today.

Jeremiah 36:3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I intend to do to them, so that every one may turn from his evil way, and that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

Jeremiah 36:4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote upon a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD which he had spoken to him.

Jeremiah 36:5 And Jeremiah ordered Baruch, saying, "I am debarred from going to the house of the LORD;

Jeremiah 36:6 so you are to go, and on a fast day in the hearing of all the people in the LORD's house you shall read the words of the LORD from the scroll which you have written at my dictation. You shall read them also in the hearing of all the men of Judah who come out of their cities.

Jeremiah 36:7 It may be that their supplication will come before the LORD, and that every one will turn from his evil way, for great is the anger and wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people."

Jeremiah 36:8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did all that Jeremiah the prophet ordered him about reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

Jeremiah 36:9 In the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD.

Jeremiah 36:10 Then, in the hearing of all the people, Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the scroll, in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD’s house.

Jeremiah 36:11 When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll,

Jeremiah 36:12 he went down to the king’s house, into the secretary’s chamber; and all the princes were sitting there: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

Jeremiah 36:13 And Micaiah told them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the scroll in the hearing of the people.

Jeremiah 36:14 Then all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah, son of Cushi, to say to Baruch, “Take in your hand the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come.” So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them.

Jeremiah 36:15 And they said to him, “Sit down and read it.” So Baruch read it to them.

Jeremiah 36:16 When they heard all the words, they turned one to another in fear; and they said to Baruch, “We must report all these words to the king.”

Jeremiah 36:17 Then they asked Baruch, “Tell us, how did you write all these words? Was it at his dictation?”

Jeremiah 36:18 Baruch answered them, “He dictated all these words to me, while I wrote them with ink on the scroll.”

Jeremiah 36:19 Then the princes said to Baruch, “Go and hide, you and Jeremiah, and let no one know where you are.”

Jeremiah 36:20 So they went into the court to the king, having put the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the secretary; and they reported all the words to the king.

Jeremiah 36:21 Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the secretary; and Jehudi read it to the king and all the princes who stood beside the king.

Jeremiah 36:22 It was the ninth month, and the king was sitting in the winter house and there was a fire burning in the brazier before him.

Jeremiah 36:23 As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut them off with a penknife and throw them into the fire in the brazier, until the entire scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier.

Jeremiah 36:24 Yet neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words, was afraid, nor did they rend their garments.

Jeremiah 36:25 Even when Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

Jeremiah 36:26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son and Seraiah the son of Azriel and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

Jeremiah 36:27 Now, after the king had burned the scroll with the words which Baruch wrote at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 36:28 "Take another scroll and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned.

Jeremiah 36:29 And concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, `Thus says the LORD, You have burned this scroll, saying, "Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cut off from it man and beast?"

Jeremiah 36:30 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah, He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out to the heat by day and the frost by night.

Jeremiah 36:31 And I will punish him and his offspring and his servants for their iniquity; I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they would not hear.'"

Jeremiah 36:32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

Jeremiah 37:1 Zedekiah the son of Josiah, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah, reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim.

Jeremiah 37:2 But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD which he spoke through Jeremiah the prophet.

Jeremiah 37:3 King Zedekiah sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the priest, the son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "Pray for us to the LORD our God."

Jeremiah 37:4 Now Jeremiah was still going in and out among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.

Jeremiah 37:5 The army of Pharaoh had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 37:6 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet:

Jeremiah 37:7 “Thus says the LORD, God of Israel: Thus shall you say to the king of Judah who sent you to me to inquire of me, `Behold, Pharaoh’s army which came to help you is about to return to Egypt, to its own land.

Jeremiah 37:8 And the Chaldeans shall come back and fight against this city; they shall take it and burn it with fire.

Jeremiah 37:9 Thus says the LORD, Do not deceive yourselves, saying, “The Chaldeans will surely stay away from us,” for they will not stay away.

Jeremiah 37:10 For even if you should defeat the whole army of Chaldeans who are fighting against you, and there remained of them only wounded men, every man in his tent, they would rise up and burn this city with fire.’”

Jeremiah 37:11 Now when the Chaldean army had withdrawn from Jerusalem at the approach of Pharaoh’s army,

Jeremiah 37:12 Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to receive his portion there among the people.

Jeremiah 37:13 When he was at the Benjamin Gate, a sentry there named Irijah the son of Shelemiah, son of Hananiah, seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “You are deserting to the Chaldeans.”

Jeremiah 37:14 And Jeremiah said, “It is false; I am not deserting to the Chaldeans.” But Irijah would not listen to him, and seized Jeremiah and brought him to the princes.

Jeremiah 37:15 And the princes were enraged at Jeremiah, and they beat him and imprisoned him in the house of Jonathan the secretary, for it had been made a prison.

Jeremiah 37:16 When Jeremiah had come to the dungeon cells, and remained there many days,

Jeremiah 37:17 King Zedekiah sent for him, and received him. The king questioned him secretly in his house, and said, “Is there any word from the LORD?” Jeremiah said, “There is.” Then he said, “You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.”

Jeremiah 37:18 Jeremiah also said to King Zedekiah, “What wrong have I done to you or your servants or this people, that you have put me in prison?

Jeremiah 37:19 Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, `The king of Babylon will not come against you and against this land’?

Jeremiah 37:20 Now hear, I pray you, O my lord the king: let my humble plea come before you, and do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, lest I die there.”

Jeremiah 37:21 So King Zedekiah gave orders, and they committed Jeremiah to the court of the guard; and a loaf of bread was given him daily from the bakers' street, until all the bread of the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

Jeremiah 38:1 Now Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah was saying to all the people,

Jeremiah 38:2 “Thus says the LORD, He who stays in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes out to the Chaldeans shall live; he shall have his life as a prize of war, and live.

Jeremiah 38:3 Thus says the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon and be taken.”

Jeremiah 38:4 Then the princes said to the king, “Let this man be put to death, for he is weakening the hands of the soldiers who are left in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man is not seeking the welfare of this people, but their harm.”

Jeremiah 38:5 King Zedekiah said, “Behold, he is in your hands; for the king can do nothing against you.”

Jeremiah 38:6 So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern of Malchiah, the king's son, which was in the court of the guard, letting Jeremiah down by ropes. And there was no water in the cistern, but only mire, and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

Jeremiah 38:7 When Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern—the king was sitting in the Benjamin Gate —

Jeremiah 38:8 Ebedmelech went from the king's house and said to the king,

Jeremiah 38:9 “My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they did to Jeremiah the prophet by casting him into the cistern; and he will die there of hunger, for there is no bread left in the city.”

Jeremiah 38:10 Then the king commanded Ebedmelech, the Ethiopian, “Take three men with you from here, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies.”

Jeremiah 38:11 So Ebedmelech took the men with him and went to the house of the king, to a wardrobe of the storehouse, and took from there old rags and worn-out clothes, which he let down to Jeremiah in the cistern by ropes.

Jeremiah 38:12 Then Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, “Put the rags and clothes between your armpits and the ropes.” Jeremiah did so.

Jeremiah 38:13 Then they drew Jeremiah up with ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

Jeremiah 38:14 King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and received him at the third entrance of the temple of the LORD. The king said to Jeremiah, “I will ask you a question; hide nothing from me.”

Jeremiah 38:15 Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I tell you, will you not be sure to put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me.”

Jeremiah 38:16 Then King Zedekiah swore secretly to Jeremiah, “As the LORD lives, who made our souls, I will not put you to death or deliver you into the hand of these men who seek your life.”

Jeremiah 38:17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If you will surrender to the princes of the king of Babylon, then your life shall be spared, and this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live.

Jeremiah 38:18 But if you do not surrender to the princes of the king of Babylon, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape from their hand.”

Jeremiah 38:19 King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Jews who have deserted to the Chaldeans, lest I be handed over to them and they abuse me.”

Jeremiah 38:20 Jeremiah said, “You shall not be given to them. Obey now the voice of the LORD in what I say to you, and it shall be well with you, and your life shall be spared.

Jeremiah 38:21 But if you refuse to surrender, this is the vision which the LORD has shown to me:

Jeremiah 38:22 Behold, all the women left in the house of the king of Judah were being led out to the princes of the king of Babylon and were saying, `Your trusted friends have deceived you and prevailed against you; now that your feet are sunk in the mire, they turn away from you.’

Jeremiah 38:23 All your wives and your sons shall be led out to the Chaldeans, and you yourself shall not escape from their hand, but shall be seized by the king of Babylon; and this city shall be burned with fire.”

Jeremiah 38:24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Let no one know of these words and you shall not die.

Jeremiah 38:25 If the princes hear that I have spoken with you and come to you and say to you, `Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you; hide nothing from us and we will not put you to death,’

Jeremiah 38:26 then you shall say to them, `I made a humble plea to the king that he would not send me back to the house of Jonathan to die there.’”

Jeremiah 38:27 Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him, and he answered them as the king had instructed him. So they left off speaking with him, for the conversation had not been overheard.

Jeremiah 38:28 And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

Jeremiah 39:1 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and besieged it;

Jeremiah 39:2 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city.

Jeremiah 39:3 When Jerusalem was taken, all the princes of the king of Babylon came and sat in the middle gate: Nergalsharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim the Rabsaris, Nergalsharezer the Rabmag, with all the rest of the officers of the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 39:4 When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled, going out of the city at night by way of the king's garden through the gate between the two walls; and they went toward the Arabah.

Jeremiah 39:5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, at Riblah, in the land of Hamath; and he passed sentence upon him.

Jeremiah 39:6 The king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah at Riblah before his eyes; and the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

Jeremiah 39:7 He put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters to take him to Babylon.

Jeremiah 39:8 The Chaldeans burned the king's house and the house of the people, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 39:9 Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, carried into exile to Babylon the rest of the people who were left in the city, those who had deserted to him, and the people who remained.

Jeremiah 39:10 Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, left in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Jeremiah 39:11 Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave command concerning Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, saying,

Jeremiah 39:12 "Take him, look after him well and do him no harm, but deal with him as he tells you."

Jeremiah 39:13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, Nebushazban the Rabsaris, Nergalsharezer the Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon

Jeremiah 39:14 sent and took Jeremiah from the court of the guard. They entrusted him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he dwelt among the people.

Jeremiah 39:15 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the guard:

Jeremiah 39:16 “Go, and say to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will fulfil my words against this city for evil and not for good, and they shall be accomplished before you on that day.

Jeremiah 39:17 But I will deliver you on that day, says the LORD, and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.

Jeremiah 39:18 For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but you shall have your life as a prize of war, because you have put your trust in me, says the LORD.'”

Jeremiah 40:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he took him bound in chains along with all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon.

Jeremiah 40:2 The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, “The LORD your God pronounced this evil against this place;

Jeremiah 40:3 the LORD has brought it about, and has done as he said. Because you sinned against the LORD, and did not obey his voice, this thing has come upon you.

Jeremiah 40:4 Now, behold, I release you today from the chains on your hands. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you well; but if it seems wrong to you to come with me to Babylon, do not come. See, the whole land is before you; go wherever you think it good and right to go.

Jeremiah 40:5 If you remain, then return to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed governor of the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever you think it right to go.” So the captain of the guard gave him an allowance of food and a present, and let him go.

Jeremiah 40:6 Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

Jeremiah 40:7 When all the captains of the forces in the open country and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, and children, those of the poorest of the land who had not been taken into exile to Babylon, Jeremiah 40:8 they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

Jeremiah 40:9 Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, swore to them and their men, saying, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

Jeremiah 40:10 As for me, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand for you before the Chaldeans who will come to us; but as for you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and store them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken.”

Jeremiah 40:11 Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom and in other lands heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, as governor over them,

Jeremiah 40:12 then all the Jews returned from all the places to which they had been driven and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah; and they gathered wine and summer fruits in great abundance.

Jeremiah 40:13 Now Johanan the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah

Jeremiah 40:14 and said to him, “Do you know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam would not believe them.

Jeremiah 40:15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah at Mizpah, “Let me go and slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he take your life, so that all the Jews who are gathered about you would be scattered, and the remnant of Judah would perish?”

Jeremiah 40:16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, “You shall not do this thing, for you are speaking falsely of Ishmael.”

Jeremiah 41:1 In the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal family, one of the chief officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. As they ate bread together there at Mizpah,

Jeremiah 41:2 Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men with him rose up and struck down Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had appointed governor in the land.

Jeremiah 41:3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldean soldiers who happened to be there.

Jeremiah 41:4 On the day after the murder of Gedaliah, before any one knew of it,

Jeremiah 41:5 eighty men arrived from Shechem and Shiloh and Samaria, with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and their bodies gashed, bringing cereal offerings and incense to present at the temple of the LORD.

Jeremiah 41:6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah came out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he came. As he met them, he said to them, “Come in to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.”

Jeremiah 41:7 When they came into the city, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the men with him slew them, and cast them into a cistern.

Jeremiah 41:8 But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, “Do not kill us, for we have stores of wheat, barley, oil, and honey hidden in the fields.” So he refrained and did not kill them with their companions.

Jeremiah 41:9 Now the cistern into which Ishmael cast all the bodies of the men whom he had slain was the large cistern which King Asa had made for defense against Baasha king of Israel; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

Jeremiah 41:10 Then Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king’s daughters and all the people who were left at Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 41:11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him heard of all the evil which Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,

Jeremiah 41:12 they took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael the son of Nethaniah. They came upon him at the great pool which is in Gibeon.

Jeremiah 41:13 And when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him, they rejoiced.

Jeremiah 41:14 So all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah.

Jeremiah 41:15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 41:16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him took all the rest of the people whom Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had carried away captive from Mizpah after he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam—soldiers, women, children, and eunuchs, whom Johanan brought back from Gibeon.

Jeremiah 41:17 And they went and stayed at Geruth Chimham near Bethlehem, intending to go to Egypt

Jeremiah 41:18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

Jeremiah 42:1 Then all the commanders of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah and Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, came near

Jeremiah 42:2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet, “Let our supplication come before you, and pray to the LORD your God for us, for all this remnant (for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes see us),

Jeremiah 42:3 that the LORD your God may show us the way we should go, and the thing that we should do.”

Jeremiah 42:4 Jeremiah the prophet said to them, “I have heard you; behold, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your request, and whatever the LORD answers you I will tell you; I will keep nothing back from you.”

Jeremiah 42:5 Then they said to Jeremiah, “May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act according to all the word with which the LORD your God sends you to us.

Jeremiah 42:6 Whether it is good or evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.”

Jeremiah 42:7 At the end of ten days the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 42:8 Then he summoned Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest,

Jeremiah 42:9 and said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him:

Jeremiah 42:10 If you will remain in this land, then I will build you up and not pull you down; I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I repent of the evil which I did to you.

Jeremiah 42:11 Do not fear the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not fear him, says the LORD, for I am with you, to save you and to deliver you from his hand.

Jeremiah 42:12 I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you and let you remain in your own land.

Jeremiah 42:13 But if you say, `We will not remain in this land,' disobeying the voice of the LORD your God

Jeremiah 42:14 and saying, `No, we will go to the land of Egypt, where we shall not see war, or hear the sound of the trumpet, or be hungry for bread, and we will dwell there,'

Jeremiah 42:15 then hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: If you set your faces to enter Egypt and go to live there,

Jeremiah 42:16 then the sword which you fear shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine of which you are afraid shall follow hard after you to Egypt; and there you shall die.

Jeremiah 42:17 All the men who set their faces to go to Egypt to live there shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; they shall have no remnant or survivor from the evil which I will bring upon them.

Jeremiah 42:18 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: As my anger and my wrath were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You shall become an execration, a horror, a curse, and a taunt. You shall see this place no more.

Jeremiah 42:19 The LORD has said to you, O remnant of Judah, `Do not go to Egypt.' Know for a certainty that I have warned you this day

Jeremiah 42:20 that you have gone astray at the cost of your lives. For you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, `Pray for us to the LORD our God, and whatever the LORD our God says declare to us and we will do it.'

Jeremiah 42:21 And I have this day declared it to you, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in anything that he sent me to tell you.

Jeremiah 42:22 Now therefore know for a certainty that you shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go to live."

Jeremiah 43:1 When Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all these words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them,

Jeremiah 43:2 Azariah the son of Hoshaiah and Johanan the son of Kareah and all the insolent men said to Jeremiah, "You are telling a lie. The LORD our God did not send you to say, `Do not go to Egypt to live there';

Jeremiah 43:3 but Baruch the son of Neriah has set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may kill us or take us into exile in Babylon."

Jeremiah 43:4 So Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces and all the people did not obey the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah.

Jeremiah 43:5 But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to live in the land of Judah from all the nations to which they had been driven —

Jeremiah 43:6 the men, the women, the children, the princesses, and every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan; also Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah.

Jeremiah 43:7 And they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they arrived at Tahpanhes.

Jeremiah 43:8 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes:

Jeremiah 43:9 "Take in your hands large stones, and hide them in the mortar in the pavement which is at the entrance to Pharaoh's palace in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah,

Jeremiah 43:10 and say to them, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and he will set his throne above these stones which I have hid, and he will spread his royal canopy over them.

Jeremiah 43:11 He shall come and smite the land of Egypt, giving to the pestilence those who are doomed to the pestilence, to captivity those who are doomed to captivity, and to the sword those who are doomed to the sword.

Jeremiah 43:12 He shall kindle a fire in the temples of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them and carry them away captive; and he shall clean the land of Egypt, as a shepherd cleans his cloak of vermin; and he shall go away from there in peace.

Jeremiah 43:13 He shall break the obelisks of Heliopolis which is in the land of Egypt; and the temples of the gods of Egypt he shall burn with fire.'"

Jeremiah 44:1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews that dwelt in the land of Egypt, at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Memphis, and in the land of Pathros,

Jeremiah 44:2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen all the evil that I brought upon Jerusalem and upon all the cities of Judah. Behold, this day they are a desolation, and no one dwells in them,

Jeremiah 44:3 because of the wickedness which they committed, provoking me to anger, in that they went to burn incense and serve other gods that they knew not, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers.

Jeremiah 44:4 Yet I persistently sent to you all my servants the prophets, saying, 'Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!'

Jeremiah 44:5 But they did not listen or incline their ear, to turn from their wickedness and burn no incense to other gods.

Jeremiah 44:6 Therefore my wrath and my anger were poured forth and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they became a waste and a desolation, as at this day.

Jeremiah 44:7 And now thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you commit this great evil against yourselves, to cut off from you man and woman, infant and child, from the midst of Judah, leaving you no remnant?

Jeremiah 44:8 Why do you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have come to live, that you may be cut off and become a curse and a taunt among all the nations of the earth?

Jeremiah 44:9 Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 44:10 They have not humbled themselves even to this day, nor have they feared, nor walked in my law and my statutes which I set before you and before your fathers.

Jeremiah 44:11 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, to cut off all Judah.

Jeremiah 44:12 I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to come to the land of Egypt to live, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt they shall fall; by the sword and by famine they shall be consumed; from the least to the greatest, they shall die by the sword and by famine; and they shall become an execration, a horror, a curse, and a taunt.

Jeremiah 44:13 I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence,

Jeremiah 44:14 so that none of the remnant of Judah who have come to live in the land of Egypt shall escape or survive or return to the land of Judah, to which they desire to return to dwell there; for they shall not return, except some fugitives."

Jeremiah 44:15 Then all the men who knew that their wives had offered incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, all the people who dwelt in Pathros in the land of Egypt, answered Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 44:16 "As for the word which you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you.

Jeremiah 44:17 But we will do everything that we have vowed, burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out libations to her, as we did, both we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then we had plenty of food, and prospered, and saw no evil.

Jeremiah 44:18 But since we left off burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out libations to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine."

Jeremiah 44:19 And the women said, "When we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out libations to her, was it without our husbands' approval that we made cakes for her bearing her image and poured out libations to her?"

Jeremiah 44:20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, men and women, all the people who had given him this answer:

Jeremiah 44:21 "As for the incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember it? Did it not come into his mind?

Jeremiah 44:22 The LORD could no longer bear your evil doings and the abominations which you committed; therefore your land has become a desolation and a waste and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day.

Jeremiah 44:23 It is because you burned incense, and because you sinned against the LORD and did not obey the voice of the LORD or walk in his law and in his statutes and in his testimonies, that this evil has befallen you, as at this day."

Jeremiah 44:24 Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who are in the land of Egypt,

Jeremiah 44:25 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You and your wives have declared with your mouths, and have fulfilled it with your hands, saying, `We will surely perform our vows that we have made, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out libations to her.' Then confirm your vows and perform your vows!

Jeremiah 44:26 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says the LORD, that my name shall no more be invoked by the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, `As the Lord GOD lives.'

Jeremiah 44:27 Behold, I am watching over them for evil and not for good; all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end of them.

Jeremiah 44:28 And those who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who came to the land of Egypt to live, shall know whose word will stand, mine or theirs.

Jeremiah 44:29 This shall be the sign to you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, in order that you may know that my words will surely stand against you for evil:

Jeremiah 44:30 Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy and sought his life."

Jeremiah 45:1 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the dictation of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

Jeremiah 45:2 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch:

Jeremiah 45:3 You said, `Woe is me! for the LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.'

Jeremiah 45:4 Thus shall you say to him, Thus says the LORD: Behold, what I have built I am breaking down, and what I have planted I am plucking up—that is, the whole land.

Jeremiah 45:5 And do you seek great things for yourself? Seek them not; for, behold, I am bringing evil upon all flesh, says the LORD; but I will give you your life as a prize of war in all places to which you may go."

Jeremiah 46:1 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations.

Jeremiah 46:2 About Egypt. Concerning the army of Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates at Carchemish and which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

Jeremiah 46:3 "Prepare buckler and shield, and advance for battle!

Jeremiah 46:4 Harness the horses; mount, O horsemen! Take your stations with your helmets, polish your spears, put on your coats of mail!

Jeremiah 46:5 Why have I seen it? They are dismayed and have turned backward. Their warriors are beaten down, and have fled in haste; they look not back—terror on every side! says the LORD.

Jeremiah 46:6 The swift cannot flee away, nor the warrior escape; in the north by the river Euphrates they have stumbled and fallen.

Jeremiah 46:7 "Who is this, rising like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge?

Jeremiah 46:8 Egypt rises like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge. He said, I will rise, I will cover the earth, I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.

Jeremiah 46:9 Advance, O horses, and rage, O chariots! Let the warriors go forth: men of Ethiopia and Put who handle the shield, men of Lud, skilled in handling the bow.

Jeremiah 46:10 That day is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, to avenge himself on his foes. The sword shall devour and be sated, and drink its fill of their blood. For the Lord GOD of hosts holds a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

Jeremiah 46:11 Go up to Gilead, and take balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt! In vain you have used many medicines; there is no healing for you.

Jeremiah 46:12 The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for warrior has stumbled against warrior; they have both fallen together."

Jeremiah 46:13 The word which the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to smite the land of Egypt:

Jeremiah 46:14 "Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in Migdol; proclaim in Memphis and Tahpanhes; Say, `Stand ready and be prepared, for the sword shall devour round about you.'

Jeremiah 46:15 Why has Apis fled? Why did not your bull stand? Because the LORD thrust him down.

Jeremiah 46:16 Your multitude stumbled and fell, and they said one to another, `Arise, and let us go back to our own people and to the land of our birth, because of the sword of the oppressor.'

Jeremiah 46:17 Call the name of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, `Noisy one who lets the hour go by.'

Jeremiah 46:18 "As I live, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, shall one come.

Jeremiah 46:19 Prepare yourselves baggage for exile, O inhabitants of Egypt! For Memphis shall become a waste, a ruin, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 46:20 "A beautiful heifer is Egypt, but a gadfly from the north has come upon her.

Jeremiah 46:21 Even her hired soldiers in her midst are like fatted calves; yea, they have turned and fled together, they did not stand; for the day of their calamity has come upon them, the time of their punishment.

Jeremiah 46:22 "She makes a sound like a serpent gliding away; for her enemies march in force, and come against her with axes, like those who fell trees.

Jeremiah 46:23 They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it is impenetrable, because they are more numerous than locusts; they are without number.

Jeremiah 46:24 The daughter of Egypt shall be put to shame, she shall be delivered into the hand of a people from the north.”

Jeremiah 46:25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, said: “Behold, I am bringing punishment upon Amon of Thebes, and Pharaoh, and Egypt and her gods and her kings, upon Pharaoh and those who trust in him.

Jeremiah 46:26 I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their life, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and his officers. Afterward Egypt shall be inhabited as in the days of old, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 46:27 “But fear not, O Jacob my servant, nor be dismayed, O Israel; for lo, I will save you from afar, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease, and none shall make him afraid.

Jeremiah 46:28 Fear not, O Jacob my servant, says the LORD, for I am with you. I will make a full end of all the nations to which I have driven you, but of you I will not make a full end. I will chasten you in just measure, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.”

Jeremiah 47:1 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh smote Gaza.

Jeremiah 47:2 “Thus says the LORD: Behold, waters are rising out of the north, and shall become an overflowing torrent; they shall overflow the land and all that fills it, the city and those who dwell in it. Men shall cry out, and every inhabitant of the land shall wail.

Jeremiah 47:3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his stallions, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of their wheels, the fathers look not back to their children, so feeble are their hands,

Jeremiah 47:4 because of the day that is coming to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper that remains. For the LORD is destroying the Philistines, the remnant of the coastland of Caphtor.

Jeremiah 47:5 Baldness has come upon Gaza, Ashkelon has perished. O remnant of the Anakim, how long will you gash yourselves?

Jeremiah 47:6 Ah, sword of the LORD! How long till you are quiet? Put yourself into your scabbard, rest and be still!

Jeremiah 47:7 How can it be quiet, when the LORD has given it a charge? Against Ashkelon and against the seashore he has appointed it.”

Jeremiah 48:1 Concerning Moab. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Woe to Nebo, for it is laid waste! Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken; the fortress is put to shame and broken down;

Jeremiah 48:2 the renown of Moab is no more. In Heshbon they planned evil against her: `Come, let us cut her off from being a nation!' You also, O Madmen, shall be brought to silence; the sword shall pursue you.

Jeremiah 48:3 "Hark! a cry from Horonaim, `Desolation and great destruction!'

Jeremiah 48:4 Moab is destroyed; a cry is heard as far as Zoar.

Jeremiah 48:5 For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the cry of destruction.

Jeremiah 48:6 Flee! Save yourselves! Be like a wild ass in the desert!

Jeremiah 48:7 For, because you trusted in your strongholds and your treasures, you also shall be taken; and Chemosh shall go forth into exile, with his priests and his princes.

Jeremiah 48:8 The destroyer shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD has spoken.

Jeremiah 48:9 "Give wings to Moab, for she would fly away; her cities shall become a desolation, with no inhabitant in them.

Jeremiah 48:10 "Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD with slackness; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from bloodshed.

Jeremiah 48:11 "Moab has been at ease from his youth and has settled on his lees; he has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, nor has he gone into exile; so his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed.

Jeremiah 48:12 "Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I shall send to him tilters who will tilt him, and empty his vessels, and break his jars in pieces.

Jeremiah 48:13 Then Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.

Jeremiah 48:14 "How do you say, `We are heroes and mighty men of war'?

Jeremiah 48:15 The destroyer of Moab and his cities has come up, and the choicest of his young men have gone down to slaughter, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 48:16 The calamity of Moab is near at hand and his affliction hastens apace.

Jeremiah 48:17 Bemoan him, all you who are round about him, and all who know his name; say, `How the mighty scepter is broken, the glorious staff.'

Jeremiah 48:18 "Come down from your glory, and sit on the parched ground, O inhabitant of Dibon! For the destroyer of Moab has come up against you; he has destroyed your strongholds.

Jeremiah 48:19 Stand by the way and watch, O inhabitant of Aroer! Ask him who flees and her who escapes; say, `What has happened?'

Jeremiah 48:20 Moab is put to shame, for it is broken; wail and cry! Tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.

Jeremiah 48:21 "Judgment has come upon the tableland, upon Holon, and Jahzah, and Mephaath,

Jeremiah 48:22 and Dibon, and Nebo, and Bethdiblathaim,

Jeremiah 48:23 and Kiriathaim, and Bethgamul, and Bethmeon,

Jeremiah 48:24 and Kerioth, and Bozrah, and all the cities of the land of Moab, far and near.

Jeremiah 48:25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:26 "Make him drunk, because he magnified himself against the LORD; so that Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he too shall be held in derision.

Jeremiah 48:27 Was not Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves, that whenever you spoke of him you wagged your head?

Jeremiah 48:28 "Leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, O inhabitants of Moab! Be like the dove that nests in the sides of the mouth of a gorge.

Jeremiah 48:29 We have heard of the pride of Moab—he is very proud—of his loftiness, his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart.

Jeremiah 48:30 I know his insolence, says the LORD; his boasts are false, his deeds are false.

Jeremiah 48:31 Therefore I wail for Moab; I cry out for all Moab; for the men of Kirheres I mourn.

Jeremiah 48:32 More than for Jazer I weep for you, O vine of Sibmah! Your branches passed over the sea, reached as far as Jazer; upon your summer fruits and your vintage the destroyer has fallen.

Jeremiah 48:33 Gladness and joy have been taken away from the fruitful land of Moab; I have made the wine cease from the wine presses; no one treads them with shouts of joy; the shouting is not the shout of joy.

Jeremiah 48:34 "Heshbon and Elealeh cry out; as far as Jahaz they utter their voice, from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglathshelishiyah. For the waters of Nimrim also have become desolate.

Jeremiah 48:35 And I will bring to an end in Moab, says the LORD, him who offers sacrifice in the high place and burns incense to his god.

Jeremiah 48:36 Therefore my heart moans for Moab like a flute, and my heart moans like a flute for the men of Kirheres; therefore the riches they gained have perished.

Jeremiah 48:37 “For every head is shaved and every beard cut off; upon all the hands are gashes, and on the loins is sackcloth.

Jeremiah 48:38 On all the housetops of Moab and in the squares there is nothing but lamentation; for I have broken Moab like a vessel for which no one cares, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:39 How it is broken! How they wail! How Moab has turned his back in shame! So Moab has become a derision and a horror to all that are round about him.”

Jeremiah 48:40 For thus says the LORD: “Behold, one shall fly swiftly like an eagle, and spread his wings against Moab;

Jeremiah 48:41 the cities shall be taken and the strongholds seized. The heart of the warriors of Moab shall be in that day like the heart of a woman in her pangs;

Jeremiah 48:42 Moab shall be destroyed and be no longer a people, because he magnified himself against the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:43 Terror, pit, and snare are before you, O inhabitant of Moab! says the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:44 He who flees from the terror shall fall into the pit, and he who climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare. For I will bring these things upon Moab in the year of their punishment, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:45 “In the shadow of Heshbon fugitives stop without strength; for a fire has gone forth from Heshbon, a flame from the house of Sihon; it has destroyed the forehead of Moab, the crown of the sons of tumult.

Jeremiah 48:46 Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh is undone; for your sons have been taken captive, and your daughters into captivity.

Jeremiah 48:47 Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in the latter days, says the LORD.” Thus far is the judgment on Moab.

Jeremiah 49:1 Concerning the Ammonites. Thus says the LORD: “Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then has Milcom dispossessed Gad, and his people settled in its cities?

Jeremiah 49:2 Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will cause the battle cry to be heard against Rabbah of the Ammonites; it shall become a desolate mound, and its villages shall be burned with fire; then Israel shall dispossess those who dispossessed him, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:3 “Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste! Cry, O daughters of Rabbah! Gird yourselves with sackcloth, lament, and run to and fro among the hedges! For Milcom shall go into exile, with his priests and his princes.

Jeremiah 49:4 Why do you boast of your valleys, O faithless daughter, who trusted in her treasures, saying, `Who will come against me?'

Jeremiah 49:5 Behold, I will bring terror upon you, says the Lord GOD of hosts, from all who are round about you, and you shall be driven out, every man straight before him, with none to gather the fugitives.

Jeremiah 49:6 But afterward I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites, says the LORD."

Jeremiah 49:7 Concerning Edom. Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Is wisdom no more in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom vanished?

Jeremiah 49:8 Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan! For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time when I punish him.

Jeremiah 49:9 If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? If thieves came by night, would they not destroy only enough for themselves?

Jeremiah 49:10 But I have stripped Esau bare, I have uncovered his hiding places, and he is not able to conceal himself. His children are destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more.

Jeremiah 49:11 Leave your fatherless children, I will keep them alive; and let your widows trust in me."

Jeremiah 49:12 For thus says the LORD: "If those who did not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, will you go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you must drink.

Jeremiah 49:13 For I have sworn by myself, says the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a horror, a taunt, a waste, and a curse; and all her cities shall be perpetual wastes."

Jeremiah 49:14 I have heard tidings from the LORD, and a messenger has been sent among the nations: "Gather yourselves together and come against her, and rise up for battle!"

Jeremiah 49:15 For behold, I will make you small among the nations, despised among men.

Jeremiah 49:16 The horror you inspire has deceived you, and the pride of your heart, you who live in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill. Though you make your nest as high as the eagle's, I will bring you down from there, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:17 "Edom shall become a horror; every one who passes by it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its disasters.

Jeremiah 49:18 As when Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbor cities were overthrown, says the LORD, no man shall dwell there, no man shall sojourn in her.

Jeremiah 49:19 Behold, like a lion coming up from the jungle of the Jordan against a strong sheepfold, I will suddenly make them run away from her; and I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who will summon me? What shepherd can stand before me?

Jeremiah 49:20 Therefore hear the plan which the LORD has made against Edom and the purposes which he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman: Even the little ones of the flock shall be dragged away; surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate.

Jeremiah 49:21 At the sound of their fall the earth shall tremble; the sound of their cry shall be heard at the Red Sea.

Jeremiah 49:22 Behold, one shall mount up and fly swiftly like an eagle, and spread his wings against Bozrah, and the heart of the warriors of Edom shall be in that day like the heart of a woman in her pangs."

Jeremiah 49:23 Concerning Damascus. "Hamath and Arpad are confounded, for they have heard evil tidings; they melt in fear, they are troubled like the sea which cannot be quiet.

Jeremiah 49:24 Damascus has become feeble, she turned to flee, and panic seized her; anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail.

Jeremiah 49:25 How the famous city is forsaken, the joyful city!

Jeremiah 49:26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her soldiers shall be destroyed in that day, says the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 49:27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the strongholds of Benhadad."

Jeremiah 49:28 Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote. Thus says the LORD: "Rise up, advance against Kedar! Destroy the people of the east!

Jeremiah 49:29 Their tents and their flocks shall be taken, their curtains and all their goods; their camels shall be borne away from them, and men shall cry to them: `Terror on every side!'

Jeremiah 49:30 Flee, wander far away, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor! says the LORD. For Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon has made a plan against you, and formed a purpose against you.

Jeremiah 49:31 "Rise up, advance against a nation at ease, that dwells securely, says the LORD, that has no gates or bars, that dwells alone.

Jeremiah 49:32 Their camels shall become booty, their herds of cattle a spoil. I will scatter to every wind those who cut the corners of their hair, and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:33 Hazor shall become a haunt of jackals, an everlasting waste; no man shall dwell there, no man shall sojourn in her.”

Jeremiah 49:34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah.

Jeremiah 49:35 Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might;

Jeremiah 49:36 and I will bring upon Elam the four winds from the four quarters of heaven; and I will scatter them to all those winds, and there shall be no nation to which those driven out of Elam shall not come.

Jeremiah 49:37 I will terrify Elam before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; I will bring evil upon them, my fierce anger, says the LORD. I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them;

Jeremiah 49:38 and I will set my throne in Elam, and destroy their king and princes, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:39 “But in the latter days I will restore the fortunes of Elam, says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 50:1 The word which the LORD spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet:

Jeremiah 50:2 “Declare among the nations and proclaim, set up a banner and proclaim, conceal it not, and say: `Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame, Merodach is dismayed. Her images are put to shame, her idols are dismayed.’

Jeremiah 50:3 “For out of the north a nation has come up against her, which shall make her land a desolation, and none shall dwell in it; both man and beast shall flee away.

Jeremiah 50:4 “In those days and in that time, says the LORD, the people of Israel and the people of Judah shall come together, weeping as they come; and they shall seek the LORD their God.

Jeremiah 50:5 They shall ask the way to Zion, with faces turned toward it, saying, `Come, let us join ourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant which will never be forgotten.’

Jeremiah 50:6 “My people have been lost sheep; their shepherds have led them astray, turning them away on the mountains; from mountain to hill they have gone, they have forgotten their fold.

Jeremiah 50:7 All who found them have devoured them, and their enemies have said, `We are not guilty, for they have sinned against the LORD, their true habitation, the LORD, the hope of their fathers.’

Jeremiah 50:8 “Flee from the midst of Babylon, and go out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as he-goats before the flock.

Jeremiah 50:9 For behold, I am stirring up and bringing against Babylon a company of great nations, from the north country; and they shall array themselves against her; from there she shall be taken. Their arrows are like a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.

Jeremiah 50:10 Chaldea shall be plundered; all who plunder her shall be sated, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:11 “Though you rejoice, though you exult, O plunderers of my heritage, though you are wanton as a heifer at grass, and neigh like stallions,

Jeremiah 50:12 your mother shall be utterly shamed, and she who bore you shall be disgraced. Lo, she shall be the last of the nations, a wilderness dry and desert.

Jeremiah 50:13 Because of the wrath of the LORD she shall not be inhabited, but shall be an utter desolation; every one who passes by Babylon shall be appalled, and hiss because of all her wounds.

Jeremiah 50:14 Set yourselves in array against Babylon round about, all you that bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:15 Raise a shout against her round about, she has surrendered; her bulwarks have fallen, her walls are thrown down. For this is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance on her, do to her as she has done.

Jeremiah 50:16 Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the one who handles the sickle in time of harvest; because of the sword of the oppressor, every one shall turn to his own people, and every one shall flee to his own land.

Jeremiah 50:17 “Israel is a hunted sheep driven away by lions. First the king of Assyria devoured him, and now at last Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon has gnawed his bones.

Jeremiah 50:18 Therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I am bringing punishment on the king of Babylon and his land, as I punished the king of Assyria.

Jeremiah 50:19 I will restore Israel to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and in Bashan, and his desire shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead.

Jeremiah 50:20 In those days and in that time, says the LORD, iniquity shall be sought in Israel, and there shall be none; and sin in Judah, and none shall be found; for I will pardon those whom I leave as a remnant.

Jeremiah 50:21 “Go up against the land of Merathaim, and against the inhabitants of Pekod. Slay, and utterly destroy after them, says the LORD, and do all that I have commanded you.

Jeremiah 50:22 The noise of battle is in the land, and great destruction!

Jeremiah 50:23 How the hammer of the whole earth is cut down and broken! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!

Jeremiah 50:24 I set a snare for you and you were taken, O Babylon, and you did not know it; you were found and caught, because you strove against the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:25 The LORD has opened his armory, and brought out the weapons of his wrath, for the Lord GOD of hosts has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.

Jeremiah 50:26 Come against her from every quarter; open her granaries; pile her up like heaps of grain, and destroy her utterly; let nothing be left of her.

Jeremiah 50:27 Slay all her bulls, let them go down to the slaughter. Woe to them, for their day has come, the time of their punishment.

Jeremiah 50:28 “Hark! they flee and escape from the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, vengeance for his temple.

Jeremiah 50:29 “Summon archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow. Encamp round about her; let no one escape. Requite her according to her deeds, do to her according to all that she has done; for she has proudly defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

Jeremiah 50:30 Therefore her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her soldiers shall be destroyed on that day, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:31 “Behold, I am against you, O proud one, says the Lord GOD of hosts; for your day has come, the time when I will punish you.

Jeremiah 50:32 The proud one shall stumble and fall, with none to raise him up, and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it will devour all that is round about him.

Jeremiah 50:33 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: The people of Israel are oppressed, and the people of Judah with them; all who took them captive have held them fast, they refuse to let them go.

Jeremiah 50:34 Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name. He will surely plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, but unrest to the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jeremiah 50:35 “A sword upon the Chaldeans, says the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes and her wise men!

Jeremiah 50:36 A sword upon the diviners, that they may become fools! A sword upon her warriors, that they may be destroyed!

Jeremiah 50:37 A sword upon her horses and upon her chariots, and upon all the foreign troops in her midst, that they may become women! A sword upon all her treasures, that they may be plundered!

Jeremiah 50:38 A drought upon her waters, that they may be dried up! For it is a land of images, and they are mad over idols.

Jeremiah 50:39 “Therefore wild beasts shall dwell with hyenas in Babylon, and ostriches shall dwell in her; she shall be peopled no more for ever, nor inhabited for all generations.

Jeremiah 50:40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbor cities, says the LORD, so no man shall dwell there, and no son of man shall sojourn in her.

Jeremiah 50:41 “Behold, a people comes from the north; a mighty nation and many kings are stirring from the farthest parts of the earth.

Jeremiah 50:42 They lay hold of bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy. The sound of them is like the roaring of the sea; they ride upon horses, arrayed as a man for battle against you, O daughter of Babylon!

Jeremiah 50:43 “The king of Babylon heard the report of them, and his hands fell helpless; anguish seized him, pain as of a woman in travail.

Jeremiah 50:44 “Behold, like a lion coming up from the jungle of the Jordan against a strong sheepfold, I will suddenly make them run away from her; and I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who will summon me? What shepherd can stand before me?

Jeremiah 50:45 Therefore hear the plan which the LORD has made against Babylon, and the purposes which he has formed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the little ones of their flock shall be dragged away; surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate.

Jeremiah 50:46 At the sound of the capture of Babylon the earth shall tremble, and her cry shall be heard among the nations.”

Jeremiah 51:1 Thus says the LORD: “Behold, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon, against the inhabitants of Chaldea;

Jeremiah 51:2 and I will send to Babylon winnowers, and they shall winnow her, and they shall empty her land, when they come against her from every side on the day of trouble.

Jeremiah 51:3 Let not the archer bend his bow, and let him not stand up in his coat of mail. Spare not her young men; utterly destroy all her host.

Jeremiah 51:4 They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and wounded in her streets.

Jeremiah 51:5 For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the LORD of hosts; but the land of the Chaldeans is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.

Jeremiah 51:6 “Flee from the midst of Babylon, let every man save his life! Be not cut off in her punishment, for this is the time of the LORD’s vengeance, the requital he is rendering her.

Jeremiah 51:7 Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD’s hand, making all the earth drunken; the nations drank of her wine, therefore the nations went mad.

Jeremiah 51:8 Suddenly Babylon has fallen and been broken; wail for her! Take balm for her pain; perhaps she may be healed.

Jeremiah 51:9 We would have healed Babylon, but she was not healed. Forsake her, and let us go each to his own country; for her judgment has reached up to heaven and has been lifted up even to the skies.

Jeremiah 51:10 The LORD has brought forth our vindication; come, let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

Jeremiah 51:11 “Sharpen the arrows! Take up the shields! The LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his purpose concerning Babylon is to destroy it, for that is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance for his temple.

Jeremiah 51:12 Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon; make the watch strong; set up watchmen; prepare the ambushes; for the LORD has both planned and done what he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:13 O you who dwell by many waters, rich in treasures, your end has come, the thread of your life is cut.

Jeremiah 51:14 The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself: Surely I will fill you with men, as many as locusts, and they shall raise the shout of victory over you.

Jeremiah 51:15 “It is he who made the earth by his power, who established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.

Jeremiah 51:16 When he utters his voice there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightnings for the rain, and he brings forth the wind from his storehouses.

Jeremiah 51:17 Every man is stupid and without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols; for his images are false, and there is no breath in them.

Jeremiah 51:18 They are worthless, a work of delusion; at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

Jeremiah 51:19 Not like these is he who is the portion of Jacob, for he is the one who formed all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name.

Jeremiah 51:20 “You are my hammer and weapon of war: with you I break nations in pieces; with you I destroy kingdoms;

Jeremiah 51:21 with you I break in pieces the horse and his rider; with you I break in pieces the chariot and the charioteer;

Jeremiah 51:22 with you I break in pieces man and woman; with you I break in pieces the old man and the youth; with you I break in pieces the young man and the maiden;

Jeremiah 51:23 with you I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; with you I break in pieces the farmer and his team; with you I break in pieces governors and commanders.

Jeremiah 51:24 “I will requite Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea before your very eyes for all the evil that they have done in Zion, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:25 “Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain, says the LORD, which destroys the whole earth; I will stretch out my hand against you, and roll you down from the crags, and make you a burnt mountain.

Jeremiah 51:26 No stone shall be taken from you for a corner and no stone for a foundation, but you shall be a perpetual waste, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:27 “Set up a standard on the earth, blow the trumpet among the nations; prepare the nations for war against her, summon against her the kingdoms, Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz; appoint a marshal against her, bring up horses like bristling locusts.

Jeremiah 51:28 Prepare the nations for war against her, the kings of the Medes, with their governors and deputies, and every land under their dominion.

Jeremiah 51:29 The land trembles and writhes in pain, for the LORD’s purposes against Babylon stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 51:30 The warriors of Babylon have ceased fighting, they remain in their strongholds; their strength has failed, they have become women; her dwellings are on fire, her bars are broken.

Jeremiah 51:31 One runner runs to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to tell the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every side;

Jeremiah 51:32 the fords have been seized, the bulwarks are burned with fire, and the soldiers are in panic.

Jeremiah 51:33 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come.”

Jeremiah 51:34 “Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me; he has made me an empty vessel, he has swallowed me like a monster; he has filled his belly with my delicacies, he has rinsed me out.

Jeremiah 51:35 The violence done to me and to my kinsmen be upon Babylon,” let the inhabitant of Zion say. “My blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea,” let Jerusalem say.

Jeremiah 51:36 Therefore thus says the LORD: “Behold, I will plead your cause and take vengeance for you. I will dry up her sea and make her fountain dry;

Jeremiah 51:37 and Babylon shall become a heap of ruins, the haunt of jackals, a horror and a hissing, without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 51:38 “They shall roar together like lions; they shall growl like lions’ whelps.

Jeremiah 51:39 While they are inflamed I will prepare them a feast and make them drunk, till they swoon away and sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and he-goats.

Jeremiah 51:41 “How Babylon is taken, the praise of the whole earth seized! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!

Jeremiah 51:42 The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with its tumultuous waves.

Jeremiah 51:43 Her cities have become a horror, a land of drought and a desert, a land in which no one dwells, and through which no son of man passes.

Jeremiah 51:44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and take out of his mouth what he has swallowed. The nations shall no longer flow to him; the wall of Babylon has fallen.

Jeremiah 51:45 “Go out of the midst of her, my people! Let every man save his life from the fierce anger of the LORD!

Jeremiah 51:46 Let not your heart faint, and be not fearful at the report heard in the land, when a report comes in one year and afterward a report in another year, and violence is in the land, and ruler is against ruler.

Jeremiah 51:47 “Therefore, behold, the days are coming when I will punish the images of Babylon; her whole land shall be put to shame, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

Jeremiah 51:48 Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come against them out of the north, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:49 Babylon must fall for the slain of Israel, as for Babylon have fallen the slain of all the earth.

Jeremiah 51:50 “You that have escaped from the sword, go, stand not still! Remember the LORD from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind:

Jeremiah 51:51 `We are put to shame, for we have heard reproach; dishonor has covered our face, for aliens have come into the holy places of the LORD’s house.’

Jeremiah 51:52 “Therefore, behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will execute judgment upon her images, and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

Jeremiah 51:53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify her strong height, yet destroyers would come from me upon her, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:54 “Hark! a cry from Babylon! The noise of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!

Jeremiah 51:55 For the LORD is laying Babylon waste, and stilling her mighty voice. Their waves roar like many waters, the noise of their voice is raised;

Jeremiah 51:56 for a destroyer has come upon her, upon Babylon; her warriors are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for the LORD is a God of recompense, he will surely requite.

Jeremiah 51:57 I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors, her commanders, and her warriors; they shall sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake, says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

Jeremiah 51:58 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: The broad wall of Babylon shall be leveled to the ground and her high gates shall be burned with fire. The peoples labor for nought, and the nations weary themselves only for fire.”

Jeremiah 51:59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah king of Judah to Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. Seraiah was the quartermaster.

Jeremiah 51:60 Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, all these words that are written concerning Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah: “When you come to Babylon, see that you read all these words,

Jeremiah 51:62 and say, `O LORD, thou hast said concerning this place that thou wilt cut it off, so that nothing shall dwell in it, neither man nor beast, and it shall be desolate for ever.’

Jeremiah 51:63 When you finish reading this book, bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates, Jeremiah 51:64 and say, `Thus shall Babylon sink, to rise no more, because of the evil that I am bringing upon her.'" Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 52:1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

Jeremiah 52:2 And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

Jeremiah 52:3 Surely because of the anger of the LORD things came to such a pass in Jerusalem and Judah that he cast them out from his presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:4 And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and they laid siege to it and built siegeworks against it round about.

Jeremiah 52:5 So the city was besieged till the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

Jeremiah 52:6 On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city, that there was no food for the people of the land.

Jeremiah 52:7 Then a breach was made in the city; and all the men of war fled and went out from the city by night by the way of a gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, while the Chaldeans were round about the city. And they went in the direction of the Arabah.

Jeremiah 52:8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

Jeremiah 52:9 Then they captured the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence upon him.

Jeremiah 52:10 The king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and also slew all the princes of Judah at Riblah.

Jeremiah 52:11 He put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and the king of Babylon took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

Jeremiah 52:12 In the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month—which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon—Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard who served the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:13 And he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down.

Jeremiah 52:14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls round about Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:15 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poorest of the people and the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, together with the rest of the artisans.

Jeremiah 52:16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen.

Jeremiah 52:17 And the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all the bronze to Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:18 And they took away the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the dishes for incense, and all the vessels of bronze used in the temple service;

Jeremiah 52:19 also the small bowls, and the firepans, and the basins, and the pots, and the lampstands, and the dishes for incense, and the bowls for libation. What was of gold the captain of the guard took away as gold, and what was of silver, as silver.

Jeremiah 52:20 As for the two pillars, the one sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under the sea, and the stands, which Solomon the king had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these things was beyond weight.

Jeremiah 52:21 As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, its circumference was twelve cubits, and its thickness was four fingers, and it was hollow.

Jeremiah 52:22 Upon it was a capital of bronze; the height of the one capital was five cubits; a network and pomegranates, all of bronze, were upon the capital round about. And the second pillar had the like, with pomegranates.

Jeremiah 52:23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were a hundred upon the network round about.

Jeremiah 52:24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold;

Jeremiah 52:25 and from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the men of war, and seven men of the king’s council, who were found in the city; and the secretary of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city.

Jeremiah 52:26 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

Jeremiah 52:27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried captive out of its land.

Jeremiah 52:28 This is the number of the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews;

Jeremiah 52:29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons;

Jeremiah 52:30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred and forty-five persons; all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

Jeremiah 52:31 And in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison;

Jeremiah 52:32 and he spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat above the seats of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:33 So Jehoiachin put off his prison garments. And every day of his life he dined regularly at the king’s table;

Jeremiah 52:34 as for his allowance, a regualar allowance was given him by the king according to his daily need, until the day of his death as long as he lived.

Lamentations

1:1 How lonely sits the city that was full of people! How like a widow has she become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the cities has become a vassal.

Lamentations 1:2 She weeps bitterly in the night, tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has none to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies.

Lamentations 1:3 Judah has gone into exile because of affliction and hard servitude; she dwells now among the nations, but finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

Lamentations 1:4 The roads to Zion mourn, for none come to the appointed feasts; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her maidens have been dragged away, and she herself suffers bitterly.

Lamentations 1:5 Her foes have become the head, her enemies prosper, because the LORD has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe.

Lamentations 1:6 From the daughter of Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like harts that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

Lamentations 1:7 Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and bitterness all the precious things that were hers from days of old. When her people fell into the hand of the foe, and there was none to help her, the foe gloated over her, mocking at her downfall.

Lamentations 1:8 Jerusalem sinned grievously, therefore she became filthy; all who honored her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness; yea, she herself groans, and turns her face away.

Lamentations 1:9 Her uncleanness was in her skirts; she took no thought of her doom; therefore her fall is terrible, she has no comforter. “O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!”

Lamentations 1:10 The enemy has stretched out his hands over all her precious things; yea, she has seen the nations invade her sanctuary, those whom thou didst forbid to enter thy congregation.

Lamentations 1:11 All her people groan as they search for bread; they trade their treasures for food to revive their strength. “Look, O LORD, and behold, for I am despised.”

Lamentations 1:12 “Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow which was brought upon me, which the LORD inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.

Lamentations 1:13 “From on high he sent fire; into my bones he made it descend; he spread a net for my feet; he turned me back; he has left me stunned, faint all the day long.

Lamentations 1:14 “My transgressions were bound into a yoke; by his hand they were fastened together; they were set upon my neck; he caused my strength to fail; the Lord gave me into the hands of those whom I cannot withstand.

Lamentations 1:15 “The LORD flouted all my mighty men in the midst of me; he summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men; the Lord has trodden as in a wine press the virgin daughter of Judah.

Lamentations 1:16 “For these things I weep; my eyes flow with tears; for a comforter is far from me, one to revive my courage; my children are desolate, for the enemy has prevailed.”

Lamentations 1:17 Zion stretches out her hands, but there is none to comfort her; the LORD has commanded against Jacob that his neighbors should be his foes; Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

Lamentations 1:18 “The LORD is in the right, for I have rebelled against his word; but hear, all you peoples, and behold my suffering; my maidens and my young men have gone into captivity.

Lamentations 1:19 “I called to my lovers but they deceived me; my priests and elders perished in the city, while they sought food to revive their strength.

Lamentations 1:20 “Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress, my soul is in tumult, my heart is wrung within me, because I have been very rebellious. In the street the sword bereaves; in the house it is like death.

Lamentations 1:21 “Hear how I groan; there is none to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it. Bring thou the day thou hast announced, and let them be as I am.

Lamentations 1:22 “Let all their evil doing come before thee; and deal with them as thou hast dealt with me because of all my transgressions; for my groans are many and my heart is faint.”

Lamentations 2:1 How the Lord in his anger has set the daughter of Zion under a cloud! He has cast down from heaven to earth the splendor of Israel; he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

Lamentations 2:2 The Lord has destroyed without mercy all the habitations of Jacob; in his wrath he has broken down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; he has brought down to the ground in dishonor the kingdom and its rulers.

Lamentations 2:3 He has cut down in fierce anger all the might of Israel; he has withdrawn from them his right hand in the face of the enemy; he has burned like a flaming fire in Jacob, consuming all around.

Lamentations 2:4 He has bent his bow like an enemy, with his right hand set like a foe; and he has slain all the pride of our eyes in the tent of the daughter of Zion; he has poured out his fury like fire.

Lamentations 2:5 The Lord has become like an enemy, he has destroyed Israel; he has destroyed all its palaces, laid in ruins its strongholds; and he has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

Lamentations 2:6 He has broken down his booth like that of a garden, laid in ruins the place of his appointed feasts; the LORD has brought to an end in Zion appointed feast and sabbath, and in his fierce indignation has spurned king and priest.

Lamentations 2:7 The Lord has scorned his altar, disowned his sanctuary; he has delivered into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; a clamor was raised in the house of the LORD as on the day of an appointed feast.

Lamentations 2:8 The LORD determined to lay in ruins the wall of the daughter of Zion; he marked it off by the line; he restrained not his hand from destroying; he caused rampart and wall to lament, they languish together.

Lamentations 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; he has ruined and broken her bars; her king and princes are among the nations; the law is no more, and her prophets obtain no vision from the LORD.

Lamentations 2:10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence; they have cast dust on their heads and put on sackcloth; the maidens of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

Lamentations 2:11 My eyes are spent with weeping; my soul is in tumult; my heart is poured out in grief because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because infants and babes faint in the streets of the city.

Lamentations 2:12 They cry to their mothers, “Where is bread and wine?” as they faint like wounded men in the streets of the city, as their life is poured out on their mothers’ bosom.

Lamentations 2:13 What can I say for you, to what compare you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What can I liken to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For vast as the sea is your ruin; who can restore you?

Lamentations 2:14 Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive visions; they have not exposed your iniquity to restore your fortunes, but have seen for you oracles false and misleading.

Lamentations 2:15 All who pass along the way clap their hands at you; they hiss and wag their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem; “Is this the city which was called the perfection of beauty, the joy of all the earth?”

Lamentations 2:16 All your enemies rail against you; they hiss, they gnash their teeth, they cry: “We have destroyed her! Ah, this is the day we longed for; now we have it; we see it!”

Lamentations 2:17 The LORD has done what he purposed, has carried out his threat; as he ordained long ago, he has demolished without pity; he has made the enemy rejoice over you, and exalted the might of your foes.

Lamentations 2:18 Cry aloud to the Lord! O daughter of Zion! Let tears stream down like a torrent day and night! Give yourself no rest, your eyes no respite!

Lamentations 2:19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches! Pour out your heart like water before the presence of the Lord! Lift your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

Lamentations 2:20 Look, O LORD, and see! With whom hast thou dealt thus? Should women eat their offspring, the children of their tender care? Should priest and prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

Lamentations 2:21 In the dust of the streets lie the young and the old; my maidens and my young men have fallen by the sword; in the day of thy anger thou hast slain them, slaughtering without mercy.

Lamentations 2:22 Thou didst invite as to the day of an appointed feast my terrors on every side; and on the day of the anger of the LORD none escaped or survived; those whom I dandled and reared my enemy destroyed.

Lamentations 3:1 I am the man who has seen affliction under the rod of his wrath;

Lamentations 3:2 he has driven and brought me into darkness without any light;

Lamentations 3:3 surely against me he turns his hand again and again the whole day long.

Lamentations 3:4 He has made my flesh and my skin waste away, and broken my bones;

Lamentations 3:5 he has besieged and enveloped me with bitterness and tribulation;

Lamentations 3:6 he has made me dwell in darkness like the dead of long ago.

Lamentations 3:7 He has walled me about so that I cannot escape; he has put heavy chains on me;

Lamentations 3:8 though I call and cry for help, he shuts out my prayer;

Lamentations 3:9 he has blocked my ways with hewn stones, he has made my paths crooked.

Lamentations 3:10 He is to me like a bear lying in wait, like a lion in hiding;

Lamentations 3:11 he led me off my way and tore me to pieces; he has made me desolate;

Lamentations 3:12 he bent his bow and set me as a mark for his arrow.

Lamentations 3:13 He drove into my heart the arrows of his quiver;

Lamentations 3:14 I have become the laughingstock of all peoples, the burden of their songs all day long.

Lamentations 3:15 He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.

Lamentations 3:16 He has made my teeth grind on gravel, and made me cower in ashes;

Lamentations 3:17 my soul is bereft of peace, I have forgotten what happiness is;

Lamentations 3:18 so I say, “Gone is my glory, and my expectation from the LORD.”

Lamentations 3:19 Remember my affliction and my bitterness, the wormwood and the gall!

Lamentations 3:20 My soul continually thinks of it and is bowed down within me.

Lamentations 3:21 But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:

Lamentations 3:22 The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end;

Lamentations 3:23 they are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness.

Lamentations 3:24 “The LORD is my portion,” says my soul, “therefore I will hope in him.”

Lamentations 3:25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

Lamentations 3:26 It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

Lamentations 3:27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

Lamentations 3:28 Let him sit alone in silence when he has laid it on him;

Lamentations 3:29 let him put his mouth in the dust—there may yet be hope;

Lamentations 3:30 let him give his cheek to the smiter, and be filled with insults.

Lamentations 3:31 For the Lord will not cast off for ever,

Lamentations 3:32 but, though he cause grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love;

Lamentations 3:33 for he does not willingly afflict or grieve the sons of men.

Lamentations 3:34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,

Lamentations 3:35 to turn aside the right of a man in the presence of the Most High,

Lamentations 3:36 to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord does not approve.

Lamentations 3:37 Who has commanded and it came to pass, unless the Lord has ordained it?

Lamentations 3:38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that good and evil come?

Lamentations 3:39 Why should a living man complain, a man, about the punishment of his sins?

Lamentations 3:40 Let us test and examine our ways, and return to the LORD!

Lamentations 3:41 Let us lift up our hearts and hands to God in heaven:

Lamentations 3:42 “We have transgressed and rebelled, and thou hast not forgiven.

Lamentations 3:43 “Thou hast wrapped thyself with anger and pursued us, slaying without pity;

Lamentations 3:44 thou hast wrapped thyself with a cloud so that no prayer can pass through.

Lamentations 3:45 Thou hast made us offscouring and refuse among the peoples.

Lamentations 3:46 “All our enemies rail against us;

Lamentations 3:47 panic and pitfall have come upon us, devastation and destruction;

Lamentations 3:48 my eyes flow with rivers of tears because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.

Lamentations 3:49 “My eyes will flow without ceasing, without respite,

Lamentations 3:50 until the LORD from heaven looks down and sees;

Lamentations 3:51 my eyes cause me grief at the fate of all the maidens of my city.

Lamentations 3:52 “I have been hunted like a bird by those who were my enemies without cause;

Lamentations 3:53 they flung me alive into the pit and cast stones on me;

Lamentations 3:54 water closed over my head; I said, `I am lost.’

Lamentations 3:55 “I called on thy name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit;

Lamentations 3:56 thou didst hear my plea, `Do not close thine ear to my cry for help!’

Lamentations 3:57 Thou didst come near when I called on thee; thou didst say, `Do not fear!’

Lamentations 3:58 “Thou hast taken up my cause, O Lord, thou hast redeemed my life.

Lamentations 3:59 Thou hast seen the wrong done to me, O LORD; judge thou my cause.

Lamentations 3:60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance, all their devices against me.

Lamentations 3:61 “Thou hast heard their taunts, O LORD, all their devices against me.

Lamentations 3:62 The lips and thoughts of my assailants are against me all the day long.

Lamentations 3:63 Behold their sitting and their rising; I am the burden of their songs.

Lamentations 3:64 “Thou wilt requite them, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

Lamentations 3:65 Thou wilt give them dullness of heart; thy curse will be on them.

Lamentations 3:66 Thou wilt pursue them in anger and destroy them from under thy heavens, O LORD.”

Lamentations 4:1 How the gold has grown dim, how the pure gold is changed! The holy stones lie scattered at the head of every street.

Lamentations 4:2 The precious sons of Zion, worth their weight in fine gold, how they are reckoned as earthen pots, the work of a potter’s hands!

Lamentations 4:3 Even the jackals give the breast and suckle their young, but the daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

Lamentations 4:4 The tongue of the nursling cleaves to the roof of its mouth for thirst; the children beg for food, but no one gives to them.

Lamentations 4:5 Those who feasted on dainties perish in the streets; those who were brought up in purple lie on ash heaps.

Lamentations 4:6 For the chastisement of the daughter of my people has been greater than the punishment of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, no hand being laid on it.

Lamentations 4:7 Her princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk; their bodies were more ruddy than coral, the beauty of their form was like sapphire.

Lamentations 4:8 Now their visage is blacker than soot, they are not recognized in the streets; their skin has shriveled upon their bones, it has become as dry as wood.

Lamentations 4:9 Happier were the victims of the sword than the victims of hunger, who pined away, stricken by want of the fruits of the field.

Lamentations 4:10 The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children; they became their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

Lamentations 4:11 The LORD gave full vent to his wrath, he poured out his hot anger; and he kindled a fire in Zion, which consumed its foundations.

Lamentations 4:12 The kings of the earth did not believe, or any of the inhabitants of the world, that foe or enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem.

Lamentations 4:13 This was for the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed in the midst of her the blood of the righteous.

Lamentations 4:14 They wandered, blind, through the streets, so defiled with blood that none could touch their garments.

Lamentations 4:15 “Away! Unclean!” men cried at them; “Away! Away! Touch not!” So they became fugitives and wanderers; men said among the nations, “They shall stay with us no longer.”

Lamentations 4:16 The LORD himself has scattered them, he will regard them no more; no honor was shown to the priests, no favor to the elders.

Lamentations 4:17 Our eyes failed, ever watching vainly for help; in our watching we watched for a nation which could not save.

Lamentations 4:18 Men dogged our steps so that we could not walk in our streets; our end drew near; our days were numbered; for our end had come.

Lamentations 4:19 Our pursuers were swifter than the vultures in the heavens; they chased us on the mountains, they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

Lamentations 4:20 The breath of our nostrils, the LORD’s anointed, was taken in their pits, he of whom we said, “Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.”

Lamentations 4:21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, dweller in the land of Uz; but to you also the cup shall pass; you shall become drunk and strip yourself bare.

Lamentations 4:22 The punishment of your iniquity, O daughter of Zion, is accomplished, he will keep you in exile no longer; but your iniquity, O daughter of Edom, he will punish, he will uncover your sins.

Lamentations 5:1 Remember, O LORD, what has befallen us; behold, and see our disgrace!

Lamentations 5:2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our homes to aliens.

Lamentations 5:3 We have become orphans, fatherless; our mothers are like widows.

Lamentations 5:4 We must pay for the water we drink, the wood we get must be bought.

Lamentations 5:5 With a yoke on our necks we are hard driven; we are weary, we are given no rest.

Lamentations 5:6 We have given the hand to Egypt, and to Assyria, to get bread enough.

Lamentations 5:7 Our fathers sinned, and are no more; and we bear their iniquities.

Lamentations 5:8 Slaves rule over us; there is none to deliver us from their hand.

Lamentations 5:9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword in the wilderness.

Lamentations 5:10 Our skin is hot as an oven with the burning heat of famine.

Lamentations 5:11 Women are ravished in Zion, virgins in the towns of Judah.

Lamentations 5:12 Princes are hung up by their hands; no respect is shown to the elders.

Lamentations 5:13 Young men are compelled to grind at the mill; and boys stagger under loads of wood.

Lamentations 5:14 The old men have quit the city gate, the young men their music.

Lamentations 5:15 The joy of our hearts has ceased; our dancing has been turned to mourning.

Lamentations 5:16 The crown has fallen from our head; woe to us, for we have sinned!

Lamentations 5:17 For this our heart has become sick, for these things our eyes have grown dim, Lamentations 5:18 for Mount Zion which lies desolate; jackals prowl over it.

Lamentations 5:19 But thou, O LORD, dost reign for ever; thy throne endures to all generations.

Lamentations 5:20 Why dost thou forget us for ever, why dost thou so long forsake us?

Lamentations 5:21 Restore us to thyself, O LORD, that we may be restored! Renew our days as of old!

Lamentations 5:22 Or hast thou utterly rejected us? Art thou exceedingly angry with us?

Ezekiel

1:1 In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the exiles by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

Ezekiel 1:2 On the fifth day of the month (it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin), Ezekiel 1:3 the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was upon him there.

Ezekiel 1:4 As I looked, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, and a great cloud, with brightness round about it, and fire flashing forth continually, and in the midst of the fire, as it were gleaming bronze.

Ezekiel 1:5 And from the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the form of men,

Ezekiel 1:6 but each had four faces, and each of them had four wings.

Ezekiel 1:7 Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze.

Ezekiel 1:8 Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. And the four had their faces and their wings thus:

Ezekiel 1:9 their wings touched one another; they went every one straight forward, without turning as they went.

Ezekiel 1:10 As for the likeness of their faces, each had the face of a man in front; the four had the face of a lion on the right side, the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and the four had the face of an eagle at the back.

Ezekiel 1:11 Such were their faces. And their wings were spread out above; each creature had two wings, each of which touched the wing of another, while two covered their bodies.

Ezekiel 1:12 And each went straight forward; wherever the spirit would go, they went, without turning as they went.

Ezekiel 1:13 In the midst of the living creatures there was something that looked like burning coals of fire, like torches moving to and fro among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

Ezekiel 1:14 And the living creatures darted to and fro, like a flash of lightning.

Ezekiel 1:15 Now as I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel upon the earth beside the living creatures, one for each of the four of them.

Ezekiel 1:16 As for the appearance of the wheels and their construction: their appearance was like the gleaming of a chrysolite; and the four had the same likeness, their construction being as it were a wheel within a wheel.

Ezekiel 1:17 When they went, they went in any of their four directions without turning as they went.

Ezekiel 1:18 The four wheels had rims and they had spokes; and their rims were full of eyes round about.

Ezekiel 1:19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose.

Ezekiel 1:20 Wherever the spirit would go, they went, and the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 1:21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those rose from the earth, the wheels rose along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 1:22 Over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of a firmament, shining like crystal, spread out above their heads.

Ezekiel 1:23 And under the firmament their wings were stretched out straight, one toward another; and each creature had two wings covering its body.

Ezekiel 1:24 And when they went, I heard the sound of their wings like the sound of many waters, like the thunder of the Almighty, a sound of tumult like the sound of a host; when they stood still, they let down their wings.

Ezekiel 1:25 And there came a voice from above the firmament over their heads; when they stood still, they let down their wings.

Ezekiel 1:26 And above the firmament over their heads there was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like sapphire; and seated above the likeness of a throne was a likeness as it were of a human form.

Ezekiel 1:27 And upward from what had the appearance of his loins I saw as it were gleaming bronze, like the appearance of fire enclosed round about; and downward from what had the appearance of his loins I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness round about him.

Ezekiel 1:28 Like the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud on the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. Such was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard the voice of one speaking.

Ezekiel 2:1 And he said to me, “Son of man, stand upon your feet, and I will speak with you.”

Ezekiel 2:2 And when he spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me upon my feet; and I heard him speaking to me.

Ezekiel 2:3 And he said to me, “Son of man, I send you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels, who have rebelled against me; they and their fathers have transgressed against me to this very day.

Ezekiel 2:4 The people also are impudent and stubborn: I send you to them; and you shall say to them, `Thus says the Lord GOD.’

Ezekiel 2:5 And whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house) they will know that there has been a prophet among them.

Ezekiel 2:6 And you, son of man, be not afraid of them, nor be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you and you sit upon scorpions; be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 2:7 And you shall speak my words to them, whether they hear or refuse to hear; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 2:8 "But you, son of man, hear what I say to you; be not rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth, and eat what I give you."

Ezekiel 2:9 And when I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me, and, lo, a written scroll was in it;

Ezekiel 2:10 and he spread it before me; and it had writing on the front and on the back, and there were written on it words of lamentation and mourning and woe.

Ezekiel 3:1 And he said to me, "Son of man, eat what is offered to you; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."

Ezekiel 3:2 So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

Ezekiel 3:3 And he said to me, "Son of man, eat this scroll that I give you and fill your stomach with it." Then I ate it; and it was in my mouth as sweet as honey.

Ezekiel 3:4 And he said to me, "Son of man, go, get you to the house of Israel, and speak with my words to them.

Ezekiel 3:5 For you are not sent to a people of foreign speech and a hard language, but to the house of Israel —

Ezekiel 3:6 not to many peoples of foreign speech and a hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to such, they would listen to you.

Ezekiel 3:7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they are not willing to listen to me; because all the house of Israel are of a hard forehead and of a stubborn heart.

Ezekiel 3:8 Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads.

Ezekiel 3:9 Like adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead; fear them not, nor be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house."

Ezekiel 3:10 Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears.

Ezekiel 3:11 And go, get you to the exiles, to your people, and say to them, `Thus says the Lord GOD'; whether they hear or refuse to hear."

Ezekiel 3:12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and as the glory of the LORD arose from its place, I heard behind me the sound of a great earthquake;

Ezekiel 3:13 it was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them, that sounded like a great earthquake.

Ezekiel 3:14 The Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness in the heat of my spirit, the hand of the LORD being strong upon me;

Ezekiel 3:15 and I came to the exiles at Telabib, who dwelt by the river Chebar. And I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.

Ezekiel 3:16 And at the end of seven days, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 3:17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me.

Ezekiel 3:18 If I say to the wicked, `You shall surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, in order to save his life, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.

Ezekiel 3:19 But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, or from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you will have saved your life.

Ezekiel 3:20 Again, if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die; because you have not warned him, he shall die for his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand.

Ezekiel 3:21 Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man not to sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you will have saved your life."

Ezekiel 3:22 And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said to me, "Arise, go forth into the plain, and there I will speak with you."

Ezekiel 3:23 So I arose and went forth into the plain; and, lo, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.

Ezekiel 3:24 But the Spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet; and he spoke with me and said to me, "Go, shut yourself within your house.

Ezekiel 3:25 And you, O son of man, behold, cords will be placed upon you, and you shall be bound with them, so that you cannot go out among the people;

Ezekiel 3:26 and I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be dumb and unable to reprove them; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 3:27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, `Thus says the Lord GOD'; he that will hear, let him hear; and he that will refuse to hear, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 4:1 "And you, O son of man, take a brick and lay it before you, and portray upon it a city, even Jerusalem;

Ezekiel 4:2 and put siegeworks against it, and build a siege wall against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it round about.

Ezekiel 4:3 And take an iron plate, and place it as an iron wall between you and the city; and set your face toward it, and let it be in a state of siege, and press the siege against it. This is a sign for the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 4:4 "Then lie upon your left side, and I will lay the punishment of the house of Israel upon you; for the number of the days that you lie upon it, you shall bear their punishment.

Ezekiel 4:5 For I assign to you a number of days, three hundred and ninety days, equal to the number of the years of their punishment; so long shall you bear the punishment of the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 4:6 And when you have completed these, you shall lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the punishment of the house of Judah; forty days I assign you, a day for each year.

Ezekiel 4:7 And you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm bared; and you shall prophesy against the city.

Ezekiel 4:8 And, behold, I will put cords upon you, so that you cannot turn from one side to the other, till you have completed the days of your siege.

Ezekiel 4:9 "And you, take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt, and put them into a single vessel, and make bread of them. During the number of days that you lie upon your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat it.

Ezekiel 4:10 And the food which you eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day; once a day you shall eat it.

Ezekiel 4:11 And water you shall drink by measure, the sixth part of a hin; once a day you shall drink.

Ezekiel 4:12 And you shall eat it as a barley cake, baking it in their sight on human dung."

Ezekiel 4:13 And the LORD said, "Thus shall the people of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations whither I will drive them."

Ezekiel 4:14 Then I said, “Ah Lord GOD! behold, I have never defiled myself; from my youth up till now I have never eaten what died of itself or was torn by beasts, nor has foul flesh come into my mouth.”

Ezekiel 4:15 Then he said to me, “See, I will let you have cow’s dung instead of human dung, on which you may prepare your bread.”

Ezekiel 4:16 Moreover he said to me, “Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem; they shall eat bread by weight and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure and in dismay.

Ezekiel 4:17 I will do this that they may lack bread and water, and look at one another in dismay, and waste away under their punishment.

Ezekiel 5:1 “And you, O son of man, take a sharp sword; use it as a barber’s razor and pass it over your head and your beard; then take balances for weighing, and divide the hair.

Ezekiel 5:2 A third part you shall burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are completed; and a third part you shall take and strike with the sword round about the city; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will unsheathe the sword after them.

Ezekiel 5:3 And you shall take from these a small number, and bind them in the skirts of your robe.

Ezekiel 5:4 And of these again you shall take some, and cast them into the fire, and burn them in the fire; from there a fire will come forth into all the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 5:5 Thus says the Lord GOD: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the center of the nations, with countries round about her.

Ezekiel 5:6 And she has wickedly rebelled against my ordinances more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries round about her, by rejecting my ordinances and not walking in my statutes.

Ezekiel 5:7 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you are more turbulent than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes or kept my ordinances, but have acted according to the ordinances of the nations that are round about you;

Ezekiel 5:8 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations.

Ezekiel 5:9 And because of all your abominations I will do with you what I have never yet done, and the like of which I will never do again.

Ezekiel 5:10 Therefore fathers shall eat their sons in the midst of you, and sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you, and any of you who survive I will scatter to all the winds.

Ezekiel 5:11 Wherefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will cut you down; my eye will not spare, and I will have no pity.

Ezekiel 5:12 A third part of you shall die of pestilence and be consumed with famine in the midst of you; a third part shall fall by the sword round about you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds and will unsheathe the sword after them.

Ezekiel 5:13 “Thus shall my anger spend itself, and I will vent my fury upon them and satisfy myself; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my jealousy, when I spend my fury upon them.

Ezekiel 5:14 Moreover I will make you a desolation and an object of reproach among the nations round about you and in the sight of all that pass by.

Ezekiel 5:15 You shall be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and a horror, to the nations round about you, when I execute judgments on you in anger and fury, and with furious chastisements—I, the LORD, have spoken —

Ezekiel 5:16 when I loose against you my deadly arrows of famine, arrows for destruction, which I will loose to destroy you, and when I bring more and more famine upon you, and break your staff of bread.

Ezekiel 5:17 I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will rob you of your children; pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword upon you. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

Ezekiel 6:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 6:2 “Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

Ezekiel 6:3 and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

Ezekiel 6:4 Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain before your idols.

Ezekiel 6:5 And I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

Ezekiel 6:6 Wherever you dwell your cities shall be waste and your high places ruined, so that your altars will be waste and ruined, your idols broken and destroyed, your incense altars cut down, and your works wiped out.

Ezekiel 6:7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 6:8 “Yet I will leave some of you alive. When you have among the nations some who escape the sword, and when you are scattered through the countries, Ezekiel 6:9 then those of you who escape will remember me among the nations where they are carried captive, when I have broken their wanton heart which has departed from me, and blinded their eyes which turn wantonly after their idols; and they will be loathsome in their own sight for the evils which they have committed, for all their abominations.

Ezekiel 6:10 And they shall know that I am the LORD; I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them.”

Ezekiel 6:11 Thus says the Lord GOD: “Clap your hands, and stamp your foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.

Ezekiel 6:12 He that is far off shall die of pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that is left and is preserved shall die of famine. Thus I will spend my fury upon them.

Ezekiel 6:13 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain lie among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, on all the mountain tops, under every green tree, and under every leafy oak, wherever they offered pleasing odor to all their idols.

Ezekiel 6:14 And I will stretch out my hand against them, and make the land desolate and waste, throughout all their habitations, from the wilderness to Riblah. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 7:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 7:2 “And you, O son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.

Ezekiel 7:3 Now the end is upon you, and I will let loose my anger upon you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will punish you for all your abominations.

Ezekiel 7:4 And my eye will not spare you, nor will I have pity; but I will punish you for your ways, while your abominations are in your midst. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 7:5 “Thus says the Lord GOD: Disaster after disaster! Behold, it comes.

Ezekiel 7:6 An end has come, the end has come; it has awakened against you. Behold, it comes.

Ezekiel 7:7 Your doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land; the time has come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting upon the mountains.

Ezekiel 7:8 Now I will soon pour out my wrath upon you, and spend my anger against you, and judge you according to your ways; and I will punish you for all your abominations.

Ezekiel 7:9 And my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity; I will punish you according to your ways, while your abominations are in your midst. Then you will know that I am the LORD, who smite.

Ezekiel 7:10 “Behold, the day! Behold, it comes! Your doom has come, injustice has blossomed, pride has budded.

Ezekiel 7:11 Violence has grown up into a rod of wickedness; none of them shall remain, nor their abundance, nor their wealth; neither shall there be preeminence among them.

Ezekiel 7:12 The time has come, the day draws near. Let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, for wrath is upon all their multitude.

Ezekiel 7:13 For the seller shall not return to what he has sold, while they live. For wrath is upon all their multitude; it shall not turn back; and because of his iniquity, none can maintain his life.

Ezekiel 7:14 “They have blown the trumpet and made all ready; but none goes to battle, for my wrath is upon all their multitude.

Ezekiel 7:15 The sword is without, pestilence and famine are within; he that is in the field dies by the sword; and him that is in the city famine and pestilence devour.

Ezekiel 7:16 And if any survivors escape, they will be on the mountains, like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one over his iniquity.

Ezekiel 7:17 All hands are feeble, and all knees weak as water.

Ezekiel 7:18 They gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror covers them; shame is upon all faces, and baldness on all their heads.

Ezekiel 7:19 They cast their silver into the streets, and their gold is like an unclean thing; their silver and gold are not able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD; they cannot satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it. For it was the stumbling block of their iniquity.

Ezekiel 7:20 Their beautiful ornament they used for vainglory, and they made their abominable images and their detestable things of it; therefore I will make it an unclean thing to them.

Ezekiel 7:21 And I will give it into the hands of foreigners for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it.

Ezekiel 7:22 I will turn my face from them, that they may profane my precious place; robbers shall enter and profane it,

Ezekiel 7:23 and make a desolation. “Because the land is full of bloody crimes and the city is full of violence,

Ezekiel 7:24 I will bring the worst of the nations to take possession of their houses; I will put an end to their proud might, and their holy places shall be profaned.

Ezekiel 7:25 When anguish comes, they will seek peace, but there shall be none.

Ezekiel 7:26 Disaster comes upon disaster, rumor follows rumor; they seek a vision from the prophet, but the law perishes from the priest, and counsel from the elders.

Ezekiel 7:27 The king mourns, the prince is wrapped in despair, and the hands of the people of the land are palsied by terror. According to their way I will do to them, and according to their own judgments I will judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 8:1 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, with the elders of Judah sitting before me, the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me.

Ezekiel 8:2 Then I beheld, and, lo, a form that had the appearance of a man; below what appeared to be his loins it was fire, and above his loins it was like the appearance of brightness, like gleaming bronze.

Ezekiel 8:3 He put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the gateway of the inner court that faces north, where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy.

Ezekiel 8:4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I saw in the plain.

Ezekiel 8:5 Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now in the direction of the north." So I lifted up my eyes toward the north, and behold, north of the altar gate, in the entrance, was this image of jealousy.

Ezekiel 8:6 And he said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel are committing here, to drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see still greater abominations."

Ezekiel 8:7 And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, there was a hole in the wall.

Ezekiel 8:8 Then said he to me, "Son of man, dig in the wall"; and when I dug in the wall, lo, there was a door.

Ezekiel 8:9 And he said to me, "Go in, and see the vile abominations that they are committing here."

Ezekiel 8:10 So I went in and saw; and there, portrayed upon the wall round about, were all kinds of creeping things, and loathsome beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 8:11 And before them stood seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had his censer in his hand, and the smoke of the cloud of incense went up.

Ezekiel 8:12 Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, every man in his room of pictures? For they say, `The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.'"

Ezekiel 8:13 He said also to me, “You will see still greater abominations which they commit.”

Ezekiel 8:14 Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the LORD; and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

Ezekiel 8:15 Then he said to me, “Have you seen this, O son of man? You will see still greater abominations than these.”

Ezekiel 8:16 And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD; and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs to the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east, worshiping the sun toward the east.

Ezekiel 8:17 Then he said to me, “Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it too slight a thing for the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here, that they should fill the land with violence, and provoke me further to anger? Lo, they put the branch to their nose.

Ezekiel 8:18 Therefore I will deal in wrath; my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them.”

Ezekiel 9:1 Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, “Draw near, you executioners of the city, each with his destroying weapon in his hand.”

Ezekiel 9:2 And lo, six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, every man with his weapon for slaughter in his hand, and with them was a man clothed in linen, with a writing case at his side. And they went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

Ezekiel 9:3 Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherubim on which it rested to the threshold of the house; and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writing case at his side.

Ezekiel 9:4 And the LORD said to him, “Go through the city, through Jerusalem, and put a mark upon the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan over all the abominations that are committed in it.”

Ezekiel 9:5 And to the others he said in my hearing, “Pass through the city after him, and smite; your eye shall not spare, and you shall show no pity;

Ezekiel 9:6 slay old men outright, young men and maidens, little children and women, but touch no one upon whom is the mark. And begin at my sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were before the house.

Ezekiel 9:7 Then he said to them, “Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth.” So they went forth, and smote in the city.

Ezekiel 9:8 And while they were smiting, and I was left alone, I fell upon my face, and cried, “Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all that remains of Israel in the outpouring of thy wrath upon Jerusalem?”

Ezekiel 9:9 Then he said to me, “The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of blood, and the city full of injustice; for they say, `The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does not see.’

Ezekiel 9:10 As for me, my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity, but I will requite their deeds upon their heads.”

Ezekiel 9:11 And lo, the man clothed in linen, with the writing case at his side, brought back word, saying, “I have done as thou didst command me.”

Ezekiel 10:1 Then I looked, and behold, on the firmament that was over the heads of the cherubim there appeared above them something like a sapphire, in form resembling a throne.

Ezekiel 10:2 And he said to the man clothed in linen, “Go in among the whirling wheels underneath the cherubim; fill your hands with burning coals from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city.” And he went in before my eyes.

Ezekiel 10:3 Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the house, when the man went in; and a cloud filled the inner court.

Ezekiel 10:4 And the glory of the LORD went up from the cherubim to the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the glory of the LORD.

Ezekiel 10:5 And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

Ezekiel 10:6 And when he commanded the man clothed in linen, “Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim,” he went in and stood beside a wheel.

Ezekiel 10:7 And a cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took some of it, and put it into the hands of the man clothed in linen, who took it and went out.

Ezekiel 10:8 The cherubim appeared to have the form of a human hand under their wings.

Ezekiel 10:9 And I looked, and behold, there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one beside each cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like sparkling chrysolite.

Ezekiel 10:10 And as for their appearance, the four had the same likeness, as if a wheel were within a wheel.

Ezekiel 10:11 When they went, they went in any of their four directions without turning as they went, but in whatever direction the front wheel faced the others followed without turning as they went.

Ezekiel 10:12 And their rims, and their spokes, and the wheels were full of eyes round about—the wheels that the four of them had.

Ezekiel 10:13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing the whirling wheels.

Ezekiel 10:14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

Ezekiel 10:15 And the cherubim mounted up. These were the living creatures that I saw by the river Chebar.

Ezekiel 10:16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels did not turn from beside them.

Ezekiel 10:17 When they stood still, these stood still, and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

Ezekiel 10:18 Then the glory of the LORD went forth from the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim.

Ezekiel 10:19 And the cherubim lifted up their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight as they went forth, with the wheels beside them; and they stood at the door of the east gate of the house of the LORD; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them.

Ezekiel 10:20 These were the living creatures that I saw underneath the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim.

Ezekiel 10:21 Each had four faces, and each four wings, and underneath their wings the semblance of human hands.

Ezekiel 10:22 And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the very faces whose appearance I had seen by the river Chebar. They went every one straight forward.

Ezekiel 11:1 The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of the house of the LORD, which faces east. And behold, at the door of the gateway there were twenty-five men; and I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

Ezekiel 11:2 And he said to me, “Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity and who give wicked counsel in this city;

Ezekiel 11:3 who say, `The time is not near to build houses; this city is the caldron, and we are the flesh.’

Ezekiel 11:4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.”

Ezekiel 11:5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he said to me, “Say, Thus says the LORD: So you think, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind.

Ezekiel 11:6 You have multiplied your slain in this city, and have filled its streets with the slain.

Ezekiel 11:7 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but you shall be brought forth out of the midst of it.

Ezekiel 11:8 You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword upon you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 11:9 And I will bring you forth out of the midst of it, and give you into the hands of foreigners, and execute judgments upon you.

Ezekiel 11:10 You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you at the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 11:11 This city shall not be your caldron, nor shall you be the flesh in the midst of it; I will judge you at the border of Israel;

Ezekiel 11:12 and you shall know that I am the LORD; for you have not walked in my statutes, nor executed my ordinances, but have acted according to the ordinances of the nations that are round about you.”

Ezekiel 11:13 And it came to pass, while I was prophesying, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, “Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?”

Ezekiel 11:14 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 11:15 “Son of man, your brethren, even your brethren, your fellow exiles, the whole house of Israel, all of them, are those of whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, `They have gone far from the LORD; to us this land is given for a possession.’

Ezekiel 11:16 Therefore say, `Thus says the Lord GOD: Though I removed them far off among the nations, and though I scattered them among the countries, yet I have been a sanctuary to them for a while in the countries where they have gone.’

Ezekiel 11:17 Therefore say, `Thus says the Lord GOD: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.’

Ezekiel 11:18 And when they come there, they will remove from it all its detestable things and all its abominations.

Ezekiel 11:19 And I will give them one heart, and put a new spirit within them; I will take the stony heart out of their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, Ezekiel 11:20 that they may walk in my statutes and keep my ordinances and obey them; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 11:21 But as for those whose heart goes after their detestable things and their abominations, I will requite their deeds upon their own heads, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 11:22 Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them.

Ezekiel 11:23 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

Ezekiel 11:24 And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to the exiles. Then the vision that I had seen went up from me.

Ezekiel 11:25 And I told the exiles all the things that the LORD had showed me.

Ezekiel 12:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:2 “Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see, but see not, who have ears to hear, but hear not;

Ezekiel 12:3 for they are a rebellious house. Therefore, son of man, prepare for yourself an exile’s baggage, and go into exile by day in their sight; you shall go like an exile from your place to another place in their sight. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 12:4 You shall bring out your baggage by day in their sight, as baggage for exile; and you shall go forth yourself at evening in their sight, as men do who must go into exile.

Ezekiel 12:5 Dig through the wall in their sight, and go out through it.

Ezekiel 12:6 In their sight you shall lift the baggage upon your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark; you shall cover your face, that you may not see the land; for I have made you a sign for the house of Israel.”

Ezekiel 12:7 And I did as I was commanded. I brought out my baggage by day, as baggage for exile, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my own hands; I went forth in the dark, carrying my outfit upon my shoulder in their sight.

Ezekiel 12:8 In the morning the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:9 “Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, `What are you doing?’

Ezekiel 12:10 Say to them, `Thus says the Lord GOD: This oracle concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are in it.’

Ezekiel 12:11 Say, `I am a sign for you: as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity.'

Ezekiel 12:12 And the prince who is among them shall lift his baggage upon his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth; he shall dig through the wall and go out through it; he shall cover his face, that he may not see the land with his eyes.

Ezekiel 12:13 And I will spread my net over him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon in the land of the Chaldeans, yet he shall not see it; and he shall die there.

Ezekiel 12:14 And I will scatter toward every wind all who are round about him, his helpers and all his troops; and I will unsheathe the sword after them.

Ezekiel 12:15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries.

Ezekiel 12:16 But I will let a few of them escape from the sword, from famine and pestilence, that they may confess all their abominations among the nations where they go, and may know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 12:17 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:18 "Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink water with trembling and with fearfulness;

Ezekiel 12:19 and say of the people of the land, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem in the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink water in dismay, because their land will be stripped of all it contains, on account of the violence of all those who dwell in it.

Ezekiel 12:20 And the inhabited cities shall be laid waste, and the land shall become a desolation; and you shall know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 12:21 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:22 "Son of man, what is this proverb that you have about the land of Israel, saying, `The days grow long, and every vision comes to nought'?

Ezekiel 12:23 Tell them therefore, `Thus says the Lord GOD: I will put an end to this proverb, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel.' But say to them, The days are at hand, and the fulfilment of every vision.

Ezekiel 12:24 For there shall be no more any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 12:25 But I the LORD will speak the word which I will speak, and it will be performed. It will no longer be delayed, but in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word and perform it, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 12:26 Again the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:27 “Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, `The vision that he sees is for many days hence, and he prophesies of times far off.’

Ezekiel 12:28 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: None of my words will be delayed any longer, but the word which I speak will be performed, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 13:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 13:2 “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel, prophesy and say to those who prophesy out of their own minds: `Hear the word of the LORD!’

Ezekiel 13:3 Thus says the Lord GOD, Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!

Ezekiel 13:4 Your prophets have been like foxes among ruins, O Israel.

Ezekiel 13:5 You have not gone up into the breaches, or built up a wall for the house of Israel, that it might stand in battle in the day of the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:6 They have spoken falsehood and divined a lie; they say, `Says the LORD,’ when the LORD has not sent them, and yet they expect him to fulfil their word.

Ezekiel 13:7 Have you not seen a delusive vision, and uttered a lying divination, whenever you have said, `Says the LORD,’ although I have not spoken?”

Ezekiel 13:8 Therefore thus says the Lord God: “Because you have uttered delusions and seen lies, therefore behold, I am against you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 13:9 My hand will be against the prophets who see delusive visions and who give lying divinations; they shall not be in the council of my people, nor be enrolled in the register of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 13:10 Because, yea, because they have misled my people, saying, `Peace,’ when there is no peace; and because, when the people build a wall, these prophets daub it with whitewash;

Ezekiel 13:11 say to those who daub it with whitewash that it shall fall! There will be a deluge of rain, great hailstones will fall, and a stormy wind break out;

Ezekiel 13:12 and when the wall falls, will it not be said to you, `Where is the daubing with which you daubed it?’

Ezekiel 13:13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will make a stormy wind break out in my wrath; and there shall be a deluge of rain in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to destroy it.

Ezekiel 13:14 And I will break down the wall that you have daubed with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be laid bare; when it falls, you shall perish in the midst of it; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:15 Thus will I spend my wrath upon the wall, and upon those who have daubed it with whitewash; and I will say to you, The wall is no more, nor those who daubed it,

Ezekiel 13:16 the prophets of Israel who prophesied concerning Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her, when there was no peace, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 13:17 "And you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own minds; prophesy against them

Ezekiel 13:18 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the women who sew magic bands upon all wrists, and make veils for the heads of persons of every stature, in the hunt for souls! Will you hunt down souls belonging to my people, and keep other souls alive for your profit?

Ezekiel 13:19 You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, putting to death persons who should not die and keeping alive persons who should not live, by your lies to my people, who listen to lies.

Ezekiel 13:20 "Wherefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against your magic bands with which you hunt the souls, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls that you hunt go free like birds.

Ezekiel 13:21 Your veils also I will tear off, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand as prey; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:22 Because you have disheartened the righteous falsely, although I have not disheartened him, and you have encouraged the wicked, that he should not turn from his wicked way to save his life;

Ezekiel 13:23 therefore you shall no more see delusive visions nor practice divination; I will deliver my people out of your hand. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 14:1 Then came certain of the elders of Israel to me; and sat before me.

Ezekiel 14:2 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 14:3 "Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their hearts, and set the stumbling block of their iniquity before their faces; should I let myself be inquired of at all by them?

Ezekiel 14:4 Therefore speak to them, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Any man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart and sets the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and yet comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him myself because of the multitude of his idols,

Ezekiel 14:5 that I may lay hold of the hearts of the house of Israel, who are all estranged from me through their idols.

Ezekiel 14:6 “Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Repent and turn away from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

Ezekiel 14:7 For any one of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, who separates himself from me, taking his idols into his heart and putting the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and yet comes to a prophet to inquire for himself of me, I the LORD will answer him myself;

Ezekiel 14:8 and I will set my face against that man, I will make him a sign and a byword and cut him off from the midst of my people; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 14:9 And if the prophet be deceived and speak a word, I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

Ezekiel 14:10 And they shall bear their punishment—the punishment of the prophet and the punishment of the inquirer shall be alike —

Ezekiel 14:11 that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, nor defile themselves any more with all their transgressions, but that they may be my people and I may be their God, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 14:12 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 14:13 “Son of man, when a land sins against me by acting faithlessly, and I stretch out my hand against it, and break its staff of bread and send famine upon it, and cut off from it man and beast,

Ezekiel 14:14 even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver but their own lives by their righteousness, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 14:15 If I cause wild beasts to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the beasts;

Ezekiel 14:16 even if these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would deliver neither sons nor daughters; they alone would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

Ezekiel 14:17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Let a sword go through the land; and I cut off from it man and beast;

Ezekiel 14:18 though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they alone would be delivered.

Ezekiel 14:19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath upon it with blood, to cut off from it man and beast;

Ezekiel 14:20 even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver but their own lives by their righteousness.

Ezekiel 14:21 “For thus says the Lord GOD: How much more when I send upon Jerusalem my four sore acts of judgment, sword, famine, evil beasts, and pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast!

Ezekiel 14:22 Yet, if there should be left in it any survivors to lead out sons and daughters, when they come forth to you, and you see their ways and their doings, you will be consoled for the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, for all that I have brought upon it.

Ezekiel 14:23 They will console you, when you see their ways and their doings; and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 15:1 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 15:2 “Son of man, how does the wood of the vine surpass any wood, the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest?

Ezekiel 15:3 Is wood taken from it to make anything? Do men take a peg from it to hang any vessel on?

Ezekiel 15:4 Lo, it is given to the fire for fuel; when the fire has consumed both ends of it, and the middle of it is charred, is it useful for anything?

Ezekiel 15:5 Behold, when it was whole, it was used for nothing; how much less, when the fire has consumed it and it is charred, can it ever be used for anything!

Ezekiel 15:6 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 15:7 And I will set my face against them; though they escape from the fire, the fire shall yet consume them; and you will know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

Ezekiel 15:8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have acted faithlessly, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 16:1 Again the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 16:2 “Son of man, make known to Jerusalem her abominations, Ezekiel 16:3 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth are of the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite, and your mother a Hittite.

Ezekiel 16:4 And as for your birth, on the day you were born your navel string was not cut, nor were you washed with water to cleanse you, nor rubbed with salt, nor swathed with bands.

Ezekiel 16:5 No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you out of compassion for you; but you were cast out on the open field, for you were abhorred, on the day that you were born.

Ezekiel 16:6 "And when I passed by you, and saw you weltering in your blood, I said to you in your blood, `Live,

Ezekiel 16:7 and grow up like a plant of the field.' And you grew up and became tall and arrived at full maidenhood; your breasts were formed, and your hair had grown; yet you were naked and bare.

Ezekiel 16:8 "When I passed by you again and looked upon you, behold, you were at the age for love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yea, I plighted my troth to you and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord GOD, and you became mine.

Ezekiel 16:9 Then I bathed you with water and washed off your blood from you, and anointed you with oil.

Ezekiel 16:10 I clothed you also with embroidered cloth and shod you with leather, I swathed you in fine linen and covered you with silk.

Ezekiel 16:11 And I decked you with ornaments, and put bracelets on your arms, and a chain on your neck.

Ezekiel 16:12 And I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head.

Ezekiel 16:13 Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered cloth; you ate fine flour and honey and oil. You grew exceedingly beautiful, and came to regal estate.

Ezekiel 16:14 And your renown went forth among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through the splendor which I had bestowed upon you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 16:15 "But you trusted in your beauty, and played the harlot because of your renown, and lavished your harlotries on any passer-by.

Ezekiel 16:16 You took some of your garments, and made for yourself gaily decked shrines, and on them played the harlot; the like has never been, nor ever shall be.

Ezekiel 16:17 You also took your fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and with them played the harlot;

Ezekiel 16:18 and you took your embroidered garments to cover them, and set my oil and my incense before them.

Ezekiel 16:19 Also my bread which I gave you—I fed you with fine flour and oil and honey—you set before them for a pleasing odor, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 16:20 And you took your sons and your daughters, whom you had borne to me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your harlotries so small a matter

Ezekiel 16:21 that you slaughtered my children and delivered them up as an offering by fire to them?

Ezekiel 16:22 And in all your abominations and your harlotries you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, weltering in your blood.

Ezekiel 16:23 “And after all your wickedness (woe, woe to you! says the Lord GOD),

Ezekiel 16:24 you built yourself a vaulted chamber, and made yourself a lofty place in every square;

Ezekiel 16:25 at the head of every street you built your lofty place and prostituted your beauty, offering yourself to any passer-by, and multiplying your harlotry.

Ezekiel 16:26 You also played the harlot with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, multiplying your harlotry, to provoke me to anger.

Ezekiel 16:27 Behold, therefore, I stretched out my hand against you, and diminished your allotted portion, and delivered you to the greed of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd behavior.

Ezekiel 16:28 You played the harlot also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yea, you played the harlot with them, and still you were not satisfied.

Ezekiel 16:29 You multiplied your harlotry also with the trading land of Chaldea; and even with this you were not satisfied.

Ezekiel 16:30 “How lovesick is your heart, says the Lord GOD, seeing you did all these things, the deeds of a brazen harlot;

Ezekiel 16:31 building your vaulted chamber at the head of every street, and making your lofty place in every square. Yet you were not like a harlot, because you scorned hire.

Ezekiel 16:32 Adulterous wife, who receives strangers instead of her husband!

Ezekiel 16:33 Men give gifts to all harlots; but you gave your gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from every side for your harlotries.

Ezekiel 16:34 So you were different from other women in your harlotries: none solicited you to play the harlot; and you gave hire, while no hire was given to you; therefore you were different.

Ezekiel 16:35 “Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD:

Ezekiel 16:36 Thus says the Lord GOD, Because your shame was laid bare and your nakedness uncovered in your harlotries with your lovers, and because of all your idols, and because of the blood of your children that you gave to them,

Ezekiel 16:37 therefore, behold, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved and all those you loathed; I will gather them against you from every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness.

Ezekiel 16:38 And I will judge you as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged, and bring upon you the blood of wrath and jealousy.

Ezekiel 16:39 And I will give you into the hand of your lovers, and they shall throw down your vaulted chamber and break down your lofty places; they shall strip you of your clothes and take your fair jewels, and leave you naked and bare.

Ezekiel 16:40 They shall bring up a host against you, and they shall stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords.

Ezekiel 16:41 And they shall burn your houses and execute judgments upon you in the sight of many women; I will make you stop playing the harlot, and you shall also give hire no more.

Ezekiel 16:42 So will I satisfy my fury on you, and my jealousy shall depart from you; I will be calm, and will no more be angry.

Ezekiel 16:43 Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have enraged me with all these things; therefore, behold, I will requite your deeds upon your head, says the Lord GOD. “Have you not committed lewdness in addition to all your abominations?

Ezekiel 16:44 Behold, every one who uses proverbs will use this proverb about you, `Like mother, like daughter.’

Ezekiel 16:45 You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

Ezekiel 16:46 And your elder sister is Samaria, who lived with her daughters to the north of you; and your younger sister, who lived to the south of you, is Sodom with her daughters.

Ezekiel 16:47 Yet you were not content to walk in their ways, or do according to their abominations; within a very little time you were more corrupt than they in all your ways.

Ezekiel 16:48 As I live, says the Lord GOD, your sister Sodom and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done.

Ezekiel 16:49 Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, surfeit of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy.

Ezekiel 16:50 They were haughty, and did abominable things before me; therefore I removed them, when I saw it.

Ezekiel 16:51 Samaria has not committed half your sins; you have committed more abominations than they, and have made your sisters appear righteous by all the abominations which you have committed.

Ezekiel 16:52 Bear your disgrace, you also, for you have made judgment favorable to your sisters; because of your sins in which you acted more abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. So be ashamed, you also, and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

Ezekiel 16:53 "I will restore their fortunes, both the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters, and I will restore your own fortunes in the midst of them,

Ezekiel 16:54 that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all that you have done, becoming a consolation to them.

Ezekiel 16:55 As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate.

Ezekiel 16:56 Was not your sister Sodom a byword in your mouth in the day of your pride,

Ezekiel 16:57 before your wickedness was uncovered? Now you have become like her an object of reproach for the daughters of Edom and all her neighbors, and for the daughters of the Philistines, those round about who despise you.

Ezekiel 16:58 You bear the penalty of your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD.

Ezekiel 16:59 "Yea, thus says the Lord GOD: I will deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant,

Ezekiel 16:60 yet I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish with you an everlasting covenant.

Ezekiel 16:61 Then you will remember your ways, and be ashamed when I take your sisters, both your elder and your younger, and give them to you as daughters, but not on account of the covenant with you.

Ezekiel 16:62 I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the LORD, Ezekiel 16:63 that you may remember and be confounded, and never open your mouth again because of your shame, when I forgive you all that you have done, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 17:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 17:2 “Son of man, propound a riddle, and speak an allegory to the house of Israel;

Ezekiel 17:3 say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A great eagle with great wings and long pinions, rich in plumage of many colors, came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar;

Ezekiel 17:4 he broke off the topmost of its young twigs and carried it to a land of trade, and set it in a city of merchants.

Ezekiel 17:5 Then he took of the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil; he placed it beside abundant waters. He set it like a willow twig,

Ezekiel 17:6 and it sprouted and became a low spreading vine, and its branches turned toward him, and its roots remained where it stood. So it became a vine, and brought forth branches and put forth foliage.

Ezekiel 17:7 “But there was another great eagle with great wings and much plumage; and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him that he might water it. From the bed where it was planted

Ezekiel 17:8 he transplanted it to good soil by abundant waters, that it might bring forth branches, and bear fruit, and become a noble vine.

Ezekiel 17:9 Say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots and cut off its branches, so that all its fresh sprouting leaves wither? It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it from its roots.

Ezekiel 17:10 Behold, when it is transplanted, will it thrive? Will it not utterly wither when the east wind strikes it—wither away on the bed where it grew?”

Ezekiel 17:11 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 17:12 “Say now to the rebellious house, Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took her king and her princes and brought them to him to Babylon.

Ezekiel 17:13 And he took one of the seed royal and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. (The chief men of the land he had taken away, Ezekiel 17:14 that the kingdom might be humble and not lift itself up, and that by keeping his covenant it might stand.)

Ezekiel 17:15 But he rebelled against him by sending ambassadors to Egypt, that they might give him horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Can a man escape who does such things? Can he break the covenant and yet escape?

Ezekiel 17:16 As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant with him he broke, in Babylon he shall die.

Ezekiel 17:17 Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in war, when mounds are cast up and siege walls built to cut off many lives.

Ezekiel 17:18 Because he despised the oath and broke the covenant, because he gave his hand and yet did all these things, he shall not escape.

Ezekiel 17:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely my oath which he despised, and my covenant which he broke, I will requite upon his head.

Ezekiel 17:20 I will spread my net over him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon and enter into judgment with him there for the treason he has committed against me.

Ezekiel 17:21 And all the pick of his troops shall fall by the sword, and the survivors shall be scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken."

Ezekiel 17:22 Thus says the Lord GOD: "I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it out; I will break off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I myself will plant it upon a high and lofty mountain;

Ezekiel 17:23 on the mountain height of Israel will I plant it, that it may bring forth boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar; and under it will dwell all kinds of beasts; in the shade of its branches birds of every sort will nest.

Ezekiel 17:24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD bring low the high tree, and make high the low tree, dry up the green tree, and make the dry tree flourish. I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it."

Ezekiel 18:1 The word of the LORD came to me again:

Ezekiel 18:2 "What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, `The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge'?

Ezekiel 18:3 As I live, says the Lord GOD, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel.

Ezekiel 18:4 Behold, all souls are mine; the soul of the father as well as the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sins shall die.

Ezekiel 18:5 "If a man is righteous and does what is lawful and right —

Ezekiel 18:6 if he does not eat upon the mountains or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbor’s wife or approach a woman in her time of impurity,

Ezekiel 18:7 does not oppress any one, but restores to the debtor his pledge, commits no robbery, gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment,

Ezekiel 18:8 does not lend at interest or take any increase, withholds his hand from iniquity, executes true justice between man and man,

Ezekiel 18:9 walks in my statutes, and is careful to observe my ordinances—he is righteous, he shall surely live, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 18:10 “If he begets a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood,

Ezekiel 18:11 who does none of these duties, but eats upon the mountains, defiles his neighbor’s wife,

Ezekiel 18:12 oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, does not restore the pledge, lifts up his eyes to the idols, commits abomination,

Ezekiel 18:13 lends at interest, and takes increase; shall he then live? He shall not live. He has done all these abominable things; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon himself.

Ezekiel 18:14 “But if this man begets a son who sees all the sins which his father has done, and fears, and does not do likewise,

Ezekiel 18:15 who does not eat upon the mountains or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbor’s wife,

Ezekiel 18:16 does not wrong any one, exacts no pledge, commits no robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment,

Ezekiel 18:17 withholds his hand from iniquity, takes no interest or increase, observes my ordinances, and walks in my statutes; he shall not die for his father’s iniquity; he shall surely live.

Ezekiel 18:18 As for his father, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what is not good among his people, behold, he shall die for his iniquity.

Ezekiel 18:19 “Yet you say, `Why should not the son suffer for the iniquity of the father?’ When the son has done what is lawful and right, and has been careful to observe all my statutes, he shall surely live.

Ezekiel 18:20 The soul that sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself.

Ezekiel 18:21 “But if a wicked man turns away from all his sins which he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is lawful and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die.

Ezekiel 18:22 None of the transgressions which he has committed shall be remembered against him; for the righteousness which he has done he shall live.

Ezekiel 18:23 Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, says the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live?

Ezekiel 18:24 But when a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and does the same abominable things that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of the righteous deeds which he has done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which he is guilty and the sin he has committed, he shall die.

Ezekiel 18:25 “Yet you say, `The way of the Lord is not just.’ Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way not just? Is it not your ways that are not just?

Ezekiel 18:26 When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall die for it; for the iniquity which he has committed he shall die.

Ezekiel 18:27 Again, when a wicked man turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is lawful and right, he shall save his life.

Ezekiel 18:28 Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions which he had committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Ezekiel 18:29 Yet the house of Israel says, `The way of the Lord is not just.’ O house of Israel, are my ways not just? Is it not your ways that are not just?

Ezekiel 18:30 “Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin.

Ezekiel 18:31 Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel?

Ezekiel 18:32 For I have no pleasure in the death of any one, says the Lord GOD; so turn, and live.”

Ezekiel 19:1 And you, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

Ezekiel 19:2 and say: What a lioness was your mother among lions! She couched in the midst of young lions, rearing her whelps.

Ezekiel 19:3 And she brought up one of her whelps; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch prey; he devoured men.

Ezekiel 19:4 The nations sounded an alarm against him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 19:5 When she saw that she was baffled, that her hope was lost, she took another of her whelps and made him a young lion.

Ezekiel 19:6 He prowled among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch prey; he devoured men.

Ezekiel 19:7 And he ravaged their strongholds, and laid waste their cities; and the land was appalled and all who were in it at the sound of his roaring.

Ezekiel 19:8 Then the nations set against him snares on every side; they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit.

Ezekiel 19:9 With hooks they put him in a cage, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into custody, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 19:10 Your mother was like a vine in a vineyard transplanted by the water, fruitful and full of branches by reason of abundant water.

Ezekiel 19:11 Its strongest stem became a ruler's scepter; it towered aloft among the thick boughs; it was seen in its height with the mass of its branches.

Ezekiel 19:12 But the vine was plucked up in fury, cast down to the ground; the east wind dried it up; its fruit was stripped off, its strong stem was withered; the fire consumed it.

Ezekiel 19:13 Now it is transplanted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.

Ezekiel 19:14 And fire has gone out from its stem, has consumed its branches and fruit, so that there remains in it no strong stem, no scepter for a ruler. This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

Ezekiel 20:1 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

Ezekiel 20:2 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 20:3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD, Is it to inquire of me that you come? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.

Ezekiel 20:4 Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Then let them know the abominations of their fathers,

Ezekiel 20:5 and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day when I chose Israel, I swore to the seed of the house of Jacob, making myself known to them in the land of Egypt, I swore to them, saying, I am the LORD your God.

Ezekiel 20:6 On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands.

Ezekiel 20:7 And I said to them, Cast away the detestable things your eyes feast on, every one of you, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.

Ezekiel 20:8 But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me; they did not every man cast away the detestable things their eyes feasted on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. “Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them and spend my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:9 But I acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they dwelt, in whose sight I made myself known to them in bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:10 So I led them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

Ezekiel 20:11 I gave them my statutes and showed them my ordinances, by whose observance man shall live.

Ezekiel 20:12 Moreover I gave them my sabbaths, as a sign between me and them, that they might know that I the LORD sanctify them.

Ezekiel 20:13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness; they did not walk in my statutes but rejected my ordinances, by whose observance man shall live; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned. “Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness, to make a full end of them.

Ezekiel 20:14 But I acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:15 Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands,

Ezekiel 20:16 because they rejected my ordinances and did not walk in my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols.

Ezekiel 20:17 Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I did not destroy them or make a full end of them in the wilderness.

Ezekiel 20:18 “And I said to their children in the wilderness, Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols.

Ezekiel 20:19 I the LORD am your God; walk in my statutes, and be careful to observe my ordinances,

Ezekiel 20:20 and hallow my sabbaths that they may be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I the LORD am your God.

Ezekiel 20:21 But the children rebelled against me; they did not walk in my statutes, and were not careful to observe my ordinances, by whose observance man shall live; they profaned my sabbaths. “Then I thought I would pour out my wrath upon them and spend my anger against them in the wilderness.

Ezekiel 20:22 But I withheld my hand, and acted for the sake of my name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:23 Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the countries,

Ezekiel 20:24 because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes and profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were set on their fathers' idols.

Ezekiel 20:25 Moreover I gave them statutes that were not good and ordinances by which they could not have life;

Ezekiel 20:26 and I defiled them through their very gifts in making them offer by fire all their first-born, that I might horrify them; I did it that they might know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 20:27 "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: In this again your fathers blasphemed me, by dealing treacherously with me.

Ezekiel 20:28 For when I had brought them into the land which I swore to give them, then wherever they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices and presented the provocation of their offering; there they sent up their soothing odors, and there they poured out their drink offerings.

Ezekiel 20:29 (I said to them, What is the high place to which you go? So its name is called Bamah to this day.)

Ezekiel 20:30 Wherefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Will you defile yourselves after the manner of your fathers and go astray after their detestable things?

Ezekiel 20:31 When you offer your gifts and sacrifice your sons by fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.

Ezekiel 20:32 "What is in your mind shall never happen—the thought, `Let us be like the nations, like the tribes of the countries, and worship wood and stone.'

Ezekiel 20:33 "As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you.

Ezekiel 20:34 I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out;

Ezekiel 20:35 and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face.

Ezekiel 20:36 As I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 20:37 I will make you pass under the rod, and I will let you go in by number.

Ezekiel 20:38 I will purge out the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against me; I will bring them out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 20:39 "As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: Go serve every one of you his idols, now and hereafter, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts and your idols.

Ezekiel 20:40 "For on my holy mountain, the mountain height of Israel, says the Lord GOD, there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve me in the land; there I will accept them, and there I will require your contributions and the choicest of your gifts, with all your sacred offerings.

Ezekiel 20:41 As a pleasing odor I will accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will manifest my holiness among you in the sight of the nations.

Ezekiel 20:42 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the country which I swore to give to your fathers.

Ezekiel 20:43 And there you shall remember your ways and all the doings with which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves for all the evils that you have committed.

Ezekiel 20:44 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 20:45 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 20:46 "Son of man, set your face toward the south, preach against the south, and prophesy against the forest land in the Negeb;

Ezekiel 20:47 say to the forest of the Negeb, Hear the word of the LORD: Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you and every dry tree; the blazing flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from south to north shall be scorched by it.

Ezekiel 20:48 All flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it; it shall not be quenched."

Ezekiel 20:49 Then I said, "Ah Lord GOD! they are saying of me, `Is he not a maker of allegories?'"

Ezekiel 21:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 21:2 “Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel

Ezekiel 21:3 and say to the land of Israel, Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you both righteous and wicked.

Ezekiel 21:4 Because I will cut off from you both righteous and wicked, therefore my sword shall go out of its sheath against all flesh from south to north;

Ezekiel 21:5 and all flesh shall know that I the LORD have drawn my sword out of its sheath; it shall not be sheathed again.

Ezekiel 21:6 Sigh therefore, son of man; sigh with breaking heart and bitter grief before their eyes.

Ezekiel 21:7 And when they say to you, `Why do you sigh?’ you shall say, `Because of the tidings. When it comes, every heart will melt and all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it comes and it will be fulfilled,’” says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 21:8 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 21:9 “Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord, Say: A sword, a sword is sharpened and also polished,

Ezekiel 21:10 sharpened for slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Or do we make mirth? You have despised the rod, my son, with everything of wood.

Ezekiel 21:11 So the sword is given to be polished, that it may be handled; it is sharpened and polished to be given into the hand of the slayer.

Ezekiel 21:12 Cry and wail, son of man, for it is against my people; it is against all the princes of Israel; they are delivered over to the sword with my people. Smite therefore upon your thigh.

Ezekiel 21:13 For it will not be a testing—what could it do if you despise the rod?” says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 21:14 “Prophesy therefore, son of man; clap your hands and let the sword come down twice, yea thrice, the sword for those to be slain; it is the sword for the great slaughter, which encompasses them,

Ezekiel 21:15 that their hearts may melt, and many fall at all their gates. I have given the glittering sword; ah! it is made like lightning, it is polished for slaughter.

Ezekiel 21:16 Cut sharply to right and left where your edge is directed.

Ezekiel 21:17 I also will clap my hands, and I will satisfy my fury; I the LORD have spoken.”

Ezekiel 21:18 The word of the LORD came to me again:

Ezekiel 21:19 “Son of man, mark two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come; both of them shall come forth from the same land. And make a signpost, make it at the head of the way to a city;

Ezekiel 21:20 mark a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the Ammonites and to Judah and to Jerusalem the fortified.

Ezekiel 21:21 For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination; he shakes the arrows, he consults the teraphim, he looks at the liver.

Ezekiel 21:22 Into his right hand comes the lot for Jerusalem, to open the mouth with a cry, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build siege towers.

Ezekiel 21:23 But to them it will seem like a false divination; they have sworn solemn oaths; but he brings their guilt to remembrance, that they may be captured.

Ezekiel 21:24 “Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have made your guilt to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear—because you have come to remembrance, you shall be taken in them.

Ezekiel 21:25 And you, O unhallowed wicked one, prince of Israel, whose day has come, the time of your final punishment,

Ezekiel 21:26 thus says the Lord GOD: Remove the turban, and take off the crown; things shall not remain as they are; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high.

Ezekiel 21:27 A ruin, ruin, ruin I will make it; there shall not be even a trace of it until he comes whose right it is; and to him I will give it.

Ezekiel 21:28 “And you, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; say, A sword, a sword is drawn for the slaughter, it is polished to glitter and to flash like lightning —

Ezekiel 21:29 while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies for you—to be laid on the necks of the unhallowed wicked, whose day has come, the time of their final punishment.

Ezekiel 21:30 Return it to its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you.

Ezekiel 21:31 And I will pour out my indignation upon you; I will blow upon you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hands of brutal men, skilful to destroy.

Ezekiel 21:32 You shall be fuel for the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be no more remembered; for I the LORD have spoken.”

Ezekiel 22:1 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Ezekiel 22:2 “And you, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then declare to her all her abominable deeds.

Ezekiel 22:3 You shall say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A city that sheds blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that makes idols to defile herself!

Ezekiel 22:4 You have become guilty by the blood which you have shed, and defiled by the idols which you have made; and you have brought your day near, the appointed time of your years has come. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries.

Ezekiel 22:5 Those who are near and those who are far from you will mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult.

Ezekiel 22:6 “Behold, the princes of Israel in you, every one according to his power, have been bent on shedding blood.

Ezekiel 22:7 Father and mother are treated with contempt in you; the sojourner suffers extortion in your midst; the fatherless and the widow are wronged in you.

Ezekiel 22:8 You have despised my holy things, and profaned my sabbaths.

Ezekiel 22:9 There are men in you who slander to shed blood, and men in you who eat upon the mountains; men commit lewdness in your midst.

Ezekiel 22:10 In you men uncover their fathers’ nakedness; in you they humble women who are unclean in their impurity.

Ezekiel 22:11 One commits abomination with his neighbor’s wife; another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law; another in you defiles his sister, his father’s daughter.

Ezekiel 22:12 In you men take bribes to shed blood; you take interest and increase and make gain of your neighbors by extortion; and you have forgotten me, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 22:13 “Behold, therefore, I strike my hands together at the dishonest gain which you have made, and at the blood which has been in the midst of you.

Ezekiel 22:14 Can your courage endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.

Ezekiel 22:15 I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the countries, and I will consume your filthiness out of you.

Ezekiel 22:16 And I shall be profaned through you in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 22:17 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 22:18 “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me; all of them, silver and bronze and tin and iron and lead in the furnace, have become dross.

Ezekiel 22:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 22:20 As men gather silver and bronze and iron and lead and tin into a furnace, to blow the fire upon it in order to melt it; so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will put you in and melt you.

Ezekiel 22:21 I will gather you and blow upon you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in the midst of it.

Ezekiel 22:22 As silver is melted in a furnace, so you shall be melted in the midst of it; and you shall know that I the LORD have poured out my wrath upon you.”

Ezekiel 22:23 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 22:24 “Son of man, say to her, You are a land that is not cleansed, or rained upon in the day of indignation.

Ezekiel 22:25 Her princes in the midst of her are like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they have devoured human lives; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in the midst of her.

Ezekiel 22:26 Her priests have done violence to my law and have profaned my holy things; they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they taught the difference between the unclean and the clean, and they have disregarded my sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

Ezekiel 22:27 Her princes in the midst of her are like wolves tearing the prey, shedding blood, destroying lives to get dishonest gain.

Ezekiel 22:28 And her prophets have daubed for them with whitewash, seeing false visions and divining lies for them, saying, `Thus says the Lord GOD,’ when the LORD has not spoken.

Ezekiel 22:29 The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery; they have oppressed the poor and needy, and have extorted from the sojourner without redress.

Ezekiel 22:30 And I sought for a man among them who should build up the wall and stand in the breach before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

Ezekiel 22:31 Therefore I have poured out my indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath; their way have I requited upon their heads, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 23:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 23:2 “Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother;

Ezekiel 23:3 they played the harlot in Egypt; they played the harlot in their youth; there their breasts were pressed and their virgin bosoms handled.

Ezekiel 23:4 Oholah was the name of the elder and Oholibah the name of her sister. They became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 23:5 “Oholah played the harlot while she was mine; and she doted on her lovers the Assyrians,

Ezekiel 23:6 warriors clothed in purple, governors and commanders, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses.

Ezekiel 23:7 She bestowed her harlotries upon them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and she defiled herself with all the idols of every one on whom she doted.

Ezekiel 23:8 She did not give up her harlotry which she had practiced since her days in Egypt; for in her youth men had lain with her and handled her virgin bosom and poured out their lust upon her.

Ezekiel 23:9 Therefore I delivered her into the hands of her lovers, into the hands of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

Ezekiel 23:10 These uncovered her nakedness; they seized her sons and her daughters; and her they slew with the sword; and she became a byword among women, when judgment had been executed upon her.

Ezekiel 23:11 “Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt than she in her doting and in her harlotry, which was worse than that of her sister.

Ezekiel 23:12 She doted upon the Assyrians, governors and commanders, warriors clothed in full armor, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men.

Ezekiel 23:13 And I saw that she was defiled; they both took the same way.

Ezekiel 23:14 But she carried her harlotry further; she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed in vermilion,

Ezekiel 23:15 girded with belts on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like officers, a picture of Babylonians whose native land was Chaldea.

Ezekiel 23:16 When she saw them she doted upon them, and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

Ezekiel 23:17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their lust; and after she was polluted by them, she turned from them in disgust.

Ezekiel 23:18 When she carried on her harlotry so openly and flaunted her nakedness, I turned in disgust from her, as I had turned from her sister.

Ezekiel 23:19 Yet she increased her harlotry, remembering the days of her youth, when she played the harlot in the land of Egypt

Ezekiel 23:20 and doted upon her paramours there, whose members were like those of asses, and whose issue was like that of horses.

Ezekiel 23:21 Thus you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when the Egyptians handled your bosom and pressed your young breasts."

Ezekiel 23:22 Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will rouse against you your lovers from whom you turned in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side:

Ezekiel 23:23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, desirable young men, governors and commanders all of them, officers and warriors, all of them riding on horses.

Ezekiel 23:24 And they shall come against you from the north with chariots and wagons and a host of peoples; they shall set themselves against you on every side with buckler, shield, and helmet, and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments.

Ezekiel 23:25 And I will direct my indignation against you, that they may deal with you in fury. They shall cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors shall fall by the sword. They shall seize your sons and your daughters, and your survivors shall be devoured by fire.

Ezekiel 23:26 They shall also strip you of your clothes and take away your fine jewels.

Ezekiel 23:27 Thus I will put an end to your lewdness and your harlotry brought from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to the Egyptians or remember them any more.

Ezekiel 23:28 For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will deliver you into the hands of those whom you hate, into the hands of those from whom you turned in disgust;

Ezekiel 23:29 and they shall deal with you in hatred, and take away all the fruit of your labor, and leave you naked and bare, and the nakedness of your harlotry shall be uncovered. Your lewdness and your harlotry

Ezekiel 23:30 have brought this upon you, because you played the harlot with the nations, and polluted yourself with their idols.

Ezekiel 23:31 You have gone the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.

Ezekiel 23:32 Thus says the Lord GOD: “You shall drink your sister’s cup which is deep and large; you shall be laughed at and held in derision, for it contains much;

Ezekiel 23:33 you will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow. A cup of horror and desolation, is the cup of your sister Samaria;

Ezekiel 23:34 you shall drink it and drain it out, and pluck out your hair, and tear your breasts; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 23:35 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have forgotten me and cast me behind your back, therefore bear the consequences of your lewdness and harlotry.”

Ezekiel 23:36 The LORD said to me: “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominable deeds.

Ezekiel 23:37 For they have committed adultery, and blood is upon their hands; with their idols they have committed adultery; and they have even offered up to them for food the sons whom they had borne to me.

Ezekiel 23:38 Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary on the same day and profaned my sabbaths.

Ezekiel 23:39 For when they had slaughtered their children in sacrifice to their idols, on the same day they came into my sanctuary to profane it. And lo, this is what they did in my house.

Ezekiel 23:40 They even sent for men to come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and lo, they came. For them you bathed yourself, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments;

Ezekiel 23:41 you sat upon a stately couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed my incense and my oil.

Ezekiel 23:42 The sound of a carefree multitude was with her; and with men of the common sort drunkards were brought from the wilderness; and they put bracelets upon the hands of the women, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

Ezekiel 23:43 “Then I said, Do not men now commit adultery when they practice harlotry with her?

Ezekiel 23:44 For they have gone in to her, as men go in to a harlot. Thus they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah to commit lewdness.

Ezekiel 23:45 But righteous men shall pass judgment on them with the sentence of adulteresses, and with the sentence of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is upon their hands.”

Ezekiel 23:46 For thus says the Lord GOD: “Bring up a host against them, and make them an object of terror and a spoil.

Ezekiel 23:47 And the host shall stone them and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses.

Ezekiel 23:48 Thus will I put an end to lewdness in the land, that all women may take warning and not commit lewdness as you have done.

Ezekiel 23:49 And your lewdness shall be requited upon you, and you shall bear the penalty for your sinful idolatry; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 24:1 In the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:2 "Son of man, write down the name of this day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

Ezekiel 24:3 And utter an allegory to the rebellious house and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Set on the pot, set it on, pour in water also;

Ezekiel 24:4 put in it the pieces of flesh, all the good pieces, the thigh and the shoulder; fill it with choice bones.

Ezekiel 24:5 Take the choicest one of the flock, pile the logs under it; boil its pieces, seethe also its bones in it.

Ezekiel 24:6 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose rust is in it, and whose rust has not gone out of it! Take out of it piece after piece, without making any choice.

Ezekiel 24:7 For the blood she has shed is still in the midst of her; she put it on the bare rock, she did not pour it upon the ground to cover it with dust.

Ezekiel 24:8 To rouse my wrath, to take vengeance, I have set on the bare rock the blood she has shed, that it may not be covered.

Ezekiel 24:9 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great.

Ezekiel 24:10 Heap on the logs, kindle the fire, boil well the flesh, and empty out the broth, and let the bones be burned up.

Ezekiel 24:11 Then set it empty upon the coals, that it may become hot, and its copper may burn, that its filthiness may be melted in it, its rust consumed.

Ezekiel 24:12 In vain I have wearied myself; its thick rust does not go out of it by fire.

Ezekiel 24:13 Its rust is your filthy lewdness. Because I would have cleansed you and you were not cleansed from your filthiness, you shall not be cleansed any more till I have satisfied my fury upon you.

Ezekiel 24:14 I the LORD have spoken; it shall come to pass, I will do it; I will not go back, I will not spare, I will not repent; according to your ways and your doings I will judge you, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 24:15 Also the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:16 “Son of man, behold, I am about to take the delight of your eyes away from you at a stroke; yet you shall not mourn or weep nor shall your tears run down.

Ezekiel 24:17 Sigh, but not aloud; make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban, and put your shoes on your feet; do not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of mourners.”

Ezekiel 24:18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died. And on the next morning I did as I was commanded.

Ezekiel 24:19 And the people said to me, “Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are acting thus?”

Ezekiel 24:20 Then I said to them, “The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:21 `Say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the desire of your soul; and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword.

Ezekiel 24:22 And you shall do as I have done; you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of mourners.

Ezekiel 24:23 Your turbans shall be on your heads and your shoes on your feet; you shall not mourn or weep, but you shall pine away in your iniquities and groan to one another.

Ezekiel 24:24 Thus shall Ezekiel be to you a sign; according to all that he has done you shall do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.’

Ezekiel 24:25 “And you, son of man, on the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes and their heart’s desire, and also their sons and daughters,

Ezekiel 24:26 on that day a fugitive will come to you to report to you the news.

Ezekiel 24:27 On that day your mouth will be opened to the fugitive, and you shall speak and be no longer dumb. So you will be a sign to them; and they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 25:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 25:2 “Son of man, set your face toward the Ammonites, and prophesy against them.

Ezekiel 25:3 Say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD, Because you said, `Aha!’ over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and over the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and over the house of Judah when it went into exile;

Ezekiel 25:4 therefore I am handing you over to the people of the East for a possession, and they shall set their encampments among you and make their dwellings in your midst; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk.

Ezekiel 25:5 I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the cities of the Ammonites a fold for flocks. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 25:6 For thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced with all the malice within you against the land of Israel,

Ezekiel 25:7 therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand against you, and will hand you over as spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples and will make you perish out of the countries; I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 25:8 “Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Moab said, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the other nations,

Ezekiel 25:9 therefore I will lay open the flank of Moab from the cities on its frontier, the glory of the country, Bethjeshimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathaim.

Ezekiel 25:10 I will give it along with the Ammonites to the people of the East as a possession, that it may be remembered no more among the nations,

Ezekiel 25:11 and I will execute judgments upon Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 25:12 “Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Edom acted revengefully against the house of Judah and has grievously offended in taking vengeance upon them,

Ezekiel 25:13 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, I will stretch out my hand against Edom, and cut off from it man and beast; and I will make it desolate; from Teman even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword.

Ezekiel 25:14 And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 25:15 “Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the Philistines acted revengefully and took vengeance with malice of heart to destroy in never-ending enmity;

Ezekiel 25:16 therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the rest of the seacoast.

Ezekiel 25:17 I will execute great vengeance upon them with wrathful chastisements. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I lay my vengeance upon them.”

Ezekiel 26:1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 26:2 “Son of man, because Tyre said concerning Jerusalem, `Aha, the gate of the peoples is broken, it has swung open to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste,’

Ezekiel 26:3 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will bring up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves.

Ezekiel 26:4 They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers; and I will scrape her soil from her, and make her a bare rock.

Ezekiel 26:5 She shall be in the midst of the sea a place for the spreading of nets; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD; and she shall become a spoil to the nations;

Ezekiel 26:6 and her daughters on the mainland shall be slain by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 26:7 “For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will bring upon Tyre from the north Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses and chariots, and with horsemen and a host of many soldiers.

Ezekiel 26:8 He will slay with the sword your daughters on the mainland; he will set up a siege wall against you, and throw up a mound against you, and raise a roof of shields against you.

Ezekiel 26:9 He will direct the shock of his battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers.

Ezekiel 26:10 His horses will be so many that their dust will cover you; your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen and wagons and chariots, when he enters your gates as one enters a city which has been breached.

Ezekiel 26:11 With the hoofs of his horses he will trample all your streets; he will slay your people with the sword; and your mighty pillars will fall to the ground.

Ezekiel 26:12 They will make a spoil of your riches and a prey of your merchandise; they will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses; your stones and timber and soil they will cast into the midst of the waters.

Ezekiel 26:13 And I will stop the music of your songs, and the sound of your lyres shall be heard no more.

Ezekiel 26:14 I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall never be rebuilt; for I the LORD have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 26:15 “Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: Will not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when slaughter is made in the midst of you?

Ezekiel 26:16 Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones, and remove their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments; they will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit upon the ground and tremble every moment, and be appalled at you.

Ezekiel 26:17 And they will raise a lamentation over you, and say to you, `How you have vanished from the seas, O city renowned, that was mighty on the sea, you and your inhabitants, who imposed your terror on all the mainland!

Ezekiel 26:18 Now the isles tremble on the day of your fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea are dismayed at your passing.'

Ezekiel 26:19 "For thus says the Lord GOD: When I make you a city laid waste, like the cities that are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you, and the great waters cover you,

Ezekiel 26:20 then I will thrust you down with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of old, and I will make you to dwell in the nether world, among primeval ruins, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you will not be inhabited or have a place in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 26:21 I will bring you to a dreadful end, and you shall be no more; though you be sought for, you will never be found again, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 27:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 27:2 "Now you, son of man, raise a lamentation over Tyre,

Ezekiel 27:3 and say to Tyre, who dwells at the entrance to the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, thus says the Lord GOD: "O Tyre, you have said, `I am perfect in beauty.'

Ezekiel 27:4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders made perfect your beauty.

Ezekiel 27:5 They made all your planks of fir trees from Senir; they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

Ezekiel 27:6 Of oaks of Bashan they made your oars; they made your deck of pines from the coasts of Cyprus, inlaid with ivory.

Ezekiel 27:7 Of fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail, serving as your ensign; blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was your awning.

Ezekiel 27:8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers; skilled men of Zemer were in you, they were your pilots.

Ezekiel 27:9 The elders of Gebal and her skilled men were in you, caulking your seams; all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you, to barter for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:10 "Persia and Lud and Put were in your army as your men of war; they hung the shield and helmet in you; they gave you splendor.

Ezekiel 27:11 The men of Arvad and Helech were upon your walls round about, and men of Gamad were in your towers; they hung their shields upon your walls round about; they made perfect your beauty.

Ezekiel 27:12 “Tarshish trafficked with you because of your great wealth of every kind; silver, iron, tin, and lead they exchanged for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech traded with you; they exchanged the persons of men and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.

Ezekiel 27:14 Bethtogarmah exchanged for your wares horses, war horses, and mules.

Ezekiel 27:15 The men of Rhodes traded with you; many coastlands were your own special markets, they brought you in payment ivory tusks and ebony.

Ezekiel 27:16 Edom trafficked with you because of your abundant goods; they exchanged for your wares emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and agate.

Ezekiel 27:17 Judah and the land of Israel traded with you; they exchanged for your merchandise wheat, olives and early figs, honey, oil, and balm.

Ezekiel 27:18 Damascus trafficked with you for your abundant goods, because of your great wealth of every kind; wine of Helbon, and white wool,

Ezekiel 27:19 and wine from Uzal they exchanged for your wares; wrought iron, cassia, and calamus were bartered for your merchandise.

Ezekiel 27:20 Dedan traded with you in saddlecloths for riding.

Ezekiel 27:21 Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your favored dealers in lambs, rams, and goats; in these they trafficked with you.

Ezekiel 27:22 The traders of Sheba and Raamah traded with you; they exchanged for your wares the best of all kinds of spices, and all precious stones, and gold.

Ezekiel 27:23 Haran, Canneh, Eden, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you.

Ezekiel 27:24 These traded with you in choice garments, in clothes of blue and embroidered work, and in carpets of colored stuff, bound with cords and made secure; in these they traded with you.

Ezekiel 27:25 The ships of Tarshish traveled for you with your merchandise. “So you were filled and heavily laden in the heart of the seas.

Ezekiel 27:26 Your rowers have brought you out into the high seas. The east wind has wrecked you in the heart of the seas.

Ezekiel 27:27 Your riches, your wares, your merchandise, your mariners and your pilots, your caulkers, your dealers in merchandise, and all your men of war who are in you, with all your company that is in your midst, sink into the heart of the seas on the day of your ruin.

Ezekiel 27:28 At the sound of the cry of your pilots the countryside shakes,

Ezekiel 27:29 and down from their ships come all that handle the oar. The mariners and all the pilots of the sea stand on the shore

Ezekiel 27:30 and wail aloud over you, and cry bitterly. They cast dust on their heads and wallow in ashes;

Ezekiel 27:31 they make themselves bald for you, and gird themselves with sackcloth, and they weep over you in bitterness of soul, with bitter mourning.

Ezekiel 27:32 In their wailing they raise a lamentation for you, and lament over you: `Who was ever destroyed like Tyre in the midst of the sea?

Ezekiel 27:33 When your wares came from the seas, you satisfied many peoples; with your abundant wealth and merchandise you enriched the kings of the earth.

Ezekiel 27:34 Now you are wrecked by the seas, in the depths of the waters; your merchandise and all your crew have sunk with you.

Ezekiel 27:35 All the inhabitants of the coastlands are appalled at you; and their kings are horribly afraid, their faces are convulsed.

Ezekiel 27:36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more for ever.'"

Ezekiel 28:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:2 "Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because your heart is proud, and you have said, `I am a god, I sit in the seat of the gods, in the heart of the seas,' yet you are but a man, and no god, though you consider yourself as wise as a god —

Ezekiel 28:3 you are indeed wiser than Daniel; no secret is hidden from you;

Ezekiel 28:4 by your wisdom and your understanding you have gotten wealth for yourself, and have gathered gold and silver into your treasuries;

Ezekiel 28:5 by your great wisdom in trade you have increased your wealth, and your heart has become proud in your wealth —

Ezekiel 28:6 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you consider yourself as wise as a god,

Ezekiel 28:7 therefore, behold, I will bring strangers upon you, the most terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and defile your splendor.

Ezekiel 28:8 They shall thrust you down into the Pit, and you shall die the death of the slain in the heart of the seas.

Ezekiel 28:9 Will you still say, `I am a god,' in the presence of those who slay you, though you are but a man, and no god, in the hands of those who wound you?

Ezekiel 28:10 You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 28:11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:12 "Son of man, raise a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Lord GOD: "You were the signet of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

Ezekiel 28:13 You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, carnelian, topaz, and jasper, chrysolite, beryl, and onyx, sapphire, carbuncle, and emerald; and wrought in gold were your settings and your engravings. On the day that you were created they were prepared.

Ezekiel 28:14 With an anointed guardian cherub I placed you; you were on the holy mountain of God; in the midst of the stones of fire you walked.

Ezekiel 28:15 You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created, till iniquity was found in you.

Ezekiel 28:16 In the abundance of your trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned; so I cast you as a profane thing from the mountain of God, and the guardian cherub drove you out from the midst of the stones of fire.

Ezekiel 28:17 Your heart was proud because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor. I cast you to the ground; I exposed you before kings, to feast their eyes on you.

Ezekiel 28:18 By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your trade you profaned your sanctuaries; so I brought forth fire from the midst of you; it consumed you, and I turned you to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all who saw you.

Ezekiel 28:19 All who know you among the peoples are appalled at you; you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more for ever."

Ezekiel 28:20 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:21 "Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against her Ezekiel 28:22 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Sidon, and I will manifest my glory in the midst of you. And they shall know that I am the LORD when I execute judgments in her, and manifest my holiness in her;

Ezekiel 28:23 for I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the slain shall fall in the midst of her, by the sword that is against her on every side. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 28:24 “And for the house of Israel there shall be no more a brier to prick or a thorn to hurt them among all their neighbors who have treated them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 28:25 “Thus says the Lord GOD: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and manifest my holiness in them in the sight of the nations, then they shall dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob.

Ezekiel 28:26 And they shall dwell securely in it, and they shall build houses and plant vineyards. They shall dwell securely, when I execute judgments upon all their neighbors who have treated them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.”

Ezekiel 29:1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 29:2 “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt;

Ezekiel 29:3 speak, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lies in the midst of his streams, that says, `My Nile is my own; I made it.’

Ezekiel 29:4 I will put hooks in your jaws, and make the fish of your streams stick to your scales; and I will draw you up out of the midst of your streams, with all the fish of your streams which stick to your scales.

Ezekiel 29:5 And I will cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your streams; you shall fall upon the open field, and not be gathered and buried. To the beasts of the earth and to the birds of the air I have given you as food.

Ezekiel 29:6 “Then all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD. Because you have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel;

Ezekiel 29:7 when they grasped you with the hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned upon you, you broke, and made all their loins to shake;

Ezekiel 29:8 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will bring a sword upon you, and will cut off from you man and beast;

Ezekiel 29:9 and the land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste. Then they will know that I am the LORD. “Because you said, `The Nile is mine, and I made it,’

Ezekiel 29:10 therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia.

Ezekiel 29:11 No foot of man shall pass through it, and no foot of beast shall pass through it; it shall be uninhabited forty years.

Ezekiel 29:12 And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of desolated countries; and her cities shall be a desolation forty years among cities that are laid waste. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries.

Ezekiel 29:13 “For thus says the Lord GOD: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered;

Ezekiel 29:14 and I will restore the fortunes of Egypt, and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin; and there they shall be a lowly kingdom.

Ezekiel 29:15 It shall be the most lowly of the kingdoms, and never again exalt itself above the nations; and I will make them so small that they will never again rule over the nations.

Ezekiel 29:16 And it shall never again be the reliance of the house of Israel, recalling their iniquity, when they turn to them for aid. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 29:17 In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 29:18 “Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made his army labor hard against Tyre; every head was made bald and every shoulder was rubbed bare; yet neither he nor his army got anything from Tyre to pay for the labor that he had performed against it.

Ezekiel 29:19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off its wealth and despoil it and plunder it; and it shall be the wages for his army.

Ezekiel 29:20 I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he labored, because they worked for me, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 29:21 “On that day I will cause a horn to spring forth to the house of Israel, and I will open your lips among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 30:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 30:2 “Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: “Wail, `Alas for the day!’

Ezekiel 30:3 For the day is near, the day of the LORD is near; it will be a day of clouds, a time of doom for the nations.

Ezekiel 30:4 A sword shall come upon Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain fall in Egypt, and her wealth is carried away, and her foundations are torn down.

Ezekiel 30:5 Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all Arabia, and Libya, and the people of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

Ezekiel 30:6 “Thus says the LORD: Those who support Egypt shall fall, and her proud might shall come down; from Migdol to Syene they shall fall within her by the sword, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 30:7 And she shall be desolated in the midst of desolated countries and her cities shall be in the midst of cities that are laid waste.

Ezekiel 30:8 Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have set fire to Egypt, and all her helpers are broken.

Ezekiel 30:9 “On that day swift messengers shall go forth from me to terrify the unsuspecting Ethiopians; and anguish shall come upon them on the day of Egypt’s doom; for, lo, it comes!

Ezekiel 30:10 “Thus says the Lord GOD: I will put an end to the wealth of Egypt, by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

Ezekiel 30:11 He and his people with him, the most terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

Ezekiel 30:12 And I will dry up the Nile, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; I will bring desolation upon the land and everything in it, by the hand of foreigners; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 30:13 “Thus says the Lord GOD: I will destroy the idols, and put an end to the images, in Memphis; there shall no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt; so I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:14 I will make Pathros a desolation, and will set fire to Zoan, and will execute acts of judgment upon Thebes.

Ezekiel 30:15 And I will pour my wrath upon Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the multitude of Thebes.

Ezekiel 30:16 And I will set fire to Egypt; Pelusium shall be in great agony; Thebes shall be breached, and its walls broken down.

Ezekiel 30:17 The young men of On and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and the women shall go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:18 At Tehaphnehes the day shall be dark, when I break there the dominion of Egypt, and her proud might shall come to an end; she shall be covered by a cloud, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:19 Thus I will execute acts of judgment upon Egypt. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 30:20 In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 30:21 “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and lo, it has not been bound up, to heal it by binding it with a bandage, so that it may become strong to wield the sword.

Ezekiel 30:22 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, both the strong arm and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall from his hand.

Ezekiel 30:23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the lands.

Ezekiel 30:24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him like a man mortally wounded.

Ezekiel 30:25 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall; and they shall know that I am the LORD. When I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, he shall stretch it out against the land of Egypt;

Ezekiel 30:26 and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 31:1 In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 31:2 “Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude: “Whom are you like in your greatness?

Ezekiel 31:3 Behold, I will liken you to a cedar in Lebanon, with fair branches and forest shade, and of great height, its top among the clouds.

Ezekiel 31:4 The waters nourished it, the deep made it grow tall, making its rivers flow round the place of its planting, sending forth its streams to all the trees of the forest.

Ezekiel 31:5 So it towered high above all the trees of the forest; its boughs grew large and its branches long, from abundant water in its shoots.

Ezekiel 31:6 All the birds of the air made their nests in its boughs; under its branches all the beasts of the field brought forth their young; and under its shadow dwelt all great nations.

Ezekiel 31:7 It was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its roots went down to abundant waters.

Ezekiel 31:8 The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it, nor the fir trees equal its boughs; the plane trees were as nothing compared with its branches; no tree in the garden of God was like it in beauty.

Ezekiel 31:9 I made it beautiful in the mass of its branches, and all the trees of Eden envied it, that were in the garden of God.

Ezekiel 31:10 “Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because it towered high and set its top among the clouds, and its heart was proud of its height,

Ezekiel 31:11 I will give it into the hand of a mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with it as its wickedness deserves. I have cast it out.

Ezekiel 31:12 Foreigners, the most terrible of the nations, will cut it down and leave it. On the mountains and in all the valleys its branches will fall, and its boughs will lie broken in all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth will go from its shadow and leave it.

Ezekiel 31:13 Upon its ruin will dwell all the birds of the air, and upon its branches will be all the beasts of the field.

Ezekiel 31:14 All this is in order that no trees by the waters may grow to lofty height or set their tops among the clouds, and that no trees that drink water may reach up to them in height; for they are all given over to death, to the nether world among mortal men, with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 31:15 “Thus says the Lord GOD: When it goes down to Sheol I will make the deep mourn for it, and restrain its rivers, and many waters shall be stopped; I will clothe Lebanon in gloom for it, and all the trees of the field shall faint because of it.

Ezekiel 31:16 I will make the nations quake at the sound of its fall, when I cast it down to Sheol with those who go down to the Pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, will be comforted in the nether world.

Ezekiel 31:17 They also shall go down to Sheol with it, to those who are slain by the sword; yea, those who dwelt under its shadow among the nations shall perish.

Ezekiel 31:18 Whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? You shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the nether world; you shall lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. “This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 32:1 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 32:2 “Son of man, raise a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him: “You consider yourself a lion among the nations, but you are like a dragon in the seas; you burst forth in your rivers, trouble the waters with your feet, and foul their rivers.

Ezekiel 32:3 Thus says the Lord GOD: I will throw my net over you with a host of many peoples; and I will haul you up in my dragnet.

Ezekiel 32:4 And I will cast you on the ground, on the open field I will fling you, and will cause all the birds of the air to settle on you, and I will gorge the beasts of the whole earth with you.

Ezekiel 32:5 I will strew your flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with your carcass.

Ezekiel 32:6 I will drench the land even to the mountains with your flowing blood; and the watercourses will be full of you.

Ezekiel 32:7 When I blot you out, I will cover the heavens, and make their stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light.

Ezekiel 32:8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over you, and put darkness upon your land, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 32:9 “I will trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I carry you captive among the nations, into the countries which you have not known.

Ezekiel 32:10 I will make many peoples appalled at you, and their kings shall shudder because of you, when I brandish my sword before them; they shall tremble every moment, every one for his own life, on the day of your downfall.

Ezekiel 32:11 For thus says the Lord GOD: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you.

Ezekiel 32:12 I will cause your multitude to fall by the swords of mighty ones, all of them most terrible among the nations. “They shall bring to nought the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall perish.

Ezekiel 32:13 I will destroy all its beasts from beside many waters; and no foot of man shall trouble them any more, nor shall the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

Ezekiel 32:14 Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 32:15 When I make the land of Egypt desolate and when the land is stripped of all that fills it, when I smite all who dwell in it, then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 32:16 This is a lamentation which shall be chanted; the daughters of the nations shall chant it; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they chant it, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 32:17 In the twelfth year, in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 32:18 “Son of man, wail over the multitude of Egypt, and send them down, her and the daughters of majestic nations, to the nether world, to those who have gone down to the Pit:

Ezekiel 32:19 `Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised.’

Ezekiel 32:20 They shall fall amid those who are slain by the sword, and with her shall lie all her multitudes.

Ezekiel 32:21 The mighty chiefs shall speak of them, with their helpers, out of the midst of Sheol: `They have come down, they lie still, the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

Ezekiel 32:22 "Assyria is there, and all her company, their graves round about her, all of them slain, fallen by the sword;

Ezekiel 32:23 whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the Pit, and her company is round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who spread terror in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:24 "Elam is there, and all her multitude about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised into the nether world, who spread terror in the land of the living, and they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 32:25 They have made her a bed among the slain with all her multitude, their graves round about her, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for terror of them was spread in the land of the living, and they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit; they are placed among the slain.

Ezekiel 32:26 "Meshech and Tubal are there, and all their multitude, their graves round about them, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they spread terror in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:27 And they do not lie with the fallen mighty men of old who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war, whose swords were laid under their heads, and whose shields are upon their bones; for the terror of the mighty men was in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:28 So you shall be broken and lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:29 "Edom is there, her kings and all her princes, who for all their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword; they lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 32:30 "The princes of the north are there, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down in shame with the slain, for all the terror which they caused by their might; they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

Ezekiel 32:31 "When Pharaoh sees them, he will comfort himself for all his multitude, Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 32:32 For he spread terror in the land of the living; therefore he shall be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 33:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 33:2 “Son of man, speak to your people and say to them, If I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and make him their watchman;

Ezekiel 33:3 and if he sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the trumpet and warns the people;

Ezekiel 33:4 then if any one who hears the sound of the trumpet does not take warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

Ezekiel 33:5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and did not take warning; his blood shall be upon himself. But if he had taken warning, he would have saved his life.

Ezekiel 33:6 But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, so that the people are not warned, and the sword comes, and takes any one of them; that man is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman’s hand.

Ezekiel 33:7 “So you, son of man, I have made a watchman for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me.

Ezekiel 33:8 If I say to the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand.

Ezekiel 33:9 But if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

Ezekiel 33:10 “And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, Thus have you said: `Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?’

Ezekiel 33:11 Say to them, As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel?

Ezekiel 33:12 And you, son of man, say to your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him when he transgresses; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall by it when he turns from his wickedness; and the righteous shall not be able to live by his righteousness when he sins.

Ezekiel 33:13 Though I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, yet if he trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in the iniquity that he has committed he shall die.

Ezekiel 33:14 Again, though I say to the wicked, `You shall surely die,’ yet if he turns from his sin and does what is lawful and right, Ezekiel 33:15 if the wicked restores the pledge, gives back what he has taken by robbery, and walks in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Ezekiel 33:16 None of the sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him; he has done what is lawful and right, he shall surely live.

Ezekiel 33:17 "Yet your people say, `The way of the Lord is not just'; when it is their own way that is not just.

Ezekiel 33:18 When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall die for it.

Ezekiel 33:19 And when the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does what is lawful and right, he shall live by it.

Ezekiel 33:20 Yet you say, `The way of the Lord is not just.' O house of Israel, I will judge each of you according to his ways."

Ezekiel 33:21 In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has fallen."

Ezekiel 33:22 Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me the evening before the fugitive came; and he had opened my mouth by the time the man came to me in the morning; so my mouth was opened, and I was no longer dumb.

Ezekiel 33:23 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 33:24 "Son of man, the inhabitants of these waste places in the land of Israel keep saying, `Abraham was only one man, yet he got possession of the land; but we are many; the land is surely given us to possess.'

Ezekiel 33:25 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: You eat flesh with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood; shall you then possess the land?

Ezekiel 33:26 You resort to the sword, you commit abominations and each of you defiles his neighbor's wife; shall you then possess the land?

Ezekiel 33:27 Say this to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured; and those who are in strongholds and in caves shall die by pestilence.

Ezekiel 33:28 And I will make the land a desolation and a waste; and her proud might shall come to an end; and the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that none will pass through.

Ezekiel 33:29 Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations which they have committed.

Ezekiel 33:30 “As for you, son of man, your people who talk together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, say to one another, each to his brother, `Come, and hear what the word is that comes forth from the LORD.’

Ezekiel 33:31 And they come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear what you say but they will not do it; for with their lips they show much love, but their heart is set on their gain.

Ezekiel 33:32 And, lo, you are to them like one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays well on an instrument, for they hear what you say, but they will not do it.

Ezekiel 33:33 When this comes—and come it will!—then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Ezekiel 34:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 34:2 “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to them, even to the shepherds, Thus says the Lord GOD: Ho, shepherds of Israel who have been feeding yourselves! Should not shepherds feed the sheep?

Ezekiel 34:3 You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep.

Ezekiel 34:4 The weak you have not strengthened, the sick you have not healed, the crippled you have not bound up, the strayed you have not brought back, the lost you have not sought, and with force and harshness you have ruled them.

Ezekiel 34:5 So they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food for all the wild beasts.

Ezekiel 34:6 My sheep were scattered, they wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill; my sheep were scattered over all the face of the earth, with none to search or seek for them.

Ezekiel 34:7 “Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

Ezekiel 34:8 As I live, says the Lord GOD, because my sheep have become a prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild beasts, since there was no shepherd; and because my shepherds have not searched for my sheep, but the shepherds have fed themselves, and have not fed my sheep;

Ezekiel 34:9 therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

Ezekiel 34:10 Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and put a stop to their feeding the sheep; no longer shall the shepherds feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, that they may not be food for them.

Ezekiel 34:11 “For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.

Ezekiel 34:12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock when some of his sheep have been scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness.

Ezekiel 34:13 And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the fountains, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

Ezekiel 34:14 I will feed them with good pasture, and upon the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on fat pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 34:15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 34:16 I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the crippled, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will watch over; I will feed them in justice.

Ezekiel 34:17 "As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, rams and he-goats.

Ezekiel 34:18 Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture; and to drink of clear water, that you must foul the rest with your feet?

Ezekiel 34:19 And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have fouled with your feet?

Ezekiel 34:20 "Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: Behold, I, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

Ezekiel 34:21 Because you push with side and shoulder, and thrust at all the weak with your horns, till you have scattered them abroad,

Ezekiel 34:22 I will save my flock, they shall no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

Ezekiel 34:23 And I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd.

Ezekiel 34:24 And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 34:25 "I will make with them a covenant of peace and banish wild beasts from the land, so that they may dwell securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

Ezekiel 34:26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing.

Ezekiel 34:27 And the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke, and deliver them from the hand of those who enslaved them.

Ezekiel 34:28 They shall no more be a prey to the nations, nor shall the beasts of the land devour them; they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid.

Ezekiel 34:29 And I will provide for them prosperous plantations so that they shall no more be consumed with hunger in the land, and no longer suffer the reproach of the nations.

Ezekiel 34:30 And they shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 34:31 And you are my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, and I am your God, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 35:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 35:2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it,

Ezekiel 35:3 and say to it, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and a waste.

Ezekiel 35:4 I will lay your cities waste, and you shall become a desolation; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 35:5 Because you cherished perpetual enmity, and gave over the people of Israel to the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, at the time of their final punishment;

Ezekiel 35:6 therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you; because you are guilty of blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.

Ezekiel 35:7 I will make Mount Seir a waste and a desolation; and I will cut off from it all who come and go.

Ezekiel 35:8 And I will fill your mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those slain with the sword shall fall.

Ezekiel 35:9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 35:10 "Because you said, `These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will take possession of them,'—although the LORD was there —

Ezekiel 35:11 therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will deal with you according to the anger and envy which you showed because of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among you, when I judge you.

Ezekiel 35:12 And you shall know that I, the LORD, have heard all the revilings which you uttered against the mountains of Israel, saying, `They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour.'

Ezekiel 35:13 And you magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and multiplied your words against me; I heard it.

Ezekiel 35:14 Thus says the Lord GOD: For the rejoicing of the whole earth I will make you desolate.

Ezekiel 35:15 As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will deal with you; you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:1 "And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:2 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the enemy said of you, `Aha!' and, `The ancient heights have become our possession,'

Ezekiel 36:3 therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Because, yea, because they made you desolate, and crushed you from all sides, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and you became the talk and evil gossip of the people;

Ezekiel 36:4 therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, the ravines and the valleys, the desolate wastes and the deserted cities, which have become a prey and derision to the rest of the nations round about;

Ezekiel 36:5 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I speak in my hot jealousy against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who gave my land to themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and utter contempt, that they might possess it and plunder it.

Ezekiel 36:6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I speak in my jealous wrath, because you have suffered the reproach of the nations;

Ezekiel 36:7 therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I swear that the nations that are round about you shall themselves suffer reproach.

Ezekiel 36:8 "But you, O mountains of Israel, shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they will soon come home.

Ezekiel 36:9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown;

Ezekiel 36:10 and I will multiply men upon you, the whole house of Israel, all of it; the cities shall be inhabited and the waste places rebuilt;

Ezekiel 36:11 and I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited as in your former times, and will do more good to you than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:12 Yea, I will let men walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no longer bereave them of children.

Ezekiel 36:13 Thus says the Lord GOD: Because men say to you, `You devour men, and you bereave your nation of children,'

Ezekiel 36:14 therefore you shall no longer devour men and no longer bereave your nation of children, says the Lord GOD;

Ezekiel 36:15 and I will not let you hear any more the reproach of the nations, and you shall no longer bear the disgrace of the peoples and no longer cause your nation to stumble, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 36:16 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 36:17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their ways and their doings; their conduct before me was like the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity.

Ezekiel 36:18 So I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood which they had shed in the land, for the idols with which they had defiled it.

Ezekiel 36:19 I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries; in accordance with their conduct and their deeds I judged them.

Ezekiel 36:20 But when they came to the nations, wherever they came, they profaned my holy name, in that men said of them, `These are the people of the LORD, and yet they had to go out of his land.'

Ezekiel 36:21 But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel caused to be profaned among the nations to which they came.

Ezekiel 36:22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came.

Ezekiel 36:23 And I will vindicate the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them; and the nations will know that I am the LORD, says the Lord GOD, when through you I vindicate my holiness before their eyes.

Ezekiel 36:24 For I will take you from the nations, and gather you from all the countries, and bring you into your own land.

Ezekiel 36:25 I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you.

Ezekiel 36:26 A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will take out of your flesh the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh.

Ezekiel 36:27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances.

Ezekiel 36:28 You shall dwell in the land which I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Ezekiel 36:29 And I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses; and I will summon the grain and make it abundant and lay no famine upon you.

Ezekiel 36:30 I will make the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field abundant, that you may never again suffer the disgrace of famine among the nations.

Ezekiel 36:31 Then you will remember your evil ways, and your deeds that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves for your iniquities and your abominable deeds.

Ezekiel 36:32 It is not for your sake that I will act, says the Lord GOD; let that be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel.

Ezekiel 36:33 “Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:34 And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, instead of being the desolation that it was in the sight of all who passed by.

Ezekiel 36:35 And they will say, `This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are now inhabited and fortified.’

Ezekiel 36:36 Then the nations that are left round about you shall know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places, and replanted that which was desolate; I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

Ezekiel 36:37 “Thus says the Lord GOD: This also I will let the house of Israel ask me to do for them: to increase their men like a flock.

Ezekiel 36:38 Like the flock for sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37:1 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; it was full of bones.

Ezekiel 37:2 And he led me round among them; and behold, there were very many upon the valley; and lo, they were very dry.

Ezekiel 37:3 And he said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” And I answered, “O Lord GOD, thou knowest.”

Ezekiel 37:4 Again he said to me, “Prophesy to these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 37:5 Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live.

Ezekiel 37:6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37:7 So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to its bone.

Ezekiel 37:8 And as I looked, there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them.

Ezekiel 37:9 Then he said to me, “Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.”

Ezekiel 37:10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great host.

Ezekiel 37:11 Then he said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, `Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off.’

Ezekiel 37:12 Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you home into the land of Israel.

Ezekiel 37:13 And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people.

Ezekiel 37:14 And I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I have done it, says the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37:15 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 37:16 “Son of man, take a stick and write on it, `For Judah, and the children of Israel associated with him’; then take another stick and write upon it, `For Joseph (the stick of Ephraim) and all the house of Israel associated with him’;

Ezekiel 37:17 and join them together into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.

Ezekiel 37:18 And when your people say to you, `Will you not show us what you mean by these?’

Ezekiel 37:19 say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am about to take the stick of Joseph (which is in the hand of Ephraim) and the tribes of Israel associated with him; and I will join with it the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, that they may be one in my hand.

Ezekiel 37:20 When the sticks on which you write are in your hand before their eyes,

Ezekiel 37:21 then say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will take the people of Israel from the nations among which they have gone, and will gather them from all sides, and bring them to their own land;

Ezekiel 37:22 and I will make them one nation in the land, upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king over them all; and they shall be no longer two nations, and no longer divided into two kingdoms.

Ezekiel 37:23 They shall not defile themselves any more with their idols and their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions; but I will save them from all the backslidings in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 37:24 “My servant David shall be king over them; and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall follow my ordinances and be careful to observe my statutes.

Ezekiel 37:25 They shall dwell in the land where your fathers dwelt that I gave to my servant Jacob; they and their children and their children’s children shall dwell there for ever; and David my servant shall be their prince for ever.

Ezekiel 37:26 I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will bless them and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

Ezekiel 37:27 My dwelling place shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Ezekiel 37:28 Then the nations will know that I the LORD sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary is in the midst of them for evermore.”

Ezekiel 38:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 38:2 “Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him

Ezekiel 38:3 and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal;

Ezekiel 38:4 and I will turn you about, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company, all of them with buckler and shield, wielding swords;

Ezekiel 38:5 Persia, Cush, and Put are with them, all of them with shield and helmet;

Ezekiel 38:6 Gomer and all his hordes; Bethtogarmah from the uttermost parts of the north with all his hordes—many peoples are with you.

Ezekiel 38:7 “Be ready and keep ready, you and all the hosts that are assembled about you, and be a guard for them.

Ezekiel 38:8 After many days you will be mustered; in the latter years you will go against the land that is restored from war, the land where people were gathered from many nations upon the mountains of Israel, which had been a continual waste; its people were brought out from the nations and now dwell securely, all of them.

Ezekiel 38:9 You will advance, coming on like a storm, you will be like a cloud covering the land you and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.

Ezekiel 38:10 “Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil scheme

Ezekiel 38:11 and say, `I will go up against the land of unwalled villages; I will fall upon the quiet people who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having no bars or gates’;

Ezekiel 38:12 to seize spoil and carry off plunder; to assail the waste places which are now inhabited, and the people who were gathered from the nations, who have gotten cattle and goods, who dwell at the center of the earth.

Ezekiel 38:13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all its villages will say to you, `Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your hosts to carry off plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to seize great spoil?’

Ezekiel 38:14 “Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and say to Gog, Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day when my people Israel are dwelling securely, you will bestir yourself

Ezekiel 38:15 and come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great host, a mighty army;

Ezekiel 38:16 you will come up against my people Israel, like a cloud covering the land. In the latter days I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when through you, O Gog, I vindicate my holiness before their eyes.

Ezekiel 38:17 “Thus says the Lord GOD: Are you he of whom I spoke in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel, who in those days prophesied for years that I would bring you against them?

Ezekiel 38:18 But on that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, says the Lord GOD, my wrath will be roused.

Ezekiel 38:19 For in my jealousy and in my blazing wrath I declare, On that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

Ezekiel 38:20 the fish of the sea, and the birds of the air, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep on the ground, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall quake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the cliffs shall fall, and every wall shall tumble to the ground.

Ezekiel 38:21 I will summon every kind of terror against Gog, says the Lord GOD; every man's sword will be against his brother.

Ezekiel 38:22 With pestilence and bloodshed I will enter into judgment with him; and I will rain upon him and his hordes and the many peoples that are with him, torrential rains and hailstones, fire and brimstone.

Ezekiel 38:23 So I will show my greatness and my holiness and make myself known in the eyes of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 39:1 "And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal;

Ezekiel 39:2 and I will turn you about and drive you forward, and bring you up from the uttermost parts of the north, and lead you against the mountains of Israel;

Ezekiel 39:3 then I will strike your bow from your left hand, and will make your arrows drop out of your right hand.

Ezekiel 39:4 You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your hordes and the peoples that are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the wild beasts to be devoured.

Ezekiel 39:5 You shall fall in the open field; for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 39:6 I will send fire on Magog and on those who dwell securely in the coastlands; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 39:7 "And my holy name I will make known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let my holy name be profaned any more; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

Ezekiel 39:8 Behold, it is coming and it will be brought about, says the Lord GOD. That is the day of which I have spoken.

Ezekiel 39:9 "Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go forth and make fires of the weapons and burn them, shields and bucklers, bows and arrows, handpikes and spears, and they will make fires of them for seven years;

Ezekiel 39:10 so that they will not need to take wood out of the field or cut down any out of the forests, for they will make their fires of the weapons; they will despoil those who despoiled them, and plunder those who plundered them, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 39:11 “On that day I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the Valley of the Travelers east of the sea; it will block the travelers, for there Gog and all his multitude will be buried; it will be called the Valley of Hamongog.

Ezekiel 39:12 For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, in order to cleanse the land.

Ezekiel 39:13 All the people of the land will bury them; and it will redound to their honor on the day that I show my glory, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 39:14 They will set apart men to pass through the land continually and bury those remaining upon the face of the land, so as to cleanse it; at the end of seven months they will make their search.

Ezekiel 39:15 And when these pass through the land and any one sees a man’s bone, then he shall set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamongog.

Ezekiel 39:16 (A city Hamonah is there also.) Thus shall they cleanse the land.

Ezekiel 39:17 “As for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to the birds of every sort and to all beasts of the field, `Assemble and come, gather from all sides to the sacrificial feast which I am preparing for you, a great sacrificial feast upon the mountains of Israel, and you shall eat flesh and drink blood.

Ezekiel 39:18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth—of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

Ezekiel 39:19 And you shall eat fat till you are filled, and drink blood till you are drunk, at the sacrificial feast which I am preparing for you.

Ezekiel 39:20 And you shall be filled at my table with horses and riders, with mighty men and all kinds of warriors,’ says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 39:21 “And I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment which I have executed, and my hand which I have laid on them.

Ezekiel 39:22 The house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day forward.

Ezekiel 39:23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they dealt so treacherously with me that I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword.

Ezekiel 39:24 I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their transgressions, and hid my face from them.

Ezekiel 39:25 “Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name.

Ezekiel 39:26 They shall forget their shame, and all the treachery they have practiced against me, when they dwell securely in their land with none to make them afraid,

Ezekiel 39:27 when I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them from their enemies’ lands, and through them have vindicated my holiness in the sight of many nations.

Ezekiel 39:28 Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God because I sent them into exile among the nations, and then gathered them into their own land. I will leave none of them remaining among the nations any more;

Ezekiel 39:29 and I will not hide my face any more from them, when I pour out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was conquered, on that very day, the hand of the LORD was upon me,

Ezekiel 40:2 and brought me in the visions of God into the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very high mountain, on which was a structure like a city opposite me.

Ezekiel 40:3 When he brought me there, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like bronze, with a line of flax and a measuring reed in his hand; and he was standing in the gateway.

Ezekiel 40:4 And the man said to me, “Son of man, look with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your mind upon all that I shall show you, for you were brought here in order that I might show it to you; declare all that you see to the house of Israel.”

Ezekiel 40:5 And behold, there was a wall all around the outside of the temple area, and the length of the measuring reed in the man’s hand was six long cubits, each being a cubit and a handbreadth in length; so he measured the thickness of the wall, one reed; and the height, one reed.

Ezekiel 40:6 Then he went into the gateway facing east, going up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed deep;

Ezekiel 40:7 and the side rooms, one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the side rooms, five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the vestibule of the gate at the inner end, one reed.

Ezekiel 40:8 Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits;

Ezekiel 40:9 and its jambs, two cubits; and the vestibule of the gate was at the inner end.

Ezekiel 40:10 And there were three side rooms on either side of the east gate; the three were of the same size; and the jambs on either side were of the same size.

Ezekiel 40:11 Then he measured the breadth of the opening of the gateway, ten cubits; and the breadth of the gateway, thirteen cubits.

Ezekiel 40:12 There was a barrier before the side rooms, one cubit on either side; and the side rooms were six cubits on either side.

Ezekiel 40:13 Then he measured the gate from the back of the one side room to the back of the other, a breadth of five and twenty cubits, from door to door.

Ezekiel 40:14 He measured also the vestibule, twenty cubits; and round about the vestibule of the gateway was the court.

Ezekiel 40:15 From the front of the gate at the entrance to the end of the inner vestibule of the gate was fifty cubits.

Ezekiel 40:16 And the gateway had windows round about, narrowing inwards into their jambs in the side rooms, and likewise the vestibule had windows round about inside, and on the jambs were palm trees.

Ezekiel 40:17 Then he brought me into the outer court; and behold, there were chambers and a pavement, round about the court; thirty chambers fronted on the pavement.

Ezekiel 40:18 And the pavement ran along the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement.

Ezekiel 40:19 Then he measured the distance from the inner front of the lower gate to the outer front of the inner court, a hundred cubits. Then he went before me to the north,

Ezekiel 40:20 and behold, there was a gate which faced toward the north, belonging to the outer court. He measured its length and its breadth.

Ezekiel 40:21 Its side rooms, three on either side, and its jambs and its vestibule were of the same size as those of the first gate; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:22 And its windows, its vestibule, and its palm trees were of the same size as those of the gate which faced toward the east; and seven steps led up to it; and its vestibule was on the inside.

Ezekiel 40:23 And opposite the gate on the north, as on the east, was a gate to the inner court; and he measured from gate to gate, a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:24 And he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate on the south; and he measured its jambs and its vestibule; they had the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:25 And there were windows round about in it and in its vestibule, like the windows of the others; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:26 And there were seven steps leading up to it, and its vestibule was on the inside; and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on either side.

Ezekiel 40:27 And there was a gate on the south of the inner court; and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it was of the same size as the others;

Ezekiel 40:29 Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and there were windows round about in it and in its vestibule; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:30 And there were vestibules round about, twenty-five cubits long and five cubits broad.

Ezekiel 40:31 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its jambs, and its stairway had eight steps.

Ezekiel 40:32 Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gate; it was of the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:33 Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and there were windows round about in it and in its vestibule; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:34 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on either side; and its stairway had eight steps.

Ezekiel 40:35 Then he brought me to the north gate, and he measured it; it had the same size as the others.

Ezekiel 40:36 Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others; and it had windows round about; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits.

Ezekiel 40:37 Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on either side; and its stairway had eight steps.

Ezekiel 40:38 There was a chamber with its door in the vestibule of the gate, where the burnt offering was to be washed.

Ezekiel 40:39 And in the vestibule of the gate were two tables on either side, on which the burnt offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering were to be slaughtered.

Ezekiel 40:40 And on the outside of the vestibule at the entrance of the north gate were two tables; and on the other side of the vestibule of the gate were two tables.

Ezekiel 40:41 Four tables were on the inside, and four tables on the outside of the side of the gate, eight tables, on which the sacrifices were to be slaughtered.

Ezekiel 40:42 And there were also four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high, on which the instruments were to be laid with which the burnt offerings and the sacrifices were slaughtered.

Ezekiel 40:43 And hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened round about within. And on the tables the flesh of the offering was to be laid.

Ezekiel 40:44 Then he brought me from without into the inner court, and behold, there were two chambers in the inner court, one at the side of the north gate facing south, the other at the side of the south gate facing north.

Ezekiel 40:45 And he said to me, This chamber which faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple,

Ezekiel 40:46 and the chamber which faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar; these are the sons of Zadok, who alone among the sons of Levi may come near to the LORD to minister to him.

Ezekiel 40:47 And he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was in front of the temple.

Ezekiel 40:48 Then he brought me to the vestibule of the temple and measured the jambs of the vestibule, five cubits on either side; and the breadth of the gate was fourteen cubits; and the sidewalls of the gate were three cubits on either side.

Ezekiel 40:49 The length of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the breadth twelve cubits; and ten steps led up to it; and there were pillars beside the jambs on either side.

Ezekiel 41:1 Then he brought me to the nave, and measured the jambs; on each side six cubits was the breadth of the jambs.

Ezekiel 41:2 And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sidewalls of the entrance were five cubits on either side; and he measured the length of the nave forty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits.

Ezekiel 41:3 Then he went into the inner room and measured the jambs of the entrance, two cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, six cubits; and the sidewalls of the entrance, seven cubits.

Ezekiel 41:4 And he measured the length of the room, twenty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits, beyond the nave. And he said to me, This is the most holy place.

Ezekiel 41:5 Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits thick; and the breadth of the side chambers, four cubits, round about the temple.

Ezekiel 41:6 And the side chambers were in three stories, one over another, thirty in each story. There were offsets all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side chambers, so that they should not be supported by the wall of the temple.

Ezekiel 41:7 And the side chambers became broader as they rose from story to story, corresponding to the enlargement of the offset from story to story round about the temple; on the side of the temple a stairway led upward, and thus one went up from the lowest story to the top story through the middle story.

Ezekiel 41:8 I saw also that the temple had a raised platform round about; the foundations of the side chambers measured a full reed of six long cubits.

Ezekiel 41:9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits; and the part of the platform which was left free was five cubits. Between the platform of the temple and the Ezekiel 41:10 chambers of the court was a breadth of twenty cubits round about the temple on every side.

Ezekiel 41:11 And the doors of the side chambers opened on the part of the platform that was left free, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south; and the breadth of the part that was left free was five cubits round about.

Ezekiel 41:12 The building that was facing the temple yard on the west side was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and its length ninety cubits.

Ezekiel 41:13 Then he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long; and the yard and the building with its walls, a hundred cubits long;

Ezekiel 41:14 also the breadth of the east front of the temple and the yard, a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 41:15 Then he measured the length of the building facing the yard which was at the west and its walls on either side, a hundred cubits. The nave of the temple and the inner room and the outer vestibule

Ezekiel 41:16 were paneled and round about all three had windows with recessed frames. Over against the threshold the temple was paneled with wood round about, from the floor up to the windows (now the windows were covered),

Ezekiel 41:17 to the space above the door, even to the inner room, and on the outside. And on all the walls round about in the inner room and the nave were carved likenesses

Ezekiel 41:18 of cherubim and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Every cherub had two faces:

Ezekiel 41:19 the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved on the whole temple round about;

Ezekiel 41:20 from the floor to above the door cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall.

Ezekiel 41:21 The doorposts of the nave were squared; and in front of the holy place was something resembling

Ezekiel 41:22 an altar of wood, three cubits high, two cubits long, and two cubits broad; its corners, its base, and its walls were of wood. He said to me, “This is the table which is before the LORD.”

Ezekiel 41:23 The nave and the holy place had each a double door.

Ezekiel 41:24 The doors had two leaves apiece, two swinging leaves for each door.

Ezekiel 41:25 And on the doors of the nave were carved cherubim and palm trees, such as were carved on the walls; and there was a canopy of wood in front of the vestibule outside.

Ezekiel 41:26 And there were recessed windows and palm trees on either side, on the sidewalls of the vestibule.

Ezekiel 42:1 Then he led me out into the inner court, toward the north, and he brought me to the chambers which were opposite the temple yard and opposite the building on the north.

Ezekiel 42:2 The length of the building which was on the north side was a hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty cubits.

Ezekiel 42:3 Adjoining the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and facing the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

Ezekiel 42:4 And before the chambers was a passage inward, ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits long, and their doors were on the north.

Ezekiel 42:5 Now the upper chambers were narrower, for the galleries took more away from them than from the lower and middle chambers in the building.

Ezekiel 42:6 For they were in three stories, and they had no pillars like the pillars of the outer court; hence the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and the middle ones.

Ezekiel 42:7 And there was a wall outside parallel to the chambers, toward the outer court, opposite the chambers, fifty cubits long.

Ezekiel 42:8 For the chambers on the outer court were fifty cubits long, while those opposite the temple were a hundred cubits long.

Ezekiel 42:9 Below these chambers was an entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer court,

Ezekiel 42:10 where the outside wall begins. On the south also, opposite the yard and opposite the building, there were chambers

Ezekiel 42:11 with a passage in front of them; they were similar to the chambers on the north, of the same length and breadth, with the same exits and arrangements and doors.

Ezekiel 42:12 And below the south chambers was an entrance on the east side, where one enters the passage, and opposite them was a dividing wall.

Ezekiel 42:13 Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers opposite the yard are the holy chambers, where the priests who approach the LORD shall eat the most holy offerings; there they shall put the most holy offerings—the cereal offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering, for the place is holy.

Ezekiel 42:14 When the priests enter the holy place, they shall not go out of it into the outer court without laying there the garments in which they minister, for these are holy; they shall put on other garments before they go near to that which is for the people.”

Ezekiel 42:15 Now when he had finished measuring the interior of the temple area, he led me out by the gate which faced east, and measured the temple area round about.

Ezekiel 42:16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Ezekiel 42:17 Then he turned and measured the north side, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Ezekiel 42:18 Then he turned and measured the south side, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Ezekiel 42:19 Then he turned to the west side and measured, five hundred cubits by the measuring reed.

Ezekiel 42:20 He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall around it, five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits broad, to make a separation between the holy and the common.

Ezekiel 43:1 Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate facing east.

Ezekiel 43:2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the east; and the sound of his coming was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with his glory.

Ezekiel 43:3 And the vision I saw was like the vision which I had seen when he came to destroy the city, and like the vision which I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

Ezekiel 43:4 As the glory of the LORD entered the temple by the gate facing east,

Ezekiel 43:5 the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

Ezekiel 43:6 While the man was standing beside me, I heard one speaking to me out of the temple;

Ezekiel 43:7 and he said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the people of Israel for ever. And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their harlotry, and by the dead bodies of their kings,

Ezekiel 43:8 by setting their threshold by my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them. They have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed, so I have consumed them in my anger.

Ezekiel 43:9 Now let them put away their idolatry and the dead bodies of their kings far from me, and I will dwell in their midst for ever.

Ezekiel 43:10 “And you, son of man, describe to the house of Israel the temple and its appearance and plan, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities.

Ezekiel 43:11 And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, portray the temple, its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, and its whole form; and make known to them all its ordinances and all its laws; and write it down in their sight, so that they may observe and perform all its laws and all its ordinances.

Ezekiel 43:12 This is the law of the temple: the whole territory round about upon the top of the mountain shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the temple.

Ezekiel 43:13 “These are the dimensions of the altar by cubits (the cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth): its base shall be one cubit high, and one cubit broad, with a rim of one span around its edge. And this shall be the height of the altar:

Ezekiel 43:14 from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits, with a breadth of one cubit; and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits, with a breadth of one cubit;

Ezekiel 43:15 and the altar hearth, four cubits; and from the altar hearth projecting upward, four horns, one cubit high.

Ezekiel 43:16 The altar hearth shall be square, twelve cubits long by twelve broad.

Ezekiel 43:17 The ledge also shall be square, fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad, with a rim around it half a cubit broad, and its base one cubit round about. The steps of the altar shall face east.”

Ezekiel 43:18 And he said to me, “Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: These are the ordinances for the altar: On the day when it is erected for offering burnt offerings upon it and for throwing blood against it, Ezekiel 43:19 you shall give to the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who draw near to me to minister to me, says the Lord GOD, a bull for a sin offering.

Ezekiel 43:20 And you shall take some of its blood, and put it on the four horns of the altar, and on the four corners of the ledge, and upon the rim round about; thus you shall cleanse the altar and make atonement for it.

Ezekiel 43:21 You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place belonging to the temple, outside the sacred area.

Ezekiel 43:22 And on the second day you shall offer a he-goat without blemish for a sin offering; and the altar shall be cleansed, as it was cleansed with the bull.

Ezekiel 43:23 When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a bull without blemish and a ram from the flock without blemish.

Ezekiel 43:24 You shall present them before the LORD, and the priests shall sprinkle salt upon them and offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezekiel 43:25 For seven days you shall provide daily a goat for a sin offering; also a bull and a ram from the flock, without blemish, shall be provided.

Ezekiel 43:26 Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it, and so consecrate it.

Ezekiel 43:27 And when they have completed these days, then from the eighth day onward the priests shall offer upon the altar your burnt offerings and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 44:1 Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces east; and it was shut.

Ezekiel 44:2 And he said to me, "This gate shall remain shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered by it; therefore it shall remain shut.

Ezekiel 44:3 Only the prince may sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gate, and shall go out by the same way."

Ezekiel 44:4 Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.

Ezekiel 44:5 And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I shall tell you concerning all the ordinances of the temple of the LORD and all its laws; and mark well those who may be admitted to the temple and all those who are to be excluded from the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:6 And say to the rebellious house, to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: O house of Israel, let there be an end to all your abominations,

Ezekiel 44:7 in admitting foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, to be in my sanctuary, profaning it, when you offer to me my food, the fat and the blood. You have broken my covenant, in addition to all your abominations.

Ezekiel 44:8 And you have not kept charge of my holy things; but you have set foreigners to keep my charge in my sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:9 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the people of Israel, shall enter my sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:10 But the Levites who went far from me, going astray from me after their idols when Israel went astray, shall bear their punishment.

Ezekiel 44:11 They shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the temple, and serving in the temple; they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall attend on the people, to serve them.

Ezekiel 44:12 Because they ministered to them before their idols and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have sworn concerning them, says the Lord GOD, that they shall bear their punishment.

Ezekiel 44:13 They shall not come near to me, to serve me as priest, nor come near any of my sacred things and the things that are most sacred; but they shall bear their shame, because of the abominations which they have committed.

Ezekiel 44:14 Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the temple, to do all its service and all that is to be done in it.

Ezekiel 44:15 "But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the people of Israel went astray from me, shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall attend on me to offer me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD;

Ezekiel 44:16 they shall enter my sanctuary, and they shall approach my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge.

Ezekiel 44:17 When they enter the gates of the inner court, they shall wear linen garments; they shall have nothing of wool on them, while they minister at the gates of the inner court, and within.

Ezekiel 44:18 They shall have linen turbans upon their heads, and linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with anything that causes sweat.

Ezekiel 44:19 And when they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall put off the garments in which they have been ministering, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, lest they communicate holiness to the people with their garments.

Ezekiel 44:20 They shall not shave their heads or let their locks grow long; they shall only trim the hair of their heads.

Ezekiel 44:21 No priest shall drink wine, when he enters the inner court.

Ezekiel 44:22 They shall not marry a widow, or a divorced woman, but only a virgin of the stock of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest.

Ezekiel 44:23 They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

Ezekiel 44:24 In a controversy they shall act as judges, and they shall judge it according to my judgments. They shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts, and they shall keep my sabbaths holy.

Ezekiel 44:25 They shall not defile themselves by going near to a dead person; however, for father or mother, for son or daughter, for brother or unmarried sister they may defile themselves.

Ezekiel 44:26 After he is defiled, he shall count for himself seven days, and then he shall be clean.

Ezekiel 44:27 And on the day that he goes into the holy place, into the inner court, to minister in the holy place, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 44:28 “They shall have no inheritance; I am their inheritance: and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession.

Ezekiel 44:29 They shall eat the cereal offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs.

Ezekiel 44:30 And the first of all the first fruits of all kinds, and every offering of all kinds from all your offerings, shall belong to the priests; you shall also give to the priests the first of your coarse meal, that a blessing may rest on your house.

Ezekiel 44:31 The priests shall not eat of anything, whether bird or beast, that has died of itself or is torn.

Ezekiel 45:1 “When you allot the land as a possession, you shall set apart for the LORD a portion of the land as a holy district, twenty-five thousand cubits long and twenty thousand cubits broad; it shall be holy throughout its whole extent.

Ezekiel 45:2 Of this a square plot of five hundred by five hundred cubits shall be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits for an open space around it.

Ezekiel 45:3 And in the holy district you shall measure off a section twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand broad, in which shall be the sanctuary, the most holy place.

Ezekiel 45:4 It shall be the holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and approach the LORD to minister to him; and it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:5 Another section, twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits broad, shall be for the Levites who minister at the temple, as their possession for cities to live in.

Ezekiel 45:6 “Alongside the portion set apart as the holy district you shall assign for the possession of the city an area five thousand cubits broad, and twenty-five thousand cubits long; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:7 “And to the prince shall belong the land on both sides of the holy district and the property of the city, alongside the holy district and the property of the city, on the west and on the east, corresponding in length to one of the tribal portions, and extending from the western to the eastern boundary of the land.

Ezekiel 45:8 It is to be his property in Israel. And my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall let the house of Israel have the land according to their tribes.

Ezekiel 45:9 “Thus says the Lord GOD: Enough, O princes of Israel! Put away violence and oppression, and execute justice and righteousness; cease your evictions of my people, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 45:10 “You shall have just balances, a just ephah, and a just bath.

Ezekiel 45:11 The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, the bath containing one tenth of a homer, and the ephah one tenth of a homer; the homer shall be the standard measure.

Ezekiel 45:12 The shekel shall be twenty gerahs; five shekels shall be five shekels, and ten shekels shall be ten shekels, and your mina shall be fifty shekels.

Ezekiel 45:13 “This is the offering which you shall make: one sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat, and one sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley,

Ezekiel 45:14 and as the fixed portion of oil, one tenth of a bath from each cor (the cor, like the homer, contains ten baths);

Ezekiel 45:15 and one sheep from every flock of two hundred, from the families of Israel. This is the offering for cereal offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 45:16 All the people of the land shall give this offering to the prince in Israel.

Ezekiel 45:17 It shall be the prince’s duty to furnish the burnt offerings, cereal offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, the new moons, and the sabbaths, all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall provide the sin offerings, cereal offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:18 “Thus says the Lord GOD: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:19 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and the posts of the gate of the inner court.

Ezekiel 45:20 You shall do the same on the seventh day of the month for any one who has sinned through error or ignorance; so you shall make atonement for the temple.

Ezekiel 45:21 “In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall celebrate the feast of the passover, and for seven days unleavened bread shall be eaten.

Ezekiel 45:22 On that day the prince shall provide for himself and all the people of the land a young bull for a sin offering.

Ezekiel 45:23 And on the seven days of the festival he shall provide as a burnt offering to the LORD seven young bulls and seven rams without blemish, on each of the seven days; and a he-goat daily for a sin offering.

Ezekiel 45:24 And he shall provide as a cereal offering an ephah for each bull, an ephah for each ram, and a hin of oil to each ephah.

Ezekiel 45:25 In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month and for the seven days of the feast, he shall make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, and cereal offerings, and for the oil.

Ezekiel 46:1 “Thus says the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that faces east shall be shut on the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

Ezekiel 46:2 The prince shall enter by the vestibule of the gate from without, and shall take his stand by the post of the gate. The priests shall offer his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until evening.

Ezekiel 46:3 The people of the land shall worship at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and on the new moons.

Ezekiel 46:4 The burnt offering that the prince offers to the LORD on the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish;

Ezekiel 46:5 and the cereal offering with the ram shall be an ephah, and the cereal offering with the lambs shall be as much as he is able, together with a hin of oil to each ephah.

Ezekiel 46:6 On the day of the new moon he shall offer a young bull without blemish, and six lambs and a ram, which shall be without blemish;

Ezekiel 46:7 as a cereal offering he shall provide an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he is able, together with a hin of oil to each ephah.

Ezekiel 46:8 When the prince enters, he shall go in by the vestibule of the gate, and he shall go out by the same way.

Ezekiel 46:9 "When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, he who enters by the north gate to worship shall go out by the south gate; and he who enters by the south gate shall go out by the north gate: no one shall return by way of the gate by which he entered, but each shall go out straight ahead.

Ezekiel 46:10 When they go in, the prince shall go in with them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

Ezekiel 46:11 "At the feasts and the appointed seasons the cereal offering with a young bull shall be an ephah, and with a ram an ephah, and with the lambs as much as one is able to give, together with a hin of oil to an ephah.

Ezekiel 46:12 When the prince provides a freewill offering, either a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to the LORD, the gate facing east shall be opened for him; and he shall offer his burnt offering or his peace offerings as he does on the sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out the gate shall be shut.

Ezekiel 46:13 "He shall provide a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to the LORD daily; morning by morning he shall provide it.

Ezekiel 46:14 And he shall provide a cereal offering with it morning by morning, one sixth of an ephah, and one third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour, as a cereal offering to the LORD; this is the ordinance for the continual burnt offering.

Ezekiel 46:15 Thus the lamb and the meal offering and the oil shall be provided, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.

Ezekiel 46:16 "Thus says the Lord GOD: If the prince makes a gift to any of his sons out of his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons, it is their property by inheritance.

Ezekiel 46:17 But if he makes a gift out of his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall revert to the prince; only his sons may keep a gift from his inheritance.

Ezekiel 46:18 The prince shall not take any of the inheritance of the people, thrusting them out of their property; he shall give his sons their inheritance out of his own property, so that none of my people shall be dispossessed of his property.”

Ezekiel 46:19 Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, to the north row of the holy chambers for the priests; and there I saw a place at the extreme western end of them.

Ezekiel 46:20 And he said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the cereal offering, in order not to bring them out into the outer court and so communicate holiness to the people.”

Ezekiel 46:21 Then he brought me forth to the outer court, and led me to the four corners of the court; and in each corner of the court there was a court —

Ezekiel 46:22 in the four corners of the court were small courts, forty cubits long and thirty broad; the four were of the same size.

Ezekiel 46:23 On the inside, around each of the four courts was a row of masonry, with hearths made at the bottom of the rows round about.

Ezekiel 46:24 Then he said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple shall boil the sacrifices of the people.”

Ezekiel 47:1 Then he brought me back to the door of the temple; and behold, water was issuing from below the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east); and the water was flowing down from below the south end of the threshold of the temple, south of the altar.

Ezekiel 47:2 Then he brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me round on the outside to the outer gate, that faces toward the east; and the water was coming out on the south side.

Ezekiel 47:3 Going on eastward with a line in his hand, the man measured a thousand cubits, and then led me through the water; and it was ankle-deep.

Ezekiel 47:4 Again he measured a thousand, and led me through the water; and it was knee-deep. Again he measured a thousand, and led me through the water; and it was up to the loins.

Ezekiel 47:5 Again he measured a thousand, and it was a river that I could not pass through, for the water had risen; it was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be passed through.

Ezekiel 47:6 And he said to me, “Son of man, have you seen this?” Then he led me back along the bank of the river.

Ezekiel 47:7 As I went back, I saw upon the bank of the river very many trees on the one side and on the other.

Ezekiel 47:8 And he said to me, “This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah; and when it enters the stagnant waters of the sea, the water will become fresh.

Ezekiel 47:9 And wherever the river goes every living creature which swarms will live, and there will be very many fish; for this water goes there, that the waters of the sea may become fresh; so everything will live where the river goes.

Ezekiel 47:10 Fishermen will stand beside the sea; from Engedi to Eneglaim it will be a place for the spreading of nets; its fish will be of very many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 47:11 But its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they are to be left for salt.

Ezekiel 47:12 And on the banks, on both sides of the river, there will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither nor their fruit fail, but they will bear fresh fruit every month, because the water for them flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for healing.”

Ezekiel 47:13 Thus says the Lord GOD: “These are the boundaries by which you shall divide the land for inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions.

Ezekiel 47:14 And you shall divide it equally; I swore to give it to your fathers, and this land shall fall to you as your inheritance.

Ezekiel 47:15 “This shall be the boundary of the land: On the north side, from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, and on to Zedad, Ezekiel 47:16 Berothah, Sibraim (which lies on the border between Damascus and Hamath), as far as Hazerhatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.

Ezekiel 47:17 So the boundary shall run from the sea to Hazarenon, which is on the northern border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This shall be the north side.

Ezekiel 47:18 “On the east side, the boundary shall run from Hazarenon between Hauran and Damascus; along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel; to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar. This shall be the east side.

Ezekiel 47:19 “On the south side, it shall run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribath-kadesh, thence along the Brook of Egypt to the Great Sea. This shall be the south side.

Ezekiel 47:20 “On the west side, the Great Sea shall be the boundary to a point opposite the entrance of Hamath. This shall be the west side.

Ezekiel 47:21 “So you shall divide this land among you according to the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:22 You shall allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the aliens who reside among you and have begotten children among you. They shall be to you as native-born sons of Israel; with you they shall be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:23 In whatever tribe the alien resides, there you shall assign him his inheritance, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 48:1 “These are the names of the tribes: Beginning at the northern border, from the sea by way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, as far as Hazarenon (which is on the northern border of Damascus over against Hamath), and extending from the east side to the west, Dan, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:2 Adjoining the territory of Dan, from the east side to the west, Asher, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:3 Adjoining the territory of Asher, from the east side to the west, Naphtali, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:4 Adjoining the territory of Naphtali, from the east side to the west, Manasseh, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:5 Adjoining the territory of Manasseh, from the east side to the west, Ephraim, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:6 Adjoining the territory of Ephraim, from the east side to the west, Reuben, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:7 Adjoining the territory of Reuben, from the east side to the west, Judah, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:8 “Adjoining the territory of Judah, from the east side to the west, shall be the portion which you shall set apart, twenty-five thousand cubits in breadth, and in length equal to one of the tribal portions, from the east side to the west, with the sanctuary in the midst of it.

Ezekiel 48:9 The portion which you shall set apart for the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and twenty thousand in breadth.

Ezekiel 48:10 These shall be the allotments of the holy portion: the priests shall have an allotment measuring twenty-five thousand cubits on the northern side, ten thousand cubits in breadth on the western side, ten thousand in breadth on the eastern side, and twenty-five thousand in length on the southern side, with the sanctuary of the LORD in the midst of it.

Ezekiel 48:11 This shall be for the consecrated priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept my charge, who did not go astray when the people of Israel went astray, as the Levites did.

Ezekiel 48:12 And it shall belong to them as a special portion from the holy portion of the land, a most holy place, adjoining the territory of the Levites.

Ezekiel 48:13 And alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites shall have an allotment twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in breadth. The whole length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits and the breadth twenty thousand.

Ezekiel 48:14 They shall not sell or exchange any of it; they shall not alienate this choice portion of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.

Ezekiel 48:15 “The remainder, five thousand cubits in breadth and twenty-five thousand in length, shall be for ordinary use for the city, for dwellings and for open country. In the midst of it shall be the city;

Ezekiel 48:16 and these shall be its dimensions: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, the south side four thousand five hundred, the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

Ezekiel 48:17 And the city shall have open land: on the north two hundred and fifty cubits, on the south two hundred and fifty, on the east two hundred and fifty, and on the west two hundred and fifty.

Ezekiel 48:18 The remainder of the length alongside the holy portion shall be ten thousand cubits to the east, and ten thousand to the west, and it shall be alongside the holy portion. Its produce shall be food for the workers of the city.

Ezekiel 48:19 And the workers of the city, from all the tribes of Israel, shall till it.

Ezekiel 48:20 The whole portion which you shall set apart shall be twenty-five thousand cubits square, that is, the holy portion together with the property of the city.

Ezekiel 48:21 “What remains on both sides of the holy portion and of the property of the city shall belong to the prince. Extending from the twenty-five thousand cubits of the holy portion to the east border, and westward from the twenty-five thousand cubits to the west border, parallel to the tribal portions, it shall belong to the prince. The holy portion with the sanctuary of the temple in its midst,

Ezekiel 48:22 and the property of the Levites and the property of the city, shall be in the midst of that which belongs to the prince. The portion of the prince shall lie between the territory of Judah and the territory of Benjamin.

Ezekiel 48:23 “As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west, Benjamin, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:24 Adjoining the territory of Benjamin, from the east side to the west, Simeon, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:25 Adjoining the territory of Simeon, from the east side to the west, Issachar, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:26 Adjoining the territory of Issachar, from the east side to the west, Zebulun, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:27 Adjoining the territory of Zebulun, from the east side to the west, Gad, one portion.

Ezekiel 48:28 And adjoining the territory of Gad to the south, the boundary shall run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, thence along the Brook of Egypt to the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 48:29 This is the land which you shall allot as an inheritance among the tribes of Israel, and these are their several portions, says the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 48:30 “These shall be the exits of the city: On the north side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits by measure,

Ezekiel 48:31 three gates, the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah, and the gate of Levi, the gates of the city being named after the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 48:32 On the east side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates, the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin, and the gate of Dan.

Ezekiel 48:33 On the south side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits by measure, three gates, the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar, and the gate of Zebulun.

Ezekiel 48:34 On the west side, which is to be four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates, the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher, and the gate of Naphtali.

Ezekiel 48:35 The circumference of the city shall be eighteen thousand cubits. And the name of the city henceforth shall be, The LORD is there.”

Daniel

1:1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

Daniel 1:2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the vessels of the house of God; and he brought them to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and placed the vessels in the treasury of his god.

Daniel 1:3 Then the king commanded Ashpenaz, his chief eunuch, to bring some of the people of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility,

Daniel 1:4 youths without blemish, handsome and skilful in all wisdom, endowed with knowledge, understanding learning, and competent to serve in the king’s palace, and to teach them the letters and language of the Chaldeans.

Daniel 1:5 The king assigned them a daily portion of the rich food which the king ate, and of the wine which he drank. They were to be educated for three years, and at the end of that time they were to stand before the king.

Daniel 1:6 Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah of the tribe of Judah.

Daniel 1:7 And the chief of the eunuchs gave them names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

Daniel 1:8 But Daniel resolved that he would not defile himself with the king’s rich food, or with the wine which he drank; therefore he asked the chief of the eunuchs to allow him not to defile himself.

Daniel 1:9 And God gave Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the chief of the eunuchs;

Daniel 1:10 and the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, “I fear lest my lord the king, who appointed your food and your drink, should see that you were in poorer condition than the youths who are of your own age. So you would endanger my head with the king.”

Daniel 1:11 Then Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah;

Daniel 1:12 “Test your servants for ten days; let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Daniel 1:13 Then let our appearance and the appearance of the youths who eat the king’s rich food be observed by you, and according to what you see deal with your servants.”

Daniel 1:14 So he hearkened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days.

Daniel 1:15 At the end of ten days it was seen that they were better in appearance and fatter in flesh than all the youths who ate the king’s rich food.

Daniel 1:16 So the steward took away their rich food and the wine they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

Daniel 1:17 As for these four youths, God gave them learning and skill in all letters and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

Daniel 1:18 At the end of the time, when the king had commanded that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 1:19 And the king spoke with them, and among them all none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore they stood before the king.

Daniel 1:20 And in every matter of wisdom and understanding concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his kingdom.

Daniel 1:21 And Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

Daniel 2:1 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep left him.

Daniel 2:2 Then the king commanded that the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans be summoned, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.

Daniel 2:3 And the king said to them, “I had a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream.”

Daniel 2:4 Then the Chaldeans said to the king, “O king, live for ever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.”

Daniel 2:5 The king answered the Chaldeans, “The word from me is sure: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses shall be laid in ruins.

Daniel 2:6 But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation.”

Daniel 2:7 They answered a second time, “Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show its interpretation.”

Daniel 2:8 The king answered, “I know with certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see that the word from me is sure

Daniel 2:9 that if you do not make the dream known to me, there is but one sentence for you. You have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the times change. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation.”

Daniel 2:10 The Chaldeans answered the king, “There is not a man on earth who can meet the king’s demand; for no great and powerful king has asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean.

Daniel 2:11 The thing that the king asks is difficult, and none can show it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.”

Daniel 2:12 Because of this the king was angry and very furious, and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed.

Daniel 2:13 So the decree went forth that the wise men were to be slain, and they sought Daniel and his companions, to slay them.

Daniel 2:14 Then Daniel replied with prudence and discretion to Arioch, the captain of the king’s guard, who had gone out to slay the wise men of Babylon;

Daniel 2:15 he said to Arioch, the king’s captain, “Why is the decree of the king so severe?” Then Arioch made the matter known to Daniel.

Daniel 2:16 And Daniel went in and besought the king to appoint him a time, that he might show to the king the interpretation.

Daniel 2:17 Then Daniel went to his house and made the matter known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions,

Daniel 2:18 and told them to seek mercy of the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

Daniel 2:19 Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

Daniel 2:20 Daniel said: “Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever. to whom belong wisdom and might.

Daniel 2:21 He changes times and seasons; he removes kings and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding;

Daniel 2:22 he reveals deep and mysterious things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him.

Daniel 2:23 To thee, O God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise, for thou hast given me wisdom and strength, and hast now made known to me what we asked of thee, for thou hast made known to us the king’s matter.”

Daniel 2:24 Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus to him, “Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show the king the interpretation.”

Daniel 2:25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus to him: “I have found among the exiles from Judah a man who can make known to the king the interpretation.”

Daniel 2:26 The king said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, “Are you able to make known to me the dream that I have seen and its interpretation?”

Daniel 2:27 Daniel answered the king, “No wise men, enchanters, magicians, or astrologers can show to the king the mystery which the king has asked,

Daniel 2:28 but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream and the visions of your head as you lay in bed are these:

Daniel 2:29 To you, O king, as you lay in bed came thoughts of what would be hereafter, and he who reveals mysteries made known to you what is to be.

Daniel 2:30 But as for me, not because of any wisdom that I have more than all the living has this mystery been revealed to me, but in order that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your mind.

Daniel 2:31 “You saw, O king, and behold, a great image. This image, mighty and of exceeding brightness, stood before you, and its appearance was frightening.

Daniel 2:32 The head of this image was of fine gold, its breast and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze,

Daniel 2:33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

Daniel 2:34 As you looked, a stone was cut out by no human hand, and it smote the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces;

Daniel 2:35 then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, all together were broken in pieces, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

Daniel 2:36 “This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation.

Daniel 2:37 You, O king, the king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the might, and the glory,

Daniel 2:38 and into whose hand he has given, wherever they dwell, the sons of men, the beasts of the field, and the birds of the air, making you rule over them all—you are the head of gold.

Daniel 2:39 After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you, and yet a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth.

Daniel 2:40 And there shall be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron, because iron breaks to pieces and shatters all things; and like iron which crushes, it shall break and crush all these.

Daniel 2:41 And as you saw the feet and toes partly of potter’s clay and partly of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but some of the firmness of iron shall be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the miry clay.

Daniel 2:42 And as the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle.

Daniel 2:43 As you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, so they will mix with one another in marriage, but they will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with clay.

Daniel 2:44 And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people. It shall break in pieces all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand for ever;

Daniel 2:45 just as you saw that a stone was cut from a mountain by no human hand, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold. A great God has made known to the king what shall be hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

Daniel 2:46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and did homage to Daniel, and commanded that an offering and incense be offered up to him.

Daniel 2:47 The king said to Daniel, "Truly, your God is God of gods and Lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery."

Daniel 2:48 Then the king gave Daniel high honors and many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.

Daniel 2:49 Daniel made request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel remained at the king's court.

Daniel 3:1 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits. He set it up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 3:2 Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent to assemble the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel 3:3 Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, were assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel 3:4 And the herald proclaimed aloud, "You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages,

Daniel 3:5 that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up;

Daniel 3:6 and whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace."

Daniel 3:7 Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the golden image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel 3:8 Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and maliciously accused the Jews.

Daniel 3:9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “O king, live for ever!

Daniel 3:10 You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image;

Daniel 3:11 and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into a burning fiery furnace.

Daniel 3:12 There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, pay no heed to you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up.”

Daniel 3:13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. Then they brought these men before the king.

Daniel 3:14 Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image which I have set up?

Daniel 3:15 Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, to fall down and worship the image which I have made, well and good; but if you do not worship, you shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace; and who is the god that will deliver you out of my hands?”

Daniel 3:16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.

Daniel 3:17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king.

Daniel 3:18 But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up.”

Daniel 3:19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He ordered the furnace heated seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

Daniel 3:20 And he ordered certain mighty men of his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

Daniel 3:21 Then these men were bound in their mantles, their tunics, their hats, and their other garments, and they were cast into the burning fiery furnace.

Daniel 3:22 Because the king’s order was strict and the furnace very hot, the flame of the fire slew those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

Daniel 3:23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell bound into the burning fiery furnace.

Daniel 3:24 Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up in haste. He said to his counselors, “Did we not cast three men bound into the fire?” They answered the king, “True, O king.”

Daniel 3:25 He answered, “But I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods.”

Daniel 3:26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning fiery furnace and said, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come here!” Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the fire.

Daniel 3:27 And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king’s counselors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men; the hair of their heads was not singed, their mantles were not harmed, and no smell of fire had come upon them.

Daniel 3:28 Nebuchadnezzar said, “Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants, who trusted in him, and set at nought the king’s command, and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God.

Daniel 3:29 Therefore I make a decree: Any people, nation, or language that speaks anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego shall be torn limb from limb, and their houses laid in ruins; for there is no other god who is able to deliver in this way.”

Daniel 3:30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 4:1 King Nebuchadnezzar to all peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you!

Daniel 4:2 It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has wrought toward me.

Daniel 4:3 How great are his signs, how mighty his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

Daniel 4:4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and prospering in my palace.

Daniel 4:5 I had a dream which made me afraid; as I lay in bed the fancies and the visions of my head alarmed me.

Daniel 4:6 Therefore I made a decree that all the wise men of Babylon should be brought before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

Daniel 4:7 Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers came in; and I told them the dream, but they could not make known to me its interpretation.

Daniel 4:8 At last Daniel came in before me—he who was named Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods—and I told him the dream, saying,

Daniel 4:9 “O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is difficult for you, here is the dream which I saw; tell me its interpretation.

Daniel 4:10 The visions of my head as I lay in bed were these: I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth; and its height was great.

Daniel 4:11 The tree grew and became strong, and its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the end of the whole earth.

Daniel 4:12 Its leaves were fair and its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all. The beasts of the field found shade under it, and the birds of the air dwelt in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

Daniel 4:13 “I saw in the visions of my head as I lay in bed, and behold, a watcher, a holy one, came down from heaven.

Daniel 4:14 He cried aloud and said thus, `Hew down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit; let the beasts flee from under it and the birds from its branches.

Daniel 4:15 But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, amid the tender grass of the field. Let him be wet with the dew of heaven; let his lot be with the beasts in the grass of the earth;

Daniel 4:16 let his mind be changed from a man’s, and let a beast’s mind be given to him; and let seven times pass over him.

Daniel 4:17 The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, the decision by the word of the holy ones, to the end that the living may know that the Most High rules the kingdom of men, and gives it to whom he will, and sets over it the lowliest of men.’

Daniel 4:18 This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. And you, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation, but you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

Daniel 4:19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was dismayed for a moment, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, “Belteshazzar, let not the dream or the interpretation alarm you.” Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you and its interpretation for your enemies!

Daniel 4:20 The tree you saw, which grew and became strong, so that its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the end of the whole earth;

Daniel 4:21 whose leaves were fair and its fruit abundant, and in which was food for all; under which beasts of the field found shade, and in whose branches the birds of the air dwelt —

Daniel 4:22 it is you, O king, who have grown and become strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to heaven, and your dominion to the ends of the earth.

Daniel 4:23 And whereas the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, `Hew down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let him be wet with the dew of heaven; and let his lot be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him';

Daniel 4:24 this is the interpretation, O king: It is a decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king,

Daniel 4:25 that you shall be driven from among men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; you shall be made to eat grass like an ox, and you shall be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, till you know that the Most High rules the kingdom of men, and gives it to whom he will.

Daniel 4:26 And as it was commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree, your kingdom shall be sure for you from the time that you know that Heaven rules.

Daniel 4:27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you; break off your sins by practicing righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed, that there may perhaps be a lengthening of your tranquillity."

Daniel 4:28 All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 4:29 At the end of twelve months he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon,

Daniel 4:30 and the king said, "Is not this great Babylon, which I have built by my mighty power as a royal residence and for the glory of my majesty?"

Daniel 4:31 While the words were still in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, "O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom has departed from you,

Daniel 4:32 and you shall be driven from among men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; and you shall be made to eat grass like an ox; and seven times shall pass over you, until you have learned that the Most High rules the kingdom of men and gives it to whom he will."

Daniel 4:33 Immediately the word was fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from among men, and ate grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair grew as long as eagles' feathers, and his nails were like birds' claws.

Daniel 4:34 At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored him who lives for ever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation;

Daniel 4:35 all the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing; and he does according to his will in the host of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand or say to him, "What doest thou?"

Daniel 4:36 At the same time my reason returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor returned to me. My counselors and my lords sought me, and I was established in my kingdom, and still more greatness was added to me.

Daniel 4:37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are right and his ways are just; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

Daniel 5:1 King Belshazzar made a great feast for a thousand of his lords, and drank wine in front of the thousand.

Daniel 5:2 Belshazzar, when he tasted the wine, commanded that the vessels of gold and of silver which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem be brought, that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them.

Daniel 5:3 Then they brought in the golden and silver vessels which had been taken out of the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them.

Daniel 5:4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

Daniel 5:5 Immediately the fingers of a man's hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace, opposite the lampstand; and the king saw the hand as it wrote.

Daniel 5:6 Then the king's color changed, and his thoughts alarmed him; his limbs gave way, and his knees knocked together.

Daniel 5:7 The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers. The king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and shows me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

Daniel 5:8 Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or make known to the king the interpretation.

Daniel 5:9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly alarmed, and his color changed; and his lords were perplexed.

Daniel 5:10 The queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banqueting hall; and the queen said, “O king, live for ever! Let not your thoughts alarm you or your color change.

Daniel 5:11 There is in your kingdom a man in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him, and King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and astrologers,

Daniel 5:12 because an excellent spirit, knowledge, and understanding to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.”

Daniel 5:13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king said to Daniel, “You are that Daniel, one of the exiles of Judah, whom the king my father brought from Judah.

Daniel 5:14 I have heard of you that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.

Daniel 5:15 Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the matter.

Daniel 5:16 But I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Daniel 5:17 Then Daniel answered before the king, “Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king and make known to him the interpretation.

Daniel 5:18 O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father kingship and greatness and glory and majesty;

Daniel 5:19 and because of the greatness that he gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him; whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down.

Daniel 5:20 But when his heart was lifted up and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and his glory was taken from him;

Daniel 5:21 he was driven from among men, and his mind was made like that of a beast, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he was fed grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until he knew that the Most High God rules the kingdom of men, and sets over it whom he will.

Daniel 5:22 And you his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this,

Daniel 5:23 but you have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and the vessels of his house have been brought in before you, and you and your lords, your wives, and your concubines have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or know, but the God in whose hand is your breath, and whose are all your ways, you have not honored.

Daniel 5:24 "Then from his presence the hand was sent, and this writing was inscribed.

Daniel 5:25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN.

Daniel 5:26 This is the interpretation of the matter: MENE, God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end;

Daniel 5:27 TEKEL, you have been weighed in the balances and found wanting;

Daniel 5:28 PERES, your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

Daniel 5:29 Then Belshazzar commanded, and Daniel was clothed with purple, a chain of gold was put about his neck, and proclamation was made concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Daniel 5:30 That very night Belshazzar the Chaldean king was slain.

Daniel 5:31 And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Daniel 6:1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, to be throughout the whole kingdom;

Daniel 6:2 and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one, to whom these satraps should give account, so that the king might suffer no loss.

Daniel 6:3 Then this Daniel became distinguished above all the other presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.

Daniel 6:4 Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find a ground for complaint against Daniel with regard to the kingdom; but they could find no ground for complaint or any fault, because he was faithful, and no error or fault was found in him.

Daniel 6:5 Then these men said, “We shall not find any ground for complaint against this Daniel unless we find it in connection with the law of his God.”

Daniel 6:6 Then these presidents and satraps came by agreement to the king and said to him, “O King Darius, live for ever!

Daniel 6:7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the counselors and the governors are agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce an interdict, that whoever makes petition to any god or man for thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions.

Daniel 6:8 Now, O king, establish the interdict and sign the document, so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be revoked.”

Daniel 6:9 Therefore King Darius signed the document and interdict.

Daniel 6:10 When Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he went to his house where he had windows in his upper chamber open toward Jerusalem; and he got down upon his knees three times a day and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as he had done previously.

Daniel 6:11 Then these men came by agreement and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God.

Daniel 6:12 Then they came near and said before the king, concerning the interdict, “O king! Did you not sign an interdict, that any man who makes petition to any god or man within thirty days except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?” The king answered, “The thing stands fast, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be revoked.”

Daniel 6:13 Then they answered before the king, “That Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no heed to you, O king, or the interdict you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.”

Daniel 6:14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was much distressed, and set his mind to deliver Daniel; and he labored till the sun went down to rescue him.

Daniel 6:15 Then these men came by agreement to the king, and said to the king, “Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no interdict or ordinance which the king establishes can be changed.”

Daniel 6:16 Then the king commanded, and Daniel was brought and cast into the den of lions. The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!”

Daniel 6:17 And a stone was brought and laid upon the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords, that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.

Daniel 6:18 Then the king went to his palace, and spent the night fasting; no diversions were brought to him, and sleep fled from him.

Daniel 6:19 Then, at break of day, the king arose and went in haste to the den of lions.

Daniel 6:20 When he came near to the den where Daniel was, he cried out in a tone of anguish and said to Daniel, “O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?”

Daniel 6:21 Then Daniel said to the king, “O king, live for ever!

Daniel 6:22 My God sent his angel and shut the lions’ mouths, and they have not hurt me, because I was found blameless before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no wrong.”

Daniel 6:23 Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that Daniel be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of hurt was found upon him, because he had trusted in his God.

Daniel 6:24 And the king commanded, and those men who had accused Daniel were brought and cast into the den of lions—they, their children, and their wives; and before they reached the bottom of the den the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces.

Daniel 6:25 Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: “Peace be multiplied to you.

Daniel 6:26 I make a decree, that in all my royal dominion men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel, for he is the living God, enduring for ever; his kingdom shall never be destroyed, and his dominion shall be to the end.

Daniel 6:27 He delivers and rescues, he works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, he who has saved Daniel from the power of the lions.”

Daniel 6:28 So this Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel 7:1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in his bed. Then he wrote down the dream, and told the sum of the matter.

Daniel 7:2 Daniel said, “I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea.

Daniel 7:3 And four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

Daniel 7:4 The first was like a lion and had eagles’ wings. Then as I looked its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand upon two feet like a man; and the mind of a man was given to it.

Daniel 7:5 And behold, another beast, a second one, like a bear. It was raised up on one side; it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, `Arise, devour much flesh.'

Daniel 7:6 After this I looked, and lo, another, like a leopard, with four wings of a bird on its back; and the beast had four heads; and dominion was given to it.

Daniel 7:7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, terrible and dreadful and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots; and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

Daniel 7:9 As I looked, thrones were placed and one that was ancient of days took his seat; his raiment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, its wheels were burning fire.

Daniel 7:10 A stream of fire issued and came forth from before him; a thousand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him; the court sat in judgment, and the books were opened.

Daniel 7:11 I looked then because of the sound of the great words which the horn was speaking. And as I looked, the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given over to be burned with fire.

Daniel 7:12 As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

Daniel 7:13 I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him.

Daniel 7:14 And to him was given dominion and glory and kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed.

Daniel 7:15 "As for me, Daniel, my spirit within me was anxious and the visions of my head alarmed me.

Daniel 7:16 I approached one of those who stood there and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made known to me the interpretation of the things.

Daniel 7:17 `These four great beasts are four kings who shall arise out of the earth.

Daniel 7:18 But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, for ever and ever.'

Daniel 7:19 “Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was different from all the rest, exceedingly terrible, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze; and which devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet;

Daniel 7:20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up and before which three of them fell, the horn which had eyes and a mouth that spoke great things, and which seemed greater than its fellows.

Daniel 7:21 As I looked, this horn made war with the saints, and prevailed over them,

Daniel 7:22 until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given for the saints of the Most High, and the time came when the saints received the kingdom.

Daniel 7:23 “Thus he said: `As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces.

Daniel 7:24 As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them; he shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings.

Daniel 7:25 He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, two times, and half a time.

Daniel 7:26 But the court shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end.

Daniel 7:27 And the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High; their kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey them.’

Daniel 7:28 “Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly alarmed me, and my color changed; but I kept the matter in my mind.”

Daniel 8:1 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first.

Daniel 8:2 And I saw in the vision; and when I saw, I was in Susa the capital, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was at the river Ulai.

Daniel 8:3 I raised my eyes and saw, and behold, a ram standing on the bank of the river. It had two horns; and both horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last.

Daniel 8:4 I saw the ram charging westward and northward and southward; no beast could stand before him, and there was no one who could rescue from his power; he did as he pleased and magnified himself.

Daniel 8:5 As I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west across the face of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes.

Daniel 8:6 He came to the ram with the two horns, which I had seen standing on the bank of the river, and he ran at him in his mighty wrath.

Daniel 8:7 I saw him come close to the ram, and he was enraged against him and struck the ram and broke his two horns; and the ram had no power to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled upon him; and there was no one who could rescue the ram from his power.

Daniel 8:8 Then the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly; but when he was strong, the great horn was broken, and instead of it there came up four conspicuous horns toward the four winds of heaven.

Daniel 8:9 Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the glorious land.

Daniel 8:10 It grew great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled upon them.

Daniel 8:11 It magnified itself, even up to the Prince of the host; and the continual burnt offering was taken away from him, and the place of his sanctuary was overthrown.

Daniel 8:12 And the host was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through transgression; and truth was cast down to the ground, and the horn acted and prospered.

Daniel 8:13 Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to the one that spoke, “For how long is the vision concerning the continual burnt offering, the transgression that makes desolate, and the giving over of the sanctuary and host to be trampled under foot?”

Daniel 8:14 And he said to him, “For two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary shall be restored to its rightful state.”

Daniel 8:15 When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it; and behold, there stood before me one having the appearance of a man.

Daniel 8:16 And I heard a man’s voice between the banks of the Ulai, and it called, “Gabriel, make this man understand the vision.”

Daniel 8:17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened and fell upon my face. But he said to me, “Understand, O son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end.”

Daniel 8:18 As he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me and set me on my feet.

Daniel 8:19 He said, “Behold, I will make known to you what shall be at the latter end of the indignation; for it pertains to the appointed time of the end.

Daniel 8:20 As for the ram which you saw with the two horns, these are the kings of Media and Persia.

Daniel 8:21 And the he-goat is the king of Greece; and the great horn between his eyes is the first king.

Daniel 8:22 As for the horn that was broken, in place of which four others arose, four kingdoms shall arise from his nation, but not with his power.

Daniel 8:23 And at the latter end of their rule, when the transgressors have reached their full measure, a king of bold countenance, one who understands riddles, shall arise.

Daniel 8:24 His power shall be great, and he shall cause fearful destruction, and shall succeed in what he does, and destroy mighty men and the people of the saints.

Daniel 8:25 By his cunning he shall make deceit prosper under his hand, and in his own mind he shall magnify himself. Without warning he shall destroy many; and he shall even rise up against the Prince of princes; but, by no human hand, he shall be broken.

Daniel 8:26 The vision of the evenings and the mornings which has been told is true; but seal up the vision, for it pertains to many days hence.”

Daniel 8:27 And I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for some days; then I rose and went about the king’s business; but I was appalled by the vision and did not understand it.

Daniel 9:1 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, by birth a Mede, who became king over the realm of the Chaldeans —

Daniel 9:2 in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, perceived in the books the number of years which, according to the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet, must pass before the end of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years.

Daniel 9:3 Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and supplications with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

Daniel 9:4 I prayed to the LORD my God and made confession, saying, “O Lord, the great and terrible God, who keepest covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments,

Daniel 9:5 we have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from thy commandments and ordinances;

Daniel 9:6 we have not listened to thy servants the prophets, who spoke in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

Daniel 9:7 To thee, O Lord, belongs righteousness, but to us confusion of face, as at this day, to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, those that are near and those that are far away, in all the lands to which thou hast driven them, because of the treachery which they have committed against thee.

Daniel 9:8 To us, O Lord, belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

Daniel 9:9 To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness; because we have rebelled against him,

Daniel 9:10 and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God by following his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

Daniel 9:11 All Israel has transgressed thy law and turned aside, refusing to obey thy voice. And the curse and oath which are written in the law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out upon us, because we have sinned against him.

Daniel 9:12 He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us and against our rulers who ruled us, by bringing upon us a great calamity; for under the whole heaven there has not been done the like of what has been done against Jerusalem.

Daniel 9:13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this calamity has come upon us, yet we have not entreated the favor of the LORD our God, turning from our iniquities and giving heed to thy truth.

Daniel 9:14 Therefore the LORD has kept ready the calamity and has brought it upon us; for the LORD our God is righteous in all the works which he has done, and we have not obeyed his voice.

Daniel 9:15 And now, O Lord our God, who didst bring thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast made thee a name, as at this day, we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

Daniel 9:16 O Lord, according to all thy righteous acts, let thy anger and thy wrath turn away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy hill; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people have become a byword among all who are round about us.

Daniel 9:17 Now therefore, O our God, hearken to the prayer of thy servant and to his supplications, and for thy own sake, O Lord, cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary, which is desolate.

Daniel 9:18 O my God, incline thy ear and hear; open thy eyes and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name; for we do not present our supplications before thee on the ground of our righteousness, but on the ground of thy great mercy.

Daniel 9:19 O LORD, hear; O LORD, forgive; O LORD, give heed and act; delay not, for thy own sake, O my God, because thy city and thy people are called by thy name."

Daniel 9:20 While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy hill of my God;

Daniel 9:21 while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the first, came to me in swift flight at the time of the evening sacrifice.

Daniel 9:22 He came and he said to me, "O Daniel, I have now come out to give you wisdom and understanding.

Daniel 9:23 At the beginning of your supplications a word went forth, and I have come to tell it to you, for you are greatly beloved; therefore consider the word and understand the vision.

Daniel 9:24 "Seventy weeks of years are decreed concerning your people and your holy city, to finish the transgression, to put an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal both vision and prophet, and to anoint a most holy place.

Daniel 9:25 Know therefore and understand that from the going forth of the word to restore and build Jerusalem to the coming of an anointed one, a prince, there shall be seven weeks. Then for sixty-two weeks it shall be built again with squares and moat, but in a troubled time.

Daniel 9:26 And after the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one shall be cut off, and shall have nothing; and the people of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end shall come with a flood, and to the end there shall be war; desolations are decreed.

Daniel 9:27 And he shall make a strong covenant with many for one week; and for half of the week he shall cause sacrifice and offering to cease; and upon the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate, until the decreed end is poured out on the desolator."

Daniel 10:1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar. And the word was true, and it was a great conflict. And he understood the word and had understanding of the vision.

Daniel 10:2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three weeks.

Daniel 10:3 I ate no delicacies, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, for the full three weeks.

Daniel 10:4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, that is, the Tigris,

Daniel 10:5 I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with gold of Uphaz.

Daniel 10:6 His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the noise of a multitude.

Daniel 10:7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision, but a great trembling fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves.

Daniel 10:8 So I was left alone and saw this great vision, and no strength was left in me; my radiant appearance was fearfully changed, and I retained no strength.

Daniel 10:9 Then I heard the sound of his words; and when I heard the sound of his words, I fell on my face in a deep sleep with my face to the ground.

Daniel 10:10 And behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees.

Daniel 10:11 And he said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly beloved, give heed to the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for now I have been sent to you." While he was speaking this word to me, I stood up trembling.

Daniel 10:12 Then he said to me, "Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your mind to understand and humbled yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words.

Daniel 10:13 The prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, so I left him there with the prince of the kingdom of Persia

Daniel 10:14 and came to make you understand what is to befall your people in the latter days. For the vision is for days yet to come."

Daniel 10:15 When he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground and was dumb.

Daniel 10:16 And behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke. I said to him who stood before me, "O my lord, by reason of the vision pains have come upon me, and I retain no strength.

Daniel 10:17 How can my lord's servant talk with my lord? For now no strength remains in me, and no breath is left in me."

Daniel 10:18 Again one having the appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me.

Daniel 10:19 And he said, "O man greatly beloved, fear not, peace be with you; be strong and of good courage." And when he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

Daniel 10:20 Then he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? But now I will return to fight against the prince of Persia; and when I am through with him, lo, the prince of Greece will come.

Daniel 10:21 But I will tell you what is inscribed in the book of truth: there is none who contends by my side against these except Michael, your prince.

Daniel 11:1 And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.

Daniel 11:2 “And now I will show you the truth. Behold, three more kings shall arise in Persia; and a fourth shall be far richer than all of them; and when he has become strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece.

Daniel 11:3 Then a mighty king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion and do according to his will.

Daniel 11:4 And when he has arisen, his kingdom shall be broken and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to the dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up and go to others besides these.

Daniel 11:5 “Then the king of the south shall be strong, but one of his princes shall be stronger than he and his dominion shall be a great dominion.

Daniel 11:6 After some years they shall make an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make peace; but she shall not retain the strength of her arm, and he and his offspring shall not endure; but she shall be given up, and her attendants, her child, and he who got possession of her.

Daniel 11:7 “In those times a branch from her roots shall arise in his place; he shall come against the army and enter the fortress of the king of the north, and he shall deal with them and shall prevail.

Daniel 11:8 He shall also carry off to Egypt their gods with their molten images and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and for some years he shall refrain from attacking the king of the north.

Daniel 11:9 Then the latter shall come into the realm of the king of the south but shall return into his own land.

Daniel 11:10 “His sons shall wage war and assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on and overflow and pass through, and again shall carry the war as far as his fortress.

Daniel 11:11 Then the king of the south, moved with anger, shall come out and fight with the king of the north; and he shall raise a great multitude, but it shall be given into his hand.

Daniel 11:12 And when the multitude is taken, his heart shall be exalted, and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail.

Daniel 11:13 For the king of the north shall again raise a multitude, greater than the former; and after some years he shall come on with a great army and abundant supplies.

Daniel 11:14 “In those times many shall rise against the king of the south; and the men of violence among your own people shall lift themselves up in order to fulfil the vision; but they shall fail.

Daniel 11:15 Then the king of the north shall come and throw up siegeworks, and take a well-fortified city. And the forces of the south shall not stand, or even his picked troops, for there shall be no strength to stand.

Daniel 11:16 But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the glorious land, and all of it shall be in his power.

Daniel 11:17 He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and he shall bring terms of peace and perform them. He shall give him the daughter of women to destroy the kingdom; but it shall not stand or be to his advantage.

Daniel 11:18 Afterward he shall turn his face to the coastlands, and shall take many of them; but a commander shall put an end to his insolence; indeed he shall turn his insolence back upon him.

Daniel 11:19 Then he shall turn his face back toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found.

Daniel 11:20 “Then shall arise in his place one who shall send an exactor of tribute through the glory of the kingdom; but within a few days he shall be broken, neither in anger nor in battle.

Daniel 11:21 In his place shall arise a contemptible person to whom royal majesty has not been given; he shall come in without warning and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

Daniel 11:22 Armies shall be utterly swept away before him and broken, and the prince of the covenant also.

Daniel 11:23 And from the time that an alliance is made with him he shall act deceitfully; and he shall become strong with a small people.

Daniel 11:24 Without warning he shall come into the richest parts of the province; and he shall do what neither his fathers nor his fathers’ fathers have done, scattering among them plunder, spoil, and goods. He shall devise plans against strongholds, but only for a time.

Daniel 11:25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall wage war with an exceedingly great and mighty army; but he shall not stand, for plots shall be devised against him.

Daniel 11:26 Even those who eat his rich food shall be his undoing; his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall down slain.

Daniel 11:27 And as for the two kings, their minds shall be bent on mischief; they shall speak lies at the same table, but to no avail; for the end is yet to be at the time appointed.

Daniel 11:28 And he shall return to his land with great substance, but his heart shall be set against the holy covenant. And he shall work his will, and return to his own land.

Daniel 11:29 “At the time appointed he shall return and come into the south; but it shall not be this time as it was before.

Daniel 11:30 For ships of Kittim shall come against him, and he shall be afraid and withdraw, and shall turn back and be enraged and take action against the holy covenant. He shall turn back and give heed to those who forsake the holy covenant.

Daniel 11:31 Forces from him shall appear and profane the temple and fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering. And they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate.

Daniel 11:32 He shall seduce with flattery those who violate the covenant; but the people who know their God shall stand firm and take action.

Daniel 11:33 And those among the people who are wise shall make many understand, though they shall fall by sword and flame, by captivity and plunder, for some days.

Daniel 11:34 When they fall, they shall receive a little help. And many shall join themselves to them with flattery;

Daniel 11:35 and some of those who are wise shall fall, to refine and to cleanse them and to make them white, until the time of the end, for it is yet for the time appointed.

Daniel 11:36 “And the king shall do according to his will; he shall exalt himself and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak astonishing things against the God of gods. He shall prosper till the indignation is accomplished; for what is determined shall be done.

Daniel 11:37 He shall give no heed to the gods of his fathers, or to the one beloved by women; he shall not give heed to any other god, for he shall magnify himself above all.

Daniel 11:38 He shall honor the god of fortresses instead of these; a god whom his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.

Daniel 11:39 He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god; those who acknowledge him he shall magnify with honor. He shall make them rulers over many and shall divide the land for a price.

Daniel 11:40 “At the time of the end the king of the south shall attack him; but the king of the north shall rush upon him like a whirlwind, with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall come into countries and shall overflow and pass through.

Daniel 11:41 He shall come into the glorious land. And tens of thousands shall fall, but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom and Moab and the main part of the Ammonites.

Daniel 11:42 He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

Daniel 11:43 He shall become ruler of the treasures of gold and of silver, and all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall follow in his train.

Daniel 11:44 But tidings from the east and the north shall alarm him, and he shall go forth with great fury to exterminate and utterly destroy many.

Daniel 11:45 And he shall pitch his palatial tents between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, with none to help him.

Daniel 12:1 “At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time; but at that time your people shall be delivered, every one whose name shall be found written in the book.

Daniel 12:2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Daniel 12:3 And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

Daniel 12:4 But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, until the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase.”

Daniel 12:5 Then I Daniel looked, and behold, two others stood, one on this bank of the stream and one on that bank of the stream.

Daniel 12:6 And I said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream, “How long shall it be till the end of these wonders?”

Daniel 12:7 The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream, raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven; and I heard him swear by him who lives for ever that it would be for a time, two times, and half a time; and that when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end all these things would be accomplished.

Daniel 12:8 I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, “O my lord, what shall be the issue of these things?”

Daniel 12:9 He said, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.

Daniel 12:10 Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand.

Daniel 12:11 And from the time that the continual burnt offering is taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate is set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

Daniel 12:12 Blessed is he who waits and comes to the thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.

Daniel 12:13 But go your way till the end; and you shall rest, and shall stand in your allotted place at the end of the days.”

Hosea

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

Hosea 1:2 When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, “Go, take to yourself a wife of harlotry and have children of harlotry, for the land commits great harlotry by forsaking the LORD.”

Hosea 1:3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

Hosea 1:4 And the LORD said to him, “Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

Hosea 1:5 And on that day, I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.”

Hosea 1:6 She conceived again and bore a daughter. And the LORD said to him, “Call her name Not pitied, for I will no more have pity on the house of Israel, to forgive them at all.

Hosea 1:7 But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and I will deliver them by the LORD their God; I will not deliver them by bow, nor by sword, nor by war, nor by horses, nor by horsemen.”

Hosea 1:8 When she had weaned Not pitied, she conceived and bore a son.

Hosea 1:9 And the LORD said, “Call his name Not my people, for you are not my people and I am not your God.”

Hosea 1:10 Yet the number of the people of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which can be neither measured nor numbered; and in the place where it was said to them, “You are not my people,” it shall be said to them, “Sons of the living God.”

Hosea 1:11 And the people of Judah and the people of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint for themselves one head; and they shall go up from the land, for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Hosea 2:1 Say to your brother, “My people,” and to your sister, “She has obtained pity.”

Hosea 2:2 “Plead with your mother, plead—for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband—that she put away her harlotry from her face, and her adultery from between her breasts;

Hosea 2:3 lest I strip her naked and make her as in the day she was born, and make her like a wilderness, and set her like a parched land, and slay her with thirst.

Hosea 2:4 Upon her children also I will have no pity, because they are children of harlotry.

Hosea 2:5 For their mother has played the harlot; she that conceived them has acted shamefully. For she said, `I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.’

Hosea 2:6 Therefore I will hedge up her way with thorns; and I will build a wall against her, so that she cannot find her paths.

Hosea 2:7 She shall pursue her lovers, but not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them. Then she shall say, `I will go and return to my first husband, for it was better with me then than now.’

Hosea 2:8 And she did not know that it was I who gave her the grain, the wine, and the oil, and who lavished upon her silver and gold which they used for Baal.

Hosea 2:9 Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my wine in its season; and I will take away my wool and my flax, which were to cover her nakedness.

Hosea 2:10 Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one shall rescue her out of my hand.

Hosea 2:11 And I will put an end to all her mirth, her feasts, her new moons, her sabbaths, and all her appointed feasts.

Hosea 2:12 And I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, of which she said, `These are my hire, which my lovers have given me.’ I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall devour them.

Hosea 2:13 And I will punish her for the feast days of the Baals when she burned incense to them and decked herself with her ring and jewelry, and went after her lovers, and forgot me, says the LORD.

Hosea 2:14 “Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her.

Hosea 2:15 And there I will give her her vineyards, and make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. And there she shall answer as in the days of her youth, as at the time when she came out of the land of Egypt.

Hosea 2:16 "And in that day, says the LORD, you will call me, `My husband,' and no longer will you call me, `My Baal.'

Hosea 2:17 For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth, and they shall be mentioned by name no more.

Hosea 2:18 And I will make for you a covenant on that day with the beasts of the field, the birds of the air, and the creeping things of the ground; and I will abolish the bow, the sword, and war from the land; and I will make you lie down in safety.

Hosea 2:19 And I will betroth you to me for ever; I will betroth you to me in righteousness and in justice, in steadfast love, and in mercy.

Hosea 2:20 I will betroth you to me in faithfulness; and you shall know the LORD.

Hosea 2:21 "And in that day, says the LORD, I will answer the heavens and they shall answer the earth;

Hosea 2:22 and the earth shall answer the grain, the wine, and the oil, and they shall answer Jezreel;

Hosea 2:23 and I will sow him for myself in the land. And I will have pity on Not pitied, and I will say to Not my people, `You are my people'; and he shall say `Thou art my God.'"

Hosea 3:1 And the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is beloved of a paramour and is an adulteress; even as the LORD loves the people of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love cakes of raisins."

Hosea 3:2 So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer and a lethech of barley.

Hosea 3:3 And I said to her, "You must dwell as mine for many days; you shall not play the harlot, or belong to another man; so will I also be to you."

Hosea 3:4 For the children of Israel shall dwell many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or pillar, without ephod or teraphim.

Hosea 3:5 Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and they shall come in fear to the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O people of Israel; for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or kindness, and no knowledge of God in the land;

Hosea 4:2 there is swearing, lying, killing, stealing, and committing adultery; they break all bounds and murder follows murder.

Hosea 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it languish, and also the beasts of the field, and the birds of the air; and even the fish of the sea are taken away.

Hosea 4:4 Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse, for with you is my contention, O priest.

Hosea 4:5 You shall stumble by day, the prophet also shall stumble with you by night; and I will destroy your mother.

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

Hosea 4:7 The more they increased, the more they sinned against me; I will change their glory into shame.

Hosea 4:8 They feed on the sin of my people; they are greedy for their iniquity.

Hosea 4:9 And it shall be like people, like priest; I will punish them for their ways, and requite them for their deeds.

Hosea 4:10 They shall eat, but not be satisfied; they shall play the harlot, but not multiply; because they have forsaken the LORD to cherish harlotry.

Hosea 4:11 Wine and new wine take away the understanding.

Hosea 4:12 My people inquire of a thing of wood, and their staff gives them oracles. For a spirit of harlotry has led them astray, and they have left their God to play the harlot.

Hosea 4:13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and make offerings upon the hills, under oak, poplar, and terebinth, because their shade is good. Therefore your daughters play the harlot, and your brides commit adultery.

Hosea 4:14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the harlot, nor your brides when they commit adultery; for the men themselves go aside with harlots, and sacrifice with cult prostitutes, and a people without understanding shall come to ruin.

Hosea 4:15 Though you play the harlot, O Israel, let not Judah become guilty. Enter not into Gilgal, nor go up to Bethaven, and swear not, “As the LORD lives.”

Hosea 4:16 Like a stubborn heifer, Israel is stubborn; can the LORD now feed them like a lamb in a broad pasture?

Hosea 4:17 Ephraim is joined to idols, let him alone.

Hosea 4:18 A band of drunkards, they give themselves to harlotry; they love shame more than their glory.

Hosea 4:19 A wind has wrapped them in its wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their altars.

Hosea 5:1 Hear this, O priests! Give heed, O house of Israel! Hearken, O house of the king! For the judgment pertains to you; for you have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

Hosea 5:2 And they have made deep the pit of Shittim; but I will chastise all of them.

Hosea 5:3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me; for now, O Ephraim, you have played the harlot, Israel is defiled.

Hosea 5:4 Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God. For the spirit of harlotry is within them, and they know not the LORD.

Hosea 5:5 The pride of Israel testifies to his face; Ephraim shall stumble in his guilt; Judah also shall stumble with them.

Hosea 5:6 With their flocks and herds they shall go to seek the LORD, but they will not find him; he has withdrawn from them.

Hosea 5:7 They have dealt faithlessly with the LORD; for they have borne alien children. Now the new moon shall devour them with their fields.

Hosea 5:8 Blow the horn in Gibeah, the trumpet in Ramah. Sound the alarm at Bethaven; tremble, O Benjamin!

Hosea 5:9 Ephraim shall become a desolation in the day of punishment; among the tribes of Israel I declare what is sure.

Hosea 5:10 The princes of Judah have become like those who remove the landmark; upon them I will pour out my wrath like water.

Hosea 5:11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, because he was determined to go after vanity.

Hosea 5:12 Therefore I am like a moth to Ephraim, and like dry rot to the house of Judah.

Hosea 5:13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound, then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to the great king. But he is not able to cure you or heal your wound.

Hosea 5:14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I, even I, will rend and go away, I will carry off, and none shall rescue.

Hosea 5:15 I will return again to my place, until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face, and in their distress they seek me, saying,

Hosea 6:1 “Come, let us return to the LORD; for he has torn, that he may heal us; he has stricken, and he will bind us up.

Hosea 6:2 After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him.

Hosea 6:3 Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD; his going forth is sure as the dawn; he will come to us as the showers, as the spring rains that water the earth.”

Hosea 6:4 What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes early away.

Hosea 6:5 Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have slain them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light.

Hosea 6:6 For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God, rather than burnt offerings.

Hosea 6:7 But at Adam they transgressed the covenant; there they dealt faithlessly with me.

Hosea 6:8 Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood.

Hosea 6:9 As robbers lie in wait for a man, so the priests are banded together; they murder on the way to Shechem, yea, they commit villainy.

Hosea 6:10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing; Ephraim's harlotry is there, Israel is defiled.

Hosea 6:11 For you also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed. When I would restore the fortunes of my people,

Hosea 7:1 when I would heal Israel, the corruption of Ephraim is revealed, and the wicked deeds of Samaria; for they deal falsely, the thief breaks in, and the bandits raid without.

Hosea 7:2 But they do not consider that I remember all their evil works. Now their deeds encompass them, they are before my face.

Hosea 7:3 By their wickedness they make the king glad, and the princes by their treachery.

Hosea 7:4 They are all adulterers; they are like a heated oven, whose baker ceases to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

Hosea 7:5 On the day of our king the princes became sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with mockers.

Hosea 7:6 For like an oven their hearts burn with intrigue; all night their anger smolders; in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

Hosea 7:7 All of them are hot as an oven, and they devour their rulers. All their kings have fallen; and none of them calls upon me.

Hosea 7:8 Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

Hosea 7:9 Aliens devour his strength, and he knows it not; gray hairs are sprinkled upon him, and he knows it not.

Hosea 7:10 The pride of Israel witnesses against him; yet they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him, for all this.

Hosea 7:11 Ephraim is like a dove, silly and without sense, calling to Egypt, going to Assyria.

Hosea 7:12 As they go, I will spread over them my net; I will bring them down like birds of the air; I will chastise them for their wicked deeds.

Hosea 7:13 Woe to them, for they have strayed from me! Destruction to them, for they have rebelled against me! I would redeem them, but they speak lies against me.

Hosea 7:14 They do not cry to me from the heart, but they wail upon their beds; for grain and wine they gash themselves, they rebel against me.

Hosea 7:15 Although I trained and strengthened their arms, yet they devise evil against me.

Hosea 7:16 They turn to Baal; they are like a treacherous bow, their princes shall fall by the sword because of the insolence of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

Hosea 8:1 Set the trumpet to your lips, for a vulture is over the house of the LORD, because they have broken my covenant, and transgressed my law.

Hosea 8:2 To me they cry, My God, we Israel know thee.

Hosea 8:3 Israel has spurned the good; the enemy shall pursue him.

Hosea 8:4 They made kings, but not through me. They set up princes, but without my knowledge. With their silver and gold they made idols for their own destruction.

Hosea 8:5 I have spurned your calf, O Samaria. My anger burns against them. How long will it be till they are pure

Hosea 8:6 in Israel? A workman made it; it is not God. The calf of Samaria shall be broken to pieces.

Hosea 8:7 For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind. The standing grain has no heads, it shall yield no meal; if it were to yield, aliens would devour it.

Hosea 8:8 Israel is swallowed up; already they are among the nations as a useless vessel.

Hosea 8:9 For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild ass wandering alone; Ephraim has hired lovers.

Hosea 8:10 Though they hire allies among the nations, I will soon gather them up. And they shall cease for a little while from anointing king and princes.

Hosea 8:11 Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, they have become to him altars for sinning.

Hosea 8:12 Were I to write for him my laws by ten thousands, they would be regarded as a strange thing.

Hosea 8:13 They love sacrifice; they sacrifice flesh and eat it; but the LORD has no delight in them. Now he will remember their iniquity, and punish their sins; they shall return to Egypt.

Hosea 8:14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and built palaces; and Judah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour his strongholds.

Hosea 9:1 Rejoice not, O Israel! Exult not like the peoples; for you have played the harlot, forsaking your God. You have loved a harlot's hire upon all threshing floors.

Hosea 9:2 Threshing floor and winevat shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail them.

Hosea 9:3 They shall not remain in the land of the LORD; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean food in Assyria.

Hosea 9:4 They shall not pour libations of wine to the LORD; and they shall not please him with their sacrifices. Their bread shall be like mourners' bread; all who eat of it shall be defiled; for their bread shall be for their hunger only; it shall not come to the house of the LORD.

Hosea 9:5 What will you do on the day of appointed festival, and on the day of the feast of the LORD?

Hosea 9:6 For behold, they are going to Assyria; Egypt shall gather them, Memphis shall bury them. Nettles shall possess their precious things of silver; thorns shall be in their tents.

Hosea 9:7 The days of punishment have come, the days of recompense have come; Israel shall know it. The prophet is a fool, the man of the spirit is mad, because of your great iniquity and great hatred.

Hosea 9:8 The prophet is the watchman of Ephraim, the people of my God, yet a fowler's snare is on all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

Hosea 9:9 They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah: he will remember their iniquity, he will punish their sins.

Hosea 9:10 Like grapes in the wilderness, I found Israel. Like the first fruit on the fig tree, in its first season, I saw your fathers. But they came to Baalpeor, and consecrated themselves to Baal, and became detestable like the thing they loved.

Hosea 9:11 Ephraim's glory shall fly away like a bird—no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!

Hosea 9:12 Even if they bring up children, I will bereave them till none is left. Woe to them when I depart from them!

Hosea 9:13 Ephraim's sons, as I have seen, are destined for a prey; Ephraim must lead forth his sons to slaughter.

Hosea 9:14 Give them, O LORD—what wilt thou give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

Hosea 9:15 Every evil of theirs is in Gilgal; there I began to hate them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house. I will love them no more; all their princes are rebels.

Hosea 9:16 Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit. Even though they bring forth, I will slay their beloved children.

Hosea 9:17 My God will cast them off, because they have not hearkened to him; they shall be wanderers among the nations.

Hosea 10:1 Israel is a luxuriant vine that yields its fruit. The more his fruit increased the more altars he built; as his country improved he improved his pillars.

Hosea 10:2 Their heart is false; now they must bear their guilt. The LORD will break down their altars, and destroy their pillars.

Hosea 10:3 For now they will say: “We have no king, for we fear not the LORD, and a king, what could he do for us?”

Hosea 10:4 They utter mere words; with empty oaths they make covenants; so judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

Hosea 10:5 The inhabitants of Samaria tremble for the calf of Bethaven. Its people shall mourn for it, and its idolatrous priests shall wail over it, over its glory which has departed from it.

Hosea 10:6 Yea, the thing itself shall be carried to Assyria, as tribute to the great king. Ephraim shall be put to shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his idol.

Hosea 10:7 Samaria’s king shall perish, like a chip on the face of the waters.

Hosea 10:8 The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed. Thorn and thistle shall grow up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us, and to the hills, Fall upon us.

Hosea 10:9 From the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel; there they have continued. Shall not war overtake them in Gibeah?

Hosea 10:10 I will come against the wayward people to chastise them; and nations shall be gathered against them when they are chastised for their double iniquity.

Hosea 10:11 Ephraim was a trained heifer that loved to thresh, and I spared her fair neck; but I will put Ephraim to the yoke, Judah must plow, Jacob must harrow for himself.

Hosea 10:12 Sow for yourselves righteousness, reap the fruit of steadfast love; break up your fallow ground, for it is the time to seek the LORD, that he may come and rain salvation upon you.

Hosea 10:13 You have plowed iniquity, you have reaped injustice, you have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your chariots and in the multitude of your warriors,

Hosea 10:14 therefore the tumult of war shall arise among your people, and all your fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Betharbel on the day of battle; mothers were dashed in pieces with their children.

Hosea 10:15 Thus it shall be done to you, O house of Israel, because of your great wickedness. In the storm the king of Israel shall be utterly cut off.

Hosea 11:1 When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.

Hosea 11:2 The more I called them, the more they went from me; they kept sacrificing to the Baals, and burning incense to idols.

Hosea 11:3 Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, I took them up in my arms; but they did not know that I healed them.

Hosea 11:4 I led them with cords of compassion, with the bands of love, and I became to them as one, who eases the yoke on their jaws, and I bent down to them and fed them.

Hosea 11:5 They shall return to the land of Egypt, and Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me.

Hosea 11:6 The sword shall rage against their cities, consume the bars of their gates, and devour them in their fortresses.

Hosea 11:7 My people are bent on turning away from me; so they are appointed to the yoke, and none shall remove it.

Hosea 11:8 How can I give you up, O Ephraim! How can I hand you over, O Israel! How can I make you like Admah! How can I treat you like Zeboiim! My heart recoils within me, my compassion grows warm and tender.

Hosea 11:9 I will not execute my fierce anger, I will not again destroy Ephraim; for I am God and not man, the Holy One in your midst, and I will not come to destroy.

Hosea 11:10 They shall go after the LORD, he will roar like a lion; yea, he will roar, and his sons shall come trembling from the west;

Hosea 11:11 they shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria; and I will return them to their homes, says the LORD.

Hosea 11:12 Ephraim has encompassed me with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit; but Judah is still known by God, and is faithful to the Holy One.

Hosea 12:1 Ephraim herds the wind, and pursues the east wind all day long; they multiply falsehood and violence; they make a bargain with Assyria, and oil is carried to Egypt.

Hosea 12:2 The LORD has an indictment against Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways, and requite him according to his deeds.

Hosea 12:3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel, and in his manhood he strove with God.

Hosea 12:4 He strove with the angel and prevailed, he wept and sought his favor. He met God at Bethel, and there God spoke with him —

Hosea 12:5 the LORD the God of hosts, the LORD is his name:

Hosea 12:6 “So you, by the help of your God, return, hold fast to love and justice, and wait continually for your God.”

Hosea 12:7 A trader, in whose hands are false balances, he loves to oppress.

Hosea 12:8 Ephraim has said, “Ah, but I am rich, I have gained wealth for myself”: but all his riches can never offset the guilt he has incurred.

Hosea 12:9 I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt; I will again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the appointed feast.

Hosea 12:10 I spoke to the prophets; it was I who multiplied visions, and through the prophets gave parables.

Hosea 12:11 If there is iniquity in Gilead they shall surely come to nought; if in Gilgal they sacrifice bulls, their altars also shall be like stone heaps on the furrows of the field.

Hosea 12:12 (Jacob fled to the land of Aram, there Israel did service for a wife, and for a wife he herded sheep.)

Hosea 12:13 By a prophet the LORD brought Israel up from Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.

Hosea 12:14 Ephraim has given bitter provocation; so his LORD will leave his bloodguilt upon him, and will turn back upon him his reproaches.

Hosea 13:1 When Ephraim spoke, men trembled; he was exalted in Israel; but he incurred guilt through Baal and died.

Hosea 13:2 And now they sin more and more, and make for themselves molten images, idols skilfully made of their silver, all of them the work of craftsmen. Sacrifice to these, they say. Men kiss calves!

Hosea 13:3 Therefore they shall be like the morning mist or like the dew that goes early away, like the chaff that swirls from the threshing floor or like smoke from a window.

Hosea 13:4 I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt; you know no God but me, and besides me there is no savior.

Hosea 13:5 It was I who knew you in the wilderness, in the land of drought;

Hosea 13:6 but when they had fed to the full, they were filled, and their heart was lifted up; therefore they forgot me.

Hosea 13:7 So I will be to them like a lion, like a leopard I will lurk beside the way.

Hosea 13:8 I will fall upon them like a bear robbed of her cubs, I will tear open their breast, and there I will devour them like a lion, as a wild beast would rend them.

Hosea 13:9 I will destroy you, O Israel; who can help you?

Hosea 13:10 Where now is your king, to save you; where are all your princes, to defend you—those of whom you said, “Give me a king and princes”?

Hosea 13:11 I have given you kings in my anger, and I have taken them away in my wrath.

Hosea 13:12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up, his sin is kept in store.

Hosea 13:13 The pangs of childbirth come for him, but he is an unwise son; for now he does not present himself at the mouth of the womb.

Hosea 13:14 Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol? Shall I redeem them from Death? O Death, where are your plagues? O Sheol, where is your destruction? Compassion is hid from my eyes.

Hosea 13:15 Though he may flourish as the reed plant, the east wind, the wind of the LORD, shall come, rising from the wilderness; and his fountain shall dry up, his spring shall be parched; it shall strip his treasury of every precious thing.

Hosea 13:16 Samaria shall bear her guilt, because she has rebelled against her God; they shall fall by the sword, their little ones shall be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women ripped open.

Hosea 14:1 Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for you have stumbled because of your iniquity.

Hosea 14:2 Take with you words and return to the LORD; say to him, “Take away all iniquity; accept that which is good and we will render the fruit of our lips.

Hosea 14:3 Assyria shall not save us, we will not ride upon horses; and we will say no more, `Our God,’ to the work of our hands. In thee the orphan finds mercy.”

Hosea 14:4 I will heal their faithlessness; I will love them freely, for my anger has turned from them.

Hosea 14:5 I will be as the dew to Israel; he shall blossom as the lily, he shall strike root as the poplar;

Hosea 14:6 his shoots shall spread out; his beauty shall be like the olive, and his fragrance like Lebanon.

Hosea 14:7 They shall return and dwell beneath my shadow, they shall flourish as a garden; they shall blossom as the vine, their fragrance shall be like the wine of Lebanon.

Hosea 14:8 O Ephraim, what have I to do with idols? It is I who answer and look after you. I am like an evergreen cypress, from me comes your fruit.

Hosea 14:9 Whoever is wise, let him understand these things; whoever is discerning, let him know them; for the ways of the LORD are right, and the upright walk in them, but transgressors stumble in them.

Joel

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel:

Joel 1:2 Hear this, you aged men, give ear, all inhabitants of the land! Has such a thing happened in your days, or in the days of your fathers?

Joel 1:3 Tell your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

Joel 1:4 What the cutting locust left, the swarming locust has eaten. What the swarming locust left, the hopping locust has eaten, and what the hopping locust left, the destroying locust has eaten.

Joel 1:5 Awake, you drunkards, and weep; and wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.

Joel 1:6 For a nation has come up against my land, powerful and without number; its teeth are lions' teeth, and it has the fangs of a lioness.

Joel 1:7 It has laid waste my vines, and splintered my fig trees; it has stripped off their bark and thrown it down; their branches are made white.

Joel 1:8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the bridegroom of her youth.

Joel 1:9 The cereal offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of the LORD. The priests mourn, the ministers of the LORD.

Joel 1:10 The fields are laid waste, the ground mourns; because the grain is destroyed, the wine fails, the oil languishes.

Joel 1:11 Be confounded, O tillers of the soil, wail, O vinedressers, for the wheat and the barley; because the harvest of the field has perished.

Joel 1:12 The vine withers, the fig tree languishes. Pomegranate, palm, and apple, all the trees of the field are withered; and gladness fails from the sons of men.

Joel 1:13 Gird on sackcloth and lament, O priests, wail, O ministers of the altar. Go in, pass the night in sackcloth, O ministers of my God! Because cereal offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.

Joel 1:14 Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God; and cry to the LORD.

Joel 1:15 Alas for the day! For the day of the LORD is near, and as destruction from the Almighty it comes.

Joel 1:16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

Joel 1:17 The seed shrivels under the clods, the storehouses are desolate; the granaries are ruined because the grain has failed.

Joel 1:18 How the beasts groan! The herds of cattle are perplexed because there is no pasture for them; even the flocks of sheep are dismayed.

Joel 1:19 Unto thee, O LORD, I cry. For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flame has burned all the trees of the field.

Joel 1:20 Even the wild beasts cry to thee because the water brooks are dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Joel 2:1 Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming, it is near,

Joel 2:2 a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness! Like blackness there is spread upon the mountains a great and powerful people; their like has never been from of old, nor will be again after them through the years of all generations.

Joel 2:3 Fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns. The land is like the garden of Eden before them, but after them a desolate wilderness, and nothing escapes them.

Joel 2:4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses, and like war horses they run.

Joel 2:5 As with the rumbling of chariots, they leap on the tops of the mountains, like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble, like a powerful army drawn up for battle.

Joel 2:6 Before them peoples are in anguish, all faces grow pale.

Joel 2:7 Like warriors they charge, like soldiers they scale the wall. They march each on his way, they do not swerve from their paths.

Joel 2:8 They do not jostle one another, each marches in his path; they burst through the weapons and are not halted.

Joel 2:9 They leap upon the city, they run upon the walls; they climb up into the houses, they enter through the windows like a thief.

Joel 2:10 The earth quakes before them, the heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

Joel 2:11 The LORD utters his voice before his army, for his host is exceedingly great; he that executes his word is powerful. For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; who can endure it?

Joel 2:12 “Yet even now,” says the LORD, “return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;

Joel 2:13 and rend your hearts and not your garments.” Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and repents of evil.

Joel 2:14 Who knows whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, a cereal offering and a drink offering for the LORD, your God?

Joel 2:15 Blow the trumpet in Zion; sanctify a fast; call a solemn assembly;

Joel 2:16 gather the people. Sanctify the congregation; assemble the elders; gather the children, even nursing infants. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber.

Joel 2:17 Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, “Spare thy people, O LORD, and make not thy heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, `Where is their God?'”

Joel 2:18 Then the LORD became jealous for his land, and had pity on his people.

Joel 2:19 The LORD answered and said to his people, “Behold, I am sending to you grain, wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.

Joel 2:20 “I will remove the northerner far from you, and drive him into a parched and desolate land, his front into the eastern sea, and his rear into the western sea; the stench and foul smell of him will rise, for he has done great things.

Joel 2:21 “Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things!

Joel 2:22 Fear not, you beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield.

Joel 2:23 “Be glad, O sons of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD, your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the latter rain, as before.

Joel 2:24 “The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

Joel 2:25 I will restore to you the years which the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent among you.

Joel 2:26 “You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Joel 2:27 You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is none else. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Joel 2:28 “And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

Joel 2:29 Even upon the menservants and maidservants in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

Joel 2:30 “And I will give portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke.

Joel 2:31 The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

Joel 2:32 And it shall come to pass that all who call upon the name of the LORD shall be delivered; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

Joel 3:1 “For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

Joel 3:2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat, and I will enter into judgment with them there, on account of my people and my heritage Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations, and have divided up my land,

Joel 3:3 and have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for a harlot, and have sold a girl for wine, and have drunk it.

Joel 3:4 “What are you to me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you paying me back for something? If you are paying me back, I will requite your deed upon your own head swiftly and speedily.

Joel 3:5 For you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried my rich treasures into your temples.

Joel 3:6 You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, removing them far from their own border.

Joel 3:7 But now I will stir them up from the place to which you have sold them, and I will requite your deed upon your own head.

Joel 3:8 I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation far off; for the LORD has spoken.”

Joel 3:9 Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare war, stir up the mighty men. Let all the men of war draw near, let them come up.

Joel 3:10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears; let the weak say, “I am a warrior.”

Joel 3:11 Hasten and come, all you nations round about, gather yourselves there. Bring down thy warriors, O LORD.

Joel 3:12 Let the nations bestir themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the nations round about.

Joel 3:13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Go in, tread, for the wine press is full. The vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.

Joel 3:14 Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision! For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

Joel 3:15 The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

Joel 3:16 And the LORD roars from Zion, and utters his voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth shake. But the LORD is a refuge to his people, a stronghold to the people of Israel.

Joel 3:17 “So you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who dwell in Zion, my holy mountain. And Jerusalem shall be holy and strangers shall never again pass through it.

Joel 3:18 “And in that day the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the stream beds of Judah shall flow with water; and a fountain shall come forth from the house of the LORD and water the valley of Shittim.

Joel 3:19 “Egypt shall become a desolation and Edom a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the people of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

Joel 3:20 But Judah shall be inhabited for ever, and Jerusalem to all generations.

Joel 3:21 I will avenge their blood, and I will not clear the guilty, for the LORD dwells in Zion.”

Amos

1:1 The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

Amos 1:2 And he said: “The LORD roars from Zion, and utters his voice from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds mourn, and the top of Carmel withers.”

Amos 1:3 Thus says the LORD: “For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing sledges of iron.

Amos 1:4 So I will send a fire upon the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the strongholds of Benhadad.

Amos 1:5 I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitants from the Valley of Aven, and him that holds the scepter from Betheden; and the people of Syria shall go into exile to Kir,” says the LORD.

Amos 1:6 Thus says the LORD: “For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they carried into exile a whole people to deliver them up to Edom.

Amos 1:7 So I will send a fire upon the wall of Gaza, and it shall devour her strongholds.

Amos 1:8 I will cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod, and him that holds the scepter from Ashkelon; I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish,” says the Lord GOD.

Amos 1:9 Thus says the LORD: “For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they delivered up a whole people to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.

Amos 1:10 So I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre, and it shall devour her strongholds.”

Amos 1:11 Thus says the LORD: “For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because he pursued his brother with the sword, and cast off all pity, and his anger tore perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever.

Amos 1:12 So I will send a fire upon Teman, and it shall devour the strongholds of Bozrah.”

Amos 1:13 Thus says the LORD: “For three transgressions of the Ammonites, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have ripped up women with child in Gilead, that they might enlarge their border.

Amos 1:14 So I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour her strongholds, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind;

Amos 1:15 and their king shall go into exile, he and his princes together,” says the LORD.

Amos 2:1 Thus says the LORD: “For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because he burned to lime the bones of the king of Edom.

Amos 2:2 So I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the strongholds of Kerioth, and Moab shall die amid uproar, amid shouting and the sound of the trumpet;

Amos 2:3 I will cut off the ruler from its midst, and will slay all its princes with him,” says the LORD.

Amos 2:4 Thus says the LORD: “For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they have rejected the law of the LORD, and have not kept his statutes, but their lies have led them astray, after which their fathers walked.

Amos 2:5 So I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the strongholds of Jerusalem.”

Amos 2:6 Thus says the LORD: “For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment; because they sell the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes —

Amos 2:7 they that trample the head of the poor into the dust of the earth, and turn aside the way of the afflicted; a man and his father go in to the same maiden, so that my holy name is profaned;

Amos 2:8 they lay themselves down beside every altar upon garments taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined.

Amos 2:9 “Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and who was as strong as the oaks; I destroyed his fruit above, and his roots beneath.

Amos 2:10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

Amos 2:11 And I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazirites. Is it not indeed so, O people of Israel?” says the LORD.

Amos 2:12 “But you made the Nazirites drink wine, and commanded the prophets, saying, `You shall not prophesy.’

Amos 2:13 “Behold, I will press you down in your place, as a cart full of sheaves presses down.

Amos 2:14 Flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not retain his strength, nor shall the mighty save his life;

Amos 2:15 he who handles the bow shall not stand, and he who is swift of foot shall not save himself, nor shall he who rides the horse save his life;

Amos 2:16 and he who is stout of heart among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day,” says the LORD.

Amos 3:1 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt:

Amos 3:2 “You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

Amos 3:3 “Do two walk together, unless they have made an appointment?

Amos 3:4 Does a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Does a young lion cry out from his den, if he has taken nothing?

Amos 3:5 Does a bird fall in a snare on the earth, when there is no trap for it? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when it has taken nothing?

Amos 3:6 Is a trumpet blown in a city, and the people are not afraid? Does evil befall a city, unless the LORD has done it?

Amos 3:7 Surely the Lord GOD does nothing, without revealing his secret to his servants the prophets.

Amos 3:8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken; who can but prophesy?”

Amos 3:9 Proclaim to the strongholds in Assyria, and to the strongholds in the land of Egypt, and say, “Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and see the great tumults within her, and the oppressions in her midst.”

Amos 3:10 “They do not know how to do right,” says the LORD, “those who store up violence and robbery in their strongholds.”

Amos 3:11 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “An adversary shall surround the land, and bring down your defenses from you, and your strongholds shall be plundered.”

Amos 3:12 Thus says the LORD: “As the shepherd rescues from the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the people of Israel who dwell in Samaria be rescued, with the corner of a couch and part of a bed.”

Amos 3:13 “Hear, and testify against the house of Jacob,” says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

Amos 3:14 “that on the day I punish Israel for his transgressions, I will punish the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the altar shall be cut off and fall to the ground.

Amos 3:15 I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall come to an end,” says the LORD.

Amos 4:1 “Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are in the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to their husbands, `Bring, that we may drink!’

Amos 4:2 The Lord GOD has sworn by his holiness that, behold, the days are coming upon you, when they shall take you away with hooks, even the last of you with fishhooks.

Amos 4:3 And you shall go out through the breaches, every one straight before her; and you shall be cast forth into Harmon," says the LORD.

Amos 4:4 "Come to Bethel, and transgress; to Gilgal, and multiply transgression; bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three days;

Amos 4:5 offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill offerings, publish them; for so you love to do, O people of Israel!" says the Lord GOD.

Amos 4:6 "I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places, yet you did not return to me," says the LORD.

Amos 4:7 "And I also withheld the rain from you when there were yet three months to the harvest; I would send rain upon one city, and send no rain upon another city; one field would be rained upon, and the field on which it did not rain withered;

Amos 4:8 so two or three cities wandered to one city to drink water, and were not satisfied; yet you did not return to me," says the LORD.

Amos 4:9 "I smote you with blight and mildew; I laid waste your gardens and your vineyards; your fig trees and your olive trees the locust devoured; yet you did not return to me," says the LORD.

Amos 4:10 "I sent among you a pestilence after the manner of Egypt; I slew your young men with the sword; I carried away your horses; and I made the stench of your camp go up into your nostrils; yet you did not return to me," says the LORD.

Amos 4:11 "I overthrew some of you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were as a brand plucked out of the burning; yet you did not return to me," says the LORD.

Amos 4:12 "Therefore thus I will do to you, O Israel; because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel!"

Amos 4:13 For lo, he who forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares to man what is his thought; who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the heights of the earth—the LORD, the God of hosts, is his name!

Amos 5:1 Hear this word which I take up over you in lamentation, O house of Israel:

Amos 5:2 "Fallen, no more to rise, is the virgin Israel; forsaken on her land, with none to raise her up."

Amos 5:3 For thus says the Lord GOD: "The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went forth a hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel."

Amos 5:4 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel: “Seek me and live;

Amos 5:5 but do not seek Bethel, and do not enter into Gilgal or cross over to Beersheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall come to nought.”

Amos 5:6 Seek the LORD and live, lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, with none to quench it for Bethel,

Amos 5:7 O you who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth!

Amos 5:8 He who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns deep darkness into the morning, and darkens the day into night, who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the surface of the earth, the LORD is his name,

Amos 5:9 who makes destruction flash forth against the strong, so that destruction comes upon the fortress.

Amos 5:10 They hate him who reproves in the gate, and they abhor him who speaks the truth.

Amos 5:11 Therefore because you trample upon the poor and take from him exactions of wheat, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not dwell in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine.

Amos 5:12 For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins—you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and turn aside the needy in the gate.

Amos 5:13 Therefore he who is prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time.

Amos 5:14 Seek good, and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, as you have said.

Amos 5:15 Hate evil, and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Amos 5:16 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord: “In all the squares there shall be wailing; and in all the streets they shall say, ‘Alas! alas!’ They shall call the farmers to mourning and to wailing those who are skilled in lamentation, Amos 5:17 and in all vineyards there shall be wailing, for I will pass through the midst of you,” says the LORD.

Amos 5:18 Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD! Why would you have the day of the LORD? It is darkness, and not light;

Amos 5:19 as if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned with his hand against the wall, and a serpent bit him.

Amos 5:20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light, and gloom with no brightness in it?

Amos 5:21 “I hate, I despise your feasts, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.

Amos 5:22 Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and cereal offerings, I will not accept them, and the peace offerings of your fatted beasts I will not look upon.

Amos 5:23 Take away from me the noise of your songs; to the melody of your harps I will not listen.

Amos 5:24 But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

Amos 5:25 “Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings the forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

Amos 5:26 You shall take up Sakkuth your king, and Kaiwan your star-god, your images, which you made for yourselves;

Amos 5:27 therefore I will take you into exile beyond Damascus,” says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

Amos 6:1 “Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the first of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come!

Amos 6:2 Pass over to Calneh, and see; and thence go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are they better than these kingdoms? Or is their territory greater than your territory,

Amos 6:3 O you who put far away the evil day, and bring near the seat of violence?

Amos 6:4 “Woe to those who lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat lambs from the flock, and calves from the midst of the stall;

Amos 6:5 who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp, and like David invent for themselves instruments of music;

Amos 6:6 who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!

Amos 6:7 Therefore they shall now be the first of those to go into exile, and the revelry of those who stretch themselves shall pass away.”

Amos 6:8 The Lord GOD has sworn by himself (says the LORD, the God of hosts): “I abhor the pride of Jacob, and hate his strongholds; and I will deliver up the city and all that is in it.”

Amos 6:9 And if ten men remain in one house, they shall die.

Amos 6:10 And when a man’s kinsman, he who burns him, shall take him up to bring the bones out of the house, and shall say to him who is in the innermost parts of the house, “Is there still any one with you?” he shall say, “No”; and he shall say, “Hush! We must not mention the name of the LORD.”

Amos 6:11 For behold, the LORD commands, and the great house shall be smitten into fragments, and the little house into bits.

Amos 6:12 Do horses run upon rocks? Does one plow the sea with oxen? But you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood —

Amos 6:13 you who rejoice in Lodebar, who say, “Have we not by our own strength taken Karnaim for ourselves?”

Amos 6:14 “For behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel,” says the LORD, the God of hosts; “and they shall oppress you from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of the Arabah.”

Amos 7:1 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: behold, he was forming locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and lo, it was the latter growth after the king’s mowings.

Amos 7:2 When they had finished eating the grass of the land, I said, “O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!”

Amos 7:3 The LORD repented concerning this; “It shall not be,” said the LORD.

Amos 7:4 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: behold, the Lord GOD was calling for a judgment by fire, and it devoured the great deep and was eating up the land.

Amos 7:5 Then I said, “O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!”

Amos 7:6 The LORD repented concerning this; “This also shall not be,” said the Lord GOD.

Amos 7:7 He showed me: behold, the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand.

Amos 7:8 And the LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A plumb line.” Then the Lord said, “Behold, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass by them;

Amos 7:9 the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

Amos 7:10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words.

Amos 7:11 For thus Amos has said, `Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.’”

Amos 7:12 And Amaziah said to Amos, “O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, and eat bread there, and prophesy there;

Amos 7:13 but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom."

Amos 7:14 Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees,

Amos 7:15 and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, `Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'

Amos 7:16 "Now therefore hear the word of the LORD. You say, `Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not preach against the house of Isaac.'

Amos 7:17 Therefore thus says the LORD: `Your wife shall be a harlot in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be parceled out by line; you yourself shall die in an unclean land, and Israel shall surely go into exile away from its land.'"

Amos 8:1 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit.

Amos 8:2 And he said, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me, "The end has come upon my people Israel; I will never again pass by them.

Amos 8:3 The songs of the temple shall become wailings in that day," says the Lord GOD; "the dead bodies shall be many; in every place they shall be cast out in silence."

Amos 8:4 Hear this, you who trample upon the needy, and bring the poor of the land to an end,

Amos 8:5 saying, "When will the new moon be over, that we may sell grain? And the sabbath, that we may offer wheat for sale, that we may make the ephah small and the shekel great, and deal deceitfully with false balances,

Amos 8:6 that we may buy the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and sell the refuse of the wheat?"

Amos 8:7 The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: "Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

Amos 8:8 Shall not the land tremble on this account, and every one mourn who dwells in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt?"

Amos 8:9 "And on that day," says the Lord GOD, "I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight.

Amos 8:10 I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day.

Amos 8:11 “Behold, the days are coming,” says the Lord GOD, “when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

Amos 8:12 They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, to seek the word of the LORD, but they shall not find it.

Amos 8:13 “In that day the fair virgins and the young men shall faint for thirst.

Amos 8:14 Those who swear by Ashimah of Samaria, and say, `As thy god lives, O Dan,’ and, `As the way of Beersheba lives,’ they shall fall, and never rise again.”

Amos 9:1 I saw the LORD standing beside the altar, and he said: “Smite the capitals until the thresholds shake, and shatter them on the heads of all the people; and what are left of them I will slay with the sword; not one of them shall flee away, not one of them shall escape.

Amos 9:2 “Though they dig into Sheol, from there shall my hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, from there I will bring them down.

Amos 9:3 Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, from there I will search out and take them; and though they hide from my sight at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it shall bite them.

Amos 9:4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it shall slay them; and I will set my eyes upon them for evil and not for good.”

Amos 9:5 The Lord, GOD of hosts, he who touches the earth and it melts, and all who dwell in it mourn, and all of it rises like the Nile, and sinks again, like the Nile of Egypt;

Amos 9:6 who builds his upper chambers in the heavens, and founds his vault upon the earth; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the surface of the earth—the LORD is his name.

Amos 9:7 “Are you not like the Ethiopians to me, O people of Israel?” says the LORD. “Did I not bring up Israel from the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor and the Syrians from Kir?

Amos 9:8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the surface of the ground; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,” says the LORD.

Amos 9:9 “For lo, I will command, and shake the house of Israel among all the nations as one shakes with a sieve, but no pebble shall fall upon the earth.

Amos 9:10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, who say, `Evil shall not overtake or meet us.’

Amos 9:11 “In that day I will raise up the booth of David that is fallen and repair its breaches, and raise up its ruins, and rebuild it as in the days of old;

Amos 9:12 that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations who are called by my name,” says the LORD who does this.

Amos 9:13 “Behold, the days are coming,” says the LORD, “when the plowman shall overtake the reaper and the treader of grapes him who sows the seed; the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and all the hills shall flow with it.

Amos 9:14 I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine, and they shall make gardens and eat their fruit.

Amos 9:15 I will plant them upon their land, and they shall never again be plucked up out of the land which I have given them,” says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

1:1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom: We have heard tidings from the LORD, and a messenger has been sent among the nations: “Rise up! let us rise against her for battle!”

Obadiah 1:2 Behold, I will make you small among the nations, you shall be utterly despised.

Obadiah 1:3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, whose dwelling is high, who say in your heart, “Who will bring me down to the ground?”

Obadiah 1:4 Though you soar aloft like the eagle, though your nest is set among the stars, thence I will bring you down, says the LORD.

Obadiah 1:5 If thieves came to you, if plunderers by night—how you have been destroyed!—would they not steal only enough for themselves? If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings?

Obadiah 1:6 How Esau has been pillaged, his treasures sought out!

Obadiah 1:7 All your allies have deceived you, they have driven you to the border; your confederates have prevailed against you; your trusted friends have set a trap under you—there is no understanding of it.

Obadiah 1:8 Will I not on that day, says the LORD, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of Mount Esau?

Obadiah 1:9 And your mighty men shall be dismayed, O Teman, so that every man from Mount Esau will be cut off by slaughter.

Obadiah 1:10 For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off for ever.

Obadiah 1:11 On the day that you stood aloof, on the day that strangers carried off his wealth, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them.

Obadiah 1:12 But you should not have gloated over the day of your brother in the day of his misfortune; you should not have rejoiced over the people of Judah in the day of their ruin; you should not have boasted in the day of distress.

Obadiah 1:13 You should not have entered the gate of my people in the day of his calamity; you should not have gloated over his disaster in the day of his calamity; you should not have looted his goods in the day of his calamity.

Obadiah 1:14 You should not have stood at the parting of the ways to cut off his fugitives; you should not have delivered up his survivors in the day of distress.

Obadiah 1:15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations. As you have done, it shall be done to you, your deeds shall return on your own head.

Obadiah 1:16 For as you have drunk upon my holy mountain, all the nations round about shall drink; they shall drink, and stagger, and shall be as though they had not been.

Obadiah 1:17 But in Mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions.

Obadiah 1:18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor to the house of Esau; for the LORD has spoken.

Obadiah 1:19 Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau, and those of the Shephelah the land of the Philistines; they shall possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

Obadiah 1:20 The exiles in Halah who are of the people of Israel shall possess Phoenicia as far as Zarephath; and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the cities of the Negeb.

Obadiah 1:21 Saviors shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD’s.

Jonah

1:1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

Jonah 1:2 “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness has come up before me.”

Jonah 1:3 But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

Jonah 1:4 But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up.

Jonah 1:5 Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried to his god; and they threw the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down, and was fast asleep.

Jonah 1:6 So the captain came and said to him, “What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call upon your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us, that we do not perish.”

Jonah 1:7 And they said to one another, “Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

Jonah 1:8 Then they said to him, “Tell us, on whose account this evil has come upon us? What is your occupation? And whence do you come? What is your country? And of what people are you?”

Jonah 1:9 And he said to them, “I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

Jonah 1:10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, “What is this that you have done!” For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

Jonah 1:11 Then they said to him, “What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?” For the sea grew more and more tempestuous.

Jonah 1:12 He said to them, “Take me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you; for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you.”

Jonah 1:13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them.

Jonah 1:14 Therefore they cried to the LORD, “We beseech thee, O LORD, let us not perish for this man’s life, and lay not on us innocent blood; for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.”

Jonah 1:15 So they took up Jonah and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging.

Jonah 1:16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

Jonah 1:17 And the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah 2:1 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish, Jonah 2:2 saying, “I called to the LORD, out of my distress, and he answered me; out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and thou didst hear my voice.

Jonah 2:3 For thou didst cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the flood was round about me; all thy waves and thy billows passed over me.

Jonah 2:4 Then I said, `I am cast out from thy presence; how shall I again look upon thy holy temple?’

Jonah 2:5 The waters closed in over me, the deep was round about me; weeds were wrapped about my head

Jonah 2:6 at the roots of the mountains. I went down to the land whose bars closed upon me for ever; yet thou didst bring up my life from the Pit, O LORD my God.

Jonah 2:7 When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came to thee, into thy holy temple.

Jonah 2:8 Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their true loyalty.

Jonah 2:9 But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to thee; what I have vowed I will pay. Deliverance belongs to the LORD!”

Jonah 2:10 And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

Jonah 3:1 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,

Jonah 3:2 “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.”

Jonah 3:3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days’ journey in breadth.

Jonah 3:4 Jonah began to go into the city, going a day’s journey. And he cried, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!”

Jonah 3:5 And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them.

Jonah 3:6 Then tidings reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, removed his robe, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

Jonah 3:7 And he made proclamation and published through Nineveh, “By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, or drink water,

Jonah 3:8 but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry mightily to God; yea, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence which is in his hands.

Jonah 3:9 Who knows, God may yet repent and turn from his fierce anger, so that we perish not?”

Jonah 3:10 When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God repented of the evil which he had said he would do to them; and he did not do it.

Jonah 4:1 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry.

Jonah 4:2 And he prayed to the LORD and said, “I pray thee, LORD, is not this what I said when I was yet in my country? That is why I made haste to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that thou art a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and repentest of evil.

Jonah 4:3 Therefore now, O LORD, take my life from me, I beseech thee, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

Jonah 4:4 And the LORD said, “Do you do well to be angry?”

Jonah 4:5 Then Jonah went out of the city and sat to the east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, till he should see what would become of the city.

Jonah 4:6 And the LORD God appointed a plant, and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the plant.

Jonah 4:7 But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm which attacked the plant, so that it withered.

Jonah 4:8 When the sun rose, God appointed a sultry east wind, and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah so that he was faint; and he asked that he might die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

Jonah 4:9 But God said to Jonah, “Do you do well to be angry for the plant?” And he said, “I do well to be angry, angry enough to die.”

Jonah 4:10 And the LORD said, “You pity the plant, for which you did not labor, nor did you make it grow, which came into being in a night, and perished in a night.

Jonah 4:11 And should not I pity Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also much cattle?”

Micah

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Micah 1:2 Hear, you peoples, all of you; hearken, O earth, and all that is in it; and let the Lord GOD be a witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

Micah 1:3 For behold, the LORD is coming forth out of his place, and will come down and tread upon the high places of the earth.

Micah 1:4 And the mountains will melt under him and the valleys will be cleft, like wax before the fire, like waters poured down a steep place.

Micah 1:5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what is the sin of the house of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?

Micah 1:6 Therefore I will make Samaria a heap in the open country, a place for planting vineyards; and I will pour down her stones into the valley, and uncover her foundations.

Micah 1:7 All her images shall be beaten to pieces, all her hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols I will lay waste; for from the hire of a harlot she gathered them, and to the hire of a harlot they shall return.

Micah 1:8 For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will make lamentation like the jackals, and mourning like the ostriches.

Micah 1:9 For her wound is incurable; and it has come to Judah, it has reached to the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.

Micah 1:10 Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all; in Bethleaphrah roll yourselves in the dust.

Micah 1:11 Pass on your way, inhabitants of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame; the inhabitants of Zaanan do not come forth; the wailing of Bethezel shall take away from you its standing place.

Micah 1:12 For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good, because evil has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.

Micah 1:13 Harness the steeds to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish; you were the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion, for in you were found the transgressions of Israel.

Micah 1:14 Therefore you shall give parting gifts to Moreshethgath; the houses of Achzib shall be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.

Micah 1:15 I will again bring a conqueror upon you, inhabitants of Mareshah; the glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.

Micah 1:16 Make yourselves bald and cut off your hair, for the children of your delight; make yourselves as bald as the eagle, for they shall go from you into exile.

Micah 2:1 Woe to those who devise wickedness and work evil upon their beds! When the morning dawns, they perform it, because it is in the power of their hand.

Micah 2:2 They covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away; they oppress a man and his house, a man and his inheritance.

Micah 2:3 Therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, against this family I am devising evil, from which you cannot remove your necks; and you shall not walk haughtily, for it will be an evil time.

Micah 2:4 In that day they shall take up a taunt song against you, and wail with bitter lamentation, and say, "We are utterly ruined; he changes the portion of my people; how he removes it from me! Among our captors he divides our fields."

Micah 2:5 Therefore you will have none to cast the line by lot in the assembly of the LORD.

Micah 2:6 "Do not preach"—thus they preach—"one should not preach of such things; disgrace will not overtake us."

Micah 2:7 Should this be said, O house of Jacob? Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient? Are these his doings? Do not my words do good to him who walks uprightly?

Micah 2:8 But you rise against my people as an enemy; you strip the robe from the peaceful, from those who pass by trustingly with no thought of war.

Micah 2:9 The women of my people you drive out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you take away my glory for ever.

Micah 2:10 Arise and go, for this is no place to rest; because of uncleanness that destroys with a grievous destruction.

Micah 2:11 If a man should go about and utter wind and lies, saying, "I will preach to you of wine and strong drink," he would be the preacher for this people!

Micah 2:12 I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob, I will gather the remnant of Israel; I will set them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in its pasture, a noisy multitude of men.

Micah 2:13 He who opens the breach will go up before them; they will break through and pass the gate, going out by it. Their king will pass on before them, the LORD at their head.

Micah 3:1 And I said: Hear, you heads of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel! Is it not for you to know justice? —

Micah 3:2 you who hate the good and love the evil, who tear the skin from off my people, and their flesh from off their bones;

Micah 3:3 who eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones in pieces, and chop them up like meat in a kettle, like flesh in a caldron.

Micah 3:4 Then they will cry to the LORD, but he will not answer them; he will hide his face from them at that time, because they have made their deeds evil.

Micah 3:5 Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who lead my people astray, who cry “Peace” when they have something to eat, but declare war against him who puts nothing into their mouths.

Micah 3:6 Therefore it shall be night to you, without vision, and darkness to you, without divination. The sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them;

Micah 3:7 the seers shall be disgraced, and the diviners put to shame; they shall all cover their lips, for there is no answer from God.

Micah 3:8 But as for me, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the LORD, and with justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.

Micah 3:9 Hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice and pervert all equity,

Micah 3:10 who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with wrong.

Micah 3:11 Its heads give judgment for a bribe, its priests teach for hire, its prophets divine for money; yet they lean upon the LORD and say, “Is not the LORD in the midst of us? No evil shall come upon us.”

Micah 3:12 Therefore because of you Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.

Micah 4:1 It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it,

Micah 4:2 and many nations shall come, and say: “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and we may walk in his paths.” For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Micah 4:3 He shall judge between many peoples, and shall decide for strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more;

Micah 4:4 but they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree, and none shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.

Micah 4:5 For all the peoples walk each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

Micah 4:6 In that day, says the LORD, I will assemble the lame and gather those who have been driven away, and those whom I have afflicted;

Micah 4:7 and the lame I will make the remnant; and those who were cast off, a strong nation; and the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion from this time forth and for evermore.

Micah 4:8 And you, O tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you shall it come, the former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

Micah 4:9 Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pangs have seized you like a woman in travail?

Micah 4:10 Writhe and groan, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now you shall go forth from the city and dwell in the open country; you shall go to Babylon. There you shall be rescued, there the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

Micah 4:11 Now many nations are assembled against you, saying, “Let her be profaned, and let our eyes gaze upon Zion.”

Micah 4:12 But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD, they do not understand his plan, that he has gathered them as sheaves to the threshing floor.

Micah 4:13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron and your hoofs bronze; you shall beat in pieces many peoples, and shall devote their gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

Micah 5:1 Now you are walled about with a wall; siege is laid against us; with a rod they strike upon the cheek the ruler of Israel.

Micah 5:2 But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.

Micah 5:3 Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in travail has brought forth; then the rest of his brethren shall return to the people of Israel.

Micah 5:4 And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth.

Micah 5:5 And this shall be peace, when the Assyrian comes into our land and treads upon our soil, that we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight princes of men;

Micah 5:6 they shall rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod with the drawn sword; and they shall deliver us from the Assyrian when he comes into our land and treads within our border.

Micah 5:7 Then the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD, like showers upon the grass, which tarry not for men nor wait for the sons of men.

Micah 5:8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which, when it goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is none to deliver.

Micah 5:9 Your hand shall be lifted up over your adversaries, and all your enemies shall be cut off.

Micah 5:10 And in that day, says the LORD, I will cut off your horses from among you and will destroy your chariots;

Micah 5:11 and I will cut off the cities of your land and throw down all your strongholds;

Micah 5:12 and I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you shall have no more soothsayers;

Micah 5:13 and I will cut off your images and your pillars from among you, and you shall bow down no more to the work of your hands;

Micah 5:14 and I will root out your Asherim from among you and destroy your cities.

Micah 5:15 And in anger and wrath I will execute vengeance upon the nations that did not obey.

Micah 6:1 Hear what the LORD says: Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

Micah 6:2 Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel.

Micah 6:3 “O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me!

Micah 6:4 For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

Micah 6:5 O my people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the LORD.”

Micah 6:6 “With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

Micah 6:7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

Micah 6:8 He has showed you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Micah 6:9 The voice of the LORD cries to the city—and it is sound wisdom to fear thy name: "Hear, O tribe and assembly of the city!

Micah 6:10 Can I forget the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is accursed?

Micah 6:11 Shall I acquit the man with wicked scales and with a bag of deceitful weights?

Micah 6:12 Your rich men are full of violence; your inhabitants speak lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

Micah 6:13 Therefore I have begun to smite you, making you desolate because of your sins.

Micah 6:14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied, and there shall be hunger in your inward parts; you shall put away, but not save, and what you save I will give to the sword.

Micah 6:15 You shall sow, but not reap; you shall tread olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil; you shall tread grapes, but not drink wine.

Micah 6:16 For you have kept the statutes of Omri, and all the works of the house of Ahab; and you have walked in their counsels; that I may make you a desolation, and your inhabitants a hissing; so you shall bear the scorn of the peoples."

Micah 7:1 Woe is me! For I have become as when the summer fruit has been gathered, as when the vintage has been gleaned: there is no cluster to eat, no first-ripe fig which my soul desires.

Micah 7:2 The godly man has perished from the earth, and there is none upright among men; they all lie in wait for blood, and each hunts his brother with a net.

Micah 7:3 Their hands are upon what is evil, to do it diligently; the prince and the judge ask for a bribe, and the great man utters the evil desire of his soul; thus they weave it together.

Micah 7:4 The best of them is like a brier, the most upright of them a thorn hedge. The day of their watchmen, of their punishment, has come; now their confusion is at hand.

Micah 7:5 Put no trust in a neighbor, have no confidence in a friend; guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom;

Micah 7:6 for the son treats the father with contempt, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man’s enemies are the men of his own house.

Micah 7:7 But as for me, I will look to the LORD, I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

Micah 7:8 Rejoice not over me, O my enemy; when I fall, I shall rise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me.

Micah 7:9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my cause and executes judgment for me. He will bring me forth to the light; I shall behold his deliverance.

Micah 7:10 Then my enemy will see, and shame will cover her who said to me, “Where is the LORD your God?” My eyes will gloat over her; now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.

Micah 7:11 A day for the building of your walls! In that day the boundary shall be far extended.

Micah 7:12 In that day they will come to you, from Assyria to Egypt, and from Egypt to the River, from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.

Micah 7:13 But the earth will be desolate because of its inhabitants, for the fruit of their doings.

Micah 7:14 Shepherd thy people with thy staff, the flock of thy inheritance, who dwell alone in a forest in the midst of a garden land; let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in the days of old.

Micah 7:15 As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt I will show them marvelous things.

Micah 7:16 The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; they shall lay their hands on their mouths; their ears shall be deaf;

Micah 7:17 they shall lick the dust like a serpent, like the crawling things of the earth; they shall come trembling out of their strongholds, they shall turn in dread to the LORD our God, and they shall fear because of thee.

Micah 7:18 Who is a God like thee, pardoning iniquity and passing over transgression for the remnant of his inheritance? He does not retain his anger for ever because he delights in steadfast love.

Micah 7:19 He will again have compassion upon us, he will tread our iniquities under foot. Thou wilt cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

Micah 7:20 Thou wilt show faithfulness to Jacob and steadfast love to Abraham, as thou hast sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

Nahum

1:1 An oracle concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum of Elkosh.

Nahum 1:2 The LORD is a jealous God and avenging, the LORD is avenging and wrathful; the LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries and keeps wrath for his enemies.

Nahum 1:3 The LORD is slow to anger and of great might, and the LORD will by no means clear the guilty. His way is in whirlwind and storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

Nahum 1:4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, he dries up all the rivers; Bashan and Carmel wither, the bloom of Lebanon fades.

Nahum 1:5 The mountains quake before him, the hills melt; the earth is laid waste before him, the world and all that dwell therein.

Nahum 1:6 Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the heat of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken asunder by him.

Nahum 1:7 The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; he knows those who take refuge in him.

Nahum 1:8 But with an overflowing flood he will make a full end of his adversaries, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

Nahum 1:9 What do you plot against the LORD? He will make a full end; he will not take vengeance twice on his foes.

Nahum 1:10 Like entangled thorns they are consumed, like dry stubble.

Nahum 1:11 Did one not come out from you, who plotted evil against the LORD, and counseled villainy?

Nahum 1:12 Thus says the LORD, “Though they be strong and many, they will be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

Nahum 1:13 And now I will break his yoke from off you and will burst your bonds asunder.”

Nahum 1:14 The LORD has given commandment about you: “No more shall your name be perpetuated; from the house of your gods I will cut off the graven image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile.”

Nahum 1:15 Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace! Keep your feasts, O Judah, fulfil your vows, for never again shall the wicked come against you, he is utterly cut off.

Nahum 2:1 The shatterer has come up against you. Man the ramparts; watch the road; gird your loins; collect all your strength.

Nahum 2:2 (For the LORD is restoring the majesty of Jacob as the majesty of Israel, for plunderers have stripped them and ruined their branches.)

Nahum 2:3 The shield of his mighty men is red, his soldiers are clothed in scarlet. The chariots flash like flame when mustered in array; the chargers prance.

Nahum 2:4 The chariots rage in the streets, they rush to and fro through the squares; they gleam like torches, they dart like lightning.

Nahum 2:5 The officers are summoned, they stumble as they go, they hasten to the wall, the mantelet is set up.

Nahum 2:6 The river gates are opened, the palace is in dismay;

Nahum 2:7 its mistress is stripped, she is carried off, her maidens lamenting, moaning like doves, and beating their breasts.

Nahum 2:8 Nineveh is like a pool whose waters run away. “Halt! Halt!” they cry; but none turns back.

Nahum 2:9 Plunder the silver, plunder the gold! There is no end of treasure, or wealth of every precious thing.

Nahum 2:10 Desolate! Desolation and ruin! Hearts faint and knees tremble, anguish is on all loins, all faces grow pale!

Nahum 2:11 Where is the lions’ den, the cave of the young lions, where the lion brought his prey, where his cubs were, with none to disturb?

Nahum 2:12 The lion tore enough for his whelps and strangled prey for his lionesses; he filled his caves with prey and his dens with torn flesh.

Nahum 2:13 Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall no more be heard.

Nahum 3:1 Woe to the bloody city, all full of lies and booty—no end to the plunder!

Nahum 3:2 The crack of whip, and rumble of wheel, galloping horse and bounding chariot!

Nahum 3:3 Horsemen charging, flashing sword and glittering spear, hosts of slain, heaps of corpses, dead bodies without end—they stumble over the bodies!

Nahum 3:4 And all for the countless harlotries of the harlot, graceful and of deadly charms, who betrays nations with her harlotries, and peoples with her charms.

Nahum 3:5 Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and will lift up your skirts over your face; and I will let nations look on your nakedness and kingdoms on your shame.

Nahum 3:6 I will throw filth at you and treat you with contempt, and make you a gazingstock.

Nahum 3:7 And all who look on you will shrink from you and say, Wasted is Nineveh; who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for her?

Nahum 3:8 Are you better than Thebes that sat by the Nile, with water around her, her rampart a sea, and water her wall?

Nahum 3:9 Ethiopia was her strength, Egypt too, and that without limit; Put and the Libyans were her helpers.

Nahum 3:10 Yet she was carried away, she went into captivity; her little ones were dashed in pieces at the head of every street; for her honored men lots were cast, and all her great men were bound in chains.

Nahum 3:11 You also will be drunken, you will be dazed; you will seek a refuge from the enemy.

Nahum 3:12 All your fortresses are like fig trees with first-ripe figs—if shaken they fall into the mouth of the eater.

Nahum 3:13 Behold, your troops are women in your midst. The gates of your land are wide open to your foes; fire has devoured your bars.

Nahum 3:14 Draw water for the siege, strengthen your forts; go into the clay, tread the mortar, take hold of the brick mold!

Nahum 3:15 There will the fire devour you, the sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the locust. Multiply yourselves like the locust, multiply like the grasshopper!

Nahum 3:16 You increased your merchants more than the stars of the heavens. The locust spreads its wings and flies away.

Nahum 3:17 Your princes are like grasshoppers, your scribes like clouds of locusts settling on the fences in a day of cold—when the sun rises, they fly away; no one knows where they are.

Nahum 3:18 Your shepherds are asleep, O king of Assyria; your nobles slumber. Your people are scattered on the mountains with none to gather them.

Nahum 3:19 There is no assuaging your hurt, your wound is grievous. All who hear the news of you clap their hands over you. For upon whom has not come your unceasing evil?

Habakkuk

1:1 The oracle of God which Habakkuk the prophet saw.

Habakkuk 1:2 O LORD, how long shall I cry for help, and thou wilt not hear? Or cry to thee “Violence!” and thou wilt not save?

Habakkuk 1:3 Why dost thou make me see wrongs and look upon trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise.

Habakkuk 1:4 So the law is slacked and justice never goes forth. For the wicked surround the righteous, so justice goes forth perverted.

Habakkuk 1:5 Look among the nations, and see; wonder and be astounded. For I am doing a work in your days that you would not believe if told.

Habakkuk 1:6 For lo, I am rousing the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, who march through the breadth of the earth, to seize habitations not their own.

Habakkuk 1:7 Dread and terrible are they; their justice and dignity proceed from themselves.

Habakkuk 1:8 Their horses are swifter than leopards, more fierce than the evening wolves; their horsemen press proudly on. Yea, their horsemen come from afar; they fly like an eagle swift to devour.

Habakkuk 1:9 They all come for violence; terror of them goes before them. They gather captives like sand.

Habakkuk 1:10 At kings they scoff, and of rulers they make sport. They laugh at every fortress, for they heap up earth and take it.

Habakkuk 1:11 Then they sweep by like the wind and go on, guilty men, whose own might is their god!

Habakkuk 1:12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One? We shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them as a judgment; and thou, O Rock, hast established them for chastisement.

Habakkuk 1:13 Thou who art of purer eyes than to behold evil and canst not look on wrong, why dost thou look on faithless men, and art silent when the wicked swallows up the man more righteous than he?

Habakkuk 1:14 For thou makest men like the fish of the sea, like crawling things that have no ruler.

Habakkuk 1:15 He brings all of them up with a hook, he drags them out with his net, he gathers them in his seine; so he rejoices and exults.

Habakkuk 1:16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net and burns incense to his seine; for by them he lives in luxury, and his food is rich.

Habakkuk 1:17 Is he then to keep on emptying his net, and mercilessly slaying nations for ever?

Habakkuk 2:1 I will take my stand to watch, and station myself on the tower, and look forth to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

Habakkuk 2:2 And the LORD answered me: “Write the vision; make it plain upon tablets, so he may run who reads it.

Habakkuk 2:3 For still the vision awaits its time; it hastens to the end—it will not lie. If it seem slow, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay.

Habakkuk 2:4 Behold, he whose soul is not upright in him shall fail, but the righteous shall live by his faith.

Habakkuk 2:5 Moreover, wine is treacherous; the arrogant man shall not abide. His greed is as wide as Sheol; like death he has never enough. He gathers for himself all nations, and collects as his own all peoples.”

Habakkuk 2:6 Shall not all these take up their taunt against him, in scoffing derision of him, and say, “Woe to him who heaps up what is not his own—for how long?—and loads himself with pledges!”

Habakkuk 2:7 Will not your debtors suddenly arise, and those awake who will make you tremble? Then you will be booty for them.

Habakkuk 2:8 Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder you, for the blood of men and violence to the earth, to cities and all who dwell therein.

Habakkuk 2:9 Woe to him who gets evil gain for his house, to set his nest on high, to be safe from the reach of harm!

Habakkuk 2:10 You have devised shame to your house by cutting off many peoples; you have forfeited your life.

Habakkuk 2:11 For the stone will cry out from the wall, and the beam from the woodwork respond.

Habakkuk 2:12 Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and founds a city on iniquity!

Habakkuk 2:13 Behold, is it not from the LORD of hosts that peoples labor only for fire, and nations weary themselves for nought?

Habakkuk 2:14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

Habakkuk 2:15 Woe to him who makes his neighbors drink of the cup of his wrath, and makes them drunk, to gaze on their shame!

Habakkuk 2:16 You will be sated with contempt instead of glory. Drink, yourself, and stagger! The cup in the LORD’s right hand will come around to you, and shame will come upon your glory!

Habakkuk 2:17 The violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you; the destruction of the beasts will terrify you, for the blood of men and violence to the earth, to cities and all who dwell therein.

Habakkuk 2:18 What profit is an idol when its maker has shaped it, a metal image, a teacher of lies? For the workman trusts in his own creation when he makes dumb idols!

Habakkuk 2:19 Woe to him who says to a wooden thing, Awake; to a dumb stone, Arise! Can this give revelation? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in it.

Habakkuk 2:20 But the LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him.

Habakkuk 3:1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, according to Shigionoth.

Habakkuk 3:2 O LORD, I have heard the report of thee, and thy work, O LORD, do I fear. In the midst of the years renew it; in the midst of the years make it known; in wrath remember mercy.

Habakkuk 3:3 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. Selah

Habakkuk 3:4 His brightness was like the light, rays flashed from his hand; and there he veiled his power.

Habakkuk 3:5 Before him went pestilence, and plague followed close behind.

Habakkuk 3:6 He stood and measured the earth; he looked and shook the nations; then the eternal mountains were scattered, the everlasting hills sank low. His ways were as of old.

Habakkuk 3:7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction; the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

Habakkuk 3:8 Was thy wrath against the rivers, O LORD? Was thy anger against the rivers, or thy indignation against the sea, when thou didst ride upon thy horses, upon thy chariot of victory?

Habakkuk 3:9 Thou didst strip the sheath from thy bow, and put the arrows to the string. Selah Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

Habakkuk 3:10 The mountains saw thee, and writhed; the raging waters swept on; the deep gave forth its voice, it lifted its hands on high.

Habakkuk 3:11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation at the light of thine arrows as they sped, at the flash of thy glittering spear.

Habakkuk 3:12 Thou didst bestride the earth in fury, thou didst trample the nations in anger.

Habakkuk 3:13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, for the salvation of thy anointed. Thou didst crush the head of the wicked, laying him bare from thigh to neck. Selah

Habakkuk 3:14 Thou didst pierce with thy shafts the head of his warriors, who came like a whirlwind to scatter me, rejoicing as if to devour the poor in secret.

Habakkuk 3:15 Thou didst trample the sea with thy horses, the surging of mighty waters.

Habakkuk 3:16 I hear, and my body trembles, my lips quiver at the sound; rottenness enters into my bones, my steps totter beneath me. I will quietly wait for the day of trouble to come upon people who invade us.

Habakkuk 3:17 Though the fig tree do not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines, the produce of the olive fail and the fields yield no food, the flock be cut off from the fold and there be no herd in the stalls,

Habakkuk 3:18 yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

Habakkuk 3:19 GOD, the Lord, is my strength; he makes my feet like hinds' feet, he makes me tread upon my high places. To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1:1 The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

Zephaniah 1:2 "I will utterly sweep away everything from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:3 "I will sweep away man and beast; I will sweep away the birds of the air and the fish of the sea. I will overthrow the wicked; I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:4 "I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off from this place the remnant of Baal and the name of the idolatrous priests;

Zephaniah 1:5 those who bow down on the roofs to the host of the heavens; those who bow down and swear to the LORD and yet swear by Milcom;

Zephaniah 1:6 those who have turned back from following the LORD, who do not seek the LORD or inquire of him."

Zephaniah 1:7 Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is at hand; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice and consecrated his guests.

Zephaniah 1:8 And on the day of the LORDS sacrifice—"I will punish the officials and the king's sons and all who array themselves in foreign attire.

Zephaniah 1:9 On that day I will punish every one who leaps over the threshold, and those who fill their master's house with violence and fraud."

Zephaniah 1:10 "On that day," says the LORD, "a cry will be heard from the Fish Gate, a wail from the Second Quarter, a loud crash from the hills.

Zephaniah 1:11 Wail, O inhabitants of the Mortar! For all the traders are no more; all who weigh out silver are cut off.

Zephaniah 1:12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are thickening upon their lees, those who say in their hearts, `The LORD will not do good, nor will he do ill.'

Zephaniah 1:13 Their goods shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them."

Zephaniah 1:14 The great day of the LORD is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter, the mighty man cries aloud there.

Zephaniah 1:15 A day of wrath is that day, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

Zephaniah 1:16 a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements.

Zephaniah 1:17 I will bring distress on men, so that they shall walk like the blind, because they have sinned against the LORD; their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.

Zephaniah 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them on the day of the wrath of the LORD. In the fire of his jealous wrath, all the earth shall be consumed; for a full, yea, sudden end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Zephaniah 2:1 Come together and hold assembly, O shameless nation,

Zephaniah 2:2 before you are driven away like the drifting chaff, before there comes upon you the fierce anger of the LORD, before there comes upon you the day of the wrath of the LORD.

Zephaniah 2:3 Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who do his commands; seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you may be hidden on the day of the wrath of the LORD.

Zephaniah 2:4 For Gaza shall be deserted, and Ashkelon shall become a desolation; Ashdod's people shall be driven out at noon, and Ekron shall be uprooted.

Zephaniah 2:5 Woe to you inhabitants of the seacoast, you nation of the Cherethites! The word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, land of the Philistines; and I will destroy you till no inhabitant is left.

Zephaniah 2:6 And you, O seacoast, shall be pastures, meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

Zephaniah 2:7 The seacoast shall become the possession of the remnant of the house of Judah, on which they shall pasture, and in the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down at evening. For the LORD their God will be mindful of them and restore their fortunes.

Zephaniah 2:8 “I have heard the taunts of Moab and the revilings of the Ammonites, how they have taunted my people and made boasts against their territory.

Zephaniah 2:9 Therefore, as I live,” says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Moab shall become like Sodom, and the Ammonites like Gomorrah, a land possessed by nettles and salt pits, and a waste for ever. The remnant of my people shall plunder them, and the survivors of my nation shall possess them.”

Zephaniah 2:10 This shall be their lot in return for their pride, because they scoffed and boasted against the people of the LORD of hosts.

Zephaniah 2:11 The LORD will be terrible against them; yea, he will famish all the gods of the earth, and to him shall bow down, each in its place, all the lands of the nations.

Zephaniah 2:12 You also, O Ethiopians, shall be slain by my sword.

Zephaniah 2:13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and he will make Nineveh a desolation, a dry waste like the desert.

Zephaniah 2:14 Herds shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the field; the vulture and the hedgehog shall lodge in her capitals; the owl shall hoot in the window, the raven croak on the threshold; for her cedar work will be laid bare.

Zephaniah 2:15 This is the exultant city that dwelt secure, that said to herself, “I am and there is none else.” What a desolation she has become, a lair for wild beasts! Every one who passes by her hisses and shakes his fist.

Zephaniah 3:1 Woe to her that is rebellious and defiled, the oppressing city!

Zephaniah 3:2 She listens to no voice, she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD, she does not draw near to her God.

Zephaniah 3:3 Her officials within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves that leave nothing till the morning.

Zephaniah 3:4 Her prophets are wanton, faithless men; her priests profane what is sacred, they do violence to the law.

Zephaniah 3:5 The LORD within her is righteous, he does no wrong; every morning he shows forth his justice, each dawn he does not fail; but the unjust knows no shame.

Zephaniah 3:6 “I have cut off nations; their battlements are in ruins; I have laid waste their streets so that none walks in them; their cities have been made desolate, without a man, without an inhabitant.

Zephaniah 3:7 I said, `Surely she will fear me, she will accept correction; she will not lose sight of all that I have enjoined upon her.’ But all the more they were eager to make all their deeds corrupt.”

Zephaniah 3:8 “Therefore wait for me,” says the LORD, “for the day when I arise as a witness. For my decision is to gather nations, to assemble kingdoms, to pour out upon them my indignation, all the heat of my anger; for in the fire of my jealous wrath all the earth shall be consumed.

Zephaniah 3:9 “Yea, at that time I will change the speech of the peoples to a pure speech, that all of them may call on the name of the LORD and serve him with one accord.

Zephaniah 3:10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, the daughter of my dispersed ones, shall bring my offering.

Zephaniah 3:11 “On that day you shall not be put to shame because of the deeds by which you have rebelled against me; for then I will remove from your midst your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty in my holy mountain.

Zephaniah 3:12 For I will leave in the midst of you a people humble and lowly. They shall seek refuge in the name of the LORD,

Zephaniah 3:13 those who are left in Israel; they shall do no wrong and utter no lies, nor shall there be found in their mouth a deceitful tongue. For they shall pasture and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.”

Zephaniah 3:14 Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!

Zephaniah 3:15 The LORD has taken away the judgments against you, he has cast out your enemies. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall fear evil no more.

Zephaniah 3:16 On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: “Do not fear, O Zion; let not your hands grow weak.

Zephaniah 3:17 The LORD, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing

Zephaniah 3:18 as on a day of festival. “I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it.

Zephaniah 3:19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

Zephaniah 3:20 At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you together; yea, I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes,” says the LORD.

Haggai

1:1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest,

Haggai 1:2 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: This people say the time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD.”

Haggai 1:3 Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet,

Haggai 1:4 “Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?

Haggai 1:5 Now therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider how you have fared.

Haggai 1:6 You have sown much, and harvested little; you eat, but you never have enough; you drink, but you never have your fill; you clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes.

Haggai 1:7 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider how you have fared.

Haggai 1:8 Go up to the hills and bring wood and build the house, that I may take pleasure in it and that I may appear in my glory, says the LORD.

Haggai 1:9 You have looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why? says the LORD of hosts. Because of my house that lies in ruins, while you busy yourselves each with his own house.

Haggai 1:10 Therefore the heavens above you have withheld the dew, and the earth has withheld its produce.

Haggai 1:11 And I have called for a drought upon the land and the hills, upon the grain, the new wine, the oil, upon what the ground brings forth, upon men and cattle, and upon all their labors.”

Haggai 1:12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared before the LORD.

Haggai 1:13 Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, spoke to the people with the LORD’s message, “I am with you, says the LORD.”

Haggai 1:14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

Haggai 1:15 on the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month. In the second year of Darius the king, Haggai 2:1 in the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet,

Haggai 2:2 “Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, and say, Haggai 2:3 `Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not in your sight as nothing?

Haggai 2:4 Yet now take courage, O Zerubbabel, says the LORD; take courage, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; take courage, all you people of the land, says the LORD; work, for I am with you, says the LORD of hosts, Haggai 2:5 according to the promise that I made you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit abides among you; fear not.

Haggai 2:6 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land;

Haggai 2:7 and I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with splendor, says the LORD of hosts.

Haggai 2:8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the LORD of hosts.

Haggai 2:9 The latter splendor of this house shall be greater than the former, says the LORD of hosts; and in this place I will give prosperity, says the LORD of hosts.'”

Haggai 2:10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet,

Haggai 2:11 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: Ask the priests to decide this question,

Haggai 2:12 `If one carries holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and touches with his skirt bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any kind of food, does it become holy?'” The priests answered, “No.”

Haggai 2:13 Then said Haggai, “If one who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?” The priests answered, “It does become unclean.”

Haggai 2:14 Then Haggai said, “So is it with this people, and with this nation before me, says the LORD; and so with every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

Haggai 2:15 Pray now, consider what will come to pass from this day onward. Before a stone was placed upon a stone in the temple of the LORD, Haggai 2:16 how did you fare? When one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the winevat to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty.

Haggai 2:17 I smote you and all the products of your toil with blight and mildew and hail; yet you did not return to me, says the LORD.

Haggai 2:18 Consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider:

Haggai 2:19 Is the seed yet in the barn? Do the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree still yield nothing? From this day on I will bless you."

Haggai 2:20 The word of the LORD came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month,

Haggai 2:21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I am about to shake the heavens and the earth,

Haggai 2:22 and to overthrow the throne of kingdoms; I am about to destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations, and overthrow the chariots and their riders; and the horses and their riders shall go down, every one by the sword of his fellow.

Haggai 2:23 On that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, says the LORD, and make you like a signet ring; for I have chosen you, says the LORD of hosts."

Zecharaih

1:1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,

Zecharaih 1:2 "The LORD was very angry with your fathers.

Zecharaih 1:3 Therefore say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Return to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 1:4 Be not like your fathers, to whom the former prophets cried out, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, Return from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.' But they did not hear or heed me, says the LORD.

Zecharaih 1:5 Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live for ever?

Zecharaih 1:6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? So they repented and said, As the LORD of hosts purposed to deal with us for our ways and deeds, so has he dealt with us."

Zecharaih 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, the prophet; and Zechariah said,

Zecharaih 1:8 “I saw in the night, and behold, a man riding upon a red horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in the glen; and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.

Zecharaih 1:9 Then I said, `What are these, my lord?’ The angel who talked with me said to me, `I will show you what they are.’

Zecharaih 1:10 So the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered, `These are they whom the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.’

Zecharaih 1:11 And they answered the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, `We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth remains at rest.’

Zecharaih 1:12 Then the angel of the LORD said, `O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou have no mercy on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these seventy years?’

Zecharaih 1:13 And the LORD answered gracious and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

Zecharaih 1:14 So the angel who talked with me said to me, `Cry out, Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion.

Zecharaih 1:15 And I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was angry but a little they furthered the disaster.

Zecharaih 1:16 Therefore, thus says the LORD, I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion; my house shall be built in it, says the LORD of hosts, and the measuring line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 1:17 Cry again, Thus says the LORD of hosts: My cities shall again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.’”

Zecharaih 1:18 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns!

Zecharaih 1:19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, “What are these?” And he answered me, “These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

Zecharaih 1:20 Then the LORD showed me four smiths.

Zecharaih 1:21 And I said, “What are these coming to do?” He answered, “These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man raised his head; and these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

Zecharaih 2:1 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand!

Zecharaih 2:2 Then I said, “Where are you going?” And he said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length.”

Zecharaih 2:3 And behold, the angel who talked with me came forward, and another angel came forward to meet him,

Zecharaih 2:4 and said to him, “Run, say to that young man, `Jerusalem shall be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and cattle in it.

Zecharaih 2:5 For I will be to her a wall of fire round about, says the LORD, and I will be the glory within her.'”

Zecharaih 2:6 Ho! ho! Flee from the land of the north, says the LORD; for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens, says the LORD.

Zecharaih 2:7 Ho! Escape to Zion, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.

Zecharaih 2:8 For thus said the LORD of hosts, after his glory sent me to the nations who plundered you, for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye:

Zecharaih 2:9 “Behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they shall become plunder for those who served them. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

Zecharaih 2:10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for lo, I come and I will dwell in the midst of you, says the LORD.

Zecharaih 2:11 And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

Zecharaih 2:12 And the LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.”

Zecharaih 2:13 Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy dwelling.

Zecharaih 3:1 Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.

Zecharaih 3:2 And the LORD said to Satan, “The LORD rebuke you, O Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is not this a brand plucked from the fire?”

Zecharaih 3:3 Now Joshua was standing before the angel, clothed with filthy garments.

Zecharaih 3:4 And the angel said to those who were standing before him, “Remove the filthy garments from him.” And to him he said, “Behold, I have taken your iniquity away from you, and I will clothe you with rich apparel.”

Zecharaih 3:5 And I said, “Let them put a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments; and the angel of the LORD was standing by.

Zecharaih 3:6 And the angel of the LORD enjoined Joshua,

Zecharaih 3:7 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: If you will walk in my ways and keep my charge, then you shall rule my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you the right of access among those who are standing here.

Zecharaih 3:8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your friends who sit before you, for they are men of good omen: behold, I will bring my servant the Branch.

Zecharaih 3:9 For behold, upon the stone which I have set before Joshua, upon a single stone with seven facets, I will engrave its inscription, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the guilt of this land in a single day.

Zecharaih 3:10 In that day, says the LORD of hosts, every one of you will invite his neighbor under his vine and under his fig tree.”

Zecharaih 4:1 And the angel who talked with me came again, and waked me, like a man that is wakened out of his sleep.

Zecharaih 4:2 And he said to me, “What do you see?” I said, “I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps which are on the top of it.

Zecharaih 4:3 And there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left.”

Zecharaih 4:4 And I said to the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my lord?”

Zecharaih 4:5 Then the angel who talked with me answered me, “Do you not know what these are?” I said, “No, my lord.”

Zecharaih 4:6 Then he said to me, “This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 4:7 What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain; and he shall bring forward the top stone amid shouts of `Grace, grace to it!'”

Zecharaih 4:8 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

Zecharaih 4:9 “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

Zecharaih 4:10 For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel.

“These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which range through the whole earth.”

Zecharaih 4:11 Then I said to him, “What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?”

Zecharaih 4:12 And a second time I said to him, “What are these two branches of the olive trees, which are beside the two golden pipes from which the oil is poured out?”

Zecharaih 4:13 He said to me, “Do you not know what these are?” I said, “No, my lord.”

Zecharaih 4:14 Then he said, “These are the two anointed who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.”

Zecharaih 5:1 Again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a flying scroll!

Zecharaih 5:2 And he said to me, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits.”

Zecharaih 5:3 Then he said to me, “This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land; for every one who steals shall be cut off henceforth according to it, and every one who swears falsely shall be cut off henceforth according to it.

Zecharaih 5:4 I will send it forth, says the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter the house of the thief, and the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it shall abide in his house and consume it, both timber and stones.”

Zecharaih 5:5 Then the angel who talked with me came forward and said to me, “Lift your eyes, and see what this is that goes forth.”

Zecharaih 5:6 And I said, “What is it?” He said, “This is the ephah that goes forth.” And he said, “This is their iniquity in all the land.”

Zecharaih 5:7 And behold, the leaden cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting in the ephah!

Zecharaih 5:8 And he said, “This is Wickedness.” And he thrust her back into the ephah, and thrust down the leaden weight upon its mouth.

Zecharaih 5:9 Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, two women coming forward! The wind was in their wings; they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah between earth and heaven.

Zecharaih 5:10 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, “Where are they taking the ephah?”

Zecharaih 5:11 He said to me, “To the land of Shinar, to build a house for it; and when this is prepared, they will set the ephah down there on its base.”

Zecharaih 6:1 And again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze.

Zecharaih 6:2 The first chariot had red horses, the second black horses,

Zecharaih 6:3 the third white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled gray horses.

Zecharaih 6:4 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my lord?”

Zecharaih 6:5 And the angel answered me, “These are going forth to the four winds of heaven, after presenting themselves before the LORD of all the earth.

Zecharaih 6:6 The chariot with the black horses goes toward the north country, the white ones go toward the west country, and the dappled ones go toward the south country.”

Zecharaih 6:7 When the steeds came out, they were impatient to get off and patrol the earth. And he said, “Go, patrol the earth.” So they patrolled the earth.

Zecharaih 6:8 Then he cried to me, “Behold, those who go toward the north country have set my Spirit at rest in the north country.”

Zecharaih 6:9 And the word of the LORD came to me:

Zecharaih 6:10 “Take from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon; and go the same day to the house of Josiah, the son of Zephaniah.

Zecharaih 6:11 Take from them silver and gold, and make a crown, and set it upon the head of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest;

Zecharaih 6:12 and say to him, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: for he shall grow up in his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD.

Zecharaih 6:13 It is he who shall build the temple of the LORD, and shall bear royal honor, and shall sit and rule upon his throne. And there shall be a priest by his throne, and peaceful understanding shall be between them both.”‘ Zecharaih 6:14 And the crown shall be in the temple of the LORD as a reminder to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah the son of Zephaniah.

Zecharaih 6:15 “And those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the LORD; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.”

Zecharaih 7:1 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev.

Zecharaih 7:2 Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regemmelech and their men, to entreat the favor of the LORD, Zecharaih 7:3 and to ask the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts and the prophets, “Should I mourn and fast in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?”

Zecharaih 7:4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me;

Zecharaih 7:5 “Say to all the people of the land and the priests, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth month and in the seventh, for these seventy years, was it for me that you fasted?

Zecharaih 7:6 And when you eat and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves and drink for yourselves?

Zecharaih 7:7 When Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, with her cities round about her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited, were not these the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets?”

Zecharaih 7:8 And the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying,

Zecharaih 7:9 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, Render true judgments, show kindness and mercy each to his brother,

Zecharaih 7:10 do not oppress the widow, the fatherless, the sojourner, or the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.”

Zecharaih 7:11 But they refused to hearken, and turned a stubborn shoulder, and stopped their ears that they might not hear.

Zecharaih 7:12 They made their hearts like adamant lest they should hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 7:13 “As I called, and they would not hear, so they called, and I would not hear,” says the LORD of hosts,

Zecharaih 7:14 “and I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they had not known. Thus the land they left was desolate, so that no one went to and fro, and the pleasant land was made desolate.”

Zecharaih 8:1 And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

Zecharaih 8:2 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.

Zecharaih 8:3 Thus says the LORD: I will return to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain.

Zecharaih 8:4 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand for very age.

Zecharaih 8:5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.

Zecharaih 8:6 Thus says the LORD of hosts: If it is marvelous in the sight of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvelous in my sight, says the LORD of hosts?

Zecharaih 8:7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the east country and from the west country;

Zecharaih 8:8 and I will bring them to dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness."

Zecharaih 8:9 Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Let your hands be strong, you who in these days have been hearing these words from the mouth of the prophets, since the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

Zecharaih 8:10 For before those days there was no wage for man or any wage for beast, neither was there any safety from the foe for him who went out or came in; for I set every man against his fellow.

Zecharaih 8:11 But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts.

Zecharaih 8:12 For there shall be a sowing of peace; the vine shall yield its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

Zecharaih 8:13 And as you have been a byword of cursing among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you and you shall be a blessing. Fear not, but let your hands be strong."

Zecharaih 8:14 For thus says the LORD of hosts: "As I purposed to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, and I did not relent, says the LORD of hosts, Zecharaih 8:15 so again have I purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah; fear not.

Zecharaih 8:16 These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth to one another, render in your gates judgments that are true and make for peace,

Zecharaih 8:17 do not devise evil in your hearts against one another, and love no false oath, for all these things I hate, says the LORD."

Zecharaih 8:18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

Zecharaih 8:19 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah seasons of joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love truth and peace.

Zecharaih 8:20 “Thus says the LORD of hosts: Peoples shall yet come, even the inhabitants of many cities;

Zecharaih 8:21 the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, `Let us go at once to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I am going.’

Zecharaih 8:22 Many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of the LORD.

Zecharaih 8:23 Thus says the LORD of hosts: In those days ten men from the nations of every tongue shall take hold of the robe of a Jew, saying, `Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.’”

Zecharaih 9:1 An Oracle The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus. For to the LORD belong the cities of Aram, even as all the tribes of Israel;

Zecharaih 9:2 Hamath also, which borders thereon, Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

Zecharaih 9:3 Tyre has built herself a rampart, and heaped up silver like dust, and gold like the dirt of the streets.

Zecharaih 9:4 But lo, the Lord will strip her of her possessions and hurl her wealth into the sea, and she shall be devoured by fire.

Zecharaih 9:5 Ashkelon shall see it, and be afraid; Gaza too, and shall writhe in anguish; Ekron also, because its hopes are confounded. The king shall perish from Gaza; Ashkelon shall be uninhabited;

Zecharaih 9:6 a mongrel people shall dwell in Ashdod; and I will make an end of the pride of Philistia.

Zecharaih 9:7 I will take away its blood from its mouth, and its abominations from between its teeth; it too shall be a remnant for our God; it shall be like a clan in Judah, and Ekron shall be like the Jebusites.

Zecharaih 9:8 Then I will encamp at my house as a guard, so that none shall march to and fro; no oppressor shall again overrun them, for now I see with my own eyes.

Zecharaih 9:9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on an ass, on a colt the foal of an ass.

Zecharaih 9:10 I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall command peace to the nations; his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Zecharaih 9:11 As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your captives free from the waterless pit.

Zecharaih 9:12 Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double.

Zecharaih 9:13 For I have bent Judah as my bow; I have made Ephraim its arrow. I will brandish your sons, O Zion, over your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior’s sword.

Zecharaih 9:14 Then the LORD will appear over them, and his arrow go forth like lightning; the Lord GOD will sound the trumpet, and march forth in the whirlwinds of the south.

Zecharaih 9:15 The LORD of hosts will protect them, and they shall devour and tread down the slingers; and they shall drink their blood like wine, and be full like a bowl, drenched like the corners of the altar.

Zecharaih 9:16 On that day the LORD their God will save them for they are the flock of his people; for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land.

Zecharaih 9:17 Yea, how good and how fair it shall be! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the maidens.

Zecharaih 10:1 Ask rain from the LORD in the season of the spring rain, from the LORD who makes the storm clouds, who gives men showers of rain, to every one the vegetation in the field.

Zecharaih 10:2 For the teraphim utter nonsense, and the diviners see lies; the dreamers tell false dreams, and give empty consolation. Therefore the people wander like sheep; they are afflicted for want of a shepherd.

Zecharaih 10:3 “My anger is hot against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders; for the LORD of hosts cares for his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them like his proud steed in battle.

Zecharaih 10:4 Out of them shall come the cornerstone, out of them the tent peg, out of them the battle bow, out of them every ruler.

Zecharaih 10:5 Together they shall be like mighty men in battle, trampling the foe in the mud of the streets; they shall fight because the LORD is with them, and they shall confound the riders on horses.

Zecharaih 10:6 “I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back because I have compassion on them, and they shall be as though I had not rejected them; for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

Zecharaih 10:7 Then Ephraim shall become like a mighty warrior, and their hearts shall be glad as with wine. Their children shall see it and rejoice, their hearts shall exult in the LORD.

Zecharaih 10:8 “I will signal for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as many as of old.

Zecharaih 10:9 Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in far countries they shall remember me, and with their children they shall live and return.

Zecharaih 10:10 I will bring them home from the land of Egypt, and gather them from Assyria; and I will bring them to the land of Gilead and to Lebanon, till there is no room for them.

Zecharaih 10:11 They shall pass through the sea of Egypt, and the waves of the sea shall be smitten, and all the depths of the Nile dried up. The pride of Assyria shall be laid low, and the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

Zecharaih 10:12 I will make them strong in the LORD and they shall glory in his name," says the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars!

Zecharaih 11:2 Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen, for the glorious trees are ruined! Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has been felled!

Zecharaih 11:3 Hark, the wail of the shepherds, for their glory is despoiled! Hark, the roar of the lions, for the jungle of the Jordan is laid waste!

Zecharaih 11:4 Thus said the LORD my God: "Become shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter.

Zecharaih 11:5 Those who buy them slay them and go unpunished; and those who sell them say, `Blessed be the LORD, I have become rich'; and their own shepherds have no pity on them.

Zecharaih 11:6 For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of this land, says the LORD. Lo, I will cause men to fall each into the hand of his shepherd, and each into the hand of his king; and they shall crush the earth, and I will deliver none from their hand."

Zecharaih 11:7 So I became the shepherd of the flock doomed to be slain for those who trafficked in the sheep. And I took two staffs; one I named Grace, the other I named Union. And I tended the sheep.

Zecharaih 11:8 In one month I destroyed the three shepherds. But I became impatient with them, and they also detested me.

Zecharaih 11:9 So I said, "I will not be your shepherd. What is to die, let it die; what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and let those that are left devour the flesh of one another."

Zecharaih 11:10 And I took my staff Grace, and I broke it, annulling the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

Zecharaih 11:11 So it was annulled on that day, and the traffickers in the sheep, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:12 Then I said to them, "If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them." And they weighed out as my wages thirty shekels of silver.

Zecharaih 11:13 Then the LORD said to me, “Cast it into the treasury”—the lordly price at which I was paid off by them. So I took the thirty shekels of silver and cast them into the treasury in the house of the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:14 Then I broke my second staff Union, annulling the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

Zecharaih 11:15 Then the LORD said to me, “Take once more the implements of a worthless shepherd.

Zecharaih 11:16 For lo, I am raising up in the land a shepherd who does not care for the perishing, or seek the wandering, or heal the maimed, or nourish the sound, but devours the flesh of the fat ones, tearing off even their hoofs.

Zecharaih 11:17 Woe to my worthless shepherd, who deserts the flock! May the sword smite his arm and his right eye! Let his arm be wholly withered, his right eye utterly blinded!”

Zecharaih 12:1 An Oracle The word of the LORD concerning Israel: Thus says the LORD, who stretched out the heavens and founded the earth and formed the spirit of man within him:

Zecharaih 12:2 “Lo, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the peoples round about; it will be against Judah also in the siege against Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:3 On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it shall grievously hurt themselves. And all the nations of the earth will come together against it.

Zecharaih 12:4 On that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with panic, and its rider with madness. But upon the house of Judah I will open my eyes, when I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

Zecharaih 12:5 Then the clans of Judah shall say to themselves, `The inhabitants of Jerusalem have strength through the LORD of hosts, their God.’

Zecharaih 12:6 “On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a blazing pot in the midst of wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour to the right and to the left all the peoples round about, while Jerusalem shall still be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:7 “And the LORD will give victory to the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be exalted over that of Judah.

Zecharaih 12:8 On that day the LORD will put a shield about the inhabitants of Jerusalem so that the feeblest among them on that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the LORD, at their head.

Zecharaih 12:9 And on that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:10 “And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of compassion and supplication, so that, when they look on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a first-born.

Zecharaih 12:11 On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadadrimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

Zecharaih 12:12 The land shall mourn, each family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:13 the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the Shimeites by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Zecharaih 12:14 and all the families that are left, each by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Zecharaih 13:1 “On that day there shall be a fountain opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to cleanse them from sin and uncleanness.

Zecharaih 13:2 “And on that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they shall be remembered no more; and also I will remove from the land the prophets and the unclean spirit.

Zecharaih 13:3 And if any one again appears as a prophet, his father and mother who bore him will say to him, `You shall not live, for you speak lies in the name of the LORD’; and his father and mother who bore him shall pierce him through when he prophesies.

Zecharaih 13:4 On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; he will not put on a hairy mantle in order to deceive,

Zecharaih 13:5 but he will say, `I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the soil; for the land has been my possession since my youth.’

Zecharaih 13:6 And if one asks him, `What are these wounds on your back?’ he will say, `The wounds I received in the house of my friends.’”

Zecharaih 13:7 “Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who stands next to me,” says the LORD of hosts. “Strike the shepherd, that the sheep may be scattered; I will turn my hand against the little ones.

Zecharaih 13:8 In the whole land, says the LORD, two thirds shall be cut off and perish, and one third shall be left alive.

Zecharaih 13:9 And I will put this third into the fire, and refine them as one refines silver, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. I will say, `They are my people'; and they will say, `The LORD is my God.'"

Zecharaih 14:1 Behold, a day of the LORD is coming, when the spoil taken from you will be divided in the midst of you.

Zecharaih 14:2 For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses plundered and the women ravished; half of the city shall go into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

Zecharaih 14:3 Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle.

Zecharaih 14:4 On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives which lies before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley; so that one half of the Mount shall withdraw northward, and the other half southward.

Zecharaih 14:5 And the valley of my mountains shall be stopped up, for the valley of the mountains shall touch the side of it; and you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD your God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

Zecharaih 14:6 On that day there shall be neither cold nor frost.

Zecharaih 14:7 And there shall be continuous day (it is known to the LORD), not day and not night, for at evening time there shall be light.

Zecharaih 14:8 On that day living waters shall flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea and half of them to the western sea; it shall continue in summer as in winter.

Zecharaih 14:9 And the LORD will become king over all the earth; on that day the LORD will be one and his name one.

Zecharaih 14:10 The whole land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem shall remain aloft upon its site from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of the former gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.

Zecharaih 14:11 And it shall be inhabited, for there shall be no more curse; Jerusalem shall dwell in security.

Zecharaih 14:12 And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will smite all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh shall rot while they are still on their feet, their eyes shall rot in their sockets, and their tongues shall rot in their mouths.

Zecharaih 14:13 And on that day a great panic from the LORD shall fall on them, so that each will lay hold on the hand of his fellow, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other;

Zecharaih 14:14 even Judah will fight against Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the nations round about shall be collected, gold, silver, and garments in great abundance.

Zecharaih 14:15 And a plague like this plague shall fall on the horses, the mules, the camels, the asses, and whatever beasts may be in those camps.

Zecharaih 14:16 Then every one that survives of all the nations that have come against Jerusalem shall go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of booths.

Zecharaih 14:17 And if any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain upon them.

Zecharaih 14:18 And if the family of Egypt do not go up and present themselves, then upon them shall come the plague with which the LORD afflicts the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths.

Zecharaih 14:19 This shall be the punishment to Egypt and the punishment to all the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths.

Zecharaih 14:20 And on that day there shall be inscribed on the bells of the horses, “Holy to the LORD.” And the pots in the house of the LORD shall be as the bowls before the altar;

Zecharaih 14:21 and every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be sacred to the LORD of hosts, so that all who sacrifice may come and take of them and boil the flesh of the sacrifice in them. And there shall no longer be a trader in the house of the LORD of hosts on that day.

Malachi

1:1 The oracle of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

Malachi 1:2 “I have loved you,” says the LORD. But you say, “How hast thou loved us?” “Is not Esau Jacob’s brother?” says the LORD. “Yet I have loved Jacob Malachi 1:3 but I have hated Esau; I have laid waste his hill country and left his heritage to jackals of the desert.”

Malachi 1:4 If Edom says, “We are shattered but we will rebuild the ruins,” the LORD of hosts says, “They may build, but I will tear down, till they are called the wicked country, the people with whom the LORD is angry for ever.”

Malachi 1:5 Your own eyes shall see this, and you shall say, “Great is the LORD, beyond the border of Israel!”

Malachi 1:6 “A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. You say, `How have we despised thy name?’

Malachi 1:7 By offering polluted food upon my altar. And you say, `How have we polluted it?’ By thinking that the LORD’s table may be despised.

Malachi 1:8 When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that no evil? And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that no evil? Present that to your governor; will he be pleased with you or show you favor? says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 1:9 And now entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With such a gift from your hand, will he show favor to any of you? says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 1:10 Oh, that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire upon my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will not accept an offering from your hand.

Malachi 1:11 For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense is offered to my name, and a pure offering; for my name is great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 1:12 But you profane it when you say that the LORD’s table is polluted, and the food for it may be despised.

Malachi 1:13 `What a weariness this is,’ you say, and you sniff at me, says the LORD of hosts. You bring what has been taken by violence or is lame or sick, and this you bring as your offering! Shall I accept that from your hand? says the LORD.

Malachi 1:14 Cursed be the cheat who has a male in his flock, and vows it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished; for I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name is feared among the nations.

Malachi 2:1 “And now, O priests, this command is for you.

Malachi 2:2 If you will not listen, if you will not lay it to heart to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings; indeed I have already cursed them, because you do not lay it to heart.

Malachi 2:3 Behold, I will rebuke your offspring, and spread dung upon your faces, the dung of your offerings, and I will put you out of my presence.

Malachi 2:4 So shall you know that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant with Levi may hold, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 2:5 My covenant with him was a covenant of life and peace, and I gave them to him, that he might fear; and he feared me, he stood in awe of my name.

Malachi 2:6 True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity.

Malachi 2:7 For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and men should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 2:8 But you have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to stumble by your instruction; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts,

Malachi 2:9 and so I make you despised and abased before all the people, inasmuch as you have not kept my ways but have shown partiality in your instruction.”

Malachi 2:10 Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us? Why then are we faithless to one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers?

Malachi 2:11 Judah has been faithless, and abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

Malachi 2:12 May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob, for the man who does this, any to witness or answer, or to bring an offering to the LORD of hosts!

Malachi 2:13 And this again you do. You cover the LORD’s altar with tears, with weeping and groaning because he no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor at your hand.

Malachi 2:14 You ask, “Why does he not?” Because the LORD was witness to the covenant between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been faithless, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

Malachi 2:15 Has not the one God made and sustained for us the spirit of life? And what does he desire? Godly offspring. So take heed to yourselves, and let none be faithless to the wife of his youth.

Malachi 2:16 “For I hate divorce, says the LORD the God of Israel, and covering one’s garment with violence, says the LORD of hosts. So take heed to yourselves and do not be faithless.”

Malachi 2:17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, “How have we wearied him?” By saying, “Every one who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them.” Or by asking, “Where is the God of justice?”

Malachi 3:1 “Behold, I send my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, behold, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:2 But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? “For he is like a refiner’s fire and like fullers’ soap;

Malachi 3:3 he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, till they present right offerings to the LORD.

Malachi 3:4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

Malachi 3:5 “Then I will draw near to you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the orphan, against those who thrust aside the sojourner, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:6 “For I the LORD do not change; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

Malachi 3:7 From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. But you say, `How shall we return?’

Malachi 3:8 Will man rob God? Yet you are robbing me. But you say, `How are we robbing thee?’ In your tithes and offerings.

Malachi 3:9 You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me; the whole nation of you.

Malachi 3:10 Bring the full tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house; and thereby put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you an overflowing blessing.

Malachi 3:11 I will rebuke the devourer for you, so that it will not destroy the fruits of your soil; and your vine in the field shall not fail to bear, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:12 Then all nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:13 “Your words have been stout against me, says the LORD. Yet you say, `How have we spoken against thee?’

Malachi 3:14 You have said, `It is vain to serve God. What is the good of our keeping his charge or of walking as in mourning before the LORD of hosts?

Malachi 3:15 Henceforth we deem the arrogant blessed; evildoers not only prosper but when they put God to the test they escape.’”

Malachi 3:16 Then those who feared the LORD spoke with one another; the LORD heeded and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the LORD and thought on his name.

Malachi 3:17 “They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, my special possession on the day when I act, and I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him.

Malachi 3:18 Then once more you shall distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

Malachi 4:1 “For behold, the day comes, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the LORD of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.

Malachi 4:2 But for you who fear my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings. You shall go forth leaping like calves from the stall.

Malachi 4:3 And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 4:4 “Remember the law of my servant Moses, the statutes and ordinances that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.

Malachi 4:5 “Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

Malachi 4:6 And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the land with a curse.”

Matthew

1:1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

Matthew 1:2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,

Matthew 1:3 and Judah the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram,

Matthew 1:4 and Ram the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon,

Matthew 1:5 and Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse,

Matthew 1:6 and Jesse the father of David the king. And David was the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah,

Matthew 1:7 and Solomon the father of Rehoboam, and Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asa,

Matthew 1:8 and Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah,

Matthew 1:9 and Uzziah the father of Jotham, and Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,

Matthew 1:10 and Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, and Manasseh the father of Amos, and Amos the father of Josiah, Matthew 1:11 and Josiah the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

Matthew 1:12 And after the deportation to Babylon: Jechoniah was the father of Shealtiel, and Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel,

Matthew 1:13 and Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, and Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor,

Matthew 1:14 and Azor the father of Zadok, and Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud,

Matthew 1:15 and Eliud the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob,

Matthew 1:16 and Jacob the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ.

Matthew 1:17 So all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations, and from David to the deportation to Babylon fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon to the Christ fourteen generations.

Matthew 1:18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child of the Holy Spirit;

Matthew 1:19 and her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly.

Matthew 1:20 But as he considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit;

Matthew 1:21 she will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.”

Matthew 1:22 All this took place to fulfil what the Lord had spoken by the prophet:

Matthew 1:23 “Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel” (which means, God with us).

Matthew 1:24 When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him; he took his wife,

Matthew 1:25 but knew her not until she had borne a son; and he called his name Jesus.

Matthew 2:1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying,

Matthew 2:2 “Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the East, and have come to worship him.”

Matthew 2:3 When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him;

Matthew 2:4 and assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

Matthew 2:5 They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it is written by the prophet:

Matthew 2:6 `And you, O Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who will govern my people Israel.’”

Matthew 2:7 Then Herod summoned the wise men secretly and ascertained from them what time the star appeared;

Matthew 2:8 and he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him bring me word, that I too may come and worship him.”

Matthew 2:9 When they had heard the king they went their way; and lo, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came to rest over the place where the child was.

Matthew 2:10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy;

Matthew 2:11 and going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh.

Matthew 2:12 And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way.

Matthew 2:13 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there till I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.”

Matthew 2:14 And he rose and took the child and his mother by night, and departed to Egypt,

Matthew 2:15 and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfil what the Lord had spoken by the prophet, “Out of Egypt have I called my son.”

Matthew 2:16 Then Herod, when he saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, was in a furious rage, and he sent and killed all the male children in Bethlehem and in all that region who were two years old or under, according to the time which he had ascertained from the wise men.

Matthew 2:17 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah:

Matthew 2:18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they were no more.”

Matthew 2:19 But when Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying,

Matthew 2:20 “Rise, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child’s life are dead.”

Matthew 2:21 And he rose and took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel.

Matthew 2:22 But when he heard that Archelaus reigned over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, and being warned in a dream he withdrew to the district of Galilee.

Matthew 2:23 And he went and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that what was spoken by the prophets might be fulfilled, “He shall be called a Nazarene.”

Matthew 3:1 In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

Matthew 3:2 “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Matthew 3:3 For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah when he said, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.”

Matthew 3:4 Now John wore a garment of camel’s hair, and a leather girdle around his waist; and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Matthew 3:5 Then went out to him Jerusalem and all Judea and all the region about the Jordan,

Matthew 3:6 and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

Matthew 3:7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Matthew 3:8 Bear fruit that befits repentance,

Matthew 3:9 and do not presume to say to yourselves, `We have Abraham as our father’; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

Matthew 3:10 Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Matthew 3:11 “I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Matthew 3:12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the granary, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

Matthew 3:13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him.

Matthew 3:14 John would have prevented him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?”

Matthew 3:15 But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now; for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness.” Then he consented.

Matthew 3:16 And when Jesus was baptized, he went up immediately from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and alighting on him;

Matthew 3:17 and lo, a voice from heaven, saying, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

Matthew 4:1 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

Matthew 4:2 And he fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterward he was hungry.

Matthew 4:3 And the tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.”

Matthew 4:4 But he answered, “It is written, `Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.’”

Matthew 4:5 Then the devil took him to the holy city, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple,

Matthew 4:6 and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, `He will give his angels charge of you,’ and `On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.’”

Matthew 4:7 Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, `You shall not tempt the Lord your God.’”

Matthew 4:8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them;

Matthew 4:9 and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.”

Matthew 4:10 Then Jesus said to him, “Begone, Satan! for it is written, `You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.’”

Matthew 4:11 Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and ministered to him.

Matthew 4:12 Now when he heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee;

Matthew 4:13 and leaving Nazareth he went and dwelt in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali,

Matthew 4:14 that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

Matthew 4:15 “The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles —

Matthew 4:16 the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

Matthew 4:17 From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Matthew 4:18 As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

Matthew 4:19 And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

Matthew 4:20 Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

Matthew 4:21 And going on from there he saw two other brothers,James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them.

Matthew 4:22 Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Matthew 4:23 And he went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people.

Matthew 4:24 So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pains, demoniacs, epileptics, and paralytics, and he healed them.

Matthew 4:25 And great crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from beyond the Jordan.

Matthew 5:1 Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down his disciples came to him.

Matthew 5:2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

Matthew 5:3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:4 “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Matthew 5:5 “Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Matthew 5:6 “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Matthew 5:7 “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Matthew 5:8 “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Matthew 5:9 “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

Matthew 5:10 “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:11 “Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Matthew 5:12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so men persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Matthew 5:13 “You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trodden under foot by men.

Matthew 5:14 “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid.

Matthew 5:15 Nor do men light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house.

Matthew 5:16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 5:17 “Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfil them.

Matthew 5:18 For truly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the law until all is accomplished.

Matthew 5:19 Whoever then relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but he who does them and teaches them shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:21 “You have heard that it was said to the men of old, `You shall not kill; and whoever kills shall be liable to judgment.’

Matthew 5:22 But I say to you that every one who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother shall be liable to the council, and whoever says, `You fool!’ shall be liable to the hell of fire.

Matthew 5:23 So if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you,

Matthew 5:24 leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Matthew 5:25 Make friends quickly with your accuser, while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison;

Matthew 5:26 truly, I say to you, you will never get out till you have paid the last penny.

Matthew 5:27 “You have heard that it was said, `You shall not commit adultery.’

Matthew 5:28 But I say to you that every one who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

Matthew 5:29 If your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and throw it away; it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell.

Matthew 5:30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell.

Matthew 5:31 “It was also said, `Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’

Matthew 5:32 But I say to you that every one who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, makes her an adulteress; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Matthew 5:33 “Again you have heard that it was said to the men of old, `You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord what you have sworn.’

Matthew 5:34 But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God,

Matthew 5:35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

Matthew 5:36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black.

Matthew 5:37 Let what you say be simply `Yes’ or `No’; anything more than this comes from evil.

Matthew 5:38 “You have heard that it was said, `An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’

Matthew 5:39 But I say to you, Do not resist one who is evil. But if any one strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also;

Matthew 5:40 and if any one would sue you and take your coat, let him have your cloak as well;

Matthew 5:41 and if any one forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles.

Matthew 5:42 Give to him who begs from you, and do not refuse him who would borrow from you.

Matthew 5:43 “You have heard that it was said, `You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’

Matthew 5:44 But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,

Matthew 5:45 so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.

Matthew 5:46 For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?

Matthew 5:47 And if you salute only your brethren, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same?

Matthew 5:48 You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Matthew 6:1 “Beware of practicing your piety before men in order to be seen by them; for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 6:2 “Thus, when you give alms, sound no trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be praised by men. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.

Matthew 6:3 But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,

Matthew 6:4 so that your alms may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:5 “And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by men. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.

Matthew 6:6 But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:7 “And in praying do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their many words.

Matthew 6:8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Matthew 6:9 Pray then like this: Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

Matthew 6:10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven.

Matthew 6:11 Give us this day our daily bread;

Matthew 6:12 And forgive us our debts, As we also have forgiven our debtors;

Matthew 6:13 And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.

Matthew 6:14 For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you;

Matthew 6:15 but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Matthew 6:16 “And when you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by men. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.

Matthew 6:17 But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face,

Matthew 6:18 that your fasting may not be seen by men but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:19 “Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal,

Matthew 6:20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal.

Matthew 6:21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Matthew 6:22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light;

Matthew 6:23 but if your eye is not sound, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

Matthew 6:24 “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

Matthew 6:25 “Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat or what you shall drink, nor about your body, what you shall put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing?

Matthew 6:26 Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?

Matthew 6:27 And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his span of life?

Matthew 6:28 And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin;

Matthew 6:29 yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Matthew 6:30 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O men of little faith?

Matthew 6:31 Therefore do not be anxious, saying, `What shall we eat?’ or `What shall we drink?’ or `What shall we wear?’

Matthew 6:32 For the Gentiles seek all these things; and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all.

Matthew 6:33 But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well.

Matthew 6:34 “Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Let the day’s own trouble be sufficient for the day.

Matthew 7:1 “Judge not, that you be not judged.

Matthew 7:2 For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and the measure you give will be the measure you get.

Matthew 7:3 Why do you see the speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye?

Matthew 7:4 Or how can you say to your brother, `Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when there is the log in your own eye?

Matthew 7:5 You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye.

Matthew 7:6 “Do not give dogs what is holy; and do not throw your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under foot and turn to attack you.

Matthew 7:7 “Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

Matthew 7:8 For every one who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

Matthew 7:9 Or what man of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone?

Matthew 7:10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent?

Matthew 7:11 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

Matthew 7:12 So whatever you wish that men would do to you, do so to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

Matthew 7:13 “Enter by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is easy, that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many.

Matthew 7:14 For the gate is narrow and the way is hard, that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

Matthew 7:15 “Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves.

Matthew 7:16 You will know them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thorns, or figs from thistles?

Matthew 7:17 So, every sound tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears evil fruit.

Matthew 7:18 A sound tree cannot bear evil fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit.

Matthew 7:19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Matthew 7:20 Thus you will know them by their fruits.

Matthew 7:21 "Not every one who says to me, `Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 7:22 On that day many will say to me, `Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?'

Matthew 7:23 And then will I declare to them, `I never knew you; depart from me, you evildoers.'

Matthew 7:24 "Every one then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house upon the rock;

Matthew 7:25 and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock.

Matthew 7:26 And every one who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand;

Matthew 7:27 and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell; and great was the fall of it."

Matthew 7:28 And when Jesus finished these sayings, the crowds were astonished at his teaching,

Matthew 7:29 for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.

Matthew 8:1 When he came down from the mountain, great crowds followed him;

Matthew 8:2 and behold, a leper came to him and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, if you will, you can make me clean."

Matthew 8:3 And he stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I will; be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

Matthew 8:4 And Jesus said to him, "See that you say nothing to any one; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a proof to the people."

Matthew 8:5 As he entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, beseeching him

Matthew 8:6 and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, in terrible distress."

Matthew 8:7 And he said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

Matthew 8:8 But the centurion answered him, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant will be healed.

Matthew 8:9 For I am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, `Go,’ and he goes, and to another, `Come,’ and he comes, and to my slave, `Do this,’ and he does it.”

Matthew 8:10 When Jesus heard him, he marveled, and said to those who followed him, “Truly, I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such faith.

Matthew 8:11 I tell you, many will come from east and west and sit at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven,

Matthew 8:12 while the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.”

Matthew 8:13 And to the centurion Jesus said, “Go; be it done for you as you have believed.” And the servant was healed at that very moment.

Matthew 8:14 And when Jesus entered Peter’s house, he saw his mother-in-law lying sick with a fever;

Matthew 8:15 he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she rose and served him.

Matthew 8:16 That evening they brought to him many who were possessed with demons; and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick.

Matthew 8:17 This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah, “He took our infirmities and bore our diseases.”

Matthew 8:18 Now when Jesus saw great crowds around him, he gave orders to go over to the other side.

Matthew 8:19 And a scribe came up and said to him, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”

Matthew 8:20 And Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head.”

Matthew 8:21 Another of the disciples said to him, “Lord, let me first go and bury my father.”

Matthew 8:22 But Jesus said to him, “Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead.”

Matthew 8:23 And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him.

Matthew 8:24 And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep.

Matthew 8:25 And they went and woke him, saying, “Save, Lord; we are perishing.”

Matthew 8:26 And he said to them, “Why are you afraid, O men of little faith?” Then he rose and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

Matthew 8:27 And the men marveled, saying, “What sort of man is this, that even winds and sea obey him?”

Matthew 8:28 And when he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes, two demoniacs met him, coming out of the tombs, so fierce that no one could pass that way.

Matthew 8:29 And behold, they cried out, “What have you to do with us, O Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?”

Matthew 8:30 Now a herd of many swine was feeding at some distance from them.

Matthew 8:31 And the demons begged him, “If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine.”

Matthew 8:32 And he said to them, “Go.” So they came out and went into the swine; and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and perished in the waters.

Matthew 8:33 The herdsmen fled, and going into the city they told everything, and what had happened to the demoniacs.

Matthew 8:34 And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their neighborhood.

Matthew 9:1 And getting into a boat he crossed over and came to his own city.

Matthew 9:2 And behold, they brought to him a paralytic, lying on his bed; and when Jesus saw their faith he said to the paralytic, “Take heart, my son; your sins are forgiven.”

Matthew 9:3 And behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, “This man is blaspheming.”

Matthew 9:4 But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts?

Matthew 9:5 For which is easier, to say, `Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, `Rise and walk’?

Matthew 9:6 But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he then said to the paralytic—“Rise, take up your bed and go home.”

Matthew 9:7 And he rose and went home.

Matthew 9:8 When the crowds saw it, they were afraid, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

Matthew 9:9 As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax office; and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he rose and followed him.

Matthew 9:10 And as he sat at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples.

Matthew 9:11 And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

Matthew 9:12 But when he heard it, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.

Matthew 9:13 Go and learn what this means, `I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.’ For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.”

Matthew 9:14 Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?”

Matthew 9:15 And Jesus said to them, “Can the wedding guests mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? The days will come, when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

Matthew 9:16 And no one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear is made.

Matthew 9:17 Neither is new wine put into old wineskins; if it is, the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins are destroyed; but new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and so both are preserved.”

Matthew 9:18 While he was thus speaking to them, behold, a ruler came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.”

Matthew 9:19 And Jesus rose and followed him, with his disciples.

Matthew 9:20 And behold, a woman who had suffered from a hemorrhage for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment;

Matthew 9:21 for she said to herself, “If I only touch his garment, I shall be made well.”

Matthew 9:22 Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantly the woman was made well.

Matthew 9:23 And when Jesus came to the ruler’s house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd making a tumult,

Matthew 9:24 he said, “Depart; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him.

Matthew 9:25 But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose.

Matthew 9:26 And the report of this went through all that district.

Matthew 9:27 And as Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed him, crying aloud, “Have mercy on us, Son of David.”

Matthew 9:28 When he entered the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord.”

Matthew 9:29 Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.”

Matthew 9:30 And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly charged them, “See that no one knows it.”

Matthew 9:31 But they went away and spread his fame through all that district.

Matthew 9:32 As they were going away, behold, a dumb demoniac was brought to him.

Matthew 9:33 And when the demon had been cast out, the dumb man spoke; and the crowds marveled, saying, “Never was anything like this seen in Israel.”

Matthew 9:34 But the Pharisees said, “He casts out demons by the prince of demons.”

Matthew 9:35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every infirmity.

Matthew 9:36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:37 Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few;

Matthew 9:38 pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

Matthew 10:1 And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every infirmity.

Matthew 10:2 The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

Matthew 10:3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

Matthew 10:4 Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

Matthew 10:5 These twelve Jesus sent out, charging them, “Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans,

Matthew 10:6 but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Matthew 10:7 And preach as you go, saying, `The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’

Matthew 10:8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying, give without pay.

Matthew 10:9 Take no gold, nor silver, nor copper in your belts,

Matthew 10:10 no bag for your journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor a staff; for the laborer deserves his food.

Matthew 10:11 And whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy in it, and stay with him until you depart.

Matthew 10:12 As you enter the house, salute it.

Matthew 10:13 And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

Matthew 10:14 And if any one will not receive you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town.

Matthew 10:15 Truly, I say to you, it shall be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town.

Matthew 10:16 "Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.

Matthew 10:17 Beware of men; for they will deliver you up to councils, and flog you in their synagogues,

Matthew 10:18 and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear testimony before them and the Gentiles.

Matthew 10:19 When they deliver you up, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour;

Matthew 10:20 for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

Matthew 10:21 Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death;

Matthew 10:22 and you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved.

Matthew 10:23 When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly, I say to you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel, before the Son of man comes.

Matthew 10:24 "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master;

Matthew 10:25 it is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household.

Matthew 10:26 "So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known.

Matthew 10:27 What I tell you in the dark, utter in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim upon the housetops.

Matthew 10:28 And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

Matthew 10:29 Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father’s will.

Matthew 10:30 But even the hairs of your head are all numbered.

Matthew 10:31 Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Matthew 10:32 So every one who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven;

Matthew 10:33 but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 10:34 “Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

Matthew 10:35 For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

Matthew 10:36 and a man’s foes will be those of his own household.

Matthew 10:37 He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;

Matthew 10:38 and he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

Matthew 10:39 He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 10:40 “He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me.

Matthew 10:41 He who receives a prophet because he is a prophet shall receive a prophet’s reward, and he who receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man shall receive a righteous man’s reward.

Matthew 10:42 And whoever gives to one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he shall not lose his reward.”

Matthew 11:1 And when Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and preach in their cities.

Matthew 11:2 Now when John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples

Matthew 11:3 and said to him, “Are you he who is to come, or shall we look for another?”

Matthew 11:4 And Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John what you hear and see:

Matthew 11:5 the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.

Matthew 11:6 And blessed is he who takes no offense at me.”

Matthew 11:7 As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to behold? A reed shaken by the wind?

Matthew 11:8 Why then did you go out? To see a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, those who wear soft raiment are in kings’ houses.

Matthew 11:9 Why then did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

Matthew 11:10 This is he of whom it is written, `Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee.’

Matthew 11:11 Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

Matthew 11:12 From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and men of violence take it by force.

Matthew 11:13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John;

Matthew 11:14 and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come.

Matthew 11:15 He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Matthew 11:16 “But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market places and calling to their playmates,

Matthew 11:17 `We piped to you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.’

Matthew 11:18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, `He has a demon’;

Matthew 11:19 the Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, `Behold, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is justified by her deeds.”

Matthew 11:20 Then he began to upbraid the cities where most of his mighty works had been done, because they did not repent.

Matthew 11:21 “Woe to you, Chorazin! woe to you, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Matthew 11:22 But I tell you, it shall be more tolerable on the day of judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Matthew 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

Matthew 11:24 But I tell you that it shall be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom than for you."

Matthew 11:25 At that time Jesus declared, "I thank thee, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to babes;

Matthew 11:26 yea, Father, for such was thy gracious will.

Matthew 11:27 All things have been delivered to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and any one to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

Matthew 11:28 Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Matthew 11:30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Matthew 12:1 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the sabbath; his disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat.

Matthew 12:2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, "Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the sabbath."

Matthew 12:3 He said to them, "Have you not read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him:

Matthew 12:4 how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests?

Matthew 12:5 Or have you not read in the law how on the sabbath the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are guiltless?

Matthew 12:6 I tell you, something greater than the temple is here.

Matthew 12:7 And if you had known what this means, `I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless.

Matthew 12:8 For the Son of man is lord of the sabbath."

Matthew 12:9 And he went on from there, and entered their synagogue.

Matthew 12:10 And behold, there was a man with a withered hand. And they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath?" so that they might accuse him.

Matthew 12:11 He said to them, "What man of you, if he has one sheep and it falls into a pit on the sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out?

Matthew 12:12 Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the sabbath."

Matthew 12:13 Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And the man stretched it out, and it was restored, whole like the other.

Matthew 12:14 But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against him, how to destroy him.

Matthew 12:15 Jesus, aware of this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all,

Matthew 12:16 and ordered them not to make him known.

Matthew 12:17 This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

Matthew 12:18 "Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved with whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall proclaim justice to the Gentiles.

Matthew 12:19 He will not wrangle or cry aloud, nor will any one hear his voice in the streets;

Matthew 12:20 he will not break a bruised reed or quench a smoldering wick, till he brings justice to victory;

Matthew 12:21 and in his name will the Gentiles hope."

Matthew 12:22 Then a blind and dumb demoniac was brought to him, and he healed him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw.

Matthew 12:23 And all the people were amazed, and said, "Can this be the Son of David?"

Matthew 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard it they said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man casts out demons."

Matthew 12:25 Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand;

Matthew 12:26 and if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand?

Matthew 12:27 And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges.

Matthew 12:28 But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

Matthew 12:29 Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then indeed he may plunder his house.

Matthew 12:30 He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.

Matthew 12:31 Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

Matthew 12:32 And whoever says a word against the Son of man will be forgiven; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

Matthew 12:33 “Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree bad, and its fruit bad; for the tree is known by its fruit.

Matthew 12:34 You brood of vipers! how can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

Matthew 12:35 The good man out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings forth evil.

Matthew 12:36 I tell you, on the day of judgment men will render account for every careless word they utter;

Matthew 12:37 for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

Matthew 12:38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, “Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you.”

Matthew 12:39 But he answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign; but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

Matthew 12:40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

Matthew 12:41 The men of Nineveh will arise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.

Matthew 12:42 The queen of the South will arise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

Matthew 12:43 “When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places seeking rest, but he finds none.

Matthew 12:44 Then he says, `I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when he comes he finds it empty, swept, and put in order.

Matthew 12:45 Then he goes and brings with him seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first. So shall it be also with this evil generation.”

Matthew 12:46 While he was still speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him.

Matthew 12:47

Matthew 12:48 But he replied to the man who told him, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?”

Matthew 12:49 And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers!

Matthew 12:50 For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

Matthew 13:1 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea.

Matthew 13:2 And great crowds gathered about him, so that he got into a boat and sat there; and the whole crowd stood on the beach.

Matthew 13:3 And he told them many things in parables, saying: “A sower went out to sow.

Matthew 13:4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them.

Matthew 13:5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they had not much soil, and immediately they sprang up, since they had no depth of soil,

Matthew 13:6 but when the sun rose they were scorched; and since they had no root they withered away.

Matthew 13:7 Other seeds fell upon thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them.

Matthew 13:8 Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Matthew 13:9 He who has ears, let him hear.”

Matthew 13:10 Then the disciples came and said to him, “Why do you speak to them in parables?”

Matthew 13:11 And he answered them, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.

Matthew 13:12 For to him who has will more be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away.

Matthew 13:13 This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

Matthew 13:14 With them indeed is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah which says: `You shall indeed hear but never understand, and you shall indeed see but never perceive.

Matthew 13:15 For this people’s heart has grown dull, and their ears are heavy of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should perceive with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn for me to heal them.’

Matthew 13:16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear.

Matthew 13:17 Truly, I say to you, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

Matthew 13:18 “Hear then the parable of the sower.

Matthew 13:19 When any one hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in his heart; this is what was sown along the path.

Matthew 13:20 As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy;

Matthew 13:21 yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while, and when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately he falls away.

Matthew 13:22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the delight in riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful.

Matthew 13:23 As for what was sown on good soil, this is he who hears the word and understands it; he indeed bears fruit, and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.”

Matthew 13:24 Another parable he put before them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field;

Matthew 13:25 but while men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away.

Matthew 13:26 So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared also.

Matthew 13:27 And the servants of the householder came and said to him, `Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then has it weeds?’

Matthew 13:28 He said to them, `An enemy has done this.’ The servants said to him, `Then do you want us to go and gather them?’

Matthew 13:29 But he said, `No; lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them.

Matthew 13:30 Let both grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.’”

Matthew 13:31 Another parable he put before them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field;

Matthew 13:32 it is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.”

Matthew 13:33 He told them another parable. “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened.”

Matthew 13:34 All this Jesus said to the crowds in parables; indeed he said nothing to them without a parable.

Matthew 13:35 This was to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet: “I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world.”

Matthew 13:36 Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.”

Matthew 13:37 He answered, “He who sows the good seed is the Son of man;

Matthew 13:38 the field is the world, and the good seed means the sons of the kingdom; the weeds are the sons of the evil one,

Matthew 13:39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels.

Matthew 13:40 Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age.

Matthew 13:41 The Son of man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers,

Matthew 13:42 and throw them into the furnace of fire; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.

Matthew 13:43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.

Matthew 13:44 “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Matthew 13:45 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls,

Matthew 13:46 who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Matthew 13:47 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net which was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind;

Matthew 13:48 when it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into vessels but threw away the bad.

Matthew 13:49 So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous,

Matthew 13:50 and throw them into the furnace of fire; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.

Matthew 13:51 “Have you understood all this?” They said to him, “Yes.”

Matthew 13:52 And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”

Matthew 13:53 And when Jesus had finished these parables, he went away from there,

Matthew 13:54 and coming to his own country he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, “Where did this man get this wisdom and these mighty works?

Matthew 13:55 Is not this the carpenter’s son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?

Matthew 13:56 And are not all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all this?”

Matthew 13:57 And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house.”

Matthew 13:58 And he did not do many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

Matthew 14:1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard about the fame of Jesus;

Matthew 14:2 and he said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist, he has been raised from the dead; that is why these powers are at work in him.”

Matthew 14:3 For Herod had seized John and bound him and put him in prison, for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife;

Matthew 14:4 because John said to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.”

Matthew 14:5 And though he wanted to put him to death, he feared the people, because they held him to be a prophet.

Matthew 14:6 But when Herod’s birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before the company, and pleased Herod,

Matthew 14:7 so that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask.

Matthew 14:8 Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter.”

Matthew 14:9 And the king was sorry; but because of his oaths and his guests he commanded it to be given;

Matthew 14:10 he sent and had John beheaded in the prison,

Matthew 14:11 and his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.

Matthew 14:12 And his disciples came and took the body and buried it; and they went and told Jesus.

Matthew 14:13 Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a lonely place apart. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns.

Matthew 14:14 As he went ashore he saw a great throng; and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick.

Matthew 14:15 When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a lonely place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

Matthew 14:16 Jesus said, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.”

Matthew 14:17 They said to him, “We have only five loaves here and two fish.”

Matthew 14:18 And he said, “Bring them here to me.”

Matthew 14:19 Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass; and taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 14:20 And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over.

Matthew 14:21 And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Matthew 14:22 Then he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Matthew 14:23 And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,

Matthew 14:24 but the boat by this time was many furlongs distant from the land, beaten by the waves; for the wind was against them.

Matthew 14:25 And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea.

Matthew 14:26 But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out for fear.

Matthew 14:27 But immediately he spoke to them, saying, “Take heart, it is I; have no fear.”

Matthew 14:28 And Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, bid me come to you on the water.”

Matthew 14:29 He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus;

Matthew 14:30 but when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me.”

Matthew 14:31 Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, “O man of little faith, why did you doubt?”

Matthew 14:32 And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

Matthew 14:33 And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

Matthew 14:34 And when they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.

Matthew 14:35 And when the men of that place recognized him, they sent round to all that region and brought to him all that were sick,

Matthew 14:36 and besought him that they might only touch the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched it were made well.

Matthew 15:1 Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and said,

Matthew 15:2 “Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat.”

Matthew 15:3 He answered them, “And why do you transgress the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?

Matthew 15:4 For God commanded, `Honor your father and your mother,’ and, `He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him surely die.’

Matthew 15:5 But you say, `If any one tells his father or his mother, What you would have gained from me is given to God, he need not honor his father.’

Matthew 15:6 So, for the sake of your tradition, you have made void the word of God.

Matthew 15:7 You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said:

Matthew 15:8 `This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me;

Matthew 15:9 in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.’”

Matthew 15:10 And he called the people to him and said to them, “Hear and understand:

Matthew 15:11 not what goes into the mouth defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man.”

Matthew 15:12 Then the disciples came and said to him, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?”

Matthew 15:13 He answered, “Every plant which my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up.

Matthew 15:14 Let them alone; they are blind guides. And if a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit.”

Matthew 15:15 But Peter said to him, “Explain the parable to us.”

Matthew 15:16 And he said, “Are you also still without understanding?

Matthew 15:17 Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and so passes on?

Matthew 15:18 But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this defiles a man.

Matthew 15:19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander.

Matthew 15:20 These are what defile a man; but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man.”

Matthew 15:21 And Jesus went away from there and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon.

Matthew 15:22 And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came out and cried, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely possessed by a demon.”

Matthew 15:23 But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, “Send her away, for she is crying after us.”

Matthew 15:24 He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

Matthew 15:25 But she came and knelt before him, saying, “Lord, help me.”

Matthew 15:26 And he answered, “It is not fair to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

Matthew 15:27 She said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”

Matthew 15:28 Then Jesus answered her, “O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire.” And her daughter was healed instantly.

Matthew 15:29 And Jesus went on from there and passed along the Sea of Galilee. And he went up on the mountain, and sat down there.

Matthew 15:30 And great crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the maimed, the blind, the dumb, and many others, and they put them at his feet, and he healed them,

Matthew 15:31 so that the throng wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

Matthew 15:32 Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me now three days, and have nothing to eat; and I am unwilling to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way.”

Matthew 15:33 And the disciples said to him, “Where are we to get bread enough in the desert to feed so great a crowd?”

Matthew 15:34 And Jesus said to them, “How many loaves have you?” They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

Matthew 15:35 And commanding the crowd to sit down on the ground,

Matthew 15:36 he took the seven loaves and the fish, and having given thanks he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

Matthew 15:37 And they all ate and were satisfied; and they took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces left over.

Matthew 15:38 Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.

Matthew 15:39 And sending away the crowds, he got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

Matthew 16:1 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and to test him they asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

Matthew 16:2 He answered them, “When it is evening, you say, `It will be fair weather; for the sky is red.’

Matthew 16:3 And in the morning, `It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.’ You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.

Matthew 16:4 An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Jonah.” So he left them and departed.

Matthew 16:5 When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to bring any bread.

Matthew 16:6 Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

Matthew 16:7 And they discussed it among themselves, saying, “We brought no bread.”

Matthew 16:8 But Jesus, aware of this, said, “O men of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves the fact that you have no bread?

Matthew 16:9 Do you not yet perceive? Do you not remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered?

Matthew 16:10 Or the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered?

Matthew 16:11 How is it that you fail to perceive that I did not speak about bread? Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

Matthew 16:12 Then they understood that he did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Matthew 16:13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do men say that the Son of man is?”

Matthew 16:14 And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

Matthew 16:15 He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Matthew 16:16 Simon Peter replied, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

Matthew 16:17 And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Barjona! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 16:18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the powers of death shall not prevail against it.

Matthew 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

Matthew 16:20 Then he strictly charged the disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

Matthew 16:21 From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.

Matthew 16:22 And Peter took him and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid, Lord! This shall never happen to you.”

Matthew 16:23 But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me; for you are not on the side of God, but of men.”

Matthew 16:24 Then Jesus told his disciples, “If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

Matthew 16:25 For whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 16:26 For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life?

Matthew 16:27 For the Son of man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay every man for what he has done.

Matthew 16:28 Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.”

Matthew 17:1 And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain apart.

Matthew 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light.

Matthew 17:3 And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

Matthew 17:4 And Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is well that we are here; if you wish, I will make three booths here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

Matthew 17:5 He was still speaking, when lo, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.”

Matthew 17:6 When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces, and were filled with awe.

Matthew 17:7 But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Rise, and have no fear.”

Matthew 17:8 And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

Matthew 17:9 And as they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Tell no one the vision, until the Son of man is raised from the dead.”

Matthew 17:10 And the disciples asked him, “Then why do the scribes say that first Elijah must come?”

Matthew 17:11 He replied, “Elijah does come, and he is to restore all things;

Matthew 17:12 but I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not know him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of man will suffer at their hands.”

Matthew 17:13 Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them of John the Baptist.

Matthew 17:14 And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and kneeling before him said,

Matthew 17:15 “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly; for often he falls into the fire, and often into the water.

Matthew 17:16 And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him.”

Matthew 17:17 And Jesus answered, “O faithless and perverse generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me.”

Matthew 17:18 And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was cured instantly.

Matthew 17:19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?”

Matthew 17:20 He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, `Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you.”

Matthew 17:21

Matthew 17:22 As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of man is to be delivered into the hands of men, Matthew 17:23 and they will kill him, and he will be raised on the third day.” And they were greatly distressed.

Matthew 17:24 When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the half-shekel tax went up to Peter and said, “Does not your teacher pay the tax?”

Matthew 17:25 He said, “Yes.” And when he came home, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tribute? From their sons or from others?”

Matthew 17:26 And when he said, “From others,” Jesus said to him, “Then the sons are free.

Matthew 17:27 However, not to give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook, and take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth you will find a shekel; take that and give it to them for me and for yourself.”

Matthew 18:1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

Matthew 18:2 And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them,

Matthew 18:3 and said, “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:4 Whoever humbles himself like this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:5 “Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me;

Matthew 18:6 but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened round his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

Matthew 18:7 “Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the man by whom the temptation comes!

Matthew 18:8 And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life maimed or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire.

Matthew 18:9 And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire.

Matthew 18:10 “See that you do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you that in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 18:11

Matthew 18:12 What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray?

Matthew 18:13 And if he finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray.

Matthew 18:14 So it is not the will of my Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

Matthew 18:15 "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.

Matthew 18:16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

Matthew 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

Matthew 18:18 Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Matthew 18:19 Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:20 For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Matthew 18:21 Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?"

Matthew 18:22 Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven.

Matthew 18:23 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants.

Matthew 18:24 When he began the reckoning, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents;

Matthew 18:25 and as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made.

Matthew 18:26 So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, `Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'

Matthew 18:27 And out of pity for him the lord of that servant released him and forgave him the debt.

Matthew 18:28 But that same servant, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat he said, `Pay what you owe.'

Matthew 18:29 So his fellow servant fell down and besought him, `Have patience with me, and I will pay you.'

Matthew 18:30 He refused and went and put him in prison till he should pay the debt.

Matthew 18:31 When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place.

Matthew 18:32 Then his lord summoned him and said to him, `You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you besought me;

Matthew 18:33 and should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?'

Matthew 18:34 And in anger his lord delivered him to the jailers, till he should pay all his debt.

Matthew 18:35 So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

Matthew 19:1 Now when Jesus had finished these sayings, he went away from Galilee and entered the region of Judea beyond the Jordan;

Matthew 19:2 and large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

Matthew 19:3 And Pharisees came up to him and tested him by asking, "Is it lawful to divorce one's wife for any cause?"

Matthew 19:4 He answered, "Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female,

Matthew 19:5 and said, `For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'?

Matthew 19:6 So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder."

Matthew 19:7 They said to him, "Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?"

Matthew 19:8 He said to them, "For your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so.

Matthew 19:9 And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for unchastity, and marries another, commits adultery."

Matthew 19:10 The disciples said to him, "If such is the case of a man with his wife, it is not expedient to marry."

Matthew 19:11 But he said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but only those to whom it is given.

Matthew 19:12 For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who is able to receive this, let him receive it.”

Matthew 19:13 Then children were brought to him that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples rebuked the people;

Matthew 19:14 but Jesus said, “Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.”

Matthew 19:15 And he laid his hands on them and went away.

Matthew 19:16 And behold, one came up to him, saying, “Teacher, what good deed must I do, to have eternal life?”

Matthew 19:17 And he said to him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? One there is who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments.”

Matthew 19:18 He said to him, “Which?” And Jesus said, “You shall not kill, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, Matthew 19:19 Honor your father and mother, and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Matthew 19:20 The young man said to him, “All these I have observed; what do I still lack?”

Matthew 19:21 Jesus said to him, “If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.”

Matthew 19:22 When the young man heard this he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions.

Matthew 19:23 And Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly, I say to you, it will be hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 19:24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

Matthew 19:25 When the disciples heard this they were greatly astonished, saying, “Who then can be saved?”

Matthew 19:26 But Jesus looked at them and said to them, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

Matthew 19:27 Then Peter said in reply, “Lo, we have left everything and followed you. What then shall we have?”

Matthew 19:28 Jesus said to them, “Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of man shall sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Matthew 19:29 And every one who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name’s sake, will receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life.

Matthew 19:30 But many that are first will be last, and the last first.

Matthew 20:1 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.

Matthew 20:2 After agreeing with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

Matthew 20:3 And going out about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the market place;

Matthew 20:4 and to them he said, `You go into the vineyard too, and whatever is right I will give you.’ So they went.

Matthew 20:5 Going out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour, he did the same.

Matthew 20:6 And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing; and he said to them, `Why do you stand here idle all day?’

Matthew 20:7 They said to him, `Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, `You go into the vineyard too.’

Matthew 20:8 And when evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, `Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last, up to the first.’

Matthew 20:9 And when those hired about the eleventh hour came, each of them received a denarius.

Matthew 20:10 Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received a denarius.

Matthew 20:11 And on receiving it they grumbled at the householder,

Matthew 20:12 saying, `These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.’

Matthew 20:13 But he replied to one of them, `Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius?

Matthew 20:14 Take what belongs to you, and go; I choose to give to this last as I give to you.

Matthew 20:15 Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity?’

Matthew 20:16 So the last will be first, and the first last.”

Matthew 20:17 And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them, Matthew 20:18 “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death,

Matthew 20:19 and deliver him to the Gentiles to be mocked and scourged and crucified, and he will be raised on the third day.”

Matthew 20:20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came up to him, with her sons, and kneeling before him she asked him for something.

Matthew 20:21 And he said to her, “What do you want?” She said to him, “Command that these two sons of mine may sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom.”

Matthew 20:22 But Jesus answered, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am to drink?” They said to him, “We are able.”

Matthew 20:23 He said to them, “You will drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”

Matthew 20:24 And when the ten heard it, they were indignant at the two brothers.

Matthew 20:25 But Jesus called them to him and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them.

Matthew 20:26 It shall not be so among you; but whoever would be great among you must be your servant,

Matthew 20:27 and whoever would be first among you must be your slave;

Matthew 20:28 even as the Son of man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Matthew 20:29 And as they went out of Jericho, a great crowd followed him.

Matthew 20:30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the roadside, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

Matthew 20:31 The crowd rebuked them, telling them to be silent; but they cried out the more, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!”

Matthew 20:32 And Jesus stopped and called them, saying, “What do you want me to do for you?”

Matthew 20:33 They said to him, “Lord, let our eyes be opened.”

Matthew 20:34 And Jesus in pity touched their eyes, and immediately they received their sight and followed him.

Matthew 21:1 And when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, Matthew 21:2 saying to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me.

Matthew 21:3 If any one says anything to you, you shall say, `The Lord has need of them,’ and he will send them immediately.”

Matthew 21:4 This took place to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet, saying,

Matthew 21:5 “Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on an ass, and on a colt, the foal of an ass.”

Matthew 21:6 The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them;

Matthew 21:7 they brought the ass and the colt, and put their garments on them, and he sat thereon.

Matthew 21:8 Most of the crowd spread their garments on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

Matthew 21:9 And the crowds that went before him and that followed him shouted, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”

Matthew 21:10 And when he entered Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, “Who is this?”

Matthew 21:11 And the crowds said, “This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth of Galilee.”

Matthew 21:12 And Jesus entered the temple of God and drove out all who sold and bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons.

Matthew 21:13 He said to them, “It is written, `My house shall be called a house of prayer’; but you make it a den of robbers.”

Matthew 21:14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

Matthew 21:15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying out in the temple, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” they were indignant;

Matthew 21:16 and they said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?” And Jesus said to them, “Yes; have you never read, `Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast brought perfect praise’?”

Matthew 21:17 And leaving them, he went out of the city to Bethany and lodged there.

Matthew 21:18 In the morning, as he was returning to the city, he was hungry.

Matthew 21:19 And seeing a fig tree by the wayside he went to it, and found nothing on it but leaves only. And he said to it, “May no fruit ever come from you again!” And the fig tree withered at once.

Matthew 21:20 When the disciples saw it they marveled, saying, “How did the fig tree wither at once?”

Matthew 21:21 And Jesus answered them, “Truly, I say to you, if you have faith and never doubt, you will not only do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, `Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ it will be done.

Matthew 21:22 And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith.”

Matthew 21:23 And when he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?”

Matthew 21:24 Jesus answered them, “I also will ask you a question; and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things.

Matthew 21:25 The baptism of John, whence was it? From heaven or from men?” And they argued with one another, “If we say, `From heaven,’ he will say to us, `Why then did you not believe him?’

Matthew 21:26 But if we say, `From men,’ we are afraid of the multitude; for all hold that John was a prophet.”

Matthew 21:27 So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Matthew 21:28 “What do you think? A man had two sons; and he went to the first and said, `Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’

Matthew 21:29 And he answered, `I will not’; but afterward he repented and went.

Matthew 21:30 And he went to the second and said the same; and he answered, `I go, sir,’ but did not go.

Matthew 21:31 Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

Matthew 21:32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the harlots believed him; and even when you saw it, you did not afterward repent and believe him.

Matthew 21:33 “Hear another parable. There was a householder who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a wine press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country.

Matthew 21:34 When the season of fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants, to get his fruit;

Matthew 21:35 and the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another.

Matthew 21:36 Again he sent other servants, more than the first; and they did the same to them.

Matthew 21:37 Afterward he sent his son to them, saying, `They will respect my son.'

Matthew 21:38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, `This is the heir; come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.'

Matthew 21:39 And they took him and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

Matthew 21:40 When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"

Matthew 21:41 They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons."

Matthew 21:42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: `The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner; this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?

Matthew 21:43 Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation producing the fruits of it."

Matthew 21:44

Matthew 21:45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he was speaking about them.

Matthew 21:46 But when they tried to arrest him, they feared the multitudes, because they held him to be a prophet.

Matthew 22:1 And again Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying,

Matthew 22:2 "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a marriage feast for his son,

Matthew 22:3 and sent his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast; but they would not come.

Matthew 22:4 Again he sent other servants, saying, `Tell those who are invited, Behold, I have made ready my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves are killed, and everything is ready; come to the marriage feast.'

Matthew 22:5 But they made light of it and went off, one to his farm, another to his business,

Matthew 22:6 while the rest seized his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them.

Matthew 22:7 The king was angry, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

Matthew 22:8 Then he said to his servants, `The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy.

Matthew 22:9 Go therefore to the thoroughfares, and invite to the marriage feast as many as you find.’

Matthew 22:10 And those servants went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

Matthew 22:11 “But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment;

Matthew 22:12 and he said to him, `Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?’ And he was speechless.

Matthew 22:13 Then the king said to the attendants, `Bind him hand and foot, and cast him into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.’

Matthew 22:14 For many are called, but few are chosen.”

Matthew 22:15 Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how to entangle him in his talk.

Matthew 22:16 And they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are true, and teach the way of God truthfully, and care for no man; for you do not regard the position of men.

Matthew 22:17 Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

Matthew 22:18 But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why put me to the test, you hypocrites?

Matthew 22:19 Show me the money for the tax.” And they brought him a coin.

Matthew 22:20 And Jesus said to them, “Whose likeness and inscription is this?”

Matthew 22:21 They said, “Caesar’s.” Then he said to them, “Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

Matthew 22:22 When they heard it, they marveled; and they left him and went away.

Matthew 22:23 The same day Sadducees came to him, who say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him a question,

Matthew 22:24 saying, “Teacher, Moses said, `If a man dies, having no children, his brother must marry the widow, and raise up children for his brother.’

Matthew 22:25 Now there were seven brothers among us; the first married, and died, and having no children left his wife to his brother.

Matthew 22:26 So too the second and third, down to the seventh.

Matthew 22:27 After them all, the woman died.

Matthew 22:28 In the resurrection, therefore, to which of the seven will she be wife? For they all had her."

Matthew 22:29 But Jesus answered them, "You are wrong, because you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God.

Matthew 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

Matthew 22:31 And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was said to you by God,

Matthew 22:32 `I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not God of the dead, but of the living."

Matthew 22:33 And when the crowd heard it, they were astonished at his teaching.

Matthew 22:34 But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they came together.

Matthew 22:35 And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, to test him.

Matthew 22:36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?"

Matthew 22:37 And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.

Matthew 22:38 This is the great and first commandment.

Matthew 22:39 And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

Matthew 22:40 On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets."

Matthew 22:41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question,

Matthew 22:42 saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David."

Matthew 22:43 He said to them, "How is it then that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying,

Matthew 22:44 `The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I put thy enemies under thy feet'?

Matthew 22:45 If David thus calls him Lord, how is he his son?"

Matthew 22:46 And no one was able to answer him a word, nor from that day did any one dare to ask him any more questions.

Matthew 23:1 Then said Jesus to the crowds and to his disciples, Matthew 23:2 “The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses’ seat;

Matthew 23:3 so practice and observe whatever they tell you, but not what they do; for they preach, but do not practice.

Matthew 23:4 They bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men’s shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with their finger.

Matthew 23:5 They do all their deeds to be seen by men; for they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long,

Matthew 23:6 and they love the place of honor at feasts and the best seats in the synagogues,

Matthew 23:7 and salutations in the market places, and being called rabbi by men.

Matthew 23:8 But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brethren.

Matthew 23:9 And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven.

Matthew 23:10 Neither be called masters, for you have one master, the Christ.

Matthew 23:11 He who is greatest among you shall be your servant;

Matthew 23:12 whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

Matthew 23:13 “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you shut the kingdom of heaven against men; for you neither enter yourselves, nor allow those who would enter to go in.

Matthew 23:14

Matthew 23:15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you traverse sea and land to make a single proselyte, and when he becomes a proselyte, you make him twice as much a child of hell as yourselves.

Matthew 23:16 “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, `If any one swears by the temple, it is nothing; but if any one swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath.’

Matthew 23:17 You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that has made the gold sacred?

Matthew 23:18 And you say, `If any one swears by the altar, it is nothing; but if any one swears by the gift that is on the altar, he is bound by his oath.’

Matthew 23:19 You blind men! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred?

Matthew 23:20 So he who swears by the altar, swears by it and by everything on it;

Matthew 23:21 and he who swears by the temple, swears by it and by him who dwells in it;

Matthew 23:22 and he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by him who sits upon it.

Matthew 23:23 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you tithe mint and dill and cummin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law, justice and mercy and faith; these you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.

Matthew 23:24 You blind guides, straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel!

Matthew 23:25 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you cleanse the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of extortion and rapacity.

Matthew 23:26 You blind Pharisee! first cleanse the inside of the cup and of the plate, that the outside also may be clean.

Matthew 23:27 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within they are full of dead men’s bones and all uncleanness.

Matthew 23:28 So you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but within you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

Matthew 23:29 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous,

Matthew 23:30 saying, `If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

Matthew 23:31 Thus you witness against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.

Matthew 23:32 Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers.

Matthew 23:33 You serpents, you brood of vipers, how are you to escape being sentenced to hell?

Matthew 23:34 Therefore I send you prophets and wise men and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from town to town,

Matthew 23:35 that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of innocent Abel to the blood of Zechariah the son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar.

Matthew 23:36 Truly, I say to you, all this will come upon this generation.

Matthew 23:37 “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, killing the prophets and stoning those who are sent to you! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not!

Matthew 23:38 Behold, your house is forsaken and desolate.

Matthew 23:39 For I tell you, you will not see me again, until you say, `Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Matthew 24:1 Jesus left the temple and was going away, when his disciples came to point out to him the buildings of the temple.

Matthew 24:2 But he answered them, "You see all these, do you not? Truly, I say to you, there will not be left here one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down."

Matthew 24:3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the close of the age?"

Matthew 24:4 And Jesus answered them, "Take heed that no one leads you astray.

Matthew 24:5 For many will come in my name, saying, `I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray.

Matthew 24:6 And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not alarmed; for this must take place, but the end is not yet.

Matthew 24:7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places:

Matthew 24:8 all this is but the beginning of the birth-pangs.

Matthew 24:9 "Then they will deliver you up to tribulation, and put you to death; and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake.

Matthew 24:10 And then many will fall away, and betray one another, and hate one another.

Matthew 24:11 And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray.

Matthew 24:12 And because wickedness is multiplied, most men's love will grow cold.

Matthew 24:13 But he who endures to the end will be saved.

Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world, as a testimony to all nations; and then the end will come.

Matthew 24:15 "So when you see the desolating sacrilege spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand),

Matthew 24:16 then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains;

Matthew 24:17 let him who is on the housetop not go down to take what is in his house;

Matthew 24:18 and let him who is in the field not turn back to take his mantle.

Matthew 24:19 And alas for those who are with child and for those who give suck in those days!

Matthew 24:20 Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on a sabbath.

Matthew 24:21 For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be.

Matthew 24:22 And if those days had not been shortened, no human being would be saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened.

Matthew 24:23 Then if any one says to you, `Lo, here is the Christ!' or `There he is!' do not believe it.

Matthew 24:24 For false Christs and false prophets will arise and show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Matthew 24:25 Lo, I have told you beforehand.

Matthew 24:26 So, if they say to you, `Lo, he is in the wilderness,' do not go out; if they say, `Lo, he is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it.

Matthew 24:27 For as the lightning comes from the east and shines as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of man.

Matthew 24:28 Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

Matthew 24:29 "Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;

Matthew 24:30 then will appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory;

Matthew 24:31 and he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Matthew 24:32 "From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near.

Matthew 24:33 So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

Matthew 24:34 Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away till all these things take place.

Matthew 24:35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Matthew 24:36 “But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only.

Matthew 24:37 As were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of man.

Matthew 24:38 For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark,

Matthew 24:39 and they did not know until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of man.

Matthew 24:40 Then two men will be in the field; one is taken and one is left.

Matthew 24:41 Two women will be grinding at the mill; one is taken and one is left.

Matthew 24:42 Watch therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming.

Matthew 24:43 But know this, that if the householder had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched and would not have let his house be broken into.

Matthew 24:44 Therefore you also must be ready; for the Son of man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Matthew 24:45 “Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time?

Matthew 24:46 Blessed is that servant whom his master when he comes will find so doing.

Matthew 24:47 Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions.

Matthew 24:48 But if that wicked servant says to himself, `My master is delayed,’

Matthew 24:49 and begins to beat his fellow servants, and eats and drinks with the drunken,

Matthew 24:50 the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know,

Matthew 24:51 and will punish him, and put him with the hypocrites; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.

Matthew 25:1 “Then the kingdom of heaven shall be compared to ten maidens who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.

Matthew 25:2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.

Matthew 25:3 For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them;

Matthew 25:4 but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps.

Matthew 25:5 As the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.

Matthew 25:6 But at midnight there was a cry, `Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.'

Matthew 25:7 Then all those maidens rose and trimmed their lamps.

Matthew 25:8 And the foolish said to the wise, `Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'

Matthew 25:9 But the wise replied, `Perhaps there will not be enough for us and for you; go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves.'

Matthew 25:10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast; and the door was shut.

Matthew 25:11 Afterward the other maidens came also, saying, `Lord, lord, open to us.'

Matthew 25:12 But he replied, `Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.'

Matthew 25:13 Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

Matthew 25:14 "For it will be as when a man going on a journey called his servants and entrusted to them his property;

Matthew 25:15 to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away.

Matthew 25:16 He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them; and he made five talents more.

Matthew 25:17 So also, he who had the two talents made two talents more.

Matthew 25:18 But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money.

Matthew 25:19 Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

Matthew 25:20 And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, `Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more.'

Matthew 25:21 His master said to him, `Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.'

Matthew 25:22 And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, `Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more.’

Matthew 25:23 His master said to him, `Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.’

Matthew 25:24 He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, `Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not winnow;

Matthew 25:25 so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.’

Matthew 25:26 But his master answered him, `You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed, and gather where I have not winnowed?

Matthew 25:27 Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest.

Matthew 25:28 So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents.

Matthew 25:29 For to every one who has will more be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away.

Matthew 25:30 And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.’

Matthew 25:31 “When the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne.

Matthew 25:32 Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats,

Matthew 25:33 and he will place the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left.

Matthew 25:34 Then the King will say to those at his right hand, `Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world;

Matthew 25:35 for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me,

Matthew 25:36 I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.’

Matthew 25:37 Then the righteous will answer him, `Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink?

Matthew 25:38 And when did we see thee a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee?

Matthew 25:39 And when did we see thee sick or in prison and visit thee?’

Matthew 25:40 And the King will answer them, `Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.’

Matthew 25:41 Then he will say to those at his left hand, `Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels;

Matthew 25:42 for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink,

Matthew 25:43 I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’

Matthew 25:44 Then they also will answer, `Lord, when did we see thee hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to thee?’

Matthew 25:45 Then he will answer them, `Truly, I say to you, as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me.’

Matthew 25:46 And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Matthew 26:1 When Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples,

Matthew 26:2 “You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of man will be delivered up to be crucified.”

Matthew 26:3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

Matthew 26:4 and took counsel together in order to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him.

Matthew 26:5 But they said, “Not during the feast, lest there be a tumult among the people.”

Matthew 26:6 Now when Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper,

Matthew 26:7 a woman came up to him with an alabaster flask of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head, as he sat at table.

Matthew 26:8 But when the disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, “Why this waste?

Matthew 26:9 For this ointment might have been sold for a large sum, and given to the poor.”

Matthew 26:10 But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, “Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a beautiful thing to me.

Matthew 26:11 For you always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me.

Matthew 26:12 In pouring this ointment on my body she has done it to prepare me for burial.

Matthew 26:13 Truly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what she has done will be told in memory of her.”

Matthew 26:14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

Matthew 26:15 and said, “What will you give me if I deliver him to you?” And they paid him thirty pieces of silver.

Matthew 26:16 And from that moment he sought an opportunity to betray him.

Matthew 26:17 Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Where will you have us prepare for you to eat the passover?”

Matthew 26:18 He said, “Go into the city to a certain one, and say to him, `The Teacher says, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at your house with my disciples.'”

Matthew 26:19 And the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the passover.

Matthew 26:20 When it was evening, he sat at table with the twelve disciples;

Matthew 26:21 and as they were eating, he said, “Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me.”

Matthew 26:22 And they were very sorrowful, and began to say to him one after another, “Is it I, Lord?”

Matthew 26:23 He answered, “He who has dipped his hand in the dish with me, will betray me.

Matthew 26:24 The Son of man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

Matthew 26:25 Judas, who betrayed him, said, “Is it I, Master?” He said to him, “You have said so.”

Matthew 26:26 Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, “Take, eat; this is my body.”

Matthew 26:27 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, “Drink of it, all of you;

Matthew 26:28 for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Matthew 26:29 I tell you I shall not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom.”

Matthew 26:30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Matthew 26:31 Then Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away because of me this night; for it is written, `I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’

Matthew 26:32 But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee.”

Matthew 26:33 Peter declared to him, “Though they all fall away because of you, I will never fall away.”

Matthew 26:34 Jesus said to him, “Truly, I say to you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times.”

Matthew 26:35 Peter said to him, “Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you.” And so said all the disciples.

Matthew 26:36 Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I go yonder and pray.”

Matthew 26:37 And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and troubled.

Matthew 26:38 Then he said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with me.”

Matthew 26:39 And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, “My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.”

Matthew 26:40 And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping; and he said to Peter, “So, could you not watch with me one hour?

Matthew 26:41 Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

Matthew 26:42 Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, “My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, thy will be done.”

Matthew 26:43 And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

Matthew 26:44 So, leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words.

Matthew 26:45 Then he came to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Matthew 26:46 Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand.”

Matthew 26:47 While he was still speaking, Judas came, one of the twelve, and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the elders of the people.

Matthew 26:48 Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “The one I shall kiss is the man; seize him.”

Matthew 26:49 And he came up to Jesus at once and said, “Hail, Master!” And he kissed him.

Matthew 26:50 Jesus said to him, “Friend, why are you here?” Then they came up and laid hands on Jesus and seized him.

Matthew 26:51 And behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

Matthew 26:52 Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back into its place; for all who take the sword will perish by the sword.

Matthew 26:53 Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once send me more than twelve legions of angels?

Matthew 26:54 But how then should the scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?”

Matthew 26:55 At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, “Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs to capture me? Day after day I sat in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me.

Matthew 26:56 But all this has taken place, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples forsook him and fled.

Matthew 26:57 Then those who had seized Jesus led him to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had gathered.

Matthew 26:58 But Peter followed him at a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and going inside he sat with the guards to see the end.

Matthew 26:59 Now the chief priests and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus that they might put him to death,

Matthew 26:60 but they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward

Matthew 26:61 and said, “This fellow said, `I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'”

Matthew 26:62 And the high priest stood up and said, “Have you no answer to make? What is it that these men testify against you?”

Matthew 26:63 But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him, “I adjure you by the living God, tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God.”

Matthew 26:64 Jesus said to him, “You have said so. But I tell you, hereafter you will see the Son of man seated at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Matthew 26:65 Then the high priest tore his robes, and said, “He has uttered blasphemy. Why do we still need witnesses? You have now heard his blasphemy.

Matthew 26:66 What is your judgment?” They answered, “He deserves death.”

Matthew 26:67 Then they spat in his face, and struck him; and some slapped him,

Matthew 26:68 saying, “Prophesy to us, you Christ! Who is it that struck you?”

Matthew 26:69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. And a maid came up to him, and said, “You also were with Jesus the Galilean.”

Matthew 26:70 But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know what you mean.”

Matthew 26:71 And when he went out to the porch, another maid saw him, and she said to the bystanders, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

Matthew 26:72 And again he denied it with an oath, “I do not know the man.”

Matthew 26:73 After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, “Certainly you are also one of them, for your accent betrays you.”

Matthew 26:74 Then he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, “I do not know the man.” And immediately the cock crowed.

Matthew 26:75 And Peter remembered the saying of Jesus, “Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times.” And he went out and wept bitterly.

Matthew 27:1 When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death;

Matthew 27:2 and they bound him and led him away and delivered him to Pilate the governor.

Matthew 27:3 When Judas, his betrayer, saw that he was condemned, he repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders,

Matthew 27:4 saying, “I have sinned in betraying innocent blood.” They said, “What is that to us? See to it yourself.”

Matthew 27:5 And throwing down the pieces of silver in the temple, he departed; and he went and hanged himself.

Matthew 27:6 But the chief priests, taking the pieces of silver, said, “It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are blood money.”

Matthew 27:7 So they took counsel, and bought with them the potter’s field, to bury strangers in.

Matthew 27:8 Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

Matthew 27:9 Then was fulfilled what had been spoken by the prophet Jeremiah, saying, “And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him on whom a price had been set by some of the sons of Israel,

Matthew 27:10 and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord directed me.”

Matthew 27:11 Now Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus said, “You have said so.”

Matthew 27:12 But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he made no answer.

Matthew 27:13 Then Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?”

Matthew 27:14 But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge; so that the governor wondered greatly.

Matthew 27:15 Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release for the crowd any one prisoner whom they wanted.

Matthew 27:16 And they had then a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas.

Matthew 27:17 So when they had gathered, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release for you, Barabbas or Jesus who is called Christ?”

Matthew 27:18 For he knew that it was out of envy that they had delivered him up.

Matthew 27:19 Besides, while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered much over him today in a dream.”

Matthew 27:20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the people to ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus.

Matthew 27:21 The governor again said to them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?” And they said, “Barabbas.”

Matthew 27:22 Pilate said to them, “Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?” They all said, “Let him be crucified.”

Matthew 27:23 And he said, “Why, what evil has he done?” But they shouted all the more, “Let him be crucified.”

Matthew 27:24 So when Pilate saw that he was gaining nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this man’s blood; see to it yourselves.”

Matthew 27:25 And all the people answered, “His blood be on us and on our children!”

Matthew 27:26 Then he released for them Barabbas, and having scourged Jesus, delivered him to be crucified.

Matthew 27:27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the praetorium, and they gathered the whole battalion before him.

Matthew 27:28 And they stripped him and put a scarlet robe upon him,

Matthew 27:29 and plaiting a crown of thorns they put it on his head, and put a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him they mocked him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!”

Matthew 27:30 And they spat upon him, and took the reed and struck him on the head.

Matthew 27:31 And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the robe, and put his own clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

Matthew 27:32 As they went out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they compelled to carry his cross.

Matthew 27:33 And when they came to a place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull),

Matthew 27:34 they offered him wine to drink, mingled with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink it.

Matthew 27:35 And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments among them by casting lots;

Matthew 27:36 then they sat down and kept watch over him there.

Matthew 27:37 And over his head they put the charge against him, which read, “This is Jesus the King of the Jews.”

Matthew 27:38 Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left.

Matthew 27:39 And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads

Matthew 27:40 and saying, “You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross.”

Matthew 27:41 So also the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked him, saying,

Matthew 27:42 “He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him.

Matthew 27:43 He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he desires him; for he said, `I am the Son of God.’”

Matthew 27:44 And the robbers who were crucified with him also reviled him in the same way.

Matthew 27:45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.

Matthew 27:46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, “Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?” that is, “My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?”

Matthew 27:47 And some of the bystanders hearing it said, “This man is calling Elijah.”

Matthew 27:48 And one of them at once ran and took a sponge, filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink.

Matthew 27:49 But the others said, “Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him.”

Matthew 27:50 And Jesus cried again with a loud voice and yielded up his spirit.

Matthew 27:51 And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom; and the earth shook, and the rocks were split;

Matthew 27:52 the tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised,

Matthew 27:53 and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many.

Matthew 27:54 When the centurion and those who were with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were filled with awe, and said, “Truly this was the Son of God!”

Matthew 27:55 There were also many women there, looking on from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him;

Matthew 27:56 among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

Matthew 27:57 When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also was a disciple of Jesus.

Matthew 27:58 He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him.

Matthew 27:59 And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen shroud,

Matthew 27:60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.

Matthew 27:61 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the sepulchre.

Matthew 27:62 Next day, that is, after the day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate

Matthew 27:63 and said, “Sir, we remember how that impostor said, while he was still alive, `After three days I will rise again.’

Matthew 27:64 Therefore order the sepulchre to be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples go and steal him away, and tell the people, `He has risen from the dead,' and the last fraud will be worse than the first."

Matthew 27:65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard of soldiers; go, make it as secure as you can."

Matthew 27:66 So they went and made the sepulchre secure by sealing the stone and setting a guard.

Matthew 28:1 Now after the sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the sepulchre.

Matthew 28:2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone, and sat upon it.

Matthew 28:3 His appearance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

Matthew 28:4 And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men.

Matthew 28:5 But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified.

Matthew 28:6 He is not here; for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay.

Matthew 28:7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. Lo, I have told you."

Matthew 28:8 So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples.

Matthew 28:9 And behold, Jesus met them and said, "Hail!" And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshiped him.

Matthew 28:10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

Matthew 28:11 While they were going, behold, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests all that had taken place.

Matthew 28:12 And when they had assembled with the elders and taken counsel, they gave a sum of money to the soldiers

Matthew 28:13 and said, "Tell people, `His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.'

Matthew 28:14 And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble."

Matthew 28:15 So they took the money and did as they were directed; and this story has been spread among the Jews to this day.

Matthew 28:16 Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them.

Matthew 28:17 And when they saw him they worshiped him; but some doubted.

Matthew 28:18 And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

Matthew 28:19 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

Matthew 28:20 teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age.”

Mark

1:1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Mark 1:2 As it is written in Isaiah the prophet, “Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way;

Mark 1:3 the voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight—“

Mark 1:4 John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mark 1:5 And there went out to him all the country of Judea, and all the people of Jerusalem; and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

Mark 1:6 Now John was clothed with camel’s hair, and had a leather girdle around his waist, and ate locusts and wild honey.

Mark 1:7 And he preached, saying, “After me comes he who is mightier than I, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie.

Mark 1:8 I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

Mark 1:9 In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

Mark 1:10 And when he came up out of the water, immediately he saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending upon him like a dove;

Mark 1:11 and a voice came from heaven, “Thou art my beloved Son; with thee I am well pleased.”

Mark 1:12 The Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness.

Mark 1:13 And he was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered to him.

Mark 1:14 Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God,

Mark 1:15 and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent, and believe in the gospel.”

Mark 1:16 And passing along by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen.

Mark 1:17 And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you become fishers of men.”

Mark 1:18 And immediately they left their nets and followed him.

Mark 1:19 And going on a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets.

Mark 1:20 And immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and followed him.

Mark 1:21 And they went into Capernaum; and immediately on the sabbath he entered the synagogue and taught.

Mark 1:22 And they were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes.

Mark 1:23 And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit;

Mark 1:24 and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.”

Mark 1:25 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!”

Mark 1:26 And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him.

Mark 1:27 And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching! With authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.”

Mark 1:28 And at once his fame spread everywhere throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee.

Mark 1:29 And immediately he left the synagogue, and entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

Mark 1:30 Now Simon’s mother-in-law lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him of her.

Mark 1:31 And he came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and the fever left her; and she served them.

Mark 1:32 That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons.

Mark 1:33 And the whole city was gathered together about the door.

Mark 1:34 And he healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

Mark 1:35 And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose and went out to a lonely place, and there he prayed.

Mark 1:36 And Simon and those who were with him pursued him,

Mark 1:37 and they found him and said to him, “Every one is searching for you.”

Mark 1:38 And he said to them, “Let us go on to the next towns, that I may preach there also; for that is why I came out.”

Mark 1:39 And he went throughout all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Mark 1:40 And a leper came to him beseeching him, and kneeling said to him, “If you will, you can make me clean.”

Mark 1:41 Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, “I will; be clean.”

Mark 1:42 And immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean.

Mark 1:43 And he sternly charged him, and sent him away at once,

Mark 1:44 and said to him, “See that you say nothing to any one; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a proof to the people.”

Mark 1:45 But he went out and began to talk freely about it, and to spread the news, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter a town, but was out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

Mark 2:1 And when he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home.

Mark 2:2 And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, not even about the door; and he was preaching the word to them.

Mark 2:3 And they came, bringing to him a paralytic carried by four men.

Mark 2:4 And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him; and when they had made an opening, they let down the pallet on which the paralytic lay.

Mark 2:5 And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “My son, your sins are forgiven.”

Mark 2:6 Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts,

Mark 2:7 “Why does this man speak thus? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

Mark 2:8 And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, “Why do you question thus in your hearts?

Mark 2:9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, `Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, `Rise, take up your pallet and walk’?

Mark 2:10 But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the paralytic —

Mark 2:11 “I say to you, rise, take up your pallet and go home.”

Mark 2:12 And he rose, and immediately took up the pallet and went out before them all; so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”

Mark 2:13 He went out again beside the sea; and all the crowd gathered about him, and he taught them.

Mark 2:14 And as he passed on, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he rose and followed him.

Mark 2:15 And as he sat at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners were sitting with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many who followed him.

Mark 2:16 And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

Mark 2:17 And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick; I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.”

Mark 2:18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting; and people came and said to him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?”

Mark 2:19 And Jesus said to them, “Can the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

Mark 2:20 The days will come, when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.

Mark 2:21 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; if he does, the patch tears away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear is made.

Mark 2:22 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; if he does, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost, and so are the skins; but new wine is for fresh skins.”

Mark 2:23 One sabbath he was going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain.

Mark 2:24 And the Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?”

Mark 2:25 And he said to them, “Have you never read what David did, when he was in need and was hungry, he and those who were with him:

Mark 2:26 how he entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and also gave it to those who were with him?”

Mark 2:27 And he said to them, “The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath;

Mark 2:28 so the Son of man is lord even of the sabbath.”

Mark 3:1 Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand.

Mark 3:2 And they watched him, to see whether he would heal him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him.

Mark 3:3 And he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Come here.”

Mark 3:4 And he said to them, “Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent.

Mark 3:5 And he looked around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

Mark 3:6 The Pharisees went out, and immediately held counsel with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Mark 3:7 Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed; also from Judea

Mark 3:8 and Jerusalem and Idumea and from beyond the Jordan and from about Tyre and Sidon a great multitude, hearing all that he did, came to him.

Mark 3:9 And he told his disciples to have a boat ready for him because of the crowd, lest they should crush him;

Mark 3:10 for he had healed many, so that all who had diseases pressed upon him to touch him.

Mark 3:11 And whenever the unclean spirits beheld him, they fell down before him and cried out, “You are the Son of God.”

Mark 3:12 And he strictly ordered them not to make him known.

Mark 3:13 And he went up on the mountain, and called to him those whom he desired; and they came to him.

Mark 3:14 And he appointed twelve, to be with him, and to be sent out to preach

Mark 3:15 and have authority to cast out demons:

Mark 3:16 Simon whom he surnamed Peter;

Mark 3:17 James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, whom he surnamed Boanerges, that is, sons of thunder;

Mark 3:18 Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean,

Mark 3:19 and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. Then he went home;

Mark 3:20 and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat.

Mark 3:21 And when his family heard it, they went out to seize him, for people were saying, “He is beside himself.”

Mark 3:22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He is possessed by Beelzebul, and by the prince of demons he casts out the demons.”

Mark 3:23 And he called them to him, and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan?

Mark 3:24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

Mark 3:25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

Mark 3:26 And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end.

Mark 3:27 But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man; then indeed he may plunder his house.

Mark 3:28 “Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they utter;

Mark 3:29 but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin” —

Mark 3:30 for they had said, “He has an unclean spirit.”

Mark 3:31 And his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside they sent to him and called him.

Mark 3:32 And a crowd was sitting about him; and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers are outside, asking for you.”

Mark 3:33 And he replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?”

Mark 3:34 And looking around on those who sat about him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers!

Mark 3:35 Whoever does the will of God is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

Mark 4:1 Again he began to teach beside the sea. And a very large crowd gathered about him, so that he got into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole crowd was beside the sea on the land.

Mark 4:2 And he taught them many things in parables, and in his teaching he said to them:

Mark 4:3 “Listen! A sower went out to sow.

Mark 4:4 And as he sowed, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it.

Mark 4:5 Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it had not much soil, and immediately it sprang up, since it had no depth of soil;

Mark 4:6 and when the sun rose it was scorched, and since it had no root it withered away.

Mark 4:7 Other seed fell among thorns and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no grain.

Mark 4:8 And other seeds fell into good soil and brought forth grain, growing up and increasing and yielding thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold.”

Mark 4:9 And he said, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Mark 4:10 And when he was alone, those who were about him with the twelve asked him concerning the parables.

Mark 4:11 And he said to them, “To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but for those outside everything is in parables;

Mark 4:12 so that they may indeed see but not perceive, and may indeed hear but not understand; lest they should turn again, and be forgiven.”

Mark 4:13 And he said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables?

Mark 4:14 The sower sows the word.

Mark 4:15 And these are the ones along the path, where the word is sown; when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word which is sown in them.

Mark 4:16 And these in like manner are the ones sown upon rocky ground, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy;

Mark 4:17 and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away.

Mark 4:18 And others are the ones sown among thorns; they are those who hear the word,

Mark 4:19 but the cares of the world, and the delight in riches, and the desire for other things, enter in and choke the word, and it proves unfruitful.

Mark 4:20 But those that were sown upon the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold.”

Mark 4:21 And he said to them, “Is a lamp brought in to be put under a bushel, or under a bed, and not on a stand?

Mark 4:22 For there is nothing hid, except to be made manifest; nor is anything secret, except to come to light.

Mark 4:23 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Mark 4:24 And he said to them, “Take heed what you hear; the measure you give will be the measure you get, and still more will be given you.

Mark 4:25 For to him who has will more be given; and from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away.”

Mark 4:26 And he said, “The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed upon the ground,

Mark 4:27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should sprout and grow, he knows not how.

Mark 4:28 The earth produces of itself, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.

Mark 4:29 But when the grain is ripe, at once he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

Mark 4:30 And he said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use for it?

Mark 4:31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth;

Mark 4:32 yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.”

Mark 4:33 With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it;

Mark 4:34 he did not speak to them without a parable, but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.

Mark 4:35 On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, “Let us go across to the other side.”

Mark 4:36 And leaving the crowd, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. And other boats were with him.

Mark 4:37 And a great storm of wind arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already filling.

Mark 4:38 But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care if we perish?”

Mark 4:39 And he awoke and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

Mark 4:40 He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you no faith?”

Mark 4:41 And they were filled with awe, and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even wind and sea obey him?”

Mark 5:1 They came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gerasenes.

Mark 5:2 And when he had come out of the boat, there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

Mark 5:3 who lived among the tombs; and no one could bind him any more, even with a chain;

Mark 5:4 for he had often been bound with fetters and chains, but the chains he wrenched apart, and the fetters he broke in pieces; and no one had the strength to subdue him.

Mark 5:5 Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was always crying out, and bruising himself with stones.

Mark 5:6 And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshiped him;

Mark 5:7 and crying out with a loud voice, he said, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me.”

Mark 5:8 For he had said to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

Mark 5:9 And Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” He replied, “My name is Legion; for we are many.”

Mark 5:10 And he begged him eagerly not to send them out of the country.

Mark 5:11 Now a great herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside;

Mark 5:12 and they begged him, “Send us to the swine, let us enter them.”

Mark 5:13 So he gave them leave. And the unclean spirits came out, and entered the swine; and the herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and were drowned in the sea.

Mark 5:14 The herdsmen fled, and told it in the city and in the country. And people came to see what it was that had happened.

Mark 5:15 And they came to Jesus, and saw the demoniac sitting there, clothed and in his right mind, the man who had had the legion; and they were afraid.

Mark 5:16 And those who had seen it told what had happened to the demoniac and to the swine.

Mark 5:17 And they began to beg Jesus to depart from their neighborhood.

Mark 5:18 And as he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed with demons begged him that he might be with him.

Mark 5:19 But he refused, and said to him, “Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.”

Mark 5:20 And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him; and all men marveled.

Mark 5:21 And when Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered about him; and he was beside the sea.

Mark 5:22 Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing him, he fell at his feet,

Mark 5:23 and besought him, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.”

Mark 5:24 And he went with him. And a great crowd followed him and thronged about him.

Mark 5:25 And there was a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years,

Mark 5:26 and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse.

Mark 5:27 She had heard the reports about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment.

Mark 5:28 For she said, “If I touch even his garments, I shall be made well.”

Mark 5:29 And immediately the hemorrhage ceased; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

Mark 5:30 And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone forth from him, immediately turned about in the crowd, and said, “Who touched my garments?”

Mark 5:31 And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing around you, and yet you say, `Who touched me?'”

Mark 5:32 And he looked around to see who had done it.

Mark 5:33 But the woman, knowing what had been done to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him, and told him the whole truth.

Mark 5:34 And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

Mark 5:35 While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler’s house some who said, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?”

Mark 5:36 But ignoring what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.”

Mark 5:37 And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James.

Mark 5:38 When they came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, he saw a tumult, and people weeping and wailing loudly.

Mark 5:39 And when he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a tumult and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.”

Mark 5:40 And they laughed at him. But he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was.

Mark 5:41 Taking her by the hand he said to her, “Talitha cumi”; which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise.”

Mark 5:42 And immediately the girl got up and walked (she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement.

Mark 5:43 And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6:1 He went away from there and came to his own country; and his disciples followed him.

Mark 6:2 And on the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue; and many who heard him were astonished, saying, “Where did this man get all this? What is the wisdom given to him? What mighty works are wrought by his hands!

Mark 6:3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him.

Mark 6:4 And Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.”

Mark 6:5 And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick people and healed them.

Mark 6:6 And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went about among the villages teaching.

Mark 6:7 And he called to him the twelve, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits.

Mark 6:8 He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts;

Mark 6:9 but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics.

Mark 6:10 And he said to them, “Where you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place.

Mark 6:11 And if any place will not receive you and they refuse to hear you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet for a testimony against them.”

Mark 6:12 So they went out and preached that men should repent.

Mark 6:13 And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick and healed them.

Mark 6:14 King Herod heard of it; for Jesus’ name had become known. Some said, “John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; that is why these powers are at work in him.”

Mark 6:15 But others said, “It is Elijah.” And others said, “It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.”

Mark 6:16 But when Herod heard of it he said, “John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.”

Mark 6:17 For Herod had sent and seized John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife; because he had married her.

Mark 6:18 For John said to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.”

Mark 6:19 And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not,

Mark 6:20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he was much perplexed; and yet he heard him gladly.

Mark 6:21 But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and the leading men of Galilee.

Mark 6:22 For when Herodias’ daughter came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will grant it.”

Mark 6:23 And he vowed to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.”

Mark 6:24 And she went out, and said to her mother, “What shall I ask?” And she said, “The head of John the baptizer.”

Mark 6:25 And she came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, saying, “I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.”

Mark 6:26 And the king was exceedingly sorry; but because of his oaths and his guests he did not want to break his word to her.

Mark 6:27 And immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard and gave orders to bring his head. He went and beheaded him in the prison,

Mark 6:28 and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

Mark 6:29 When his disciples heard of it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Mark 6:30 The apostles returned to Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught.

Mark 6:31 And he said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while.” For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.

Mark 6:32 And they went away in the boat to a lonely place by themselves.

Mark 6:33 Now many saw them going, and knew them, and they ran there on foot from all the towns, and got there ahead of them.

Mark 6:34 As he went ashore he saw a great throng, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Mark 6:35 And when it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, “This is a lonely place, and the hour is now late;

Mark 6:36 send them away, to go into the country and villages round about and buy themselves something to eat.”

Mark 6:37 But he answered them, “You give them something to eat.” And they said to him, “Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?”

Mark 6:38 And he said to them, “How many loaves have you? Go and see.” And when they had found out, they said, “Five, and two fish.”

Mark 6:39 Then he commanded them all to sit down by companies upon the green grass.

Mark 6:40 So they sat down in groups, by hundreds and by fifties.

Mark 6:41 And taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all.

Mark 6:42 And they all ate and were satisfied.

Mark 6:43 And they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish.

Mark 6:44 And those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

Mark 6:45 Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd.

Mark 6:46 And after he had taken leave of them, he went up on the mountain to pray.

Mark 6:47 And when evening came, the boat was out on the sea, and he was alone on the land.

Mark 6:48 And he saw that they were making headway painfully, for the wind was against them. And about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. He meant to pass by them,

Mark 6:49 but when they saw him walking on the sea they thought it was a ghost, and cried out;

Mark 6:50 for they all saw him, and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; have no fear.”

Mark 6:51 And he got into the boat with them and the wind ceased. And they were utterly astounded,

Mark 6:52 for they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

Mark 6:53 And when they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.

Mark 6:54 And when they got out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him,

Mark 6:55 and ran about the whole neighborhood and began to bring sick people on their pallets to any place where they heard he was.

Mark 6:56 And wherever he came, in villages, cities, or country, they laid the sick in the market places, and besought him that they might touch even the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched it were made well.

Mark 7:1 Now when the Pharisees gathered together to him, with some of the scribes, who had come from Jerusalem,

Mark 7:2 they saw that some of his disciples ate with hands defiled, that is, unwashed.

Mark 7:3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they wash their hands, observing the tradition of the elders;

Mark 7:4 and when they come from the market place, they do not eat unless they purify themselves; and there are many other traditions which they observe, the washing of cups and pots and vessels of bronze.)

Mark 7:5 And the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, “Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with hands defiled?”

Mark 7:6 And he said to them, “Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, `This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me;

Mark 7:7 in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.’

Mark 7:8 You leave the commandment of God, and hold fast the tradition of men.”

Mark 7:9 And he said to them, “You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God, in order to keep your tradition!

Mark 7:10 For Moses said, `Honor your father and your mother'; and, `He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him surely die';

Mark 7:11 but you say, `If a man tells his father or his mother, What you would have gained from me is Corban' (that is, given to God) —

Mark 7:12 then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother,

Mark 7:13 thus making void the word of God through your tradition which you hand on. And many such things you do."

Mark 7:14 And he called the people to him again, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand:

Mark 7:15 there is nothing outside a man which by going into him can defile him; but the things which come out of a man are what defile him."

Mark 7:16

Mark 7:17 And when he had entered the house, and left the people, his disciples asked him about the parable.

Mark 7:18 And he said to them, "Then are you also without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into a man from outside cannot defile him, Mark 7:19 since it enters, not his heart but his stomach, and so passes on?" (Thus he declared all foods clean.)

Mark 7:20 And he said, "What comes out of a man is what defiles a man.

Mark 7:21 For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts, fornication, theft, murder, adultery,

Mark 7:22 coveting, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, foolishness.

Mark 7:23 All these evil things come from within, and they defile a man."

Mark 7:24 And from there he arose and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And he entered a house, and would not have any one know it; yet he could not be hid.

Mark 7:25 But immediately a woman, whose little daughter was possessed by an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell down at his feet.

Mark 7:26 Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by birth. And she begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

Mark 7:27 And he said to her, "Let the children first be fed, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

Mark 7:28 But she answered him, "Yes, Lord; yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

Mark 7:29 And he said to her, “For this saying you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter.”

Mark 7:30 And she went home, and found the child lying in bed, and the demon gone.

Mark 7:31 Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of the Decapolis.

Mark 7:32 And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech; and they besought him to lay his hand upon him.

Mark 7:33 And taking him aside from the multitude privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue;

Mark 7:34 and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.”

Mark 7:35 And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly.

Mark 7:36 And he charged them to tell no one; but the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it.

Mark 7:37 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, “He has done all things well; he even makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.”

Mark 8:1 In those days, when again a great crowd had gathered, and they had nothing to eat, he called his disciples to him, and said to them,

Mark 8:2 “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me now three days, and have nothing to eat;

Mark 8:3 and if I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way; and some of them have come a long way.”

Mark 8:4 And his disciples answered him, “How can one feed these men with bread here in the desert?”

Mark 8:5 And he asked them, “How many loaves have you?” They said, “Seven.”

Mark 8:6 And he commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and they set them before the crowd.

Mark 8:7 And they had a few small fish; and having blessed them, he commanded that these also should be set before them.

Mark 8:8 And they ate, and were satisfied; and they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full.

Mark 8:9 And there were about four thousand people.

Mark 8:10 And he sent them away; and immediately he got into the boat with his disciples, and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

Mark 8:11 The Pharisees came and began to argue with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, to test him.

Mark 8:12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, “Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly, I say to you, no sign shall be given to this generation.”

Mark 8:13 And he left them, and getting into the boat again he departed to the other side.

Mark 8:14 Now they had forgotten to bring bread; and they had only one loaf with them in the boat.

Mark 8:15 And he cautioned them, saying, “Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod.”

Mark 8:16 And they discussed it with one another, saying, “We have no bread.”

Mark 8:17 And being aware of it, Jesus said to them, “Why do you discuss the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened?

Mark 8:18 Having eyes do you not see, and having ears do you not hear? And do you not remember?

Mark 8:19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?” They said to him, “Twelve.”

Mark 8:20 “And the seven for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?” And they said to him, “Seven.”

Mark 8:21 And he said to them, “Do you not yet understand?”

Mark 8:22 And they came to Bethsaida. And some people brought to him a blind man, and begged him to touch him.

Mark 8:23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the village; and when he had spit on his eyes and laid his hands upon him, he asked him, “Do you see anything?”

Mark 8:24 And he looked up and said, “I see men; but they look like trees, walking.”

Mark 8:25 Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked intently and was restored, and saw everything clearly.

Mark 8:26 And he sent him away to his home, saying, “Do not even enter the village.”

Mark 8:27 And Jesus went on with his disciples, to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, “Who do men say that I am?”

Mark 8:28 And they told him, “John the Baptist; and others say, Elijah; and others one of the prophets.”

Mark 8:29 And he asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Christ.”

Mark 8:30 And he charged them to tell no one about him.

Mark 8:31 And he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

Mark 8:32 And he said this plainly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

Mark 8:33 But turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter, and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you are not on the side of God, but of men.”

Mark 8:34 And he called to him the multitude with his disciples, and said to them, “If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

Mark 8:35 For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel’s will save it.

Mark 8:36 For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?

Mark 8:37 For what can a man give in return for his life?

Mark 8:38 For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of man also be ashamed, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Mark 9:1 And he said to them, “Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see that the kingdom of God has come with power.”

Mark 9:2 And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them,

Mark 9:3 and his garments became glistening, intensely white, as no fuller on earth could bleach them.

Mark 9:4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses; and they were talking to Jesus.

Mark 9:5 And Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is well that we are here; let us make three booths, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

Mark 9:6 For he did not know what to say, for they were exceedingly afraid.

Mark 9:7 And a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, “This is my beloved Son; listen to him.”

Mark 9:8 And suddenly looking around they no longer saw any one with them but Jesus only.

Mark 9:9 And as they were coming down the mountain, he charged them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of man should have risen from the dead.

Mark 9:10 So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what the rising from the dead meant.

Mark 9:11 And they asked him, “Why do the scribes say that first Elijah must come?”

Mark 9:12 And he said to them, “Elijah does come first to restore all things; and how is it written of the Son of man, that he should suffer many things and be treated with contempt?

Mark 9:13 But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written of him.”

Mark 9:14 And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd about them, and scribes arguing with them.

Mark 9:15 And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and ran up to him and greeted him.

Mark 9:16 And he asked them, “What are you discussing with them?”

Mark 9:17 And one of the crowd answered him, “Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a dumb spirit;

Mark 9:18 and wherever it seizes him, it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able.”

Mark 9:19 And he answered them, “O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me.”

Mark 9:20 And they brought the boy to him; and when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth.

Mark 9:21 And Jesus asked his father, “How long has he had this?” And he said, “From childhood.

Mark 9:22 And it has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us.”

Mark 9:23 And Jesus said to him, “If you can! All things are possible to him who believes.”

Mark 9:24 Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!”

Mark 9:25 And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You dumb and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again.”

Mark 9:26 And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse; so that most of them said, “He is dead.”

Mark 9:27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.

Mark 9:28 And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?”

Mark 9:29 And he said to them, “This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer.”

Mark 9:30 They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he would not have any one know it;

Mark 9:31 for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, “The Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he will rise.”

Mark 9:32 But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to ask him.

Mark 9:33 And they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you discussing on the way?”

Mark 9:34 But they were silent; for on the way they had discussed with one another who was the greatest.

Mark 9:35 And he sat down and called the twelve; and he said to them, “If any one would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.”

Mark 9:36 And he took a child, and put him in the midst of them; and taking him in his arms, he said to them,

Mark 9:37 “Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me.”

Mark 9:38 John said to him, “Teacher, we saw a man casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he was not following us.”

Mark 9:39 But Jesus said, “Do not forbid him; for no one who does a mighty work in my name will be able soon after to speak evil of me.

Mark 9:40 For he that is not against us is for us.

Mark 9:41 For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ, will by no means lose his reward.

Mark 9:42 “Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung round his neck and he were thrown into the sea.

Mark 9:43 And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than with two hands to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire.

Mark 9:44

Mark 9:45 And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell.

Mark 9:46

Mark 9:47 And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell,

Mark 9:48 where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.

Mark 9:49 For every one will be salted with fire.

Mark 9:50 Salt is good; but if the salt has lost its saltness, how will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Mark 10:1 And he left there and went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan, and crowds gathered to him again; and again, as his custom was, he taught them.

Mark 10:2 And Pharisees came up and in order to test him asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

Mark 10:3 He answered them, "What did Moses command you?"

Mark 10:4 They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to put her away."

Mark 10:5 But Jesus said to them, "For your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment.

Mark 10:6 But from the beginning of creation, `God made them male and female.'

Mark 10:7 `For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,

Mark 10:8 and the two shall become one flesh.' So they are no longer two but one flesh.

Mark 10:9 What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder."

Mark 10:10 And in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter.

Mark 10:11 And he said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, commits adultery against her;

Mark 10:12 and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Mark 10:13 And they were bringing children to him, that he might touch them; and the disciples rebuked them.

Mark 10:14 But when Jesus saw it he was indignant, and said to them, "Let the children come to me, do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of God.

Mark 10:15 Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it."

Mark 10:16 And he took them in his arms and blessed them, laying his hands upon them.

Mark 10:17 And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Mark 10:18 And Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

Mark 10:19 You know the commandments: `Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother.'”

Mark 10:20 And he said to him, “Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth.”

Mark 10:21 And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said to him, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.”

Mark 10:22 At that saying his countenance fell, and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions.

Mark 10:23 And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!”

Mark 10:24 And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

Mark 10:25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

Mark 10:26 And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, “Then who can be saved?”

Mark 10:27 Jesus looked at them and said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.”

Mark 10:28 Peter began to say to him, “Lo, we have left everything and followed you.”

Mark 10:29 Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel,

Mark 10:30 who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life.

Mark 10:31 But many that are first will be last, and the last first.”

Mark 10:32 And they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them; and they were amazed, and those who followed were afraid. And taking the twelve again, he began to tell them what was to happen to him, Mark 10:33 saying, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death, and deliver him to the Gentiles;

Mark 10:34 and they will mock him, and spit upon him, and scourge him, and kill him; and after three days he will rise.”

Mark 10:35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him, and said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.”

Mark 10:36 And he said to them, “What do you want me to do for you?”

Mark 10:37 And they said to him, “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.”

Mark 10:38 But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?”

Mark 10:39 And they said to him, “We are able.” And Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized;

Mark 10:40 but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

Mark 10:41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be indignant at James and John.

Mark 10:42 And Jesus called them to him and said to them, “You know that those who are supposed to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them.

Mark 10:43 But it shall not be so among you; but whoever would be great among you must be your servant,

Mark 10:44 and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all.

Mark 10:45 For the Son of man also came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Mark 10:46 And they came to Jericho; and as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great multitude, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the roadside.

Mark 10:47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:48 And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Mark 10:49 And Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; rise, he is calling you.”

Mark 10:50 And throwing off his mantle he sprang up and came to Jesus.

Mark 10:51 And Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” And the blind man said to him, “Master, let me receive my sight.”

Mark 10:52 And Jesus said to him, “Go your way; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Mark 11:1 And when they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

Mark 11:2 and said to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat; untie it and bring it.

Mark 11:3 If any one says to you, `Why are you doing this?’ say, `The Lord has need of it and will send it back here immediately.’”

Mark 11:4 And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door out in the open street; and they untied it.

Mark 11:5 And those who stood there said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”

Mark 11:6 And they told them what Jesus had said; and they let them go.

Mark 11:7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and threw their garments on it; and he sat upon it.

Mark 11:8 And many spread their garments on the road, and others spread leafy branches which they had cut from the fields.

Mark 11:9 And those who went before and those who followed cried out, “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Mark 11:10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming! Hosanna in the highest!”

Mark 11:11 And he entered Jerusalem, and went into the temple; and when he had looked round at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Mark 11:12 On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry.

Mark 11:13 And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

Mark 11:14 And he said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it.

Mark 11:15 And they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons;

Mark 11:16 and he would not allow any one to carry anything through the temple.

Mark 11:17 And he taught, and said to them, “Is it not written, `My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations’? But you have made it a den of robbers.”

Mark 11:18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and sought a way to destroy him; for they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

Mark 11:19 And when evening came they went out of the city.

Mark 11:20 As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots.

Mark 11:21 And Peter remembered and said to him, “Master, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered.”

Mark 11:22 And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God.

Mark 11:23 Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, `Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him.

Mark 11:24 Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

Mark 11:25 And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against any one; so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.”

Mark 11:26

Mark 11:27 And they came again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to him,

Mark 11:28 and they said to him, “By what authority are you doing these things, or who gave you this authority to do them?”

Mark 11:29 Jesus said to them, “I will ask you a question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

Mark 11:30 Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men? Answer me.”

Mark 11:31 And they argued with one another, “If we say, `From heaven,’ he will say, `Why then did you not believe him?’

Mark 11:32 But shall we say, `From men’?”—they were afraid of the people, for all held that John was a real prophet.

Mark 11:33 So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Mark 12:1 And he began to speak to them in parables. “A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a pit for the wine press, and built a tower, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country.

Mark 12:2 When the time came, he sent a servant to the tenants, to get from them some of the fruit of the vineyard.

Mark 12:3 And they took him and beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Mark 12:4 Again he sent to them another servant, and they wounded him in the head, and treated him shamefully.

Mark 12:5 And he sent another, and him they killed; and so with many others, some they beat and some they killed.

Mark 12:6 He had still one other, a beloved son; finally he sent him to them, saying, `They will respect my son.'

Mark 12:7 But those tenants said to one another, `This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'

Mark 12:8 And they took him and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

Mark 12:9 What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants, and give the vineyard to others.

Mark 12:10 Have you not read this scripture: `The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner;

Mark 12:11 this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"

Mark 12:12 And they tried to arrest him, but feared the multitude, for they perceived that he had told the parable against them; so they left him and went away.

Mark 12:13 And they sent to him some of the Pharisees and some of the Herodians, to entrap him in his talk.

Mark 12:14 And they came and said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are true, and care for no man; for you do not regard the position of men, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?

Mark 12:15 Should we pay them, or should we not?" But knowing their hypocrisy, he said to them, "Why put me to the test? Bring me a coin, and let me look at it."

Mark 12:16 And they brought one. And he said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" They said to him, "Caesar's."

Mark 12:17 Jesus said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they were amazed at him.

Mark 12:18 And Sadducees came to him, who say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him a question, saying,

Mark 12:19 "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife, but leaves no child, the man must take the wife, and raise up children for his brother.

Mark 12:20 There were seven brothers; the first took a wife, and when he died left no children;

Mark 12:21 and the second took her, and died, leaving no children; and the third likewise;

Mark 12:22 and the seven left no children. Last of all the woman also died.

Mark 12:23 In the resurrection whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as wife.”

Mark 12:24 Jesus said to them, “Is not this why you are wrong, that you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God?

Mark 12:25 For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

Mark 12:26 And as for the dead being raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the bush, how God said to him, `I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’?

Mark 12:27 He is not God of the dead, but of the living; you are quite wrong.”

Mark 12:28 And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, “Which commandment is the first of all?”

Mark 12:29 Jesus answered, “The first is, `Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one;

Mark 12:30 and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’

Mark 12:31 The second is this, `You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.”

Mark 12:32 And the scribe said to him, “You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that he is one, and there is no other but he;

Mark 12:33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love one’s neighbor as oneself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

Mark 12:34 And when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And after that no one dared to ask him any question.

Mark 12:35 And as Jesus taught in the temple, he said, “How can the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?

Mark 12:36 David himself, inspired by the Holy Spirit, declared, `The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I put thy enemies under thy feet.’

Mark 12:37 David himself calls him Lord; so how is he his son?” And the great throng heard him gladly.

Mark 12:38 And in his teaching he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to go about in long robes, and to have salutations in the market places

Mark 12:39 and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts,

Mark 12:40 who devour widows’ houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

Mark 12:41 And he sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the multitude putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums.

Mark 12:42 And a poor widow came, and put in two copper coins, which make a penny.

Mark 12:43 And he called his disciples to him, and said to them, “Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury.

Mark 12:44 For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living.”

Mark 13:1 And as he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings!”

Mark 13:2 And Jesus said to him, “Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down.”

Mark 13:3 And as he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

Mark 13:4 “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign when these things are all to be accomplished?”

Mark 13:5 And Jesus began to say to them, “Take heed that no one leads you astray.

Mark 13:6 Many will come in my name, saying, `I am he!’ and they will lead many astray.

Mark 13:7 And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is not yet.

Mark 13:8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places, there will be famines; this is but the beginning of the birth-pangs.

Mark 13:9 “But take heed to yourselves; for they will deliver you up to councils; and you will be beaten in synagogues; and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear testimony before them.

Mark 13:10 And the gospel must first be preached to all nations.

Mark 13:11 And when they bring you to trial and deliver you up, do not be anxious beforehand what you are to say; but say whatever is given you in that hour, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

Mark 13:12 And brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death;

Mark 13:13 and you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved.

Mark 13:14 "But when you see the desolating sacrilege set up where it ought not to be (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains;

Mark 13:15 let him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter his house, to take anything away;

Mark 13:16 and let him who is in the field not turn back to take his mantle.

Mark 13:17 And alas for those who are with child and for those who give suck in those days!

Mark 13:18 Pray that it may not happen in winter.

Mark 13:19 For in those days there will be such tribulation as has not been from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be.

Mark 13:20 And if the Lord had not shortened the days, no human being would be saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he shortened the days.

Mark 13:21 And then if any one says to you, `Look, here is the Christ!' or `Look, there he is!' do not believe it.

Mark 13:22 False Christs and false prophets will arise and show signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the elect.

Mark 13:23 But take heed; I have told you all things beforehand.

Mark 13:24 "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,

Mark 13:25 and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

Mark 13:26 And then they will see the Son of man coming in clouds with great power and glory.

Mark 13:27 And then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

Mark 13:28 "From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near.

Mark 13:29 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

Mark 13:30 Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away before all these things take place.

Mark 13:31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Mark 13:32 “But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Mark 13:33 Take heed, watch; for you do not know when the time will come.

Mark 13:34 It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his servants in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch.

Mark 13:35 Watch therefore—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning —

Mark 13:36 lest he come suddenly and find you asleep.

Mark 13:37 And what I say to you I say to all: Watch.”

Mark 14:1 It was now two days before the Passover and the feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to arrest him by stealth, and kill him;

Mark 14:2 for they said, “Not during the feast, lest there be a tumult of the people.”

Mark 14:3 And while he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, a woman came with an alabaster flask of ointment of pure nard, very costly, and she broke the flask and poured it over his head.

Mark 14:4 But there were some who said to themselves indignantly, “Why was the ointment thus wasted?

Mark 14:5 For this ointment might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor.” And they reproached her.

Mark 14:6 But Jesus said, “Let her alone; why do you trouble her? She has done a beautiful thing to me.

Mark 14:7 For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you will, you can do good to them; but you will not always have me.

Mark 14:8 She has done what she could; she has anointed my body beforehand for burying.

Mark 14:9 And truly, I say to you, wherever the gospel is preached in the whole world, what she has done will be told in memory of her.”

Mark 14:10 Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray him to them.

Mark 14:11 And when they heard it they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought an opportunity to betray him.

Mark 14:12 And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the passover lamb, his disciples said to him, “Where will you have us go and prepare for you to eat the passover?”

Mark 14:13 And he sent two of his disciples, and said to them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him,

Mark 14:14 and wherever he enters, say to the householder, `The Teacher says, Where is my guest room, where I am to eat the passover with my disciples?’

Mark 14:15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; there prepare for us.”

Mark 14:16 And the disciples set out and went to the city, and found it as he had told them; and they prepared the passover.

Mark 14:17 And when it was evening he came with the twelve.

Mark 14:18 And as they were at table eating, Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me.”

Mark 14:19 They began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one after another, “Is it I?”

Mark 14:20 He said to them, “It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the dish with me.

Mark 14:21 For the Son of man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

Mark 14:22 And as they were eating, he took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them, and said, “Take; this is my body.”

Mark 14:23 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it.

Mark 14:24 And he said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.

Mark 14:25 Truly, I say to you, I shall not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

Mark 14:26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Mark 14:27 And Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away; for it is written, `I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

Mark 14:28 But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee.”

Mark 14:29 Peter said to him, “Even though they all fall away, I will not.”

Mark 14:30 And Jesus said to him, “Truly, I say to you, this very night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times.”

Mark 14:31 But he said vehemently, “If I must die with you, I will not deny you.” And they all said the same.

Mark 14:32 And they went to a place which was called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I pray.”

Mark 14:33 And he took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly distressed and troubled.

Mark 14:34 And he said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch.”

Mark 14:35 And going a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

Mark 14:36 And he said, “Abba, Father, all things are possible to thee; remove this cup from me; yet not what I will, but what thou wilt.”

Mark 14:37 And he came and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, “Simon, are you asleep? Could you not watch one hour?

Mark 14:38 Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

Mark 14:39 And again he went away and prayed, saying the same words.

Mark 14:40 And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know what to answer him.

Mark 14:41 And he came the third time, and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? It is enough; the hour has come; the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mark 14:42 Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand.”

Mark 14:43 And immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas came, one of the twelve, and with him a crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

Mark 14:44 Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “The one I shall kiss is the man; seize him and lead him away under guard.”

Mark 14:45 And when he came, he went up to him at once, and said, “Master!” And he kissed him.

Mark 14:46 And they laid hands on him and seized him.

Mark 14:47 But one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear.

Mark 14:48 And Jesus said to them, “Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs to capture me?

Mark 14:49 Day after day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me. But let the scriptures be fulfilled.”

Mark 14:50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

Mark 14:51 And a young man followed him, with nothing but a linen cloth about his body; and they seized him, Mark 14:52 but he left the linen cloth and ran away naked.

Mark 14:53 And they led Jesus to the high priest; and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes were assembled.

Mark 14:54 And Peter had followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the guards, and warming himself at the fire.

Mark 14:55 Now the chief priests and the whole council sought testimony against Jesus to put him to death; but they found none.

Mark 14:56 For many bore false witness against him, and their witness did not agree.

Mark 14:57 And some stood up and bore false witness against him, saying,

Mark 14:58 “We heard him say, `I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another, not made with hands.’”

Mark 14:59 Yet not even so did their testimony agree.

Mark 14:60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, “Have you no answer to make? What is it that these men testify against you?”

Mark 14:61 But he was silent and made no answer. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?”

Mark 14:62 And Jesus said, “I am; and you will see the Son of man seated at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven.”

Mark 14:63 And the high priest tore his garments, and said, “Why do we still need witnesses?

Mark 14:64 You have heard his blasphemy. What is your decision?” And they all condemned him as deserving death.

Mark 14:65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to strike him, saying to him, “Prophesy!” And the guards received him with blows.

Mark 14:66 And as Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the maids of the high priest came;

Mark 14:67 and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, “You also were with the Nazarene, Jesus.”

Mark 14:68 But he denied it, saying, “I neither know nor understand what you mean.” And he went out into the gateway.

Mark 14:69 And the maid saw him, and began again to say to the bystanders, “This man is one of them.”

Mark 14:70 But again he denied it. And after a little while again the bystanders said to Peter, “Certainly you are one of them; for you are a Galilean.”

Mark 14:71 But he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, “I do not know this man of whom you speak.”

Mark 14:72 And immediately the cock crowed a second time. And Peter remembered how Jesus had said to him, “Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

Mark 15:1 And as soon as it was morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council held a consultation; and they bound Jesus and led him away and delivered him to Pilate.

Mark 15:2 And Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” And he answered him, “You have said so.”

Mark 15:3 And the chief priests accused him of many things.

Mark 15:4 And Pilate again asked him, “Have you no answer to make? See how many charges they bring against you.”

Mark 15:5 But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate wondered.

Mark 15:6 Now at the feast he used to release for them one prisoner for whom they asked.

Mark 15:7 And among the rebels in prison, who had committed murder in the insurrection, there was a man called Barabbas.

Mark 15:8 And the crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do as he was wont to do for them.

Mark 15:9 And he answered them, “Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?”

Mark 15:10 For he perceived that it was out of envy that the chief priests had delivered him up.

Mark 15:11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release for them Barabbas instead.

Mark 15:12 And Pilate again said to them, “Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?”

Mark 15:13 And they cried out again, “Crucify him.”

Mark 15:14 And Pilate said to them, “Why, what evil has he done?” But they shouted all the more, “Crucify him.”

Mark 15:15 So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released for them Barabbas; and having scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

Mark 15:16 And the soldiers led him away inside the palace (that is, the praetorium); and they called together the whole battalion.

Mark 15:17 And they clothed him in a purple cloak, and plaiting a crown of thorns they put it on him.

Mark 15:18 And they began to salute him, “Hail, King of the Jews!”

Mark 15:19 And they struck his head with a reed, and spat upon him, and they knelt down in homage to him.

Mark 15:20 And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple cloak, and put his own clothes on him. And they led him out to crucify him.

Mark 15:21 And they compelled a passer-by, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross.

Mark 15:22 And they brought him to the place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull).

Mark 15:23 And they offered him wine mingled with myrrh; but he did not take it.

Mark 15:24 And they crucified him, and divided his garments among them, casting lots for them, to decide what each should take.

Mark 15:25 And it was the third hour, when they crucified him.

Mark 15:26 And the inscription of the charge against him read, “The King of the Jews.”

Mark 15:27 And with him they crucified two robbers, one on his right and one on his left.

Mark 15:28

Mark 15:29 And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads, and saying, “Aha! You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, Mark 15:30 save yourself, and come down from the cross!”

Mark 15:31 So also the chief priests mocked him to one another with the scribes, saying, “He saved others; he cannot save himself.

Mark 15:32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe.” Those who were crucified with him also reviled him.

Mark 15:33 And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

Mark 15:34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?”

Mark 15:35 And some of the bystanders hearing it said, “Behold, he is calling Elijah.”

Mark 15:36 And one ran and, filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink, saying, “Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.”

Mark 15:37 And Jesus uttered a loud cry, and breathed his last.

Mark 15:38 And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.

Mark 15:39 And when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that he thus breathed his last, he said, “Truly this man was the Son of God!”

Mark 15:40 There were also women looking on from afar, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome,

Mark 15:41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered to him; and also many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

Mark 15:42 And when evening had come, since it was the day of Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

Mark 15:43 Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the council, who was also himself looking for the kingdom of God, took courage and went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

Mark 15:44 And Pilate wondered if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he was already dead.

Mark 15:45 And when he learned from the centurion that he was dead, he granted the body to Joseph.

Mark 15:46 And he bought a linen shroud, and taking him down, wrapped him in the linen shroud, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

Mark 15:47 Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

Mark 16:1 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him.

Mark 16:2 And very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen.

Mark 16:3 And they were saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb?”

Mark 16:4 And looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back;—it was very large.

Mark 16:5 And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were amazed.

Mark 16:6 And he said to them, “Do not be amazed; you seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen, he is not here; see the place where they laid him.

Mark 16:7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him, as he told you.”

Mark 16:8 And they went out and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them; and they said nothing to any one, for they were afraid.

Mark 16:9 Now when he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.

Mark 16:10 She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

Mark 16:11 But when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they would not believe it.

Mark 16:12 After this he appeared in another form to two of them, as they were walking into the country.

Mark 16:13 And they went back and told the rest, but they did not believe them.

Mark 16:14 Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they sat at table; and he upbraided them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen.

Mark 16:15 And he said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation.

Mark 16:16 He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned.

Mark 16:17 And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues;

Mark 16:18 they will pick up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.”

Mark 16:19 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.

Mark 16:20 And they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by the signs that attended it. Amen.

Luke

1:1 Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things which have been accomplished among us,

Luke 1:2 just as they were delivered to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word,

Luke 1:3 it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,

Luke 1:4 that you may know the truth concerning the things of which you have been informed.

Luke 1:5 In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah; and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

Luke 1:6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

Luke 1:7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were advanced in years.

Luke 1:8 Now while he was serving as priest before God when his division was on duty,

Luke 1:9 according to the custom of the priesthood, it fell to him by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense.

Luke 1:10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

Luke 1:11 And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

Luke 1:12 And Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him.

Luke 1:13 But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer is heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John.

Luke 1:14 And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth;

Luke 1:15 for he will be great before the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother’s womb.

Luke 1:16 And he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God,

Luke 1:17 and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared.”

Luke 1:18 And Zechariah said to the angel, “How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in years.”

Luke 1:19 And the angel answered him, “I am Gabriel, who stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news.

Luke 1:20 And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things come to pass, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time.”

Luke 1:21 And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they wondered at his delay in the temple.

Luke 1:22 And when he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he made signs to them and remained dumb.

Luke 1:23 And when his time of service was ended, he went to his home.

Luke 1:24 After these days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she hid herself, saying,

Luke 1:25 “Thus the Lord has done to me in the days when he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.”

Luke 1:26 In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth,

Luke 1:27 to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin’s name was Mary.

Luke 1:28 And he came to her and said, “Hail, O favored one, the Lord is with you!”

Luke 1:29 But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered in her mind what sort of greeting this might be.

Luke 1:30 And the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

Luke 1:31 And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus.

Luke 1:32 He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David,

Luke 1:33 and he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there will be no end.”

Luke 1:34 And Mary said to the angel, “How shall this be, since I have no husband?”

Luke 1:35 And the angel said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God.

Luke 1:36 And behold, your kinswoman Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.

Luke 1:37 For with God nothing will be impossible.”

Luke 1:38 And Mary said, “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word.” And the angel departed from her.

Luke 1:39 In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah,

Luke 1:40 and she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

Luke 1:41 And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit

Luke 1:42 and she exclaimed with a loud cry, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!

Luke 1:43 And why is this granted me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

Luke 1:44 For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy.

Luke 1:45 And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfilment of what was spoken to her from the Lord.”

Luke 1:46 And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord,

Luke 1:47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

Luke 1:48 for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden. For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed;

Luke 1:49 for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

Luke 1:50 And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation.

Luke 1:51 He has shown strength with his arm, he has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts,

Luke 1:52 he has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted those of low degree;

Luke 1:53 he has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent empty away.

Luke 1:54 He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy,

Luke 1:55 as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his posterity for ever.”

Luke 1:56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her home.

Luke 1:57 Now the time came for Elizabeth to be delivered, and she gave birth to a son.

Luke 1:58 And her neighbors and kinsfolk heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

Luke 1:59 And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they would have named him Zechariah after his father,

Luke 1:60 but his mother said, “Not so; he shall be called John.”

Luke 1:61 And they said to her, “None of your kindred is called by this name.”

Luke 1:62 And they made signs to his father, inquiring what he would have him called.

Luke 1:63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, “His name is John.” And they all marveled.

Luke 1:64 And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God.

Luke 1:65 And fear came on all their neighbors. And all these things were talked about through all the hill country of Judea;

Luke 1:66 and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, “What then will this child be?” For the hand of the Lord was with him.

Luke 1:67 And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,

Luke 1:68 “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people,

Luke 1:69 and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David,

Luke 1:70 as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,

Luke 1:71 that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;

Luke 1:72 to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant,

Luke 1:73 the oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

Luke 1:74 to grant us that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear,

Luke 1:75 in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.

Luke 1:76 And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways,

Luke 1:77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the forgiveness of their sins,

Luke 1:78 through the tender mercy of our God, when the day shall dawn upon us from on high

Luke 1:79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

Luke 1:80 And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Luke 2:1 In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled.

Luke 2:2 This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

Luke 2:3 And all went to be enrolled, each to his own city.

Luke 2:4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David,

Luke 2:5 to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child.

Luke 2:6 And while they were there, the time came for her to be delivered.

Luke 2:7 And she gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Luke 2:8 And in that region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

Luke 2:9 And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear.

Luke 2:10 And the angel said to them, “Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people;

Luke 2:11 for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

Luke 2:12 And this will be a sign for you: you will find a babe wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger.”

Luke 2:13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

Luke 2:14 “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased!”

Luke 2:15 When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.”

Luke 2:16 And they went with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

Luke 2:17 And when they saw it they made known the saying which had been told them concerning this child;

Luke 2:18 and all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them.

Luke 2:19 But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart.

Luke 2:20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Luke 2:21 And at the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Luke 2:22 And when the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord

Luke 2:23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord”)

Luke 2:24 and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, “a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.”

Luke 2:25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

Luke 2:26 And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Christ.

Luke 2:27 And inspired by the Spirit he came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the law,

Luke 2:28 he took him up in his arms and blessed God and said,

Luke 2:29 “Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word;

Luke 2:30 for mine eyes have seen thy salvation

Luke 2:31 which thou hast prepared in the presence of all peoples,

Luke 2:32 a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to thy people Israel.”

Luke 2:33 And his father and his mother marveled at what was said about him;

Luke 2:34 and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, “Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that is spoken against Luke 2:35 (and a sword will pierce through your own soul also), that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed.”

Luke 2:36 And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher; she was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years from her virginity,

Luke 2:37 and as a widow till she was eighty-four. She did not depart from the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day.

Luke 2:38 And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks to God, and spoke of him to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

Luke 2:39 And when they had performed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.

Luke 2:40 And the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Luke 2:41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the Passover.

Luke 2:42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up according to custom;

Luke 2:43 and when the feast was ended, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it,

Luke 2:44 but supposing him to be in the company they went a day's journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances;

Luke 2:45 and when they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking him.

Luke 2:46 After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions;

Luke 2:47 and all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

Luke 2:48 And when they saw him they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us so? Behold, your father and I have been looking for you anxiously."

Luke 2:49 And he said to them, "How is it that you sought me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

Luke 2:50 And they did not understand the saying which he spoke to them.

Luke 2:51 And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart.

Luke 2:52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and man.

Luke 3:1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,

Luke 3:2 in the high-priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness;

Luke 3:3 and he went into all the region about the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Luke 3:4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

Luke 3:5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

Luke 3:6 and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

Luke 3:7 He said therefore to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Luke 3:8 Bear fruits that befit repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, `We have Abraham as our father’; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

Luke 3:9 Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

Luke 3:10 And the multitudes asked him, “What then shall we do?”

Luke 3:11 And he answered them, “He who has two coats, let him share with him who has none; and he who has food, let him do likewise.”

Luke 3:12 Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, “Teacher, what shall we do?”

Luke 3:13 And he said to them, “Collect no more than is appointed you.”

Luke 3:14 Soldiers also asked him, “And we, what shall we do?” And he said to them, “Rob no one by violence or by false accusation, and be content with your wages.”

Luke 3:15 As the people were in expectation, and all men questioned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he were the Christ,

Luke 3:16 John answered them all, “I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Luke 3:17 His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor, and to gather the wheat into his granary, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

Luke 3:18 So, with many other exhortations, he preached good news to the people.

Luke 3:19 But Herod the tetrarch, who had been reproved by him for Herodias, his brother’s wife, and for all the evil things that Herod had done,

Luke 3:20 added this to them all, that he shut up John in prison.

Luke 3:21 Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened,

Luke 3:22 and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form, as a dove, and a voice came from heaven, “Thou art my beloved Son; with thee I am well pleased.”

Luke 3:23 Jesus, when he began his ministry, was about thirty years of age, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli,

Luke 3:24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, Luke 3:25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,

Luke 3:26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda,

Luke 3:27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,

Luke 3:28 the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er,

Luke 3:29 the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,

Luke 3:30 the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim,

Luke 3:31 the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,

Luke 3:32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Sala, the son of Nahshon,

Luke 3:33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Admin, the son of Arni, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,

Luke 3:34 the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,

Luke 3:35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah,

Luke 3:36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,

Luke 3:37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan,

Luke 3:38 the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

Luke 4:1 And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit

Luke 4:2 for forty days in the wilderness, tempted by the devil. And he ate nothing in those days; and when they were ended, he was hungry.

Luke 4:3 The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread.”

Luke 4:4 And Jesus answered him, “It is written, `Man shall not live by bread alone.'”

Luke 4:5 And the devil took him up, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time,

Luke 4:6 and said to him, “To you I will give all this authority and their glory; for it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whom I will.

Luke 4:7 If you, then, will worship me, it shall all be yours.”

Luke 4:8 And Jesus answered him, “It is written, `You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve.'”

Luke 4:9 And he took him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here;

Luke 4:10 for it is written, `He will give his angels charge of you, to guard you,’

Luke 4:11 and `On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.'”

Luke 4:12 And Jesus answered him, “It is said, `You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'”

Luke 4:13 And when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Luke 4:14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and a report concerning him went out through all the surrounding country.

Luke 4:15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

Luke 4:16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up; and he went to the synagogue, as his custom was, on the sabbath day. And he stood up to read;

Luke 4:17 and there was given to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. He opened the book and found the place where it was written,

Luke 4:18 “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, Luke 4:19 to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.”

Luke 4:20 And he closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him.

Luke 4:21 And he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

Luke 4:22 And all spoke well of him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth; and they said, “Is not this Joseph’s son?”

Luke 4:23 And he said to them, “Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, `Physician, heal yourself; what we have heard you did at Capernaum, do here also in your own country.'”

Luke 4:24 And he said, “Truly, I say to you, no prophet is acceptable in his own country.

Luke 4:25 But in truth, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land;

Luke 4:26 and Elijah was sent to none of them but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.

Luke 4:27 And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.”

Luke 4:28 When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with wrath.

Luke 4:29 And they rose up and put him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw him down headlong.

Luke 4:30 But passing through the midst of them he went away.

Luke 4:31 And he went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And he was teaching them on the sabbath;

Luke 4:32 and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority.

Luke 4:33 And in the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice,

Luke 4:34 “Ah! What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.”

Luke 4:35 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” And when the demon had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

Luke 4:36 And they were all amazed and said to one another, “What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out.”

Luke 4:37 And reports of him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

Luke 4:38 And he arose and left the synagogue, and entered Simon’s house. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was ill with a high fever, and they besought him for her.

Luke 4:39 And he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her; and immediately she rose and served them.

Luke 4:40 Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them.

Luke 4:41 And demons also came out of many, crying, “You are the Son of God!” But he rebuked them, and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

Luke 4:42 And when it was day he departed and went into a lonely place. And the people sought him and came to him, and would have kept him from leaving them;

Luke 4:43 but he said to them, “I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for I was sent for this purpose.”

Luke 4:44 And he was preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

Luke 5:1 While the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret.

Luke 5:2 And he saw two boats by the lake; but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.

Luke 5:3 Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat.

Luke 5:4 And when he had ceased speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.”

Luke 5:5 And Simon answered, “Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets.”

Luke 5:6 And when they had done this, they enclosed a great shoal of fish; and as their nets were breaking,

Luke 5:7 they beckoned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

Luke 5:8 But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.”

Luke 5:9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the catch of fish which they had taken;

Luke 5:10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; henceforth you will be catching men.”

Luke 5:11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

Luke 5:12 While he was in one of the cities, there came a man full of leprosy; and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and besought him, “Lord, if you will, you can make me clean.”

Luke 5:13 And he stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, “I will; be clean.” And immediately the leprosy left him.

Luke 5:14 And he charged him to tell no one; but “go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a proof to the people.”

Luke 5:15 But so much the more the report went abroad concerning him; and great multitudes gathered to hear and to be healed of their infirmities.

Luke 5:16 But he withdrew to the wilderness and prayed.

Luke 5:17 On one of those days, as he was teaching, there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was with him to heal.

Luke 5:18 And behold, men were bringing on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they sought to bring him in and lay him before Jesus;

Luke 5:19 but finding no way to bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the midst before Jesus.

Luke 5:20 And when he saw their faith he said, “Man, your sins are forgiven you.”

Luke 5:21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, saying, “Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God only?”

Luke 5:22 When Jesus perceived their questionings, he answered them, “Why do you question in your hearts?

Luke 5:23 Which is easier, to say, `Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, `Rise and walk’?

Luke 5:24 But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the man who was paralyzed—“I say to you, rise, take up your bed and go home.”

Luke 5:25 And immediately he rose before them, and took up that on which he lay, and went home, glorifying God.

Luke 5:26 And amazement seized them all, and they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, “We have seen strange things today.”

Luke 5:27 After this he went out, and saw a tax collector, named Levi, sitting at the tax office; and he said to him, “Follow me.”

Luke 5:28 And he left everything, and rose and followed him.

Luke 5:29 And Levi made him a great feast in his house; and there was a large company of tax collectors and others sitting at table with them.

Luke 5:30 And the Pharisees and their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

Luke 5:31 And Jesus answered them, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick;

Luke 5:32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

Luke 5:33 And they said to him, “The disciples of John fast often and offer prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink.”

Luke 5:34 And Jesus said to them, “Can you make wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them?

Luke 5:35 The days will come, when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days."

Luke 5:36 He told them a parable also: "No one tears a piece from a new garment and puts it upon an old garment; if he does, he will tear the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old.

Luke 5:37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; if he does, the new wine will burst the skins and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.

Luke 5:38 But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins.

Luke 5:39 And no one after drinking old wine desires new; for he says, `The old is good.'"

Luke 6:1 On a sabbath, while he was going through the grainfields, his disciples plucked and ate some heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands.

Luke 6:2 But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful to do on the sabbath?"

Luke 6:3 And Jesus answered, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:

Luke 6:4 how he entered the house of God, and took and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and also gave it to those with him?"

Luke 6:5 And he said to them, "The Son of man is lord of the sabbath."

Luke 6:6 On another sabbath, when he entered the synagogue and taught, a man was there whose right hand was withered.

Luke 6:7 And the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the sabbath, so that they might find an accusation against him.

Luke 6:8 But he knew their thoughts, and he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come and stand here." And he rose and stood there.

Luke 6:9 And Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it?"

Luke 6:10 And he looked around on them all, and said to him, "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored.

Luke 6:11 But they were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

Luke 6:12 In these days he went out to the mountain to pray; and all night he continued in prayer to God.

Luke 6:13 And when it was day, he called his disciples, and chose from them twelve, whom he named apostles;

Luke 6:14 Simon, whom he named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew,

Luke 6:15 and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot,

Luke 6:16 and Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Luke 6:17 And he came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases;

Luke 6:18 and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured.

Luke 6:19 And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power came forth from him and healed them all.

Luke 6:20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said: "Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

Luke 6:21 "Blessed are you that hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. "Blessed are you that weep now, for you shall laugh.

Luke 6:22 "Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and revile you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man!

Luke 6:23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets.

Luke 6:24 "But woe to you that are rich, for you have received your consolation.

Luke 6:25 "Woe to you that are full now, for you shall hunger. "Woe to you that laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep.

Luke 6:26 "Woe to you, when all men speak well of you, for so their fathers did to the false prophets.

Luke 6:27 "But I say to you that hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,

Luke 6:28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.

Luke 6:29 To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from him who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.

Luke 6:30 Give to every one who begs from you; and of him who takes away your goods do not ask them again.

Luke 6:31 And as you wish that men would do to you, do so to them.

Luke 6:32 "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

Luke 6:33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

Luke 6:34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

Luke 6:35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the selfish.

Luke 6:36 Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

Luke 6:37 “Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven;

Luke 6:38 give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For the measure you give will be the measure you get back.”

Luke 6:39 He also told them a parable: “Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit?

Luke 6:40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but every one when he is fully taught will be like his teacher.

Luke 6:41 Why do you see the speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye?

Luke 6:42 Or how can you say to your brother, `Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother’s eye.

Luke 6:43 “For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit;

Luke 6:44 for each tree is known by its own fruit. For figs are not gathered from thorns, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush.

Luke 6:45 The good man out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil man out of his evil treasure produces evil; for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

Luke 6:46 “Why do you call me `Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I tell you?

Luke 6:47 Every one who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like:

Luke 6:48 he is like a man building a house, who dug deep, and laid the foundation upon rock; and when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it had been well built.

Luke 6:49 But he who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation; against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.”

Luke 7:1 After he had ended all his sayings in the hearing of the people he entered Capernaum.

Luke 7:2 Now a centurion had a slave who was dear to him, who was sick and at the point of death.

Luke 7:3 When he heard of Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and heal his slave.

Luke 7:4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy to have you do this for him,

Luke 7:5 for he loves our nation, and he built us our synagogue.”

Luke 7:6 And Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, “Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof;

Luke 7:7 therefore I did not presume to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed.

Luke 7:8 For I am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me: and I say to one, `Go,’ and he goes; and to another, `Come,’ and he comes; and to my slave, `Do this,’ and he does it.”

Luke 7:9 When Jesus heard this he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude that followed him, “I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith.”

Luke 7:10 And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave well.

Luke 7:11 Soon afterward he went to a city called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him.

Luke 7:12 As he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her.

Luke 7:13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, “Do not weep.”

Luke 7:14 And he came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, “Young man, I say to you, arise.”

Luke 7:15 And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother.

Luke 7:16 Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has arisen among us!” and “God has visited his people!”

Luke 7:17 And this report concerning him spread through the whole of Judea and all the surrounding country.

Luke 7:18 The disciples of John told him of all these things.

Luke 7:19 And John, calling to him two of his disciples, sent them to the Lord, saying, “Are you he who is to come, or shall we look for another?”

Luke 7:20 And when the men had come to him, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, `Are you he who is to come, or shall we look for another?'”

Luke 7:21 In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits, and on many that were blind he bestowed sight.

Luke 7:22 And he answered them, “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good news preached to them.

Luke 7:23 And blessed is he who takes no offense at me.”

Luke 7:24 When the messengers of John had gone, he began to speak to the crowds concerning John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to behold? A reed shaken by the wind?

Luke 7:25 What then did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously appareled and live in luxury are in kings’ courts.

Luke 7:26 What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

Luke 7:27 This is he of whom it is written, `Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee.’

Luke 7:28 I tell you, among those born of women none is greater than John; yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

Luke 7:29 (When they heard this all the people and the tax collectors justified God, having been baptized with the baptism of John;

Luke 7:30 but the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.)

Luke 7:31 “To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like?

Luke 7:32 They are like children sitting in the market place and calling to one another, `We piped to you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not weep.’

Luke 7:33 For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine; and you say, `He has a demon.’

Luke 7:34 The Son of man has come eating and drinking; and you say, `Behold, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’

Luke 7:35 Yet wisdom is justified by all her children.”

Luke 7:36 One of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee’s house, and took his place at table.

Luke 7:37 And behold, a woman of the city, who was a sinner, when she learned that he was at table in the Pharisee’s house, brought an alabaster flask of ointment, Luke 7:38 and standing behind him at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

Luke 7:39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, for she is a sinner.”

Luke 7:40 And Jesus answering said to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” And he answered, “What is it, Teacher?”

Luke 7:41 “A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

Luke 7:42 When they could not pay, he forgave them both. Now which of them will love him more?”

Luke 7:43 Simon answered, “The one, I suppose, to whom he forgave more.” And he said to him, “You have judged rightly.”

Luke 7:44 Then turning toward the woman he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house, you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.

Luke 7:45 You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not ceased to kiss my feet.

Luke 7:46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.

Luke 7:47 Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little.”

Luke 7:48 And he said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

Luke 7:49 Then those who were at table with him began to say among themselves, “Who is this, who even forgives sins?”

Luke 7:50 And he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Luke 8:1 Soon afterward he went on through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with him,

Luke 8:2 and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out,

Luke 8:3 and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod’s steward, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their means.

Luke 8:4 And when a great crowd came together and people from town after town came to him, he said in a parable:

Luke 8:5 “A sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell along the path, and was trodden under foot, and the birds of the air devoured it.

Luke 8:6 And some fell on the rock; and as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

Luke 8:7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns grew with it and choked it.

Luke 8:8 And some fell into good soil and grew, and yielded a hundredfold.” As he said this, he called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke 8:9 And when his disciples asked him what this parable meant,

Luke 8:10 he said, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but for others they are in parables, so that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.

Luke 8:11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

Luke 8:12 The ones along the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, that they may not believe and be saved.

Luke 8:13 And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy; but these have no root, they believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away.

Luke 8:14 And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature.

Luke 8:15 And as for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bring forth fruit with patience.

Luke 8:16 “No one after lighting a lamp covers it with a vessel, or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a stand, that those who enter may see the light.

Luke 8:17 For nothing is hid that shall not be made manifest, nor anything secret that shall not be known and come to light.

Luke 8:18 Take heed then how you hear; for to him who has will more be given, and from him who has not, even what he thinks that he has will be taken away.”

Luke 8:19 Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him for the crowd.

Luke 8:20 And he was told, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you.”

Luke 8:21 But he said to them, “My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it.”

Luke 8:22 One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, “Let us go across to the other side of the lake.” So they set out, Luke 8:23 and as they sailed he fell asleep. And a storm of wind came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in danger.

Luke 8:24 And they went and woke him, saying, “Master, Master, we are perishing!” And he awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; and they ceased, and there was a calm.

Luke 8:25 He said to them, “Where is your faith?” And they were afraid, and they marveled, saying to one another, “Who then is this, that he commands even wind and water, and they obey him?”

Luke 8:26 Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

Luke 8:27 And as he stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons; for a long time he had worn no clothes, and he lived not in a house but among the tombs.

Luke 8:28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech you, do not torment me.”

Luke 8:29 For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him; he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters, but he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the desert.)

Luke 8:30 Jesus then asked him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Legion”; for many demons had entered him.

Luke 8:31 And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss.

Luke 8:32 Now a large herd of swine was feeding there on the hillside; and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them leave.

Luke 8:33 Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

Luke 8:34 When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

Luke 8:35 Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

Luke 8:36 And those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed with demons was healed.

Luke 8:37 Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear; so he got into the boat and returned.

Luke 8:38 The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but he sent him away, saying,

Luke 8:39 “Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.” And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.

Luke 8:40 Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.

Luke 8:41 And there came a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue; and falling at Jesus’ feet he besought him to come to his house,

Luke 8:42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. As he went, the people pressed round him.

Luke 8:43 And a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years and could not be healed by any one,

Luke 8:44 came up behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; and immediately her flow of blood ceased.

Luke 8:45 And Jesus said, “Who was it that touched me?” When all denied it, Peter said, “Master, the multitudes surround you and press upon you!”

Luke 8:46 But Jesus said, “Some one touched me; for I perceive that power has gone forth from me.”

Luke 8:47 And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed.

Luke 8:48 And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace.”

Luke 8:49 While he was still speaking, a man from the ruler’s house came and said, “Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more.”

Luke 8:50 But Jesus on hearing this answered him, “Do not fear; only believe, and she shall be well.”

Luke 8:51 And when he came to the house, he permitted no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child.

Luke 8:52 And all were weeping and bewailing her; but he said, “Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping.”

Luke 8:53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

Luke 8:54 But taking her by the hand he called, saying, “Child, arise.”

Luke 8:55 And her spirit returned, and she got up at once; and he directed that something should be given her to eat.

Luke 8:56 And her parents were amazed; but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Luke 9:1 And he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases,

Luke 9:2 and he sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal.

Luke 9:3 And he said to them, “Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have two tunics.

Luke 9:4 And whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart.

Luke 9:5 And wherever they do not receive you, when you leave that town shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them.”

Luke 9:6 And they departed and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

Luke 9:7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead,

Luke 9:8 by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen.

Luke 9:9 Herod said, “John I beheaded; but who is this about whom I hear such things?” And he sought to see him.

Luke 9:10 On their return the apostles told him what they had done. And he took them and withdrew apart to a city called Bethsaida.

Luke 9:11 When the crowds learned it, they followed him; and he welcomed them and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and cured those who had need of healing.

Luke 9:12 Now the day began to wear away; and the twelve came and said to him, “Send the crowd away, to go into the villages and country round about, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a lonely place.”

Luke 9:13 But he said to them, “You give them something to eat.” They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish—unless we are to go and buy food for all these people.”

Luke 9:14 For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, “Make them sit down in companies, about fifty each.”

Luke 9:15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

Luke 9:16 And taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

Luke 9:17 And all ate and were satisfied. And they took up what was left over, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

Luke 9:18 Now it happened that as he was praying alone the disciples were with him; and he asked them, “Who do the people say that I am?”

Luke 9:19 And they answered, “John the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets has risen.”

Luke 9:20 And he said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” And Peter answered, “The Christ of God.”

Luke 9:21 But he charged and commanded them to tell this to no one,

Luke 9:22 saying, “The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.”

Luke 9:23 And he said to all, “If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.

Luke 9:24 For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it.

Luke 9:25 For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself?

Luke 9:26 For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

Luke 9:27 But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:28 Now about eight days after these sayings he took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray.

Luke 9:29 And as he was praying, the appearance of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became dazzling white.

Luke 9:30 And behold, two men talked with him, Moses and Elijah,

Luke 9:31 who appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, which he was to accomplish at Jerusalem.

Luke 9:32 Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, and when they wakened they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him.

Luke 9:33 And as the men were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is well that we are here; let us make three booths, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah”—not knowing what he said.

Luke 9:34 As he said this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

Luke 9:35 And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!”

Luke 9:36 And when the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silence and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen.

Luke 9:37 On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him.

Luke 9:38 And behold, a man from the crowd cried, “Teacher, I beg you to look upon my son, for he is my only child;

Luke 9:39 and behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out; it convulses him till he foams, and shatters him, and will hardly leave him.

Luke 9:40 And I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.”

Luke 9:41 Jesus answered, “O faithless and perverse generation, how long am I to be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.”

Luke 9:42 While he was coming, the demon tore him and convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

Luke 9:43 And all were astonished at the majesty of God. But while they were all marveling at everything he did, he said to his disciples,

Luke 9:44 “Let these words sink into your ears; for the Son of man is to be delivered into the hands of men.”

Luke 9:45 But they did not understand this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

Luke 9:46 And an argument arose among them as to which of them was the greatest.

Luke 9:47 But when Jesus perceived the thought of their hearts, he took a child and put him by his side,

Luke 9:48 and said to them, “Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me; for he who is least among you all is the one who is great.”

Luke 9:49 John answered, “Master, we saw a man casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he does not follow with us.”

Luke 9:50 But Jesus said to him, “Do not forbid him; for he that is not against you is for you.”

Luke 9:51 When the days drew near for him to be received up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem.

Luke 9:52 And he sent messengers ahead of him, who went and entered a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him;

Luke 9:53 but the people would not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem.

Luke 9:54 And when his disciples James and John saw it, they said, “Lord, do you want us to bid fire come down from heaven and consume them?”

Luke 9:55 But he turned and rebuked them.

Luke 9:56 And they went on to another village.

Luke 9:57 As they were going along the road, a man said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.”

Luke 9:58 And Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head.”

Luke 9:59 To another he said, “Follow me.” But he said, “Lord, let me first go and bury my father.”

Luke 9:60 But he said to him, “Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”

Luke 9:61 Another said, “I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.”

Luke 9:62 Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Luke 10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to come.

Luke 10:2 And he said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.

Luke 10:3 Go your way; behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.

Luke 10:4 Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and salute no one on the road.

Luke 10:5 Whatever house you enter, first say, `Peace be to this house!’

Luke 10:6 And if a son of peace is there, your peace shall rest upon him; but if not, it shall return to you.

Luke 10:7 And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages; do not go from house to house.

Luke 10:8 Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you;

Luke 10:9 heal the sick in it and say to them, `The kingdom of God has come near to you.’

Luke 10:10 But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, Luke 10:11 `Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off against you; nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.’

Luke 10:12 I tell you, it shall be more tolerable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

Luke 10:13 “Woe to you, Chorazin! woe to you, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

Luke 10:14 But it shall be more tolerable in the judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Luke 10:15 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades.

Luke 10:16 “He who hears you hears me, and he who rejects you rejects me, and he who rejects me rejects him who sent me.”

Luke 10:17 The seventy returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!”

Luke 10:18 And he said to them, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

Luke 10:19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall hurt you.

Luke 10:20 Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

Luke 10:21 In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, “I thank thee, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to babes; yea, Father, for such was thy gracious will.

Luke 10:22 All things have been delivered to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and any one to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

Luke 10:23 Then turning to the disciples he said privately, “Blessed are the eyes which see what you see!

Luke 10:24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.”

Luke 10:25 And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

Luke 10:26 He said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read?”

Luke 10:27 And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.”

Luke 10:28 And he said to him, “You have answered right; do this, and you will live.”

Luke 10:29 But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

Luke 10:30 Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

Luke 10:31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:32 So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:33 But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion,

Luke 10:34 and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; then he set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

Luke 10:35 And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, `Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’

Luke 10:36 Which of these three, do you think, proved neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?”

Luke 10:37 He said, “The one who showed mercy on him.” And Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

Luke 10:38 Now as they went on their way, he entered a village; and a woman named Martha received him into her house.

Luke 10:39 And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord’s feet and listened to his teaching.

Luke 10:40 But Martha was distracted with much serving; and she went to him and said, “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me.”

Luke 10:41 But the Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things;

Luke 10:42 one thing is needful. Mary has chosen the good portion, which shall not be taken away from her.”

Luke 11:1 He was praying in a certain place, and when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.”

Luke 11:2 And he said to them, “When you pray, say: “Father, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread;

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive every one who is indebted to us; and lead us not into temptation.”

Luke 11:5 And he said to them, “Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, `Friend, lend me three loaves;

Luke 11:6 for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him’;

Luke 11:7 and he will answer from within, `Do not bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything’?

Luke 11:8 I tell you, though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him whatever he needs.

Luke 11:9 And I tell you, Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

Luke 11:10 For every one who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

Luke 11:11 What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent;

Luke 11:12 or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

Luke 11:13 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

Luke 11:14 Now he was casting out a demon that was dumb; when the demon had gone out, the dumb man spoke, and the people marveled.

Luke 11:15 But some of them said, “He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of demons”;

Luke 11:16 while others, to test him, sought from him a sign from heaven.

Luke 11:17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and a divided household falls.

Luke 11:18 And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul.

Luke 11:19 And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges.

Luke 11:20 But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

Luke 11:21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace;

Luke 11:22 but when one stronger than he assails him and overcomes him, he takes away his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoil.

Luke 11:23 He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.

Luke 11:24 “When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places seeking rest; and finding none he says, `I will return to my house from which I came.’

Luke 11:25 And when he comes he finds it swept and put in order.

Luke 11:26 Then he goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first.”

Luke 11:27 As he said this, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts that you sucked!”

Luke 11:28 But he said, “Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!”

Luke 11:29 When the crowds were increasing, he began to say, “This generation is an evil generation; it seeks a sign, but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Jonah.

Luke 11:30 For as Jonah became a sign to the men of Nineveh, so will the Son of man be to this generation.

Luke 11:31 The queen of the South will arise at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

Luke 11:32 The men of Nineveh will arise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.

Luke 11:33 “No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a bushel, but on a stand, that those who enter may see the light.

Luke 11:34 Your eye is the lamp of your body; when your eye is sound, your whole body is full of light; but when it is not sound, your body is full of darkness.

Luke 11:35 Therefore be careful lest the light in you be darkness.

Luke 11:36 If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly bright, as when a lamp with its rays gives you light.”

Luke 11:37 While he was speaking, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him; so he went in and sat at table.

Luke 11:38 The Pharisee was astonished to see that he did not first wash before dinner.

Luke 11:39 And the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of extortion and wickedness.

Luke 11:40 You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also?

Luke 11:41 But give for alms those things which are within; and behold, everything is clean for you.

Luke 11:42 “But woe to you Pharisees! for you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and neglect justice and the love of God; these you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.

Luke 11:43 Woe to you Pharisees! for you love the best seat in the synagogues and salutations in the market places.

Luke 11:44 Woe to you! for you are like graves which are not seen, and men walk over them without knowing it.”

Luke 11:45 One of the lawyers answered him, “Teacher, in saying this you reproach us also.”

Luke 11:46 And he said, “Woe to you lawyers also! for you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

Luke 11:47 Woe to you! for you build the tombs of the prophets whom your fathers killed.

Luke 11:48 So you are witnesses and consent to the deeds of your fathers; for they killed them, and you build their tombs.

Luke 11:49 Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, `I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,’

Luke 11:50 that the blood of all the prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation,

Luke 11:51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it shall be required of this generation.

Luke 11:52 Woe to you lawyers! for you have taken away the key of knowledge; you did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering.”

Luke 11:53 As he went away from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press him hard, and to provoke him to speak of many things,

Luke 11:54 lying in wait for him, to catch at something he might say.

Luke 12:1 In the meantime, when so many thousands of the multitude had gathered together that they trod upon one another, he began to say to his disciples first, “Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

Luke 12:2 Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known.

Luke 12:3 Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

Luke 12:4 “I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

Luke 12:5 But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I tell you, fear him!

Luke 12:6 Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God.

Luke 12:7 Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Luke 12:8 “And I tell you, every one who acknowledges me before men, the Son of man also will acknowledge before the angels of God;

Luke 12:9 but he who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God.

Luke 12:10 And every one who speaks a word against the Son of man will be forgiven; but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

Luke 12:11 And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious how or what you are to answer or what you are to say;

Luke 12:12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say.”

Luke 12:13 One of the multitude said to him, “Teacher, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me.”

Luke 12:14 But he said to him, “Man, who made me a judge or divider over you?”

Luke 12:15 And he said to them, “Take heed, and beware of all covetousness; for a man’s life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.”

Luke 12:16 And he told them a parable, saying, “The land of a rich man brought forth plentifully;

Luke 12:17 and he thought to himself, `What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?’

Luke 12:18 And he said, `I will do this: I will pull down my barns, and build larger ones; and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

Luke 12:19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.’

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, `Fool! This night your soul is required of you; and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’

Luke 12:21 So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.”

Luke 12:22 And he said to his disciples, “Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat, nor about your body, what you shall put on.

Luke 12:23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.

Luke 12:24 Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds!

Luke 12:25 And which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his span of life?

Luke 12:26 If then you are not able to do as small a thing as that, why are you anxious about the rest?

Luke 12:27 Consider the lilies, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Luke 12:28 But if God so clothes the grass which is alive in the field today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O men of little faith!

Luke 12:29 And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be of anxious mind.

Luke 12:30 For all the nations of the world seek these things; and your Father knows that you need them.

Luke 12:31 Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things shall be yours as well.

Luke 12:32 “Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Luke 12:33 Sell your possessions, and give alms; provide yourselves with purses that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys.

Luke 12:34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Luke 12:35 “Let your loins be girded and your lamps burning,

Luke 12:36 and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the marriage feast, so that they may open to him at once when he comes and knocks.

Luke 12:37 Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes; truly, I say to you, he will gird himself and have them sit at table, and he will come and serve them.

Luke 12:38 If he comes in the second watch, or in the third, and finds them so, blessed are those servants!

Luke 12:39 But know this, that if the householder had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have left his house to be broken into.

Luke 12:40 You also must be ready; for the Son of man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

Luke 12:41 Peter said, “Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for all?”

Luke 12:42 And the Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time?

Luke 12:43 Blessed is that servant whom his master when he comes will find so doing.

Luke 12:44 Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions.

Luke 12:45 But if that servant says to himself, `My master is delayed in coming,’ and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk,

Luke 12:46 the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will punish him, and put him with the unfaithful.

Luke 12:47 And that servant who knew his master’s will, but did not make ready or act according to his will, shall receive a severe beating.

Luke 12:48 But he who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, shall receive a light beating. Every one to whom much is given, of him will much be required; and of him to whom men commit much they will demand the more.

Luke 12:49 “I came to cast fire upon the earth; and would that it were already kindled!

Luke 12:50 I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how I am constrained until it is accomplished!

Luke 12:51 Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division;

Luke 12:52 for henceforth in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three;

Luke 12:53 they will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against her mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.”

Luke 12:54 He also said to the multitudes, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, `A shower is coming’; and so it happens.

Luke 12:55 And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, `There will be scorching heat’; and it happens.

Luke 12:56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky; but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

Luke 12:57 “And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?

Luke 12:58 As you go with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer put you in prison.

Luke 12:59 I tell you, you will never get out till you have paid the very last copper."

Luke 13:1 There were some present at that very time who told him of the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

Luke 13:2 And he answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered thus?

Luke 13:3 I tell you, No; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.

Luke 13:4 Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others who dwelt in Jerusalem?

Luke 13:5 I tell you, No; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish."

Luke 13:6 And he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it and found none.

Luke 13:7 And he said to the vinedresser, `Lo, these three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down; why should it use up the ground?'

Luke 13:8 And he answered him, `Let it alone, sir, this year also, till I dig about it and put on manure.

Luke 13:9 And if it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

Luke 13:10 Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

Luke 13:11 And there was a woman who had had a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years; she was bent over and could not fully straighten herself.

Luke 13:12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity."

Luke 13:13 And he laid his hands upon her, and immediately she was made straight, and she praised God.

Luke 13:14 But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, said to the people, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be healed, and not on the sabbath day."

Luke 13:15 Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his ass from the manger, and lead it away to water it?

Luke 13:16 And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?"

Luke 13:17 As he said this, all his adversaries were put to shame; and all the people rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him.

Luke 13:18 He said therefore, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it?

Luke 13:19 It is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his garden; and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches."

Luke 13:20 And again he said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?

Luke 13:21 It is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened."

Luke 13:22 He went on his way through towns and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

Luke 13:23 And some one said to him, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?" And he said to them,

Luke 13:24 "Strive to enter by the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able.

Luke 13:25 When once the householder has risen up and shut the door, you will begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, `Lord, open to us.' He will answer you, `I do not know where you come from.'

Luke 13:26 Then you will begin to say, `We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.'

Luke 13:27 But he will say, `I tell you, I do not know where you come from; depart from me, all you workers of iniquity!'

Luke 13:28 There you will weep and gnash your teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves thrust out.

Luke 13:29 And men will come from east and west, and from north and south, and sit at table in the kingdom of God.

Luke 13:30 And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Luke 13:31 At that very hour some Pharisees came, and said to him, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you."

Luke 13:32 And he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, `Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I finish my course.

Luke 13:33 Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish away from Jerusalem.’

Luke 13:34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, killing the prophets and stoning those who are sent to you! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not!

Luke 13:35 Behold, your house is forsaken. And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, `Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!’”

Luke 14:1 One sabbath when he went to dine at the house of a ruler who belonged to the Pharisees, they were watching him.

Luke 14:2 And behold, there was a man before him who had dropsy.

Luke 14:3 And Jesus spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not?”

Luke 14:4 But they were silent. Then he took him and healed him, and let him go.

Luke 14:5 And he said to them, “Which of you, having a son or an ox that has fallen into a well, will not immediately pull him out on a sabbath day?”

Luke 14:6 And they could not reply to this.

Luke 14:7 Now he told a parable to those who were invited, when he marked how they chose the places of honor, saying to them,

Luke 14:8 “When you are invited by any one to a marriage feast, do not sit down in a place of honor, lest a more eminent man than you be invited by him;

Luke 14:9 and he who invited you both will come and say to you, `Give place to this man,’ and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place.

Luke 14:10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, `Friend, go up higher’; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you.

Luke 14:11 For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Luke 14:12 He said also to the man who had invited him, “When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your kinsmen or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return, and you be repaid.

Luke 14:13 But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind,

Luke 14:14 and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the just.”

Luke 14:15 When one of those who sat at table with him heard this, he said to him, “Blessed is he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God!”

Luke 14:16 But he said to him, “A man once gave a great banquet, and invited many;

Luke 14:17 and at the time for the banquet he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, `Come; for all is now ready.’

Luke 14:18 But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, `I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it; I pray you, have me excused.’

Luke 14:19 And another said, `I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to examine them; I pray you, have me excused.’

Luke 14:20 And another said, `I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.’

Luke 14:21 So the servant came and reported this to his master. Then the householder in anger said to his servant, `Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and maimed and blind and lame.’

Luke 14:22 And the servant said, `Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.’

Luke 14:23 And the master said to the servant, `Go out to the highways and hedges, and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled.

Luke 14:24 For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.’”

Luke 14:25 Now great multitudes accompanied him; and he turned and said to them,

Luke 14:26 “If any one comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:27 Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it?

Luke 14:29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him,

Luke 14:30 saying, `This man began to build, and was not able to finish.’

Luke 14:31 Or what king, going to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?

Luke 14:32 And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an embassy and asks terms of peace.

Luke 14:33 So therefore, whoever of you does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.

Luke 14:34 “Salt is good; but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltness be restored?

Luke 14:35 It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill; men throw it away. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke 15:1 Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him.

Luke 15:2 And the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, “This man receives sinners and eats with them.”

Luke 15:3 So he told them this parable:

Luke 15:4 “What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost, until he finds it?

Luke 15:5 And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

Luke 15:6 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, `Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.’

Luke 15:7 Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

Luke 15:8 “Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it?

Luke 15:9 And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, `Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin which I had lost.’

Luke 15:10 Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

Luke 15:11 And he said, “There was a man who had two sons;

Luke 15:12 and the younger of them said to his father, `Father, give me the share of property that falls to me.’ And he divided his living between them.

Luke 15:13 Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took his journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in loose living.

Luke 15:14 And when he had spent everything, a great famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want.

Luke 15:15 So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed swine.

Luke 15:16 And he would gladly have fed on the pods that the swine ate; and no one gave him anything.

Luke 15:17 But when he came to himself he said, `How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger!

Luke 15:18 I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you;

Luke 15:19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants."'

Luke 15:20 And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him.

Luke 15:21 And the son said to him, `Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

Luke 15:22 But the father said to his servants, `Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet;

Luke 15:23 and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry;

Luke 15:24 for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry.

Luke 15:25 "Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.

Luke 15:26 And he called one of the servants and asked what this meant.

Luke 15:27 And he said to him, `Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.'

Luke 15:28 But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him,

Luke 15:29 but he answered his father, `Lo, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command; yet you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.

Luke 15:30 But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed for him the fatted calf!'

Luke 15:31 And he said to him, `Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

Luke 15:32 It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.'"

Luke 16:1 He also said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a steward, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his goods.

Luke 16:2 And he called him and said to him, `What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.’

Luke 16:3 And the steward said to himself, `What shall I do, since my master is taking the stewardship away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.

Luke 16:4 I have decided what to do, so that people may receive me into their houses when I am put out of the stewardship.’

Luke 16:5 So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he said to the first, `How much do you owe my master?’

Luke 16:6 He said, `A hundred measures of oil.’ And he said to him, `Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’

Luke 16:7 Then he said to another, `And how much do you owe?’ He said, `A hundred measures of wheat.’ He said to him, `Take your bill, and write eighty.’

Luke 16:8 The master commended the dishonest steward for his shrewdness; for the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light.

Luke 16:9 And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal habitations.

Luke 16:10 “He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and he who is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much.

Luke 16:11 If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will entrust to you the true riches?

Luke 16:12 And if you have not been faithful in that which is another’s, who will give you that which is your own?

Luke 16:13 No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.”

Luke 16:14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all this, and they scoffed at him.

Luke 16:15 But he said to them, “You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts; for what is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God.

Luke 16:16 “The law and the prophets were until John; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is preached, and every one enters it violently.

Luke 16:17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one dot of the law to become void.

Luke 16:18 “Every one who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

Luke 16:19 “There was a rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day.

Luke 16:20 And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, full of sores,

Luke 16:21 who desired to be fed with what fell from the rich man’s table; moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

Luke 16:22 The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s bosom. The rich man also died and was buried;

Luke 16:23 and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes, and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus in his bosom.

Luke 16:24 And he called out, `Father Abraham, have mercy upon me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in this flame.’

Luke 16:25 But Abraham said, `Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish.

Luke 16:26 And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, in order that those who would pass from here to you may not be able, and none may cross from there to us.’

Luke 16:27 And he said, `Then I beg you, father, to send him to my father’s house,

Luke 16:28 for I have five brothers, so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment.’

Luke 16:29 But Abraham said, `They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.’

Luke 16:30 And he said, `No, father Abraham; but if some one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’

Luke 16:31 He said to him, `If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced if some one should rise from the dead.’”

Luke 17:1 And he said to his disciples, “Temptations to sin are sure to come; but woe to him by whom they come!

Luke 17:2 It would be better for him if a millstone were hung round his neck and he were cast into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to sin.

Luke 17:3 Take heed to yourselves; if your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him;

Luke 17:4 and if he sins against you seven times in the day, and turns to you seven times, and says, `I repent,' you must forgive him."

Luke 17:5 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!"

Luke 17:6 And the Lord said, "If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this sycamine tree, `Be rooted up, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

Luke 17:7 "Will any one of you, who has a servant plowing or keeping sheep, say to him when he has come in from the field, `Come at once and sit down at table'?

Luke 17:8 Will he not rather say to him, `Prepare supper for me, and gird yourself and serve me, till I eat and drink; and afterward you shall eat and drink'?

Luke 17:9 Does he thank the servant because he did what was commanded?

Luke 17:10 So you also, when you have done all that is commanded you, say, `We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty.'"

Luke 17:11 On the way to Jerusalem he was passing along between Samaria and Galilee.

Luke 17:12 And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance

Luke 17:13 and lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us."

Luke 17:14 When he saw them he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed.

Luke 17:15 Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice;

Luke 17:16 and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan.

Luke 17:17 Then said Jesus, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine?

Luke 17:18 Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?"

Luke 17:19 And he said to him, "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well."

Luke 17:20 Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them, "The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed;

Luke 17:21 nor will they say, `Lo, here it is!' or `There!' for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you."

Luke 17:22 And he said to the disciples, “The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and you will not see it.

Luke 17:23 And they will say to you, `Lo, there!’ or `Lo, here!’ Do not go, do not follow them.

Luke 17:24 For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of man be in his day.

Luke 17:25 But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

Luke 17:26 As it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of man.

Luke 17:27 They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

Luke 17:28 Likewise as it was in the days of Lot—they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built,

Luke 17:29 but on the day when Lot went out from Sodom fire and sulphur rained from heaven and destroyed them all —

Luke 17:30 so will it be on the day when the Son of man is revealed.

Luke 17:31 On that day, let him who is on the housetop, with his goods in the house, not come down to take them away; and likewise let him who is in the field not turn back.

Luke 17:32 Remember Lot’s wife.

Luke 17:33 Whoever seeks to gain his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will preserve it.

Luke 17:34 I tell you, in that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other left.

Luke 17:35 There will be two women grinding together; one will be taken and the other left.”

Luke 17:36

Luke 17:37 And they said to him, “Where, Lord?” He said to them, “Where the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together.”

Luke 18:1 And he told them a parable, to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart.

Luke 18:2 He said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor regarded man;

Luke 18:3 and there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, `Vindicate me against my adversary.’

Luke 18:4 For a while he refused; but afterward he said to himself, `Though I neither fear God nor regard man, Luke 18:5 yet because this widow bothers me, I will vindicate her, or she will wear me out by her continual coming.'"

Luke 18:6 And the Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge says.

Luke 18:7 And will not God vindicate his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them?

Luke 18:8 I tell you, he will vindicate them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Luke 18:9 He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised others:

Luke 18:10 "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

Luke 18:11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, `God, I thank thee that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.

Luke 18:12 I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.'

Luke 18:13 But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, `God, be merciful to me a sinner!'

Luke 18:14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:15 Now they were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them; and when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

Luke 18:16 But Jesus called them to him, saying, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of God.

Luke 18:17 Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it."

Luke 18:18 And a ruler asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

Luke 18:19 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

Luke 18:20 You know the commandments: `Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother.'"

Luke 18:21 And he said, "All these I have observed from my youth."

Luke 18:22 And when Jesus heard it, he said to him, "One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."

Luke 18:23 But when he heard this he became sad, for he was very rich.

Luke 18:24 Jesus looking at him said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!

Luke 18:25 For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

Luke 18:26 Those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

Luke 18:27 But he said, “What is impossible with men is possible with God.”

Luke 18:28 And Peter said, “Lo, we have left our homes and followed you.”

Luke 18:29 And he said to them, “Truly, I say to you, there is no man who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, Luke 18:30 who will not receive manifold more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life.”

Luke 18:31 And taking the twelve, he said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written of the Son of man by the prophets will be accomplished.

Luke 18:32 For he will be delivered to the Gentiles, and will be mocked and shamefully treated and spit upon;

Luke 18:33 they will scourge him and kill him, and on the third day he will rise.”

Luke 18:34 But they understood none of these things; this saying was hid from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

Luke 18:35 As he drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging;

Luke 18:36 and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant.

Luke 18:37 They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”

Luke 18:38 And he cried, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:39 And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:40 And Jesus stopped, and commanded him to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him,

Luke 18:41 “What do you want me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, let me receive my sight.”

Luke 18:42 And Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has made you well.”

Luke 18:43 And immediately he received his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Luke 19:1 He entered Jericho and was passing through.

Luke 19:2 And there was a man named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector, and rich.

Luke 19:3 And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not, on account of the crowd, because he was small of stature.

Luke 19:4 So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way.

Luke 19:5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, make haste and come down; for I must stay at your house today.”

Luke 19:6 So he made haste and came down, and received him joyfully.

Luke 19:7 And when they saw it they all murmured, “He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner.”

Luke 19:8 And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have defrauded any one of anything, I restore it fourfold.”

Luke 19:9 And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham.

Luke 19:10 For the Son of man came to seek and to save the lost.”

Luke 19:11 As they heard these things, he proceeded to tell a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was to appear immediately.

Luke 19:12 He said therefore, “A nobleman went into a far country to receive a kingdom and then return.

Luke 19:13 Calling ten of his servants, he gave them ten pounds, and said to them, `Trade with these till I come.’

Luke 19:14 But his citizens hated him and sent an embassy after him, saying, `We do not want this man to reign over us.’

Luke 19:15 When he returned, having received the kingdom, he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading.

Luke 19:16 The first came before him, saying, `Lord, your pound has made ten pounds more.’

Luke 19:17 And he said to him, `Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in a very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.’

Luke 19:18 And the second came, saying, `Lord, your pound has made five pounds.’

Luke 19:19 And he said to him, `And you are to be over five cities.’

Luke 19:20 Then another came, saying, `Lord, here is your pound, which I kept laid away in a napkin;

Luke 19:21 for I was afraid of you, because you are a severe man; you take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow.'

Luke 19:22 He said to him, `I will condemn you out of your own mouth, you wicked servant! You knew that I was a severe man, taking up what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow?

Luke 19:23 Why then did you not put my money into the bank, and at my coming I should have collected it with interest?'

Luke 19:24 And he said to those who stood by, `Take the pound from him, and give it to him who has the ten pounds.'

Luke 19:25 (And they said to him, `Lord, he has ten pounds!')

Luke 19:26 `I tell you, that to every one who has will more be given; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away.

Luke 19:27 But as for these enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slay them before me.'"

Luke 19:28 And when he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

Luke 19:29 When he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples,

Luke 19:30 saying, "Go into the village opposite, where on entering you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever yet sat; untie it and bring it here.

Luke 19:31 If any one asks you, `Why are you untying it?' you shall say this, `The Lord has need of it.'"

Luke 19:32 So those who were sent went away and found it as he had told them.

Luke 19:33 And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

Luke 19:34 And they said, "The Lord has need of it."

Luke 19:35 And they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their garments on the colt they set Jesus upon it.

Luke 19:36 And as he rode along, they spread their garments on the road.

Luke 19:37 As he was now drawing near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen,

Luke 19:38 saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

Luke 19:39 And some of the Pharisees in the multitude said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."

Luke 19:40 He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out."

Luke 19:41 And when he drew near and saw the city he wept over it,

Luke 19:42 saying, “Would that even today you knew the things that make for peace! But now they are hid from your eyes.

Luke 19:43 For the days shall come upon you, when your enemies will cast up a bank about you and surround you, and hem you in on every side,

Luke 19:44 and dash you to the ground, you and your children within you, and they will not leave one stone upon another in you; because you did not know the time of your visitation.”

Luke 19:45 And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold,

Luke 19:46 saying to them, “It is written, `My house shall be a house of prayer’; but you have made it a den of robbers.”

Luke 19:47 And he was teaching daily in the temple. The chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people sought to destroy him;

Luke 19:48 but they did not find anything they could do, for all the people hung upon his words.

Luke 20:1 One day, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders came up

Luke 20:2 and said to him, “Tell us by what authority you do these things, or who it is that gave you this authority.”

Luke 20:3 He answered them, “I also will ask you a question; now tell me, Luke 20:4 Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?”

Luke 20:5 And they discussed it with one another, saying, “If we say, `From heaven,’ he will say, `Why did you not believe him?’

Luke 20:6 But if we say, `From men,’ all the people will stone us; for they are convinced that John was a prophet.”

Luke 20:7 So they answered that they did not know whence it was.

Luke 20:8 And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Luke 20:9 And he began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country for a long while.

Luke 20:10 When the time came, he sent a servant to the tenants, that they should give him some of the fruit of the vineyard; but the tenants beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:11 And he sent another servant; him also they beat and treated shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:12 And he sent yet a third; this one they wounded and cast out.

Luke 20:13 Then the owner of the vineyard said, `What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; it may be they will respect him.'

Luke 20:14 But when the tenants saw him, they said to themselves, `This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.'

Luke 20:15 And they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

Luke 20:16 He will come and destroy those tenants, and give the vineyard to others." When they heard this, they said, "God forbid!"

Luke 20:17 But he looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written: `The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner'?

Luke 20:18 Every one who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but when it falls on any one it will crush him."

Luke 20:19 The scribes and the chief priests tried to lay hands on him at that very hour, but they feared the people; for they perceived that he had told this parable against them.

Luke 20:20 So they watched him, and sent spies, who pretended to be sincere, that they might take hold of what he said, so as to deliver him up to the authority and jurisdiction of the governor.

Luke 20:21 They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and show no partiality, but truly teach the way of God.

Luke 20:22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?"

Luke 20:23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them,

Luke 20:24 "Show me a coin. Whose likeness and inscription has it?" They said, "Caesar's."

Luke 20:25 He said to them, "Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

Luke 20:26 And they were not able in the presence of the people to catch him by what he said; but marveling at his answer they were silent.

Luke 20:27 There came to him some Sadducees, those who say that there is no resurrection,

Luke 20:28 and they asked him a question, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife but no children, the man must take the wife and raise up children for his brother.

Luke 20:29 Now there were seven brothers; the first took a wife, and died without children;

Luke 20:30 and the second

Luke 20:31 and the third took her, and likewise all seven left no children and died.

Luke 20:32 Afterward the woman also died.

Luke 20:33 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife.”

Luke 20:34 And Jesus said to them, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage;

Luke 20:35 but those who are accounted worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage,

Luke 20:36 for they cannot die any more, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

Luke 20:37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the passage about the bush, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.

Luke 20:38 Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to him.”

Luke 20:39 And some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, you have spoken well.”

Luke 20:40 For they no longer dared to ask him any question.

Luke 20:41 But he said to them, “How can they say that the Christ is David’s son?

Luke 20:42 For David himself says in the Book of Psalms, `The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand,

Luke 20:43 till I make thy enemies a stool for thy feet.’

Luke 20:44 David thus calls him Lord; so how is he his son?”

Luke 20:45 And in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples,

Luke 20:46 “Beware of the scribes, who like to go about in long robes, and love salutations in the market places and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts,

Luke 20:47 who devour widows’ houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

Luke 21:1 He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury;

Luke 21:2 and he saw a poor widow put in two copper coins.

Luke 21:3 And he said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them;

Luke 21:4 for they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all the living that she had.”

Luke 21:5 And as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with noble stones and offerings, he said, Luke 21:6 “As for these things which you see, the days will come when there shall not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down.”

Luke 21:7 And they asked him, “Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign when this is about to take place?”

Luke 21:8 And he said, “Take heed that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name, saying, `I am he!’ and, `The time is at hand!’ Do not go after them.

Luke 21:9 And when you hear of wars and tumults, do not be terrified; for this must first take place, but the end will not be at once.”

Luke 21:10 Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom;

Luke 21:11 there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences; and there will be terrors and great signs from heaven.

Luke 21:12 But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name’s sake.

Luke 21:13 This will be a time for you to bear testimony.

Luke 21:14 Settle it therefore in your minds, not to meditate beforehand how to answer;

Luke 21:15 for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict.

Luke 21:16 You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and kinsmen and friends, and some of you they will put to death;

Luke 21:17 you will be hated by all for my name’s sake.

Luke 21:18 But not a hair of your head will perish.

Luke 21:19 By your endurance you will gain your lives.

Luke 21:20 “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near.

Luke 21:21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it;

Luke 21:22 for these are days of vengeance, to fulfil all that is written.

Luke 21:23 Alas for those who are with child and for those who give suck in those days! For great distress shall be upon the earth and wrath upon this people;

Luke 21:24 they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led captive among all nations; and Jerusalem will be trodden down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

Luke 21:25 “And there will be signs in sun and moon and stars, and upon the earth distress of nations in perplexity at the roaring of the sea and the waves,

Luke 21:26 men fainting with fear and with foreboding of what is coming on the world; for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Luke 21:27 And then they will see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

Luke 21:28 Now when these things begin to take place, look up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

Luke 21:29 And he told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree, and all the trees;

Luke 21:30 as soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near.

Luke 21:31 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

Luke 21:32 Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away till all has taken place.

Luke 21:33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Luke 21:34 “But take heed to yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a snare;

Luke 21:35 for it will come upon all who dwell upon the face of the whole earth.

Luke 21:36 But watch at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of man.”

Luke 21:37 And every day he was teaching in the temple, but at night he went out and lodged on the mount called Olivet.

Luke 21:38 And early in the morning all the people came to him in the temple to hear him.

Luke 22:1 Now the feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called the Passover.

Luke 22:2 And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to put him to death; for they feared the people.

Luke 22:3 Then Satan entered into Judas called Iscariot, who was of the number of the twelve;

Luke 22:4 he went away and conferred with the chief priests and officers how he might betray him to them.

Luke 22:5 And they were glad, and engaged to give him money.

Luke 22:6 So he agreed, and sought an opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of the multitude.

Luke 22:7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, on which the passover lamb had to be sacrificed.

Luke 22:8 So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the passover for us, that we may eat it.”

Luke 22:9 They said to him, “Where will you have us prepare it?”

Luke 22:10 He said to them, “Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house which he enters,

Luke 22:11 and tell the householder, `The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room, where I am to eat the passover with my disciples?’

Luke 22:12 And he will show you a large upper room furnished; there make ready.”

Luke 22:13 And they went, and found it as he had told them; and they prepared the passover.

Luke 22:14 And when the hour came, he sat at table, and the apostles with him.

Luke 22:15 And he said to them, “I have earnestly desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer;

Luke 22:16 for I tell you I shall not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

Luke 22:17 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, “Take this, and divide it among yourselves;

Luke 22:18 for I tell you that from now on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”

Luke 22:19 And he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Luke 22:20 And likewise the cup after supper, saying, “This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.

Luke 22:21 But behold the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table.

Luke 22:22 For the Son of man goes as it has been determined; but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!”

Luke 22:23 And they began to question one another, which of them it was that would do this.

Luke 22:24 A dispute also arose among them, which of them was to be regarded as the greatest.

Luke 22:25 And he said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors.

Luke 22:26 But not so with you; rather let the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves.

Luke 22:27 For which is the greater, one who sits at table, or one who serves? Is it not the one who sits at table? But I am among you as one who serves.

Luke 22:28 “You are those who have continued with me in my trials;

Luke 22:29 and I assign to you, as my Father assigned to me, a kingdom,

Luke 22:30 that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Luke 22:31 “Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, Luke 22:32 but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail; and when you have turned again, strengthen your brethren.”

Luke 22:33 And he said to him, “Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death.”

Luke 22:34 He said, “I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, until you three times deny that you know me.”

Luke 22:35 And he said to them, “When I sent you out with no purse or bag or sandals, did you lack anything?” They said, “Nothing.”

Luke 22:36 He said to them, “But now, let him who has a purse take it, and likewise a bag. And let him who has no sword sell his mantle and buy one.

Luke 22:37 For I tell you that this scripture must be fulfilled in me, `And he was reckoned with transgressors’; for what is written about me has its fulfilment.”

Luke 22:38 And they said, “Look, Lord, here are two swords.” And he said to them, “It is enough.”

Luke 22:39 And he came out, and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him.

Luke 22:40 And when he came to the place he said to them, “Pray that you may not enter into temptation.”

Luke 22:41 And he withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, and knelt down and prayed,

Luke 22:42 “Father, if thou art willing, remove this cup from me; nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.”

Luke 22:43

Luke 22:44

Luke 22:45 And when he rose from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping for sorrow,

Luke 22:46 and he said to them, “Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation.”

Luke 22:47 While he was still speaking, there came a crowd, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He drew near to Jesus to kiss him;

Luke 22:48 but Jesus said to him, “Judas, would you betray the Son of man with a kiss?”

Luke 22:49 And when those who were about him saw what would follow, they said, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?”

Luke 22:50 And one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

Luke 22:51 But Jesus said, “No more of this!” And he touched his ear and healed him.

Luke 22:52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders, who had come out against him, “Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs?

Luke 22:53 When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness.”

Luke 22:54 Then they seized him and led him away, bringing him into the high priest’s house. Peter followed at a distance;

Luke 22:55 and when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.

Luke 22:56 Then a maid, seeing him as he sat in the light and gazing at him, said, “This man also was with him.”

Luke 22:57 But he denied it, saying, “Woman, I do not know him.”

Luke 22:58 And a little later some one else saw him and said, “You also are one of them.” But Peter said, “Man, I am not.”

Luke 22:59 And after an interval of about an hour still another insisted, saying, “Certainly this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean.”

Luke 22:60 But Peter said, “Man, I do not know what you are saying.” And immediately, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed.

Luke 22:61 And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, “Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times.”

Luke 22:62 And he went out and wept bitterly.

Luke 22:63 Now the men who were holding Jesus mocked him and beat him;

Luke 22:64 they also blindfolded him and asked him, “Prophesy! Who is it that struck you?”

Luke 22:65 And they spoke many other words against him, reviling him.

Luke 22:66 When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people gathered together, both chief priests and scribes; and they led him away to their council, and they said,

Luke 22:67 “If you are the Christ, tell us.” But he said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe;

Luke 22:68 and if I ask you, you will not answer.

Luke 22:69 But from now on the Son of man shall be seated at the right hand of the power of God.”

Luke 22:70 And they all said, “Are you the Son of God, then?” And he said to them, “You say that I am.”

Luke 22:71 And they said, “What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips.”

Luke 23:1 Then the whole company of them arose, and brought him before Pilate.

Luke 23:2 And they began to accuse him, saying, “We found this man perverting our nation, and forbidding us to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ a king.”

Luke 23:3 And Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” And he answered him, “You have said so.”

Luke 23:4 And Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, “I find no crime in this man.”

Luke 23:5 But they were urgent, saying, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee even to this place.”

Luke 23:6 When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.

Luke 23:7 And when he learned that he belonged to Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him over to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time.

Luke 23:8 When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had long desired to see him, because he had heard about him, and he was hoping to see some sign done by him.

Luke 23:9 So he questioned him at some length; but he made no answer.

Luke 23:10 The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him.

Luke 23:11 And Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him; then, arraying him in gorgeous apparel, he sent him back to Pilate.

Luke 23:12 And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before this they had been at enmity with each other.

Luke 23:13 Pilate then called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

Luke 23:14 and said to them, “You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and after examining him before you, behold, I did not find this man guilty of any of your charges against him;

Luke 23:15 neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us. Behold, nothing deserving death has been done by him;

Luke 23:16 I will therefore chastise him and release him.”

Luke 23:17

Luke 23:18 But they all cried out together, “Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas” —

Luke 23:19 a man who had been thrown into prison for an insurrection started in the city, and for murder.

Luke 23:20 Pilate addressed them once more, desiring to release Jesus;

Luke 23:21 but they shouted out, “Crucify, crucify him!”

Luke 23:22 A third time he said to them, “Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no crime deserving death; I will therefore chastise him and release him.”

Luke 23:23 But they were urgent, demanding with loud cries that he should be crucified. And their voices prevailed.

Luke 23:24 So Pilate gave sentence that their demand should be granted.

Luke 23:25 He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered up to their will.

Luke 23:26 And as they led him away, they seized one Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it behind Jesus.

Luke 23:27 And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him.

Luke 23:28 But Jesus turning to them said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

Luke 23:29 For behold, the days are coming when they will say, `Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never gave suck!’

Luke 23:30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains, `Fall on us’; and to the hills, `Cover us.’

Luke 23:31 For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

Luke 23:32 Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him.

Luke 23:33 And when they came to the place which is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left.

Luke 23:34 And Jesus said, “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.” And they cast lots to divide his garments.

Luke 23:35 And the people stood by, watching; but the rulers scoffed at him, saying, “He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!”

Luke 23:36 The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him vinegar,

Luke 23:37 and saying, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!”

Luke 23:38 There was also an inscription over him, “This is the King of the Jews.”

Luke 23:39 One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, “Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!”

Luke 23:40 But the other rebuked him, saying, “Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?

Luke 23:41 And we indeed justly; for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong.”

Luke 23:42 And he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

Luke 23:43 And he said to him, “Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

Luke 23:44 It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour,

Luke 23:45 while the sun’s light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two.

Luke 23:46 Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, “Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit!” And having said this he breathed his last.

Luke 23:47 Now when the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God, and said, “Certainly this man was innocent!”

Luke 23:48 And all the multitudes who assembled to see the sight, when they saw what had taken place, returned home beating their breasts.

Luke 23:49 And all his acquaintances and the women who had followed him from Galilee stood at a distance and saw these things.

Luke 23:50 Now there was a man named Joseph from the Jewish town of Arimathea. He was a member of the council, a good and righteous man,

Luke 23:51 who had not consented to their purpose and deed, and he was looking for the kingdom of God.

Luke 23:52 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Luke 23:53 Then he took it down and wrapped it in a linen shroud, and laid him in a rock-hewn tomb, where no one had ever yet been laid.

Luke 23:54 It was the day of Preparation, and the sabbath was beginning.

Luke 23:55 The women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid;

Luke 23:56 then they returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

Luke 24:1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices which they had prepared.

Luke 24:2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

Luke 24:3 but when they went in they did not find the body.

Luke 24:4 While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel;

Luke 24:5 and as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead?

Luke 24:6 Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee,

Luke 24:7 that the Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise.”

Luke 24:8 And they remembered his words,

Luke 24:9 and returning from the tomb they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest.

Luke 24:10 Now it was Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told this to the apostles;

Luke 24:11 but these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

Luke 24:12

Luke 24:13 That very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem,

Luke 24:14 and talking with each other about all these things that had happened.

Luke 24:15 While they were talking and discussing together, Jesus himself drew near and went with them.

Luke 24:16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

Luke 24:17 And he said to them, “What is this conversation which you are holding with each other as you walk?” And they stood still, looking sad.

Luke 24:18 Then one of them, named Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?”

Luke 24:19 And he said to them, “What things?” And they said to him, “Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, Luke 24:20 and how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him.

Luke 24:21 But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since this happened.

Luke 24:22 Moreover, some women of our company amazed us. They were at the tomb early in the morning

Luke 24:23 and did not find his body; and they came back saying that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.

Luke 24:24 Some of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it just as the women had said; but him they did not see.”

Luke 24:25 And he said to them, “O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

Luke 24:26 Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?”

Luke 24:27 And beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

Luke 24:28 So they drew near to the village to which they were going. He appeared to be going further,

Luke 24:29 but they constrained him, saying, “Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent.” So he went in to stay with them.

Luke 24:30 When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them.

Luke 24:31 And their eyes were opened and they recognized him; and he vanished out of their sight.

Luke 24:32 They said to each other, “Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the scriptures?”

Luke 24:33 And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven gathered together and those who were with them, Luke 24:34 who said, “The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!”

Luke 24:35 Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Luke 24:36 As they were saying this, Jesus himself stood among them.

Luke 24:37 But they were startled and frightened, and supposed that they saw a spirit.

Luke 24:38 And he said to them, “Why are you troubled, and why do questionings rise in your hearts?

Luke 24:39 See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; handle me, and see; for a spirit has not flesh and bones as you see that I have.”

Luke 24:40

Luke 24:41 And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?”

Luke 24:42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish,

Luke 24:43 and he took it and ate before them.

Luke 24:44 Then he said to them, “These are my words which I spoke to you, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled.”

Luke 24:45 Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures,

Luke 24:46 and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead,

Luke 24:47 and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Luke 24:48 You are witnesses of these things.

Luke 24:49 And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city, until you are clothed with power from on high.”

Luke 24:50 Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them.

Luke 24:51 While he blessed them, he parted from them, and was carried up into heaven.

Luke 24:52 And they returned to Jerusalem with great joy,

Luke 24:53 and were continually in the temple blessing God.

John

1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:2 He was in the beginning with God;

John 1:3 all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made.

John 1:4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

John 1:5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

John 1:6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

John 1:7 He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him.

John 1:8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.

John 1:9 The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world.

John 1:10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not.

John 1:11 He came to his own home, and his own people received him not.

John 1:12 But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God;

John 1:13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

John 1:14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

John 1:15 (John bore witness to him, and cried, “This was he of whom I said, `He who comes after me ranks before me, for he was before me.’”)

John 1:16 And from his fulness have we all received, grace upon grace.

John 1:17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

John 1:18 No one has ever seen God; the only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has made him known.

John 1:19 And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”

John 1:20 He confessed, he did not deny, but confessed, “I am not the Christ.”

John 1:21 And they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” He said, “I am not.” “Are you the prophet?” And he answered, “No.”

John 1:22 They said to him then, “Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

John 1:23 He said, “I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, `Make straight the way of the Lord,’ as the prophet Isaiah said.”

John 1:24 Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.

John 1:25 They asked him, “Then why are you baptizing, if you are neither the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?”

John 1:26 John answered them, “I baptize with water; but among you stands one whom you do not know,

John 1:27 even he who comes after me, the thong of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie.”

John 1:28 This took place in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

John 1:29 The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

John 1:30 This is he of whom I said, `After me comes a man who ranks before me, for he was before me.’

John 1:31 I myself did not know him; but for this I came baptizing with water, that he might be revealed to Israel.”

John 1:32 And John bore witness, “I saw the Spirit descend as a dove from heaven, and it remained on him.

John 1:33 I myself did not know him; but he who sent me to baptize with water said to me, `He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’

John 1:34 And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.”

John 1:35 The next day again John was standing with two of his disciples;

John 1:36 and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God!”

John 1:37 The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus.

John 1:38 Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, “What do you seek?” And they said to him, “Rabbi” (which means Teacher), “where are you staying?”

John 1:39 He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying; and they stayed with him that day, for it was about the tenth hour.

John 1:40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother.

John 1:41 He first found his brother Simon, and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which means Christ).

John 1:42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, “So you are Simon the son of John? You shall be called Cephas” (which means Peter).

John 1:43 The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. And he found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.”

John 1:44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

John 1:45 Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, “We have found him of whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”

John 1:46 Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.”

John 1:47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said of him, “Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!”

John 1:48 Nathanael said to him, “How do you know me?” Jesus answered him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

John 1:49 Nathanael answered him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”

John 1:50 Jesus answered him, “Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You shall see greater things than these.”

John 1:51 And he said to him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.”

John 2:1 On the third day there was a marriage at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there;

John 2:2 Jesus also was invited to the marriage, with his disciples.

John 2:3 When the wine failed, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.”

John 2:4 And Jesus said to her, “O woman, what have you to do with me? My hour has not yet come.”

John 2:5 His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”

John 2:6 Now six stone jars were standing there, for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

John 2:7 Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim.

John 2:8 He said to them, “Now draw some out, and take it to the steward of the feast.” So they took it.

John 2:9 When the steward of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward of the feast called the bridegroom

John 2:10 and said to him, “Every man serves the good wine first; and when men have drunk freely, then the poor wine; but you have kept the good wine until now.”

John 2:11 This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

John 2:12 After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother and his brothers and his disciples; and there they stayed for a few days.

John 2:13 The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

John 2:14 In the temple he found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers at their business.

John 2:15 And making a whip of cords, he drove them all, with the sheep and oxen, out of the temple; and he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables.

John 2:16 And he told those who sold the pigeons, “Take these things away; you shall not make my Father’s house a house of trade.”

John 2:17 His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for thy house will consume me.”

John 2:18 The Jews then said to him, “What sign have you to show us for doing this?”

John 2:19 Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

John 2:20 The Jews then said, “It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?”

John 2:21 But he spoke of the temple of his body.

John 2:22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken.

John 2:23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover feast, many believed in his name when they saw the signs which he did;

John 2:24 but Jesus did not trust himself to them,

John 2:25 because he knew all men and needed no one to bear witness of man; for he himself knew what was in man.

John 3:1 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.

John 3:2 This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him.”

John 3:3 Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

John 3:4 Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb and be born?”

John 3:5 Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

John 3:6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

John 3:7 Do not marvel that I said to you, `You must be born anew.’

John 3:8 The wind blows where it wills, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know whence it comes or whither it goes; so it is with every one who is born of the Spirit.”

John 3:9 Nicodemus said to him, “How can this be?”

John 3:10 Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand this?

John 3:11 Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know, and bear witness to what we have seen; but you do not receive our testimony.

John 3:12 If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you heavenly things?

John 3:13 No one has ascended into heaven but he who descended from heaven, the Son of man.

John 3:14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up,

John 3:15 that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.”

John 3:16 For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:17 For God sent the Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

John 3:18 He who believes in him is not condemned; he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

John 3:19 And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

John 3:20 For every one who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed.

John 3:21 But he who does what is true comes to the light, that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been wrought in God.

John 3:22 After this Jesus and his disciples went into the land of Judea; there he remained with them and baptized.

John 3:23 John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there; and people came and were baptized.

John 3:24 For John had not yet been put in prison.

John 3:25 Now a discussion arose between John's disciples and a Jew over purifying.

John 3:26 And they came to John, and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you bore witness, here he is, baptizing, and all are going to him."

John 3:27 John answered, "No one can receive anything except what is given him from heaven.

John 3:28 You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but I have been sent before him.

John 3:29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom; the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice; therefore this joy of mine is now full.

John 3:30 He must increase, but I must decrease."

John 3:31 He who comes from above is above all; he who is of the earth belongs to the earth, and of the earth he speaks; he who comes from heaven is above all.

John 3:32 He bears witness to what he has seen and heard, yet no one receives his testimony;

John 3:33 he who receives his testimony sets his seal to this, that God is true.

John 3:34 For he whom God has sent utters the words of God, for it is not by measure that he gives the Spirit;

John 3:35 the Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand.

John 3:36 He who believes in the Son has eternal life; he who does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God rests upon him.

John 4:1 Now when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John

John 4:2 (although Jesus himself did not baptize, but only his disciples),

John 4:3 he left Judea and departed again to Galilee.

John 4:4 He had to pass through Samaria.

John 4:5 So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

John 4:6 Jacob's well was there, and so Jesus, wearied as he was with his journey, sat down beside the well. It was about the sixth hour.

John 4:7 There came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."

John 4:8 For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

John 4:9 The Samaritan woman said to him, “How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?” For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.

John 4:10 Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, `Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.”

John 4:11 The woman said to him, “Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep; where do you get that living water?

John 4:12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, and his sons, and his cattle?”

John 4:13 Jesus said to her, “Every one who drinks of this water will thirst again,

John 4:14 but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst; the water that I shall give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.”

John 4:15 The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw.”

John 4:16 Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here.”

John 4:17 The woman answered him, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “You are right in saying, `I have no husband’;

John 4:18 for you have had five husbands, and he whom you now have is not your husband; this you said truly.”

John 4:19 The woman said to him, “Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet.

John 4:20 Our fathers worshiped on this mountain; and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.”

John 4:21 Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father.

John 4:22 You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.

John 4:23 But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for such the Father seeks to worship him.

John 4:24 God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”

John 4:25 The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming (he who is called Christ); when he comes, he will show us all things.”

John 4:26 Jesus said to her, “I who speak to you am he.”

John 4:27 Just then his disciples came. They marveled that he was talking with a woman, but none said, “What do you wish?” or, “Why are you talking with her?”

John 4:28 So the woman left her water jar, and went away into the city, and said to the people,

John 4:29 “Come, see a man who told me all that I ever did. Can this be the Christ?”

John 4:30 They went out of the city and were coming to him.

John 4:31 Meanwhile the disciples besought him, saying, “Rabbi, eat.”

John 4:32 But he said to them, “I have food to eat of which you do not know.”

John 4:33 So the disciples said to one another, “Has any one brought him food?”

John 4:34 Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work.

John 4:35 Do you not say, `There are yet four months, then comes the harvest’? I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see how the fields are already white for harvest.

John 4:36 He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together.

John 4:37 For here the saying holds true, `One sows and another reaps.’

John 4:38 I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor; others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

John 4:39 Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me all that I ever did.”

John 4:40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days.

John 4:41 And many more believed because of his word.

John 4:42 They said to the woman, “It is no longer because of your words that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world.”

John 4:43 After the two days he departed to Galilee.

John 4:44 For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.

John 4:45 So when he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, having seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the feast, for they too had gone to the feast.

John 4:46 So he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. And at Capernaum there was an official whose son was ill.

John 4:47 When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

John 4:48 Jesus therefore said to him, “Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe.”

John 4:49 The official said to him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”

John 4:50 Jesus said to him, “Go; your son will live.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went his way.

John 4:51 As he was going down, his servants met him and told him that his son was living.

John 4:52 So he asked them the hour when he began to mend, and they said to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.”

John 4:53 The father knew that was the hour when Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live”; and he himself believed, and all his household.

John 4:54 This was now the second sign that Jesus did when he had come from Judea to Galilee.

John 5:1 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

John 5:2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool, in Hebrew called Bethzatha, which has five porticoes.

John 5:3 In these lay a multitude of invalids, blind, lame, paralyzed.

John 5:4

John 5:5 One man was there, who had been ill for thirty-eight years.

John 5:6 When Jesus saw him and knew that he had been lying there a long time, he said to him, “Do you want to be healed?”

John 5:7 The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is troubled, and while I am going another steps down before me.”

John 5:8 Jesus said to him, “Rise, take up your pallet, and walk.”

John 5:9 And at once the man was healed, and he took up his pallet and walked. Now that day was the sabbath.

John 5:10 So the Jews said to the man who was cured, “It is the sabbath, it is not lawful for you to carry your pallet.”

John 5:11 But he answered them, “The man who healed me said to me, `Take up your pallet, and walk.’”

John 5:12 They asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, `Take up your pallet, and walk’?”

John 5:13 Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place.

John 5:14 Afterward, Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, “See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse befall you.”

John 5:15 The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him.

John 5:16 And this was why the Jews persecuted Jesus, because he did this on the sabbath.

John 5:17 But Jesus answered them, “My Father is working still, and I am working.”

John 5:18 This was why the Jews sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the sabbath but also called God his Father, making himself equal with God.

John 5:19 Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing; for whatever he does, that the Son does likewise.

John 5:20 For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all that he himself is doing; and greater works than these will he show him, that you may marvel.

John 5:21 For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will.

John 5:22 The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son,

John 5:23 that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

John 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me, has eternal life; he does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

John 5:25 “Truly, truly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

John 5:26 For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself,

John 5:27 and has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of man.

John 5:28 Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice

John 5:29 and come forth, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.

John 5:30 “I can do nothing on my own authority; as I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me.

John 5:31 If I bear witness to myself, my testimony is not true;

John 5:32 there is another who bears witness to me, and I know that the testimony which he bears to me is true.

John 5:33 You sent to John, and he has borne witness to the truth.

John 5:34 Not that the testimony which I receive is from man; but I say this that you may be saved.

John 5:35 He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.

John 5:36 But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John; for the works which the Father has granted me to accomplish, these very works which I am doing, bear me witness that the Father has sent me.

John 5:37 And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness to me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen;

John 5:38 and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe him whom he has sent.

John 5:39 You search the scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness to me;

John 5:40 yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life.

John 5:41 I do not receive glory from men.

John 5:42 But I know that you have not the love of God within you.

John 5:43 I have come in my Father’s name, and you do not receive me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive.

John 5:44 How can you believe, who receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?

John 5:45 Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; it is Moses who accuses you, on whom you set your hope.

John 5:46 If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote of me.

John 5:47 But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words?”

John 6:1 After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias.

John 6:2 And a multitude followed him, because they saw the signs which he did on those who were diseased.

John 6:3 Jesus went up on the mountain, and there sat down with his disciples.

John 6:4 Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.

John 6:5 Lifting up his eyes, then, and seeing that a multitude was coming to him, Jesus said to Philip, “How are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?”

John 6:6 This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

John 6:7 Philip answered him, “Two hundred denarii would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.”

John 6:8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to him,

John 6:9 “There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what are they among so many?”

John 6:10 Jesus said, “Make the people sit down.” Now there was much grass in the place; so the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

John 6:11 Jesus then took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted.

John 6:12 And when they had eaten their fill, he told his disciples, “Gather up the fragments left over, that nothing may be lost.”

John 6:13 So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten.

John 6:14 When the people saw the sign which he had done, they said, “This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world!”

John 6:15 Perceiving then that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, Jesus withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

John 6:16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea,

John 6:17 got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

John 6:18 The sea rose because a strong wind was blowing.

John 6:19 When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat. They were frightened,

John 6:20 but he said to them, “It is I; do not be afraid.”

John 6:21 Then they were glad to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

John 6:22 On the next day the people who remained on the other side of the sea saw that there had been only one boat there, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone.

John 6:23 However, boats from Tiberias came near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

John 6:24 So when the people saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

John 6:25 When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you come here?”

John 6:26 Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves.

John 6:27 Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of man will give to you; for on him has God the Father set his seal.”

John 6:28 Then they said to him, “What must we do, to be doing the works of God?”

John 6:29 Jesus answered them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.”

John 6:30 So they said to him, “Then what sign do you do, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you perform?

John 6:31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, `He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’”

John 6:32 Jesus then said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven.

John 6:33 For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world.”

John 6:34 They said to him, “Lord, give us this bread always.”

John 6:35 Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall not hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst.

John 6:36 But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe.

John 6:37 All that the Father gives me will come to me; and him who comes to me I will not cast out.

John 6:38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me;

John 6:39 and this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up at the last day.

John 6:40 For this is the will of my Father, that every one who sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.”

John 6:41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, “I am the bread which came down from heaven.”

John 6:42 They said, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, `I have come down from heaven’?”

John 6:43 Jesus answered them, “Do not murmur among yourselves.

John 6:44 No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him; and I will raise him up at the last day.

John 6:45 It is written in the prophets, `And they shall all be taught by God.’ Every one who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me.

John 6:46 Not that any one has seen the Father except him who is from God; he has seen the Father.

John 6:47 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life.

John 6:48 I am the bread of life.

John 6:49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

John 6:50 This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat of it and not die.

John 6:51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread, he will live for ever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

John 6:52 The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

John 6:53 So Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you;

John 6:54 he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

John 6:55 For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

John 6:56 He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.

John 6:57 As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats me will live because of me.

John 6:58 This is the bread which came down from heaven, not such as the fathers ate and died; he who eats this bread will live for ever.”

John 6:59 This he said in the synagogue, as he taught at Capernaum.

John 6:60 Many of his disciples, when they heard it, said, “This is a hard saying; who can listen to it?”

John 6:61 But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at it, said to them, “Do you take offense at this?

John 6:62 Then what if you were to see the Son of man ascending where he was before?

John 6:63 It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh is of no avail; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life.

John 6:64 But there are some of you that do not believe.” For Jesus knew from the first who those were that did not believe, and who it was that would betray him.

John 6:65 And he said, “This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father.”

John 6:66 After this many of his disciples drew back and no longer went about with him.

John 6:67 Jesus said to the twelve, “Do you also wish to go away?”

John 6:68 Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life;

John 6:69 and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God.”

John 6:70 Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?”

John 6:71 He spoke of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the twelve, was to betray him.

John 7:1 After this Jesus went about in Galilee; he would not go about in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him.

John 7:2 Now the Jews’ feast of Tabernacles was at hand.

John 7:3 So his brothers said to him, “Leave here and go to Judea, that your disciples may see the works you are doing.

John 7:4 For no man works in secret if he seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world.”

John 7:5 For even his brothers did not believe in him.

John 7:6 Jesus said to them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always here.

John 7:7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify of it that its works are evil.

John 7:8 Go to the feast yourselves; I am not going up to this feast, for my time has not yet fully come.”

John 7:9 So saying, he remained in Galilee.

John 7:10 But after his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly but in private.

John 7:11 The Jews were looking for him at the feast, and saying, “Where is he?”

John 7:12 And there was much muttering about him among the people. While some said, “He is a good man,” others said, “No, he is leading the people astray.”

John 7:13 Yet for fear of the Jews no one spoke openly of him.

John 7:14 About the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple and taught.

John 7:15 The Jews marveled at it, saying, “How is it that this man has learning, when he has never studied?”

John 7:16 So Jesus answered them, “My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me;

John 7:17 if any man’s will is to do his will, he shall know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority.

John 7:18 He who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory; but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and in him there is no falsehood.

John 7:19 Did not Moses give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why do you seek to kill me?”

John 7:20 The people answered, “You have a demon! Who is seeking to kill you?”

John 7:21 Jesus answered them, “I did one deed, and you all marvel at it.

John 7:22 Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man upon the sabbath.

John 7:23 If on the sabbath a man receives circumcision, so that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because on the sabbath I made a man’s whole body well?

John 7:24 Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment.”

John 7:25 Some of the people of Jerusalem therefore said, “Is not this the man whom they seek to kill?

John 7:26 And here he is, speaking openly, and they say nothing to him! Can it be that the authorities really know that this is the Christ?

John 7:27 Yet we know where this man comes from; and when the Christ appears, no one will know where he comes from.”

John 7:28 So Jesus proclaimed, as he taught in the temple, “You know me, and you know where I come from? But I have not come of my own accord; he who sent me is true, and him you do not know.

John 7:29 I know him, for I come from him, and he sent me.”

John 7:30 So they sought to arrest him; but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come.

John 7:31 Yet many of the people believed in him; they said, “When the Christ appears, will he do more signs than this man has done?”

John 7:32 The Pharisees heard the crowd thus muttering about him, and the chief priests and Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

John 7:33 Jesus then said, “I shall be with you a little longer, and then I go to him who sent me;

John 7:34 you will seek me and you will not find me; where I am you cannot come.”

John 7:35 The Jews said to one another, “Where does this man intend to go that we shall not find him? Does he intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?

John 7:36 What does he mean by saying, `You will seek me and you will not find me,’ and, `Where I am you cannot come’?”

John 7:37 On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and proclaimed, “If any one thirst, let him come to me and drink.

John 7:38 He who believes in me, as the scripture has said, `Out of his heart shall flow rivers of living water.’”

John 7:39 Now this he said about the Spirit, which those who believed in him were to receive; for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

John 7:40 When they heard these words, some of the people said, “This is really the prophet.”

John 7:41 Others said, “This is the Christ.” But some said, “Is the Christ to come from Galilee?

John 7:42 Has not the scripture said that the Christ is descended from David, and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David was?”

John 7:43 So there was a division among the people over him.

John 7:44 Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.

John 7:45 The officers then went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, “Why did you not bring him?”

John 7:46 The officers answered, “No man ever spoke like this man!”

John 7:47 The Pharisees answered them, “Are you led astray, you also?

John 7:48 Have any of the authorities or of the Pharisees believed in him?

John 7:49 But this crowd, who do not know the law, are accursed.”

John 7:50 Nicodemus, who had gone to him before, and who was one of them, said to them,

John 7:51 “Does our law judge a man without first giving him a hearing and learning what he does?”

John 7:52 They replied, “Are you from Galilee too? Search and you will see that no prophet is to rise from Galilee.”

John 7:53 They went each to his own house,

John 8:1 but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

John 8:2 Early in the morning he came again to the temple; all the people came to him, and he sat down and taught them.

John 8:3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery, and placing her in the midst

John 8:4 they said to him, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery.

John 8:5 Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such. What do you say about her?”

John 8:6 This they said to test him, that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground.

John 8:7 And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, “Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her.”

John 8:8 And once more he bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground.

John 8:9 But when they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the eldest, and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.

John 8:10 Jesus looked up and said to her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?”

John 8:11 She said, “No one, Lord.” And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you; go, and do not sin again.”

John 8:12 Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, “I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

John 8:13 The Pharisees then said to him, “You are bearing witness to yourself; your testimony is not true.”

John 8:14 Jesus answered, “Even if I do bear witness to myself, my testimony is true, for I know whence I have come and whither I am going, but you do not know whence I come or whither I am going.

John 8:15 You judge according to the flesh, I judge no one.

John 8:16 Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for it is not I alone that judge, but I and he who sent me.

John 8:17 In your law it is written that the testimony of two men is true;

John 8:18 I bear witness to myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness to me.”

John 8:19 They said to him therefore, “Where is your Father?” Jesus answered, “You know neither me nor my Father; if you knew me, you would know my Father also.”

John 8:20 These words he spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple; but no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

John 8:21 Again he said to them, “I go away, and you will seek me and die in your sin; where I am going, you cannot come.”

John 8:22 Then said the Jews, “Will he kill himself, since he says, `Where I am going, you cannot come’?”

John 8:23 He said to them, “You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world.

John 8:24 I told you that you would die in your sins, for you will die in your sins unless you believe that I am he.”

John 8:25 They said to him, “Who are you?” Jesus said to them, “Even what I have told you from the beginning.

John 8:26 I have much to say about you and much to judge; but he who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from him.”

John 8:27 They did not understand that he spoke to them of the Father.

John 8:28 So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own authority but speak thus as the Father taught me.

John 8:29 And he who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what is pleasing to him.”

John 8:30 As he spoke thus, many believed in him.

John 8:31 Jesus then said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples,

John 8:32 and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.”

John 8:33 They answered him, “We are descendants of Abraham, and have never been in bondage to any one. How is it that you say, `You will be made free’?”

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, every one who commits sin is a slave to sin.

John 8:35 The slave does not continue in the house for ever; the son continues for ever.

John 8:36 So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.

John 8:37 I know that you are descendants of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you.

John 8:38 I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father."

John 8:39 They answered him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do what Abraham did,

John 8:40 but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth which I heard from God; this is not what Abraham did.

John 8:41 You do what your father did." They said to him, "We were not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God."

John 8:42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I proceeded and came forth from God; I came not of my own accord, but he sent me.

John 8:43 Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word.

John 8:44 You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

John 8:45 But, because I tell the truth, you do not believe me.

John 8:46 Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?

John 8:47 He who is of God hears the words of God; the reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God."

John 8:48 The Jews answered him, "Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

John 8:49 Jesus answered, "I have not a demon; but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.

John 8:50 Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is One who seeks it and he will be the judge.

John 8:51 Truly, truly, I say to you, if any one keeps my word, he will never see death."

John 8:52 The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, as did the prophets; and you say, `If any one keeps my word, he will never taste death.'

John 8:53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you claim to be?"

John 8:54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing; it is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is your God.

John 8:55 But you have not known him; I know him. If I said, I do not know him, I should be a liar like you; but I do know him and I keep his word.

John 8:56 Your father Abraham rejoiced that he was to see my day; he saw it and was glad.”

John 8:57 The Jews then said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?”

John 8:58 Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am.”

John 8:59 So they took up stones to throw at him; but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

John 9:1 As he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth.

John 9:2 And his disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

John 9:3 Jesus answered, “It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be made manifest in him.

John 9:4 We must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day; night comes, when no one can work.

John 9:5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

John 9:6 As he said this, he spat on the ground and made clay of the spittle and anointed the man’s eyes with the clay,

John 9:7 saying to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing.

John 9:8 The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar, said, “Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?”

John 9:9 Some said, “It is he”; others said, “No, but he is like him.” He said, “I am the man.”

John 9:10 They said to him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”

John 9:11 He answered, “The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, `Go to Siloam and wash’; so I went and washed and received my sight.”

John 9:12 They said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I do not know.”

John 9:13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind.

John 9:14 Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.

John 9:15 The Pharisees again asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, “He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see.”

John 9:16 Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not keep the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?” There was a division among them.

John 9:17 So they again said to the blind man, “What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?” He said, “He is a prophet.”

John 9:18 The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight,

John 9:19 and asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

John 9:20 His parents answered, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

John 9:21 but how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age, he will speak for himself.”

John 9:22 His parents said this because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if any one should confess him to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue.

John 9:23 Therefore his parents said, “He is of age, ask him.”

John 9:24 So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and said to him, “Give God the praise; we know that this man is a sinner.”

John 9:25 He answered, “Whether he is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I know, that though I was blind, now I see.”

John 9:26 They said to him, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”

John 9:27 He answered them, “I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you too want to become his disciples?”

John 9:28 And they reviled him, saying, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.

John 9:29 We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from.”

John 9:30 The man answered, “Why, this is a marvel! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes.

John 9:31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if any one is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him.

John 9:32 Never since the world began has it been heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind.

John 9:33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.”

John 9:34 They answered him, “You were born in utter sin, and would you teach us?” And they cast him out.

John 9:35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, “Do you believe in the Son of man?”

John 9:36 He answered, “And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?”

John 9:37 Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, and it is he who speaks to you.”

John 9:38 He said, “Lord, I believe”; and he worshiped him.

John 9:39 Jesus said, “For judgment I came into this world, that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may become blind.”

John 9:40 Some of the Pharisees near him heard this, and they said to him, “Are we also blind?”

John 9:41 Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no guilt; but now that you say, `We see,’ your guilt remains.

John 10:1 “Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber;

John 10:2 but he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

John 10:3 To him the gatekeeper opens; the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

John 10:4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.

John 10:5 A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.”

John 10:6 This figure Jesus used with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

John 10:7 So Jesus again said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

John 10:8 All who came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not heed them.

John 10:9 I am the door; if any one enters by me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture.

John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

John 10:11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

John 10:12 He who is a hireling and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.

John 10:13 He flees because he is a hireling and cares nothing for the sheep.

John 10:14 I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me,

John 10:15 as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.

John 10:16 And I have other sheep, that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will heed my voice. So there shall be one flock, one shepherd.

John 10:17 For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again.

John 10:18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again; this charge I have received from my Father."

John 10:19 There was again a division among the Jews because of these words.

John 10:20 Many of them said, "He has a demon, and he is mad; why listen to him?"

John 10:21 Others said, "These are not the sayings of one who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

John 10:22 It was the feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem;

John 10:23 it was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon.

John 10:24 So the Jews gathered round him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

John 10:25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness to me;

John 10:26 but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep.

John 10:27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me;

John 10:28 and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand.

John 10:29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

John 10:30 I and the Father are one."

John 10:31 The Jews took up stones again to stone him.

John 10:32 Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from the Father; for which of these do you stone me?"

John 10:33 The Jews answered him, “It is not for a good work that we stone you but for blasphemy; because you, being a man, make yourself God.”

John 10:34 Jesus answered them, “Is it not written in your law, `I said, you are gods’?

John 10:35 If he called them gods to whom the word of God came (and scripture cannot be broken),

John 10:36 do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, `You are blaspheming,’ because I said, `I am the Son of God’?

John 10:37 If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me;

John 10:38 but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.”

John 10:39 Again they tried to arrest him, but he escaped from their hands.

John 10:40 He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John at first baptized, and there he remained.

John 10:41 And many came to him; and they said, “John did no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true.”

John 10:42 And many believed in him there.

John 11:1 Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

John 11:2 It was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ill.

John 11:3 So the sisters sent to him, saying, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.”

John 11:4 But when Jesus heard it he said, “This illness is not unto death; it is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by means of it.”

John 11:5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

John 11:6 So when he heard that he was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

John 11:7 Then after this he said to the disciples, “Let us go into Judea again.”

John 11:8 The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone you, and are you going there again?”

John 11:9 Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any one walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

John 11:10 But if any one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.”

John 11:11 Thus he spoke, and then he said to them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go to awake him out of sleep.”

John 11:12 The disciples said to him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”

John 11:13 Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he meant taking rest in sleep.

John 11:14 Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead;

John 11:15 and for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”

John 11:16 Thomas, called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with him.”

John 11:17 Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

John 11:18 Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off,

John 11:19 and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother.

John 11:20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary sat in the house.

John 11:21 Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

John 11:22 And even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you.”

John 11:23 Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

John 11:24 Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

John 11:25 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live,

John 11:26 and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?”

John 11:27 She said to him, “Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, he who is coming into the world.”

John 11:28 When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying quietly, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.”

John 11:29 And when she heard it, she rose quickly and went to him.

John 11:30 Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him.

John 11:31 When the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary rise quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

John 11:32 Then Mary, when she came where Jesus was and saw him, fell at his feet, saying to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

John 11:33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled;

John 11:34 and he said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.”

John 11:35 Jesus wept.

John 11:36 So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!”

John 11:37 But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

John 11:38 Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb; it was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

John 11:39 Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days.”

John 11:40 Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?”

John 11:41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, “Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

John 11:42 I knew that thou hearest me always, but I have said this on account of the people standing by, that they may believe that thou didst send me.”

John 11:43 When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out.”

John 11:44 The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with bandages, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

John 11:45 Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him;

John 11:46 but some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

John 11:47 So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the council, and said, “What are we to do? For this man performs many signs.

John 11:48 If we let him go on thus, every one will believe in him, and the Romans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation.”

John 11:49 But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all;

John 11:50 you do not understand that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation should not perish.”

John 11:51 He did not say this of his own accord, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation,

John 11:52 and not for the nation only, but to gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad.

John 11:53 So from that day on they took counsel how to put him to death.

John 11:54 Jesus therefore no longer went about openly among the Jews, but went from there to the country near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim; and there he stayed with the disciples.

John 11:55 Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves.

John 11:56 They were looking for Jesus and saying to one another as they stood in the temple, “What do you think? That he will not come to the feast?”

John 11:57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if any one knew where he was, he should let them know, so that they might arrest him.

John 12:1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead.

John 12:2 There they made him a supper; Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at table with him.

John 12:3 Mary took a pound of costly ointment of pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

John 12:4 But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (he who was to betray him), said,

John 12:5 “Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?”

John 12:6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor but because he was a thief, and as he had the money box he used to take what was put into it.

John 12:7 Jesus said, “Let her alone, let her keep it for the day of my burial.

John 12:8 The poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me.”

John 12:9 When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

John 12:10 So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus also to death,

John 12:11 because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

John 12:12 The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

John 12:13 So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!”

John 12:14 And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as it is written,

John 12:15 “Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass’s colt!”

John 12:16 His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him.

John 12:17 The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness.

John 12:18 The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.

John 12:19 The Pharisees then said to one another, “You see that you can do nothing; look, the world has gone after him.”

John 12:20 Now among those who went up to worship at the feast were some Greeks.

John 12:21 So these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.”

John 12:22 Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew went with Philip and they told Jesus.

John 12:23 And Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified.

John 12:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

John 12:25 He who loves his life loses it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

John 12:26 If any one serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there shall my servant be also; if any one serves me, the Father will honor him.

John 12:27 “Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? `Father, save me from this hour’? No, for this purpose I have come to this hour.

John 12:28 Father, glorify thy name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.”

John 12:29 The crowd standing by heard it and said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.”

John 12:30 Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine.

John 12:31 Now is the judgment of this world, now shall the ruler of this world be cast out;

John 12:32 and I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to myself.”

John 12:33 He said this to show by what death he was to die.

John 12:34 The crowd answered him, “We have heard from the law that the Christ remains for ever. How can you say that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?”

John 12:35 Jesus said to them, “The light is with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, lest the darkness overtake you; he who walks in the darkness does not know where he goes.

John 12:36 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light.” When Jesus had said this, he departed and hid himself from them.

John 12:37 Though he had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe in him;

John 12:38 it was that the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: “Lord, who has believed our report, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”

John 12:39 Therefore they could not believe. For Isaiah again said,

John 12:40 “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes and perceive with their heart, and turn for me to heal them.”

John 12:41 Isaiah said this because he saw his glory and spoke of him.

John 12:42 Nevertheless many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

John 12:43 for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

John 12:44 And Jesus cried out and said, “He who believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me.

John 12:45 And he who sees me sees him who sent me.

John 12:46 I have come as light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness.

John 12:47 If any one hears my sayings and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world.

John 12:48 He who rejects me and does not receive my sayings has a judge; the word that I have spoken will be his judge on the last day.

John 12:49 For I have not spoken on my own authority; the Father who sent me has himself given me commandment what to say and what to speak.

John 12:50 And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has bidden me."

John 13:1 Now before the feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

John 13:2 And during supper, when the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him,

John 13:3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God,

John 13:4 rose from supper, laid aside his garments, and girded himself with a towel.

John 13:5 Then he poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded.

John 13:6 He came to Simon Peter; and Peter said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"

John 13:7 Jesus answered him, "What I am doing you do not know now, but afterward you will understand."

John 13:8 Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part in me."

John 13:9 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!"

John 13:10 Jesus said to him, "He who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but he is clean all over; and you are clean, but not every one of you."

John 13:11 For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, "You are not all clean."

John 13:12 When he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and resumed his place, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?

John 13:13 You call me Teacher and Lord; and you are right, for so I am.

John 13:14 If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet.

John 13:15 For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.

John 13:16 Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him.

John 13:17 If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

John 13:18 I am not speaking of you all; I know whom I have chosen; it is that the scripture may be fulfilled, `He who ate my bread has lifted his heel against me.’

John 13:19 I tell you this now, before it takes place, that when it does take place you may believe that I am he.

John 13:20 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who receives any one whom I send receives me; and he who receives me receives him who sent me.”

John 13:21 When Jesus had thus spoken, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, “Truly, truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me.”

John 13:22 The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom he spoke.

John 13:23 One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was lying close to the breast of Jesus;

John 13:24 so Simon Peter beckoned to him and said, “Tell us who it is of whom he speaks.”

John 13:25 So lying thus, close to the breast of Jesus, he said to him, “Lord, who is it?”

John 13:26 Jesus answered, “It is he to whom I shall give this morsel when I have dipped it.” So when he had dipped the morsel, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

John 13:27 Then after the morsel, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, “What you are going to do, do quickly.”

John 13:28 Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him.

John 13:29 Some thought that, because Judas had the money box, Jesus was telling him, “Buy what we need for the feast”; or, that he should give something to the poor.

John 13:30 So, after receiving the morsel, he immediately went out; and it was night.

John 13:31 When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of man glorified, and in him God is glorified;

John 13:32 if God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him at once.

John 13:33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, `Where I am going you cannot come.'

John 13:34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

John 13:35 By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

John 13:36 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "Where I am going you cannot follow me now; but you shall follow afterward."

John 13:37 Peter said to him, "Lord, why cannot I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

John 13:38 Jesus answered, "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the cock will not crow, till you have denied me three times.

John 14:1 "Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in me.

John 14:2 In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?

John 14:3 And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

John 14:4 And you know the way where I am going."

John 14:5 Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?"

John 14:6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me.

John 14:7 If you had known me, you would have known my Father also; henceforth you know him and have seen him."

John 14:8 Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we shall be satisfied."

John 14:9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you do not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father; how can you say, `Show us the Father'?

John 14:10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority; but the Father who dwells in me does his works.

John 14:11 Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me; or else believe me for the sake of the works themselves.

John 14:12 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I go to the Father.

John 14:13 Whatever you ask in my name, I will do it, that the Father may be glorified in the Son;

John 14:14 if you ask anything in my name, I will do it.

John 14:15 “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

John 14:16 And I will pray the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, to be with you for ever,

John 14:17 even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him; you know him, for he dwells with you, and will be in you.

John 14:18 “I will not leave you desolate; I will come to you.

John 14:19 Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more, but you will see me; because I live, you will live also.

John 14:20 In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

John 14:21 He who has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me; and he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.”

John 14:22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?”

John 14:23 Jesus answered him, “If a man loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

John 14:24 He who does not love me does not keep my words; and the word which you hear is not mine but the Father’s who sent me.

John 14:25 “These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you.

John 14:26 But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.

John 14:28 You heard me say to you, `I go away, and I will come to you.’ If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I go to the Father; for the Father is greater than I.

John 14:29 And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place, you may believe.

John 14:30 I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me;

John 14:31 but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go hence.

John 15:1 “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.

John 15:2 Every branch of mine that bears no fruit, he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.

John 15:3 You are already made clean by the word which I have spoken to you.

John 15:4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me.

John 15:5 I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

John 15:6 If a man does not abide in me, he is cast forth as a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire and burned.

John 15:7 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you.

John 15:8 By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be my disciples.

John 15:9 As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love.

John 15:10 If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love.

John 15:11 These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.

John 15:12 “This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

John 15:13 Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

John 15:14 You are my friends if you do what I command you.

John 15:15 No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

John 15:16 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide; so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

John 15:17 This I command you, to love one another.

John 15:18 “If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you.

John 15:19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.

John 15:20 Remember the word that I said to you, `A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also.

John 15:21 But all this they will do to you on my account, because they do not know him who sent me.

John 15:22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.

John 15:23 He who hates me hates my Father also.

John 15:24 If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would not have sin; but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father.

John 15:25 It is to fulfil the word that is written in their law, `They hated me without a cause.'

John 15:26 But when the Counselor comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness to me;

John 15:27 and you also are witnesses, because you have been with me from the beginning.

John 16:1 "I have said all this to you to keep you from falling away.

John 16:2 They will put you out of the synagogues; indeed, the hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God.

John 16:3 And they will do this because they have not known the Father, nor me.

John 16:4 But I have said these things to you, that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you of them. "I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you.

John 16:5 But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, `Where are you going?'

John 16:6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts.

John 16:7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.

John 16:8 And when he comes, he will convince the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment:

John 16:9 concerning sin, because they do not believe in me;

John 16:10 concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see me no more;

John 16:11 concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

John 16:12 “I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.

John 16:13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.

John 16:14 He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

John 16:15 All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

John 16:16 “A little while, and you will see me no more; again a little while, and you will see me.”

John 16:17 Some of his disciples said to one another, “What is this that he says to us, `A little while, and you will not see me, and again a little while, and you will see me’; and, `because I go to the Father’?”

John 16:18 They said, “What does he mean by `a little while’? We do not know what he means.”

John 16:19 Jesus knew that they wanted to ask him; so he said to them, “Is this what you are asking yourselves, what I meant by saying, `A little while, and you will not see me, and again a little while, and you will see me’?

John 16:20 Truly, truly, I say to you, you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn into joy.

John 16:21 When a woman is in travail she has sorrow, because her hour has come; but when she is delivered of the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a child is born into the world.

John 16:22 So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.

John 16:23 In that day you will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly, I say to you, if you ask anything of the Father, he will give it to you in my name.

John 16:24 Hitherto you have asked nothing in my name; ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

John 16:25 “I have said this to you in figures; the hour is coming when I shall no longer speak to you in figures but tell you plainly of the Father.

John 16:26 In that day you will ask in my name; and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you;

John 16:27 for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from the Father.

John 16:28 I came from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and going to the Father.”

John 16:29 His disciples said, “Ah, now you are speaking plainly, not in any figure!

John 16:30 Now we know that you know all things, and need none to question you; by this we believe that you came from God.”

John 16:31 Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe?

John 16:32 The hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, every man to his home, and will leave me alone; yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me.

John 16:33 I have said this to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.”

John 17:1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify thy Son that the Son may glorify thee,

John 17:2 since thou hast given him power over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom thou hast given him.

John 17:3 And this is eternal life, that they know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

John 17:4 I glorified thee on earth, having accomplished the work which thou gavest me to do;

John 17:5 and now, Father, glorify thou me in thy own presence with the glory which I had with thee before the world was made.

John 17:6 “I have manifested thy name to the men whom thou gavest me out of the world; thine they were, and thou gavest them to me, and they have kept thy word.

John 17:7 Now they know that everything that thou hast given me is from thee;

John 17:8 for I have given them the words which thou gavest me, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from thee; and they have believed that thou didst send me.

John 17:9 I am praying for them; I am not praying for the world but for those whom thou hast given me, for they are thine;

John 17:10 all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

John 17:11 And now I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name, which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are one.

John 17:12 While I was with them, I kept them in thy name, which thou hast given me; I have guarded them, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled.

John 17:13 But now I am coming to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

John 17:14 I have given them thy word; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

John 17:15 I do not pray that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil one.

John 17:16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

John 17:17 Sanctify them in the truth; thy word is truth.

John 17:18 As thou didst send me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.

John 17:19 And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be consecrated in truth.

John 17:20 “I do not pray for these only, but also for those who believe in me through their word,

John 17:21 that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

John 17:22 The glory which thou hast given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one,

John 17:23 I in them and thou in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that thou hast sent me and hast loved them even as thou hast loved me.

John 17:24 Father, I desire that they also, whom thou hast given me, may be with me where I am, to behold my glory which thou hast given me in thy love for me before the foundation of the world.

John 17:25 O righteous Father, the world has not known thee, but I have known thee; and these know that thou hast sent me.

John 17:26 I made known to them thy name, and I will make it known, that the love with which thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

John 18:1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples across the Kidron valley, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered.

John 18:2 Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place; for Jesus often met there with his disciples.

John 18:3 So Judas, procuring a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns and torches and weapons.

John 18:4 Then Jesus, knowing all that was to befall him, came forward and said to them, “Whom do you seek?”

John 18:5 They answered him, “Jesus of Nazareth.” Jesus said to them, “I am he.” Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.

John 18:6 When he said to them, “I am he,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

John 18:7 Again he asked them, “Whom do you seek?” And they said, “Jesus of Nazareth.”

John 18:8 Jesus answered, “I told you that I am he; so, if you seek me, let these men go.”

John 18:9 This was to fulfil the word which he had spoken, “Of those whom thou gavest me I lost not one.”

John 18:10 Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s slave and cut off his right ear. The slave’s name was Malchus.

John 18:11 Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword into its sheath; shall I not drink the cup which the Father has given me?”

John 18:12 So the band of soldiers and their captain and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and bound him.

John 18:13 First they led him to Annas; for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

John 18:14 It was Caiaphas who had given counsel to the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

John 18:15 Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. As this disciple was known to the high priest, he entered the court of the high priest along with Jesus,

John 18:16 while Peter stood outside at the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the maid who kept the door, and brought Peter in.

John 18:17 The maid who kept the door said to Peter, “Are not you also one of this man’s disciples?” He said, “I am not.”

John 18:18 Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves; Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

John 18:19 The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.

John 18:20 Jesus answered him, “I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together; I have said nothing secretly.

John 18:21 Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me, what I said to them; they know what I said.”

John 18:22 When he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying, “Is that how you answer the high priest?”

John 18:23 Jesus answered him, “If I have spoken wrongly, bear witness to the wrong; but if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?”

John 18:24 Annas then sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

John 18:25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said to him, “Are not you also one of his disciples?” He denied it and said, “I am not.”

John 18:26 One of the servants of the high priest, a kinsman of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, “Did I not see you in the garden with him?”

John 18:27 Peter again denied it; and at once the cock crowed.

John 18:28 Then they led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the praetorium. It was early. They themselves did not enter the praetorium, so that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover.

John 18:29 So Pilate went out to them and said, “What accusation do you bring against this man?”

John 18:30 They answered him, “If this man were not an evildoer, we would not have handed him over.”

John 18:31 Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law.” The Jews said to him, “It is not lawful for us to put any man to death.”

John 18:32 This was to fulfil the word which Jesus had spoken to show by what death he was to die.

John 18:33 Pilate entered the praetorium again and called Jesus, and said to him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

John 18:34 Jesus answered, “Do you say this of your own accord, or did others say it to you about me?”

John 18:35 Pilate answered, “Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me; what have you done?”

John 18:36 Jesus answered, “My kingship is not of this world; if my kingship were of this world, my servants would fight, that I might not be handed over to the Jews; but my kingship is not from the world.”

John 18:37 Pilate said to him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Every one who is of the truth hears my voice.”

John 18:38 Pilate said to him, “What is truth?” After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again, and told them, “I find no crime in him.

John 18:39 But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover; will you have me release for you the King of the Jews?”

John 18:40 They cried out again, “Not this man, but Barabbas!” Now Barabbas was a robber.

John 19:1 Then Pilate took Jesus and scourged him.

John 19:2 And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple robe;

John 19:3 they came up to him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” and struck him with their hands.

John 19:4 Pilate went out again, and said to them, “See, I am bringing him out to you, that you may know that I find no crime in him.”

John 19:5 So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, “Behold the man!”

John 19:6 When the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, “Crucify him, crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no crime in him.”

John 19:7 The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he has made himself the Son of God.”

John 19:8 When Pilate heard these words, he was the more afraid;

John 19:9 he entered the praetorium again and said to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave no answer.

John 19:10 Pilate therefore said to him, “You will not speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?”

John 19:11 Jesus answered him, “You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore he who delivered me to you has the greater sin.”

John 19:12 Upon this Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out, “If you release this man, you are not Caesar’s friend; every one who makes himself a king sets himself against Caesar.”

John 19:13 When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

John 19:14 Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover; it was about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, “Behold your King!”

John 19:15 They cried out, “Away with him, away with him, crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar.”

John 19:16 Then he handed him over to them to be crucified.

John 19:17 So they took Jesus, and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha.

John 19:18 There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them.

John 19:19 Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross; it read, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.”

John 19:20 Many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.

John 19:21 The chief priests of the Jews then said to Pilate, “Do not write, `The King of the Jews,’ but, `This man said, I am King of the Jews.’”

John 19:22 Pilate answered, “What I have written I have written.”

John 19:23 When the soldiers had crucified Jesus they took his garments and made four parts, one for each soldier; also his tunic. But the tunic was without seam, woven from top to bottom;

John 19:24 so they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be.” This was to fulfil the scripture, “They parted my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.”

John 19:25 So the soldiers did this. But standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

John 19:26 When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold, your son!”

John 19:27 Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother!” And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

John 19:28 After this Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfil the scripture), “I thirst.”

John 19:29 A bowl full of vinegar stood there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop and held it to his mouth.

John 19:30 When Jesus had received the vinegar, he said, “It is finished”; and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

John 19:31 Since it was the day of Preparation, in order to prevent the bodies from remaining on the cross on the sabbath (for that sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

John 19:32 So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him;

John 19:33 but when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs.

John 19:34 But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water.

John 19:35 He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth—that you also may believe.

John 19:36 For these things took place that the scripture might be fulfilled, “Not a bone of him shall be broken.”

John 19:37 And again another scripture says, “They shall look on him whom they have pierced.”

John 19:38 After this Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him leave. So he came and took away his body.

John 19:39 Nicodemus also, who had at first come to him by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds’ weight.

John 19:40 They took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews.

John 19:41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb where no one had ever been laid.

John 19:42 So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, as the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

John 20:1 Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb.

John 20:2 So she ran, and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.”

John 20:3 Peter then came out with the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb.

John 20:4 They both ran, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first;

John 20:5 and stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in.

John 20:6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; he saw the linen cloths lying,

John 20:7 and the napkin, which had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself.

John 20:8 Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed;

John 20:9 for as yet they did not know the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

John 20:10 Then the disciples went back to their homes.

John 20:11 But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb;

John 20:12 and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet.

John 20:13 They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.”

John 20:14 Saying this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

John 20:15 Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom do you seek?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.”

John 20:16 Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabboni!” (which means Teacher).

John 20:17 Jesus said to her, “Do not hold me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brethren and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.”

John 20:18 Mary Magdalene went and said to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

John 20:19 On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

John 20:20 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

John 20:21 Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you.”

John 20:22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

John 20:23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

John 20:24 Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came.

John 20:25 So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

John 20:26 Eight days later, his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, “Peace be with you.”

John 20:27 Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing.”

John 20:28 Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!”

John 20:29 Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe.”

John 20:30 Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;

John 20:31 but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

John 21:1 After this Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he revealed himself in this way.

John 21:2 Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together.

John 21:3 Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will go with you.” They went out and got into the boat; but that night they caught nothing.

John 21:4 Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

John 21:5 Jesus said to them, “Children, have you any fish?” They answered him, “No.”

John 21:6 He said to them, “Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, for the quantity of fish.

John 21:7 That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his clothes, for he was stripped for work, and sprang into the sea.

John 21:8 But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, but about a hundred yards off.

John 21:9 When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish lying on it, and bread.

John 21:10 Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.”

John 21:11 So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and although there were so many, the net was not torn.

John 21:12 Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” Now none of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord.

John 21:13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish.

John 21:14 This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

John 21:15 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” He said to him, “Feed my lambs.”

John 21:16 A second time he said to him, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” He said to him, “Tend my sheep.”

John 21:17 He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, “Do you love me?” And he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep.

John 21:18 Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you girded yourself and walked where you would; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish to go.”

John 21:19 (This he said to show by what death he was to glorify God.) And after this he said to him, “Follow me.”

John 21:20 Peter turned and saw following them the disciple whom Jesus loved, who had lain close to his breast at the supper and had said, “Lord, who is it that is going to betray you?”

John 21:21 When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, “Lord, what about this man?”

John 21:22 Jesus said to him, “If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow me!”

John 21:23 The saying spread abroad among the brethren that this disciple was not to die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he was not to die, but, “If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?”

John 21:24 This is the disciple who is bearing witness to these things, and who has written these things; and we know that his testimony is true.

John 21:25 But there are also many other things which Jesus did; were every one of them to be written, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.

Acts

1:1 In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, Acts 1:2 until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.

Acts 1:3 To them he presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the kingdom of God.

Acts 1:4 And while staying with them he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, “you heard from me, Acts 1:5 for John baptized with water, but before many days you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 1:6 So when they had come together, they asked him, “Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?”

Acts 1:7 He said to them, “It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has fixed by his own authority.

Acts 1:8 But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth.”

Acts 1:9 And when he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight.

Acts 1:10 And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes,

Acts 1:11 and said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.”

Acts 1:12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day’s journey away;

Acts 1:13 and when they had entered, they went up to the upper room, where they were staying, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judas the son of James.

Acts 1:14 All these with one accord devoted themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

Acts 1:15 In those days Peter stood up among the brethren (the company of persons was in all about a hundred and twenty), and said,

Acts 1:16 “Brethren, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David, concerning Judas who was guide to those who arrested Jesus.

Acts 1:17 For he was numbered among us, and was allotted his share in this ministry.

Acts 1:18 (Now this man bought a field with the reward of his wickedness; and falling headlong he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out.

Acts 1:19 And it became known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

Acts 1:20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, `Let his habitation become desolate, and let there be no one to live in it'; and `His office let another take.'

Acts 1:21 So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

Acts 1:22 beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these men must become with us a witness to his resurrection."

Acts 1:23 And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

Acts 1:24 And they prayed and said, "Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show which one of these two thou hast chosen Acts 1:25 to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside, to go to his own place."

Acts 1:26 And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was enrolled with the eleven apostles.

Acts 2:1 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

Acts 2:2 And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

Acts 2:3 And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them.

Acts 2:4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Acts 2:5 Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven.

Acts 2:6 And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

Acts 2:7 And they were amazed and wondered, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?

Acts 2:8 And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language?

Acts 2:9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Acts 2:10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,

Acts 2:11 Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God.”

Acts 2:12 And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?”

Acts 2:13 But others mocking said, “They are filled with new wine.”

Acts 2:14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words.

Acts 2:15 For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day;

Acts 2:16 but this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

Acts 2:17 `And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams;

Acts 2:18 yea, and on my menservants and my maidservants in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

Acts 2:19 And I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke;

Acts 2:20 the sun shall be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and manifest day.

Acts 2:21 And it shall be that whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’

Acts 2:22 “Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs which God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know —

Acts 2:23 this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men.

Acts 2:24 But God raised him up, having loosed the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it.

Acts 2:25 For David says concerning him, `I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken;

Acts 2:26 therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will dwell in hope.

Acts 2:27 For thou wilt not abandon my soul to Hades, nor let thy Holy One see corruption.

Acts 2:28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou wilt make me full of gladness with thy presence.’

Acts 2:29 “Brethren, I may say to you confidently of the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

Acts 2:30 Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne,

Acts 2:31 he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption.

Acts 2:32 This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses.

Acts 2:33 Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this which you see and hear.

Acts 2:34 For David did not ascend into the heavens; but he himself says, `The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand,

Acts 2:35 till I make thy enemies a stool for thy feet.’

Acts 2:36 Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Acts 2:37 Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brethren, what shall we do?”

Acts 2:38 And Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2:39 For the promise is to you and to your children and to all that are far off, every one whom the Lord our God calls to him.”

Acts 2:40 And he testified with many other words and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation.”

Acts 2:41 So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

Acts 2:42 And they devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Acts 2:43 And fear came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.

Acts 2:44 And all who believed were together and had all things in common;

Acts 2:45 and they sold their possessions and goods and distributed them to all, as any had need.

Acts 2:46 And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they partook of food with glad and generous hearts,

Acts 2:47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

Acts 3:1 Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.

Acts 3:2 And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at that gate of the temple which is called Beautiful to ask alms of those who entered the temple.

Acts 3:3 Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked for alms.

Acts 3:4 And Peter directed his gaze at him, with John, and said, “Look at us.”

Acts 3:5 And he fixed his attention upon them, expecting to receive something from them.

Acts 3:6 But Peter said, “I have no silver and gold, but I give you what I have; in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk.”

Acts 3:7 And he took him by the right hand and raised him up; and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong.

Acts 3:8 And leaping up he stood and walked and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

Acts 3:9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God,

Acts 3:10 and recognized him as the one who sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Acts 3:11 While he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico called Solomon’s, astounded.

Acts 3:12 And when Peter saw it he addressed the people, “Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk?

Acts 3:13 The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified his servant Jesus, whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him.

Acts 3:14 But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you,

Acts 3:15 and killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses.

Acts 3:16 And his name, by faith in his name, has made this man strong whom you see and know; and the faith which is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.

Acts 3:17 “And now, brethren, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers.

Acts 3:18 But what God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled.

Acts 3:19 Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord,

Acts 3:20 and that he may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus,

Acts 3:21 whom heaven must receive until the time for establishing all that God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from of old.

Acts 3:22 Moses said, `The Lord God will raise up for you a prophet from your brethren as he raised me up. You shall listen to him in whatever he tells you.

Acts 3:23 And it shall be that every soul that does not listen to that prophet shall be destroyed from the people.'

Acts 3:24 And all the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and those who came afterwards, also proclaimed these days.

Acts 3:25 You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant which God gave to your fathers, saying to Abraham, `And in your posterity shall all the families of the earth be blessed.'

Acts 3:26 God, having raised up his servant, sent him to you first, to bless you in turning every one of you from your wickedness."

Acts 4:1 And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them,

Acts 4:2 annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

Acts 4:3 And they arrested them and put them in custody until the morrow, for it was already evening.

Acts 4:4 But many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to about five thousand.

Acts 4:5 On the morrow their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem,

Acts 4:6 with Annas the high priest and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family.

Acts 4:7 And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?"

Acts 4:8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders,

Acts 4:9 if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a cripple, by what means this man has been healed,

Acts 4:10 be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by him this man is standing before you well.

Acts 4:11 This is the stone which was rejected by you builders, but which has become the head of the corner.

Acts 4:12 And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.”

Acts 4:13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they wondered; and they recognized that they had been with Jesus.

Acts 4:14 But seeing the man that had been healed standing beside them, they had nothing to say in opposition.

Acts 4:15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred with one another,

Acts 4:16 saying, “What shall we do with these men? For that a notable sign has been performed through them is manifest to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

Acts 4:17 But in order that it may spread no further among the people, let us warn them to speak no more to any one in this name.”

Acts 4:18 So they called them and charged them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

Acts 4:19 But Peter and John answered them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge;

Acts 4:20 for we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard.”

Acts 4:21 And when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for all men praised God for what had happened.

Acts 4:22 For the man on whom this sign of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

Acts 4:23 When they were released they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them.

Acts 4:24 And when they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, “Sovereign Lord, who didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them,

Acts 4:25 who by the mouth of our father David, thy servant, didst say by the Holy Spirit, `Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples imagine vain things?

Acts 4:26 The kings of the earth set themselves in array, and the rulers were gathered together, against the Lord and against his Anointed' —

Acts 4:27 for truly in this city there were gathered together against thy holy servant Jesus, whom thou didst anoint, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel,

Acts 4:28 to do whatever thy hand and thy plan had predestined to take place.

Acts 4:29 And now, Lord, look upon their threats, and grant to thy servants to speak thy word with all boldness, Acts 4:30 while thou stretchest out thy hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of thy holy servant Jesus.”

Acts 4:31 And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God with boldness.

Acts 4:32 Now the company of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had everything in common.

Acts 4:33 And with great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

Acts 4:34 There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of what was sold

Acts 4:35 and laid it at the apostles’ feet; and distribution was made to each as any had need.

Acts 4:36 Thus Joseph who was surnamed by the apostles Barnabas (which means, Son of encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus,

Acts 4:37 sold a field which belonged to him, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

Acts 5:1 But a man named Ananias with his wife Sapphira sold a piece of property,

Acts 5:2 and with his wife’s knowledge he kept back some of the proceeds, and brought only a part and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

Acts 5:3 But Peter said, “Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back part of the proceeds of the land?

Acts 5:4 While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? How is it that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God.”

Acts 5:5 When Ananias heard these words, he fell down and died. And great fear came upon all who heard of it.

Acts 5:6 The young men rose and wrapped him up and carried him out and buried him.

Acts 5:7 After an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

Acts 5:8 And Peter said to her, “Tell me whether you sold the land for so much.” And she said, “Yes, for so much.”

Acts 5:9 But Peter said to her, “How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Hark, the feet of those that have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.”

Acts 5:10 Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. When the young men came in they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

Acts 5:11 And great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all who heard of these things.

Acts 5:12 Now many signs and wonders were done among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon’s Portico.

Acts 5:13 None of the rest dared join them, but the people held them in high honor.

Acts 5:14 And more than ever believers were added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women,

Acts 5:15 so that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and pallets, that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them.

Acts 5:16 The people also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

Acts 5:17 But the high priest rose up and all who were with him, that is, the party of the Sadducees, and filled with jealousy

Acts 5:18 they arrested the apostles and put them in the common prison.

Acts 5:19 But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out and said,

Acts 5:20 “Go and stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this Life.”

Acts 5:21 And when they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and taught. Now the high priest came and those who were with him and called together the council and all the senate of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

Acts 5:22 But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison, and they returned and reported,

Acts 5:23 “We found the prison securely locked and the sentries standing at the doors, but when we opened it we found no one inside.”

Acts 5:24 Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed about them, wondering what this would come to.

Acts 5:25 And some one came and told them, “The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people.”

Acts 5:26 Then the captain with the officers went and brought them, but without violence, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

Acts 5:27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, Acts 5:28 saying, “We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you intend to bring this man’s blood upon us.”

Acts 5:29 But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than men.

Acts 5:30 The God of our fathers raised Jesus whom you killed by hanging him on a tree.

Acts 5:31 God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

Acts 5:32 And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.”

Acts 5:33 When they heard this they were enraged and wanted to kill them.

Acts 5:34 But a Pharisee in the council named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, held in honor by all the people, stood up and ordered the men to be put outside for a while.

Acts 5:35 And he said to them, “Men of Israel, take care what you do with these men.

Acts 5:36 For before these days Theudas arose, giving himself out to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him; but he was slain and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing.

Acts 5:37 After him Judas the Galilean arose in the days of the census and drew away some of the people after him; he also perished, and all who followed him were scattered.

Acts 5:38 So in the present case I tell you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this undertaking is of men, it will fail;

Acts 5:39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You might even be found opposing God!”

Acts 5:40 So they took his advice, and when they had called in the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

Acts 5:41 Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name.

Acts 5:42 And every day in the temple and at home they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

Acts 6:1 Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists murmured against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution.

Acts 6:2 And the twelve summoned the body of the disciples and said, “It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables.

Acts 6:3 Therefore, brethren, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this duty.

Acts 6:4 But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

Acts 6:5 And what they said pleased the whole multitude, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch.

Acts 6:6 These they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands upon them.

Acts 6:7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Acts 6:8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.

Acts 6:9 Then some of those who belonged to the synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called), and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and Asia, arose and disputed with Stephen.

Acts 6:10 But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke.

Acts 6:11 Then they secretly instigated men, who said, “We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God.”

Acts 6:12 And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and they came upon him and seized him and brought him before the council,

Acts 6:13 and set up false witnesses who said, “This man never ceases to speak words against this holy place and the law;

Acts 6:14 for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us.”

Acts 6:15 And gazing at him, all who sat in the council saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Acts 7:1 And the high priest said, “Is this so?”

Acts 7:2 And Stephen said: “Brethren and fathers, hear me. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, Acts 7:3 and said to him, `Depart from your land and from your kindred and go into the land which I will show you.'

Acts 7:4 Then he departed from the land of the Chaldeans, and lived in Haran. And after his father died, God removed him from there into this land in which you are now living;

Acts 7:5 yet he gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot's length, but promised to give it to him in possession and to his posterity after him, though he had no child.

Acts 7:6 And God spoke to this effect, that his posterity would be aliens in a land belonging to others, who would enslave them and ill-treat them four hundred years.

Acts 7:7 `But I will judge the nation which they serve,' said God, `and after that they shall come out and worship me in this place.'

Acts 7:8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

Acts 7:9 "And the patriarchs, jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt; but God was with him,

Acts 7:10 and rescued him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and over all his household.

Acts 7:11 Now there came a famine throughout all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, and our fathers could find no food.

Acts 7:12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time.

Acts 7:13 And at the second visit Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh.

Acts 7:14 And Joseph sent and called to him Jacob his father and all his kindred, seventy-five souls;

Acts 7:15 and Jacob went down into Egypt. And he died, himself and our fathers,

Acts 7:16 and they were carried back to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

Acts 7:17 "But as the time of the promise drew near, which God had granted to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt

Acts 7:18 till there arose over Egypt another king who had not known Joseph.

Acts 7:19 He dealt craftily with our race and forced our fathers to expose their infants, that they might not be kept alive.

Acts 7:20 At this time Moses was born, and was beautiful before God. And he was brought up for three months in his father's house;

Acts 7:21 and when he was exposed, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and brought him up as her own son.

Acts 7:22 And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in his words and deeds.

Acts 7:23 "When he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the sons of Israel.

Acts 7:24 And seeing one of them being wronged, he defended the oppressed man and avenged him by striking the Egyptian.

Acts 7:25 He supposed that his brethren understood that God was giving them deliverance by his hand, but they did not understand.

Acts 7:26 And on the following day he appeared to them as they were quarreling and would have reconciled them, saying, `Men, you are brethren, why do you wrong each other?'

Acts 7:27 But the man who was wronging his neighbor thrust him aside, saying, `Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?

Acts 7:28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'

Acts 7:29 At this retort Moses fled, and became an exile in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

Acts 7:30 "Now when forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush.

Acts 7:31 When Moses saw it he wondered at the sight; and as he drew near to look, the voice of the Lord came,

Acts 7:32 `I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob.' And Moses trembled and did not dare to look.

Acts 7:33 And the Lord said to him, `Take off the shoes from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.

Acts 7:34 I have surely seen the ill-treatment of my people that are in Egypt and heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you to Egypt.'

Acts 7:35 "This Moses whom they refused, saying, `Who made you a ruler and a judge?' God sent as both ruler and deliverer by the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the bush.

Acts 7:36 He led them out, having performed wonders and signs in Egypt and at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.

Acts 7:37 This is the Moses who said to the Israelites, `God will raise up for you a prophet from your brethren as he raised me up.'

Acts 7:38 This is he who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and with our fathers; and he received living oracles to give to us.

Acts 7:39 Our fathers refused to obey him, but thrust him aside, and in their hearts they turned to Egypt,

Acts 7:40 saying to Aaron, `Make for us gods to go before us; as for this Moses who led us out from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'

Acts 7:41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered a sacrifice to the idol and rejoiced in the works of their hands.

Acts 7:42 But God turned and gave them over to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets: `Did you offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices, forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

Acts 7:43 And you took up the tent of Moloch, and the star of the god Rephan, the figures which you made to worship; and I will remove you beyond Babylon.'

Acts 7:44 "Our fathers had the tent of witness in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses directed him to make it, according to the pattern that he had seen.

Acts 7:45 Our fathers in turn brought it in with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations which God thrust out before our fathers. So it was until the days of David,

Acts 7:46 who found favor in the sight of God and asked leave to find a habitation for the God of Jacob.

Acts 7:47 But it was Solomon who built a house for him.

Acts 7:48 Yet the Most High does not dwell in houses made with hands; as the prophet says,

Acts 7:49 `Heaven is my throne, and earth my footstool. What house will you build for me, says the Lord, or what is the place of my rest?

Acts 7:50 Did not my hand make all these things?'

Acts 7:51 "You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you.

Acts 7:52 Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? And they killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whom you have now betrayed and murdered,

Acts 7:53 you who received the law as delivered by angels and did not keep it."

Acts 7:54 Now when they heard these things they were enraged, and they ground their teeth against him.

Acts 7:55 But he, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God;

Acts 7:56 and he said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God."

Acts 7:57 But they cried out with a loud voice and stopped their ears and rushed together upon him.

Acts 7:58 Then they cast him out of the city and stoned him; and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul.

Acts 7:59 And as they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.”

Acts 7:60 And he knelt down and cried with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Acts 8:1 And Saul was consenting to his death. And on that day a great persecution arose against the church in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered throughout the region of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

Acts 8:2 Devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him.

Acts 8:3 But Saul was ravaging the church, and entering house after house, he dragged off men and women and committed them to prison.

Acts 8:4 Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word.

Acts 8:5 Philip went down to a city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Christ.

Acts 8:6 And the multitudes with one accord gave heed to what was said by Philip, when they heard him and saw the signs which he did.

Acts 8:7 For unclean spirits came out of many who were possessed, crying with a loud voice; and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed.

Acts 8:8 So there was much joy in that city.

Acts 8:9 But there was a man named Simon who had previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the nation of Samaria, saying that he himself was somebody great.

Acts 8:10 They all gave heed to him, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is that power of God which is called Great.”

Acts 8:11 And they gave heed to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his magic.

Acts 8:12 But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

Acts 8:13 Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great miracles performed, he was amazed.

Acts 8:14 Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John,

Acts 8:15 who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit;

Acts 8:16 for it had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 8:17 Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:18 Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money,

Acts 8:19 saying, "Give me also this power, that any one on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

Acts 8:20 But Peter said to him, "Your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money!

Acts 8:21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God.

Acts 8:22 Repent therefore of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you.

Acts 8:23 For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity."

Acts 8:24 And Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that nothing of what you have said may come upon me."

Acts 8:25 Now when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

Acts 8:26 But an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Rise and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is a desert road.

Acts 8:27 And he rose and went. And behold, an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a minister of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of all her treasure, had come to Jerusalem to worship

Acts 8:28 and was returning; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

Acts 8:29 And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and join this chariot."

Acts 8:30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

Acts 8:31 And he said, "How can I, unless some one guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

Acts 8:32 Now the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this: "As a sheep led to the slaughter or a lamb before its shearer is dumb, so he opens not his mouth.

Acts 8:33 In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken up from the earth."

Acts 8:34 And the eunuch said to Philip, "About whom, pray, does the prophet say this, about himself or about some one else?"

Acts 8:35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this scripture he told him the good news of Jesus.

Acts 8:36 And as they went along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "See, here is water! What is to prevent my being baptized?"

Acts 8:37

Acts 8:38 And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

Acts 8:39 And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught up Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing.

Acts 8:40 But Philip was found at Azotus, and passing on he preached the gospel to all the towns till he came to Caesarea.

Acts 9:1 But Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest

Acts 9:2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

Acts 9:3 Now as he journeyed he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed about him.

Acts 9:4 And he fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

Acts 9:5 And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And he said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting;

Acts 9:6 but rise and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

Acts 9:7 The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one.

Acts 9:8 Saul arose from the ground; and when his eyes were opened, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

Acts 9:9 And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Acts 9:10 Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

Acts 9:11 And the Lord said to him, “Rise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for a man of Tarsus named Saul; for behold, he is praying, Acts 9:12 and he has seen a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.”

Acts 9:13 But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to thy saints at Jerusalem;

Acts 9:14 and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call upon thy name.”

Acts 9:15 But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a chosen instrument of mine to carry my name before the Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel;

Acts 9:16 for I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.”

Acts 9:17 So Ananias departed and entered the house. And laying his hands on him he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 9:18 And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes and he regained his sight. Then he rose and was baptized,

Acts 9:19 and took food and was strengthened. For several days he was with the disciples at Damascus.

Acts 9:20 And in the synagogues immediately he proclaimed Jesus, saying, “He is the Son of God.”

Acts 9:21 And all who heard him were amazed, and said, “Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem of those who called on this name? And he has come here for this purpose, to bring them bound before the chief priests.”

Acts 9:22 But Saul increased all the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Christ.

Acts 9:23 When many days had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him,

Acts 9:24 but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night, to kill him;

Acts 9:25 but his disciples took him by night and let him down over the wall, lowering him in a basket.

Acts 9:26 And when he had come to Jerusalem he attempted to join the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple.

Acts 9:27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord, who spoke to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.

Acts 9:28 So he went in and out among them at Jerusalem,

Acts 9:29 preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. And he spoke and disputed against the Hellenists; but they were seeking to kill him.

Acts 9:30 And when the brethren knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus.

Acts 9:31 So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was built up; and walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit it was multiplied.

Acts 9:32 Now as Peter went here and there among them all, he came down also to the saints that lived at Lydda.

Acts 9:33 There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years and was paralyzed.

Acts 9:34 And Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you; rise and make your bed.” And immediately he rose.

Acts 9:35 And all the residents of Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

Acts 9:36 Now there was at Joppa a disciple named Tabitha, which means Dorcas. She was full of good works and acts of charity.

Acts 9:37 In those days she fell sick and died; and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room.

Acts 9:38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him entreating him, “Please come to us without delay.”

Acts 9:39 So Peter rose and went with them. And when he had come, they took him to the upper room. All the widows stood beside him weeping, and showing tunics and other garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

Acts 9:40 But Peter put them all outside and knelt down and prayed; then turning to the body he said, “Tabitha, rise.” And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up.

Acts 9:41 And he gave her his hand and lifted her up. Then calling the saints and widows he presented her alive.

Acts 9:42 And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

Acts 9:43 And he stayed in Joppa for many days with one Simon, a tanner.

Acts 10:1 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Cohort,

Acts 10:2 a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms liberally to the people, and prayed constantly to God.

Acts 10:3 About the ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, “Cornelius.”

Acts 10:4 And he stared at him in terror, and said, “What is it, Lord?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God.

Acts 10:5 And now send men to Joppa, and bring one Simon who is called Peter;

Acts 10:6 he is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside.”

Acts 10:7 When the angel who spoke to him had departed, he called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among those that waited on him,

Acts 10:8 and having related everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Acts 10:9 The next day, as they were on their journey and coming near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour.

Acts 10:10 And he became hungry and desired something to eat; but while they were preparing it, he fell into a trance

Acts 10:11 and saw the heaven opened, and something descending, like a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth.

Acts 10:12 In it were all kinds of animals and reptiles and birds of the air.

Acts 10:13 And there came a voice to him, “Rise, Peter; kill and eat.”

Acts 10:14 But Peter said, “No, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean.”

Acts 10:15 And the voice came to him again a second time, “What God has cleansed, you must not call common.”

Acts 10:16 This happened three times, and the thing was taken up at once to heaven.

Acts 10:17 Now while Peter was inwardly perplexed as to what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon’s house, stood before the gate

Acts 10:18 and called out to ask whether Simon who was called Peter was lodging there.

Acts 10:19 And while Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Behold, three men are looking for you.

Acts 10:20 Rise and go down, and accompany them without hesitation; for I have sent them.”

Acts 10:21 And Peter went down to the men and said, “I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for your coming?”

Acts 10:22 And they said, “Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, who is well spoken of by the whole Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house, and to hear what you have to say.”

Acts 10:23 So he called them in to be his guests. The next day he rose and went off with them, and some of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

Acts 10:24 And on the following day they entered Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his kinsmen and close friends.

Acts 10:25 When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.

Acts 10:26 But Peter lifted him up, saying, “Stand up; I too am a man.”

Acts 10:27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found many persons gathered;

Acts 10:28 and he said to them, “You yourselves know how unlawful it is for a Jew to associate with or to visit any one of another nation; but God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

Acts 10:29 So when I was sent for, I came without objection. I ask then why you sent for me.”

Acts 10:30 And Cornelius said, “Four days ago, about this hour, I was keeping the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, a man stood before me in bright apparel,

Acts 10:31 saying, `Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms have been remembered before God.

Acts 10:32 Send therefore to Joppa and ask for Simon who is called Peter; he is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the seaside.’

Acts 10:33 So I sent to you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord.”

Acts 10:34 And Peter opened his mouth and said: “Truly I perceive that God shows no partiality,

Acts 10:35 but in every nation any one who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

Acts 10:36 You know the word which he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all),

Acts 10:37 the word which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism which John preached:

Acts 10:38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

Acts 10:39 And we are witnesses to all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree;

Acts 10:40 but God raised him on the third day and made him manifest;

Acts 10:41 not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

Acts 10:42 And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that he is the one ordained by God to be judge of the living and the dead.

Acts 10:43 To him all the prophets bear witness that every one who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Acts 10:44 While Peter was still saying this, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word.

Acts 10:45 And the believers from among the circumcised who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles.

Acts 10:46 For they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared,

Acts 10:47 "Can any one forbid water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?"

Acts 10:48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days.

Acts 11:1 Now the apostles and the brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God.

Acts 11:2 So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcision party criticized him,

Acts 11:3 saying, "Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?"

Acts 11:4 But Peter began and explained to them in order:

Acts 11:5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, something descending, like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came down to me.

Acts 11:6 Looking at it closely I observed animals and beasts of prey and reptiles and birds of the air.

Acts 11:7 And I heard a voice saying to me, `Rise, Peter; kill and eat.'

Acts 11:8 But I said, `No, Lord; for nothing common or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'

Acts 11:9 But the voice answered a second time from heaven, `What God has cleansed you must not call common.'

Acts 11:10 This happened three times, and all was drawn up again into heaven.

Acts 11:11 At that very moment three men arrived at the house in which we were, sent to me from Caesarea.

Acts 11:12 And the Spirit told me to go with them, making no distinction. These six brethren also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house.

Acts 11:13 And he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, `Send to Joppa and bring Simon called Peter;

Acts 11:14 he will declare to you a message by which you will be saved, you and all your household.'

Acts 11:15 As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them just as on us at the beginning.

Acts 11:16 And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, `John baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

Acts 11:17 If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could withstand God?"

Acts 11:18 When they heard this they were silenced. And they glorified God, saying, "Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance unto life."

Acts 11:19 Now those who were scattered because of the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to none except Jews.

Acts 11:20 But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who on coming to Antioch spoke to the Greeks also, preaching the Lord Jesus.

Acts 11:21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number that believed turned to the Lord.

Acts 11:22 News of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

Acts 11:23 When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad; and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose;

Acts 11:24 for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a large company was added to the Lord.

Acts 11:25 So Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul;

Acts 11:26 and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church, and taught a large company of people; and in Antioch the disciples were for the first time called Christians.

Acts 11:27 Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.

Acts 11:28 And one of them named Agabus stood up and foretold by the Spirit that there would be a great famine over all the world; and this took place in the days of Claudius.

Acts 11:29 And the disciples determined, every one according to his ability, to send relief to the brethren who lived in Judea;

Acts 11:30 and they did so, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Acts 12:1 About that time Herod the king laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church.

Acts 12:2 He killed James the brother of John with the sword;

Acts 12:3 and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread.

Acts 12:4 And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people.

Acts 12:5 So Peter was kept in prison; but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church.

Acts 12:6 The very night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries before the door were guarding the prison;

Acts 12:7 and behold, an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell; and he struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, “Get up quickly.” And the chains fell off his hands.

Acts 12:8 And the angel said to him, “Dress yourself and put on your sandals.” And he did so. And he said to him, “Wrap your mantle around you and follow me.”

Acts 12:9 And he went out and followed him; he did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision.

Acts 12:10 When they had passed the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened to them of its own accord, and they went out and passed on through one street; and immediately the angel left him.

Acts 12:11 And Peter came to himself, and said, “Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.”

Acts 12:12 When he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose other name was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying.

Acts 12:13 And when he knocked at the door of the gateway, a maid named Rhoda came to answer.

Acts 12:14 Recognizing Peter’s voice, in her joy she did not open the gate but ran in and told that Peter was standing at the gate.

Acts 12:15 They said to her, “You are mad.” But she insisted that it was so. They said, “It is his angel!”

Acts 12:16 But Peter continued knocking; and when they opened, they saw him and were amazed.

Acts 12:17 But motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, “Tell this to James and to the brethren.” Then he departed and went to another place.

Acts 12:18 Now when day came, there was no small stir among the soldiers over what had become of Peter.

Acts 12:19 And when Herod had sought for him and could not find him, he examined the sentries and ordered that they should be put to death. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and remained there.

Acts 12:20 Now Herod was angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; and they came to him in a body, and having persuaded Blastus, the king’s chamberlain, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king’s country for food.

Acts 12:21 On an appointed day Herod put on his royal robes, took his seat upon the throne, and made an oration to them.

Acts 12:22 And the people shouted, “The voice of a god, and not of man!”

Acts 12:23 Immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he did not give God the glory; and he was eaten by worms and died.

Acts 12:24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.

Acts 12:25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem when they had fulfilled their mission, bringing with them John whose other name was Mark.

Acts 13:1 Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

Acts 13:2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.”

Acts 13:3 Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Acts 13:4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia; and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

Acts 13:5 When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John to assist them.

Acts 13:6 When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they came upon a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet, named Barjesus.

Acts 13:7 He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of intelligence, who summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God.

Acts 13:8 But Elymas the magician (for that is the meaning of his name) withstood them, seeking to turn away the proconsul from the faith.

Acts 13:9 But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him

Acts 13:10 and said, “You son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, full of all deceit and villainy, will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?

Acts 13:11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind and unable to see the sun for a time.” Immediately mist and darkness fell upon him and he went about seeking people to lead him by the hand.

Acts 13:12 Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had occurred, for he was astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

Acts 13:13 Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. And John left them and returned to Jerusalem;

Acts 13:14 but they passed on from Perga and came to Antioch of Pisidia. And on the sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down.

Acts 13:15 After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, “Brethren, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say it.”

Acts 13:16 So Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said: “Men of Israel, and you that fear God, listen.

Acts 13:17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with uplifted arm he led them out of it.

Acts 13:18 And for about forty years he bore with them in the wilderness.

Acts 13:19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years.

Acts 13:20 And after that he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet.

Acts 13:21 Then they asked for a king; and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.

Acts 13:22 And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king; of whom he testified and said, `I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.'

Acts 13:23 Of this man's posterity God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, as he promised.

Acts 13:24 Before his coming John had preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

Acts 13:25 And as John was finishing his course, he said, `What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. No, but after me one is coming, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'

Acts 13:26 "Brethren, sons of the family of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us has been sent the message of this salvation.

Acts 13:27 For those who live in Jerusalem and their rulers, because they did not recognize him nor understand the utterances of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled these by condemning him.

Acts 13:28 Though they could charge him with nothing deserving death, yet they asked Pilate to have him killed.

Acts 13:29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb.

Acts 13:30 But God raised him from the dead;

Acts 13:31 and for many days he appeared to those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people.

Acts 13:32 And we bring you the good news that what God promised to the fathers,

Acts 13:33 this he has fulfilled to us their children by raising Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, `Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee.'

Acts 13:34 And as for the fact that he raised him from the dead, no more to return to corruption, he spoke in this way, `I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.'

Acts 13:35 Therefore he says also in another psalm, `Thou wilt not let thy Holy One see corruption.'

Acts 13:36 For David, after he had served the counsel of God in his own generation, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw corruption;

Acts 13:37 but he whom God raised up saw no corruption.

Acts 13:38 Let it be known to you therefore, brethren, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you,

Acts 13:39 and by him every one that believes is freed from everything from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses.

Acts 13:40 Beware, therefore, lest there come upon you what is said in the prophets:

Acts 13:41 `Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish; for I do a deed in your days, a deed you will never believe, if one declares it to you.'"

Acts 13:42 As they went out, the people begged that these things might be told them the next sabbath.

Acts 13:43 And when the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

Acts 13:44 The next sabbath almost the whole city gathered together to hear the word of God.

Acts 13:45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted what was spoken by Paul, and reviled him.

Acts 13:46 And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles.

Acts 13:47 For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, `I have set you to be a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.'"

Acts 13:48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of God; and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

Acts 13:49 And the word of the Lord spread throughout all the region.

Acts 13:50 But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district.

Acts 13:51 But they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and went to Iconium.

Acts 13:52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14:1 Now at Iconium they entered together into the Jewish synagogue, and so spoke that a great company believed, both of Jews and of Greeks.

Acts 14:2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brethren.

Acts 14:3 So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who bore witness to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

Acts 14:4 But the people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

Acts 14:5 When an attempt was made by both Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to molest them and to stone them,

Acts 14:6 they learned of it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding country;

Acts 14:7 and there they preached the gospel.

Acts 14:8 Now at Lystra there was a man sitting, who could not use his feet; he was a cripple from birth, who had never walked.

Acts 14:9 He listened to Paul speaking; and Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, Acts 14:10 said in a loud voice, “Stand upright on your feet.” And he sprang up and walked.

Acts 14:11 And when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in Lycaonian, “The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!”

Acts 14:12 Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, because he was the chief speaker, they called Hermes.

Acts 14:13 And the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates and wanted to offer sacrifice with the people.

Acts 14:14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their garments and rushed out among the multitude, crying,

Acts 14:15 “Men, why are you doing this? We also are men, of like nature with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them.

Acts 14:16 In past generations he allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways;

Acts 14:17 yet he did not leave himself without witness, for he did good and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, satisfying your hearts with food and gladness.”

Acts 14:18 With these words they scarcely restrained the people from offering sacrifice to them.

Acts 14:19 But Jews came there from Antioch and Iconium; and having persuaded the people, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

Acts 14:20 But when the disciples gathered about him, he rose up and entered the city; and on the next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe.

Acts 14:21 When they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch,

Acts 14:22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God.

Acts 14:23 And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they believed.

Acts 14:24 Then they passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

Acts 14:25 And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia;

Acts 14:26 and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled.

Acts 14:27 And when they arrived, they gathered the church together and declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles.

Acts 14:28 And they remained no little time with the disciples.

Acts 15:1 But some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brethren, “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.”

Acts 15:2 And when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders about this question.

Acts 15:3 So, being sent on their way by the church, they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, reporting the conversion of the Gentiles, and they gave great joy to all the brethren.

Acts 15:4 When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they declared all that God had done with them.

Acts 15:5 But some believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees rose up, and said, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses.”

Acts 15:6 The apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider this matter.

Acts 15:7 And after there had been much debate, Peter rose and said to them, “Brethren, you know that in the early days God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe.

Acts 15:8 And God who knows the heart bore witness to them, giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us;

Acts 15:9 and he made no distinction between us and them, but cleansed their hearts by faith.

Acts 15:10 Now therefore why do you make trial of God by putting a yoke upon the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?

Acts 15:11 But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will.”

Acts 15:12 And all the assembly kept silence; and they listened to Barnabas and Paul as they related what signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

Acts 15:13 After they finished speaking, James replied, “Brethren, listen to me.

Acts 15:14 Simeon has related how God first visited the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

Acts 15:15 And with this the words of the prophets agree, as it is written,

Acts 15:16 `After this I will return, and I will rebuild the dwelling of David, which has fallen; I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up,

Acts 15:17 that the rest of men may seek the Lord, and all the Gentiles who are called by my name,

Acts 15:18 says the Lord, who has made these things known from of old.’

Acts 15:19 Therefore my judgment is that we should not trouble those of the Gentiles who turn to God,

Acts 15:20 but should write to them to abstain from the pollutions of idols and from unchastity and from what is strangled and from blood.

Acts 15:21 For from early generations Moses has had in every city those who preach him, for he is read every sabbath in the synagogues.”

Acts 15:22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men from among them and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brethren, Acts 15:23 with the following letter: “The brethren, both the apostles and the elders, to the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting.

Acts 15:24 Since we have heard that some persons from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your minds, although we gave them no instructions,

Acts 15:25 it has seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

Acts 15:26 men who have risked their lives for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 15:27 We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who themselves will tell you the same things by word of mouth.

Acts 15:28 For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things:

Acts 15:29 that you abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from unchastity. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell.”

Acts 15:30 So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch; and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter.

Acts 15:31 And when they read it, they rejoiced at the exhortation.

Acts 15:32 And Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, exhorted the brethren with many words and strengthened them.

Acts 15:33 And after they had spent some time, they were sent off in peace by the brethren to those who had sent them.

Acts 15:34

Acts 15:35 But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Acts 15:36 And after some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Come, let us return and visit the brethren in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they are.”

Acts 15:37 And Barnabas wanted to take with them John called Mark.

Acts 15:38 But Paul thought best not to take with them one who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work.

Acts 15:39 And there arose a sharp contention, so that they separated from each other; Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus,

Acts 15:40 but Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord.

Acts 15:41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Acts 16:1 And he came also to Derbe and to Lystra. A disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer; but his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:2 He was well spoken of by the brethren at Lystra and Iconium.

Acts 16:3 Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him; and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:4 As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered to them for observance the decisions which had been reached by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.

Acts 16:5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and they increased in numbers daily.

Acts 16:6 And they went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.

Acts 16:7 And when they had come opposite Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them;

Acts 16:8 so, passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas.

Acts 16:9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia was standing beseeching him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.”

Acts 16:10 And when he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go on into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Acts 16:11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a direct voyage to Samothrace, and the following day to Neapolis,

Acts 16:12 and from there to Philippi, which is the leading city of the district of Macedonia, and a Roman colony. We remained in this city some days;

Acts 16:13 and on the sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together.

Acts 16:14 One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to give heed to what was said by Paul.

Acts 16:15 And when she was baptized, with her household, she besought us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay.” And she prevailed upon us.

Acts 16:16 As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by soothsaying.

Acts 16:17 She followed Paul and us, crying, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation.”

Acts 16:18 And this she did for many days. But Paul was annoyed, and turned and said to the spirit, “I charge you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And it came out that very hour.

Acts 16:19 But when her owners saw that their hope of gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market place before the rulers;

Acts 16:20 and when they had brought them to the magistrates they said, “These men are Jews and they are disturbing our city.

Acts 16:21 They advocate customs which it is not lawful for usRomans to accept or practice.”

Acts 16:22 The crowd joined in attacking them; and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat them with rods.

Acts 16:23 And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely.

Acts 16:24 Having received this charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

Acts 16:25 But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them,

Acts 16:26 and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and every one’s fetters were unfastened.

Acts 16:27 When the jailer woke and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

Acts 16:28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, “Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.”

Acts 16:29 And he called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas,

Acts 16:30 and brought them out and said, “Men, what must I do to be saved?”

Acts 16:31 And they said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.”

Acts 16:32 And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all that were in his house.

Acts 16:33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their wounds, and he was baptized at once, with all his family.

Acts 16:34 Then he brought them up into his house, and set food before them; and he rejoiced with all his household that he had believed in God.

Acts 16:35 But when it was day, the magistrates sent the police, saying, “Let those men go.”

Acts 16:36 And the jailer reported the words to Paul, saying, “The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out and go in peace.”

Acts 16:37 But Paul said to them, “They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men who are Roman citizens, and have thrown us into prison; and do they now cast us out secretly? No! let them come themselves and take us out.”

Acts 16:38 The police reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Roman citizens;

Acts 16:39 so they came and apologized to them. And they took them out and asked them to leave the city.

Acts 16:40 So they went out of the prison, and visited Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they exhorted them and departed.

Acts 17:1 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

Acts 17:2 And Paul went in, as was his custom, and for three weeks he argued with them from the scriptures,

Acts 17:3 explaining and proving that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and saying, “This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ.”

Acts 17:4 And some of them were persuaded, and joined Paul and Silas; as did a great many of the devout Greeks and not a few of the leading women.

Acts 17:5 But the Jews were jealous, and taking some wicked fellows of the rabble, they gathered a crowd, set the city in an uproar, and attacked the house of Jason, seeking to bring them out to the people.

Acts 17:6 And when they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brethren before the city authorities, crying, “These men who have turned the world upside down have come here also,

Acts 17:7 and Jason has received them; and they are all acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus.”

Acts 17:8 And the people and the city authorities were disturbed when they heard this.

Acts 17:9 And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

Acts 17:10 The brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Beroea; and when they arrived they went into the Jewish synagogue.

Acts 17:11 Now these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica, for they received the word with all eagerness, examining the scriptures daily to see if these things were so.

Acts 17:12 Many of them therefore believed, with not a few Greek women of high standing as well as men.

Acts 17:13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Beroea also, they came there too, stirring up and inciting the crowds.

Acts 17:14 Then the brethren immediately sent Paul off on his way to the sea, but Silas and Timothy remained there.

Acts 17:15 Those who conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens; and receiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they departed.

Acts 17:16 Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw that the city was full of idols.

Acts 17:17 So he argued in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the market place every day with those who chanced to be there.

Acts 17:18 Some also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers met him. And some said, “What would this babbler say?” Others said, “He seems to be a preacher of foreign divinities”—because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.

Acts 17:19 And they took hold of him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is which you present?

Acts 17:20 For you bring some strange things to our ears; we wish to know therefore what these things mean.”

Acts 17:21 Now all the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there spent their time in nothing except telling or hearing something new.

Acts 17:22 So Paul, standing in the middle of the Areopagus, said: “Men of Athens, I perceive that in every way you are very religious.

Acts 17:23 For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, `To an unknown god.’ What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you.

Acts 17:24 The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by man,

Acts 17:25 nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all men life and breath and everything.

Acts 17:26 And he made from one every nation of men to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their habitation,

Acts 17:27 that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel after him and find him. Yet he is not far from each one of us, Acts 17:28 for `In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your poets have said, `For we are indeed his offspring.'

Acts 17:29 Being then God's offspring, we ought not to think that the Deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, a representation by the art and imagination of man.

Acts 17:30 The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all men everywhere to repent,

Acts 17:31 because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all men by raising him from the dead."

Acts 17:32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We will hear you again about this."

Acts 17:33 So Paul went out from among them.

Acts 17:34 But some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.

Acts 18:1 After this he left Athens and went to Corinth.

Acts 18:2 And he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, lately come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. And he went to see them;

Acts 18:3 and because he was of the same trade he stayed with them, and they worked, for by trade they were tentmakers.

Acts 18:4 And he argued in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks.

Acts 18:5 When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul was occupied with preaching, testifying to the Jews that the Christ was Jesus.

Acts 18:6 And when they opposed and reviled him, he shook out his garments and said to them, "Your blood be upon your heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

Acts 18:7 And he left there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God; his house was next door to the synagogue.

Acts 18:8 Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, together with all his household; and many of the Corinthians hearing Paul believed and were baptized.

Acts 18:9 And the Lord said to Paul one night in a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent;

Acts 18:10 for I am with you, and no man shall attack you to harm you; for I have many people in this city."

Acts 18:11 And he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

Acts 18:12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack upon Paul and brought him before the tribunal,

Acts 18:13 saying, “This man is persuading men to worship God contrary to the law.”

Acts 18:14 But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If it were a matter of wrongdoing or vicious crime, I should have reason to bear with you, O Jews;

Acts 18:15 but since it is a matter of questions about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves; I refuse to be a judge of these things.”

Acts 18:16 And he drove them from the tribunal.

Acts 18:17 And they all seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the tribunal. But Gallio paid no attention to this.

Acts 18:18 After this Paul stayed many days longer, and then took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchreae he cut his hair, for he had a vow.

Acts 18:19 And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself went into the synagogue and argued with the Jews.

Acts 18:20 When they asked him to stay for a longer period, he declined;

Acts 18:21 but on taking leave of them he said, “I will return to you if God wills,” and he set sail from Ephesus.

Acts 18:22 When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and then went down to Antioch.

Acts 18:23 After spending some time there he departed and went from place to place through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

Acts 18:24 Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, well versed in the scriptures.

Acts 18:25 He had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John.

Acts 18:26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue; but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him and expounded to him the way of God more accurately.

Acts 18:27 And when he wished to cross to Achaia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed,

Acts 18:28 for he powerfully confuted the Jews in public, showing by the scriptures that the Christ was Jesus.

Acts 19:1 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples.

Acts 19:2 And he said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” And they said, “No, we have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

Acts 19:3 And he said, “Into what then were you baptized?” They said, “Into John’s baptism.”

Acts 19:4 And Paul said, “John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus.”

Acts 19:5 On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 19:6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with tongues and prophesied.

Acts 19:7 There were about twelve of them in all.

Acts 19:8 And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, arguing and pleading about the kingdom of God;

Acts 19:9 but when some were stubborn and disbelieved, speaking evil of the Way before the congregation, he withdrew from them, taking the disciples with him, and argued daily in the hall of Tyrannus.

Acts 19:10 This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

Acts 19:11 And God did extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul,

Acts 19:12 so that handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them.

Acts 19:13 Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists undertook to pronounce the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, “I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches.”

Acts 19:14 Seven sons of a Jewish high priest named Sceva were doing this.

Acts 19:15 But the evil spirit answered them, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?”

Acts 19:16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, mastered all of them, and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

Acts 19:17 And this became known to all residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks; and fear fell upon them all; and the name of the Lord Jesus was extolled.

Acts 19:18 Many also of those who were now believers came, confessing and divulging their practices.

Acts 19:19 And a number of those who practiced magic arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all; and they counted the value of them and found it came to fifty thousand pieces of silver.

Acts 19:20 So the word of the Lord grew and prevailed mightily.

Acts 19:21 Now after these events Paul resolved in the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia and go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

Acts 19:22 And having sent into Macedonia two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

Acts 19:23 About that time there arose no little stir concerning the Way.

Acts 19:24 For a man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen.

Acts 19:25 These he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Men, you know that from this business we have our wealth.

Acts 19:26 And you see and hear that not only at Ephesus but almost throughout all Asia this Paul has persuaded and turned away a considerable company of people, saying that gods made with hands are not gods.

Acts 19:27 And there is danger not only that this trade of ours may come into disrepute but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis may count for nothing, and that she may even be deposed from her magnificence, she whom all Asia and the world worship."

Acts 19:28 When they heard this they were enraged, and cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

Acts 19:29 So the city was filled with the confusion; and they rushed together into the theater, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul's companions in travel.

Acts 19:30 Paul wished to go in among the crowd, but the disciples would not let him;

Acts 19:31 some of the Asiarchs also, who were friends of his, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater.

Acts 19:32 Now some cried one thing, some another; for the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had come together.

Acts 19:33 Some of the crowd prompted Alexander, whom the Jews had put forward. And Alexander motioned with his hand, wishing to make a defense to the people.

Acts 19:34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, for about two hours they all with one voice cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

Acts 19:35 And when the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, “Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great Artemis, and of the sacred stone that fell from the sky?

Acts 19:36 Seeing then that these things cannot be contradicted, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rash.

Acts 19:37 For you have brought these men here who are neither sacrilegious nor blasphemers of our goddess.

Acts 19:38 If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a complaint against any one, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges against one another.

Acts 19:39 But if you seek anything further, it shall be settled in the regular assembly.

Acts 19:40 For we are in danger of being charged with rioting today, there being no cause that we can give to justify this commotion.”

Acts 19:41 And when he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts 20:1 After the uproar ceased, Paul sent for the disciples and having exhorted them took leave of them and departed for Macedonia.

Acts 20:2 When he had gone through these parts and had given them much encouragement, he came to Greece.

Acts 20:3 There he spent three months, and when a plot was made against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia.

Acts 20:4 Sopater of Beroea, the son of Pyrrhus, accompanied him; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and the Asians, Tychicus and Trophimus.

Acts 20:5 These went on and were waiting for us at Troas,

Acts 20:6 but we sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we came to them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

Acts 20:7 On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and he prolonged his speech until midnight.

Acts 20:8 There were many lights in the upper chamber where we were gathered.

Acts 20:9 And a young man named Eutychus was sitting in the window. He sank into a deep sleep as Paul talked still longer; and being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead.

Acts 20:10 But Paul went down and bent over him, and embracing him said, “Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him.”

Acts 20:11 And when Paul had gone up and had broken bread and eaten, he conversed with them a long while, until daybreak, and so departed.

Acts 20:12 And they took the lad away alive, and were not a little comforted.

Acts 20:13 But going ahead to the ship, we set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there; for so he had arranged, intending himself to go by land.

Acts 20:14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene.

Acts 20:15 And sailing from there we came the following day opposite Chios; the next day we touched at Samos; and the day after that we came to Miletus.

Acts 20:16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

Acts 20:17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called to him the elders of the church.

Acts 20:18 And when they came to him, he said to them: “You yourselves know how I lived among you all the time from the first day that I set foot in Asia,

Acts 20:19 serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and with trials which befell me through the plots of the Jews;

Acts 20:20 how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you in public and from house to house,

Acts 20:21 testifying both to Jews and to Greeks of repentance to God and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 20:22 And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, bound in the Spirit, not knowing what shall befall me there;

Acts 20:23 except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and afflictions await me.

Acts 20:24 But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may accomplish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

Acts 20:25 And now, behold, I know that all you among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom will see my face no more.

Acts 20:26 Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all of you,

Acts 20:27 for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God.

Acts 20:28 Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God which he obtained with the blood of his own Son.

Acts 20:29 I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock;

Acts 20:30 and from among your own selves will arise men speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.

Acts 20:31 Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to admonish every one with tears.

Acts 20:32 And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

Acts 20:33 I coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel.

Acts 20:34 You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those who were with me.

Acts 20:35 In all things I have shown you that by so toiling one must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, `It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

Acts 20:36 And when he had spoken thus, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

Acts 20:37 And they all wept and embraced Paul and kissed him,

Acts 20:38 sorrowing most of all because of the word he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they brought him to the ship.

Acts 21:1 And when we had parted from them and set sail, we came by a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

Acts 21:2 And having found a ship crossing to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail.

Acts 21:3 When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload its cargo.

Acts 21:4 And having sought out the disciples, we stayed there for seven days. Through the Spirit they told Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:5 And when our days there were ended, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, brought us on our way till we were outside the city; and kneeling down on the beach we prayed and bade one another farewell.

Acts 21:6 Then we went on board the ship, and they returned home.

Acts 21:7 When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we greeted the brethren and stayed with them for one day.

Acts 21:8 On the morrow we departed and came to Caesarea; and we entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.

Acts 21:9 And he had four unmarried daughters, who prophesied.

Acts 21:10 While we were staying for some days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

Acts 21:11 And coming to us he took Paul's girdle and bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, `So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this girdle and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

Acts 21:12 When we heard this, we and the people there begged him not to go up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be imprisoned but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

Acts 21:14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased and said, "The will of the Lord be done."

Acts 21:15 After these days we made ready and went up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:16 And some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us, bringing us to the house of Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

Acts 21:17 When we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

Acts 21:18 On the following day Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present.

Acts 21:19 After greeting them, he related one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

Acts 21:20 And when they heard it, they glorified God. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed; they are all zealous for the law,

Acts 21:21 and they have been told about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or observe the customs.

Acts 21:22 What then is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.

Acts 21:23 Do therefore what we tell you. We have four men who are under a vow;

Acts 21:24 take these men and purify yourself along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may shave their heads. Thus all will know that there is nothing in what they have been told about you but that you yourself live in observance of the law.

Acts 21:25 But as for the Gentiles who have believed, we have sent a letter with our judgment that they should abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from unchastity.”

Acts 21:26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day he purified himself with them and went into the temple, to give notice when the days of purification would be fulfilled and the offering presented for every one of them.

Acts 21:27 When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, who had seen him in the temple, stirred up all the crowd, and laid hands on him,

Acts 21:28 crying out, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who is teaching men everywhere against the people and the law and this place; moreover he also brought Greeks into the temple, and he has defiled this holy place.”

Acts 21:29 For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

Acts 21:30 Then all the city was aroused, and the people ran together; they seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and at once the gates were shut.

Acts 21:31 And as they were trying to kill him, word came to the tribune of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion.

Acts 21:32 He at once took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them; and when they saw the tribune and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

Acts 21:33 Then the tribune came up and arrested him, and ordered him to be bound with two chains. He inquired who he was and what he had done.

Acts 21:34 Some in the crowd shouted one thing, some another; and as he could not learn the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into the barracks.

Acts 21:35 And when he came to the steps, he was actually carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd;

Acts 21:36 for the mob of the people followed, crying, “Away with him!”

Acts 21:37 As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the tribune, “May I say something to you?” And he said, “Do you know Greek?

Acts 21:38 Are you not the Egyptian, then, who recently stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand men of the Assassins out into the wilderness?”

Acts 21:39 Paul replied, “I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; I beg you, let me speak to the people.”

Acts 21:40 And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing on the steps, motioned with his hand to the people; and when there was a great hush, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying:

Acts 22:1 “Brethren and fathers, hear the defense which I now make before you.”

Acts 22:2 And when they heard that he addressed them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet. And he said:

Acts 22:3 “I am a Jew, born at Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, educated according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God as you all are this day.

Acts 22:4 I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering to prison both men and women,

Acts 22:5 as the high priest and the whole council of elders bear me witness. From them I received letters to the brethren, and I journeyed to Damascus to take those also who were there and bring them in bonds to Jerusalem to be punished.

Acts 22:6 “As I made my journey and drew near to Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly shone about me.

Acts 22:7 And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, `Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?’

Acts 22:8 And I answered, `Who are you, Lord?’ And he said to me, `I am Jesus of Nazareth whom you are persecuting.’

Acts 22:9 Now those who were with me saw the light but did not hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me.

Acts 22:10 And I said, `What shall I do, Lord?’ And the Lord said to me, `Rise, and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all that is appointed for you to do.’

Acts 22:11 And when I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me, and came into Damascus.

Acts 22:12 “And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there,

Acts 22:13 came to me, and standing by me said to me, `Brother Saul, receive your sight.’ And in that very hour I received my sight and saw him.

Acts 22:14 And he said, `The God of our fathers appointed you to know his will, to see the Just One and to hear a voice from his mouth;

Acts 22:15 for you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard.

Acts 22:16 And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name.'

Acts 22:17 "When I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance

Acts 22:18 and saw him saying to me, `Make haste and get quickly out of Jerusalem, because they will not accept your testimony about me.'

Acts 22:19 And I said, `Lord, they themselves know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in thee.

Acts 22:20 And when the blood of Stephen thy witness was shed, I also was standing by and approving, and keeping the garments of those who killed him.'

Acts 22:21 And he said to me, `Depart; for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

Acts 22:22 Up to this word they listened to him; then they lifted up their voices and said, "Away with such a fellow from the earth! For he ought not to live."

Acts 22:23 And as they cried out and waved their garments and threw dust into the air,

Acts 22:24 the tribune commanded him to be brought into the barracks, and ordered him to be examined by scourging, to find out why they shouted thus against him.

Acts 22:25 But when they had tied him up with the thongs, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman citizen, and uncondemned?"

Acts 22:26 When the centurion heard that, he went to the tribune and said to him, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman citizen."

Acts 22:27 So the tribune came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" And he said, "Yes."

Acts 22:28 The tribune answered, "I bought this citizenship for a large sum." Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."

Acts 22:29 So those who were about to examine him withdrew from him instantly; and the tribune also was afraid, for he realized that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had bound him.

Acts 22:30 But on the morrow, desiring to know the real reason why the Jews accused him, he unbound him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to meet, and he brought Paul down and set him before them.

Acts 23:1 And Paul, looking intently at the council, said, "Brethren, I have lived before God in all good conscience up to this day."

Acts 23:2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

Acts 23:3 Then Paul said to him, “God shall strike you, you whitewashed wall! Are you sitting to judge me according to the law, and yet contrary to the law you order me to be struck?”

Acts 23:4 Those who stood by said, “Would you revile God’s high priest?”

Acts 23:5 And Paul said, “I did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written, `You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”

Acts 23:6 But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, “Brethren, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; with respect to the hope and the resurrection of the dead I am on trial.”

Acts 23:7 And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the assembly was divided.

Acts 23:8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.

Acts 23:9 Then a great clamor arose; and some of the scribes of the Pharisees’ party stood up and contended, “We find nothing wrong in this man. What if a spirit or an angel spoke to him?”

Acts 23:10 And when the dissension became violent, the tribune, afraid that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them and bring him into the barracks.

Acts 23:11 The following night the Lord stood by him and said, “Take courage, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must bear witness also at Rome.”

Acts 23:12 When it was day, the Jews made a plot and bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

Acts 23:13 There were more than forty who made this conspiracy.

Acts 23:14 And they went to the chief priests and elders, and said, “We have strictly bound ourselves by an oath to taste no food till we have killed Paul.

Acts 23:15 You therefore, along with the council, give notice now to the tribune to bring him down to you, as though you were going to determine his case more exactly. And we are ready to kill him before he comes near.”

Acts 23:16 Now the son of Paul’s sister heard of their ambush; so he went and entered the barracks and told Paul.

Acts 23:17 And Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the tribune; for he has something to tell him.”

Acts 23:18 So he took him and brought him to the tribune and said, “Paul the prisoner called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, as he has something to say to you.”

Acts 23:19 The tribune took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?”

Acts 23:20 And he said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire somewhat more closely about him.

Acts 23:21 But do not yield to them; for more than forty of their men lie in ambush for him, having bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you.”

Acts 23:22 So the tribune dismissed the young man, charging him, “Tell no one that you have informed me of this.”

Acts 23:23 Then he called two of the centurions and said, “At the third hour of the night get ready two hundred soldiers with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen to go as far as Caesarea.

Acts 23:24 Also provide mounts for Paul to ride, and bring him safely to Felix the governor.”

Acts 23:25 And he wrote a letter to this effect:

Acts 23:26 “Claudius Lysias to his Excellency the governor Felix, greeting.

Acts 23:27 This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came upon them with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman citizen.

Acts 23:28 And desiring to know the charge on which they accused him, I brought him down to their council.

Acts 23:29 I found that he was accused about questions of their law, but charged with nothing deserving death or imprisonment.

Acts 23:30 And when it was disclosed to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, ordering his accusers also to state before you what they have against him.”

Acts 23:31 So the soldiers, according to their instructions, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

Acts 23:32 And on the morrow they returned to the barracks, leaving the horsemen to go on with him.

Acts 23:33 When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul also before him.

Acts 23:34 On reading the letter, he asked to what province he belonged. When he learned that he was from Cilicia

Acts 23:35 he said, “I will hear you when your accusers arrive.” And he commanded him to be guarded in Herod’s praetorium.

Acts 24:1 And after five days the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and a spokesman, one Tertullus. They laid before the governor their case against Paul;

Acts 24:2 and when he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying: “Since through you we enjoy much peace, and since by your provision, most excellent Felix, reforms are introduced on behalf of this nation,

Acts 24:3 in every way and everywhere we accept this with all gratitude.

Acts 24:4 But, to detain you no further, I beg you in your kindness to hear us briefly.

Acts 24:5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, an agitator among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

Acts 24:6 He even tried to profane the temple, but we seized him.

Acts 24:7

Acts 24:8 By examining him yourself you will be able to learn from him about everything of which we accuse him.”

Acts 24:9 The Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that all this was so.

Acts 24:10 And when the governor had motioned to him to speak, Paul replied: “Realizing that for many years you have been judge over this nation, I cheerfully make my defense.

Acts 24:11 As you may ascertain, it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem;

Acts 24:12 and they did not find me disputing with any one or stirring up a crowd, either in the temple or in the synagogues, or in the city.

Acts 24:13 Neither can they prove to you what they now bring up against me.

Acts 24:14 But this I admit to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the law or written in the prophets,

Acts 24:15 having a hope in God which these themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust.

Acts 24:16 So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward God and toward men.

Acts 24:17 Now after some years I came to bring to my nation alms and offerings.

Acts 24:18 As I was doing this, they found me purified in the temple, without any crowd or tumult. But some Jews from Asia —

Acts 24:19 they ought to be here before you and to make an accusation, if they have anything against me.

Acts 24:20 Or else let these men themselves say what wrongdoing they found when I stood before the council,

Acts 24:21 except this one thing which I cried out while standing among them, `With respect to the resurrection of the dead I am on trial before you this day.'"

Acts 24:22 But Felix, having a rather accurate knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, "When Lysias the tribune comes down, I will decide your case."

Acts 24:23 Then he gave orders to the centurion that he should be kept in custody but should have some liberty, and that none of his friends should be prevented from attending to his needs.

Acts 24:24 After some days Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess; and he sent for Paul and heard him speak upon faith in Christ Jesus.

Acts 24:25 And as he argued about justice and self-control and future judgment, Felix was alarmed and said, "Go away for the present; when I have an opportunity I will summon you."

Acts 24:26 At the same time he hoped that money would be given him by Paul. So he sent for him often and conversed with him.

Acts 24:27 But when two years had elapsed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and desiring to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

Acts 25:1 Now when Festus had come into his province, after three days he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.

Acts 25:2 And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they urged him,

Acts 25:3 asking as a favor to have the man sent to Jerusalem, planning an ambush to kill him on the way.

Acts 25:4 Festus replied that Paul was being kept at Caesarea, and that he himself intended to go there shortly.

Acts 25:5 "So," said he, "let the men of authority among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong about the man, let them accuse him."

Acts 25:6 When he had stayed among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and the next day he took his seat on the tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought.

Acts 25:7 And when he had come, the Jews who had gone down from Jerusalem stood about him, bringing against him many serious charges which they could not prove.

Acts 25:8 Paul said in his defense, “Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended at all.”

Acts 25:9 But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, said to Paul, “Do you wish to go up to Jerusalem, and there be tried on these charges before me?”

Acts 25:10 But Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s tribunal, where I ought to be tried; to the Jews I have done no wrong, as you know very well.

Acts 25:11 If then I am a wrongdoer, and have committed anything for which I deserve to die, I do not seek to escape death; but if there is nothing in their charges against me, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar.”

Acts 25:12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with his council, answered, “You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you shall go.”

Acts 25:13 Now when some days had passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to welcome Festus.

Acts 25:14 And as they stayed there many days, Festus laid Paul’s case before the king, saying, “There is a man left prisoner by Felix;

Acts 25:15 and when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews gave information about him, asking for sentence against him.

Acts 25:16 I answered them that it was not the custom of the Romans to give up any one before the accused met the accusers face to face, and had opportunity to make his defense concerning the charge laid against him.

Acts 25:17 When therefore they came together here, I made no delay, but on the next day took my seat on the tribunal and ordered the man to be brought in.

Acts 25:18 When the accusers stood up, they brought no charge in his case of such evils as I supposed;

Acts 25:19 but they had certain points of dispute with him about their own superstition and about one Jesus, who was dead, but whom Paul asserted to be alive.

Acts 25:20 Being at a loss how to investigate these questions, I asked whether he wished to go to Jerusalem and be tried there regarding them.

Acts 25:21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept in custody for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be held until I could send him to Caesar.”

Acts 25:22 And Agrippa said to Festus, “I should like to hear the man myself.” “Tomorrow,” said he, “you shall hear him.”

Acts 25:23 So on the morrow Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp, and they entered the audience hall with the military tribunes and the prominent men of the city. Then by command of Festus Paul was brought in.

Acts 25:24 And Festus said, “King Agrippa and all who are present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Jewish people petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.

Acts 25:25 But I found that he had done nothing deserving death; and as he himself appealed to the emperor, I decided to send him.

Acts 25:26 But I have nothing definite to write to my lord about him. Therefore I have brought him before you, and, especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after we have examined him, I may have something to write.

Acts 25:27 For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to indicate the charges against him.”

Acts 26:1 Agrippa said to Paul, “You have permission to speak for yourself.” Then Paul stretched out his hand and made his defense:

Acts 26:2 “I think myself fortunate that it is before you, King Agrippa, I am to make my defense today against all the accusations of the Jews,

Acts 26:3 because you are especially familiar with all customs and controversies of the Jews; therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

Acts 26:4 “My manner of life from my youth, spent from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem, is known by all the Jews.

Acts 26:5 They have known for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that according to the strictest party of our religion I have lived as a Pharisee.

Acts 26:6 And now I stand here on trial for hope in the promise made by God to our fathers,

Acts 26:7 to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day. And for this hope I am accused by Jews, O king!

Acts 26:8 Why is it thought incredible by any of you that God raises the dead?

Acts 26:9 “I myself was convinced that I ought to do many things in opposing the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

Acts 26:10 And I did so in Jerusalem; I not only shut up many of the saints in prison, by authority from the chief priests, but when they were put to death I cast my vote against them.

Acts 26:11 And I punished them often in all the synagogues and tried to make them blaspheme; and in raging fury against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

Acts 26:12 “Thus I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests.

Acts 26:13 At midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining round me and those who journeyed with me.

Acts 26:14 And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, `Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It hurts you to kick against the goads.’

Acts 26:15 And I said, `Who are you, Lord?’ And the Lord said, `I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

Acts 26:16 But rise and stand upon your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you to serve and bear witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you,

Acts 26:17 delivering you from the people and from the Gentiles—to whom I send you

Acts 26:18 to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’

Acts 26:19 “Wherefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision,

Acts 26:20 but declared first to those at Damascus, then at Jerusalem and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and perform deeds worthy of their repentance.

Acts 26:21 For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.

Acts 26:22 To this day I have had the help that comes from God, and so I stand here testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would come to pass:

Acts 26:23 that the Christ must suffer, and that, by being the first to rise from the dead, he would proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.”

Acts 26:24 And as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, “Paul, you are mad; your great learning is turning you mad.”

Acts 26:25 But Paul said, “I am not mad, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking the sober truth.

Acts 26:26 For the king knows about these things, and to him I speak freely; for I am persuaded that none of these things has escaped his notice, for this was not done in a corner.

Acts 26:27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.”

Acts 26:28 And Agrippa said to Paul, “In a short time you think to make me a Christian!”

Acts 26:29 And Paul said, “Whether short or long, I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am—except for these chains.”

Acts 26:30 Then the king rose, and the governor and Bernice and those who were sitting with them;

Acts 26:31 and when they had withdrawn, they said to one another, “This man is doing nothing to deserve death or imprisonment.”

Acts 26:32 And Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

Acts 27:1 And when it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan Cohort, named Julius.

Acts 27:2 And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, we put to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.

Acts 27:3 The next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go to his friends and be cared for.

Acts 27:4 And putting to sea from there we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were against us.

Acts 27:5 And when we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra in Lycia.

Acts 27:6 There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and put us on board.

Acts 27:7 We sailed slowly for a number of days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, and as the wind did not allow us to go on, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone.

Acts 27:8 Coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near which was the city of Lasea.

Acts 27:9 As much time had been lost, and the voyage was already dangerous because the fast had already gone by, Paul advised them,

Acts 27:10 saying, “Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.”

Acts 27:11 But the centurion paid more attention to the captain and to the owner of the ship than to what Paul said.

Acts 27:12 And because the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to put to sea from there, on the chance that somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete, looking northeast and southeast, and winter there.

Acts 27:13 And when the south wind blew gently, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close inshore.

Acts 27:14 But soon a tempestuous wind, called the northeaster, struck down from the land;

Acts 27:15 and when the ship was caught and could not face the wind, we gave way to it and were driven.

Acts 27:16 And running under the lee of a small island called Cauda, we managed with difficulty to secure the boat;

Acts 27:17 after hoisting it up, they took measures to undergird the ship; then, fearing that they should run on the Syrtis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven.

Acts 27:18 As we were violently storm-tossed, they began next day to throw the cargo overboard;

Acts 27:19 and the third day they cast out with their own hands the tackle of the ship.

Acts 27:20 And when neither sun nor stars appeared for many a day, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope of our being saved was at last abandoned.

Acts 27:21 As they had been long without food, Paul then came forward among them and said, “Men, you should have listened to me, and should not have set sail from Crete and incurred this injury and loss.

Acts 27:22 I now bid you take heart; for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

Acts 27:23 For this very night there stood by me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship,

Acts 27:24 and he said, `Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar; and lo, God has granted you all those who sail with you.’

Acts 27:25 So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told.

Acts 27:26 But we shall have to run on some island.”

Acts 27:27 When the fourteenth night had come, as we were drifting across the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were nearing land.

Acts 27:28 So they sounded and found twenty fathoms; a little farther on they sounded again and found fifteen fathoms.

Acts 27:29 And fearing that we might run on the rocks, they let out four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come.

Acts 27:30 And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under pretense of laying out anchors from the bow,

Acts 27:31 Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved.”

Acts 27:32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it go.

Acts 27:33 As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day that you have continued in suspense and without food, having taken nothing.

Acts 27:34 Therefore I urge you to take some food; it will give you strength, since not a hair is to perish from the head of any of you.”

Acts 27:35 And when he had said this, he took bread, and giving thanks to God in the presence of all he broke it and began to eat.

Acts 27:36 Then they all were encouraged and ate some food themselves.

Acts 27:37 (We were in all two hundred and seventy-six persons in the ship.)

Acts 27:38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea.

Acts 27:39 Now when it was day, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, on which they planned if possible to bring the ship ashore.

Acts 27:40 So they cast off the anchors and left them in the sea, at the same time loosening the ropes that tied the rudders; then hoisting the foresail to the wind they made for the beach.

Acts 27:41 But striking a shoal they ran the vessel aground; the bow stuck and remained immovable, and the stern was broken up by the surf.

Acts 27:42 The soldiers’ plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any should swim away and escape;

Acts 27:43 but the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their purpose. He ordered those who could swim to throw themselves overboard first and make for the land,

Acts 27:44 and the rest on planks or on pieces of the ship. And so it was that all escaped to land.

Acts 28:1 After we had escaped, we then learned that the island was called Malta.

Acts 28:2 And the natives showed us unusual kindness, for they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, because it had begun to rain and was cold.

Acts 28:3 Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and put them on the fire, when a viper came out because of the heat and fastened on his hand.

Acts 28:4 When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, “No doubt this man is a murderer. Though he has escaped from the sea, justice has not allowed him to live.”

Acts 28:5 He, however, shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm.

Acts 28:6 They waited, expecting him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead; but when they had waited a long time and saw no misfortune come to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

Acts 28:7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us and entertained us hospitably for three days.

Acts 28:8 It happened that the father of Publius lay sick with fever and dysentery; and Paul visited him and prayed, and putting his hands on him healed him.

Acts 28:9 And when this had taken place, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases also came and were cured.

Acts 28:10 They presented many gifts to us; and when we sailed, they put on board whatever we needed.

Acts 28:11 After three months we set sail in a ship which had wintered in the island, a ship of Alexandria, with the Twin Brothers as figurehead.

Acts 28:12 Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days.

Acts 28:13 And from there we made a circuit and arrived at Rhegium; and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.

Acts 28:14 There we found brethren, and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome.

Acts 28:15 And the brethren there, when they heard of us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us. On seeing them Paul thanked God and took courage.

Acts 28:16 And when we came into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself, with the soldier that guarded him.

Acts 28:17 After three days he called together the local leaders of the Jews; and when they had gathered, he said to them, “Brethren, though I had done nothing against the people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

Acts 28:18 When they had examined me, they wished to set me at liberty, because there was no reason for the death penalty in my case.

Acts 28:19 But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar—though I had no charge to bring against my nation.

Acts 28:20 For this reason therefore I have asked to see you and speak with you, since it is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain."

Acts 28:21 And they said to him, "We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brethren coming here has reported or spoken any evil about you.

Acts 28:22 But we desire to hear from you what your views are; for with regard to this sect we know that everywhere it is spoken against."

Acts 28:23 When they had appointed a day for him, they came to him at his lodging in great numbers. And he expounded the matter to them from morning till evening, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the law of Moses and from the prophets.

Acts 28:24 And some were convinced by what he said, while others disbelieved.

Acts 28:25 So, as they disagreed among themselves, they departed, after Paul had made one statement: "The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet:

Acts 28:26 `Go to this people, and say, You shall indeed hear but never understand, and you shall indeed see but never perceive.

Acts 28:27 For this people's heart has grown dull, and their ears are heavy of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should perceive with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn for me to heal them.'

Acts 28:28 Let it be known to you then that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen."

Acts 28:29

Acts 28:30 And he lived there two whole years at his own expense, and welcomed all who came to him,

Acts 28:31 preaching the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ quite openly and unhindered.

Romans

1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God

Romans 1:2 which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy scriptures, Romans 1:3 the gospel concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh

Romans 1:4 and designated Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,

Romans 1:5 through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations,

Romans 1:6 including yourselves who are called to belong to Jesus Christ;

Romans 1:7 To all God’s beloved in Rome, who are called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 1:8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world.

Romans 1:9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you always in my prayers,

Romans 1:10 asking that somehow by God’s will I may now at last succeed in coming to you.

Romans 1:11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you,

Romans 1:12 that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other’s faith, both yours and mine.

Romans 1:13 I want you to know, brethren, that I have often intended to come to you (but thus far have been prevented), in order that I may reap some harvest among you as well as among the rest of the Gentiles.

Romans 1:14 I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish:

Romans 1:15 so I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel: it is the power of God for salvation to every one who has faith, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

Romans 1:17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed through faith for faith; as it is written, “He who through faith is righteous shall live.”

Romans 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of men who by their wickedness suppress the truth.

Romans 1:19 For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.

Romans 1:20 Ever since the creation of the world his invisible nature, namely, his eternal power and deity, has been clearly perceived in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse;

Romans 1:21 for although they knew God they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking and their senseless minds were darkened.

Romans 1:22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools,

Romans 1:23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man or birds or animals or reptiles.

Romans 1:24 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves,

Romans 1:25 because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed for ever! Amen.

Romans 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. Their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural,

Romans 1:27 and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in their own persons the due penalty for their error.

Romans 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a base mind and to improper conduct.

Romans 1:29 They were filled with all manner of wickedness, evil, covetousness, malice. Full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity, they are gossips,

Romans 1:30 slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents,

Romans 1:31 foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

Romans 1:32 Though they know God’s decree that those who do such things deserve to die, they not only do them but approve those who practice them.

Romans 2:1 Therefore you have no excuse, O man, whoever you are, when you judge another; for in passing judgment upon him you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, are doing the very same things.

Romans 2:2 We know that the judgment of God rightly falls upon those who do such things.

Romans 2:3 Do you suppose, O man, that when you judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself, you will escape the judgment of God?

Romans 2:4 Or do you presume upon the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience? Do you not know that God’s kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?

Romans 2:5 But by your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God’s righteous judgment will be revealed.

Romans 2:6 For he will render to every man according to his works:

Romans 2:7 to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life;

Romans 2:8 but for those who are factious and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness, there will be wrath and fury.

Romans 2:9 There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek,

Romans 2:10 but glory and honor and peace for every one who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek.

Romans 2:11 For God shows no partiality.

Romans 2:12 All who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law.

Romans 2:13 For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified.

Romans 2:14 When Gentiles who have not the law do by nature what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law.

Romans 2:15 They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness and their conflicting thoughts accuse or perhaps excuse them

Romans 2:16 on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus.

Romans 2:17 But if you call yourself a Jew and rely upon the law and boast of your relation to God

Romans 2:18 and know his will and approve what is excellent, because you are instructed in the law,

Romans 2:19 and if you are sure that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

Romans 2:20 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of children, having in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth —

Romans 2:21 you then who teach others, will you not teach yourself? While you preach against stealing, do you steal?

Romans 2:22 You who say that one must not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?

Romans 2:23 You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law?

Romans 2:24 For, as it is written, “The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.”

Romans 2:25 Circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law; but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision.

Romans 2:26 So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?

Romans 2:27 Then those who are physically uncircumcised but keep the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law.

Romans 2:28 For he is not a real Jew who is one outwardly, nor is true circumcision something external and physical.

Romans 2:29 He is a Jew who is one inwardly, and real circumcision is a matter of the heart, spiritual and not literal. His praise is not from men but from God.

Romans 3:1 Then what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision?

Romans 3:2 Much in every way. To begin with, the Jews are entrusted with the oracles of God.

Romans 3:3 What if some were unfaithful? Does their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God?

Romans 3:4 By no means! Let God be true though every man be false, as it is written, “That thou mayest be justified in thy words, and prevail when thou art judged.”

Romans 3:5 But if our wickedness serves to show the justice of God, what shall we say? That God is unjust to inflict wrath on us? (I speak in a human way.)

Romans 3:6 By no means! For then how could God judge the world?

Romans 3:7 But if through my falsehood God’s truthfulness abounds to his glory, why am I still being condemned as a sinner?

Romans 3:8 And why not do evil that good may come?—as some people slanderously charge us with saying. Their condemnation is just.

Romans 3:9 What then? Are we Jews any better off? No, not at all; for I have already charged that all men, both Jews and Greeks, are under the power of sin,

Romans 3:10 as it is written: “None is righteous, no, not one;

Romans 3:11 no one understands, no one seeks for God.

Romans 3:12 All have turned aside, together they have gone wrong; no one does good, not even one.”

Romans 3:13 “Their throat is an open grave, they use their tongues to deceive.” “The venom of asps is under their lips.”

Romans 3:14 “Their mouth is full of curses and bitterness.”

Romans 3:15 “Their feet are swift to shed blood,

Romans 3:16 in their paths are ruin and misery,

Romans 3:17 and the way of peace they do not know.”

Romans 3:18 “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

Romans 3:19 Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God.

Romans 3:20 For no human being will be justified in his sight by works of the law, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.

Romans 3:21 But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from law, although the law and the prophets bear witness to it,

Romans 3:22 the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction;

Romans 3:23 since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Romans 3:24 they are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus,

Romans 3:25 whom God put forward as an expiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins;

Romans 3:26 it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies him who has faith in Jesus.

Romans 3:27 Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. On what principle? On the principle of works? No, but on the principle of faith.

Romans 3:28 For we hold that a man is justified by faith apart from works of law.

Romans 3:29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also,

Romans 3:30 since God is one; and he will justify the circumcised on the ground of their faith and the uncircumcised through their faith.

Romans 3:31 Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

Romans 4:1 What then shall we say about Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh?

Romans 4:2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.

Romans 4:3 For what does the scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.”

Romans 4:4 Now to one who works, his wages are not reckoned as a gift but as his due.

Romans 4:5 And to one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness.

Romans 4:6 So also David pronounces a blessing upon the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works:

Romans 4:7 “Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered;

Romans 4:8 blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not reckon his sin.”

Romans 4:9 Is this blessing pronounced only upon the circumcised, or also upon the uncircumcised? We say that faith was reckoned to Abraham as righteousness.

Romans 4:10 How then was it reckoned to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised.

Romans 4:11 He received circumcision as a sign or seal of the righteousness which he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised and who thus have righteousness reckoned to them,

Romans 4:12 and likewise the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but also follow the example of the faith which our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

Romans 4:13 The promise to Abraham and his descendants, that they should inherit the world, did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith.

Romans 4:14 If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void.

Romans 4:15 For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression.

Romans 4:16 That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants—not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham, for he is the father of us all,

Romans 4:17 as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

Romans 4:18 In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations; as he had been told, “So shall your descendants be.”

Romans 4:19 He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead because he was about a hundred years old, or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb.

Romans 4:20 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God,

Romans 4:21 fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

Romans 4:22 That is why his faith was "reckoned to him as righteousness."

Romans 4:23 But the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone,

Romans 4:24 but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him that raised from the dead Jesus our Lord,

Romans 4:25 who was put to death for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

Romans 5:1 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:2 Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

Romans 5:3 More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance,

Romans 5:4 and endurance produces character, and character produces hope,

Romans 5:5 and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

Romans 5:6 While we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

Romans 5:7 Why, one will hardly die for a righteous man—though perhaps for a good man one will dare even to die.

Romans 5:8 But God shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us.

Romans 5:9 Since, therefore, we are now justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God.

Romans 5:10 For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.

Romans 5:11 Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received our reconciliation.

Romans 5:12 Therefore as sin came into the world through one man and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all men sinned —

Romans 5:13 sin indeed was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not counted where there is no law.

Romans 5:14 Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who was a type of the one who was to come.

Romans 5:15 But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many.

Romans 5:16 And the free gift is not like the effect of that one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification.

Romans 5:17 If, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:18 Then as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one man's act of righteousness leads to acquittal and life for all men.

Romans 5:19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by one man's obedience many will be made righteous.

Romans 5:20 Law came in, to increase the trespass; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more,

Romans 5:21 so that, as sin reigned in death, grace also might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:1 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound?

Romans 6:2 By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it?

Romans 6:3 Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

Romans 6:4 We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

Romans 6:5 For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Romans 6:6 We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the sinful body might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

Romans 6:7 For he who has died is freed from sin.

Romans 6:8 But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.

Romans 6:9 For we know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

Romans 6:10 The death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God.

Romans 6:11 So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6:12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions.

Romans 6:13 Do not yield your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but yield yourselves to God as men who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness.

Romans 6:14 For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

Romans 6:15 What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!

Romans 6:16 Do you not know that if you yield yourselves to any one as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?

Romans 6:17 But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed,

Romans 6:18 and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness.

Romans 6:19 I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once yielded your members to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now yield your members to righteousness for sanctification.

Romans 6:20 When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

Romans 6:21 But then what return did you get from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death.

Romans 6:22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the return you get is sanctification and its end, eternal life.

Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 7:1 Do you not know, brethren—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law is binding on a person only during his life?

Romans 7:2 Thus a married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives; but if her husband dies she is discharged from the law concerning the husband.

Romans 7:3 Accordingly, she will be called an adulteress if she lives with another man while her husband is alive. But if her husband dies she is free from that law, and if she marries another man she is not an adulteress.

Romans 7:4 Likewise, my brethren, you have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead in order that we may bear fruit for God.

Romans 7:5 While we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death.

Romans 7:6 But now we are discharged from the law, dead to that which held us captive, so that we serve not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit.

Romans 7:7 What then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet, if it had not been for the law, I should not have known sin. I should not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, “You shall not covet.”

Romans 7:8 But sin, finding opportunity in the commandment, wrought in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law sin lies dead.

Romans 7:9 I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died;

Romans 7:10 the very commandment which promised life proved to be death to me.

Romans 7:11 For sin, finding opportunity in the commandment, deceived me and by it killed me.

Romans 7:12 So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good.

Romans 7:13 Did that which is good, then, bring death to me? By no means! It was sin, working death in me through what is good, in order that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure.

Romans 7:14 We know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, sold under sin.

Romans 7:15 I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate.

Romans 7:16 Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good.

Romans 7:17 So then it is no longer I that do it, but sin which dwells within me.

Romans 7:18 For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it.

Romans 7:19 For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do.

Romans 7:20 Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin which dwells within me.

Romans 7:21 So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand.

Romans 7:22 For I delight in the law of God, in my inmost self,

Romans 7:23 but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin which dwells in my members.

Romans 7:24 Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?

Romans 7:25 Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I of myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin.

Romans 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Romans 8:2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death.

Romans 8:3 For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh,

Romans 8:4 in order that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Romans 8:5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit.

Romans 8:6 To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace.

Romans 8:7 For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God’s law, indeed it cannot;

Romans 8:8 and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

Romans 8:9 But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Any one who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.

Romans 8:10 But if Christ is in you, although your bodies are dead because of sin, your spirits are alive because of righteousness.

Romans 8:11 If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit which dwells in you.

Romans 8:12 So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh —

Romans 8:13 for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live.

Romans 8:14 For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

Romans 8:15 For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the spirit of sonship. When we cry, “Abba! Father!”

Romans 8:16 it is the Spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God,

Romans 8:17 and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

Romans 8:18 I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

Romans 8:19 For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God;

Romans 8:20 for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of him who subjected it in hope;

Romans 8:21 because the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the glorious liberty of the children of God.

Romans 8:22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning in travail together until now;

Romans 8:23 and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies.

Romans 8:24 For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees?

Romans 8:25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Romans 8:26 Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words.

Romans 8:27 And he who searches the hearts of men knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Romans 8:28 We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:29 For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

Romans 8:30 And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

Romans 8:31 What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who is against us?

Romans 8:32 He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, will he not also give us all things with him?

Romans 8:33 Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies;

Romans 8:34 who is to condemn? Is it Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us?

Romans 8:35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Romans 8:36 As it is written, "For thy sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered."

Romans 8:37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

Romans 8:38 For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,

Romans 8:39 nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 9:1 I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying; my conscience bears me witness in the Holy Spirit,

Romans 9:2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.

Romans 9:3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen by race.

Romans 9:4 They are Israelites, and to them belong the sonship, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises;

Romans 9:5 to them belong the patriarchs, and of their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ. God who is over all be blessed for ever. Amen.

Romans 9:6 But it is not as though the word of God had failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, Romans 9:7 and not all are children of Abraham because they are his descendants; but “Through Isaac shall your descendants be named.”

Romans 9:8 This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are reckoned as descendants.

Romans 9:9 For this is what the promise said, “About this time I will return and Sarah shall have a son.”

Romans 9:10 And not only so, but also when Rebecca had conceived children by one man, our forefather Isaac,

Romans 9:11 though they were not yet born and had done nothing either good or bad, in order that God’s purpose of election might continue, not because of works but because of his call,

Romans 9:12 she was told, “The elder will serve the younger.”

Romans 9:13 As it is written, “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”

Romans 9:14 What shall we say then? Is there injustice on God’s part? By no means!

Romans 9:15 For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.”

Romans 9:16 So it depends not upon man’s will or exertion, but upon God’s mercy.

Romans 9:17 For the scripture says to Pharaoh, “I have raised you up for the very purpose of showing my power in you, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth.”

Romans 9:18 So then he has mercy upon whomever he wills, and he hardens the heart of whomever he wills.

Romans 9:19 You will say to me then, “Why does he still find fault? For who can resist his will?”

Romans 9:20 But who are you, a man, to answer back to God? Will what is molded say to its molder, “Why have you made me thus?”

Romans 9:21 Has the potter no right over the clay, to make out of the same lump one vessel for beauty and another for menial use?

Romans 9:22 What if God, desiring to show his wrath and to make known his power, has endured with much patience the vessels of wrath made for destruction,

Romans 9:23 in order to make known the riches of his glory for the vessels of mercy, which he has prepared beforehand for glory,

Romans 9:24 even us whom he has called, not from the Jews only but also from the Gentiles?

Romans 9:25 As indeed he says in Hosea, “Those who were not my people I will call `my people,’ and her who was not beloved I will call `my beloved.’”

Romans 9:26 “And in the very place where it was said to them, `You are not my people,’ they will be called `sons of the living God.’”

Romans 9:27 And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: “Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will be saved;

Romans 9:28 for the Lord will execute his sentence upon the earth with rigor and dispatch.”

Romans 9:29 And as Isaiah predicted, “If the Lord of hosts had not left us children, we would have fared like Sodom and been made like Gomorrah.”

Romans 9:30 What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, righteousness through faith;

Romans 9:31 but that Israel who pursued the righteousness which is based on law did not succeed in fulfilling that law.

Romans 9:32 Why? Because they did not pursue it through faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone,

Romans 9:33 as it is written, “Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone that will make men stumble, a rock that will make them fall; and he who believes in him will not be put to shame.”

Romans 10:1 Brethren, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved.

Romans 10:2 I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but it is not enlightened.

Romans 10:3 For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God’s righteousness.

Romans 10:4 For Christ is the end of the law, that every one who has faith may be justified.

Romans 10:5 Moses writes that the man who practices the righteousness which is based on the law shall live by it.

Romans 10:6 But the righteousness based on faith says, Do not say in your heart, “Who will ascend into heaven?” (that is, to bring Christ down)

Romans 10:7 or “Who will descend into the abyss?” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

Romans 10:8 But what does it say? The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart (that is, the word of faith which we preach);

Romans 10:9 because, if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Romans 10:10 For man believes with his heart and so is justified, and he confesses with his lips and so is saved.

Romans 10:11 The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.”

Romans 10:12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and bestows his riches upon all who call upon him.

Romans 10:13 For, “every one who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Romans 10:14 But how are men to call upon him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without a preacher?

Romans 10:15 And how can men preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach good news!”

Romans 10:16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel; for Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?”

Romans 10:17 So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes by the preaching of Christ.

Romans 10:18 But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have; for “Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”

Romans 10:19 Again I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says, “I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation; with a foolish nation I will make you angry.”

Romans 10:20 Then Isaiah is so bold as to say, “I have been found by those who did not seek me; I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me.”

Romans 10:21 But of Israel he says, “All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people.”

Romans 11:1 I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin.

Romans 11:2 God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

Romans 11:3 “Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have demolished thy altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life.”

Romans 11:4 But what is God’s reply to him? “I have kept for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”

Romans 11:5 So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace.

Romans 11:6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

Romans 11:7 What then? Israel failed to obtain what it sought. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened,

Romans 11:8 as it is written, “God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that should not see and ears that should not hear, down to this very day.”

Romans 11:9 And David says, “Let their table become a snare and a trap, a pitfall and a retribution for them;

Romans 11:10 let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and bend their backs for ever.”

Romans 11:11 So I ask, have they stumbled so as to fall? By no means! But through their trespass salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous.

Romans 11:12 Now if their trespass means riches for the world, and if their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their full inclusion mean!

Romans 11:13 Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry

Romans 11:14 in order to make my fellow Jews jealous, and thus save some of them.

Romans 11:15 For if their rejection means the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead?

Romans 11:16 If the dough offered as first fruits is holy, so is the whole lump; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

Romans 11:17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in their place to share the richness of the olive tree,

Romans 11:18 do not boast over the branches. If you do boast, remember it is not you that support the root, but the root that supports you.

Romans 11:19 You will say, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.”

Romans 11:20 That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast only through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe.

Romans 11:21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you.

Romans 11:22 Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God’s kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness; otherwise you too will be cut off.

Romans 11:23 And even the others, if they do not persist in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again.

Romans 11:24 For if you have been cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree.

Romans 11:25 Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brethren: a hardening has come upon part of Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles come in,

Romans 11:26 and so all Israel will be saved; as it is written, “The Deliverer will come from Zion, he will banish ungodliness from Jacob”;

Romans 11:27 “and this will be my covenant with them when I take away their sins.”

Romans 11:28 As regards the gospel they are enemies of God, for your sake; but as regards election they are beloved for the sake of their forefathers.

Romans 11:29 For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.

Romans 11:30 Just as you were once disobedient to God but now have received mercy because of their disobedience,

Romans 11:31 so they have now been disobedient in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may receive mercy.

Romans 11:32 For God has consigned all men to disobedience, that he may have mercy upon all.

Romans 11:33 O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!

Romans 11:34 “For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?”

Romans 11:35 “Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?”

Romans 11:36 For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory for ever. Amen.

Romans 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

Romans 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Romans 12:3 For by the grace given to me I bid every one among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith which God has assigned him.

Romans 12:4 For as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same function,

Romans 12:5 so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.

Romans 12:6 Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith;

Romans 12:7 if service, in our serving; he who teaches, in his teaching;

Romans 12:8 he who exhorts, in his exhortation; he who contributes, in liberality; he who gives aid, with zeal; he who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.

Romans 12:9 Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good;

Romans 12:10 love one another with brotherly affection; outdo one another in showing honor.

Romans 12:11 Never flag in zeal, be aglow with the Spirit, serve the Lord.

Romans 12:12 Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.

Romans 12:13 Contribute to the needs of the saints, practice hospitality.

Romans 12:14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.

Romans 12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.

Romans 12:16 Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; never be conceited.

Romans 12:17 Repay no one evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all.

Romans 12:18 If possible, so far as it depends upon you, live peaceably with all.

Romans 12:19 Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God; for it is written, “Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.”

Romans 12:20 No, “if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals upon his head.”

Romans 12:21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 13:1 Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God.

Romans 13:2 Therefore he who resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment.

Romans 13:3 For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of him who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval,

Romans 13:4 for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain; he is the servant of God to execute his wrath on the wrongdoer.

Romans 13:5 Therefore one must be subject, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience.

Romans 13:6 For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing.

Romans 13:7 Pay all of them their dues, taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due.

Romans 13:8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

Romans 13:9 The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not kill, You shall not steal, You shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this sentence, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Romans 13:10 Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

Romans 13:11 Besides this you know what hour it is, how it is full time now for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed;

Romans 13:12 the night is far gone, the day is at hand. Let us then cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light;

Romans 13:13 let us conduct ourselves becomingly as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy.

Romans 13:14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Romans 14:1 As for the man who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not for disputes over opinions.

Romans 14:2 One believes he may eat anything, while the weak man eats only vegetables.

Romans 14:3 Let not him who eats despise him who abstains, and let not him who abstains pass judgment on him who eats; for God has welcomed him.

Romans 14:4 Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Master is able to make him stand.

Romans 14:5 One man esteems one day as better than another, while another man esteems all days alike. Let every one be fully convinced in his own mind.

Romans 14:6 He who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. He also who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God; while he who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God.

Romans 14:7 None of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself.

Romans 14:8 If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.

Romans 14:9 For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

Romans 14:10 Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God;

Romans 14:11 for it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God."

Romans 14:12 So each of us shall give account of himself to God.

Romans 14:13 Then let us no more pass judgment on one another, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother.

Romans 14:14 I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but it is unclean for any one who thinks it unclean.

Romans 14:15 If your brother is being injured by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not let what you eat cause the ruin of one for whom Christ died.

Romans 14:16 So do not let your good be spoken of as evil.

Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit;

Romans 14:18 he who thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men.

Romans 14:19 Let us then pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding.

Romans 14:20 Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for any one to make others fall by what he eats;

Romans 14:21 it is right not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that makes your brother stumble.

Romans 14:22 The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God; happy is he who has no reason to judge himself for what he approves.

Romans 14:23 But he who has doubts is condemned, if he eats, because he does not act from faith; for whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.

Romans 15:1 We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves;

Romans 15:2 let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to edify him.

Romans 15:3 For Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached thee fell on me."

Romans 15:4 For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope.

Romans 15:5 May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus,

Romans 15:6 that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 15:7 Welcome one another, therefore, as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

Romans 15:8 For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs,

Romans 15:9 and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, "Therefore I will praise thee among the Gentiles, and sing to thy name";

Romans 15:10 and again it is said, "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people";

Romans 15:11 and again, "Praise the Lord, all Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise him";

Romans 15:12 and further Isaiah says, "The root of Jesse shall come, he who rises to rule the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles hope."

Romans 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

Romans 15:14 I myself am satisfied about you, my brethren, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another.

Romans 15:15 But on some points I have written to you very boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God

Romans 15:16 to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:17 In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God.

Romans 15:18 For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has wrought through me to win obedience from the Gentiles, by word and deed,

Romans 15:19 by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Holy Spirit, so that from Jerusalem and as far round as Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ,

Romans 15:20 thus making it my ambition to preach the gospel, not where Christ has already been named, lest I build on another man's foundation,

Romans 15:21 but as it is written, "They shall see who have never been told of him, and they shall understand who have never heard of him."

Romans 15:22 This is the reason why I have so often been hindered from coming to you.

Romans 15:23 But now, since I no longer have any room for work in these regions, and since I have longed for many years to come to you,

Romans 15:24 I hope to see you in passing as I go to Spain, and to be sped on my journey there by you, once I have enjoyed your company for a little.

Romans 15:25 At present, however, I am going to Jerusalem with aid for the saints.

Romans 15:26 For Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem;

Romans 15:27 they were pleased to do it, and indeed they are in debt to them, for if the Gentiles have come to share in their spiritual blessings, they ought also to be of service to them in material blessings.

Romans 15:28 When therefore I have completed this, and have delivered to them what has been raised, I shall go on by way of you to Spain;

Romans 15:29 and I know that when I come to you I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of Christ.

Romans 15:30 I appeal to you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, Romans 15:31 that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,

Romans 15:32 so that by God’s will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company.

Romans 15:33 The God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Romans 16:1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deaconess of the church at Cenchreae,

Romans 16:2 that you may receive her in the Lord as befits the saints, and help her in whatever she may require from you, for she has been a helper of many and of myself as well.

Romans 16:3 Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus,

Romans 16:4 who risked their necks for my life, to whom not only I but also all the churches of the Gentiles give thanks;

Romans 16:5 greet also the church in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who was the first convert in Asia for Christ.

Romans 16:6 Greet Mary, who has worked hard among you.

Romans 16:7 Greet Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and my fellow prisoners; they are men of note among the apostles, and they were in Christ before me.

Romans 16:8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

Romans 16:9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys.

Romans 16:10 Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the family of Aristobulus.

Romans 16:11 Greet my kinsman Herodion. Greet those in the Lord who belong to the family of Narcissus.

Romans 16:12 Greet those workers in the Lord, Tryphaena and Tryphosa. Greet the beloved Persis, who has worked hard in the Lord.

Romans 16:13 Greet Rufus, eminent in the Lord, also his mother and mine.

Romans 16:14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brethren who are with them.

Romans 16:15 Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

Romans 16:16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

Romans 16:17 I appeal to you, brethren, to take note of those who create dissensions and difficulties, in opposition to the doctrine which you have been taught; avoid them.

Romans 16:18 For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by fair and flattering words they deceive the hearts of the simple-minded.

Romans 16:19 For while your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, I would have you wise as to what is good and guileless as to what is evil;

Romans 16:20 then the God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Romans 16:21 Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen.

Romans 16:22 I Tertius, the writer of this letter, greet you in the Lord.

Romans 16:23 Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus, greet you.

Romans 16:24

Romans 16:25 Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which was kept secret for long ages

Romans 16:26 but is now disclosed and through the prophetic writings is made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith —

Romans 16:27 to the only wise God be glory for evermore through Jesus Christ! Amen.

1 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes,

1 Corinthians 1:2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

1 Corinthians 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:4 I give thanks to God always for you because of the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus,

1 Corinthians 1:5 that in every way you were enriched in him with all speech and all knowledge —

1 Corinthians 1:6 even as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you —

1 Corinthians 1:7 so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ;

1 Corinthians 1:8 who will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:9 God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 1:10 I appeal to you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no dissensions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment.

1 Corinthians 1:11 For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarreling among you, my brethren.

1 Corinthians 1:12 What I mean is that each one of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ."

1 Corinthians 1:13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

1 Corinthians 1:14 I am thankful that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius;

1 Corinthians 1:15 lest any one should say that you were baptized in my name.

1 Corinthians 1:16 (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized any one else.)

1 Corinthians 1:17 For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

1 Corinthians 1:18 For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

1 Corinthians 1:19 For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the cleverness of the clever I will thwart."

1 Corinthians 1:20 Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?

1 Corinthians 1:21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe.

1 Corinthians 1:22 For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom,

1 Corinthians 1:23 but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles,

1 Corinthians 1:24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

1 Corinthians 1:25 For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

1 Corinthians 1:26 For consider your call, brethren; not many of you were wise according to worldly standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth;

1 Corinthians 1:27 but God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise, God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong,

1 Corinthians 1:28 God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are,

1 Corinthians 1:29 so that no human being might boast in the presence of God.

1 Corinthians 1:30 He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom, our righteousness and sanctification and redemption;

1 Corinthians 1:31 therefore, as it is written, “Let him who boasts, boast of the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 2:1 When I came to you, brethren, I did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God in lofty words or wisdom.

1 Corinthians 2:2 For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.

1 Corinthians 2:3 And I was with you in weakness and in much fear and trembling;

1 Corinthians 2:4 and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,

1 Corinthians 2:5 that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

1 Corinthians 2:6 Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away.

1 Corinthians 2:7 But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glorification.

1 Corinthians 2:8 None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

1 Corinthians 2:9 But, as it is written, “What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him,”

1 Corinthians 2:10 God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.

1 Corinthians 2:11 For what person knows a man’s thoughts except the spirit of the man which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 2:12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

1 Corinthians 2:13 And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who possess the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:14 The unspiritual man does not receive the gifts of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned.

1 Corinthians 2:15 The spiritual man judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one.

1 Corinthians 2:16 "For who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:1 But I, brethren, could not address you as spiritual men, but as men of the flesh, as babes in Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:2 I fed you with milk, not solid food; for you were not ready for it; and even yet you are not ready,

1 Corinthians 3:3 for you are still of the flesh. For while there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving like ordinary men?

1 Corinthians 3:4 For when one says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," are you not merely men?

1 Corinthians 3:5 What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each.

1 Corinthians 3:6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.

1 Corinthians 3:7 So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.

1 Corinthians 3:8 He who plants and he who waters are equal, and each shall receive his wages according to his labor.

1 Corinthians 3:9 For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

1 Corinthians 3:10 According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it. Let each man take care how he builds upon it.

1 Corinthians 3:11 For no other foundation can any one lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:12 Now if any one builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw —

1 Corinthians 3:13 each man's work will become manifest; for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done.

1 Corinthians 3:14 If the work which any man has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward.

1 Corinthians 3:15 If any man’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.

1 Corinthians 3:16 Do you not know that you are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in you?

1 Corinthians 3:17 If any one destroys God’s temple, God will destroy him. For God’s temple is holy, and that temple you are.

1 Corinthians 3:18 Let no one deceive himself. If any one among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise.

1 Corinthians 3:19 For the wisdom of this world is folly with God. For it is written, “He catches the wise in their craftiness,”

1 Corinthians 3:20 and again, “The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile.”

1 Corinthians 3:21 So let no one boast of men. For all things are yours,

1 Corinthians 3:22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future, all are yours;

1 Corinthians 3:23 and you are Christ’s; and Christ is God’s.

1 Corinthians 4:1 This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

1 Corinthians 4:2 Moreover it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy.

1 Corinthians 4:3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. I do not even judge myself.

1 Corinthians 4:4 I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me.

1 Corinthians 4:5 Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then every man will receive his commendation from God.

1 Corinthians 4:6 I have applied all this to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brethren, that you may learn by us not to go beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against another.

1 Corinthians 4:7 For who sees anything different in you? What have you that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if it were not a gift?

1 Corinthians 4:8 Already you are filled! Already you have become rich! Without us you have become kings! And would that you did reign, so that we might share the rule with you!

1 Corinthians 4:9 For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, like men sentenced to death; because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels and to men.

1 Corinthians 4:10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute.

1 Corinthians 4:11 To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are ill-clad and buffeted and homeless,

1 Corinthians 4:12 and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure;

1 Corinthians 4:13 when slandered, we try to conciliate; we have become, and are now, as the refuse of the world, the offscouring of all things.

1 Corinthians 4:14 I do not write this to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children.

1 Corinthians 4:15 For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

1 Corinthians 4:16 I urge you, then, be imitators of me.

1 Corinthians 4:17 Therefore I sent to you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church.

1 Corinthians 4:18 Some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you.

1 Corinthians 4:19 But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power.

1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power.

1 Corinthians 4:21 What do you wish? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love in a spirit of gentleness?

1 Corinthians 5:1 It is actually reported that there is immorality among you, and of a kind that is not found even among pagans; for a man is living with his father's wife.

1 Corinthians 5:2 And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you.

1 Corinthians 5:3 For though absent in body I am present in spirit, and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment

1 Corinthians 5:4 in the name of the Lord Jesus on the man who has done such a thing. When you are assembled, and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus,

1 Corinthians 5:5 you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

1 Corinthians 5:6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?

1 Corinthians 5:7 Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed.

1 Corinthians 5:8 Let us, therefore, celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5:9 I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with immoral men;

1 Corinthians 5:10 not at all meaning the immoral of this world, or the greedy and robbers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world.

1 Corinthians 5:11 But rather I wrote to you not to associate with any one who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or robber—not even to eat with such a one.

1 Corinthians 5:12 For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge?

1 Corinthians 5:13 God judges those outside. “Drive out the wicked person from among you.”

1 Corinthians 6:1 When one of you has a grievance against a brother, does he dare go to law before the unrighteous instead of the saints?

1 Corinthians 6:2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to try trivial cases?

1 Corinthians 6:3 Do you not know that we are to judge angels? How much more, matters pertaining to this life!

1 Corinthians 6:4 If then you have such cases, why do you lay them before those who are least esteemed by the church?

1 Corinthians 6:5 I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no man among you wise enough to decide between members of the brotherhood,

1 Corinthians 6:6 but brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers?

1 Corinthians 6:7 To have lawsuits at all with one another is defeat for you. Why not rather suffer wrong? Why not rather be defrauded?

1 Corinthians 6:8 But you yourselves wrong and defraud, and that even your own brethren.

1 Corinthians 6:9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor sexual perverts,

1 Corinthians 6:10 nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor robbers will inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:11 And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12 "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be enslaved by anything.

1 Corinthians 6:13 "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food"—and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

1 Corinthians 6:14 And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power.

1 Corinthians 6:15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never!

1 Corinthians 6:16 Do you not know that he who joins himself to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, "The two shall become one flesh."

1 Corinthians 6:17 But he who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

1 Corinthians 6:18 Shun immorality. Every other sin which a man commits is outside the body; but the immoral man sins against his own body.

1 Corinthians 6:19 Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own;

1 Corinthians 6:20 you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

1 Corinthians 7:1 Now concerning the matters about which you wrote. It is well for a man not to touch a woman.

1 Corinthians 7:2 But because of the temptation to immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband.

1 Corinthians 7:3 The husband should give to his wife her conjugal rights, and likewise the wife to her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:4 For the wife does not rule over her own body, but the husband does; likewise the husband does not rule over his own body, but the wife does.

1 Corinthians 7:5 Do not refuse one another except perhaps by agreement for a season, that you may devote yourselves to prayer; but then come together again, lest Satan tempt you through lack of self-control.

1 Corinthians 7:6 I say this by way of concession, not of command.

1 Corinthians 7:7 I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own special gift from God, one of one kind and one of another.

1 Corinthians 7:8 To the unmarried and the widows I say that it is well for them to remain single as I do.

1 Corinthians 7:9 But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to be aflame with passion.

1 Corinthians 7:10 To the married I give charge, not I but the Lord, that the wife should not separate from her husband

1 Corinthians 7:11 (but if she does, let her remain single or else be reconciled to her husband)—and that the husband should not divorce his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:12 To the rest I say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her.

1 Corinthians 7:13 If any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him.

1 Corinthians 7:14 For the unbelieving husband is consecrated through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is consecrated through her husband. Otherwise, your children would be unclean, but as it is they are holy.

1 Corinthians 7:15 But if the unbelieving partner desires to separate, let it be so; in such a case the brother or sister is not bound. For God has called us to peace.

1 Corinthians 7:16 Wife, how do you know whether you will save your husband? Husband, how do you know whether you will save your wife?

1 Corinthians 7:17 Only, let every one lead the life which the Lord has assigned to him, and in which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches.

1 Corinthians 7:18 Was any one at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was any one at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision.

1 Corinthians 7:19 For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God.

1 Corinthians 7:20 Every one should remain in the state in which he was called.

1 Corinthians 7:21 Were you a slave when called? Never mind. But if you can gain your freedom, avail yourself of the opportunity.

1 Corinthians 7:22 For he who was called in the Lord as a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise he who was free when called is a slave of Christ.

1 Corinthians 7:23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.

1 Corinthians 7:24 So, brethren, in whatever state each was called, there let him remain with God.

1 Corinthians 7:25 Now concerning the unmarried, I have no command of the Lord, but I give my opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy.

1 Corinthians 7:26 I think that in view of the present distress it is well for a person to remain as he is.

1 Corinthians 7:27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek marriage.

1 Corinthians 7:28 But if you marry, you do not sin, and if a girl marries she does not sin. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that.

1 Corinthians 7:29 I mean, brethren, the appointed time has grown very short; from now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none,

1 Corinthians 7:30 and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods,

1 Corinthians 7:31 and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the form of this world is passing away.

1 Corinthians 7:32 I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to please the Lord;

1 Corinthians 7:33 but the married man is anxious about worldly affairs, how to please his wife,

1 Corinthians 7:34 and his interests are divided. And the unmarried woman or girl is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit; but the married woman is anxious about worldly affairs, how to please her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:35 I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:36 If any one thinks that he is not behaving properly toward his betrothed, if his passions are strong, and it has to be, let him do as he wishes: let them marry—it is no sin.

1 Corinthians 7:37 But whoever is firmly established in his heart, being under no necessity but having his desire under control, and has determined this in his heart, to keep her as his betrothed, he will do well.

1 Corinthians 7:38 So that he who marries his betrothed does well; and he who refrains from marriage will do better.

1 Corinthians 7:39 A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. If the husband dies, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:40 But in my judgment she is happier if she remains as she is. And I think that I have the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 8:1 Now concerning food offered to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” “Knowledge” puffs up, but love builds up.

1 Corinthians 8:2 If any one imagines that he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know.

1 Corinthians 8:3 But if one loves God, one is known by him.

1 Corinthians 8:4 Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “an idol has no real existence,” and that “there is no God but one.”

1 Corinthians 8:5 For although there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth—as indeed there are many “gods” and many “lords”—

1 Corinthians 8:6 yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

1 Corinthians 8:7 However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through being hitherto accustomed to idols, eat food as really offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

1 Corinthians 8:8 Food will not commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do.

1 Corinthians 8:9 Only take care lest this liberty of yours somehow become a stumbling block to the weak.

1 Corinthians 8:10 For if any one sees you, a man of knowledge, at table in an idol’s temple, might he not be encouraged, if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols?

1 Corinthians 8:11 And so by your knowledge this weak man is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died.

1 Corinthians 8:12 Thus, sinning against your brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.

1 Corinthians 8:13 Therefore, if food is a cause of my brother's falling, I will never eat meat, lest I cause my brother to fall.

1 Corinthians 9:1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not you my workmanship in the Lord?

1 Corinthians 9:2 If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 9:3 This is my defense to those who would examine me.

1 Corinthians 9:4 Do we not have the right to our food and drink?

1 Corinthians 9:5 Do we not have the right to be accompanied by a wife, as the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?

1 Corinthians 9:6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working for a living?

1 Corinthians 9:7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard without eating any of its fruit? Who tends a flock without getting some of the milk?

1 Corinthians 9:8 Do I say this on human authority? Does not the law say the same?

1 Corinthians 9:9 For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain." Is it for oxen that God is concerned?

1 Corinthians 9:10 Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of a share in the crop.

1 Corinthians 9:11 If we have sown spiritual good among you, is it too much if we reap your material benefits?

1 Corinthians 9:12 If others share this rightful claim upon you, do not we still more? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ.

1 Corinthians 9:13 Do you not know that those who are employed in the temple service get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the sacrificial offerings?

1 Corinthians 9:14 In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:15 But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing this to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have any one deprive me of my ground for boasting.

1 Corinthians 9:16 For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!

1 Corinthians 9:17 For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission.

1 Corinthians 9:18 What then is my reward? Just this: that in my preaching I may make the gospel free of charge, not making full use of my right in the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:19 For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to all, that I might win the more.

1 Corinthians 9:20 To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews; to those under the law I became as one under the law—though not being myself under the law—that I might win those under the law.

1 Corinthians 9:21 To those outside the law I became as one outside the law—not being without law toward God but under the law of Christ—that I might win those outside the law.

1 Corinthians 9:22 To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

1 Corinthians 9:23 I do it all for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Do you not know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it.

1 Corinthians 9:25 Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

1 Corinthians 9:26 Well, I do not run aimlessly, I do not box as one beating the air;

1 Corinthians 9:27 but I pommel my body and subdue it, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 10:1 I want you to know, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea,

1 Corinthians 10:2 and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

1 Corinthians 10:3 and all ate the same supernatural food

1 Corinthians 10:4 and all drank the same supernatural drink. For they drank from the supernatural Rock which followed them, and the Rock was Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:5 Nevertheless with most of them God was not pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

1 Corinthians 10:6 Now these things are warnings for us, not to desire evil as they did.

1 Corinthians 10:7 Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to dance.”

1 Corinthians 10:8 We must not indulge in immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day.

1 Corinthians 10:9 We must not put the Lord to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents;

1 Corinthians 10:10 nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer.

1 Corinthians 10:11 Now these things happened to them as a warning, but they were written down for our instruction, upon whom the end of the ages has come.

1 Corinthians 10:12 Therefore let any one who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall.

1 Corinthians 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your strength, but with the temptation will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

1 Corinthians 10:14 Therefore, my beloved, shun the worship of idols.

1 Corinthians 10:15 I speak as to sensible men; judge for yourselves what I say.

1 Corinthians 10:16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?

1 Corinthians 10:17 Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

1 Corinthians 10:18 Consider the people of Israel; are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar?

1 Corinthians 10:19 What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?

1 Corinthians 10:20 No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons.

1 Corinthians 10:21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

1 Corinthians 10:22 Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

1 Corinthians 10:23 “All things are lawful,” but not all things are helpful. “All things are lawful,” but not all things build up.

1 Corinthians 10:24 Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor.

1 Corinthians 10:25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising any question on the ground of conscience.

1 Corinthians 10:26 For “the earth is the Lord’s, and everything in it.”

1 Corinthians 10:27 If one of the unbelievers invites you to dinner and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience.

1 Corinthians 10:28 (But if some one says to you, “This has been offered in sacrifice,” then out of consideration for the man who informed you, and for conscience’ sake —

1 Corinthians 10:29 I mean his conscience, not yours—do not eat it.) For why should my liberty be determined by another man’s scruples?

1 Corinthians 10:30 If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks?

1 Corinthians 10:31 So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:32 Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God,

1 Corinthians 10:33 just as I try to please all men in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved.

1 Corinthians 11:1 Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

1 Corinthians 11:2 I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I have delivered them to you.

1 Corinthians 11:3 But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a woman is her husband, and the head of Christ is God.

1 Corinthians 11:4 Any man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head,

1 Corinthians 11:5 but any woman who prays or prophesies with her head unveiled dishonors her head—it is the same as if her head were shaven.

1 Corinthians 11:6 For if a woman will not veil herself, then she should cut off her hair; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her wear a veil.

1 Corinthians 11:7 For a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man.

1 Corinthians 11:8 (For man was not made from woman, but woman from man.

1 Corinthians 11:9 Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man.)

1 Corinthians 11:10 That is why a woman ought to have a veil on her head, because of the angels.

1 Corinthians 11:11 (Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man nor man of woman;

1 Corinthians 11:12 for as woman was made from man, so man is now born of woman. And all things are from God.)

1 Corinthians 11:13 Judge for yourselves; is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

1 Corinthians 11:14 Does not nature itself teach you that for a man to wear long hair is degrading to him,

1 Corinthians 11:15 but if a woman has long hair, it is her pride? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

1 Corinthians 11:16 If any one is disposed to be contentious, we recognize no other practice, nor do the churches of God.

1 Corinthians 11:17 But in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse.

1 Corinthians 11:18 For, in the first place, when you assemble as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it,

1 Corinthians 11:19 for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognized.

1 Corinthians 11:20 When you meet together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat.

1 Corinthians 11:21 For in eating, each one goes ahead with his own meal, and one is hungry and another is drunk.

1 Corinthians 11:22 What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I commend you in this? No, I will not.

1 Corinthians 11:23 For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread,

1 Corinthians 11:24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:25 In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27 Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:28 Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

1 Corinthians 11:29 For any one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself.

1 Corinthians 11:30 That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died.

1 Corinthians 11:31 But if we judged ourselves truly, we should not be judged.

1 Corinthians 11:32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are chastened so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

1 Corinthians 11:33 So then, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another —

1 Corinthians 11:34 if any one is hungry, let him eat at home—lest you come together to be condemned. About the other things I will give directions when I come.

1 Corinthians 12:1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be uninformed.

1 Corinthians 12:2 You know that when you were heathen, you were led astray to dumb idols, however you may have been moved.

1 Corinthians 12:3 Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says “Jesus be cursed!” and no one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit;

1 Corinthians 12:5 and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord;

1 Corinthians 12:6 and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in every one.

1 Corinthians 12:7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

1 Corinthians 12:8 To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit,

1 Corinthians 12:9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit,

1 Corinthians 12:10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:11 All these are inspired by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.

1 Corinthians 12:12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:13 For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:14 For the body does not consist of one member but of many.

1 Corinthians 12:15 If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12:16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12:17 If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell?

1 Corinthians 12:18 But as it is, God arranged the organs in the body, each one of them, as he chose.

1 Corinthians 12:19 If all were a single organ, where would the body be?

1 Corinthians 12:20 As it is, there are many parts, yet one body.

1 Corinthians 12:21 The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.”

1 Corinthians 12:22 On the contrary, the parts of the body which seem to be weaker are indispensable,

1 Corinthians 12:23 and those parts of the body which we think less honorable we invest with the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty,

1 Corinthians 12:24 which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior part,

1 Corinthians 12:25 that there may be no discord in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.

1 Corinthians 12:26 If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.

1 Corinthians 12:27 Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.

1 Corinthians 12:28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, then healers, helpers, administrators, speakers in various kinds of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles?

1 Corinthians 12:30 Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

1 Corinthians 12:31 But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

1 Corinthians 13:1 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

1 Corinthians 13:2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:3 If I give away all I have, and if I deliver my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:4 Love is patient and kind; love is not jealous or boastful;

1 Corinthians 13:5 it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful;

1 Corinthians 13:6 it does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the right.

1 Corinthians 13:7 Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

1 Corinthians 13:8 Love never ends; as for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.

1 Corinthians 13:9 For our knowledge is imperfect and our prophecy is imperfect;

1 Corinthians 13:10 but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will pass away.

1 Corinthians 13:11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I gave up childish ways.

1 Corinthians 13:12 For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall understand fully, even as I have been fully understood.

1 Corinthians 13:13 So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14:1 Make love your aim, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy.

1 Corinthians 14:2 For one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to men but to God; for no one understands him, but he utters mysteries in the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 14:3 On the other hand, he who prophesies speaks to men for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation.

1 Corinthians 14:4 He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church.

1 Corinthians 14:5 Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more to prophesy. He who prophesies is greater than he who speaks in tongues, unless some one interprets, so that the church may be edified.

1 Corinthians 14:6 Now, brethren, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how shall I benefit you unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching?

1 Corinthians 14:7 If even lifeless instruments, such as the flute or the harp, do not give distinct notes, how will any one know what is played?

1 Corinthians 14:8 And if the bugle gives an indistinct sound, who will get ready for battle?

1 Corinthians 14:9 So with yourselves; if you in a tongue utter speech that is not intelligible, how will any one know what is said? For you will be speaking into the air.

1 Corinthians 14:10 There are doubtless many different languages in the world, and none is without meaning;

1 Corinthians 14:11 but if I do not know the meaning of the language, I shall be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker a foreigner to me.

1 Corinthians 14:12 So with yourselves; since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church.

1 Corinthians 14:13 Therefore, he who speaks in a tongue should pray for the power to interpret.

1 Corinthians 14:14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful.

1 Corinthians 14:15 What am I to do? I will pray with the spirit and I will pray with the mind also; I will sing with the spirit and I will sing with the mind also.

1 Corinthians 14:16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how can any one in the position of an outsider say the “Amen” to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying?

1 Corinthians 14:17 For you may give thanks well enough, but the other man is not edified.

1 Corinthians 14:18 I thank God that I speak in tongues more than you all;

1 Corinthians 14:19 nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind, in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

1 Corinthians 14:20 Brethren, do not be children in your thinking; be babes in evil, but in thinking be mature.

1 Corinthians 14:21 In the law it is written, “By men of strange tongues and by the lips of foreigners will I speak to this people, and even then they will not listen to me, says the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 14:22 Thus, tongues are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers, while prophecy is not for unbelievers but for believers.

1 Corinthians 14:23 If, therefore, the whole church assembles and all speak in tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are mad?

1 Corinthians 14:24 But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or outsider enters, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all,

1 Corinthians 14:25 the secrets of his heart are disclosed; and so, falling on his face, he will worship God and declare that God is really among you.

1 Corinthians 14:26 What then, brethren? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification.

1 Corinthians 14:27 If any speak in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, and each in turn; and let one interpret.

1 Corinthians 14:28 But if there is no one to interpret, let each of them keep silence in church and speak to himself and to God.

1 Corinthians 14:29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said.

1 Corinthians 14:30 If a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first be silent.

1 Corinthians 14:31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged;

1 Corinthians 14:32 and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets.

1 Corinthians 14:33 For God is not a God of confusion but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints,

1 Corinthians 14:34 the women should keep silence in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be subordinate, as even the law says.

1 Corinthians 14:35 If there is anything they desire to know, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church.

1 Corinthians 14:36 What! Did the word of God originate with you, or are you the only ones it has reached?

1 Corinthians 14:37 If any one thinks that he is a prophet, or spiritual, he should acknowledge that what I am writing to you is a command of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:38 If any one does not recognize this, he is not recognized.

1 Corinthians 14:39 So, my brethren, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues;

1 Corinthians 14:40 but all things should be done decently and in order.

1 Corinthians 15:1 Now I would remind you, brethren, in what terms I preached to you the gospel, which you received, in which you stand,

1 Corinthians 15:2 by which you are saved, if you hold it fast—unless you believed in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:3 For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:5 and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.

1 Corinthians 15:6 Then he appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep.

1 Corinthians 15:7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

1 Corinthians 15:8 Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me.

1 Corinthians 15:9 For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

1 Corinthians 15:10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

1 Corinthians 15:11 Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

1 Corinthians 15:12 Now if Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

1 Corinthians 15:13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised;

1 Corinthians 15:14 if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:15 We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified of God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised.

1 Corinthians 15:16 For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised.

1 Corinthians 15:17 If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins.

1 Corinthians 15:18 Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

1 Corinthians 15:19 If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied.

1 Corinthians 15:20 But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

1 Corinthians 15:21 For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.

1 Corinthians 15:22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

1 Corinthians 15:23 But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:24 Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.

1 Corinthians 15:25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

1 Corinthians 15:26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

1 Corinthians 15:27 “For God has put all things in subjection under his feet.” But when it says, “All things are put in subjection under him,” it is plain that he is excepted who put all things under him.

1 Corinthians 15:28 When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things under him, that God may be everything to every one.

1 Corinthians 15:29 Otherwise, what do people mean by being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized on their behalf?

1 Corinthians 15:30 Why am I in peril every hour?

1 Corinthians 15:31 I protest, brethren, by my pride in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day!

1 Corinthians 15:32 What do I gain if, humanly speaking, I fought with beasts at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

1 Corinthians 15:33 Do not be deceived: “Bad company ruins good morals.”

1 Corinthians 15:34 Come to your right mind, and sin no more. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

1 Corinthians 15:35 But some one will ask, “How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?”

1 Corinthians 15:36 You foolish man! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.

1 Corinthians 15:37 And what you sow is not the body which is to be, but a bare kernel, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain.

1 Corinthians 15:38 But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body.

1 Corinthians 15:39 For not all flesh is alike, but there is one kind for men, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

1 Corinthians 15:40 There are celestial bodies and there are terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

1 Corinthians 15:41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.

1 Corinthians 15:42 So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable.

1 Corinthians 15:43 It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

1 Corinthians 15:44 It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body.

1 Corinthians 15:45 Thus it is written, “The first man Adam became a living being”; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:46 But it is not the spiritual which is first but the physical, and then the spiritual.

1 Corinthians 15:47 The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48 As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:49 Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:50 I tell you this, brethren: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

1 Corinthians 15:51 Lo! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

1 Corinthians 15:52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:53 For this perishable nature must put on the imperishable, and this mortal nature must put on immortality.

1 Corinthians 15:54 When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.”

1 Corinthians 15:55 “O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?”

1 Corinthians 15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

1 Corinthians 15:57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

1 Corinthians 16:1 Now concerning the contribution for the saints: as I directed the churches of Galatia, so you also are to do.

1 Corinthians 16:2 On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and store it up, as he may prosper, so that contributions need not be made when I come.

1 Corinthians 16:3 And when I arrive, I will send those whom you accredit by letter to carry your gift to Jerusalem.

1 Corinthians 16:4 If it seems advisable that I should go also, they will accompany me.

1 Corinthians 16:5 I will visit you after passing through Macedonia, for I intend to pass through Macedonia,

1 Corinthians 16:6 and perhaps I will stay with you or even spend the winter, so that you may speed me on my journey, wherever I go.

1 Corinthians 16:7 For I do not want to see you now just in passing; I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits.

1 Corinthians 16:8 But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,

1 Corinthians 16:9 for a wide door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

1 Corinthians 16:10 When Timothy comes, see that you put him at ease among you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I am.

1 Corinthians 16:11 So let no one despise him. Speed him on his way in peace, that he may return to me; for I am expecting him with the brethren.

1 Corinthians 16:12 As for our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to visit you with the other brethren, but it was not at all his will to come now. He will come when he has opportunity.

1 Corinthians 16:13 Be watchful, stand firm in your faith, be courageous, be strong.

1 Corinthians 16:14 Let all that you do be done in love.

1 Corinthians 16:15 Now, brethren, you know that the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints;

1 Corinthians 16:16 I urge you to be subject to such men and to every fellow worker and laborer.

1 Corinthians 16:17 I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have made up for your absence;

1 Corinthians 16:18 for they refreshed my spirit as well as yours. Give recognition to such men.

1 Corinthians 16:19 The churches of Asia send greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, send you hearty greetings in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 16:20 All the brethren send greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

1 Corinthians 16:21 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand.

1 Corinthians 16:22 If any one has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come!

1 Corinthians 16:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

1 Corinthians 16:24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother. To the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia:

2 Corinthians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort,

2 Corinthians 1:4 who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

2 Corinthians 1:5 For as we share abundantly in Christ’s sufferings, so through Christ we share abundantly in comfort too.

2 Corinthians 1:6 If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; and if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we suffer.

2 Corinthians 1:7 Our hope for you is unshaken; for we know that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in our comfort.

2 Corinthians 1:8 For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, of the affliction we experienced in Asia; for we were so utterly, unbearably crushed that we despaired of life itself.

2 Corinthians 1:9 Why, we felt that we had received the sentence of death; but that was to make us rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead;

2 Corinthians 1:10 he delivered us from so deadly a peril, and he will deliver us; on him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again.

2 Corinthians 1:11 You also must help us by prayer, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us in answer to many prayers.

2 Corinthians 1:12 For our boast is this, the testimony of our conscience that we have behaved in the world, and still more toward you, with holiness and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God.

2 Corinthians 1:13 For we write you nothing but what you can read and understand; I hope you will understand fully,

2 Corinthians 1:14 as you have understood in part, that you can be proud of us as we can be of you, on the day of the Lord Jesus.

2 Corinthians 1:15 Because I was sure of this, I wanted to come to you first, so that you might have a double pleasure;

2 Corinthians 1:16 I wanted to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and to come back to you from Macedonia and have you send me on my way to Judea.

2 Corinthians 1:17 Was I vacillating when I wanted to do this? Do I make my plans like a worldly man, ready to say Yes and No at once?

2 Corinthians 1:18 As surely as God is faithful, our word to you has not been Yes and No.

2 Corinthians 1:19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we preached among you, Silvanus and Timothy and I, was not Yes and No; but in him it is always Yes.

2 Corinthians 1:20 For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why we utter the Amen through him, to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 1:21 But it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has commissioned us;

2 Corinthians 1:22 he has put his seal upon us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.

2 Corinthians 1:23 But I call God to witness against me—it was to spare you that I refrained from coming to Corinth.

2 Corinthians 1:24 Not that we lord it over your faith; we work with you for your joy, for you stand firm in your faith.

2 Corinthians 2:1 For I made up my mind not to make you another painful visit.

2 Corinthians 2:2 For if I cause you pain, who is there to make me glad but the one whom I have pained?

2 Corinthians 2:3 And I wrote as I did, so that when I came I might not suffer pain from those who should have made me rejoice, for I felt sure of all of you, that my joy would be the joy of you all.

2 Corinthians 2:4 For I wrote you out of much affliction and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to cause you pain but to let you know the abundant love that I have for you.

2 Corinthians 2:5 But if any one has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure —not to put it too severely—to you all.

2 Corinthians 2:6 For such a one this punishment by the majority is enough;

2 Corinthians 2:7 so you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:8 So I beg you to reaffirm your love for him.

2 Corinthians 2:9 For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything.

2 Corinthians 2:10 Any one whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ,

2 Corinthians 2:11 to keep Satan from gaining the advantage over us; for we are not ignorant of his designs.

2 Corinthians 2:12 When I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, a door was opened for me in the Lord;

2 Corinthians 2:13 but my mind could not rest because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I took leave of them and went on to Macedonia.

2 Corinthians 2:14 But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumph, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere.

2 Corinthians 2:15 For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing,

2 Corinthians 2:16 to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things?

2 Corinthians 2:17 For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God’s word; but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

2 Corinthians 3:1 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you, or from you?

2 Corinthians 3:2 You yourselves are our letter of recommendation, written on your hearts, to be known and read by all men;

2 Corinthians 3:3 and you show that you are a letter from Christ delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

2 Corinthians 3:4 Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God.

2 Corinthians 3:5 Not that we are competent of ourselves to claim anything as coming from us; our competence is from God,

2 Corinthians 3:6 who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not in a written code but in the Spirit; for the written code kills, but the Spirit gives life.

2 Corinthians 3:7 Now if the dispensation of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such splendor that the Israelites could not look at Moses' face because of its brightness, fading as this was,

2 Corinthians 3:8 will not the dispensation of the Spirit be attended with greater splendor?

2 Corinthians 3:9 For if there was splendor in the dispensation of condemnation, the dispensation of righteousness must far exceed it in splendor.

2 Corinthians 3:10 Indeed, in this case, what once had splendor has come to have no splendor at all, because of the splendor that surpasses it.

2 Corinthians 3:11 For if what faded away came with splendor, what is permanent must have much more splendor.

2 Corinthians 3:12 Since we have such a hope, we are very bold,

2 Corinthians 3:13 not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not see the end of the fading splendor.

2 Corinthians 3:14 But their minds were hardened; for to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away.

2 Corinthians 3:15 Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their minds;

2 Corinthians 3:16 but when a man turns to the Lord the veil is removed.

2 Corinthians 3:17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

2 Corinthians 3:18 And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being changed into his likeness from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 4:1 Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart.

2 Corinthians 4:2 We have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways; we refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God's word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

2 Corinthians 4:3 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing.

2 Corinthians 4:4 In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the likeness of God.

2 Corinthians 4:5 For what we preach is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake.

2 Corinthians 4:6 For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.

2 Corinthians 4:7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, to show that the transcendent power belongs to God and not to us.

2 Corinthians 4:8 We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair;

2 Corinthians 4:9 persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed;

2 Corinthians 4:10 always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies.

2 Corinthians 4:11 For while we live we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

2 Corinthians 4:12 So death is at work in us, but life in you.

2 Corinthians 4:13 Since we have the same spirit of faith as he had who wrote, "I believed, and so I spoke," we too believe, and so we speak,

2 Corinthians 4:14 knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence.

2 Corinthians 4:15 For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 4:16 So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed every day.

2 Corinthians 4:17 For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison,

2 Corinthians 4:18 because we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen; for the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

2 Corinthians 5:1 For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 Corinthians 5:2 Here indeed we groan, and long to put on our heavenly dwelling,

2 Corinthians 5:3 so that by putting it on we may not be found naked.

2 Corinthians 5:4 For while we are still in this tent, we sigh with anxiety; not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

2 Corinthians 5:5 He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

2 Corinthians 5:6 So we are always of good courage; we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord,

2 Corinthians 5:7 for we walk by faith, not by sight.

2 Corinthians 5:8 We are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:9 So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him.

2 Corinthians 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive good or evil, according to what he has done in the body.

2 Corinthians 5:11 Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men; but what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience.

2 Corinthians 5:12 We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to be proud of us, so that you may be able to answer those who pride themselves on a man’s position and not on his heart.

2 Corinthians 5:13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

2 Corinthians 5:14 For the love of Christ controls us, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died.

2 Corinthians 5:15 And he died for all, that those who live might live no longer for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

2 Corinthians 5:16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once regarded Christ from a human point of view, we regard him thus no longer.

2 Corinthians 5:17 Therefore, if any one is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, behold, the new has come.

2 Corinthians 5:18 All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation;

2 Corinthians 5:19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:20 So we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We beseech you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

2 Corinthians 5:21 For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 6:1 Working together with him, then, we entreat you not to accept the grace of God in vain.

2 Corinthians 6:2 For he says, “At the acceptable time I have listened to you, and helped you on the day of salvation.” Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

2 Corinthians 6:3 We put no obstacle in any one’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry,

2 Corinthians 6:4 but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities,

2 Corinthians 6:5 beatings, imprisonments, tumults, labors, watching, hunger;

2 Corinthians 6:6 by purity, knowledge, forbearance, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love,

2 Corinthians 6:7 truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left;

2 Corinthians 6:8 in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true;

2 Corinthians 6:9 as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold we live; as punished, and yet not killed;

2 Corinthians 6:10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

2 Corinthians 6:11 Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians; our heart is wide.

2 Corinthians 6:12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections.

2 Corinthians 6:13 In return—I speak as to children—widen your hearts also.

2 Corinthians 6:14 Do not be mismated with unbelievers. For what partnership have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness?

2 Corinthians 6:15 What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what has a believer in common with an unbeliever?

2 Corinthians 6:16 What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, “I will live in them and move among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

2 Corinthians 6:17 Therefore come out from them, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch nothing unclean; then I will welcome you,

2 Corinthians 6:18 and I will be a father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.”

2 Corinthians 7:1 Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, and make holiness perfect in the fear of God.

2 Corinthians 7:2 Open your hearts to us; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.

2 Corinthians 7:3 I do not say this to condemn you, for I said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together.

2 Corinthians 7:4 I have great confidence in you; I have great pride in you; I am filled with comfort. With all our affliction, I am overjoyed.

2 Corinthians 7:5 For even when we came into Macedonia, our bodies had no rest but we were afflicted at every turn—fighting without and fear within.

2 Corinthians 7:6 But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus,

2 Corinthians 7:7 and not only by his coming but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced still more.

2 Corinthians 7:8 For even if I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it (though I did regret it), for I see that that letter grieved you, though only for a while.

2 Corinthians 7:9 As it is, I rejoice, not because you were grieved, but because you were grieved into repenting; for you felt a godly grief, so that you suffered no loss through us.

2 Corinthians 7:10 For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation and brings no regret, but worldly grief produces death.

2 Corinthians 7:11 For see what earnestness this godly grief has produced in you, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what zeal, what punishment! At every point you have proved yourselves guiltless in the matter.

2 Corinthians 7:12 So although I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did the wrong, nor on account of the one who suffered the wrong, but in order that your zeal for us might be revealed to you in the sight of God.

2 Corinthians 7:13 Therefore we are comforted. And besides our own comfort we rejoiced still more at the joy of Titus, because his mind has been set at rest by you all.

2 Corinthians 7:14 For if I have expressed to him some pride in you, I was not put to shame; but just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting before Titus has proved true.

2 Corinthians 7:15 And his heart goes out all the more to you, as he remembers the obedience of you all, and the fear and trembling with which you received him.

2 Corinthians 7:16 I rejoice, because I have perfect confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8:1 We want you to know, brethren, about the grace of God which has been shown in the churches of Macedonia,

2 Corinthians 8:2 for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of liberality on their part.

2 Corinthians 8:3 For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will,

2 Corinthians 8:4 begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints —

2 Corinthians 8:5 and this, not as we expected, but first they gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God.

2 Corinthians 8:6 Accordingly we have urged Titus that as he had already made a beginning, he should also complete among you this gracious work.

2 Corinthians 8:7 Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in utterance, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in your love for us—see that you excel in this gracious work also.

2 Corinthians 8:8 I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine.

2 Corinthians 8:9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

2 Corinthians 8:10 And in this matter I give my advice: it is best for you now to complete what a year ago you began not only to do but to desire,

2 Corinthians 8:11 so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have.

2 Corinthians 8:12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a man has, not according to what he has not.

2 Corinthians 8:13 I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened,

2 Corinthians 8:14 but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality.

2 Corinthians 8:15 As it is written, “He who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack.”

2 Corinthians 8:16 But thanks be to God who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.

2 Corinthians 8:17 For he not only accepted our appeal, but being himself very earnest he is going to you of his own accord.

2 Corinthians 8:18 With him we are sending the brother who is famous among all the churches for his preaching of the gospel;

2 Corinthians 8:19 and not only that, but he has been appointed by the churches to travel with us in this gracious work which we are carrying on, for the glory of the Lord and to show our good will.

2 Corinthians 8:20 We intend that no one should blame us about this liberal gift which we are administering,

2 Corinthians 8:21 for we aim at what is honorable not only in the Lord’s sight but also in the sight of men.

2 Corinthians 8:22 And with them we are sending our brother whom we have often tested and found earnest in many matters, but who is now more earnest than ever because of his great confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8:23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker in your service; and as for our brethren, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.

2 Corinthians 8:24 So give proof, before the churches, of your love and of our boasting about you to these men.

2 Corinthians 9:1 Now it is superfluous for me to write to you about the offering for the saints,

2 Corinthians 9:2 for I know your readiness, of which I boast about you to the people of Macedonia, saying that Achaia has been ready since last year; and your zeal has stirred up most of them.

2 Corinthians 9:3 But I am sending the brethren so that our boasting about you may not prove vain in this case, so that you may be ready, as I said you would be;

2 Corinthians 9:4 lest if some Macedonians come with me and find that you are not ready, we be humiliated—to say nothing of you—for being so confident.

2 Corinthians 9:5 So I thought it necessary to urge the brethren to go on to you before me, and arrange in advance for this gift you have promised, so that it may be ready not as an exaction but as a willing gift.

2 Corinthians 9:6 The point is this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

2 Corinthians 9:7 Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

2 Corinthians 9:8 And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything and may provide in abundance for every good work.

2 Corinthians 9:9 As it is written, “He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures for ever.”

2 Corinthians 9:10 He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your resources and increase the harvest of your righteousness.

2 Corinthians 9:11 You will be enriched in every way for great generosity, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God;

2 Corinthians 9:12 for the rendering of this service not only supplies the wants of the saints but also overflows in many thanksgivings to God.

2 Corinthians 9:13 Under the test of this service, you will glorify God by your obedience in acknowledging the gospel of Christ, and by the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others;

2 Corinthians 9:14 while they long for you and pray for you, because of the surpassing grace of God in you.

2 Corinthians 9:15 Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift!

2 Corinthians 10:1 I, Paul, myself entreat you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold to you when I am away! —

2 Corinthians 10:2 I beg of you that when I am present I may not have to show boldness with such confidence as I count on showing against some who suspect us of acting in worldly fashion.

2 Corinthians 10:3 For though we live in the world we are not carrying on a worldly war,

2 Corinthians 10:4 for the weapons of our warfare are not worldly but have divine power to destroy strongholds.

2 Corinthians 10:5 We destroy arguments and every proud obstacle to the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ,

2 Corinthians 10:6 being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete.

2 Corinthians 10:7 Look at what is before your eyes. If any one is confident that he is Christ’s, let him remind himself that as he is Christ’s, so are we.

2 Corinthians 10:8 For even if I boast a little too much of our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for destroying you, I shall not be put to shame.

2 Corinthians 10:9 I would not seem to be frightening you with letters.

2 Corinthians 10:10 For they say, “His letters are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech of no account.”

2 Corinthians 10:11 Let such people understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present.

2 Corinthians 10:12 Not that we venture to class or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another, and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding.

2 Corinthians 10:13 But we will not boast beyond limit, but will keep to the limits God has apportioned us, to reach even to you.

2 Corinthians 10:14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach you; we were the first to come all the way to you with the gospel of Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:15 We do not boast beyond limit, in other men's labors; but our hope is that as your faith increases, our field among you may be greatly enlarged,

2 Corinthians 10:16 so that we may preach the gospel in lands beyond you, without boasting of work already done in another's field.

2 Corinthians 10:17 "Let him who boasts, boast of the Lord."

2 Corinthians 10:18 For it is not the man who commends himself that is accepted, but the man whom the Lord commends.

2 Corinthians 11:1 I wish you would bear with me in a little foolishness. Do bear with me!

2 Corinthians 11:2 I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to Christ to present you as a pure bride to her one husband.

2 Corinthians 11:3 But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:4 For if some one comes and preaches another Jesus than the one we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or if you accept a different gospel from the one you accepted, you submit to it readily enough.

2 Corinthians 11:5 I think that I am not in the least inferior to these superlative apostles.

2 Corinthians 11:6 Even if I am unskilled in speaking, I am not in knowledge; in every way we have made this plain to you in all things.

2 Corinthians 11:7 Did I commit a sin in abasing myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached God's gospel without cost to you?

2 Corinthians 11:8 I robbed other churches by accepting support from them in order to serve you.

2 Corinthians 11:9 And when I was with you and was in want, I did not burden any one, for my needs were supplied by the brethren who came from Macedonia. So I refrained and will refrain from burdening you in any way.

2 Corinthians 11:10 As the truth of Christ is in me, this boast of mine shall not be silenced in the regions of Achaia.

2 Corinthians 11:11 And why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

2 Corinthians 11:12 And what I do I will continue to do, in order to undermine the claim of those who would like to claim that in their boasted mission they work on the same terms as we do.

2 Corinthians 11:13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:14 And no wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

2 Corinthians 11:15 So it is not strange if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their end will correspond to their deeds.

2 Corinthians 11:16 I repeat, let no one think me foolish; but even if you do, accept me as a fool, so that I too may boast a little.

2 Corinthians 11:17 (What I am saying I say not with the Lord's authority but as a fool, in this boastful confidence;

2 Corinthians 11:18 since many boast of worldly things, I too will boast.)

2 Corinthians 11:19 For you gladly bear with fools, being wise yourselves!

2 Corinthians 11:20 For you bear it if a man makes slaves of you, or preys upon you, or takes advantage of you, or puts on airs, or strikes you in the face.

2 Corinthians 11:21 To my shame, I must say, we were too weak for that! But whatever any one dares to boast of—I am speaking as a fool—I also dare to boast of that.

2 Corinthians 11:22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

2 Corinthians 11:23 Are they servants of Christ? I am a better one—I am talking like a madman—with far greater labors, far more imprisonments, with countless beatings, and often near death.

2 Corinthians 11:24 Five times I have received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one.

2 Corinthians 11:25 Three times I have been beaten with rods; once I was stoned. Three times I have been shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been adrift at sea;

2 Corinthians 11:26 on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from robbers, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brethren;

2 Corinthians 11:27 in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure.

2 Corinthians 11:28 And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure upon me of my anxiety for all the churches.

2 Corinthians 11:29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall, and I am not indignant?

2 Corinthians 11:30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

2 Corinthians 11:31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed for ever, knows that I do not lie.

2 Corinthians 11:32 At Damascus, the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of Damascus in order to seize me,

2 Corinthians 11:33 but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped his hands.

2 Corinthians 12:1 I must boast; there is nothing to be gained by it, but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 12:2 I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows.

2 Corinthians 12:3 And I know that this man was caught up into Paradise—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows —

2 Corinthians 12:4 and he heard things that cannot be told, which man may not utter.

2 Corinthians 12:5 On behalf of this man I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses.

2 Corinthians 12:6 Though if I wish to boast, I shall not be a fool, for I shall be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think more of me than he sees in me or hears from me.

2 Corinthians 12:7 And to keep me from being too elated by the abundance of revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, to harass me, to keep me from being too elated.

2 Corinthians 12:8 Three times I besought the Lord about this, that it should leave me;

2 Corinthians 12:9 but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” I will all the more gladly boast of my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

2 Corinthians 12:10 For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:11 I have been a fool! You forced me to it, for I ought to have been commended by you. For I was not at all inferior to these superlative apostles, even though I am nothing.

2 Corinthians 12:12 The signs of a true apostle were performed among you in all patience, with signs and wonders and mighty works.

2 Corinthians 12:13 For in what were you less favored than the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong!

2 Corinthians 12:14 Here for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be a burden, for I seek not what is yours but you; for children ought not to lay up for their parents, but parents for their children.

2 Corinthians 12:15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you the more, am I to be loved the less?

2 Corinthians 12:16 But granting that I myself did not burden you, I was crafty, you say, and got the better of you by guile.

2 Corinthians 12:17 Did I take advantage of you through any of those whom I sent to you?

2 Corinthians 12:18 I urged Titus to go, and sent the brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not act in the same spirit? Did we not take the same steps?

2 Corinthians 12:19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves before you? It is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ, and all for your upbuilding, beloved.

2 Corinthians 12:20 For I fear that perhaps I may come and find you not what I wish, and that you may find me not what you wish; that perhaps there may be quarreling, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, conceit, and disorder.

2 Corinthians 12:21 I fear that when I come again my God may humble me before you, and I may have to mourn over many of those who sinned before and have not repented of the impurity, immorality, and licentiousness which they have practiced.

2 Corinthians 13:1 This is the third time I am coming to you. Any charge must be sustained by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

2 Corinthians 13:2 I warned those who sinned before and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again I will not spare them —

2 Corinthians 13:3 since you desire proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful in you.

2 Corinthians 13:4 For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we are weak in him, but in dealing with you we shall live with him by the power of God.

2 Corinthians 13:5 Examine yourselves, to see whether you are holding to your faith. Test yourselves. Do you not realize that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you fail to meet the test!

2 Corinthians 13:6 I hope you will find out that we have not failed.

2 Corinthians 13:7 But we pray God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed.

2 Corinthians 13:8 For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

2 Corinthians 13:9 For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. What we pray for is your improvement.

2 Corinthians 13:10 I write this while I am away from you, in order that when I come I may not have to be severe in my use of the authority which the Lord has given me for building up and not for tearing down.

2 Corinthians 13:11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Mend your ways, heed my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

2 Corinthians 13:12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

2 Corinthians 13:13 All the saints greet you.

2 Corinthians 13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Galatians

1:1 Paul an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead —

Galatians 1:2 and all the brethren who are with me, To the churches of Galatia:

Galatians 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,

Galatians 1:4 who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father;

Galatians 1:5 to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Galatians 1:6 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and turning to a different gospel —

Galatians 1:7 not that there is another gospel, but there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ.

Galatians 1:8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to that which we preached to you, let him be accursed.

Galatians 1:9 As we have said before, so now I say again, If any one is preaching to you a gospel contrary to that which you received, let him be accursed.

Galatians 1:10 Am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I trying to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I should not be a servant of Christ.

Galatians 1:11 For I would have you know, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not man's gospel.

Galatians 1:12 For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

Galatians 1:13 For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it;

Galatians 1:14 and I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers.

Galatians 1:15 But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and had called me through his grace,

Galatians 1:16 was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with flesh and blood,

Galatians 1:17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned to Damascus.

Galatians 1:18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and remained with him fifteen days.

Galatians 1:19 But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord's brother.

Galatians 1:20 (In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie!)

Galatians 1:21 Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

Galatians 1:22 And I was still not known by sight to the churches of Christ in Judea;

Galatians 1:23 they only heard it said, "He who once persecuted us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy."

Galatians 1:24 And they glorified God because of me.

Galatians 2:1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me.

Galatians 2:2 I went up by revelation; and I laid before them (but privately before those who were of repute) the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, lest somehow I should be running or had run in vain.

Galatians 2:3 But even Titus, who was with me, was not compelled to be circumcised, though he was a Greek.

Galatians 2:4 But because of false brethren secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy out our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage —

Galatians 2:5 to them we did not yield submission even for a moment, that the truth of the gospel might be preserved for you.

Galatians 2:6 And from those who were reputed to be something (what they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)— those, I say, who were of repute added nothing to me;

Galatians 2:7 but on the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been entrusted with the gospel to the circumcised

Galatians 2:8 (for he who worked through Peter for the mission to the circumcised worked through me also for the Gentiles),

Galatians 2:9 and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised;

Galatians 2:10 only they would have us remember the poor, which very thing I was eager to do.

Galatians 2:11 But when Cephas came to Antioch I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.

Galatians 2:12 For before certain men came from James, he ate with the Gentiles; but when they came he drew back and separated himself, fearing the circumcision party.

Galatians 2:13 And with him the rest of the Jews acted insincerely, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their insincerity.

Galatians 2:14 But when I saw that they were not straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, “If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?”

Galatians 2:15 We ourselves, who are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners,

Galatians 2:16 yet who know that a man is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ, and not by works of the law, because by works of the law shall no one be justified.

Galatians 2:17 But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were found to be sinners, is Christ then an agent of sin? Certainly not!

Galatians 2:18 But if I build up again those things which I tore down, then I prove myself a transgressor.

Galatians 2:19 For I through the law died to the law, that I might live to God.

Galatians 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me; and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Galatians 2:21 I do not nullify the grace of God; for if justification were through the law, then Christ died to no purpose.

Galatians 3:1 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified?

Galatians 3:2 Let me ask you only this: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law, or by hearing with faith?

Galatians 3:3 Are you so foolish? Having begun with the Spirit, are you now ending with the flesh?

Galatians 3:4 Did you experience so many things in vain?—if it really is in vain.

Galatians 3:5 Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith?

Galatians 3:6 Thus Abraham “believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.”

Galatians 3:7 So you see that it is men of faith who are the sons of Abraham.

Galatians 3:8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, “In you shall all the nations be blessed.”

Galatians 3:9 So then, those who are men of faith are blessed with Abraham who had faith.

Galatians 3:10 For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, “Cursed be every one who does not abide by all things written in the book of the law, and do them.”

Galatians 3:11 Now it is evident that no man is justified before God by the law; for “He who through faith is righteous shall live”;

Galatians 3:12 but the law does not rest on faith, for “He who does them shall live by them.”

Galatians 3:13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, “Cursed be every one who hangs on a tree” —

Galatians 3:14 that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come upon the Gentiles, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Galatians 3:15 To give a human example, brethren: no one annuls even a man’s will, or adds to it, once it has been ratified.

Galatians 3:16 Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, “And to offsprings,” referring to many; but, referring to one, “And to your offspring,” which is Christ.

Galatians 3:17 This is what I mean: the law, which came four hundred and thirty years afterward, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to make the promise void.

Galatians 3:18 For if the inheritance is by the law, it is no longer by promise; but God gave it to Abraham by a promise.

Galatians 3:19 Why then the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the offspring should come to whom the promise had been made; and it was ordained by angels through an intermediary.

Galatians 3:20 Now an intermediary implies more than one; but God is one.

Galatians 3:21 Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not; for if a law had been given which could make alive, then righteousness would indeed be by the law.

Galatians 3:22 But the scripture consigned all things to sin, that what was promised to faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

Galatians 3:23 Now before faith came, we were confined under the law, kept under restraint until faith should be revealed.

Galatians 3:24 So that the law was our custodian until Christ came, that we might be justified by faith.

Galatians 3:25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a custodian;

Galatians 3:26 for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith.

Galatians 3:27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

Galatians 3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:29 And if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s offspring, heirs according to promise.

Galatians 4:1 I mean that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no better than a slave, though he is the owner of all the estate;

Galatians 4:2 but he is under guardians and trustees until the date set by the father.

Galatians 4:3 So with us; when we were children, we were slaves to the elemental spirits of the universe.

Galatians 4:4 But when the time had fully come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, Galatians 4:5 to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

Galatians 4:6 And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba! Father!”

Galatians 4:7 So through God you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then an heir.

Galatians 4:8 Formerly, when you did not know God, you were in bondage to beings that by nature are no gods;

Galatians 4:9 but now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and beggarly elemental spirits, whose slaves you want to be once more?

Galatians 4:10 You observe days, and months, and seasons, and years!

Galatians 4:11 I am afraid I have labored over you in vain.

Galatians 4:12 Brethren, I beseech you, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong;

Galatians 4:13 you know it was because of a bodily ailment that I preached the gospel to you at first;

Galatians 4:14 and though my condition was a trial to you, you did not scorn or despise me, but received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.

Galatians 4:15 What has become of the satisfaction you felt? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.

Galatians 4:16 Have I then become your enemy by telling you the truth?

Galatians 4:17 They make much of you, but for no good purpose; they want to shut you out, that you may make much of them.

Galatians 4:18 For a good purpose it is always good to be made much of, and not only when I am present with you.

Galatians 4:19 My little children, with whom I am again in travail until Christ be formed in you!

Galatians 4:20 I could wish to be present with you now and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.

Galatians 4:21 Tell me, you who desire to be under law, do you not hear the law?

Galatians 4:22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave and one by a free woman.

Galatians 4:23 But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, the son of the free woman through promise.

Galatians 4:24 Now this is an allegory: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar.

Galatians 4:25 Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother.

Galatians 4:27 For it is written, “Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and shout, you who are not in travail; for the children of the desolate one are many more than the children of her that is married.”

Galatians 4:28 Now we, brethren, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Galatians 4:29 But as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so it is now.

Galatians 4:30 But what does the scripture say? “Cast out the slave and her son; for the son of the slave shall not inherit with the son of the free woman.”

Galatians 4:31 So, brethren, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman.

Galatians 5:1 For freedom Christ has set us free; stand fast therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

Galatians 5:2 Now I, Paul, say to you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you.

Galatians 5:3 I testify again to every man who receives circumcision that he is bound to keep the whole law.

Galatians 5:4 You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace.

Galatians 5:5 For through the Spirit, by faith, we wait for the hope of righteousness.

Galatians 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is of any avail, but faith working through love.

Galatians 5:7 You were running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth?

Galatians 5:8 This persuasion is not from him who calls you.

Galatians 5:9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump.

Galatians 5:10 I have confidence in the Lord that you will take no other view than mine; and he who is troubling you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

Galatians 5:11 But if I, brethren, still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been removed.

Galatians 5:12 I wish those who unsettle you would mutilate themselves!

Galatians 5:13 For you were called to freedom, brethren; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love be servants of one another.

Galatians 5:14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Galatians 5:15 But if you bite and devour one another take heed that you are not consumed by one another.

Galatians 5:16 But I say, walk by the Spirit, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh.

Galatians 5:17 For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you would.

Galatians 5:18 But if you are led by the Spirit you are not under the law.

Galatians 5:19 Now the works of the flesh are plain: fornication, impurity, licentiousness,

Galatians 5:20 idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, anger, selfishness, dissension, party spirit,

Galatians 5:21 envy, drunkenness, carousing, and the like. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

Galatians 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,

Galatians 5:23 gentleness, self-control; against such there is no law.

Galatians 5:24 And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

Galatians 5:25 If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.

Galatians 5:26 Let us have no self-conceit, no provoking of one another, no envy of one another.

Galatians 6:1 Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Look to yourself, lest you too be tempted.

Galatians 6:2 Bear one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:3 For if any one thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

Galatians 6:4 But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor.

Galatians 6:5 For each man will have to bear his own load.

Galatians 6:6 Let him who is taught the word share all good things with him who teaches.

Galatians 6:7 Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.

Galatians 6:8 For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption; but he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.

Galatians 6:9 And let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart.

Galatians 6:10 So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all men, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Galatians 6:11 See with what large letters I am writing to you with my own hand.

Galatians 6:12 It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that would compel you to be circumcised, and only in order that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

Galatians 6:13 For even those who receive circumcision do not themselves keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may glory in your flesh.

Galatians 6:14 But far be it from me to glory except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Galatians 6:15 For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

Galatians 6:16 Peace and mercy be upon all who walk by this rule, upon the Israel of God.

Galatians 6:17 Henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus.

Galatians 6:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

Ephesians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are also faithful in Christ Jesus:

Ephesians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places,

Ephesians 1:4 even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him.

Ephesians 1:5 He destined us in love to be his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will,

Ephesians 1:6 to the praise of his glorious grace which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

Ephesians 1:7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace

Ephesians 1:8 which he lavished upon us.

Ephesians 1:9 For he has made known to us in all wisdom and insight the mystery of his will, according to his purpose which he set forth in Christ

Ephesians 1:10 as a plan for the fulness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

Ephesians 1:11 In him, according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to the counsel of his will,

Ephesians 1:12 we who first hoped in Christ have been destined and appointed to live for the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:13 In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit,

Ephesians 1:14 which is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:15 For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints,

Ephesians 1:16 I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers,

Ephesians 1:17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him,

Ephesians 1:18 having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,

Ephesians 1:19 and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power in us who believe, according to the working of his great might

Ephesians 1:20 which he accomplished in Christ when he raised him from the dead and made him sit at his right hand in the heavenly places,

Ephesians 1:21 far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come;

Ephesians 1:22 and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, Ephesians 1:23 which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 2:1 And you he made alive, when you were dead through the trespasses and sins

Ephesians 2:2 in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience.

Ephesians 2:3 Among these we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of body and mind, and so we were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind.

Ephesians 2:4 But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us,

Ephesians 2:5 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved),

Ephesians 2:6 and raised us up with him, and made us sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

Ephesians 2:7 that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 2:8 For by grace you have been saved through faith; and this is not your own doing, it is the gift of God —

Ephesians 2:9 not because of works, lest any man should boast.

Ephesians 2:10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

Ephesians 2:11 Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called the uncircumcision by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands —

Ephesians 2:12 remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

Ephesians 2:13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near in the blood of Christ.

Ephesians 2:14 For he is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility,

Ephesians 2:15 by abolishing in his flesh the law of commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace,

Ephesians 2:16 and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby bringing the hostility to an end.

Ephesians 2:17 And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near;

Ephesians 2:18 for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Ephesians 2:19 So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God,

Ephesians 2:20 built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone,

Ephesians 2:21 in whom the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord;

Ephesians 2:22 in whom you also are built into it for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

Ephesians 3:1 For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles —

Ephesians 3:2 assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you,

Ephesians 3:3 how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I have written briefly.

Ephesians 3:4 When you read this you can perceive my insight into the mystery of Christ,

Ephesians 3:5 which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

Ephesians 3:6 that is, how the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Ephesians 3:7 Of this gospel I was made a minister according to the gift of God's grace which was given me by the working of his power.

Ephesians 3:8 To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,

Ephesians 3:9 and to make all men see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things;

Ephesians 3:10 that through the church the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places.

Ephesians 3:11 This was according to the eternal purpose which he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord,

Ephesians 3:12 in whom we have boldness and confidence of access through our faith in him.

Ephesians 3:13 So I ask you not to lose heart over what I am suffering for you, which is your glory.

Ephesians 3:14 For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, Ephesians 3:15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,

Ephesians 3:16 that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with might through his Spirit in the inner man,

Ephesians 3:17 and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love,

Ephesians 3:18 may have power to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,

Ephesians 3:19 and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fulness of God.

Ephesians 3:20 Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think,

Ephesians 3:21 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 4:1 I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called,

Ephesians 4:2 with all lowliness and meekness, with patience, forbearing one another in love,

Ephesians 4:3 eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Ephesians 4:4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call,

Ephesians 4:5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

Ephesians 4:6 one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and in all.

Ephesians 4:7 But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ’s gift.

Ephesians 4:8 Therefore it is said, “When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men.”

Ephesians 4:9 (In saying, “He ascended,” what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth?

Ephesians 4:10 He who descended is he who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.)

Ephesians 4:11 And his gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers,

Ephesians 4:12 to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ,

Ephesians 4:13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ;

Ephesians 4:14 so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the cunning of men, by their craftiness in deceitful wiles.

Ephesians 4:15 Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ,

Ephesians 4:16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every joint with which it is supplied, when each part is working properly, makes bodily growth and upbuilds itself in love.

Ephesians 4:17 Now this I affirm and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds;

Ephesians 4:18 they are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart;

Ephesians 4:19 they have become callous and have given themselves up to licentiousness, greedy to practice every kind of uncleanness.

Ephesians 4:20 You did not so learn Christ! —

Ephesians 4:21 assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus.

Ephesians 4:22 Put off your old nature which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful lusts,

Ephesians 4:23 and be renewed in the spirit of your minds,

Ephesians 4:24 and put on the new nature, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

Ephesians 4:25 Therefore, putting away falsehood, let every one speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another.

Ephesians 4:26 Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger,

Ephesians 4:27 and give no opportunity to the devil.

Ephesians 4:28 Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his hands, so that he may be able to give to those in need.

Ephesians 4:29 Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for edifying, as fits the occasion, that it may impart grace to those who hear.

Ephesians 4:30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

Ephesians 4:31 Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, with all malice,

Ephesians 4:32 and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

Ephesians 5:1 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children.

Ephesians 5:2 And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:3 But fornication and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is fitting among saints.

Ephesians 5:4 Let there be no filthiness, nor silly talk, nor levity, which are not fitting; but instead let there be thanksgiving.

Ephesians 5:5 Be sure of this, that no fornicator or impure man, or one who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Ephesians 5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for it is because of these things that the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience.

Ephesians 5:7 Therefore do not associate with them,

Ephesians 5:8 for once you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord; walk as children of light

Ephesians 5:9 (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true),

Ephesians 5:10 and try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord.

Ephesians 5:11 Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them.

Ephesians 5:12 For it is a shame even to speak of the things that they do in secret;

Ephesians 5:13 but when anything is exposed by the light it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light.

Ephesians 5:14 Therefore it is said, “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light.”

Ephesians 5:15 Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise men but as wise,

Ephesians 5:16 making the most of the time, because the days are evil.

Ephesians 5:17 Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

Ephesians 5:18 And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit,

Ephesians 5:19 addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart,

Ephesians 5:20 always and for everything giving thanks in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father.

Ephesians 5:21 Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Ephesians 5:22 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as to the Lord.

Ephesians 5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior.

Ephesians 5:24 As the church is subject to Christ, so let wives also be subject in everything to their husbands.

Ephesians 5:25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her,

Ephesians 5:26 that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word,

Ephesians 5:27 that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

Ephesians 5:28 Even so husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

Ephesians 5:29 For no man ever hates his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, as Christ does the church,

Ephesians 5:30 because we are members of his body.

Ephesians 5:31 “For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.”

Ephesians 5:32 This mystery is a profound one, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church;

Ephesians 5:33 however, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

Ephesians 6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.

Ephesians 6:2 “Honor your father and mother” (this is the first commandment with a promise),

Ephesians 6:3 “that it may be well with you and that you may live long on the earth.”

Ephesians 6:4 Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Ephesians 6:5 Slaves, be obedient to those who are your earthly masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of heart, as to Christ;

Ephesians 6:6 not in the way of eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,

Ephesians 6:7 rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to men,

Ephesians 6:8 knowing that whatever good any one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free.

Ephesians 6:9 Masters, do the same to them, and forbear threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with him.

Ephesians 6:10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might.

Ephesians 6:11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

Ephesians 6:12 For we are not contending against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world rulers of this present darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

Ephesians 6:13 Therefore take the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Ephesians 6:14 Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,

Ephesians 6:15 and having shod your feet with the equipment of the gospel of peace;

Ephesians 6:16 besides all these, taking the shield of faith, with which you can quench all the flaming darts of the evil one.

Ephesians 6:17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Ephesians 6:18 Pray at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints,

Ephesians 6:19 and also for me, that utterance may be given me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel,

Ephesians 6:20 for which I am an ambassador in chains; that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.

Ephesians 6:21 Now that you also may know how I am and what I am doing, Tychicus the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord will tell you everything.

Ephesians 6:22 I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are, and that he may encourage your hearts.

Ephesians 6:23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 6:24 Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with love undying.

Philippians

1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

Philippians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:3 I thank my God in all my remembrance of you,

Philippians 1:4 always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy,

Philippians 1:5 thankful for your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now.

Philippians 1:6 And I am sure that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:7 It is right for me to feel thus about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.

Philippians 1:8 For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:9 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment,

Philippians 1:10 so that you may approve what is excellent, and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ,

Philippians 1:11 filled with the fruits of righteousness which come through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:12 I want you to know, brethren, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel,

Philippians 1:13 so that it has become known throughout the whole praetorian guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ;

Philippians 1:14 and most of the brethren have been made confident in the Lord because of my imprisonment, and are much more bold to speak the word of God without fear.

Philippians 1:15 Some indeed preach Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from good will.

Philippians 1:16 The latter do it out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel;

Philippians 1:17 the former proclaim Christ out of partisanship, not sincerely but thinking to afflict me in my imprisonment.

Philippians 1:18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in that I rejoice.

Philippians 1:19 Yes, and I shall rejoice. For I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance,

Philippians 1:20 as it is my eager expectation and hope that I shall not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

Philippians 1:21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Philippians 1:22 If it is to be life in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell.

Philippians 1:23 I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better.

Philippians 1:24 But to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account.

Philippians 1:25 Convinced of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith,

Philippians 1:26 so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

Philippians 1:27 Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you stand firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel,

Philippians 1:28 and not frightened in anything by your opponents. This is a clear omen to them of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God.

Philippians 1:29 For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake,

Philippians 1:30 engaged in the same conflict which you saw and now hear to be mine.

Philippians 2:1 So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any incentive of love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy,

Philippians 2:2 complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

Philippians 2:3 Do nothing from selfishness or conceit, but in humility count others better than yourselves.

Philippians 2:4 Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Philippians 2:5 Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus,

Philippians 2:6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped,

Philippians 2:7 but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men.

Philippians 2:8 And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross.

Philippians 2:9 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, Philippians 2:10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

Philippians 2:11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling;

Philippians 2:13 for God is at work in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Philippians 2:14 Do all things without grumbling or questioning,

Philippians 2:15 that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world,

Philippians 2:16 holding fast the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

Philippians 2:17 Even if I am to be poured as a libation upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.

Philippians 2:18 Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me.

Philippians 2:19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I may be cheered by news of you.

Philippians 2:20 I have no one like him, who will be genuinely anxious for your welfare.

Philippians 2:21 They all look after their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

Philippians 2:22 But Timothy’s worth you know, how as a son with a father he has served with me in the gospel.

Philippians 2:23 I hope therefore to send him just as soon as I see how it will go with me;

Philippians 2:24 and I trust in the Lord that shortly I myself shall come also.

Philippians 2:25 I have thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister to my need,

Philippians 2:26 for he has been longing for you all, and has been distressed because you heard that he was ill.

Philippians 2:27 Indeed he was ill, near to death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

Philippians 2:28 I am the more eager to send him, therefore, that you may rejoice at seeing him again, and that I may be less anxious.

Philippians 2:29 So receive him in the Lord with all joy; and honor such men,

Philippians 2:30 for he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete your service to me.

Philippians 3:1 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is not irksome to me, and is safe for you.

Philippians 3:2 Look out for the dogs, look out for the evil-workers, look out for those who mutilate the flesh.

Philippians 3:3 For we are the true circumcision, who worship God in spirit, and glory in Christ Jesus, and put no confidence in the flesh.

Philippians 3:4 Though I myself have reason for confidence in the flesh also. If any other man thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more:

Philippians 3:5 circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law a Pharisee,

Philippians 3:6 as to zeal a persecutor of the church, as to righteousness under the law blameless.

Philippians 3:7 But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ.

Philippians 3:8 Indeed I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as refuse, in order that I may gain Christ

Philippians 3:9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, based on law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith;

Philippians 3:10 that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death,

Philippians 3:11 that if possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Philippians 3:12 Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own.

Philippians 3:13 Brethren, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but one thing I do, forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead,

Philippians 3:14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:15 Let those of us who are mature be thus minded; and if in anything you are otherwise minded, God will reveal that also to you.

Philippians 3:16 Only let us hold true to what we have attained.

Philippians 3:17 Brethren, join in imitating me, and mark those who so live as you have an example in us.

Philippians 3:18 For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, live as enemies of the cross of Christ.

Philippians 3:19 Their end is destruction, their god is the belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things.

Philippians 3:20 But our commonwealth is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ,

Philippians 3:21 who will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power which enables him even to subject all things to himself.

Philippians 4:1 Therefore, my brethren, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved.

Philippians 4:2 I entreat Euodia and I entreat Syntyche to agree in the Lord.

Philippians 4:3 And I ask you also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they have labored side by side with me in the gospel together with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Philippians 4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice.

Philippians 4:5 Let all men know your forbearance. The Lord is at hand.

Philippians 4:6 Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

Philippians 4:7 And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:8 Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

Philippians 4:9 What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you.

Philippians 4:10 I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me; you were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity.

Philippians 4:11 Not that I complain of want; for I have learned, in whatever state I am, to be content.

Philippians 4:12 I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound; in any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and want.

Philippians 4:13 I can do all things in him who strengthens me.

Philippians 4:14 Yet it was kind of you to share my trouble.

Philippians 4:15 And you Philippians yourselves know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church entered into partnership with me in giving and receiving except you only;

Philippians 4:16 for even in Thessalonica you sent me help once and again.

Philippians 4:17 Not that I seek the gift; but I seek the fruit which increases to your credit.

Philippians 4:18 I have received full payment, and more; I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God.

Philippians 4:19 And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:20 To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Philippians 4:21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me greet you.

Philippians 4:22 All the saints greet you, especially those of Caesar’s household.

Philippians 4:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Colossians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

Colossians 1:2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

Colossians 1:3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you,

Colossians 1:4 because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which you have for all the saints,

Colossians 1:5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel

Colossians 1:6 which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—so among yourselves, from the day you heard and understood the grace of God in truth, Colossians 1:7 as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf

Colossians 1:8 and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

Colossians 1:9 And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,

Colossians 1:10 to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

Colossians 1:11 May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy,

Colossians 1:12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.

Colossians 1:13 He has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son,

Colossians 1:14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Colossians 1:15 He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation;

Colossians 1:16 for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him.

Colossians 1:17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

Colossians 1:18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent.

Colossians 1:19 For in him all the fulness of God was pleased to dwell,

Colossians 1:20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Colossians 1:21 And you, who once were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds,

Colossians 1:22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him,

Colossians 1:23 provided that you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which has been preached to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.

Colossians 1:24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church,

Colossians 1:25 of which I became a minister according to the divine office which was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known,

Colossians 1:26 the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now made manifest to his saints.

Colossians 1:27 To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Colossians 1:28 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man mature in Christ.

Colossians 1:29 For this I toil, striving with all the energy which he mightily inspires within me.

Colossians 2:1 For I want you to know how greatly I strive for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not seen my face,

Colossians 2:2 that their hearts may be encouraged as they are knit together in love, to have all the riches of assured understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, of Christ,

Colossians 2:3 in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

Colossians 2:4 I say this in order that no one may delude you with beguiling speech.

Colossians 2:5 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

Colossians 2:6 As therefore you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so live in him,

Colossians 2:7 rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

Colossians 2:8 See to it that no one makes a prey of you by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ.

Colossians 2:9 For in him the whole fulness of deity dwells bodily,

Colossians 2:10 and you have come to fulness of life in him, who is the head of all rule and authority.

Colossians 2:11 In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of flesh in the circumcision of Christ;

Colossians 2:12 and you were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

Colossians 2:13 And you, who were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses,

Colossians 2:14 having canceled the bond which stood against us with its legal demands; this he set aside, nailing it to the cross.

Colossians 2:15 He disarmed the principalities and powers and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in him.

Colossians 2:16 Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a sabbath.

Colossians 2:17 These are only a shadow of what is to come; but the substance belongs to Christ.

Colossians 2:18 Let no one disqualify you, insisting on self-abasement and worship of angels, taking his stand on visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind,

Colossians 2:19 and not holding fast to the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God.

Colossians 2:20 If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the universe, why do you live as if you still belonged to the world? Why do you submit to regulations,

Colossians 2:21 “Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch”

Colossians 2:22 (referring to things which all perish as they are used), according to human precepts and doctrines?

Colossians 2:23 These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting rigor of devotion and self-abasement and severity to the body, but they are of no value in checking the indulgence of the flesh.

Colossians 3:1 If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

Colossians 3:2 Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth.

Colossians 3:3 For you have died, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

Colossians 3:4 When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

Colossians 3:5 Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

Colossians 3:6 On account of these the wrath of God is coming.

Colossians 3:7 In these you once walked, when you lived in them.

Colossians 3:8 But now put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and foul talk from your mouth.

Colossians 3:9 Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old nature with its practices

Colossians 3:10 and have put on the new nature, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator.

Colossians 3:11 Here there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free man, but Christ is all, and in all.

Colossians 3:12 Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience,

Colossians 3:13 forbearing one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

Colossians 3:14 And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Colossians 3:15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful.

Colossians 3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teach and admonish one another in all wisdom, and sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

Colossians 3:17 And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Colossians 3:18 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

Colossians 3:19 Husbands, love your wives, and do not be harsh with them.

Colossians 3:20 Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

Colossians 3:21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged.

Colossians 3:22 Slaves, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord.

Colossians 3:23 Whatever your task, work heartily, as serving the Lord and not men,

Colossians 3:24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward; you are serving the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:25 For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality.

Colossians 4:1 Masters, treat your slaves justly and fairly, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Colossians 4:2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving;

Colossians 4:3 and pray for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison,

Colossians 4:4 that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak.

Colossians 4:5 Conduct yourselves wisely toward outsiders, making the most of the time.

Colossians 4:6 Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer every one.

Colossians 4:7 Tychicus will tell you all about my affairs; he is a beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord.

Colossians 4:8 I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are and that he may encourage your hearts,

Colossians 4:9 and with him Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of yourselves. They will tell you of everything that has taken place here.

Colossians 4:10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, and Mark the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you have received instructions—if he comes to you, receive him),

Colossians 4:11 and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.

Colossians 4:12 Epaphras, who is one of yourselves, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always remembering you earnestly in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God.

Colossians 4:13 For I bear him witness that he has worked hard for you and for those in Laodicea and in Hierapolis.

Colossians 4:14 Luke the beloved physician and Demas greet you.

Colossians 4:15 Give my greetings to the brethren at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house.

Colossians 4:16 And when this letter has been read among you, have it read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you read also the letter from Laodicea.

Colossians 4:17 And say to Archippus, “See that you fulfil the ministry which you have received in the Lord.”

Colossians 4:18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my fetters. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

1 Thessalonians 1:2 We give thanks to God always for you all, constantly mentioning you in our prayers,

1 Thessalonians 1:3 remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 1:4 For we know, brethren beloved by God, that he has chosen you;

1 Thessalonians 1:5 for our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake.

1 Thessalonians 1:6 And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit;

1 Thessalonians 1:7 so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

1 Thessalonians 1:8 For not only has the word of the Lord sounded forth from you in Macedonia and Achaia, but your faith in God has gone forth everywhere, so that we need not say anything.

1 Thessalonians 1:9 For they themselves report concerning us what a welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God,

1 Thessalonians 1:10 and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come.

1 Thessalonians 2:1 For you yourselves know, brethren, that our visit to you was not in vain;

1 Thessalonians 2:2 but though we had already suffered and been shamefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in the face of great opposition.

1 Thessalonians 2:3 For our appeal does not spring from error or uncleanness, nor is it made with guile;

1 Thessalonians 2:4 but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please men, but to please God who tests our hearts.

1 Thessalonians 2:5 For we never used either words of flattery, as you know, or a cloak for greed, as God is witness;

1 Thessalonians 2:6 nor did we seek glory from men, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ.

1 Thessalonians 2:7 But we were gentle among you, like a nurse taking care of her children.

1 Thessalonians 2:8 So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were ready to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you had become very dear to us.

1 Thessalonians 2:9 For you remember our labor and toil, brethren; we worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you, while we preached to you the gospel of God.

1 Thessalonians 2:10 You are witnesses, and God also, how holy and righteous and blameless was our behavior to you believers;

1 Thessalonians 2:11 for you know how, like a father with his children, we exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you

1 Thessalonians 2:12 to lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

1 Thessalonians 2:13 And we also thank God constantly for this, that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers.

1 Thessalonians 2:14 For you, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus which are in Judea; for you suffered the same things from your own countrymen as they did from the Jews,

1 Thessalonians 2:15 who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out, and displease God and oppose all men

1 Thessalonians 2:16 by hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles that they may be saved—so as always to fill up the measure of their sins. But God’s wrath has come upon them at last!

1 Thessalonians 2:17 But since we were bereft of you, brethren, for a short time, in person not in heart, we endeavored the more eagerly and with great desire to see you face to face;

1 Thessalonians 2:18 because we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, again and again—but Satan hindered us.

1 Thessalonians 2:19 For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you?

1 Thessalonians 2:20 For you are our glory and joy.

1 Thessalonians 3:1 Therefore when we could bear it no longer, we were willing to be left behind at Athens alone,

1 Thessalonians 3:2 and we sent Timothy, our brother and God’s servant in the gospel of Christ, to establish you in your faith and to exhort you,

1 Thessalonians 3:3 that no one be moved by these afflictions. You yourselves know that this is to be our lot.

1 Thessalonians 3:4 For when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we were to suffer affliction; just as it has come to pass, and as you know.

1 Thessalonians 3:5 For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent that I might know your faith, for fear that somehow the tempter had tempted you and that our labor would be in vain.

1 Thessalonians 3:6 But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love and reported that you always remember us kindly and long to see us, as we long to see you —

1 Thessalonians 3:7 for this reason, brethren, in all our distress and affliction we have been comforted about you through your faith;

1 Thessalonians 3:8 for now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 3:9 For what thanksgiving can we render to God for you, for all the joy which we feel for your sake before our God,

1 Thessalonians 3:10 praying earnestly night and day that we may see you face to face and supply what is lacking in your faith?

1 Thessalonians 3:11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you;

1 Thessalonians 3:12 and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love to one another and to all men, as we do to you,

1 Thessalonians 3:13 so that he may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

1 Thessalonians 4:1 Finally, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you learned from us how you ought to live and to please God, just as you are doing, you do so more and more.

1 Thessalonians 4:2 For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 4:3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from unchastity;

1 Thessalonians 4:4 that each one of you know how to take a wife for himself in holiness and honor,

1 Thessalonians 4:5 not in the passion of lust like heathen who do not know God;

1 Thessalonians 4:6 that no man transgress, and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we solemnly forewarned you.

1 Thessalonians 4:7 For God has not called us for uncleanness, but in holiness.

1 Thessalonians 4:8 Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

1 Thessalonians 4:9 But concerning love of the brethren you have no need to have any one write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another;

1 Thessalonians 4:10 and indeed you do love all the brethren throughout Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, to do so more and more,

1 Thessalonians 4:11 to aspire to live quietly, to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we charged you;

1 Thessalonians 4:12 so that you may command the respect of outsiders, and be dependent on nobody.

1 Thessalonians 4:13 But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope.

1 Thessalonians 4:14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

1 Thessalonians 4:15 For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who have fallen asleep.

1 Thessalonians 4:16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the archangel's call, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first;

1 Thessalonians 4:17 then we who are alive, who are left, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; and so we shall always be with the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 4:18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

1 Thessalonians 5:1 But as to the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need to have anything written to you.

1 Thessalonians 5:2 For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

1 Thessalonians 5:3 When people say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them as travail comes upon a woman with child, and there will be no escape.

1 Thessalonians 5:4 But you are not in darkness, brethren, for that day to surprise you like a thief.

1 Thessalonians 5:5 For you are all sons of light and sons of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness.

1 Thessalonians 5:6 So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober.

1 Thessalonians 5:7 For those who sleep sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night.

1 Thessalonians 5:8 But, since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation.

1 Thessalonians 5:9 For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

1 Thessalonians 5:10 who died for us so that whether we wake or sleep we might live with him.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.

1 Thessalonians 5:12 But we beseech you, brethren, to respect those who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you,

1 Thessalonians 5:13 and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

1 Thessalonians 5:14 And we exhort you, brethren, admonish the idlers, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all.

1 Thessalonians 5:15 See that none of you repays evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to all.

1 Thessalonians 5:16 Rejoice always,

1 Thessalonians 5:17 pray constantly,

1 Thessalonians 5:18 give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:19 Do not quench the Spirit,

1 Thessalonians 5:20 do not despise prophesying,

1 Thessalonians 5:21 but test everything; hold fast what is good,

1 Thessalonians 5:22 abstain from every form of evil.

1 Thessalonians 5:23 May the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 5:24 He who calls you is faithful, and he will do it.

1 Thessalonians 5:25 Brethren, pray for us.

1 Thessalonians 5:26 Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.

1 Thessalonians 5:27 I adjure you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the brethren.

1 Thessalonians 5:28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Thessalonians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 1:3 We are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren, as is fitting, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing.

2 Thessalonians 1:4 Therefore we ourselves boast of you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you are enduring.

2 Thessalonians 1:5 This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be made worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering —

2 Thessalonians 1:6 since indeed God deems it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you,

2 Thessalonians 1:7 and to grant rest with us to you who are afflicted, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire,

2 Thessalonians 1:8 inflicting vengeance upon those who do not know God and upon those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

2 Thessalonians 1:9 They shall suffer the punishment of eternal destruction and exclusion from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might,

2 Thessalonians 1:10 when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at in all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

2 Thessalonians 1:11 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his call, and may fulfil every good resolve and work of faith by his power,

2 Thessalonians 1:12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:1 Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our assembling to meet him, we beg you, brethren,

2 Thessalonians 2:2 not to be quickly shaken in mind or excited, either by spirit or by word, or by letter purporting to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.

2 Thessalonians 2:3 Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of perdition,

2 Thessalonians 2:4 who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God.

2 Thessalonians 2:5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you this?

2 Thessalonians 2:6 And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time.

2 Thessalonians 2:7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way.

2 Thessalonians 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, and the Lord Jesus will slay him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and his coming.

2 Thessalonians 2:9 The coming of the lawless one by the activity of Satan will be with all power and with pretended signs and wonders,

2 Thessalonians 2:10 and with all wicked deception for those who are to perish, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 Therefore God sends upon them a strong delusion, to make them believe what is false,

2 Thessalonians 2:12 so that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

2 Thessalonians 2:13 But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth.

2 Thessalonians 2:14 To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:15 So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter.

2 Thessalonians 2:16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace,

2 Thessalonians 2:17 comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

2 Thessalonians 3:1 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed on and triumph, as it did among you,

2 Thessalonians 3:2 and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men; for not all have faith.

2 Thessalonians 3:3 But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from evil.

2 Thessalonians 3:4 And we have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things which we command.

2 Thessalonians 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

2 Thessalonians 3:6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is living in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us.

2 Thessalonians 3:7 For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you,

2 Thessalonians 3:8 we did not eat any one's bread without paying, but with toil and labor we worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:9 It was not because we have not that right, but to give you in our conduct an example to imitate.

2 Thessalonians 3:10 For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: If any one will not work, let him not eat.

2 Thessalonians 3:11 For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work.

2 Thessalonians 3:12 Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work in quietness and to earn their own living.

2 Thessalonians 3:13 Brethren, do not be weary in well-doing.

2 Thessalonians 3:14 If any one refuses to obey what we say in this letter, note that man, and have nothing to do with him, that he may be ashamed.

2 Thessalonians 3:15 Do not look on him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

2 Thessalonians 3:16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

2 Thessalonians 3:17 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. This is the mark in every letter of mine; it is the way I write.

2 Thessalonians 3:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope,

1 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, my true child in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Timothy 1:3 As I urged you when I was going to Macedonia, remain at Ephesus that you may charge certain persons not to teach any different doctrine,

1 Timothy 1:4 nor to occupy themselves with myths and endless genealogies which promote speculations rather than the divine training that is in faith;

1 Timothy 1:5 whereas the aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith.

1 Timothy 1:6 Certain persons by swerving from these have wandered away into vain discussion,

1 Timothy 1:7 desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they make assertions.

1 Timothy 1:8 Now we know that the law is good, if any one uses it lawfully,

1 Timothy 1:9 understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

1 Timothy 1:10 immoral persons, sodomites, kidnapers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine,

1 Timothy 1:11 in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted.

1 Timothy 1:12 I thank him who has given me strength for this, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he judged me faithful by appointing me to his service,

1 Timothy 1:13 though I formerly blasphemed and persecuted and insulted him; but I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief,

1 Timothy 1:14 and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 1:15 The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. And I am the foremost of sinners;

1 Timothy 1:16 but I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience for an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life.

1 Timothy 1:17 To the King of ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Timothy 1:18 This charge I commit to you, Timothy, my son, in accordance with the prophetic utterances which pointed to you, that inspired by them you may wage the good warfare,

1 Timothy 1:19 holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting conscience, certain persons have made shipwreck of their faith,

1 Timothy 1:20 among them Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

1 Timothy 2:1 First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men,

1 Timothy 2:2 for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, godly and respectful in every way.

1 Timothy 2:3 This is good, and it is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior,

1 Timothy 2:4 who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

1 Timothy 2:5 For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,

1 Timothy 2:6 who gave himself as a ransom for all, the testimony to which was borne at the proper time.

1 Timothy 2:7 For this I was appointed a preacher and apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

1 Timothy 2:8 I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling;

1 Timothy 2:9 also that women should adorn themselves modestly and sensibly in seemly apparel, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly attire

1 Timothy 2:10 but by good deeds, as befits women who profess religion.

1 Timothy 2:11 Let a woman learn in silence with all submissiveness.

1 Timothy 2:12 I permit no woman to teach or to have authority over men; she is to keep silent.

1 Timothy 2:13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve;

1 Timothy 2:14 and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor.

1 Timothy 2:15 Yet woman will be saved through bearing children, if she continues in faith and love and holiness, with modesty.

1 Timothy 3:1 The saying is sure: If any one aspires to the office of bishop, he desires a noble task.

1 Timothy 3:2 Now a bishop must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, dignified, hospitable, an apt teacher,

1 Timothy 3:3 no drunkard, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, and no lover of money.

1 Timothy 3:4 He must manage his own household well, keeping his children submissive and respectful in every way;

1 Timothy 3:5 for if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how can he care for God's church?

1 Timothy 3:6 He must not be a recent convert, or he may be puffed up with conceit and fall into the condemnation of the devil;

1 Timothy 3:7 moreover he must be well thought of by outsiders, or he may fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

1 Timothy 3:8 Deacons likewise must be serious, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for gain;

1 Timothy 3:9 they must hold the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.

1 Timothy 3:10 And let them also be tested first; then if they prove themselves blameless let them serve as deacons.

1 Timothy 3:11 The women likewise must be serious, no slanderers, but temperate, faithful in all things.

1 Timothy 3:12 Let deacons be the husband of one wife, and let them manage their children and their households well;

1 Timothy 3:13 for those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and also great confidence in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 3:14 I hope to come to you soon, but I am writing these instructions to you so that,

1 Timothy 3:15 if I am delayed, you may know how one ought to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and bulwark of the truth.

1 Timothy 3:16 Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of our religion: He was manifested in the flesh, vindicated in the Spirit, seen by angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 4:1 Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by giving heed to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons,

1 Timothy 4:2 through the pretensions of liars whose consciences are seared,

1 Timothy 4:3 who forbid marriage and enjoin abstinence from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

1 Timothy 4:4 For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving;

1 Timothy 4:5 for then it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer.

1 Timothy 4:6 If you put these instructions before the brethren, you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished on the words of the faith and of the good doctrine which you have followed.

1 Timothy 4:7 Have nothing to do with godless and silly myths. Train yourself in godliness;

1 Timothy 4:8 for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come.

1 Timothy 4:9 The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance.

1 Timothy 4:10 For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.

1 Timothy 4:11 Command and teach these things.

1 Timothy 4:12 Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity.

1 Timothy 4:13 Till I come, attend to the public reading of scripture, to preaching, to teaching.

1 Timothy 4:14 Do not neglect the gift you have, which was given you by prophetic utterance when the council of elders laid their hands upon you.

1 Timothy 4:15 Practice these duties, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress.

1 Timothy 4:16 Take heed to yourself and to your teaching; hold to that, for by so doing you will save both yourself and your hearers.

1 Timothy 5:1 Do not rebuke an older man but exhort him as you would a father; treat younger men like brothers,

1 Timothy 5:2 older women like mothers, younger women like sisters, in all purity.

1 Timothy 5:3 Honor widows who are real widows.

1 Timothy 5:4 If a widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn their religious duty to their own family and make some return to their parents; for this is acceptable in the sight of God.

1 Timothy 5:5 She who is a real widow, and is left all alone, has set her hope on God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day;

1 Timothy 5:6 whereas she who is self-indulgent is dead even while she lives.

1 Timothy 5:7 Command this, so that they may be without reproach.

1 Timothy 5:8 If any one does not provide for his relatives, and especially for his own family, he has disowned the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Timothy 5:9 Let a widow be enrolled if she is not less than sixty years of age, having been the wife of one husband;

1 Timothy 5:10 and she must be well attested for her good deeds, as one who has brought up children, shown hospitality, washed the feet of the saints, relieved the afflicted, and devoted herself to doing good in every way.

1 Timothy 5:11 But refuse to enrol younger widows; for when they grow wanton against Christ they desire to marry,

1 Timothy 5:12 and so they incur condemnation for having violated their first pledge.

1 Timothy 5:13 Besides that, they learn to be idlers, gadding about from house to house, and not only idlers but gossips and busybodies, saying what they should not.

1 Timothy 5:14 So I would have younger widows marry, bear children, rule their households, and give the enemy no occasion to revile us.

1 Timothy 5:15 For some have already strayed after Satan.

1 Timothy 5:16 If any believing woman has relatives who are widows, let her assist them; let the church not be burdened, so that it may assist those who are real widows.

1 Timothy 5:17 Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching;

1 Timothy 5:18 for the scripture says, “You shall not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain,” and, “The laborer deserves his wages.”

1 Timothy 5:19 Never admit any charge against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses.

1 Timothy 5:20 As for those who persist in sin, rebuke them in the presence of all, so that the rest may stand in fear.

1 Timothy 5:21 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of the elect angels I charge you to keep these rules without favor, doing nothing from partiality.

1 Timothy 5:22 Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands, nor participate in another man’s sins; keep yourself pure.

1 Timothy 5:23 No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments.

1 Timothy 5:24 The sins of some men are conspicuous, pointing to judgment, but the sins of others appear later.

1 Timothy 5:25 So also good deeds are conspicuous; and even when they are not, they cannot remain hidden.

1 Timothy 6:1 Let all who are under the yoke of slavery regard their masters as worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be defamed.

1 Timothy 6:2 Those who have believing masters must not be disrespectful on the ground that they are brethren; rather they must serve all the better since those who benefit by their service are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these duties.

1 Timothy 6:3 If any one teaches otherwise and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching which accords with godliness,

1 Timothy 6:4 he is puffed up with conceit, he knows nothing; he has a morbid craving for controversy and for disputes about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, base suspicions,

1 Timothy 6:5 and wrangling among men who are depraved in mind and bereft of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain.

1 Timothy 6:6 There is great gain in godliness with contentment;

1 Timothy 6:7 for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world;

1 Timothy 6:8 but if we have food and clothing, with these we shall be content.

1 Timothy 6:9 But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and hurtful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction.

1 Timothy 6:10 For the love of money is the root of all evils; it is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced their hearts with many pangs.

1 Timothy 6:11 But as for you, man of God, shun all this; aim at righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness.

1 Timothy 6:12 Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

1 Timothy 6:13 In the presence of God who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession,

1 Timothy 6:14 I charge you to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ;

1 Timothy 6:15 and this will be made manifest at the proper time by the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords,

1 Timothy 6:16 who alone has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no man has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

1 Timothy 6:17 As for the rich in this world, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on uncertain riches but on God who richly furnishes us with everything to enjoy.

1 Timothy 6:18 They are to do good, to be rich in good deeds, liberal and generous,

1 Timothy 6:19 thus laying up for themselves a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life which is life indeed.

1 Timothy 6:20 O Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you. Avoid the godless chatter and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge,

1 Timothy 6:21 for by professing it some have missed the mark as regards the faith. Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 Timothy 1:3 I thank God whom I serve with a clear conscience, as did my fathers, when I remember you constantly in my prayers.

2 Timothy 1:4 As I remember your tears, I long night and day to see you, that I may be filled with joy.

2 Timothy 1:5 I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you.

2 Timothy 1:6 Hence I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands;

2 Timothy 1:7 for God did not give us a spirit of timidity but a spirit of power and love and self-control.

2 Timothy 1:8 Do not be ashamed then of testifying to our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel in the power of God,

2 Timothy 1:9 who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not in virtue of our works but in virtue of his own purpose and the grace which he gave us in Christ Jesus ages ago,

2 Timothy 1:10 and now has manifested through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

2 Timothy 1:11 For this gospel I was appointed a preacher and apostle and teacher,

2 Timothy 1:12 and therefore I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me.

2 Timothy 1:13 Follow the pattern of the sound words which you have heard from me, in the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus;

2 Timothy 1:14 guard the truth that has been entrusted to you by the Holy Spirit who dwells within us.

2 Timothy 1:15 You are aware that all who are in Asia turned away from me, and among them Phygelus and Hermogenes.

2 Timothy 1:16 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me; he was not ashamed of my chains,

2 Timothy 1:17 but when he arrived in Rome he searched for me eagerly and found me —

2 Timothy 1:18 may the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that Day—and you well know all the service he rendered at Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2:1 You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus,

2 Timothy 2:2 and what you have heard from me before many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

2 Timothy 2:3 Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:4 No soldier on service gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to satisfy the one who enlisted him.

2 Timothy 2:5 An athlete is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules.

2 Timothy 2:6 It is the hard-working farmer who ought to have the first share of the crops.

2 Timothy 2:7 Think over what I say, for the Lord will grant you understanding in everything.

2 Timothy 2:8 Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descended from David, as preached in my gospel,

2 Timothy 2:9 the gospel for which I am suffering and wearing fetters like a criminal. But the word of God is not fettered.

2 Timothy 2:10 Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain salvation in Christ Jesus with its eternal glory.

2 Timothy 2:11 The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we shall also live with him;

2 Timothy 2:12 if we endure, we shall also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us;

2 Timothy 2:13 if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself.

2 Timothy 2:14 Remind them of this, and charge them before the Lord to avoid disputing about words, which does no good, but only ruins the hearers.

2 Timothy 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth.

2 Timothy 2:16 Avoid such godless chatter, for it will lead people into more and more ungodliness,

2 Timothy 2:17 and their talk will eat its way like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus,

2 Timothy 2:18 who have swerved from the truth by holding that the resurrection is past already. They are upsetting the faith of some.

2 Timothy 2:19 But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: "The Lord knows those who are his," and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity."

2 Timothy 2:20 In a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and earthenware, and some for noble use, some for ignoble.

2 Timothy 2:21 If any one purifies himself from what is ignoble, then he will be a vessel for noble use, consecrated and useful to the master of the house, ready for any good work.

2 Timothy 2:22 So shun youthful passions and aim at righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call upon the Lord from a pure heart.

2 Timothy 2:23 Have nothing to do with stupid, senseless controversies; you know that they breed quarrels.

2 Timothy 2:24 And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kindly to every one, an apt teacher, forbearing,

2 Timothy 2:25 correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant that they will repent and come to know the truth,

2 Timothy 2:26 and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will.

2 Timothy 3:1 But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of stress.

2 Timothy 3:2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy,

2 Timothy 3:3 inhuman, implacable, slanderers, profligates, fierce, haters of good,

2 Timothy 3:4 treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,

2 Timothy 3:5 holding the form of religion but denying the power of it. Avoid such people.

2 Timothy 3:6 For among them are those who make their way into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and swayed by various impulses,

2 Timothy 3:7 who will listen to anybody and can never arrive at a knowledge of the truth.

2 Timothy 3:8 As Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men of corrupt mind and counterfeit faith;

2 Timothy 3:9 but they will not get very far, for their folly will be plain to all, as was that of those two men.

2 Timothy 3:10 Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness,

2 Timothy 3:11 my persecutions, my sufferings, what befell me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra, what persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me.

2 Timothy 3:12 Indeed all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted,

2 Timothy 3:13 while evil men and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceivers and deceived.

2 Timothy 3:14 But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it

2 Timothy 3:15 and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings which are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 3:16 All scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness,

2 Timothy 3:17 that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy 4:1 I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom:

2 Timothy 4:2 preach the word, be urgent in season and out of season, convince, rebuke, and exhort, be unfailing in patience and in teaching.

2 Timothy 4:3 For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own likings,

2 Timothy 4:4 and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander into myths.

2 Timothy 4:5 As for you, always be steady, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil your ministry.

2 Timothy 4:6 For I am already on the point of being sacrificed; the time of my departure has come.

2 Timothy 4:7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

2 Timothy 4:8 Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing.

2 Timothy 4:9 Do your best to come to me soon.

2 Timothy 4:10 For Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

2 Timothy 4:11 Luke alone is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you; for he is very useful in serving me.

2 Timothy 4:12 Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus.

2 Timothy 4:13 When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments.

2 Timothy 4:14 Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will requite him for his deeds.

2 Timothy 4:15 Beware of him yourself, for he strongly opposed our message.

2 Timothy 4:16 At my first defense no one took my part; all deserted me. May it not be charged against them!

2 Timothy 4:17 But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength to proclaim the message fully, that all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

2 Timothy 4:18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

2 Timothy 4:19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

2 Timothy 4:20 Erastus remained at Corinth; Trophimus I left ill at Miletus.

2 Timothy 4:21 Do your best to come before winter. Eubulus sends greetings to you, as do Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brethren.

2 Timothy 4:22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

1:1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to further the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth which accords with godliness,

Titus 1:2 in hope of eternal life which God, who never lies, promised ages ago

Titus 1:3 and at the proper time manifested in his word through the preaching with which I have been entrusted by command of God our Savior;

Titus 1:4 To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Titus 1:5 This is why I left you in Crete, that you might amend what was defective, and appoint elders in every town as I directed you, Titus 1:6 if any man is blameless, the husband of one wife, and his children are believers and not open to the charge of being profligate or insubordinate.

Titus 1:7 For a bishop, as God’s steward, must be blameless; he must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain,

Titus 1:8 but hospitable, a lover of goodness, master of himself, upright, holy, and self-controlled;

Titus 1:9 he must hold firm to the sure word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to confute those who contradict it.

Titus 1:10 For there are many insubordinate men, empty talkers and deceivers, especially the circumcision party;

Titus 1:11 they must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for base gain what they have no right to teach.

Titus 1:12 One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.”

Titus 1:13 This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,

Titus 1:14 instead of giving heed to Jewish myths or to commands of men who reject the truth.

Titus 1:15 To the pure all things are pure, but to the corrupt and unbelieving nothing is pure; their very minds and consciences are corrupted.

Titus 1:16 They profess to know God, but they deny him by their deeds; they are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good deed.

Titus 2:1 But as for you, teach what befits sound doctrine.

Titus 2:2 Bid the older men be temperate, serious, sensible, sound in faith, in love, and in steadfastness.

Titus 2:3 Bid the older women likewise to be reverent in behavior, not to be slanderers or slaves to drink; they are to teach what is good,

Titus 2:4 and so train the young women to love their husbands and children,

Titus 2:5 to be sensible, chaste, domestic, kind, and submissive to their husbands, that the word of God may not be discredited.

Titus 2:6 Likewise urge the younger men to control themselves.

Titus 2:7 Show yourself in all respects a model of good deeds, and in your teaching show integrity, gravity,

Titus 2:8 and sound speech that cannot be censured, so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say of us.

Titus 2:9 Bid slaves to be submissive to their masters and to give satisfaction in every respect; they are not to be refractory,

Titus 2:10 nor to pilfer, but to show entire and true fidelity, so that in everything they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior.

Titus 2:11 For the grace of God has appeared for the salvation of all men,

Titus 2:12 training us to renounce irreligion and worldly passions, and to live sober, upright, and godly lives in this world,

Titus 2:13 awaiting our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ,

Titus 2:14 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all iniquity and to purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Titus 2:15 Declare these things; exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

Titus 3:1 Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for any honest work,

Titus 3:2 to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy toward all men.

Titus 3:3 For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by men and hating one another;

Titus 3:4 but when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared,

Titus 3:5 he saved us, not because of deeds done by us in righteousness, but in virtue of his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal in the Holy Spirit,

Titus 3:6 which he poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior,

Titus 3:7 so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life.

Titus 3:8 The saying is sure. I desire you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to apply themselves to good deeds; these are excellent and profitable to men.

Titus 3:9 But avoid stupid controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels over the law, for they are unprofitable and futile.

Titus 3:10 As for a man who is factious, after admonishing him once or twice, have nothing more to do with him,

Titus 3:11 knowing that such a person is perverted and sinful; he is self-condemned.

Titus 3:12 When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

Titus 3:13 Do your best to speed Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way; see that they lack nothing.

Titus 3:14 And let our people learn to apply themselves to good deeds, so as to help cases of urgent need, and not to be unfruitful.

Titus 3:15 All who are with me send greetings to you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

1:1 Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our beloved fellow worker

Philemon 1:2 and Apphia our sister and Archippus our fellow soldier, and the church in your house:

Philemon 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon 1:4 I thank my God always when I remember you in my prayers,

Philemon 1:5 because I hear of your love and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and all the saints,

Philemon 1:6 and I pray that the sharing of your faith may promote the knowledge of all the good that is ours in Christ.

Philemon 1:7 For I have derived much joy and comfort from your love, my brother, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you.

Philemon 1:8 Accordingly, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do what is required,

Philemon 1:9 yet for love’s sake I prefer to appeal to you—I, Paul, an ambassador and now a prisoner also for Christ Jesus —

Philemon 1:10 I appeal to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become in my imprisonment.

Philemon 1:11 (Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful to you and to me.)

Philemon 1:12 I am sending him back to you, sending my very heart.

Philemon 1:13 I would have been glad to keep him with me, in order that he might serve me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel;

Philemon 1:14 but I preferred to do nothing without your consent in order that your goodness might not be by compulsion but of your own free will.

Philemon 1:15 Perhaps this is why he was parted from you for a while, that you might have him back for ever, Philemon 1:16 no longer as a slave but more than a slave, as a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

Philemon 1:17 So if you consider me your partner, receive him as you would receive me.

Philemon 1:18 If he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, charge that to my account.

Philemon 1:19 I, Paul, write this with my own hand, I will repay it—to say nothing of your owing me even your own self.

Philemon 1:20 Yes, brother, I want some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ.

Philemon 1:21 Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

Philemon 1:22 At the same time, prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping through your prayers to be granted to you.

Philemon 1:23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you,

Philemon 1:24 and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

Philemon 1:25 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Hebrews

1:1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets;

Hebrews 1:2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

Hebrews 1:3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,

Hebrews 1:4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

Hebrews 1:5 For to what angel did God ever say, “Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee”? Or again, “I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son”?

Hebrews 1:6 And again, when he brings the first-born into the world, he says, “Let all God’s angels worship him.”

Hebrews 1:7 Of the angels he says, “Who makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire.”

Hebrews 1:8 But of the Son he says, “Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever, the righteous scepter is the scepter of thy kingdom.

Hebrews 1:9 Thou hast loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; therefore God, thy God, has anointed thee with the oil of gladness beyond thy comrades.”

Hebrews 1:10 And, “Thou, Lord, didst found the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the work of thy hands;

Hebrews 1:11 they will perish, but thou remainest; they will all grow old like a garment,

Hebrews 1:12 like a mantle thou wilt roll them up, and they will be changed. But thou art the same, and thy years will never end.”

Hebrews 1:13 But to what angel has he ever said, “Sit at my right hand, till I make thy enemies a stool for thy feet”?

Hebrews 1:14 Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to serve, for the sake of those who are to obtain salvation?

Hebrews 2:1 Therefore we must pay the closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it.

Hebrews 2:2 For if the message declared by angels was valid and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution,

Hebrews 2:3 how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard him,

Hebrews 2:4 while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his own will.

Hebrews 2:5 For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking.

Hebrews 2:6 It has been testified somewhere, “What is man that thou art mindful of him, or the son of man, that thou carest for him?

Hebrews 2:7 Thou didst make him for a little while lower than the angels, thou hast crowned him with glory and honor,

Hebrews 2:8 putting everything in subjection under his feet.” Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him.

Hebrews 2:9 But we see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for every one.

Hebrews 2:10 For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through suffering.

Hebrews 2:11 For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified have all one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

Hebrews 2:12 saying, “I will proclaim thy name to my brethren, in the midst of the congregation I will praise thee.”

Hebrews 2:13 And again, “I will put my trust in him.” And again, “Here am I, and the children God has given me.”

Hebrews 2:14 Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same nature, that through death he might destroy him who has the power of death, that is, the devil,

Hebrews 2:15 and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong bondage.

Hebrews 2:16 For surely it is not with angels that he is concerned but with the descendants of Abraham.

Hebrews 2:17 Therefore he had to be made like his brethren in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make expiation for the sins of the people.

Hebrews 2:18 For because he himself has suffered and been tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Hebrews 3:1 Therefore, holy brethren, who share in a heavenly call, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession.

Hebrews 3:2 He was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in God’s house.

Hebrews 3:3 Yet Jesus has been counted worthy of as much more glory than Moses as the builder of a house has more honor than the house.

Hebrews 3:4 (For every house is built by some one, but the builder of all things is God.)

Hebrews 3:5 Now Moses was faithful in all God’s house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later,

Hebrews 3:6 but Christ was faithful over God’s house as a son. And we are his house if we hold fast our confidence and pride in our hope.

Hebrews 3:7 Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, “Today, when you hear his voice,

Hebrews 3:8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness,

Hebrews 3:9 where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years.

Hebrews 3:10 Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, `They always go astray in their hearts; they have not known my ways.’

Hebrews 3:11 As I swore in my wrath, `They shall never enter my rest.’”

Hebrews 3:12 Take care, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God.

Hebrews 3:13 But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called “today,” that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

Hebrews 3:14 For we share in Christ, if only we hold our first confidence firm to the end,

Hebrews 3:15 while it is said, “Today, when you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.”

Hebrews 3:16 Who were they that heard and yet were rebellious? Was it not all those who left Egypt under the leadership of Moses?

Hebrews 3:17 And with whom was he provoked forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

Hebrews 3:18 And to whom did he swear that they should never enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient?

Hebrews 3:19 So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

Hebrews 4:1 Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest remains, let us fear lest any of you be judged to have failed to reach it.

Hebrews 4:2 For good news came to us just as to them; but the message which they heard did not benefit them, because it did not meet with faith in the hearers.

Hebrews 4:3 For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, “As I swore in my wrath, `They shall never enter my rest,'” although his works were finished from the foundation of the world.

Hebrews 4:4 For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way, “And God rested on the seventh day from all his works.”

Hebrews 4:5 And again in this place he said, “They shall never enter my rest.”

Hebrews 4:6 Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience,

Hebrews 4:7 again he sets a certain day, “Today,” saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, “Today, when you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.”

Hebrews 4:8 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not speak later of another day.

Hebrews 4:9 So then, there remains a sabbath rest for the people of God;

Hebrews 4:10 for whoever enters God's rest also ceases from his labors as God did from his.

Hebrews 4:11 Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, that no one fall by the same sort of disobedience.

Hebrews 4:12 For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and spirit, of joints and marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Hebrews 4:13 And before him no creature is hidden, but all are open and laid bare to the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

Hebrews 4:14 Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

Hebrews 4:15 For we have not a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin.

Hebrews 4:16 Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 5:1 For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.

Hebrews 5:2 He can deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is beset with weakness.

Hebrews 5:3 Because of this he is bound to offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people.

Hebrews 5:4 And one does not take the honor upon himself, but he is called by God, just as Aaron was.

Hebrews 5:5 So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him, “Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee”;

Hebrews 5:6 as he says also in another place, “Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchizedek.”

Hebrews 5:7 In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard for his godly fear.

Hebrews 5:8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered;

Hebrews 5:9 and being made perfect he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him,

Hebrews 5:10 being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:11 About this we have much to say which is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.

Hebrews 5:12 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need some one to teach you again the first principles of God’s word. You need milk, not solid food;

Hebrews 5:13 for every one who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a child.

Hebrews 5:14 But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their faculties trained by practice to distinguish good from evil.

Hebrews 6:1 Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God,

Hebrews 6:2 with instruction about ablutions, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

Hebrews 6:3 And this we will do if God permits.

Hebrews 6:4 For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit,

Hebrews 6:5 and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come,

Hebrews 6:6 if they then commit apostasy, since they crucify the Son of God on their own account and hold him up to contempt.

Hebrews 6:7 For land which has drunk the rain that often falls upon it, and brings forth vegetation useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God.

Hebrews 6:8 But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed; its end is to be burned.

Hebrews 6:9 Though we speak thus, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things that belong to salvation.

Hebrews 6:10 For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love which you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do.

Hebrews 6:11 And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness in realizing the full assurance of hope until the end,

Hebrews 6:12 so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Hebrews 6:13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself,

Hebrews 6:14 saying, “Surely I will bless you and multiply you.”

Hebrews 6:15 And thus Abraham, having patiently endured, obtained the promise.

Hebrews 6:16 Men indeed swear by a greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation.

Hebrews 6:17 So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he interposed with an oath, Hebrews 6:18 so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible that God should prove false, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to seize the hope set before us.

Hebrews 6:19 We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner shrine behind the curtain,

Hebrews 6:20 where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:1 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him;

Hebrews 7:2 and to him Abraham apportioned a tenth part of everything. He is first, by translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then he is also king of Salem, that is, king of peace.

Hebrews 7:3 He is without father or mother or genealogy, and has neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God he continues a priest for ever.

Hebrews 7:4 See how great he is! Abraham the patriarch gave him a tithe of the spoils.

Hebrews 7:5 And those descendants of Levi who receive the priestly office have a commandment in the law to take tithes from the people, that is, from their brethren, though these also are descended from Abraham.

Hebrews 7:6 But this man who has not their genealogy received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises.

Hebrews 7:7 It is beyond dispute that the inferior is blessed by the superior.

Hebrews 7:8 Here tithes are received by mortal men; there, by one of whom it is testified that he lives.

Hebrews 7:9 One might even say that Levi himself, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham,

Hebrews 7:10 for he was still in the loins of his ancestor when Melchizedek met him.

Hebrews 7:11 Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron?

Hebrews 7:12 For when there is a change in the priesthood, there is necessarily a change in the law as well.

Hebrews 7:13 For the one of whom these things are spoken belonged to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar.

Hebrews 7:14 For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, and in connection with that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.

Hebrews 7:15 This becomes even more evident when another priest arises in the likeness of Melchizedek,

Hebrews 7:16 who has become a priest, not according to a legal requirement concerning bodily descent but by the power of an indestructible life.

Hebrews 7:17 For it is witnessed of him, “Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchizedek.”

Hebrews 7:18 On the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness

Hebrews 7:19 (for the law made nothing perfect); on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.

Hebrews 7:20 And it was not without an oath.

Hebrews 7:21 Those who formerly became priests took their office without an oath, but this one was addressed with an oath, “The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, `Thou art a priest for ever.'”

Hebrews 7:22 This makes Jesus the surety of a better covenant.

Hebrews 7:23 The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office;

Hebrews 7:24 but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever.

Hebrews 7:25 Consequently he is able for all time to save those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

Hebrews 7:26 For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, unstained, separated from sinners, exalted above the heavens.

Hebrews 7:27 He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people; he did this once for all when he offered up himself.

Hebrews 7:28 Indeed, the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

Hebrews 8:1 Now the point in what we are saying is this: we have such a high priest, one who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven,

Hebrews 8:2 a minister in the sanctuary and the true tent which is set up not by man but by the Lord.

Hebrews 8:3 For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; hence it is necessary for this priest also to have something to offer.

Hebrews 8:4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are priests who offer gifts according to the law.

Hebrews 8:5 They serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly sanctuary; for when Moses was about to erect the tent, he was instructed by God, saying, “See that you make everything according to the pattern which was shown you on the mountain.”

Hebrews 8:6 But as it is, Christ has obtained a ministry which is as much more excellent than the old as the covenant he mediates is better, since it is enacted on better promises.

Hebrews 8:7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion for a second.

Hebrews 8:8 For he finds fault with them when he says: “The days will come, says the Lord, when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

Hebrews 8:9 not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; for they did not continue in my covenant, and so I paid no heed to them, says the Lord.

Hebrews 8:10 This is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Hebrews 8:11 And they shall not teach every one his fellow or every one his brother, saying, `Know the Lord,’ for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

Hebrews 8:12 For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more.”

Hebrews 8:13 In speaking of a new covenant he treats the first as obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

Hebrews 9:1 Now even the first covenant had regulations for worship and an earthly sanctuary.

Hebrews 9:2 For a tent was prepared, the outer one, in which were the lampstand and the table and the bread of the Presence; it is called the Holy Place.

Hebrews 9:3 Behind the second curtain stood a tent called the Holy of Holies,

Hebrews 9:4 having the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant covered on all sides with gold, which contained a golden urn holding the manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

Hebrews 9:5 above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

Hebrews 9:6 These preparations having thus been made, the priests go continually into the outer tent, performing their ritual duties;

Hebrews 9:7 but into the second only the high priest goes, and he but once a year, and not without taking blood which he offers for himself and for the errors of the people.

Hebrews 9:8 By this the Holy Spirit indicates that the way into the sanctuary is not yet opened as long as the outer tent is still standing

Hebrews 9:9 (which is symbolic for the present age). According to this arrangement, gifts and sacrifices are offered which cannot perfect the conscience of the worshiper,

Hebrews 9:10 but deal only with food and drink and various ablutions, regulations for the body imposed until the time of reformation.

Hebrews 9:11 But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and more perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation)

Hebrews 9:12 he entered once for all into the Holy Place, taking not the blood of goats and calves but his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption.

Hebrews 9:13 For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh,

Hebrews 9:14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God.

Hebrews 9:15 Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred which redeems them from the transgressions under the first covenant.

Hebrews 9:16 For where a will is involved, the death of the one who made it must be established.

Hebrews 9:17 For a will takes effect only at death, since it is not in force as long as the one who made it is alive.

Hebrews 9:18 Hence even the first covenant was not ratified without blood.

Hebrews 9:19 For when every commandment of the law had been declared by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, Hebrews 9:20 saying, “This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded you.”

Hebrews 9:21 And in the same way he sprinkled with the blood both the tent and all the vessels used in worship.

Hebrews 9:22 Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

Hebrews 9:23 Thus it was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

Hebrews 9:24 For Christ has entered, not into a sanctuary made with hands, a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf.

Hebrews 9:25 Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the Holy Place yearly with blood not his own;

Hebrews 9:26 for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Hebrews 9:27 And just as it is appointed for men to die once, and after that comes judgment,

Hebrews 9:28 so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Hebrews 10:1 For since the law has but a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices which are continually offered year after year, make perfect those who draw near.

Hebrews 10:2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered? If the worshipers had once been cleansed, they would no longer have any consciousness of sin.

Hebrews 10:3 But in these sacrifices there is a reminder of sin year after year.

Hebrews 10:4 For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins.

Hebrews 10:5 Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said, “Sacrifices and offerings thou hast not desired, but a body hast thou prepared for me;

Hebrews 10:6 in burnt offerings and sin offerings thou hast taken no pleasure.

Hebrews 10:7 Then I said, `Lo, I have come to do thy will, O God,’ as it is written of me in the roll of the book.”

Hebrews 10:8 When he said above, “Thou hast neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings” (these are offered according to the law),

Hebrews 10:9 then he added, “Lo, I have come to do thy will.” He abolishes the first in order to establish the second.

Hebrews 10:10 And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Hebrews 10:11 And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

Hebrews 10:12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God,

Hebrews 10:13 then to wait until his enemies should be made a stool for his feet.

Hebrews 10:14 For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Hebrews 10:15 And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying,

Hebrews 10:16 “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds,”

Hebrews 10:17 then he adds, “I will remember their sins and their misdeeds no more.”

Hebrews 10:18 Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Hebrews 10:19 Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus,

Hebrews 10:20 by the new and living way which he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh,

Hebrews 10:21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

Hebrews 10:22 let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Hebrews 10:23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful;

Hebrews 10:24 and let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works,

Hebrews 10:25 not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

Hebrews 10:26 For if we sin deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, Hebrews 10:27 but a fearful prospect of judgment, and a fury of fire which will consume the adversaries.

Hebrews 10:28 A man who has violated the law of Moses dies without mercy at the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Hebrews 10:29 How much worse punishment do you think will be deserved by the man who has spurned the Son of God, and profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and outraged the Spirit of grace?

Hebrews 10:30 For we know him who said, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay." And again, "The Lord will judge his people."

Hebrews 10:31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Hebrews 10:32 But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings,

Hebrews 10:33 sometimes being publicly exposed to abuse and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated.

Hebrews 10:34 For you had compassion on the prisoners, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one.

Hebrews 10:35 Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

Hebrews 10:36 For you have need of endurance, so that you may do the will of God and receive what is promised.

Hebrews 10:37 "For yet a little while, and the coming one shall come and shall not tarry;

Hebrews 10:38 but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him."

Hebrews 10:39 But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and keep their souls.

Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:2 For by it the men of old received divine approval.

Hebrews 11:3 By faith we understand that the world was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was made out of things which do not appear.

Hebrews 11:4 By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he received approval as righteous, God bearing witness by accepting his gifts; he died, but through his faith he is still speaking.

Hebrews 11:5 By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was attested as having pleased God.

Hebrews 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please him. For whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:7 By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, took heed and constructed an ark for the saving of his household; by this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness which comes by faith.

Hebrews 11:8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place which he was to receive as an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was to go.

Hebrews 11:9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise.

Hebrews 11:10 For he looked forward to the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

Hebrews 11:11 By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised.

Hebrews 11:12 Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.

Hebrews 11:13 These all died in faith, not having received what was promised, but having seen it and greeted it from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

Hebrews 11:14 For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland.

Hebrews 11:15 If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return.

Hebrews 11:16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city.

Hebrews 11:17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer up his only son,

Hebrews 11:18 of whom it was said, “Through Isaac shall your descendants be named.”

Hebrews 11:19 He considered that God was able to raise men even from the dead; hence, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back.

Hebrews 11:20 By faith Isaac invoked future blessings on Jacob and Esau.

Hebrews 11:21 By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, bowing in worship over the head of his staff.

Hebrews 11:22 By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave directions concerning his burial.

Hebrews 11:23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful; and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

Hebrews 11:24 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,

Hebrews 11:25 choosing rather to share ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

Hebrews 11:26 He considered abuse suffered for the Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he looked to the reward.

Hebrews 11:27 By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king; for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.

Hebrews 11:28 By faith he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood, so that the Destroyer of the first-born might not touch them.

Hebrews 11:29 By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as if on dry land; but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned.

Hebrews 11:30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days.

Hebrews 11:31 By faith Rahab the harlot did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given friendly welcome to the spies.

Hebrews 11:32 And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets —

Hebrews 11:33 who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, received promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

Hebrews 11:34 quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.

Hebrews 11:35 Women received their dead by resurrection. Some were tortured, refusing to accept release, that they might rise again to a better life.

Hebrews 11:36 Others suffered mocking and scourging, and even chains and imprisonment.

Hebrews 11:37 They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, ill-treated —

Hebrews 11:38 of whom the world was not worthy—wandering over deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

Hebrews 11:39 And all these, though well attested by their faith, did not receive what was promised,

Hebrews 11:40 since God had foreseen something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

Hebrews 12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us,

Hebrews 12:2 looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hebrews 12:3 Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.

Hebrews 12:4 In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.

Hebrews 12:5 And have you forgotten the exhortation which addresses you as sons?—“My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor lose courage when you are punished by him.

Hebrews 12:6 For the Lord disciplines him whom he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives.”

Hebrews 12:7 It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?

Hebrews 12:8 If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.

Hebrews 12:9 Besides this, we have had earthly fathers to discipline us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live?

Hebrews 12:10 For they disciplined us for a short time at their pleasure, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness.

Hebrews 12:11 For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant; later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Hebrews 12:12 Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees,

Hebrews 12:13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed.

Hebrews 12:14 Strive for peace with all men, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord.

Hebrews 12:15 See to it that no one fail to obtain the grace of God; that no “root of bitterness” spring up and cause trouble, and by it the many become defiled;

Hebrews 12:16 that no one be immoral or irreligious like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal.

Hebrews 12:17 For you know that afterward, when he desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no chance to repent, though he sought it with tears.

Hebrews 12:18 For you have not come to what may be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest,

Hebrews 12:19 and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers entreat that no further messages be spoken to them.

Hebrews 12:20 For they could not endure the order that was given, “If even a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned.”

Hebrews 12:21 Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I tremble with fear.”

Hebrews 12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering,

Hebrews 12:23 and to the assembly of the first-born who are enrolled in heaven, and to a judge who is God of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

Hebrews 12:24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks more graciously than the blood of Abel.

Hebrews 12:25 See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less shall we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven.

Hebrews 12:26 His voice then shook the earth; but now he has promised, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.”

Hebrews 12:27 This phrase, “Yet once more,” indicates the removal of what is shaken, as of what has been made, in order that what cannot be shaken may remain.

Hebrews 12:28 Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe;

Hebrews 12:29 for our God is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 13:1 Let brotherly love continue.

Hebrews 13:2 Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

Hebrews 13:3 Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you also are in the body.

Hebrews 13:4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled; for God will judge the immoral and adulterous.

Hebrews 13:5 Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, “I will never fail you nor forsake you.”

Hebrews 13:6 Hence we can confidently say, “The Lord is my helper, I will not be afraid; what can man do to me?”

Hebrews 13:7 Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God; consider the outcome of their life, and imitate their faith.

Hebrews 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.

Hebrews 13:9 Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings; for it is well that the heart be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited their adherents.

Hebrews 13:10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat.

Hebrews 13:11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp.

Hebrews 13:12 So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood.

Hebrews 13:13 Therefore let us go forth to him outside the camp and bear the abuse he endured.

Hebrews 13:14 For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city which is to come.

Hebrews 13:15 Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name.

Hebrews 13:16 Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Hebrews 13:17 Obey your leaders and submit to them; for they are keeping watch over your souls, as men who will have to give account. Let them do this joyfully, and not sadly, for that would be of no advantage to you.

Hebrews 13:18 Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honorably in all things.

Hebrews 13:19 I urge you the more earnestly to do this in order that I may be restored to you the sooner.

Hebrews 13:20 Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, Hebrews 13:21 equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Hebrews 13:22 I appeal to you, brethren, bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly.

Hebrews 13:23 You should understand that our brother Timothy has been released, with whom I shall see you if he comes soon.

Hebrews 13:24 Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those who come from Italy send you greetings.

Hebrews 13:25 Grace be with all of you. Amen.

James

1:1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes in the Dispersion: Greeting.

James 1:2 Count it all joy, my brethren, when you meet various trials,

James 1:3 for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness.

James 1:4 And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

James 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives to all men generously and without reproaching, and it will be given him.

James 1:6 But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind.

James 1:7 For that person must not suppose that a double-minded man,

James 1:8 unstable in all his ways, will receive anything from the Lord.

James 1:9 Let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation,

James 1:10 and the rich in his humiliation, because like the flower of the grass he will pass away.

James 1:11 For the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beauty perishes. So will the rich man fade away in the midst of his pursuits.

James 1:12 Blessed is the man who endures trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life which God has promised to those who love him.

James 1:13 Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am tempted by God”; for God cannot be tempted with evil and he himself tempts no one;

James 1:14 but each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire.

James 1:15 Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin; and sin when it is full-grown brings forth death.

James 1:16 Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.

James 1:17 Every good endowment and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.

James 1:18 Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

James 1:19 Know this, my beloved brethren. Let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger,

James 1:20 for the anger of man does not work the righteousness of God.

James 1:21 Therefore put away all filthiness and rank growth of wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

James 1:22 But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

James 1:23 For if any one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who observes his natural face in a mirror;

James 1:24 for he observes himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like.

James 1:25 But he who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer that forgets but a doer that acts, he shall be blessed in his doing.

James 1:26 If any one thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this man's religion is vain.

James 1:27 Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

James 2:1 My brethren, show no partiality as you hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory.

James 2:2 For if a man with gold rings and in fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in,

James 2:3 and you pay attention to the one who wears the fine clothing and say, "Have a seat here, please," while you say to the poor man, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet,"

James 2:4 have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

James 2:5 Listen, my beloved brethren. Has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him?

James 2:6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you, is it not they who drag you into court?

James 2:7 Is it not they who blaspheme that honorable name which was invoked over you?

James 2:8 If you really fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,” you do well.

James 2:9 But if you show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

James 2:10 For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become guilty of all of it.

James 2:11 For he who said, “Do not commit adultery,” said also, “Do not kill.” If you do not commit adultery but do kill, you have become a transgressor of the law.

James 2:12 So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty.

James 2:13 For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy; yet mercy triumphs over judgment.

James 2:14 What does it profit, my brethren, if a man says he has faith but has not works? Can his faith save him?

James 2:15 If a brother or sister is ill-clad and in lack of daily food,

James 2:16 and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” without giving them the things needed for the body, what does it profit?

James 2:17 So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

James 2:18 But some one will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith apart from your works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

James 2:19 You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder.

James 2:20 Do you want to be shown, you shallow man, that faith apart from works is barren?

James 2:21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he offered his son Isaac upon the altar?

James 2:22 You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by works,

James 2:23 and the scripture was fulfilled which says, “Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness”; and he was called the friend of God.

James 2:24 You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.

James 2:25 And in the same way was not also Rahab the harlot justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?

James 2:26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so faith apart from works is dead.

James 3:1 Let not many of you become teachers, my brethren, for you know that we who teach shall be judged with greater strictness.

James 3:2 For we all make many mistakes, and if any one makes no mistakes in what he says he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also.

James 3:3 If we put bits into the mouths of horses that they may obey us, we guide their whole bodies.

James 3:4 Look at the ships also; though they are so great and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs.

James 3:5 So the tongue is a little member and boasts of great things. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire!

James 3:6 And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is an unrighteous world among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the cycle of nature, and set on fire by hell.

James 3:7 For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by humankind,

James 3:8 but no human being can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

James 3:9 With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the likeness of God.

James 3:10 From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brethren, this ought not to be so.

James 3:11 Does a spring pour forth from the same opening fresh water and brackish?

James 3:12 Can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

James 3:13 Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good life let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom.

James 3:14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth.

James 3:15 This wisdom is not such as comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish.

James 3:16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice.

James 3:17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, without uncertainty or insincerity.

James 3:18 And the harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

James 4:1 What causes wars, and what causes fightings among you? Is it not your passions that are at war in your members?

James 4:2 You desire and do not have; so you kill. And you covet and cannot obtain; so you fight and wage war. You do not have, because you do not ask.

James 4:3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

James 4:4 Unfaithful creatures! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:5 Or do you suppose it is in vain that the scripture says, “He yearns jealously over the spirit which he has made to dwell in us”?

James 4:6 But he gives more grace; therefore it says, “God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”

James 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

James 4:8 Draw near to God and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you men of double mind.

James 4:9 Be wretched and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to dejection.

James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord and he will exalt you.

James 4:11 Do not speak evil against one another, brethren. He that speaks evil against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.

James 4:12 There is one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you that you judge your neighbor?

James 4:13 Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and get gain”;

James 4:14 whereas you do not know about tomorrow. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes.

James 4:15 Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we shall live and we shall do this or that.”

James 4:16 As it is, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil.

James 4:17 Whoever knows what is right to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin.

James 5:1 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for the miseries that are coming upon you.

James 5:2 Your riches have rotted and your garments are moth-eaten.

James 5:3 Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure for the last days.

James 5:4 Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.

James 5:5 You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

James 5:6 You have condemned, you have killed the righteous man; he does not resist you.

James 5:7 Be patient, therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it until it receives the early and the late rain.

James 5:8 You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

James 5:9 Do not grumble, brethren, against one another, that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the doors.

James 5:10 As an example of suffering and patience, brethren, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

James 5:11 Behold, we call those happy who were steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

James 5:12 But above all, my brethren, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath, but let your yes be yes and your no be no, that you may not fall under condemnation.

James 5:13 Is any one among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praise.

James 5:14 Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord;

James 5:15 and the prayer of faith will save the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.

James 5:16 Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man has great power in its effects.

James 5:17 Elijah was a man of like nature with ourselves and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth.

James 5:18 Then he prayed again and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

James 5:19 My brethren, if any one among you wanders from the truth and some one brings him back,

James 5:20 let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To the exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

1 Peter 1:2 chosen and destined by God the Father and sanctified by the Spirit for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

1 Peter 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

1 Peter 1:4 and to an inheritance which is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you,

1 Peter 1:5 who by God’s power are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

1 Peter 1:6 In this you rejoice, though now for a little while you may have to suffer various trials,

1 Peter 1:7 so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold which though perishable is tested by fire, may redound to praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 1:8 Without having seen him you love him; though you do not now see him you believe in him and rejoice with unutterable and exalted joy.

1 Peter 1:9 As the outcome of your faith you obtain the salvation of your souls.

1 Peter 1:10 The prophets who prophesied of the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired about this salvation;

1 Peter 1:11 they inquired what person or time was indicated by the Spirit of Christ within them when predicting the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glory.

1 Peter 1:12 It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in the things which have now been announced to you by those who preached the good news to you through the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels long to look.

1 Peter 1:13 Therefore gird up your minds, be sober, set your hope fully upon the grace that is coming to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 1:14 As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance,

1 Peter 1:15 but as he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct;

1 Peter 1:16 since it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.”

1 Peter 1:17 And if you invoke as Father him who judges each one impartially according to his deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile.

1 Peter 1:18 You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your fathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold,

1 Peter 1:19 but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot.

1 Peter 1:20 He was destined before the foundation of the world but was made manifest at the end of the times for your sake.

1 Peter 1:21 Through him you have confidence in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

1 Peter 1:22 Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere love of the brethren, love one another earnestly from the heart.

1 Peter 1:23 You have been born anew, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God;

1 Peter 1:24 for “All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls,

1 Peter 1:25 but the word of the Lord abides for ever.” That word is the good news which was preached to you.

1 Peter 2:1 So put away all malice and all guile and insincerity and envy and all slander.

1 Peter 2:2 Like newborn babes, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up to salvation;

1 Peter 2:3 for you have tasted the kindness of the Lord.

1 Peter 2:4 Come to him, to that living stone, rejected by men but in God’s sight chosen and precious;

1 Peter 2:5 and like living stones be yourselves built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 2:6 For it stands in scripture: “Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and he who believes in him will not be put to shame.”

1 Peter 2:7 To you therefore who believe, he is precious, but for those who do not believe, “The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner,”

1 Peter 2:8 and “A stone that will make men stumble, a rock that will make them fall”; for they stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

1 Peter 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s own people, that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

1 Peter 2:10 Once you were no people but now you are God’s people; once you had not received mercy but now you have received mercy.

1 Peter 2:11 Beloved, I beseech you as aliens and exiles to abstain from the passions of the flesh that wage war against your soul.

1 Peter 2:12 Maintain good conduct among the Gentiles, so that in case they speak against you as wrongdoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation.

1 Peter 2:13 Be subject for the Lord’s sake to every human institution, whether it be to the emperor as supreme,

1 Peter 2:14 or to governors as sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do right.

1 Peter 2:15 For it is God’s will that by doing right you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men.

1 Peter 2:16 Live as free men, yet without using your freedom as a pretext for evil; but live as servants of God.

1 Peter 2:17 Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

1 Peter 2:18 Servants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to the kind and gentle but also to the overbearing.

1 Peter 2:19 For one is approved if, mindful of God, he endures pain while suffering unjustly.

1 Peter 2:20 For what credit is it, if when you do wrong and are beaten for it you take it patiently? But if when you do right and suffer for it you take it patiently, you have God’s approval.

1 Peter 2:21 For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

1 Peter 2:22 He committed no sin; no guile was found on his lips.

1 Peter 2:23 When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he trusted to him who judges justly.

1 Peter 2:24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed.

1 Peter 2:25 For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

1 Peter 3:1 Likewise you wives, be submissive to your husbands, so that some, though they do not obey the word, may be won without a word by the behavior of their wives,

1 Peter 3:2 when they see your reverent and chaste behavior.

1 Peter 3:3 Let not yours be the outward adorning with braiding of hair, decoration of gold, and wearing of fine clothing,

1 Peter 3:4 but let it be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable jewel of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious.

1 Peter 3:5 So once the holy women who hoped in God used to adorn themselves and were submissive to their husbands,

1 Peter 3:6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. And you are now her children if you do right and let nothing terrify you.

1 Peter 3:7 Likewise you husbands, live considerately with your wives, bestowing honor on the woman as the weaker sex, since you are joint heirs of the grace of life, in order that your prayers may not be hindered.

1 Peter 3:8 Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love of the brethren, a tender heart and a humble mind.

1 Peter 3:9 Do not return evil for evil or reviling for reviling; but on the contrary bless, for to this you have been called, that you may obtain a blessing.

1 Peter 3:10 For "He that would love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking guile;

1 Peter 3:11 let him turn away from evil and do right; let him seek peace and pursue it.

1 Peter 3:12 For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against those that do evil."

1 Peter 3:13 Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is right?

1 Peter 3:14 But even if you do suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled,

1 Peter 3:15 but in your hearts reverence Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to make a defense to any one who calls you to account for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and reverence;

1 Peter 3:16 and keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are abused, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame.

1 Peter 3:17 For it is better to suffer for doing right, if that should be God's will, than for doing wrong.

1 Peter 3:18 For Christ also died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit;

1 Peter 3:19 in which he went and preached to the spirits in prison,

1 Peter 3:20 who formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water.

1 Peter 3:21 Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a clear conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

1 Peter 3:22 who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

1 Peter 4:1 Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same thought, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,

1 Peter 4:2 so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer by human passions but by the will of God.

1 Peter 4:3 Let the time that is past suffice for doing what the Gentiles like to do, living in licentiousness, passions, drunkenness, revels, carousing, and lawless idolatry.

1 Peter 4:4 They are surprised that you do not now join them in the same wild profligacy, and they abuse you;

1 Peter 4:5 but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

1 Peter 4:6 For this is why the gospel was preached even to the dead, that though judged in the flesh like men, they might live in the spirit like God.

1 Peter 4:7 The end of all things is at hand; therefore keep sane and sober for your prayers.

1 Peter 4:8 Above all hold unfailing your love for one another, since love covers a multitude of sins.

1 Peter 4:9 Practice hospitality ungrudgingly to one another.

1 Peter 4:10 As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace:

1 Peter 4:11 whoever speaks, as one who utters oracles of God; whoever renders service, as one who renders it by the strength which

God supplies; in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Peter 4:12 Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal which comes upon you to prove you, as though something strange were happening to you.

1 Peter 4:13 But rejoice in so far as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed.

1 Peter 4:14 If you are reproached for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.

1 Peter 4:15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or a wrongdoer, or a mischief-maker;

1 Peter 4:16 yet if one suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but under that name let him glorify God.

1 Peter 4:17 For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

1 Peter 4:18 And "If the righteous man is scarcely saved, where will the impious and sinner appear?"

1 Peter 4:19 Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will do right and entrust their souls to a faithful Creator.

1 Peter 5:1 So I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ as well as a partaker in the glory that is to be revealed.

1 Peter 5:2 Tend the flock of God that is your charge, not by constraint but willingly, not for shameful gain but eagerly,

1 Peter 5:3 not as domineering over those in your charge but being examples to the flock.

1 Peter 5:4 And when the chief Shepherd is manifested you will obtain the unfading crown of glory.

1 Peter 5:5 Likewise you that are younger be subject to the elders. Clothe yourselves, all of you, with humility toward one another, for "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

1 Peter 5:6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that in due time he may exalt you.

1 Peter 5:7 Cast all your anxieties on him, for he cares about you.

1 Peter 5:8 Be sober, be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking some one to devour.

1 Peter 5:9 Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same experience of suffering is required of your brotherhood throughout the world.

1 Peter 5:10 And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, establish, and strengthen you.

1 Peter 5:11 To him be the dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Peter 5:12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother as I regard him, I have written briefly to you, exhorting and declaring that this is the true grace of God; stand fast in it.

1 Peter 5:13 She who is at Babylon, who is likewise chosen, sends you greetings; and so does my son Mark.

1 Peter 5:14 Greet one another with the kiss of love. Peace to all of you that are in Christ.

2 Peter

1:1 Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours in the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2 Peter 1:2 May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

2 Peter 1:3 His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence,

2 Peter 1:4 by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, that through these you may escape from the corruption that is in the world because of passion, and become partakers of the divine nature.

2 Peter 1:5 For this very reason make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge,

2 Peter 1:6 and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness,

2 Peter 1:7 and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love.

2 Peter 1:8 For if these things are yours and abound, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:9 For whoever lacks these things is blind and shortsighted and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins.

2 Peter 1:10 Therefore, brethren, be the more zealous to confirm your call and election, for if you do this you will never fall;

2 Peter 1:11 so there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:12 Therefore I intend always to remind you of these things, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have.

2 Peter 1:13 I think it right, as long as I am in this body, to arouse you by way of reminder,

2 Peter 1:14 since I know that the putting off of my body will be soon, as our Lord Jesus Christ showed me.

2 Peter 1:15 And I will see to it that after my departure you may be able at any time to recall these things.

2 Peter 1:16 For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

2 Peter 1:17 For when he received honor and glory from God the Father and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased,”

2 Peter 1:18 we heard this voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain.

2 Peter 1:19 And we have the prophetic word made more sure. You will do well to pay attention to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

2 Peter 1:20 First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one’s own interpretation,

2 Peter 1:21 because no prophecy ever came by the impulse of man, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2 Peter 2:1 But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction.

2 Peter 2:2 And many will follow their licentiousness, and because of them the way of truth will be reviled.

2 Peter 2:3 And in their greed they will exploit you with false words; from of old their condemnation has not been idle, and their destruction has not been asleep.

2 Peter 2:4 For if God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to pits of nether gloom to be kept until the judgment;

2 Peter 2:5 if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven other persons, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly;

2 Peter 2:6 if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction and made them an example to those who were to be ungodly;

2 Peter 2:7 and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the licentiousness of the wicked

2 Peter 2:8 (for by what that righteous man saw and heard as he lived among them, he was vexed in his righteous soul day after day with their lawless deeds),

2 Peter 2:9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trial, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment,

2 Peter 2:10 and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and wilful, they are not afraid to revile the glorious ones,

2 Peter 2:11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not pronounce a reviling judgment upon them before the Lord.

2 Peter 2:12 But these, like irrational animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and killed, reviling in matters of which they are ignorant, will be destroyed in the same destruction with them,

2 Peter 2:13 suffering wrong for their wrongdoing. They count it pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their dissipation, carousing with you.

2 Peter 2:14 They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children!

2 Peter 2:15 Forsaking the right way they have gone astray; they have followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved gain from wrongdoing,

2 Peter 2:16 but was rebuked for his own transgression; a dumb ass spoke with human voice and restrained the prophet’s madness.

2 Peter 2:17 These are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm; for them the nether gloom of darkness has been reserved.

2 Peter 2:18 For, uttering loud boasts of folly, they entice with licentious passions of the flesh men who have barely escaped from those who live in error.

2 Peter 2:19 They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption; for whatever overcomes a man, to that he is enslaved.

2 Peter 2:20 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overpowered, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

2 Peter 2:21 For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.

2 Peter 2:22 It has happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog turns back to his own vomit, and the sow is washed only to wallow in the mire.

2 Peter 3:1 This is now the second letter that I have written to you, beloved, and in both of them I have aroused your sincere mind by way of reminder;

2 Peter 3:2 that you should remember the predictions of the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles.

2 Peter 3:3 First of all you must understand this, that scoffers will come in the last days with scoffing, following their own passions

2 Peter 3:4 and saying, “Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things have continued as they were from the beginning of creation.”

2 Peter 3:5 They deliberately ignore this fact, that by the word of God heavens existed long ago, and an earth formed out of water and by means of water,

2 Peter 3:6 through which the world that then existed was deluged with water and perished.

2 Peter 3:7 But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist have been stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

2 Peter 3:8 But do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slow about his promise as some count slowness, but is forbearing toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.

2 Peter 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fire, and the earth and the works that are upon it will be burned up.

2 Peter 3:11 Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of persons ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness,

2 Peter 3:12 waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be kindled and dissolved, and the elements will melt with fire!

2 Peter 3:13 But according to his promise we wait for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

2 Peter 3:14 Therefore, beloved, since you wait for these, be zealous to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace.

2 Peter 3:15 And count the forbearance of our Lord as salvation. So also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom given him,

2 Peter 3:16 speaking of this as he does in all his letters. There are some things in them hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other scriptures.

2 Peter 3:17 You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, beware lest you be carried away with the error of lawless men and lose your own stability.

2 Peter 3:18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

1 John

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life —

1 John 1:2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us —

1 John 1:3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

1 John 1:5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all.

1 John 1:6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth;

1 John 1:7 but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

1 John 1:8 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1 John 2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

1 John 2:2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

1 John 2:3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

1 John 2:4 He who says “I know him” but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him;

1 John 2:5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him:

1 John 2:6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

1 John 2:7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard.

1 John 2:8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

1 John 2:9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still.

1 John 2:10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling.

1 John 2:11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

1 John 2:12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake.

1 John 2:13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father.

1 John 2:14 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

1 John 2:15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If any one loves the world, love for the Father is not in him.

1 John 2:16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world.

1 John 2:17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides for ever.

1 John 2:18 Children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come; therefore we know that it is the last hour.

1 John 2:19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they all are not of us.

1 John 2:20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all know.

1 John 2:21 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth.

1 John 2:22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son.

1 John 2:23 No one who denies the Son has the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.

1 John 2:24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father.

1 John 2:25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

1 John 2:26 I write this to you about those who would deceive you;

1 John 2:27 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

1 John 2:28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming.

1 John 2:29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

1 John 3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

1 John 3:2 Beloved, we are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

1 John 3:3 And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

1 John 3:4 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness.

1 John 3:5 You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin.

1 John 3:6 No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him.

1 John 3:7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does right is righteous, as he is righteous.

1 John 3:8 He who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil.

1 John 3:9 No one born of God commits sin; for God's nature abides in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God.

1 John 3:10 By this it may be seen who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not do right is not of God, nor he who does not love his brother.

1 John 3:11 For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another,

1 John 3:12 and not be like Cain who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous.

1 John 3:13 Do not wonder, brethren, that the world hates you.

1 John 3:14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death.

1 John 3:15 Any one who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

1 John 3:16 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

1 John 3:17 But if any one has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him?

1 John 3:18 Little children, let us not love in word or speech but in deed and in truth.

1 John 3:19 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him

1 John 3:20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

1 John 3:21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God;

1 John 3:22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.

1 John 3:23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us.

1 John 3:24 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

1 John 4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world.

1 John 4:2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,

1 John 4:3 and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

1 John 4:4 Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.

1 John 4:5 They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them.

1 John 4:6 We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

1 John 4:7 Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God.

1 John 4:8 He who does not love does not know God; for God is love.

1 John 4:9 In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him.

1 John 4:10 In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins.

1 John 4:11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

1 John 4:12 No man has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

1 John 4:13 By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his own Spirit.

1 John 4:14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world.

1 John 4:15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

1 John 4:16 So we know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

1 John 4:17 In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so are we in this world.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love.

1 John 4:19 We love, because he first loved us.

1 John 4:20 If any one says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen.

1 John 4:21 And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

1 John 5:1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child.

1 John 5:2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments.

1 John 5:3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.

1 John 5:4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith.

1 John 5:5 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

1 John 5:6 This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood.

1 John 5:7 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth.

1 John 5:8 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree.

1 John 5:9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has borne witness to his Son.

1 John 5:10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne to his Son.

1 John 5:11 And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

1 John 5:12 He who has the Son has life; he who has not the Son of God has not life.

1 John 5:13 I write this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life.

1 John 5:14 And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us.

1 John 5:15 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him.

1 John 5:16 If any one sees his brother committing what is not a mortal sin, he will ask, and God will give him life for those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin which is mortal; I do not say that one is to pray for that.

1 John 5:17 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal.

1 John 5:18 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

1 John 5:19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one.

1 John 5:20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

1 John 5:21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John

1:1 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not only I but also all who know the truth,

2 John 1:2 because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us for ever:

2 John 1:3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love.

2 John 1:4 I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children following the truth, just as we have been commanded by the Father.

2 John 1:5 And now I beg you, lady, not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning, that we love one another.

2 John 1:6 And this is love, that we follow his commandments; this is the commandment, as you have heard from the beginning, that you follow love.

2 John 1:7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world, men who will not acknowledge the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh; such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist.

2 John 1:8 Look to yourselves, that you may not lose what you have worked for, but may win a full reward.

2 John 1:9 Any one who goes ahead and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God; he who abides in the doctrine has both the Father and the Son.

2 John 1:10 If any one comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into the house or give him any greeting;

2 John 1:11 for he who greets him shares his wicked work.

2 John 1:12 Though I have much to write to you, I would rather not use paper and ink, but I hope to come to see you and talk with you face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

2 John 1:13 The children of your elect sister greet you.

3 John

1:1 The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

3 John 1:2 Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in health; I know that it is well with your soul.

3 John 1:3 For I greatly rejoiced when some of the brethren arrived and testified to the truth of your life, as indeed you do follow the truth.

3 John 1:4 No greater joy can I have than this, to hear that my children follow the truth.

3 John 1:5 Beloved, it is a loyal thing you do when you render any service to the brethren, especially to strangers,

3 John 1:6 who have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey as befits God's service.

3 John 1:7 For they have set out for his sake and have accepted nothing from the heathen.

3 John 1:8 So we ought to support such men, that we may be fellow workers in the truth.

3 John 1:9 I have written something to the church; but Diotrephes, who likes to put himself first, does not acknowledge my authority.

3 John 1:10 So if I come, I will bring up what he is doing, prating against me with evil words. And not content with that, he refuses himself to welcome the brethren, and also stops those who want to welcome them and puts them out of the church.

3 John 1:11 Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. He who does good is of God; he who does evil has not seen God.

3 John 1:12 Demetrius has testimony from every one, and from the truth itself; I testify to him too, and you know my testimony is true.

3 John 1:13 I had much to write to you, but I would rather not write with pen and ink;

3 John 1:14 I hope to see you soon, and we will talk together face to face.

3 John 1:15 Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends, every one of them.

Juda

1:1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, To those who are called, beloved in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ:

Juda 1:2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Juda 1:3 Beloved, being very eager to write to you of our common salvation, I found it necessary to write appealing to you to contend for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints.

Juda 1:4 For admission has been secretly gained by some who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly persons who pervert the grace of our God into licentiousness and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Juda 1:5 Now I desire to remind you, though you were once for all fully informed, that he who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

Juda 1:6 And the angels that did not keep their own position but left their proper dwelling have been kept by him in eternal chains in the nether gloom until the judgment of the great day;

Juda 1:7 just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise acted immorally and indulged in unnatural lust, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

Juda 1:8 Yet in like manner these men in their dreamings defile the flesh, reject authority, and revile the glorious ones.

Juda 1:9 But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, disputed about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a reviling judgment upon him, but said, “The Lord rebuke you.”

Juda 1:10 But these men revile whatever they do not understand, and by those things that they know by instinct as irrational animals do, they are destroyed.

Juda 1:11 Woe to them! For they walk in the way of Cain, and abandon themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam’s error, and perish in Korah’s rebellion.

Juda 1:12 These are blemishes on your love feasts, as they boldly carouse together, looking after themselves; waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, twice dead, uprooted;

Juda 1:13 wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars for whom the nether gloom of darkness has been reserved for ever.

Juda 1:14 It was of these also that Enoch in the seventh generation from Adam prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord came with his holy myriads, Juda 1:15 to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness which they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.”

Juda 1:16 These are grumblers, malcontents, following their own passions, loud-mouthed boasters, flattering people to gain advantage.

Juda 1:17 But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

Juda 1:18 they said to you, “In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions.”

Juda 1:19 It is these who set up divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit.

Juda 1:20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up on your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit;

Juda 1:21 keep yourselves in the love of God; wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

Juda 1:22 And convince some, who doubt;

Juda 1:23 save some, by snatching them out of the fire; on some have mercy with fear, hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

Juda 1:24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you without blemish before the presence of his glory with rejoicing,

Juda 1:25 to the only God, our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and for ever. Amen.

Revelation

1:1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants what must soon take place; and he made it known by sending his angel to his servant John,

Revelation 1:2 who bore witness to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he saw.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is he who reads aloud the words of the prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written therein; for the time is near.

Revelation 1:4 John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne,

Revelation 1:5 and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the first-born of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood

Revelation 1:6 and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Revelation 1:7 Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, every one who pierced him; and all tribes of the earth will wail on account of him. Even so. Amen.

Revelation 1:8 “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

Revelation 1:9 I John, your brother, who share with you in Jesus the tribulation and the kingdom and the patient endurance, was on the island called Patmos on account of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet

Revelation 1:11 saying, “Write what you see in a book and send it to the seven churches, to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea.”

Revelation 1:12 Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me, and on turning I saw seven golden lampstands,

Revelation 1:13 and in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, clothed with a long robe and with a golden girdle round his breast;

Revelation 1:14 his head and his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; his eyes were like a flame of fire,

Revelation 1:15 his feet were like burnished bronze, refined as in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many waters;

Revelation 1:16 in his right hand he held seven stars, from his mouth issued a sharp two-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining in full strength.

Revelation 1:17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he laid his right hand upon me, saying, “Fear not, I am the first and the last,

Revelation 1:18 and the living one; I died, and behold I am alive for evermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades.

Revelation 1:19 Now write what you see, what is and what is to take place hereafter.

Revelation 1:20 As for the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands, the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Revelation 2:1 “To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: `The words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks among the seven golden lampstands.

Revelation 2:2 “`I know your works, your toil and your patient endurance, and how you cannot bear evil men but have tested those who call themselves apostles but are not, and found them to be false;

Revelation 2:3 I know you are enduring patiently and bearing up for my name’s sake, and you have not grown weary.

Revelation 2:4 But I have this against you, that you have abandoned the love you had at first.

Revelation 2:5 Remember then from what you have fallen, repent and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.

Revelation 2:6 Yet this you have, you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

Revelation 2:7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who conquers I will grant to eat of the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.’

Revelation 2:8 “And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: `The words of the first and the last, who died and came to life.

Revelation 2:9 “`I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich) and the slander of those who say that they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

Revelation 2:10 Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life.

Revelation 2:11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who conquers shall not be hurt by the second death.’

Revelation 2:12 “And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: `The words of him who has the sharp two-edged sword.

Revelation 2:13 “`I know where you dwell, where Satan’s throne is; you hold fast my name and you did not deny my faith even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

Revelation 2:14 But I have a few things against you: you have some there who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, that they might eat food sacrificed to idols and practice immorality.

Revelation 2:15 So you also have some who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

Revelation 2:16 Repent then. If not, I will come to you soon and war against them with the sword of my mouth.

Revelation 2:17 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who conquers I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, with a new name written on the stone which no one knows except him who receives it.’

Revelation 2:18 “And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: `The words of the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and whose feet are like burnished bronze.

Revelation 2:19 “`I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first.

Revelation 2:20 But I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and is teaching and beguiling my servants to practice immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols.

Revelation 2:21 I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her immorality.

Revelation 2:22 Behold, I will throw her on a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her I will throw into great tribulation, unless they repent of her doings;

Revelation 2:23 and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches shall know that I am he who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve.

Revelation 2:24 But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not learned what some call the deep things of Satan, to you I say, I do not lay upon you any other burden;

Revelation 2:25 only hold fast what you have, until I come.

Revelation 2:26 He who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, I will give him power over the nations,

Revelation 2:27 and he shall rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received power from my Father;

Revelation 2:28 and I will give him the morning star.

Revelation 2:29 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.’

Revelation 3:1 “And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: `The words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. “`I know your works; you have the name of being alive, and you are dead.

Revelation 3:2 Awake, and strengthen what remains and is on the point of death, for I have not found your works perfect in the sight of my God.

Revelation 3:3 Remember then what you received and heard; keep that, and repent. If you will not awake, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come upon you.

Revelation 3:4 Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white, for they are worthy.

Revelation 3:5 He who conquers shall be clad thus in white garments, and I will not blot his name out of the book of life; I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels.

Revelation 3:6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.’

Revelation 3:7 “And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: `The words of the holy one, the true one, who has the key of David, who opens and no one shall shut, who shuts and no one opens.

Revelation 3:8 “`I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut; I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

Revelation 3:9 Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie—behold, I will make them come and bow down before your feet, and learn that I have loved you.

Revelation 3:10 Because you have kept my word of patient endurance, I will keep you from the hour of trial which is coming on the whole world, to try those who dwell upon the earth.

Revelation 3:11 I am coming soon; hold fast what you have, so that no one may seize your crown.

Revelation 3:12 He who conquers, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God; never shall he go out of it, and I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem which comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name.

Revelation 3:13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

Revelation 3:14 "And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write: `The words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of God's creation.

Revelation 3:15 "`I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were cold or hot!

Revelation 3:16 So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of my mouth.

Revelation 3:17 For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing; not knowing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked.

Revelation 3:18 Therefore I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may be rich, and white garments to clothe you and to keep the shame of your nakedness from being seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see.

Revelation 3:19 Those whom I love, I reprove and chasten; so be zealous and repent.

Revelation 3:20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any one hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me.

Revelation 3:21 He who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I myself conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne.

Revelation 3:22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'"

Revelation 4:1 After this I looked, and lo, in heaven an open door! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, "Come up hither, and I will show you what must take place after this."

Revelation 4:2 At once I was in the Spirit, and lo, a throne stood in heaven, with one seated on the throne!

Revelation 4:3 And he who sat there appeared like jasper and carnelian, and round the throne was a rainbow that looked like an emerald.

Revelation 4:4 Round the throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four elders, clad in white garments, with golden crowns upon their heads.

Revelation 4:5 From the throne issue flashes of lightning, and voices and peals of thunder, and before the throne burn seven torches of fire, which are the seven spirits of God;

Revelation 4:6 and before the throne there is as it were a sea of glass, like crystal. And round the throne, on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind:

Revelation 4:7 the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with the face of a man, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle.

Revelation 4:8 And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all round and within, and day and night they never cease to sing, “Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!”

Revelation 4:9 And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to him who is seated on the throne, who lives for ever and ever,

Revelation 4:10 the twenty-four elders fall down before him who is seated on the throne and worship him who lives for ever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing,

Revelation 4:11 “Worthy art thou, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for thou didst create all things, and by thy will they existed and were created.”

Revelation 5:1 And I saw in the right hand of him who was seated on the throne a scroll written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals;

Revelation 5:2 and I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?”

Revelation 5:3 And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it,

Revelation 5:4 and I wept much that no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

Revelation 5:5 Then one of the elders said to me, “Weep not; lo, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.”

Revelation 5:6 And between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders, I saw a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, with seven horns and with seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth;

Revelation 5:7 and he went and took the scroll from the right hand of him who was seated on the throne.

Revelation 5:8 And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and with golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints;

Revelation 5:9 and they sang a new song, saying, “Worthy art thou to take the scroll and to open its seals, for thou wast slain and by thy blood didst ransom men for God from every tribe and tongue and people and nation,

Revelation 5:10 and hast made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on earth.”

Revelation 5:11 Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands,

Revelation 5:12 saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”

Revelation 5:13 And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all therein, saying, “To him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might for ever and ever!”

Revelation 5:14 And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” and the elders fell down and worshiped.

Revelation 6:1 Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say, as with a voice of thunder, “Come!”

Revelation 6:2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and its rider had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

Revelation 6:3 When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come!”

Revelation 6:4 And out came another horse, bright red; its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that men should slay one another; and he was given a great sword.

Revelation 6:5 When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come!” And I saw, and behold, a black horse, and its rider had a balance in his hand;

Revelation 6:6 and I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; but do not harm oil and wine!”

Revelation 6:7 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come!”

Revelation 6:8 And I saw, and behold, a pale horse, and its rider’s name was Death, and Hades followed him; and they were given power over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by wild beasts of the earth.

Revelation 6:9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne;

Revelation 6:10 they cried out with a loud voice, “O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before thou wilt judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell upon the earth?”

Revelation 6:11 Then they were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brethren should be complete, who were to be killed as they themselves had been.

Revelation 6:12 When he opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood,

Revelation 6:13 and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as the fig tree sheds its winter fruit when shaken by a gale;

Revelation 6:14 the sky vanished like a scroll that is rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

Revelation 6:15 Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the generals and the rich and the strong, and every one, slave and free, hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains,

Revelation 6:16 calling to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who is seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb;

Revelation 6:17 for the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand before it?”

Revelation 7:1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, that no wind might blow on earth or sea or against any tree.

Revelation 7:2 Then I saw another angel ascend from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm earth and sea,

Revelation 7:3 saying, “Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God upon their foreheads.”

Revelation 7:4 And I heard the number of the sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand sealed, out of every tribe of the sons of Israel,

Revelation 7:5 twelve thousand sealed out of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand of the tribe of Gad,

Revelation 7:6 twelve thousand of the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand of the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand of the tribe of Manasseh,

Revelation 7:7 twelve thousand of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand of the tribe of Issachar,

Revelation 7:8 twelve thousand of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand sealed out of the tribe of Benjamin.

Revelation 7:9 After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no man could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands,

Revelation 7:10 and crying out with a loud voice, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb!”

Revelation 7:11 And all the angels stood round the throne and round the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

Revelation 7:12 saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.”

Revelation 7:13 Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, clothed in white robes, and whence have they come?”

Revelation 7:14 I said to him, “Sir, you know.” And he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 7:15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night within his temple; and he who sits upon the throne will shelter them with his presence.

Revelation 7:16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat.

Revelation 7:17 For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Revelation 8:1 When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Revelation 8:2 Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

Revelation 8:3 And another angel came and stood at the altar with a golden censer; and he was given much incense to mingle with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar before the throne;

Revelation 8:4 and the smoke of the incense rose with the prayers of the saints from the hand of the angel before God.

Revelation 8:5 Then the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar and threw it on the earth; and there were peals of thunder, voices, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

Revelation 8:6 Now the seven angels who had the seven trumpets made ready to blow them.

Revelation 8:7 The first angel blew his trumpet, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, which fell on the earth; and a third of the earth was burnt up, and a third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

Revelation 8:8 The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire, was thrown into the sea;

Revelation 8:9 and a third of the sea became blood, a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Revelation 8:10 The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, blazing like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the fountains of water.

Revelation 8:11 The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died of the water, because it was made bitter.

Revelation 8:12 The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of their light was darkened; a third of the day was kept from shining, and likewise a third of the night.

Revelation 8:13 Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying with a loud voice, as it flew in midheaven, “Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, at the blasts of the other trumpets which the three angels are about to blow!”

Revelation 9:1 And the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star fallen from heaven to earth, and he was given the key of the shaft of the bottomless pit;

Revelation 9:2 he opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and from the shaft rose smoke like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened with the smoke from the shaft.

Revelation 9:3 Then from the smoke came locusts on the earth, and they were given power like the power of scorpions of the earth;

Revelation 9:4 they were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any green growth or any tree, but only those of mankind who have not the seal of God upon their foreheads;

Revelation 9:5 they were allowed to torture them for five months, but not to kill them, and their torture was like the torture of a scorpion, when it stings a man.

Revelation 9:6 And in those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, and death will fly from them.

Revelation 9:7 In appearance the locusts were like horses arrayed for battle; on their heads were what looked like crowns of gold; their faces were like human faces,

Revelation 9:8 their hair like women’s hair, and their teeth like lions’ teeth;

Revelation 9:9 they had scales like iron breastplates, and the noise of their wings was like the noise of many chariots with horses rushing into battle.

Revelation 9:10 They have tails like scorpions, and stings, and their power of hurting men for five months lies in their tails.

Revelation 9:11 They have as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he is called Apollyon.

Revelation 9:12 The first woe has passed; behold, two woes are still to come.

Revelation 9:13 Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God,

Revelation 9:14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.”

Revelation 9:15 So the four angels were released, who had been held ready for the hour, the day, the month, and the year, to kill a third of mankind.

Revelation 9:16 The number of the troops of cavalry was twice ten thousand times ten thousand; I heard their number.

Revelation 9:17 And this was how I saw the horses in my vision: the riders wore breastplates the color of fire and of sapphire and of sulphur, and the heads of the horses were like lions’ heads, and fire and smoke and sulphur issued from their mouths.

Revelation 9:18 By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed, by the fire and smoke and sulphur issuing from their mouths.

Revelation 9:19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; their tails are like serpents, with heads, and by means of them they wound.

Revelation 9:20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot either see or hear or walk;

Revelation 9:21 nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their immorality or their thefts.

Revelation 10:1 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud, with a rainbow over his head, and his face was like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire.

Revelation 10:2 He had a little scroll open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea, and his left foot on the land,

Revelation 10:3 and called out with a loud voice, like a lion roaring; when he called out, the seven thunders sounded.

Revelation 10:4 And when the seven thunders had sounded, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and do not write it down.”

Revelation 10:5 And the angel whom I saw standing on sea and land lifted up his right hand to heaven

Revelation 10:6 and swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it, that there should be no more delay,

Revelation 10:7 but that in the days of the trumpet call to be sounded by the seventh angel, the mystery of God, as he announced to his servants the prophets, should be fulfilled.

Revelation 10:8 Then the voice which I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, “Go, take the scroll which is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

Revelation 10:9 So I went to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll; and he said to me, “Take it and eat; it will be bitter to your stomach, but sweet as honey in your mouth.”

Revelation 10:10 And I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it; it was sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it my stomach was made bitter.

Revelation 10:11 And I was told, “You must again prophesy about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.”

Revelation 11:1 Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff, and I was told: “Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship there,

Revelation 11:2 but do not measure the court outside the temple; leave that out, for it is given over to the nations, and they will trample over the holy city for forty-two months.

Revelation 11:3 And I will grant my two witnesses power to prophesy for one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.”

Revelation 11:4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands which stand before the Lord of the earth.

Revelation 11:5 And if any one would harm them, fire pours out from their mouth and consumes their foes; if any one would harm them, thus he is doomed to be killed.

Revelation 11:6 They have power to shut the sky, that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying, and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.

Revelation 11:7 And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that ascends from the bottomless pit will make war upon them and conquer them and kill them,

Revelation 11:8 and their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which is allegorically called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was crucified.

Revelation 11:9 For three days and a half men from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations gaze at their dead bodies and refuse to let them be placed in a tomb,

Revelation 11:10 and those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and make merry and exchange presents, because these two prophets had been a torment to those who dwell on the earth.

Revelation 11:11 But after the three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them.

Revelation 11:12 Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up hither!” And in the sight of their foes they went up to heaven in a cloud.

Revelation 11:13 And at that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

Revelation 11:14 The second woe has passed; behold, the third woe is soon to come.

Revelation 11:15 Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, “The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever.”

Revelation 11:16 And the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God,

Revelation 11:17 saying, “We give thanks to thee, Lord God Almighty, who art and who wast, that thou hast taken thy great power and begun to reign.

Revelation 11:18 The nations raged, but thy wrath came, and the time for the dead to be judged, for rewarding thy servants, the prophets and saints, and those who fear thy name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth."

Revelation 11:19 Then God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple; and there were flashes of lightning, voices, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.

Revelation 12:1 And a great portent appeared in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars;

Revelation 12:2 she was with child and she cried out in her pangs of birth, in anguish for delivery.

Revelation 12:3 And another portent appeared in heaven; behold, a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems upon his heads.

Revelation 12:4 His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, that he might devour her child when she brought it forth;

Revelation 12:5 she brought forth a male child, one who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, but her child was caught up to God and to his throne,

Revelation 12:6 and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, in which to be nourished for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Revelation 12:7 Now war arose in heaven, Michael and his angels fighting against the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought,

Revelation 12:8 but they were defeated and there was no longer any place for them in heaven.

Revelation 12:9 And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

Revelation 12:10 And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God.

Revelation 12:11 And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death.

Revelation 12:12 Rejoice then, O heaven and you that dwell therein! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!"

Revelation 12:13 And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had borne the male child.

Revelation 12:14 But the woman was given the two wings of the great eagle that she might fly from the serpent into the wilderness, to the place where she is to be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time.

Revelation 12:15 The serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, to sweep her away with the flood.

Revelation 12:16 But the earth came to the help of the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river which the dragon had poured from his mouth.

Revelation 12:17 Then the dragon was angry with the woman, and went off to make war on the rest of her offspring, on those who keep the commandments of God and bear testimony to Jesus. And he stood on the sand of the sea.

Revelation 13:1 And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, with ten horns and seven heads, with ten diadems upon its horns and a blasphemous name upon its heads.

Revelation 13:2 And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. And to it the dragon gave his power and his throne and great authority.

Revelation 13:3 One of its heads seemed to have a mortal wound, but its mortal wound was healed, and the whole earth followed the beast with wonder.

Revelation 13:4 Men worshiped the dragon, for he had given his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who can fight against it?"

Revelation 13:5 And the beast was given a mouth uttering haughty and blasphemous words, and it was allowed to exercise authority for forty-two months;

Revelation 13:6 it opened its mouth to utter blasphemies against God, blaspheming his name and his dwelling, that is, those who dwell in heaven.

Revelation 13:7 Also it was allowed to make war on the saints and to conquer them. And authority was given it over every tribe and people and tongue and nation,

Revelation 13:8 and all who dwell on earth will worship it, every one whose name has not been written before the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb that was slain.

Revelation 13:9 If any one has an ear, let him hear:

Revelation 13:10 If any one is to be taken captive, to captivity he goes; if any one slays with the sword, with the sword must he be slain. Here is a call for the endurance and faith of the saints.

Revelation 13:11 Then I saw another beast which rose out of the earth; it had two horns like a lamb and it spoke like a dragon.

Revelation 13:12 It exercises all the authority of the first beast in its presence, and makes the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose mortal wound was healed.

Revelation 13:13 It works great signs, even making fire come down from heaven to earth in the sight of men;

Revelation 13:14 and by the signs which it is allowed to work in the presence of the beast, it deceives those who dwell on earth, bidding them make an image for the beast which was wounded by the sword and yet lived;

Revelation 13:15 and it was allowed to give breath to the image of the beast so that the image of the beast should even speak, and to cause those who would not worship the image of the beast to be slain.

Revelation 13:16 Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to be marked on the right hand or the forehead,

Revelation 13:17 so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark, that is, the name of the beast or the number of its name.

Revelation 13:18 This calls for wisdom: let him who has understanding reckon the number of the beast, for it is a human number, its number is six hundred and sixty-six.

Revelation 14:1 Then I looked, and lo, on Mount Zion stood the Lamb, and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

Revelation 14:2 And I heard a voice from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder; the voice I heard was like the sound of harpers playing on their harps,

Revelation 14:3 and they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and before the elders. No one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been redeemed from the earth.

Revelation 14:4 It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are chaste; it is these who follow the Lamb wherever he goes; these have been redeemed from mankind as first fruits for God and the Lamb,

Revelation 14:5 and in their mouth no lie was found, for they are spotless.

Revelation 14:6 Then I saw another angel flying in midheaven, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and tongue and people;

Revelation 14:7 and he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come; and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the fountains of water."

Revelation 14:8 Another angel, a second, followed, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, she who made all nations drink the wine of her impure passion.”

Revelation 14:9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, “If any one worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand,

Revelation 14:10 he also shall drink the wine of God’s wrath, poured unmixed into the cup of his anger, and he shall be tormented with fire and sulphur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

Revelation 14:11 And the smoke of their torment goes up for ever and ever; and they have no rest, day or night, these worshipers of the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name.”

Revelation 14:12 Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

Revelation 14:13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth.” “Blessed indeed,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!”

Revelation 14:14 Then I looked, and lo, a white cloud, and seated on the cloud one like a son of man, with a golden crown on his head, and a sharp sickle in his hand.

Revelation 14:15 And another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to him who sat upon the cloud, “Put in your sickle, and reap, for the hour to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is fully ripe.”

Revelation 14:16 So he who sat upon the cloud swung his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

Revelation 14:17 And another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle.

Revelation 14:18 Then another angel came out from the altar, the angel who has power over fire, and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, “Put in your sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for its grapes are ripe.”

Revelation 14:19 So the angel swung his sickle on the earth and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God;

Revelation 14:20 and the wine press was trodden outside the city, and blood flowed from the wine press, as high as a horse’s bridle, for one thousand six hundred stadia.

Revelation 15:1 Then I saw another portent in heaven, great and wonderful, seven angels with seven plagues, which are the last, for with them the wrath of God is ended.

Revelation 15:2 And I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name, standing beside the sea of glass with harps of God in their hands.

Revelation 15:3 And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, “Great and wonderful are thy deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are thy ways, O King of the ages!

Revelation 15:4 Who shall not fear and glorify thy name, O Lord? For thou alone art holy. All nations shall come and worship thee, for thy judgments have been revealed.”

Revelation 15:5 After this I looked, and the temple of the tent of witness in heaven was opened,

Revelation 15:6 and out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues, robed in pure bright linen, and their breasts girded with golden girdles.

Revelation 15:7 And one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives for ever and ever;

Revelation 15:8 and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were ended.

Revelation 16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God.”

Revelation 16:2 So the first angel went and poured his bowl on the earth, and foul and evil sores came upon the men who bore the mark of the beast and worshiped its image.

Revelation 16:3 The second angel poured his bowl into the sea, and it became like the blood of a dead man, and every living thing died that was in the sea.

Revelation 16:4 The third angel poured his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of water, and they became blood.

Revelation 16:5 And I heard the angel of water say, “Just art thou in these thy judgments, thou who art and wast, O Holy One.

Revelation 16:6 For men have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink. It is their due!”

Revelation 16:7 And I heard the altar cry, “Yea, Lord God the Almighty, true and just are thy judgments!”

Revelation 16:8 The fourth angel poured his bowl on the sun, and it was allowed to scorch men with fire;

Revelation 16:9 men were scorched by the fierce heat, and they cursed the name of God who had power over these plagues, and they did not repent and give him glory.

Revelation 16:10 The fifth angel poured his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was in darkness; men gnawed their tongues in anguish

Revelation 16:11 and cursed the God of heaven for their pain and sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

Revelation 16:12 The sixth angel poured his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, to prepare the way for the kings from the east.

Revelation 16:13 And I saw, issuing from the mouth of the dragon and from the mouth of the beast and from the mouth of the false prophet, three foul spirits like frogs;

Revelation 16:14 for they are demonic spirits, performing signs, who go abroad to the kings of the whole world, to assemble them for battle on the great day of God the Almighty.

Revelation 16:15 ("Lo, I am coming like a thief! Blessed is he who is awake, keeping his garments that he may not go naked and be seen exposed!")

Revelation 16:16 And they assembled them at the place which is called in Hebrew Armageddon.

Revelation 16:17 The seventh angel poured his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"

Revelation 16:18 And there were flashes of lightning, voices, peals of thunder, and a great earthquake such as had never been since men were on the earth, so great was that earthquake.

Revelation 16:19 The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and God remembered great Babylon, to make her drain the cup of the fury of his wrath.

Revelation 16:20 And every island fled away, and no mountains were to be found;

Revelation 16:21 and great hailstones, heavy as a hundred-weight, dropped on men from heaven, till men cursed God for the plague of the hail, so fearful was that plague.

Revelation 17:1 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who is seated upon many waters, Revelation 17:2 with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and with the wine of whose fornication the dwellers on earth have become drunk."

Revelation 17:3 And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of blasphemous names, and it had seven heads and ten horns.

Revelation 17:4 The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and bedecked with gold and jewels and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her fornication;

Revelation 17:5 and on her forehead was written a name of mystery: “Babylon the great, mother of harlots and of earth’s abominations.”

Revelation 17:6 And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her I marveled greatly.

Revelation 17:7 But the angel said to me, “Why marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns that carries her.

Revelation 17:8 The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is to ascend from the bottomless pit and go to perdition; and the dwellers on earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will marvel to behold the beast, because it was and is not and is to come.

Revelation 17:9 This calls for a mind with wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated;

Revelation 17:10 they are also seven kings, five of whom have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, and when he comes he must remain only a little while.

Revelation 17:11 As for the beast that was and is not, it is an eighth but it belongs to the seven, and it goes to perdition.

Revelation 17:12 And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received royal power, but they are to receive authority as kings for one hour, together with the beast.

Revelation 17:13 These are of one mind and give over their power and authority to the beast;

Revelation 17:14 they will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called and chosen and faithful.”

Revelation 17:15 And he said to me, “The waters that you saw, where the harlot is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.

Revelation 17:16 And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the harlot; they will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh and burn her up with fire,

Revelation 17:17 for God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by being of one mind and giving over their royal power to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

Revelation 17:18 And the woman that you saw is the great city which has dominion over the kings of the earth.”

Revelation 18:1 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was made bright with his splendor.

Revelation 18:2 And he called out with a mighty voice, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! It has become a dwelling place of demons, a haunt of every foul spirit, a haunt of every foul and hateful bird;

Revelation 18:3 for all nations have drunk the wine of her impure passion, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich with the wealth of her wantonness.”

Revelation 18:4 Then I heard another voice from heaven saying, “Come out of her, my people, lest you take part in her sins, lest you share in her plagues;

Revelation 18:5 for her sins are heaped high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.

Revelation 18:6 Render to her as she herself has rendered, and repay her double for her deeds; mix a double draught for her in the cup she mixed.

Revelation 18:7 As she glorified herself and played the wanton, so give her a like measure of torment and mourning. Since in her heart she says, `A queen I sit, I am no widow, mourning I shall never see,’ Revelation 18:8 so shall her plagues come in a single day, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she shall be burned with fire; for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.”

Revelation 18:9 And the kings of the earth, who committed fornication and were wanton with her, will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning;

Revelation 18:10 they will stand far off, in fear of her torment, and say, “Alas! alas! thou great city, thou mighty city, Babylon! In one hour has thy judgment come.”

Revelation 18:11 And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, since no one buys their cargo any more,

Revelation 18:12 cargo of gold, silver, jewels and pearls, fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet, all kinds of scented wood, all articles of ivory, all articles of costly wood, bronze, iron and marble,

Revelation 18:13 cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and slaves, that is, human souls.

Revelation 18:14 “The fruit for which thy soul longed has gone from thee, and all thy dainties and thy splendor are lost to thee, never to be found again!”

Revelation 18:15 The merchants of these wares, who gained wealth from her, will stand far off, in fear of her torment, weeping and mourning aloud,

Revelation 18:16 "Alas, alas, for the great city that was clothed in fine linen, in purple and scarlet, bedecked with gold, with jewels, and with pearls!

Revelation 18:17 In one hour all this wealth has been laid waste." And all shipmasters and seafaring men, sailors and all whose trade is on the sea, stood far off

Revelation 18:18 and cried out as they saw the smoke of her burning, "What city was like the great city?"

Revelation 18:19 And they threw dust on their heads, as they wept and mourned, crying out, "Alas, alas, for the great city where all who had ships at sea grew rich by her wealth! In one hour she has been laid waste.

Revelation 18:20 Rejoice over her, O heaven, O saints and apostles and prophets, for God has given judgment for you against her!"

Revelation 18:21 Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "So shall Babylon the great city be thrown down with violence, and shall be found no more;

Revelation 18:22 and the sound of harpers and minstrels, of flute players and trumpeters, shall be heard in thee no more; and a craftsman of any craft shall be found in thee no more; and the sound of the millstone shall be heard in thee no more;

Revelation 18:23 and the light of a lamp shall shine in thee no more; and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall be heard in thee no more; for thy merchants were the great men of the earth, and all nations were deceived by thy sorcery.

Revelation 18:24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on earth."

Revelation 19:1 After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, Revelation 19:2 for his judgments are true and just; he has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he has avenged on her the blood of his servants."

Revelation 19:3 Once more they cried, "Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up for ever and ever."

Revelation 19:4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!"

Revelation 19:5 And from the throne came a voice crying, "Praise our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, small and great."

Revelation 19:6 Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty thunderpeals, crying, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns.

Revelation 19:7 Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready;

Revelation 19:8 it was granted her to be clothed with fine linen, bright and pure”—for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

Revelation 19:9 And the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.” And he said to me, “These are true words of God.”

Revelation 19:10 Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, “You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God.” For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

Revelation 19:11 Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! He who sat upon it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war.

Revelation 19:12 His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems; and he has a name inscribed which no one knows but himself.

Revelation 19:13 He is clad in a robe dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God.

Revelation 19:14 And the armies of heaven, arrayed in fine linen, white and pure, followed him on white horses.

Revelation 19:15 From his mouth issues a sharp sword with which to smite the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron; he will tread the wine press of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty.

Revelation 19:16 On his robe and on his thigh he has a name inscribed, King of kings and Lord of lords.

Revelation 19:17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he called to all the birds that fly in midheaven, “Come, gather for the great supper of God, Revelation 19:18 to eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great.”

Revelation 19:19 And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against him who sits upon the horse and against his army.

Revelation 19:20 And the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who in its presence had worked the signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped its image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulphur.

Revelation 19:21 And the rest were slain by the sword of him who sits upon the horse, the sword that issues from his mouth; and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

Revelation 20:1 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain.

Revelation 20:2 And he seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years,

Revelation 20:3 and threw him into the pit, and shut it and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years were ended. After that he must be loosed for a little while.

Revelation 20:4 Then I saw thrones, and seated on them were those to whom judgment was committed. Also I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony to Jesus and for the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life, and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

Revelation 20:5 The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended. This is the first resurrection.

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy is he who shares in the first resurrection! Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and they shall reign with him a thousand years.

Revelation 20:7 And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be loosed from his prison

Revelation 20:8 and will come out to deceive the nations which are at the four corners of the earth, that is, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle; their number is like the sand of the sea.

Revelation 20:9 And they marched up over the broad earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city; but fire came down from heaven and consumed them,

Revelation 20:10 and the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulphur where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

Revelation 20:11 Then I saw a great white throne and him who sat upon it; from his presence earth and sky fled away, and no place was found for them.

Revelation 20:12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Also another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was written in the books, by what they had done.

Revelation 20:13 And the sea gave up the dead in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead in them, and all were judged by what they had done.

Revelation 20:14 Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire;

Revelation 20:15 and if any one's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

Revelation 21:2 And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband;

Revelation 21:3 and I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them;

Revelation 21:4 he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away."

Revelation 21:5 And he who sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true."

Revelation 21:6 And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the fountain of the water of life without payment.

Revelation 21:7 He who conquers shall have this heritage, and I will be his God and he shall be my son.

Revelation 21:8 But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the polluted, as for murderers, fornicators, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their lot shall be in the lake that burns with fire and sulphur, which is the second death."

Revelation 21:9 Then came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues, and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb."

Revelation 21:10 And in the Spirit he carried me away to a great, high mountain, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God,

Revelation 21:11 having the glory of God, its radiance like a most rare jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal.

Revelation 21:12 It had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were inscribed;

Revelation 21:13 on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

Revelation 21:14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Revelation 21:15 And he who talked to me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city and its gates and walls.

Revelation 21:16 The city lies foursquare, its length the same as its breadth; and he measured the city with his rod, twelve thousand stadia; its length and breadth and height are equal.

Revelation 21:17 He also measured its wall, a hundred and forty-four cubits by a man’s measure, that is, an angel’s.

Revelation 21:18 The wall was built of jasper, while the city was pure gold, clear as glass.

Revelation 21:19 The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every jewel; the first was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald,

Revelation 21:20 the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

Revelation 21:21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, each of the gates made of a single pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

Revelation 21:22 And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb.

Revelation 21:23 And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb.

Revelation 21:24 By its light shall the nations walk; and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory into it,

Revelation 21:25 and its gates shall never be shut by day—and there shall be no night there;

Revelation 21:26 they shall bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations.

Revelation 21:27 But nothing unclean shall enter it, nor any one who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb’s book of life.

Revelation 22:1 Then he showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb

Revelation 22:2 through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

Revelation 22:3 There shall no more be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall worship him;

Revelation 22:4 they shall see his face, and his name shall be on their foreheads.

Revelation 22:5 And night shall be no more; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they shall reign for ever and ever.

Revelation 22:6 And he said to me, “These words are trustworthy and true. And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place.

Revelation 22:7 And behold, I am coming soon.” Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.

Revelation 22:8 I John am he who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me;

Revelation 22:9 but he said to me, “You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brethren the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God.”

Revelation 22:10 And he said to me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

Revelation 22:11 Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy.”

Revelation 22:12 “Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense, to repay every one for what he has done.

Revelation 22:13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.”

Revelation 22:14 Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates.

Revelation 22:15 Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and fornicators and murderers and idolaters, and every one who loves and practices falsehood.

Revelation 22:16 “I Jesus have sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright morning star.”

Revelation 22:17 The Spirit and the Bride say, “Come.” And let him who hears say, “Come.” And let him who is thirsty come, let him who desires take the water of life without price.

Revelation 22:18 I warn every one who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if any one adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book, Revelation 22:19 and if any one takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

Revelation 22:20 He who testifies to these things says, “Surely I am coming soon.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

Revelation 22:21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.

Genesis

1:1 At the first God made the heaven and the earth.

Genesis 1:2 And the earth was waste and without form; and it was dark on the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God was moving on the face of the waters.

Genesis 1:3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

Genesis 1:4 And God, looking on the light, saw that it was good: and God made a division between the light and the dark,
